<sup>17</sup>Also, I fed 150 Jews and officers at my table. And I fed those who came from the nations around us. <sup>18</sup>This is what was prepared every day for me and those who ate with me: one ox, six good sheep, and birds. And every ten days there were all kinds of wine. But I never demanded the food that was allowed for the governor. This was because the people were already working very hard.

<sup>19</sup>Remember, my God, to be kind to me. Remember all the good I have done for these people.

More Problems for Nehemiah

6 Then Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab and our other enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall. There was not one gap in it.

But I had not yet set the doors in the gates. <sup>2</sup>So Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: "Come, Nehemiah, let's meet together in Kephirim on the plain of Ono."

But they were planning to harm me. <sup>3</sup>So I sent messengers to them with this answer: "I am doing a great work. I can't come down. I don't want the work to stop while I leave to meet you." <sup>4</sup>Sanballat and Geshem sent the same message to me four times. And I sent back the same answer each time.

<sup>5</sup>The fifth time Sanballat sent his helper to me with the message. And in his hand was an unsealed letter. <sup>6</sup>This is what was written:

A report is going around to all the nations. And Geshem says it is true. It says you and the Jews are planning to turn against the king. That's why you are rebuilding the wall. They say you are going to be their king. <sup>7</sup>They say you have appointed prophets<sup>d</sup> to announce in Jerusalem: "There is a king of Judah!" The king will hear about this. So come, let's discuss this together.

<sup>8</sup>So I sent him back this answer: "Nothing you are saying is really happening. You are just making it up in your own mind."

<sup>9</sup>Our enemies were trying to scare us. They were thinking, "They will get too weak to work. Then the wall will not be finished."

But I prayed, "God, make me strong."

<sup>10</sup>One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah. Delaiah was the son of Mehetabel. Shemaiah had to stay at home. He said, "Nehemiah, let's meet in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God. Let's go inside the Temple and close the doors because men are coming at night to kill you."

<sup>11</sup>But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Should I run into the Temple to save my life? I will not go." <sup>12</sup>I knew that God had not sent him. Tobiah and Sanballat had paid him to prophesy against me. <sup>13</sup>They paid him to frighten me so I would do this and sin. Then they could give me a bad name to shame me.

<sup>14</sup>I prayed, "Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, my God. Remember what they have done. Also remember the prophetess Noadiah and the other prophets who have been trying to frighten me."

The Wall Is Finished

<sup>15</sup>So the wall of Jerusalem was completed. It was on the twenty-fifth day of the month of Elul. It took 52 days to rebuild. <sup>16</sup>Then all our enemies heard about it. And all the nations around us saw it. So they were shamed. They understood that the work had been done with the help of our God.

<sup>17</sup>Also in those days the important men of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah. And Tobiah answered them. <sup>18</sup>Many Jews had promised to be faithful to Tobiah. This was because Tobiah was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah. And Tobiah's son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah. <sup>19</sup>Those important men kept telling me about the good things Tobiah was doing. Then they would tell Tobiah what I said about him. So Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

7 After the wall had been rebuilt, I had set the doors in place. Then the gatekeepers, singers and Levites were chosen. <sup>21</sup>I put my brother Hanani, along with Hananiah, in charge of Jerusalem. Hananiah was commander of the palace. He was honest, and he feared God more than most men. <sup>31</sup>I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem should not be opened until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, have them shut and bolt the doors. Appoint people who live in Jerusalem as guards. Put some at guard posts and some near their own houses."

The Captives Who Returned

<sup>4</sup>The city was large and full of room. But there were few people in it. And the houses had not yet been rebuilt. <sup>5</sup>So my God caused me to gather the people. I gathered the important men, the leaders and the common people. This was so I could register them by families. I found the family history of those who had returned first. This is what I found written there:

<sup>63</sup>And these priests could not prove that their families came from Israel: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai. (He had married a daughter of Barzillai from Gilead and was called by her family name.)

could not be priests because they were thought to be unclean.<sup>a</sup> <sup>65</sup>So the governor ordered them not to eat any of the food offered to God. First a priest had to settle this matter by using the Urim and Thummim.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>70</sup>Some of the family leaders gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury about 19 pounds of gold. He also gave 50 bowls and 530 pieces of clothing for the priests. <sup>71</sup>Some of the family leaders gave about 375 pounds of gold to the treasury for the work. They also gave about 2,660 pounds of silver. <sup>72</sup>This is the total of what the other people gave: about 375 pounds of gold, about 2,250 pounds of silver and 67 pieces of clothing for the priests. <sup>73</sup>So these people all settled in their own towns: the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Temple servants and all the other people of Israel.

Ezra Reads the Teachings

By the seventh month the Israelites were settled in their own towns.

8 All the people of Israel gathered together in the square by the Water Gate. They asked Ezra the teacher to bring out the Book of the Teachings of Moses. These are the Teachings the Lord had given to Israel.

<sup>2</sup>So Ezra the priest brought out the Teachings for the crowd. This was on the first day of the seventh month. Men, women and all who could listen and understand had gathered. <sup>3</sup>Ezra read the Teachings out loud. He read from early morning until noon. He was facing the square by the Water Gate. He read to the men, women and everyone who could listen and understand. All the people listened carefully to the Book of the Teachings.

<sup>5</sup>Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was above them. As he opened it, all the people stood up. <sup>6</sup>Ezra praised the Lord, the great God. And all the people held up their hands and said, "Amen! Amen!" Then they bowed down and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>These Levites taught the people the Teachings as they stood there: Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Peliah. <sup>8</sup>They read the Book of the Teachings of God. They read so the people could understand. And they explained what it meant. Then the people understood what was being read.

<sup>9</sup>Then Nehemiah the governor and Ezra the priest and teacher spoke up. And the Levites who were teaching spoke up. They said to all the people, "This is a holy day to the Lord your God. Don't be sad or cry." All the people had been crying as they listened to the words of the Teachings.

<sup>10</sup>Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy good food and sweet drinks. Send some to people who have none. Today is a holy day to the Lord. Don't be sad. The joy of the Lord will make you strong."

<sup>11</sup>The Levites helped calm the people. They said, "Be quiet. This is a holy day. Don't be sad."

<sup>13</sup>On the second day of the month, the leaders of all the families met with Ezra the teacher. The priests and Levites also met with him. They gathered to study the words of the Teachings. <sup>14</sup>This is what they found written in the Teachings: The Lord had commanded through Moses that the people of Israel were to live in shelters. This was during the feast of the seventh month. <sup>15</sup>The people were supposed to preach this message. They were to spread it through all of their towns and in Jerusalem: "Go out into the mountains. Bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, myrtle trees, palms and shade trees. Make shelters with them. It is written in the Law."

<sup>18</sup>Ezra read to them from the Book of the Teachings. He read every day, from the first day to the last. The people of Israel celebrated the feast for seven days. Then on the eighth day the people gathered as the law said.

Israel Confesses Sins

9 It was on the twenty-fourth day of that same month. The people of Israel gathered together. They did not eat. And they put on rough cloth and put dust on their heads. This was to show their sadness. <sup>2</sup>Those people whose ancestors were from Israel had separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood and confessed their sins and their ancestors' sins. <sup>3</sup>For a fourth of the day they stood where they were. And they read from the Book of the Teachings of the Lord their God. Then they spent another fourth of the day confessing their sins. And they worshiped the Lord their God. <sup>4</sup>These Levites were standing on the stairs: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kanani. They called out to the Lord their God with loud voices. <sup>5</sup>And these Levites spoke: Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah. They said, "Stand up and praise the Lord your God. He lives forever and ever."

The People's Prayer

"Blessed be your wonderful name.

It is more wonderful than all blessing and praise.

You made the heavens, even the highest heavens.

You made all the stars.

You made the earth and everything that is on it.

You made the seas and everything that is in them.

You give life to everything.

The heavenly army worships you.

<sup>7</sup>"You are the Lord God.

You chose Abram.

You brought him out of Ur of the Babylonians.

You named him Abraham.

<sup>8</sup>You found that he was faithful to you.

So you made an agreement with him.

You promised to give his descendants<sup>d</sup> the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites,

Perizzites, Jebusites and Gergashites.

You have kept your promise.

You are fair.

<sup>a</sup>roofs In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

- 9<sup>a</sup>You saw our ancestors suffering in Egypt.
You heard them cry out at the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup>
- 10<sup>a</sup>You did signs and miracles<sup>d</sup> against the king of Egypt.
And you did them against all his officers and all the people of Egypt.
You knew how proud they were.
You made everyone know your name.
And it is still known today.
- 11<sup>a</sup>You divided the sea in front of our ancestors.
They walked through it on dry ground.
But you threw the people chasing them into the deep water.
They were like a stone being thrown into mighty waters.
- 12<sup>a</sup>You led our ancestors with a pillar of cloud in the daytime.
And you led them with a pillar of fire at night.
It lit the way they were supposed to go.
- 13<sup>a</sup>You came down to Mount Sinai.
You talked to our ancestors from heaven.
You gave them fair rules and true teachings.
You gave them good orders and commands.
- 14<sup>a</sup>You told them about your holy Sabbath.<sup>d</sup>
You gave commands, orders and teachings to them through your servant Moses.
- 15<sup>a</sup>When they were hungry, you gave them bread from heaven.
When they were thirsty, you brought them water from the rock.
You told them to go into the land and take it over.
You had promised to give it to them.
- 16<sup>a</sup>But our ancestors were proud and stubborn.
They did not obey your commands.
- 17<sup>a</sup>They refused to listen.
They forgot the miracles<sup>d</sup> you did for them.
They became stubborn and turned against you.
They chose a leader to lead them back to their slavery.
But you are a forgiving God.
You are kind and full of mercy.
You do not become angry quickly. And you have great love.
So you did not leave them.
- 18<sup>a</sup>Our ancestors even made an idol of a calf for themselves.
- They said, 'This is your god, Israel. It brought you up out of Egypt.'
They spoke against you.
- 19<sup>a</sup>You have great mercy.
So you did not leave them in the desert. During the day the pillar of cloud guided them on their way.
And the pillar of fire led them at night. It lit the way they were supposed to go.
- 20<sup>a</sup>You gave your good Spirit<sup>d</sup> to teach them.
You gave them manna<sup>d</sup> to eat.
And you gave them water when they were thirsty.
- 21<sup>a</sup>You took care of them for 40 years in the desert.
They needed nothing.
Their clothes did not wear out.
And their feet did not swell.
- 22<sup>a</sup>You gave them kingdoms and nations.
You gave them more land.
They took over the country of Sihon king of Heshbon.
And they took over the country of Og king of Bashan.
- 23<sup>a</sup>You made their children as many as the stars in the sky.
And you brought them into the land. This was where you had told their fathers to enter and take over.
- 24<sup>a</sup>So their children went into the land and took over.
The Canaanites lived there.
But you defeated them for our ancestors.
You handed over to them the Canaanites, their kings and the people of the land.
Our ancestors could do what they wanted with them.
- 25<sup>a</sup>Our ancestors captured strong, walled cities and fertile land.
They took over houses full of good things.
They took over wells that were already dug.
They took vineyards, olive trees and many fruit trees.
They ate until they were full and became fat.
They enjoyed your great goodness.
- 26<sup>a</sup>But they were disobedient and turned against you.
They ignored your teachings.
Your prophets<sup>d</sup> warned them to come back to you.
But they killed those prophets.

- And they spoke against you.
<sup>27</sup>So you allowed their enemies to defeat them.
 Their enemies treated them badly.
 But in this time of trouble our ancestors cried out to you.
 And you heard from heaven.
 You had great mercy.
 You gave them saviors who saved them from the power of their enemies.
<sup>28</sup>But as soon as they had rest, they again did what was evil.
 So you left them to their enemies who ruled over them.
 But they cried out to you again.
 And you heard from heaven.
 Because of your mercy, you saved them again and again.
<sup>29</sup>You warned them to return to obeying your teachings.
 But they were proud. They did not obey your commands.
 If a man obeys your laws, he will live.
 But they sinned against your laws.
 They were stubborn and disobedient.
 They would not listen.
<sup>30</sup>You were patient with them for many years.
 You warned them by your Spirit through the prophets.
 But they did not pay attention.
 So you allowed them to be defeated by other countries.
<sup>31</sup>But because your mercy is great, you did not kill them all.
 You did not leave them.
 You are a kind and merciful God.
<sup>32</sup>"And so, our God, you are the great and mighty and wonderful God.
 You keep your agreement of love.
 Do not let all our trouble seem unimportant in your eyes.
 This trouble has come to us, to our kings and to our leaders.
 It has come to our priests and prophets.
 It has come to our ancestors and all your people.
 This trouble has come to us since the days of the kings of Assyria.
 And it has lasted until today.
<sup>33</sup>You have been fair in everything that has happened to us.
 You have been loyal, but we have been wicked.
<sup>34</sup>Our kings, leaders, priests and ancestors did not obey your teachings.

- They did not pay attention to the commands and warnings you gave them.
<sup>35</sup>Even when our ancestors were living in their kingdom, they did not serve you.
 They were enjoying all the good things you had given them.
 They were enjoying the land that was fertile and full of room.
 But they did not stop their evil ways.
<sup>36</sup>"Look, we are slaves today in the land you gave our ancestors.
 They were to enjoy its fruit and its good things.
 But look, we are slaves here.
<sup>37</sup>The land's great harvest belongs to the kings you have put over us.
 This is because of our sins.
 Those kings rule over us and our cattle as they please.
 And we are in much trouble.

The People's Agreement A

<sup>38</sup>"Because of all this, we are making an agreement in writing. Our leaders, Levites and priests are putting their seals<sup>d</sup> on it."

10 These are the men who sealed the agreement:
 Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah, sealed it.

and Temple<sup>a</sup> servants. And they were all those who separated themselves from foreigners to keep the Teachings of God. It was also their wives and their sons and daughters who could understand. <sup>29</sup>They joined their fellow Israelites and their leading men. They took an oath, which was tied to a curse in case they broke the oath. They promised to follow the Teachings of God, which they had been given through Moses the servant of God. These people also promised to obey all the commands, rules and laws of the Lord our Master.

We promise not to let our daughters marry foreigners. And we promise not to let our sons marry their daughters. <sup>31</sup>The foreigners might bring goods or grain to sell on the Sabbath.<sup>a</sup> But we will not buy on the Sabbath day or any holy day. Every seventh year we will not plant. And that year we will forget all that people owe us.

<sup>32</sup>We will be responsible for obeying the commands. We will pay for the service of the Temple of our God. We will give an eighth of an ounce of silver each year. <sup>33</sup>It is to pay for the bread that is set out on the table. It is to pay for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings. It is for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon<sup>a</sup> festivals and special feasts. It is for the holy offerings. And it is for the offerings to remove the sins of the Israelites so they will belong to God. It is for the work of the Temple of our God.

<sup>34</sup>We are the priests, the Levites and the people. We have thrown lots<sup>a</sup> to decide when each family must bring wood to the Temple. This is to be done at certain times each year. The wood is for burning on the altar of the Lord our God. We will do this as it is written in the Teachings.

<sup>35</sup>We also will bring the first fruits from our crops. And we will bring the first fruits of every tree to the Temple each year.

<sup>36</sup>We will bring our firstborn<sup>a</sup> sons and cattle to the Temple. We will bring the firstborn of our herds and flocks. We will do this as it is written in the Teachings. We will bring them to the priests who are serving in the Temple.

<sup>37</sup>We will bring things to the priests at the storerooms of the Temple. We will bring the first of our ground meal, our offerings, the fruit from all our trees and our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tenth of our crops to the Levites. The Levites will collect these things in all the towns where we work. <sup>38</sup>A priest of Aaron's family must be with the Levites when they receive the tenth of the people's crops. The Levites must bring a tenth of all they receive to the Temple of our God. Then they will put it in the storerooms of the treasury. <sup>39</sup>The people of Israel and the Levites are to bring their gifts to the storerooms. These are the gifts of grain, new wine and oil. The things for the Temple are kept in the storerooms. It is also where the priests, who are serving, the gatekeepers and singers stay.

We will not ignore the Temple of our God.

New People Move into Jerusalem

11 The leaders of Israel lived in Jerusalem. The rest of the people threw lots.<sup>a</sup> One person out of every ten was to come and live in Jerusalem. It was the holy city. The other nine could stay in their own cities. <sup>2</sup>The people blessed those who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>These are the area leaders who lived in Jerusalem. (Some people lived on their own land in the cities of Judah. These included Israelites, priests, Levites, Temple servants and descendants<sup>a</sup> of Solomon's servants. <sup>4</sup>Others from the families of Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem.)

These are descendants of Judah who moved into Jerusalem. There was Athaiah son of Uzzi-ah. (Uzzi-ah was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Amariah. Amariah was the son of Shephatiah, who was the son of Mahalalel. Mahalalel was a descendant of Perez.) <sup>5</sup>There was also Masseiah son of Baruch. (Baruch was the son of Col-Hozeh, who was the son of Hazaiah. Hazaiah was the son of Adai-ah, who was the son of Joarib. Joarib was the son of Zechariah, who was a descendant of Shelah.) <sup>6</sup>All the descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totaled 468 men. They were soldiers.

<sup>7</sup>These are descendants of Benjamin who moved into Jerusalem. There was Sallu son of Meshullam. (Meshullam was the son of Joed, who was the son of Pedaiah. Pedaiah was the son of Kolaiah, who was the son of Maaseiah. Maaseiah was the son of Ithiel, who was the son of Jeshai-ah.) <sup>8</sup>Following him were Gabbai and Sallai. All together there were 928 men. <sup>9</sup>Joel son of Zicri was appointed over them. And Judah son of Hassenuah was second in charge of the new area of the city.

salem. There was Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jakin<sup>11</sup> and Seraiah son of Hilkiyah. (Hilkiyah was the son of Meshullam, who was the son of Zadok. Zadok was the son of Meraioth, who was the son of Ahitub. Seraiah was the supervisor in the Temple.)<sup>12</sup> And there were others with them who did the work for the Temple. All together there were 822 men. Also there was Adaiah son of Jeroham. (Jeroham was the son of Pelaliah, who was the son of Amzi. Amzi was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Pashhur. Pashhur was the son of Malkijah.)<sup>13</sup> And there were family heads with him. All together there were 242 men. Also there was Amashsai son of Azarel. (Azarel was the son of Ahzai, who was the son of Meshillemoth. Meshillemoth was the son of Immer.)<sup>14</sup> And there were brave men with Amashsai. All together there were 128 men. Zabdiel son of Haggedom was appointed over them.

<sup>15</sup>These are the Levites who moved into Jerusalem. There was Shemaiah son of Hasshub. (Hasshub was the son of Azrikam, who was the son of Hashabiah. Hashabiah was the son of Bunni.)<sup>16</sup> And there were Shabbethai and Jozabad. They were two of the leaders of the Levites. They were in charge of the work outside the Temple.<sup>17</sup> There was Mattaniah son of Mica. (Mica was the son of Zabdi, who was the son of Asaph.) Mattaniah was the director. He led the people in thanksgiving and prayer. There was Bakbukiah, who was second in charge over his fellow Levites. And there was Abda son of Shammua. (Shammua was the son of Galai, who was the son of Jeduthun.)<sup>18</sup> All together 284 Levites lived in the holy city of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>These are the gatekeepers who moved into Jerusalem. There were Akkub, Talmon and others with them. There was a total of 172 men. They guarded the city gates.

<sup>21</sup>The Temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel. Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.

<sup>22</sup>Uzzi son of Bani was appointed over the Levites in Jerusalem. (Bani was the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Mattaniah. Mattaniah was the son of Mica.) Uzzi was one of Asaph's descendants. They were the singers. They were responsible for the service of the Temple.<sup>23</sup> The singers took orders from the king. Those orders told the singers what to do each day.

<sup>8</sup>The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah and also Mattaniah. He and his relatives were in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.<sup>9</sup> Bakbukiah and Unni, their relatives, stood across from them in the services.

<sup>10</sup>Jeshua was the father of Joiakim. Joiakim was the father of Eliashib. Eliashib was the father of Joiada.<sup>11</sup> Joiada was the father of Jonathan. And Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

<sup>22</sup>The leaders of the families of the Levites and the priests were written down. This was in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua. They were written down while Darius the Persian was king. <sup>23</sup>The family leaders among the Levites were written down in the history book. These were only up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib. <sup>24</sup>The leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel and their relatives. Their relatives stood across from them. They gave praise and thanksgiving to God. One group answered the other group. That is what David, the man of God, had commanded.

<sup>25</sup>These were the gatekeepers who guarded the storerooms next to the gates: Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub. <sup>26</sup>They served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua. (Jeshua was the son of Jozadak.) They also served in the days of Nehemiah the governor and Ezra the priest and teacher.

Giving of the Wall of Jerusalem

<sup>27</sup>The wall of Jerusalem was offered as a gift to God. The Levites were found in the places where they lived. And they were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate with joy the giving of the wall. They were to celebrate with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps and lyres. <sup>28</sup>They also brought together singers. They came from all around Jerusalem and from the Netophathite villages. <sup>29</sup>They came from Beth Gilgal and the areas of Geba and Azmaveth. The singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup>The priests and Levites made themselves pure. They also made the people, the gates and the wall of Jerusalem pure.

Asaph.) <sup>36</sup>Zechariah's relatives also went. They were Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani. These men played the musical instruments of David, the man of God. Ezra the teacher walked in front of them. <sup>37</sup>They went from the Fountain Gate straight up the steps to the older part of the city. They went on to the slope of the wall. They went above the house of David to the Water Gate on the east.

<sup>38</sup>The second chorus went to the left. I followed them on top of the wall. Half the people were with me. We went from the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall. <sup>39</sup>We went over the Gate of Ephraim to the Old Gate and the Fish Gate. We went to the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred. We went as far as the Sheep Gate. We stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

<sup>45</sup>At that time the leaders appointed men to be in charge of the storerooms. These rooms were for the gifts, the first fruits and a tenth of what the people gained. The Teachings said they should bring a share for the priests and Levites. These were to come from the fields around the towns. The people of Judah were happy to do this for the priests and Levites who served. <sup>46</sup>They performed the service of their God. They had the service of purifying things. The singers and gatekeepers also did their jobs as David had commanded his son Solomon. <sup>47</sup>Earlier, in the time of David and Asaph, there was a leader of the singers. There were songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>48</sup>So it was in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah. All the people of Israel gave something to the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside things for the Levites. The Levites set aside things for the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Aaron.

Foreign People Are Sent Away

13 On that day they read the Book of Moses to the people. They found that it said no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be allowed in the meeting to worship. <sup>2</sup>The Ammonites and Moabites had not welcomed the Israelites with food and water. Instead, they hired Balaam to put a curse on Israel. (But our God turned the curse into a blessing.) <sup>3</sup>The people heard this teaching. So they separated all foreigners from Israel.

Nehemiah Returns to Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup>I was not in Jerusalem when this happened. I had gone back to Artaxerxes king of Babylon. I went back in the thirty-second year he was king. Finally I asked the king to let me leave. <sup>7</sup>I came to Jerusalem. Then I found out the evil thing Eliashib had done. He had let Tobiah have a room in the Temple courtyard. <sup>8</sup>I was very upset at this. I threw all of Tobiah's goods out of the room. <sup>9</sup>I ordered the rooms to be purified. And I brought back the things for God's Temple, the grain offerings and the incense.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Then I found out the people were not giving the Levites their shares. So the Levites and singers who served had gone to their own farms. <sup>11</sup>So I argued with the officers. I said, "Why haven't you taken care of the Temple?" Then I gathered the Levites and singers. I put them back at their places.

<sup>12</sup>Then all the people of Judah brought a tenth of what they had gained in grain, new wine and olive oil. And they brought it to the storerooms. <sup>13</sup>I put these men in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the teacher and Pedaiah a Levite. (I made Hanan son of Zaccur their helper. (Zaccur was the son of Mattaniah.) Everyone knew they were honest men. They gave out the portions that went to their relatives.

<sup>14</sup>Remember me, my God, for this. Do not ignore my love for the Temple and its service.

<sup>15</sup>In those days I saw people in Judah working in the winepresses<sup>d</sup> on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. People were bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys on the Sabbath day. People were bringing loads of wine, grapes and figs into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. I warned them about selling food on that day. <sup>16</sup>Men from the city of Tyre were living in Jerusalem. They brought in fish and other things. They sold them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath day to the people of Judah. <sup>17</sup>I argued with the important men of Judah. I said to them, "What is this evil thing you are doing? You are ruining the Sabbath day. <sup>18</sup>This is just what your ancestors did. So our God did terrible things to us and this city. Now you are making him even more angry at Israel. You are ruining the Sabbath day."

<sup>19</sup>So I ordered the doors shut at sunset before the Sabbath. The gates were not to be opened until the Sabbath was over. I put my servants at the gates. So no load could come in on the Sabbath. <sup>20</sup>Once or twice traders and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>So I warned them. I said, "Why are you spending the night by the wall? If you do it again, I will force you away." After that, they did not come back on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup>Then I ordered the Levites to purify themselves. I told them to go and guard the city gates. They were to make sure the Sabbath remained holy.

Remember me, my God, for this. Have mercy on me because of your great love.

<sup>23</sup>In those days I saw men of Judah who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab. <sup>24</sup>Half their children were speaking the language of Ashdod or some other place. They couldn't speak the language of Judah. <sup>25</sup>I argued with those people. I put curses on them. I hit some of them and pulled out their hair. I forced them to make a promise to God. I said, "Do not let your daughters marry the sons of foreigners. Do not take the daughters of foreigners as wives for your sons or yourselves. <sup>26</sup>Foreign women made King Solomon of Israel sin. There was never a king like him in any of the nations. God loved Solomon. God made him king over all Israel. But foreign women made Solomon sin. <sup>27</sup>And now you are not obedient when you do this evil thing. You are unfaithful to our God when you marry foreign wives."

<sup>28</sup>Joiada was the son of Eliashib the high priest. One of Joiada's sons married a daughter of Sanballat the Horonite, who was not a Jew. So I forced Joiada's son away from me.

<sup>30</sup>So I purified them of everything that was foreign. I appointed duties for the priests and Levites. Each man had his own job. <sup>31</sup>I also made sure wood was brought for the altar at regular times. And I made sure the first fruits were brought.

Remember, my God, to be kind to me.

Esther Saves Her People

Queen Vashti Disobeys the King

1 This is what happened during the time of King Xerxes. He was the king who ruled the 127 areas from India to Cush. <sup>2</sup>In those days King Xerxes ruled from his capital city of Susa. <sup>3</sup>In the third year of his rule, he gave a banquet. It was for all his important men and royal officers. The army leaders from the countries of Persia and Media were there. And the important men from all Xerxes' empire were there.

<sup>4</sup>The banquet lasted 180 days. All during that time King Xerxes was showing off the great wealth of his kingdom. And he was showing his own honor and greatness. <sup>5</sup>When the 180 days were over, the king gave another banquet. It was held in the courtyard of the palace garden for 7 days. It was for everybody in the palace at Susa, from the greatest to the least important. <sup>6</sup>The courtyard had fine white curtains and purple drapes. These were tied to silver rings on marble pillars by white and purple cords. And there were gold and silver couches. These were on a floor set with tiles of white marble, shells and gems. <sup>7</sup>Wine was served in gold cups of various kinds. And there was plenty of the king's wine because he was very generous. <sup>8</sup>The king commanded that each guest be permitted to drink as much as he wished. He had told the wine servers to serve each man what he wanted.

<sup>10</sup>On the seventh day of the banquet, King Xerxes was very happy because he had been drinking much wine. He gave a command to the seven eunuchs<sup>d</sup> who served him. They were Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas. <sup>11</sup>He commanded them to bring him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown. She was to come to show her beauty to the people and important men. She was very beautiful. <sup>12</sup>The eunuchs told Queen Vashti about the king's command. But she refused to come. Then the king became very angry. His anger was like a burning fire.

<sup>13</sup>It was a custom for the king to ask advice from experts about law and order. So King Xerxes spoke with the wise men. They would know the right thing to do. <sup>14</sup>The wise men the king usually talked to were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan. They were seven of the important men of Persia and Media. These seven had special privileges to see the king. They had the highest rank in the kingdom.

<sup>15</sup>The king asked those men, "What does the law say must be done to Queen Vashti? She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes, which the eunuchs took to her."

<sup>16</sup>Then Memucan spoke to the king and the other important men. He said, "Queen Vashti has not done wrong to the king alone. She has also done wrong to all the important men and all the people in all the empire of King Xerxes. <sup>17</sup>All the wives of the important men of Persia and Media will hear about the queen's actions. Then they will no longer honor their husbands. They will say, 'King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought to him. But she refused to come.' <sup>18</sup>Today the wives of the important men of Persia and Media have heard about the queen's actions. And they will speak in the same way to their husbands. And there will be no end to disrespect and anger.

<sup>21</sup>The king and his important men were happy with this advice. So King Xerxes did as Memucan suggested. <sup>22</sup>He sent letters to all the areas of the kingdom. A letter was sent to each area, written in its own form of writing. And a letter was sent to each group of people, written in their own language. These letters announced that each man was to be the ruler of his own family. Also, each family was to speak the language of the man.

Esther Is Made Queen

2 Later, King Xerxes was not so angry. Then he remembered Vashti and what she had done. And he remembered his order about her. 2Then the king's personal servants had a suggestion. They said, "Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins<sup>d</sup> for the king. 3Let the king choose supervisors in every area of his kingdom. Let them bring every beautiful young virgin to the palace at Susa. These women should be taken to the women's quarters and put under the care of Hegai. He is the king's eunuch<sup>d</sup> in charge of the women. And let beauty treatments be given to them. 4Then let the girl who pleases the king most become queen in place of Vashti." The king liked this advice. So he did as they said.

8The king's command and order had been heard. And many girls had been brought to the palace in Susa. They had been put under the care of Hegai. When this happened, Esther was also taken to the king's palace. She was put into the care of Hegai, who was in charge of the women. 9Esther pleased Hegai, and he liked her. So Hegai quickly began giving Esther her beauty treatments and special food. He gave her seven servant girls chosen from the king's palace. Then Hegai moved Esther and her seven servant girls to the best part of the women's quarters.

10Esther did not tell anyone about her family or who her people were. Mordecai had told her not to. 11Every day Mordecai walked back and forth near the courtyard. This was where the king's women lived. He wanted to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

12Before a girl could take her turn with King Xerxes, she had to complete 12 months of beauty treatments. These were ordered for the women. For 6 months she was treated with oil and myrrh.<sup>d</sup> And she spent 6 months with perfumes and cosmetics. 13Then she was ready to go to the king. Anything she asked for was given to her. She could take it with her from the women's quarters to the king's palace. 14In the evening she would go to the king's palace. And in the morning she would return to another part of the women's quarters. There she would be placed under the care of a man named Shaashgaz. Shaashgaz was the king's eunuch in charge of the slave women.<sup>d</sup> The girl would not go back to the king again unless he was pleased with her. Then he would call her by name to come back to him.

15Esther daughter of Abihail, Mordecai's uncle, had been adopted by Mordecai. The time came for Esther to go to the king. She asked for only what Hegai suggested she should take. (Hegai was the king's eunuch who was in charge of the women.) And everyone who saw Esther liked her. 16So Esther was taken to King Xerxes in the royal palace. This happened in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth. It was in Xerxes' seventh year as king.

17And the king was pleased with Esther more than with any of the other girls. And he liked her more than any of the other virgins. So King Xerxes put a royal crown on Esther's head. And he made her queen in place of Vashti. 18Then the king gave a great banquet for Esther. He invited all his important men and royal officers. He announced a holiday in all the empire. And he was generous and gave everyone a gift.

Mordecai Discovers an Evil Plan

19Now Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate. This was when the virgins<sup>d</sup> were gathered the second time. 20And Esther had still not told anyone about her family or who her people were. That is what Mordecai had told her to do. She still obeyed Mordecai just as she had done when he was bringing her up.

21Now Bigthana and Teresh were two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway. While Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana and Teresh became angry at the king. And they began to make plans to kill King Xerxes. 22But Mordecai found out about their plans and told Queen Esther. Then Queen Esther told the king. She also told him that Mordecai had found out about the evil plan. 23When the report was investigated, it was found to be true. The two officers who had planned to kill the king were hanged. And all this was written down in the daily court record in the king's presence.

Haman Plans to Destroy the Jews

3 After these things happened, King Xerxes honored Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite. He gave Haman a new rank that was higher than all the important men. <sup>2</sup>And all the royal officers at the king's gate would bow down and kneel before Haman. This was what the king had ordered. But Mordecai would not bow down, and he did not kneel.

<sup>3</sup>Then the royal officers at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why don't you obey the king's command?" <sup>4</sup>And they said this to him every day. When he did not listen to them, they told Haman about it. They wanted to see if Haman would accept Mordecai's behavior because Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew.

<sup>5</sup>Then Haman saw that Mordecai would not bow down to him or kneel before him. And he became very angry. <sup>6</sup>He had been told who the people of Mordecai were. And he thought of himself as too important to try to kill only Mordecai. So he looked for a way to destroy all of Mordecai's people, the Jews, in all of Xerxes' kingdom.

<sup>7</sup>It was in the first month of the twelfth year of King Xerxes' rule. That is the month of Nisan. Pur (that is, the lot<sup>d</sup>) was thrown before Haman. The lot was used to choose a day and a month. So the twelfth month, the month of Adar, was chosen.

<sup>8</sup>Then Haman said to King Xerxes, "There is a certain group of people in all the areas of your kingdom. They are scattered among the other people. They keep themselves separate. Their customs are different from those of all the other people. And they do not obey the king's laws. It is not right for you to allow them to continue living in your kingdom. <sup>9</sup>If it pleases the king, let an order be given to destroy those people. Then I will pay 375 tons of silver to those who do the king's business. They will put it into the royal treasury."

<sup>10</sup>So the king took his signet<sup>d</sup> ring off and gave it to Haman. Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, was the enemy of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>Then the king said to Haman, "The money and the people are yours. Do with them as you please."

<sup>12</sup>On the thirteenth day of the first month, the royal secretaries were called. They wrote out all of Haman's orders. They wrote to the king's governors and to the captains of the soldiers in each area. And they wrote to the important men of each group of people. The orders were written to each area in its own form of writing. And they were written to each group of people in their own language. They were written in the name of King Xerxes and sealed with his signet ring. <sup>13</sup>Letters were sent by messengers to all the king's empire. They stated the king's order to destroy, kill and completely wipe out all the Jews. That meant young and old, women and little children, too. The order said to kill all the Jews on a single day. That was to be the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which was Adar. And it said to take all the things that belonged to the Jews. <sup>14</sup>A copy of the order was to be given out as a law in every area. It was to be made known to all the people so that they would be ready for that day.

<sup>15</sup>The messengers set out, hurried by the king's command. At the same time the order was given in the palace at Susa. And the king and Haman sat down to drink. But the city of Susa was in confusion.

Mordecai Asks Esther to Help

4 Now Mordecai heard about all that had been done. To show how upset he was, he tore his clothes. Then he put on rough cloth and ashes. And he went out into the city crying loudly and very sadly. <sup>2</sup>But Mordecai went only as far as the king's gate. This was because no one was allowed to enter that gate dressed in rough cloth. <sup>3</sup>The king's order reached every area. And there was great sadness and loud crying among the Jews. They gave up eating and cried out loudly. Many Jews lay down on rough cloth and ashes to show how sad they were.

<sup>4</sup>Esther's servant girls and eunuchs<sup>d</sup> came to her and told her about Mordecai. Esther was very upset and afraid. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on instead of the rough cloth. But he would not wear them. <sup>5</sup>Then Esther called for Hathach. He was one of the king's eunuchs chosen by the king to serve her. Esther ordered him to find out what was bothering Mordecai and why.

<sup>12</sup>And Esther's message was given to Mordecai. <sup>13</sup>Then Mordecai gave orders to say to Esther: “Just because you live in the king's palace, don't think that out of all the Jews you alone will escape. <sup>14</sup>You might keep quiet at this time. Then someone else will help and save the Jews. But you and your father's family will all die. And who knows, you may have been chosen queen for just such a time as this.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Esther sent this answer to Mordecai: <sup>16</sup>“Go and get all the Jews in Susa together. For my sake, give up eating. Do not eat or drink for three days, night and day. I and my servant girls will also give up eating. Then I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I die, I die.”

<sup>17</sup>So Mordecai went away. He did everything Esther had told him to do.

Esther Speaks to the King

5 On the third day Esther put on her royal robes. Then she stood in the inner courtyard of the king's palace, facing the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the doorway. <sup>2</sup>The king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard. When he saw her, he was very pleased. He held out to her the gold scepter<sup>d</sup> that was in his hand. So Esther went up to him and touched the end of the scepter.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king asked, “What is it, Queen Esther? What do you want to ask me? I will give you as much as half of my kingdom.”

<sup>4</sup>Esther answered, “My king, if it pleases you, come today with Haman to a banquet. I have prepared it for him.”

So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared for them. <sup>6</sup>As they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, “Now, Esther, what are you asking for? I will give it to you. What is it you want? I will give you as much as half of my kingdom.”

ask for. <sup>8</sup>My king, I hope you are pleased with me. If it pleases you, give me what I ask for and do what I want. Come with Haman tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for you. Then I will answer your question about what I want.”

Haman's Plans Against Mordecai

<sup>9</sup>Haman left the king's palace that day happy and content. Then he saw Mordecai at the king's gate. And he saw that Mordecai did not stand up nor did he tremble with fear before him. So Haman became very angry with Mordecai. <sup>10</sup>But he controlled his anger and went home.

Then Haman called his friends and Zeresh, his wife, together. <sup>11</sup>And he told them about how wealthy he was and how many sons he had. He also told them about all the ways the king had honored him. And he told them how the king had placed him higher than his important men and his royal officers. <sup>12</sup>“And that's not all,” Haman added. “I'm the only person Queen Esther invited to come with the king to the banquet she gave. And tomorrow also the queen has asked me to be her guest with the king. <sup>13</sup>But all this does not really make me happy. I'm not happy as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Haman's wife Zeresh and all his friends said, “Have a platform built to hang someone. Build it 75 feet high. And in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go to the banquet with the king and be happy.” Haman liked this suggestion. So he ordered the platform to be built.

Mordecai Is Honored

6 That same night the king could not sleep. So he gave an order for the daily court record to be brought in and read to him. <sup>2</sup>And it was found recorded that Mordecai had warned the king about Bigthana and Teresh. These men had planned to kill the king. They were two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway.

The king's personal servants answered, “Nothing has been done for Mordecai.”

<sup>4</sup>The king said, “Who is in the courtyard?” Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace. He had come to ask the king about hanging Mordecai on the platform he had prepared.

So the king said, “Bring him in.”

<sup>6</sup>So Haman came in. And the king asked him, "What should be done for a man that the king wants very much to honor?"

And Haman thought to himself, "Who would the king want to honor more than me?"
<sup>7</sup>So he answered the king, "This is what you could do for the man you want very much to honor. <sup>8</sup>Have the servants bring a royal robe that the king himself has worn. And also bring a horse with a royal crown on its head. The horse should be one the king himself has ridden. <sup>9</sup>Then let the robe and the horse be given to one of the king's most important men. Let the servants put the robe on the man the king wants very much to honor. And let them lead him on the horse through the city streets. As they are leading him, let them announce: 'This is what is done for the man the king wants very much to honor!'"

<sup>11</sup>So Haman took the robe and the horse. And he put the robe on Mordecai. Then he led him on horseback through the city streets. Haman announced before Mordecai: "This is what is done for the man the king wants very much to honor!"

<sup>12</sup>Then Mordecai went back to the king's gate. But Haman hurried home with his head covered. He was embarrassed and ashamed. <sup>13</sup>He told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him.

Haman's wife and the men who gave him advice said, "You are starting to lose power to Mordecai. Since he is a Jew, you cannot win against him. You will surely be ruined."

<sup>14</sup>While they were still talking, the king's eunuchs<sup>d</sup> came to Haman's house. They made Haman hurry to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Haman Is Hanged

7 So the king and Haman went in to eat with Queen Esther. <sup>2</sup>They were drinking wine. And the king said to Esther on this second day also, "What are you asking for? I will give it to you. What is it you want? I will give you as much as half of my kingdom."

<sup>3</sup>Then Queen Esther answered, "My king, I hope you are pleased with me. If it pleases you, let me live. This is what I ask. And let my people live, too. This is what I want. <sup>4</sup>I ask this because my people and I have been sold to be destroyed. We are to be killed and completely wiped out. If we had been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet. That would not be enough of a problem to bother the king."

<sup>5</sup>Then King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, "Who is he? Where is he? Who has done such a thing?"

<sup>6</sup>Esther said, "A man who is against us! Our enemy is this wicked Haman!"

Then Haman was filled with terror before the king and queen. <sup>7</sup>The king was very angry. He got up, left his wine and went out into the palace garden. But Haman stayed inside to beg Queen Esther to save his life. He could see that the king had already decided to kill him.

<sup>8</sup>The king came back from the palace garden to the banquet hall. And he saw Haman falling on the couch where Esther was lying. The king said, "Will he even attack the queen while I am in the house?"

As soon as the king said that, servants came in and covered Haman's face. <sup>9</sup>Harbona was one of the eunuchs<sup>d</sup> there serving the king. He said, "Look, a platform for hanging people stands near Haman's house. It is 75 feet high. This is the one Haman had prepared for Mordecai, who gave the warning that saved the king."

The king said, "Hang Haman on it!" <sup>10</sup>So they hanged Haman on the platform he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king was not so angry anymore.

The King Helps the Jews

8 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther everything Haman had left when he died. Haman had been the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came in to see the king. He came because Esther had told the king how he was related to her. <sup>2</sup>Then the king took off his signet<sup>d</sup> ring, which he had taken back from Haman. And he gave it to Mordecai. Then Esther put Mordecai in charge of everything Haman had left when he died.

<sup>3</sup>Once again Esther spoke to the king. She fell at the king's feet and cried. She begged the king to stop the evil plan of Haman the Agagite. Haman had thought up the plan against the Jews. <sup>4</sup>The king held out the gold scepter<sup>d</sup> to Esther. Esther got up and stood in front of the king.

<sup>5</sup>She said, "My king, I hope you are pleased with me. And maybe it will please you to do this. You might think it is the right thing to do. And maybe you are happy with me. If so, let an order be written to cancel the letters Haman wrote. <sup>6</sup>I could not stand to see that terrible thing happen to my people. I could not stand to see my family killed.”

<sup>7</sup>King Xerxes answered Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew. He said, “Because Haman was against the Jews, I have given his things to Esther. And my soldiers have hanged him. <sup>8</sup>Now write another order in the king’s name. Write it to the Jews as it seems best to you. Then seal the order with the king’s signet<sup>a</sup> ring. No letter written in the king’s name and sealed with his signet ring can be canceled.”

<sup>9</sup>At that time the king’s secretaries were called. This was done on the twenty-third day of the third month, which is Sivan. The secretaries wrote out all of Mordecai’s orders. They wrote to the Jews and to the governors and to the captains of the soldiers in each area. And they wrote to the important men of the 127 areas which reached from India to Cush. They wrote to each area in its own form of writing. And they wrote to each group of people in their own language. They also wrote to the Jews in their own form of writing and their own language. <sup>10</sup>Mordecai wrote orders in the name of King Xerxes. And he sealed the letters with the king’s signet ring. Then he sent the king’s orders by messengers on horses. The messengers rode fast horses, which were raised just for the king.

<sup>11</sup>These were the king’s orders: The Jews in every city have the right to gather together to protect themselves. They have the right to destroy, kill and completely wipe out the army of any area or people who attack them. And they are to do the same to the women and children of that army. The Jews also have the right to take by force the property of the enemies. <sup>12</sup>The one day set for the Jews to do this was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month. This was the month of Adar. They were allowed to do this in all the empire of King Xerxes. <sup>13</sup>A copy of the king’s order was to be sent out as a law in every area. It was to be made known to the people of every nation living in the kingdom. This was so the Jews would be ready on that set day. The Jews would be allowed to pay back their enemies.

<sup>15</sup>Mordecai left the king’s presence wearing royal clothes. They were blue and white. And he had on a large gold crown. He also had a purple robe made of the best linen. And the people of Susa shouted for joy. <sup>16</sup>It was a time of happiness, joy, gladness and honor for the Jews. <sup>17</sup>The king’s order went to every area and city. And there was joy and gladness among the Jews. This happened in every area and city to which the king’s order went. The Jews were having feasts and celebrating. And many people through all the empire became Jews. They did that because they were afraid of the Jews.

Victory for the Jews

9 The order the king had commanded was to be done on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month. That was the month of Adar. That was the day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to defeat them. But that was changed. So the Jews themselves defeated those who hated them. <sup>2</sup>The Jews met in their cities in all the empire of King Xerxes. They met in order to attack those who wanted to harm them. And no one was strong enough to fight against them. This was because all the other people living in the empire were afraid of the Jews. <sup>3</sup>And all the important men of the areas, the governors, captains of the soldiers, and the king’s officers helped the Jews. They helped because they were afraid of Mordecai. <sup>4</sup>Mordecai was very important in the king’s palace. He was famous in all the empire. This was because he was becoming a leader of more and more people.

<sup>11</sup>And on that day the number of the men killed in the palace at Susa was reported to the king. <sup>12</sup>The king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men in the palace at Susa. And they have also killed Haman’s ten sons. What have they done in the rest of the king’s empire! Now what else are you asking? I will do it! And what else do you want? It will be done.”

<sup>13</sup>Esther answered, “If it pleases the king, give the Jews who are in Susa permission to do this. Let them do again tomorrow what the king ordered for today. And let the bodies of Haman’s ten sons be hanged on the platform built for hanging people to death.”

<sup>14</sup>So the king ordered that it be done. A law was given in Susa, and the bodies of the ten sons of Haman were hanged. <sup>15</sup>The Jews in Susa came together. It was on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar. And they killed 300 men in Susa. But they did not take their belongings.

<sup>16</sup>At that same time, the other Jews in the king's empire also met. They met in order to protect themselves and get rid of their enemies. And they killed 75,000 of those who hated them. But they did not take their belongings. <sup>17</sup>This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. And on the fourteenth day the Jews rested. They made it a day of joyful feasting.

The Feast of Purim

<sup>18</sup>But the Jews in Susa met on the thirteenth and fourteenth days of the month of Adar. Then they rested on the fifteenth day. They made it a day of joyful feasting.

<sup>19</sup>This is why the Jews who live in the country and small villages celebrate on the fourteenth day. They keep the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of joyful feasting. And it is also a day for giving presents to each other.

<sup>20</sup>Mordecai wrote down everything that had happened. Then he sent letters to all the Jews in all the empire of King Xerxes. He sent letters to places far and near. <sup>21</sup>Mordecai did this to have the Jews celebrate every year. They were to celebrate on the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar. <sup>22</sup>It was to celebrate a time when the Jews got rid of their enemies. They were also to celebrate it as the month their sadness was turned to joy. It was the month when their crying for the dead was turned into celebration. Mordecai wrote letters to all the Jews. He wrote to tell them to celebrate those days as days of joyful feasting. It was to be a time of giving food to each other. And it was a time of giving presents to the poor.

<sup>23</sup>So the Jews agreed to do what Mordecai had written to them. And they agreed to hold the celebration every year. <sup>24</sup>Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, was the enemy of all the Jews. He had made an evil plan against the Jews to destroy them. And Haman had thrown the pur (that is, the lot) to choose a day to ruin and destroy the Jews. <sup>25</sup>But when the king learned of the evil plan, he sent out written orders. This was so the evil plans Haman had made against the Jews would be used against him. And those orders said that Haman and his sons should be hanged on the platform for hanging. <sup>26</sup>So these days were called Purim. The name Purim comes from the word "pur" (the lot). <sup>27</sup>And so the Jews set up this custom. They and their descendants<sup>d</sup> would celebrate these two days every year. The Jews and all those who join them are to celebrate these two days. They should do it without fail every year. They should do it in the right way and at the time Mordecai had ordered them in the letter. <sup>28</sup>These two days should be remembered and celebrated from now on in every family. And they must be celebrated in every area and every city. These days of Purim should never stop being celebrated by the Jews. And the descendants of the Jews should always remember to celebrate these two days of Purim.

<sup>29</sup>So Queen Esther daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote this second letter about Purim. Using the power they had, they wrote to prove the first letter was true. <sup>30</sup>And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 areas of the kingdom of Xerxes. Mordecai wrote a message of peace and truth. <sup>31</sup>He wrote to set up these days of Purim. They are to be celebrated at their chosen times. Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had sent out the order for the Jews. They had set up for themselves and their descendants these two days. They set them up so the Jews would give up eating and cry loudly. <sup>32</sup>Esther's letter showed that these practices about Purim were correct. They were written down in the records.

The Greatness of Mordecai

10 King Xerxes made people pay taxes. Even the cities far away on the sea-coast had to pay taxes. <sup>2</sup>And all the great things that Xerxes did are written down. They tell of his power and strength. They are written in the record books of the kings of Media and Persia. Also written in those record books are all the things that Mordecai did. The king had made Mordecai a great man. <sup>3</sup>Mordecai the Jew was second in importance to King Xerxes. He was the most important man among the Jews. And his fellow Jews respected him very much. They respected Mordecai because he worked for the good of his people. And they respected him because he spoke up for the safety of all the Jews.

JOB

A Good Man Suffers

Job, the Good Man

1 A man named Job lived in the land of Uz. He was an honest man and innocent of any wrong. He honored God and stayed away from evil. <sup>2</sup>Job had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup>He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 pairs of oxen and 500 female donkeys. And he had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

Satan Appears Before God

<sup>6</sup>One day the angels came to show themselves before the Lord. Satan also came with them. <sup>7</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered the Lord, "I have been wandering around the earth. I have been going back and forth in it."

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord said to Satan, "Have you noticed my servant Job? No one else on earth is like him. He is an honest man and innocent of any wrong. He honors God and stays away from evil."

<sup>12</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "All right, then. Everything Job has is in your power. But you must not touch Job himself." Then Satan left the Lord's presence.

<sup>13</sup>One day Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine together. They were at the oldest brother's house. <sup>14</sup>A messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing. And the donkeys were eating grass nearby.

<sup>15</sup>And the Sabeans attacked and carried them away. They killed the servants with swords. And I am the only one who escaped to tell you!"

<sup>16</sup>The messenger was still speaking when another messenger came in. He said, "Lightning from God fell from the sky. It burned up the sheep and the servants. And I am the only one who escaped to tell you!"

<sup>17</sup>The second messenger was still speaking when another messenger came in. He said, "The Babylonians sent three groups of attackers. They swept down and stole your camels. They killed the servants. And I am the only one who escaped to tell you!"

<sup>18</sup>The third messenger was still speaking when another messenger came in. He said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine together. They were at the oldest brother's house. <sup>19</sup>Suddenly a great wind came in from the desert. It struck all four corners of the house at once. The house fell in on your sons and daughters. And they are all dead. I am the only one who escaped to tell you!"

<sup>20</sup>When Job heard this, he got up. To show how sad he was he tore his robe and shaved his head. Then he bowed down to the ground to worship God. <sup>21</sup>He said:

"I was naked when I was born.

And I will be naked when I die.

The Lord gave these things to me. And he has taken them away.

Praise the name of the Lord."

<sup>22</sup>In all this Job did not sin. He did not blame God.

Satan Appears Before God Again

2 On another day the angels came to show themselves before the Lord. And Satan also came with them. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered the Lord, "I have been wandering around the earth. I have been going back and forth in it."

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord said to Satan, "Have you noticed my servant Job? No one else on earth is like him. He is an honest man, innocent of any wrong. He honors God and stays away from evil. You caused me to ruin him for no good reason. But he continues to be without blame."

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "All right, then. Job is in your power. But you must let him live."

<sup>8</sup>Then Job took a piece of broken pottery. And he used it to scrape himself. He sat in ashes to show how upset he was.

<sup>9</sup>Job's wife said to him, "Are you still trying to stay innocent? You should just curse God and die!"

<sup>10</sup>Job answered, "You are talking like a foolish woman. Should we take only good things from God and not trouble?" In all this Job did not sin in what he said.

Job's Three Friends Come to Help

<sup>11</sup>Now Job had three friends. They were Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite. These friends heard about the troubles that had happened to Job. So they agreed to meet and go see Job. They wanted to show him they were upset for him, too. And they wanted to comfort him. <sup>12</sup>They saw Job from far away. But he looked so different they almost didn't recognize him. They began to cry loudly. They tore their robes and put dirt on their heads to show how sad they were. <sup>13</sup>Then they sat on the ground with Job seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him. This was because they saw how much he was suffering.

Job Curses His Birth

3 After seven days Job spoke. He cursed the day he had been born. <sup>2</sup>Job said:

<sup>3</sup>"Let the day I was born be destroyed.

And destroy the night when it was said,
'A boy is born!'

<sup>4</sup>Let that day turn to darkness.

Let God not even care about it.
Don't let light shine on that day.

<sup>5</sup>Let darkness and gloom have that day.

Let a cloud hide that day.
Let darkness cover its light.

Don't count it among the days of the year.

Don't put it in any of the months.

<sup>7</sup>Let that night be empty.

Let no shout of joy be heard in it.

<sup>8</sup>Let the people who curse days curse that day.

They know how to wake up the sea monster Leviathan.<sup>d</sup>

Let it wait for daylight, but don't let it come.

Don't let it see the first light of dawn.

<sup>10</sup>This is because it allowed me to be born.

That day did not hide trouble from my eyes.

<sup>11</sup>"Why didn't I die as soon as I was born?

Why didn't I die when I came out of the womb?

<sup>12</sup>Why did my mother's knees receive me?

Why did my mother's breasts feed me?

<sup>13</sup>If they had not been there, I would be lying dead in peace.

I would be asleep and at rest.

<sup>14</sup>I would be asleep with kings and wise men of the earth.

They built places for themselves that are now ruined.

<sup>15</sup>I would be asleep with rulers who had gold.

They filled their houses with silver!

<sup>16</sup>Or why was I not buried like a child born dead?

I wish I were like a baby who never saw the light of day.

They no longer hear the shout of the slave driver.

And the slave is freed from his master.

<sup>20</sup>"Why is life given to those who are in misery?

Why is it given to those who who are so unhappy?

<sup>21</sup>Some people want to die, but death does not come.

They search for death more than for hidden treasure.

when they get to the grave.

It shouldn't be given to a man who feels trapped by God.

<sup>24</sup>I make sad sounds as I eat.

My groans pour out like water.

<sup>25</sup>The thing I was afraid of has happened to me.

And the thing I dreaded has happened.

<sup>26</sup>I have no peace. I have no quietness. I have no rest. I only have trouble."

Eliphaz Speaks

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:

<sup>24</sup>"If someone tried to speak with you, would you be upset?

I cannot keep from speaking.

<sup>3</sup>Think about how many people you have taught.

Think about how you have made weak hands strong.

<sup>4</sup>Your words have comforted those who fell. And you have given strength to those who could not stand.

<sup>5</sup>But now trouble comes to you. And you are discouraged.

Trouble hits you, and you are terrified.

<sup>6</sup>You should trust in your respect for God. You should have hope because you are innocent.

Honest people were never destroyed.

But the teeth of great lions are broken.

So the cubs of the female lion are scattered.

<sup>12</sup>"A word was brought to me in secret. My ears heard a whisper of it.

<sup>13</sup>It was during troublesome dreams in the night when men are in deep sleep.

<sup>14</sup>I was shaking with fear.

All my bones were shaking.

The hair on my body stood up in fear.

but I could not see what it was.

A shape stood before my eyes.

And I heard a quiet voice.

<sup>17</sup>It said, 'Can a man be holy in the presence of God?

Can a man be pure before the one who made him?

<sup>18</sup>God does not trust his servants.

He even blames his angels for mistakes.

<sup>19</sup>So he puts even more blame on people who live in clay houses."

The foundations of these houses are made of dust.

They can be crushed more easily than a moth.

They are not noticed. They die and are gone forever.

5 "Call if you want to, but no one will answer you.

You can't turn to any of the holy ones.

But suddenly his home was destroyed.

They are crushed in court with no one to defend them.

They even take what grew up among the thorns.

And thirsty people want his wealth.

And trouble does not grow from the earth.

<sup>8</sup>"But if I were you, I would call on God. I would bring my problem before him.

<sup>9</sup>God does wonderful things that cannot be understood.

He does so many miracles<sup>d</sup> they cannot be counted.

<sup>10</sup>God gives rain to the earth.

He sends water on the fields.

He lifts to places of safety those who are sad.

<sup>12</sup>God ruins the plans of those who trick others.

Then they have no success.

- And the plans of those who try to trick others are swept away.
- <sup>14</sup>Darkness covers them up in the daytime. At noon they feel around in the dark.
- <sup>15</sup>God saves needy people from their lies. He saves them from the harm done by powerful people.
- <sup>16</sup>So the poor people have hope. And those who are unfair are silenced.
- <sup>17</sup>"The person whom God corrects is happy. So do not hate being corrected by God All-Powerful.
- <sup>18</sup>God hurts, but he also bandages up. He injures, but his hands also heal.
- <sup>19</sup>He will save you from six troubles. Even seven troubles will not harm you.
- <sup>20</sup>God will buy you back from death in times of hunger. And in battle he will save you from death by the sword.
- <sup>21</sup>You will be hidden from the tongue that hits like a whip. You will not need to be afraid when destruction comes.
- <sup>22</sup>You will laugh at destruction and hunger. You do not need to fear the wild animals.
- <sup>23</sup>This is because you will have an agreement with the animals born in the wild. And the wild animals will be at peace with you.
- <sup>24</sup>You will know that your tent is safe. You will check the things you own and find nothing missing.
- <sup>25</sup>You will know that you will have many children. Your descendants<sup>d</sup> will be as many as the blades of grass on the earth.
- <sup>26</sup>You will come to the grave with all your strength. You will be like bundles of grain gathered at the right time.
- <sup>27</sup>"We have checked this, and it is true. So hear it and decide what it means to you."
- Job Answers Eliphaz
- 6 Then Job answered:
- <sup>2</sup>"I wish my suffering could be weighed. And I wish my misery could be put on the scales.
- <sup>3</sup>My sadness would be heavier than the sand of the seas. No wonder my words seem careless.
- <sup>4</sup>The arrows of God All-Powerful are in me.
- My spirit drinks in their poison. God's terrors are gathered against me.
- <sup>5</sup>A wild donkey does not bray when it has grass to eat. An ox is quiet when it has feed.
- <sup>6</sup>Tasteless food is not eaten without salt. There is no flavor in the white part of an egg.
- <sup>7</sup>I refuse to touch it. Such food makes me sick.
- <sup>8</sup>"How I wish I might have what I ask for. How I wish God would give me what I hope for.
- <sup>9</sup>I wish God would be willing to crush me and reach out his hand to destroy me.
- <sup>10</sup>Then I would have this comfort. I would be glad even in this unending pain. I would know I did not reject the words of the Holy One.
- <sup>11</sup>"I do not have the strength to wait. There is nothing to hope for so how can I be patient?"
- <sup>12</sup>I do not have the strength of stone. My flesh is not bronze.
- <sup>13</sup>I have no power to help myself. This is because success has been taken away from me.
- <sup>14</sup>"They say, 'A man's friends should be kind to him when he is in trouble. This should be done even if he stops fearing God All-Powerful.'
- <sup>15</sup>But my brothers cannot be counted on. They are like streams that do not flow regularly, streams that sometimes run over.
- <sup>16</sup>They are like streams made dark by melting ice, that rise with melting snow.
- <sup>17</sup>But they stop flowing when it is the dry season. They go away when it is hot.
- <sup>18</sup>Groups of travelers turn away from their paths. They go into the desert and die.
- <sup>19</sup>The groups of travelers from Tema look for water. The traders of Sheba who travel look hopefully.
- <sup>20</sup>They are upset because they had been sure. But when they arrive, they are disappointed.
- <sup>21</sup>You also have been no help. You see something terrible, and you are afraid.

- 22<sup>1</sup> I have never said, 'Give me a gift.
Use your wealth to pay my debt.
- 23<sup>2</sup> Save me from the enemy's power.
Buy me back from the clutches of cruel
people.'
- 24<sup>3</sup> "Teach me, and I will be quiet.
Show me where I have been wrong.
- 25<sup>4</sup> Honest words are painful!
But your arguments prove nothing.
- 26<sup>5</sup> Do you mean to correct what I say?
Will you treat the words of a troubled man as if they were only wind?
- 27<sup>6</sup> You would even throw lots<sup>d</sup> for orphans.
And you would trade away your friend.
- 28<sup>7</sup> "But now please look at me.
I would not lie to your face.
- 29<sup>8</sup> Change your mind. Do not be unfair.
Think again, because my innocence is being questioned.
- 30<sup>9</sup> What I am saying is not wicked.
I can tell the difference between right and wrong.
- 7 "Man has a hard task on earth.
His days are like those of a hired man.
- 2<sup>10</sup> Man is like a slave wishing for the evening shadows.
Or he is like a hired man who wants his pay.
- 3<sup>11</sup> But I am given months that are empty.
Nights of misery have been given to me.
- 4<sup>12</sup> When I lie down, I think, 'How long is it until I get up?'
The night is long, and I toss until dawn.
- 5<sup>13</sup> My body is covered with worms and scabs.
My skin is broken and full of running sores.
- 6<sup>14</sup> "My days go by faster than a weaver moves his tool.
And they come to an end without hope.
- 7<sup>15</sup> Remember, God, that my life is only as long as a breath.
My eyes will never see happy times
again.
- 8<sup>16</sup> Those who see me now will see me no more.
You will look for me, but I will be gone.
- 9<sup>17</sup> A cloud disappears and is gone.
In the same way, a person who goes where the dead are does not return.
- 10<sup>18</sup> He will never come back to his house
again.
His place will not know him anymore.
- 11<sup>19</sup> "So I will not stay quiet.

- I will speak out in the suffering of my spirit.
- I will complain because I am so unhappy.
- 12<sup>20</sup> I am not the sea or the sea monster.
So why have you set a guard over me?
- 13<sup>21</sup> Sometimes I think my bed will comfort me.
Or I think my couch will stop my complaint.
- 14<sup>22</sup> Then you frighten me with dreams.
You terrify me with visions.
- 15<sup>23</sup> My throat prefers to be choked.
My bones welcome death.
- 16<sup>24</sup> I hate my life. I don't want to live forever.
Let me alone. My days have no meaning.
- 17<sup>25</sup> "Why do you make man so important?
Why do you give him so much attention?
- 18<sup>26</sup> Will you examine him every morning?
Why do you test him every moment?
- 19<sup>27</sup> Will you never look away from me?
Will you not let me alone even long enough to swallow?
- 20<sup>28</sup> If I have sinned, what have I done to you,
you watcher of men?
Why have you made me your target?
Have I become a heavy load for you?
- 21<sup>29</sup> Why don't you pardon my wrongs and forgive my sins?
I will soon lie down in the dust and die.
You will search for me, but I will be no
more."

Bildad Speaks to Job

- 8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
- 2<sup>1</sup> "How long will you say such things?
Your words are no more than a strong wind.
- 3<sup>2</sup> God does not twist fairness.
God All-Powerful does not make wrong what is right.
- 4<sup>3</sup> Your children sinned against God.
And he punished them for their sins.
- 5<sup>4</sup> But you should ask God for help.
Pray to God All-Powerful for mercy.
- 6<sup>5</sup> You must be good and honest.
Then he will start doing something for
you.
And he will bring you back where you belong.
- 7<sup>6</sup> The place you began will seem unimportant because your future will be so successful.
- 8<sup>7</sup> "Ask old people and find out what their ancestors learned.
- 9<sup>8</sup> We were only born yesterday and know nothing.

- Our days on earth are like only a shadow.
- <sup>10</sup>Those people will teach you and tell you.
They will tell you what they know.
- <sup>11</sup>Papyrus plants cannot grow tall where there is no wet land.
Reeds cannot grow tall without water.
- <sup>12</sup>While they are still growing and not yet cut,
they will dry up more quickly than grass.
- <sup>13</sup>That is what will happen to everyone who forgets God.
The hope of the person without God will be gone.
- <sup>14</sup>What he trusts in is easily broken.
It is as easily broken as a spider's web.
- <sup>15</sup>He leans on the spider's web, but it breaks.
He holds on to it, but it does not hold him up.
- <sup>16</sup>He is like a well-watered plant in the sunshine.
The plant spreads its roots all through the garden.
- <sup>17</sup>It wraps its roots around a pile of rocks.
And it looks for a place among the stones.
- <sup>18</sup>But the plant may be torn from its place.
Then that place rejects it and says, 'I never saw you.'
- <sup>19</sup>Then its life dries up.
And other plants grow up from the dirt in its place.
- <sup>20</sup>'Surely God does not reject innocent men.
He does not give strength to those who do evil.
- <sup>21</sup>God will yet fill your mouth with laughter.
And he will fill your lips with shouts of joy.
- <sup>22</sup>Your enemies will be covered in shame.
And the tents of the wicked will be gone."
- Job Answers Bildad
- 9 Then Job answered:
<sup>2</sup>"Yes, I know that this is true.
But how can man be right in the presence of God?
<sup>3</sup>A person might want to argue with God.
But he could not answer God one time out of a thousand.
<sup>4</sup>God's wisdom is deep, and his power is great.
No one can fight God without being hurt.
- <sup>5</sup>God moves mountains without anyone knowing it.
He turns mountains over when he is angry.
<sup>6</sup>God shakes the earth out of its place.
And he makes the earth's foundations shake.
<sup>7</sup>God commands the sun not to shine.
He shuts off the light of the stars.
<sup>8</sup>God alone stretches out the skies.
And he walks on the waves of the sea.
<sup>9</sup>It is God who made the Bear, Orion and the Pleiades<sup>a</sup> and the groups of stars in the southern sky.
<sup>10</sup>God does wonderful things that people cannot understand.
He does so many miracles<sup>d</sup> they cannot be counted.
<sup>11</sup>When he passes me, I cannot see him.
When he goes by me, I cannot recognize him.
<sup>12</sup>If God snatches something away, no one can stop him.
No one can say to him, 'What are you doing?'
<sup>13</sup>God will not hold back his anger.
Even the helpers of the monster Rahab<sup>d</sup> lie at God's feet in fear.
<sup>14</sup>So how can I argue with God?
I cannot find words to argue with him.
<sup>15</sup>Even if I was right, I could not answer him.
I could only beg God, my Judge, for mercy.
<sup>16</sup>I might call to him. But even if he answered,
I still would not believe he would listen to me.
<sup>17</sup>God would crush me with a storm.
He would multiply my hurts for no reason.
<sup>18</sup>He would not let me catch my breath.
He would overwhelm me with misery.
<sup>19</sup>When it comes to strength, God is stronger than I.
And when it comes to justice, no one can accuse him!
<sup>20</sup>Even if I were right, my own mouth would say I was wrong.
If I were innocent, my mouth would say I was guilty.
But I don't think about myself.

I hate my own life.

<sup>22</sup>It is all the same. That is why I say, 'God destroys both the innocent and the evil people.'

<sup>23</sup>A whip may bring sudden death.
And God will laugh when good people suffer.

<sup>24</sup>When land falls into the hands of evil
people,
God covers the judges' faces so they can't see it.
If it is not God who does this, then who is it?

<sup>25</sup>'My days go by faster than a runner.
They fly away without my seeing even a little joy.

<sup>26</sup>They glide past like boats made of papyrus plants.
My days are like eagles that swoop down on animals they attack.

<sup>27</sup>I might say, 'I will forget my complaint.
I will change the look on my face, and smile.'

<sup>28</sup>But I will still dread all my suffering.
I know you will hold me guilty.

<sup>29</sup>I have already been found guilty.
So why should I struggle for no reason?

And I might even wash my hands with strong soap.

<sup>31</sup>But you would push me into a dirty pit.
And even my clothes would hate me.

<sup>32</sup>'God is not a man like me. So I cannot answer him.

We cannot meet each other in court.

<sup>33</sup>I wish there was someone to make peace between us.

I wish someone could decide our case.

<sup>34</sup>I wish someone could remove God's punishment from me.

Then his terror would not frighten me anymore.

<sup>35</sup>Then I could speak up without being afraid of God.

But I am not able to do that.

10 'I hate my own life.
So I will complain without holding back.

And I will speak because I am so unhappy.

<sup>21</sup> I will say to God: Do not hold me guilty.
But tell me what you have against me.

<sup>3</sup>Does it make you happy to trouble me?
Don't you care about me, the work of your own hands?

Are you happy with the plans of evil
people?

<sup>4</sup>Do you have human eyes?
Do you see as a man sees?

<sup>5</sup>Are your days like the days of man?
Are your years like the years of a man?

<sup>6</sup>You look for evil I have done and search for my sin.

<sup>7</sup>But you know I am not guilty.
And you know no one can save me from your power.

<sup>8</sup>'Your hands shaped me and made me.
But now you turn around and destroy
me.

<sup>9</sup>Remember that you molded me like a piece of clay.

Now will you turn me back into dust?

<sup>10</sup>You formed me in my mother's womb as cheese is formed from milk.

<sup>11</sup>You put skin and flesh on me like clothing.
You sewed me together with bones and muscles.

<sup>12</sup>You gave me life and showed me kindness.
And in your care you watched over my life.

<sup>13</sup>'But in your heart you hid other plans.
I know this is what was in your mind:

<sup>14</sup>If I sinned, you would be watching me.
You would not let my sin go unpunished.

<sup>15</sup>How terrible it will be for me if I am guilty!

But even if I am right, I cannot lift my head.

I am full of shame.

It is as if I am drowning in my pain.

<sup>16</sup>If I hold up my head, you hunt me like a lion.

And again you show your terrible power against me.

<sup>17</sup>You bring new witnesses against me.
You increase your anger against me.

Your armies come against me like waves of the sea.

<sup>18</sup>'So why did you allow me to be born?
I wish I had died before anyone saw me.

<sup>19</sup>I wish I had never been born.
Or I wish I had been carried straight from birth to the grave!

Leave me alone so I can have a moment of joy.

<sup>21</sup>Soon I will leave and not return.
I will go to the land of darkness and gloom.

<sup>22</sup>It is the land of darkest night.

It is the land of gloom and confusion.
Even the light is darkness there."

Zophar Speaks to Job

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:

<sup>2</sup>"All these words should not go without an answer.

Is this talker to be judged as right?

<sup>3</sup>Your talk should not make people be quiet.
People should shame you when you make fun of God.

And I am clean<sup>a</sup> in God's sight."

I wish he would open his lips to speak against you.

<sup>6</sup>I wish he would tell you the secrets of wisdom.

This is because wisdom has two sides.

Know this: God has even forgotten some of your sin.

<sup>7</sup>"Can you understand the secrets of God?

Can you search the limits of the God All-Powerful?

<sup>8</sup>God's limits are higher than the heavens.
You cannot reach them!

They are deeper than where the dead are.
You cannot know them!

<sup>9</sup>His limits are longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

<sup>10</sup>"God might come along and put you in prison.

If he calls you into court, no one can stop him.

And when he sees evil, he notices it.

That is as impossible as a wild donkey being born tame.

<sup>13</sup>"You must give your whole heart to him.

You must hold out your hands to him for help.

<sup>14</sup>Put away the sin that is in your hand.

Let no evil live in your tent.

<sup>15</sup>Then you can lift up your face without shame.

You can stand strong without fear.

<sup>16</sup>You will forget your trouble.

You will remember your troubles only as water that has passed by.

<sup>17</sup>Your life will be as bright as the noonday sun.

And darkness will seem like morning.

<sup>18</sup>You will feel safe because there is hope.

You will look around and rest in safety.

<sup>19</sup>You will lie down, and no one will make you afraid.

Many people will want favor from you.

<sup>20</sup>But the wicked people will not be able to see.

So they will not be able to find the way to escape.

Their only hope will be to die."

Job Answers Zophar

12 Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup>"You really think you are the only wise people.

You think when you die wisdom will die with you.

<sup>3</sup>But my mind is as good as yours.

You are not better than I am.

Everyone knows all these things.

<sup>4</sup>My friends all laugh at me when I call on God and expect him to answer me.

They laugh at me even though I am right and innocent!

<sup>5</sup>People who are comfortable don't care that others have trouble.

They think that people who are in trouble should have more troubles.

Those who make God angry are safe.

They have their god in their pocket.

<sup>7</sup>"But ask the animals, and they will teach you.

Or ask the birds of the air, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup>Speak to the earth, and it will teach you.

Or let the fish of the sea tell you.

<sup>9</sup>Every one of these knows that the hand of the Lord has done this.

and the breath of all people are in God's hand.

<sup>11</sup>The ear tests words

as the tongue tastes food.

<sup>12</sup>Older people are supposed to be wise.

Long life is supposed to bring understanding.

<sup>13</sup>"But God has wisdom and power.

He has good advice and understanding.

<sup>14</sup>What God tears down cannot be rebuilt.

The man God puts in prison cannot be let out.

<sup>15</sup>If God holds back the waters, there is a time without rain.

- But if he lets the waters go, they flood the land.
- <sup>16</sup>God is strong and victorious.
Both the person who fools others and the one who is fooled belong to him.
- <sup>17</sup>God leads wise men away as captives.
He turns wise judges into fools.
- <sup>18</sup>God takes the royal belt off of kings.
And he dresses them like prisoners with only a cloth around their waist.
- <sup>19</sup>He leads priests away as captives.
He destroys the power of those who have been powerful.
- <sup>20</sup>God makes trusted people be silent.
And he takes away the wisdom of older leaders.
- <sup>21</sup>God brings disgrace on important people.
And he takes away the weapons of the strong.
- <sup>22</sup>God uncovers the deep things of darkness.
He brings dark shadows into the light.
- <sup>23</sup>He makes nations great, and he destroys them.
He makes nations large, and he scatters them.
- <sup>24</sup>He takes understanding away from the leaders of the earth.
He makes them wander through a desert with no paths.
- <sup>25</sup>They feel around in darkness with no light.
God makes them stumble around like drunken people.
- 13 "My eyes have seen all this.
My ears have heard and understood it.
- <sup>2</sup>What you know, I also know.
You are not better than I am.
- <sup>3</sup>But I want to speak to God All-Powerful.
I want to argue my case with God.
- <sup>4</sup>But you smear me with lies.
You are worthless doctors, all of you!
- <sup>5</sup>I wish you would just stop talking.
Then you would really be wise!
- <sup>6</sup>Listen to my argument.
Hear my lips begging.
- <sup>7</sup>You should not speak for God by saying evil things.
You cannot speak God's truth by telling lies.
- <sup>8</sup>You should not unfairly choose his side against mine.
You should not argue the case for God.
- <sup>9</sup>You will not do well if he examines you.
- You cannot fool God as you might fool men.
- <sup>10</sup>God would surely scold you if you unfairly took one person's side.
- <sup>11</sup>His bright glory would scare you.
You would be very much afraid of him.
- <sup>12</sup>Your wise sayings are worth no more than ashes.
Your arguments are as weak as clay.
- <sup>13</sup>"Be quiet and let me speak.
Then let things happen to me as they will.
- <sup>14</sup>I will put myself in danger and take my life in my own hands.
- <sup>15</sup>He will kill me. I have no hope.<sup>a</sup>
But I still will defend my ways to his face.
- <sup>16</sup>This might really save me, because a wicked man would not be brave enough to come before him.
- <sup>17</sup>Listen carefully to what I say.
Let your ears hear what I say.
- <sup>18</sup>See now, I have prepared my case.
I know I will be proved right.
- <sup>19</sup>No one can blame me for doing wrong.
If someone can, I will be quiet and die.
- <sup>20</sup>"God, please just give me these two things.
Then I will not hide from you.
- <sup>21</sup>Take your punishment away from me.
And stop frightening me with your terrors.
- <sup>22</sup>Then call me, and I will answer.
Or let me speak and you answer.
- <sup>23</sup>How many evil things and sins have I done?
Show me my wrong and my sin.
- <sup>24</sup>Don't hide your face from me.
Don't think of me as your enemy.
- <sup>25</sup>Don't punish a leaf that is blown by the wind.
Don't chase after dry chaff.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>26</sup>You write down cruel things against me.
You make me suffer for sins I did when I was young.
- <sup>27</sup>You put my feet in chains.
You keep close watch on everywhere I go.
And you mark the soles of my feet.
- <sup>28</sup>So man wears out like something rotten.
He is like clothing that has been eaten by moths.

<sup>a</sup>He . . . hope Or "Even if God kills me, I will still put my hope in him."

- 14 "All of us born to women live only a few days and have a lot of trouble.
- 2We grow up like flowers and then dry up and go away.
We are like a passing shadow that does not last.
- 3Lord, do you need to watch someone like this?
Do you need to bring him before you to be judged?
- 4I wish something clean<sup>d</sup> could come from something unclean.
But it never can!
- 5Our time is limited.
You have given us only so many months to live.
You have set limits we cannot go beyond.
- 6So look away from us and leave us alone.
Leave us alone until we put in our time like a hired man.
- 7"There is hope for a tree.
If you cut it down, it will grow again.
It will keep sending out new branches.
- 8Its roots may grow old in the ground.
And its stump may die in the dirt.
- 9But at the smell of water it will bud.
It will put out new shoots like a plant.
- 10But we die, and our bodies are laid in the ground.
We take our last breath and are gone.
- 11Water disappears from a lake.
And a river loses its water and dries up.
- 12In the same way we lie down and do not rise again.
We will not get up or be awakened until the heavens disappear.
- 13"I wish you would hide me where the dead are.
Hide me until your anger is gone.
I wish you would set a time and then remember me!
- 14If a man dies, will he live again?
I will wait, struggling hard until things change for me.
- 15You will call, and I will answer you.
You will desire the creature your hands have made.
- 16Then you will count my steps.
But you will not keep track of my sin.
- 17My wrongs will be closed up in a bag.
And you will cover up my sin.
- 18"A mountain washes away and crumbles.
And a rock can be moved from its place.

- 19Water washes over stones and wears them down.
And rushing waters wash away the dirt.
In the same way, you destroy my hope.
- 20You defeat man forever, and he is gone.
You change his appearance and send him
away.
- 21His sons are honored, but he does not know it.
His sons are disgraced, but he does not see it.
- 22He only feels the pain of his body.
And he feels sorry only for himself."

Eliphaz Answers Job

- 15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:
- 2"A wise man would not answer with empty words.
He would not fill his stomach with hot,
east wind.
- 3He would not argue with useless words.
He would not make speeches that have no value.
- 4But you even break down the worship of God.
You stand in the way of those who pray
to him.
- 5Your sin teaches your mouth what to say.
You use the same words as people who trick others.
- 6It is your own mouth, not mine, that shows you are wicked.
Your own lips speak as a witness against
you.
- 7"You are not the first man ever born.
You were not born before the hills were made.
- 8You cannot listen in on God's secret advice.
You cannot limit wisdom to yourself.
- 9You don't know any more than we know.
You don't understand any more than we understand.
- 10Old people with gray hair are on our side.
They are men even older than your father.
- 11The comfort God gives you is not enough for you,
even when words are spoken gently to
you.
- 12Your heart has carried you away from God.
Your eyes flash with anger.
- 13You speak out your anger against God.
And these words pour out of your mouth.

- 14“How can man be pure?
How can a person born to a woman be good?”
- 15God places no trust in his holy ones.
Even the heavens are not pure in his eyes.
- 16And man is even less than they are. He is terrible and rotten.
He drinks up evil as if it were water!
- 17“Job, listen to me, and I will tell you about it.
I will tell you what I have seen.
- 18These are things wise men have told.
Their fathers told them these things, and they have hidden nothing.
- 19(The land was given to their fathers only.
No foreigner lived among them.)
- 20The evil man suffers pain all his life.
The cruel man suffers during all the years saved up for him.
- 21Terrible sounds fill his ears.
When things seem to be going well, robbers attack him.
- 22The evil person gives up trying to escape from the darkness.
It has been decided that he will die by the sword.
- 23He wanders around. He will become food for vultures.
He knows death will soon come.
- 24Worry and suffering terrify him.
They overwhelm him. They seem like a king ready to attack.
- 25This is because he shakes his fist at God.
He tries to get his own way against God All-Powerful.
- 26He stubbornly charges at God with a thick, strong shield.
- 27“‘The evil person’s face is covered with fat.
His waist is fat with flesh.
- 28He will live in towns that are ruined.
He will live in houses where no one lives.
They are houses that are crumbling into ruins.
- 29The evil person will no longer get rich.
And the riches he has will not last.
The things he owns will no longer spread over the land.
- 30He will not escape the darkness.
A flame will dry up his branches.
God’s breath will carry that evil person away.
- 31The evil person should not fool himself by trusting what is useless.
If he does, he will get nothing in return.

- 32His branch will dry up before it finishes growing.
It will not even become green.
- 33He will be like a vine whose grapes are pulled off before they are ripe.
He will be like an olive tree that loses its blossoms.
- 34People without God can produce nothing.
Fire will destroy the tents of people who take money to do evil.
- 35They plan trouble and give birth to evil.
Their hearts plan ways to trick people.”

Job Answers Eliphaz

- 16 Then Job answered:
2“‘I have heard many things like these.
You are all painful comforters!
3Will your long, useless speeches never end?
What makes you keep on arguing?
4I also could speak as you do if you were in my place.
I could make great speeches against you.
And I could shake my head at you.
5But, instead, my words would encourage you.
I would speak words of comfort to bring you relief.
- 6“‘But if I speak, my pain does not become less.
And if I don’t speak, it still does not go away.
- 7God, you have surely taken away my strength.
You have destroyed my whole family.
- 8You have made me thin and weak.
And people feel that this shows I have done wrong.
- 9God attacks me and tears me with anger.
He grinds his teeth at me.
My enemy stares at me with his angry eyes.
- 10People open their mouths to make fun of me.
They hit my cheeks to insult me.
They join together against me.
- 11God has turned me over to evil men.
He has thrown me into the clutches of the wicked.
- 12Everything was fine with me.
But then God broke me into pieces.
He held me by the neck and crushed me.
He has made me his target.
- 13 God’s archers surround me.
He stabs my kidneys and has no mercy.
He spills my blood on the ground.

- <sup>14</sup>Again and again God attacks me.
He runs at me like a soldier.
- <sup>15</sup>"I have sewed rough cloth over my skin to show my sadness.
I have buried my face in the dust.
- <sup>16</sup>My face is red from crying.
I have dark circles around my eyes.
- <sup>17</sup>And yet my hands have never done anything cruel.
And my prayer is pure.
- <sup>18</sup>"Earth, please do not cover up my blood.
Don't let my cry ever stop being heard!
- <sup>19</sup>Even now I have one who speaks for me in heaven.
The one who is on my side is high above.
- <sup>20</sup>The one who speaks for me is my friend.
While he does this, my eyes pour out tears to God.
- <sup>21</sup>He begs God on behalf of a man as a man begs for his friend.
- <sup>22</sup>"Only a few years will pass before I go on the journey from which I cannot return.
- 17 My spirit is broken.
The days of my life are almost gone.
The grave is waiting for me.
- <sup>2</sup>Those who laugh at me surround me.
I watch them insult me.
- <sup>3</sup>"God, make me a promise.
No one else will make a promise for me.
- <sup>4</sup>You have closed the minds of my friends so they do not understand.
So you will not let them win over me.
- <sup>5</sup>A man might speak against his friends for money.
But if he does, the eyes of his children go blind.
- <sup>6</sup>"God has caused people to use my name as a curse word.
People spit in my face.
- <sup>7</sup>My sight has grown weak because of my sadness.
My body is so thin it's like a shadow.
- <sup>8</sup>Honest people are upset about this.
Innocent people are upset with people who do wrong.
- <sup>9</sup>But people who do right will continue to do right.
And those whose hands are not dirty with sin will grow stronger.
- <sup>10</sup>"But, all of you, come and try again!
I do not find a wise man among you!

- <sup>11</sup>My days are gone, and my plans have been destroyed.
The desires of my heart are also destroyed.
- <sup>12</sup>These men think night is day.
When it is dark, they say, 'Light is near.'
- <sup>13</sup>It might be that the only home I hope for is where the dead are.
I might spread out my bed in darkness.
- <sup>14</sup>I might say to the grave, 'You are my father.'
And I might say to the worm, 'You are my mother' or 'You are my sister.'
- <sup>15</sup>If these things are true, I have no hope.
No one can see any hope for me.
- <sup>16</sup>Hope will go down to the gates of death.
We will go down together into the dust."

Bildad Answers Job

- 18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
<sup>2</sup>"When will you stop these speeches?
Be sensible, and then we can talk.
- <sup>3</sup>You think of us as only cattle.
You think we are stupid.
- <sup>4</sup>You tear yourself to pieces in your anger.
Does everyone have to leave the earth
just for you?
Do the rocks have to be moved from their place for you?
- <sup>5</sup>"The lamp of the wicked person will be put out.
The flame in his lamp will stop burning.
- <sup>6</sup>The light in his tent will become dark.
The lamp by his side will go out.
- <sup>7</sup>His footsteps will become weak and lose their strength.
He will fall into his own evil trap.
- <sup>8</sup>His feet are caught in a net when he walks into its web.
- <sup>9</sup>A trap will catch him by the heel.
And it will hold him tight.
- <sup>10</sup>A trap for him is hidden on the ground.
It lies in his path.
- <sup>11</sup>Terrible things startle him from every side.
They chase him at every step.
- <sup>12</sup>Hunger takes away his strength.
Disaster is at his side.
- <sup>13</sup>Disease eats away parts of his skin.
The signs of death begin to eat away at his arms and legs.
- <sup>14</sup>The evil person is torn from the safety of his tent.
He is dragged off to Death, the King of Terrors.
- <sup>15</sup>His tent is set on fire.

Burning sulfur is scattered over his home.
 16His roots dry up below ground, and his branches above ground die.
 17People on earth will not remember him.
 His name will be forgotten in the land.
 18He will be driven from the light into darkness.
 He will be chased out of the world.
 19He has no children or descendants<sup>d</sup> among his people.
 No one will be left alive where he once lived.
 20People of the west are shocked at what has happened to him.
 People of the east are very frightened.
 21This is surely what will happen to the home of an evil person.
 This is the place of one who does not know God.”

Job Answers Bildad

19 Then Job answered:
 2“How long will you hurt me and crush me with your words?
 3You have insulted me ten times now.
 You attack me without shame.
 4If I have sinned,
 it is my worry alone.
 5Maybe you want to make yourselves look better than I do
 so you can blame me for my suffering.
 6Then know that God has wronged me.
 He has pulled his net around me.
 7“I shout, ‘I have been wronged!’
 But I get no answer.
 I call loudly for help,
 but I receive no justice.
 8God has blocked my way so I cannot pass.
 He has covered my paths with darkness.
 9He has taken away my honor.
 He has removed the crown from my head.
 10He beats me down on every side until I am gone.
 He pulls up my hope as a tree is pulled up by its roots.
 11His anger burns against me.
 And he treats me as one of his enemies.
 12His armies gather.
 They prepare a way to attack me.
 They camp around my tent.
 13“God has made my brothers my enemies.
 My friends have become complete strangers.
 14My relatives have gone away.
 My friends have forgotten me.
 15My guests and my women servants think of me as a stranger.
 They look at me as if I were a foreigner.
 16I call for my servant, but he does not answer.
 I even beg him with my own mouth.
 17My wife hates my breath.
 My own family hates me.
 18Even the little boys hate me.
 When I leave, they talk about me.
 19All my close friends hate me.
 Even those I love have turned against
 me.
 20I am nothing but skin and bones.
 I have escaped with only the skin of my teeth.
 21Pity me, my friends. Pity me!
 The hand of God has hit me.
 22Why do you chase me as God does?
 Haven’t you had enough of hurting my body?
 23“How I wish my words were written down.
 I wish they were written on a scroll.
 24I wish they were carved with an iron pen into lead,
 or carved into stone forever!
 25I know that my Defender lives.
 And in the end he will come to show that I am right.
 26Even after my skin has been destroyed, in my flesh I will still see God.
 27I will see him myself.
 I myself will see him with my own eyes.
 How my heart wants that to happen!
 28“You may say, ‘We will continue to trouble
 Job.
 The problem lies with him.’
 29But you should be afraid of the sword yourselves.
 God’s anger will bring punishment by the sword.
 Then you will know that there is judgment.”

Zophar Answers

20 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:
 2“My troubled thoughts cause me to answer.
 I am very upset.
 3I hear you criticize, and I am insulted.
 But I understand how to answer you.

- 4<sup>4</sup>You know how it has been for a long time.
It has been this way since man was put on the earth.
- 5<sup>5</sup>The happiness of an evil person is very short.
The joy of a person without God lasts only a moment.
- 6<sup>6</sup>His pride may be as high as the heavens.
His head may touch the clouds.
- 7<sup>7</sup>But he will be gone forever, like his own dung.
People who knew him will say, 'Where is he?'
- 8<sup>8</sup>He will fly away like a dream.
He will not be found again.
He will be chased away like a vision in the night.
- 9<sup>9</sup>Those who saw him will not see him again.
The place where he lived will see him no more.
- 10<sup>10</sup>His children will have to make up for how he mistreated the poor.
He will have to give his wealth back with his own hands.
- 11<sup>11</sup>He has the strength of his youth in his bones.
But it will lie with him in the dust of death.
- 12<sup>12</sup>'Evil may taste sweet in the evil person's mouth.
He may hide it under his tongue.
- 13<sup>13</sup>He cannot stand to let go of it.
So he keeps it in his mouth.
- 14<sup>14</sup>But his food will turn sour in his stomach.
It will be like the poison of a snake inside him.
- 15<sup>15</sup>He has swallowed riches, but he will spit them out.
God will make the evil person's stomach vomit them up.
- 16<sup>16</sup>He will suck the poison of snakes.
The snake's poisonous fangs will kill him.
- 17<sup>17</sup>He will not admire the sparkling streams or the rivers flowing with honey and cream.
- 18<sup>18</sup>He must give back what he worked for without eating it.
He will not enjoy the money he made from his trading.
- 19<sup>19</sup>This is because he has troubled the poor people and left them with nothing.
He has taken houses he did not build.
- 20<sup>20</sup>'The evil person has no rest from his desire.

- Nothing escapes his selfishness.
- 21<sup>21</sup>But nothing will be left for him to eat.
His riches will not continue.
- 22<sup>22</sup>When he still has plenty, trouble will catch up to him.
Great misery will come down on him.
- 23<sup>23</sup>The evil person may eat until his stomach is full.
But then God will send his burning anger against him.
God will send blows of punishment down on him like rain.
- 24<sup>24</sup>The evil person may run away from an iron weapon.
But then a bronze arrow will stab him.
- 25<sup>25</sup>He will pull the arrow out of his back.
He will pull its point out of his liver.
Terrors will come over him.
- 26<sup>26</sup>Total darkness waits for his treasure.
A fire not fanned by people will destroy him.
That fire will burn up what is left of his tent.
- 27<sup>27</sup>The heavens will show his guilt.
The earth will rise up against him.
- 28<sup>28</sup>A flood will carry his house away.
The rushing waters will come on the day of God's anger.
- 29<sup>29</sup>This is what God plans for evil people.
This is what he has decided they will receive."

Job Answers Zophar

- 21 Then Job answered:
- 21<sup>1</sup>Listen carefully to my words.
Let this be the way you comfort me.
- 21<sup>2</sup>Be patient while I speak.
After I have finished, you may continue to make fun of me if you wish.
- 21<sup>3</sup>My complaint is not just against people.
I have reason to be impatient.
- 21<sup>4</sup>Look at me then and be shocked.
Put your hand over your mouth in shock.
- 21<sup>5</sup>When I think about this, I am terribly afraid.
My body shakes!
- 21<sup>6</sup>Why do evil people live a long time?
They grow old and become more powerful.
- 21<sup>7</sup>They see their children become strong around them.
They watch their children grow up.
- 21<sup>8</sup>Their homes are safe and without fear.
God does not punish them.
- 21<sup>9</sup>Their bulls never fail to mate.
Their cows have healthy calves.

- <sup>11</sup>Their children run and play like flocks of lambs.
Their little ones dance about.
- <sup>12</sup>They sing to the music of tambourines<sup>d</sup> and harps.
The sound of the flute makes them happy.
- <sup>13</sup>Evil people enjoy success during their lives.
Then they go down in peace to where the dead are.
- <sup>14</sup>But they say to God, 'Leave us alone!
We don't want to know your ways.'
- <sup>15</sup>Who is God All-Powerful that we should serve him?
We would gain nothing by praying to him.'
- <sup>16</sup>But the wicked think they succeed by their own strength.
Their way of thinking is not godly.
- <sup>17</sup>Yet how often is the lamp of evil people turned off?
How often does trouble come to them?
How often do they suffer the punishment God plans in his anger?
- <sup>18</sup>How often are they like straw in the wind or like chaff<sup>d</sup> that is blown away by a storm?
- <sup>19</sup>It is said, 'God saves up a man's punishment for the man's children.'
God should punish the evil person himself so he will know it.
- <sup>20</sup>His eyes should see his own destruction.
He should suffer the anger of God All-Powerful.
- <sup>21</sup>He does not care about the family he leaves behind when his life has come to an end.
- <sup>22</sup>'No one can teach knowledge to God.
He is the one who judges even the most important people.'
- <sup>23</sup>One man dies while he still has all his strength.
He feels completely safe and comfortable.
- <sup>24</sup>His body was well fed.
And his bones were strong and healthy.
- <sup>25</sup>But another man dies with an unhappy heart.
He never had any happiness.
- <sup>26</sup>These two men are buried next to each other.
And worms cover both of them.
- <sup>27</sup>'I know very well what you are thinking.
I know your plans to do wrong to me.'
- <sup>28</sup>You say about me, 'Now where is this great man's house?'

And where are the tents where the evil men lived?'

- <sup>29</sup>You have never asked those who travel.
You have not listened to their stories.
- <sup>30</sup>On the day of God's anger and punishment, it is the evil man who is spared.
- <sup>31</sup>Who will accuse him to his face?
No one pays him back for the evil he has done.
- <sup>32</sup>He is carried to his grave.
And someone keeps watch over his tomb.
- <sup>33</sup>The dirt in the valley will seem sweet to him.
Everybody follows after him.
Many people go before him.
- <sup>34</sup>'So you cannot comfort me with this nonsense.
Your answers are still only lies!''

Eliphaz Answers

- 22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:
<sup>2</sup>'A man cannot be of any real use to God.
Even a wise man does him no good.'
- <sup>3</sup>It does not help God All-Powerful for you to be good.
He gains nothing if you are innocent.
- <sup>4</sup>God does not punish you for respecting him.
He does not bring you into court for this.
- <sup>5</sup>No! It is because your evil is without limits.
And your sins have no end.
- <sup>6</sup>You took your brothers' things to pay a debt they didn't owe.
You took clothes from people and left them naked.
- <sup>7</sup>You did not give water to tired people.
And you kept food away from the hungry.
- <sup>8</sup>You were a powerful man who owned land.
You were honored and lived in the land.
- <sup>9</sup>But you sent widows away without giving them anything.
You even mistreated orphans.
- <sup>10</sup>That is why traps are all around you.
That is why sudden danger frightens you.
- <sup>11</sup>That is why it is so dark you cannot see.
And that is why a flood of water covers you.
- <sup>12</sup>'God is in the highest part of heaven.
See how high the highest stars are!'

13But you say, 'God knows nothing.
 He cannot judge us through the dark clouds.
 14Thick clouds cover him so he cannot see us.
 He walks around high up in the sky.
 15Are you going to stay on the old path where evil people walk?
 16They were carried away before their time was up.
 Their foundations were washed away by a flood.
 17They said to God, 'Leave us alone!
 God All-Powerful can do nothing to us.'
 18But it was God who filled their houses with good things.
 He did this even though their way of thinking was not godly.
 19'Good people can watch and be glad.
 Innocent people can laugh at them and say,
 20'Surely our enemies are destroyed.
 And fire burns up their wealth.'
 21'Obey God, and then you will be at peace with him.
 This way you can be happy.
 22Accept teaching from his mouth.
 Keep his words in your heart.
 23If you return to God All-Powerful, you will be blessed again.
 Remove evil from your house.
 24Throw your gold nuggets into the dust.
 Throw your fine gold to the rocks in the ravines.
 25Then God All-Powerful will be your gold.
 He will be the best silver for you.
 26You will find pleasure in God All-Powerful.
 And you will look up to him.
 27You will pray to him, and he will hear you.
 And you will keep your promises to him.
 28Anything you decide will be done.
 And light will shine on your ways.
 29When terrible things happen to people, you will say, 'Have courage.'
 Then those who are humble will be saved.
 30Even the guilty will escape.
 They will be saved because your hands are clean.'<sup>d</sup>

Job Answers

23 Then Job answered:
 24'My complaint is still strong today.
 God's hand is heavy against me even though I am groaning.

3I wish I knew where to find God.
 I wish I could go to where he lives.
 4I would present my case before him.
 I would fill my mouth with arguments.
 5I would know the words of his answer.
 And I would think about what he would say.
 6He would not come against me with great power.
 He would really listen to me.
 7Then an honest person could present his case to God.
 And I would be saved forever from my judge.
 8'If I go to the east, God is not there.
 And if I go to the west, I do not see him
 there.
 9When he is at work in the north, I catch no sight of him.
 And when he turns to the south, I cannot see him.
 10But God knows the way that I take.
 When he has tested me, I will come out pure as gold.
 11My feet have closely followed his steps.
 I have stayed in his way without turning aside.
 12I have never left the commands he has spoken.
 I have treasured his words more than my food.
 13'But he is the only God.
 No one can come against him.
 He does anything he wants.
 14He will do to me what he said he would do.
 And he has many plans like this.
 15That is why I am so afraid before him.
 When I think of all this, I am afraid of
 him.
 16God has made me afraid.
 God All-Powerful has made me terribly afraid.
 17But I am cut off by the darkness, by the thick darkness that covers my face.

24 "I wish God All-Powerful would set a time for judging.
 People who know God look for such a day, but they do not see it.
 2Wicked people take other people's land.
 They steal flocks of sheep and take them to new pastures.
 3They chase away the orphan's donkey.

- And they take the widow's ox when she cannot pay what she owes.
- <sup>4</sup>They push needy people off the path.
So all the poor people of the land hide from them.
- <sup>5</sup>The poor become like wild donkeys in the desert.
They go about their job of finding food.
The desert gives them food for their children.
- <sup>6</sup>They gather hay and straw in the fields.
And they pick up leftover grapes from the evil man's vineyard.
- <sup>7</sup>They spend the night naked, because they have no clothes.
They have nothing to cover themselves in the cold.
- <sup>8</sup>They are soaked from mountain rains.
They stay near the large rocks because they have no shelter.
- <sup>9</sup>The child who has no father is grabbed from its mother's breast.
They take a poor mother's baby to pay for what she owes.
- <sup>10</sup>So the poor go around naked because they have no clothes.
They carry bundles of grain for evil people, but they still go hungry.
- <sup>11</sup>They crush olives to get oil.
And they crush grapes in the winepresses,<sup>a</sup> but they still are thirsty.
- <sup>12</sup>Dying people groan in the city.
People who are injured cry out for help.
But God accuses no one of doing wrong.
- <sup>13</sup>"There are people who fight against the light.
God's ways are strange to them.
And they do not stay in the lighted path.
- <sup>14</sup>When the light of day is gone, the murderer gets up.
He kills poor and needy people.
At night he goes about like a thief.
- <sup>15</sup>The person who is guilty of adultery<sup>a</sup> watches for the night.
He thinks, 'No one will see me.'
And he keeps his face covered.
- <sup>16</sup>In the dark, evil people break into houses.
But in the daytime they shut themselves up in their own houses.
They want nothing to do with the light.
- <sup>17</sup>Darkness is like morning to all these evil people.
They make friends with the terrors of darkness.
- <sup>18</sup>"They are like foam floating on the water.

- Their part of the land is cursed.
No one uses the road that goes by their vineyards.
- <sup>19</sup>Heat and dryness quickly take away the melted snow.
In the same way, the place for the dead quickly takes away those who have sinned.
- <sup>20</sup>The evil person's mother will even forget him.
The worms will eat his body.
He will no longer be remembered.
So wickedness is broken in pieces like a stick.
- <sup>21</sup>These evil men are unfair to women who cannot have children.
And they show no kindness to widows.
- <sup>22</sup>God drags away strong men by his power.
But even though they seem strong, they do not know how long they will live.
- <sup>23</sup>God may let these evil people feel safe.
But he is watching their ways.
- <sup>24</sup>For a little while they are important, and then they are gone.
They are made unimportant and gathered up like everyone else.
They are cut off like the tops of stalks of grain.
- <sup>25</sup>If this is not true, who can prove I am wrong?
And who can show that my words are worth nothing?"

Bildad Answers

- 25 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
<sup>2</sup>"God rules and must be honored.
He set up order in his high heaven.
<sup>3</sup>No one can count God's armies.
His light shines on all people.
<sup>4</sup>So no man can be good in the presence of God.
No one born to a woman can be pure.
<sup>5</sup>Even the moon is not bright, and the stars are not pure in his eyes.
<sup>6</sup>Man is much less! He is like an insect.
He is only a worm!"

Job Answers Bildad

- 26 Then Job answered:
<sup>2</sup>"You are no help to a person who has no strength!
You have given no help to one whose arm is weak!
<sup>3</sup>You have given advice to me as if I had no wisdom!

- This is not great wisdom you have shown!
- <sup>4</sup>Who has helped you say these words?
And where did you get these words you speak?
- <sup>5</sup>"The spirits of the dead beneath the waters shake.
And so do those that live in the waters.
- <sup>6</sup>Death is naked before God.
Destruction is uncovered before him.
- <sup>7</sup>God stretches the northern sky out over empty space.
And he hangs the earth on nothing.
- <sup>8</sup>God wraps up the waters in his thick clouds.
But the clouds do not break under the weight of the water.
- <sup>9</sup>God covers the face of the full moon.
He spreads his clouds over it.
- <sup>10</sup>God draws the horizon like a circle on the water at the place where light and darkness meet.
- <sup>11</sup>Heaven's foundations shake when he thunders at them.
- <sup>12</sup>God's power controls the sea.
By his wisdom he destroyed Rahab,<sup>4</sup> the sea monster.
- <sup>13</sup>God breathes, and the sky becomes clear.
God's hand stabs the gliding snake.
- <sup>14</sup>And these are only a small part of God's works.
We only hear a small whisper of him.
So who can understand God's thundering power?"
- 27 And Job continued speaking:
<sup>2</sup>"As surely as God lives, he has taken away my rights.
God All-Powerful has made me unhappy.
- <sup>3</sup>As long as I am alive and God's breath of life is in my nose, <sup>4</sup>My lips will not speak evil.
And my tongue will not tell a lie.
- <sup>5</sup>I will never agree you are right.
Until I die, I will never stop saying I was innocent.
- <sup>6</sup>I will hold tightly to the right things I said.
My sense of right and wrong does not bother me at all.
- <sup>7</sup>"Let my enemies be like evil people.
Let them be like those who are not fair!
- <sup>8</sup>What hope does a wicked person have when he dies?
He has no hope when God takes his life away.
- <sup>9</sup>God will not listen to his cry when trouble comes to him.
- <sup>10</sup>He will not find joy in God All-Powerful, even though he calls out to God all the time.
- <sup>11</sup>"I will teach you about the power of God.
I will not hide the ways of God All-Powerful.
- <sup>12</sup>You have all seen this yourselves.
So why are we having all this talk that means nothing?
- <sup>13</sup>"Here is what God has planned for evil people.
This is what cruel people will get from God All-Powerful:
- <sup>14</sup>They may have many children, but the sword will kill them.
The children who are left will never have enough to eat.
- <sup>15</sup>Then they will die and be buried.
And the widows will not even cry for them.
- <sup>16</sup>The evil person may heap up silver like piles of dirt.
He may have so many clothes they are like piles of clay.
- <sup>17</sup>But good people will wear what the evil person has gathered.
And those who are not guilty of wrong will divide up his silver.
- <sup>18</sup>The house the evil person builds is like a spider's web.
It is like a hut that a guard builds.
- <sup>19</sup>The evil person is rich when he goes to bed, but he is rich for the last time.
When he opens his eyes, everything is gone.
- <sup>20</sup>Fears come over him like a flood.
A storm snatches him away in the night.
- <sup>21</sup>The east wind will carry him away, and then he is gone.
It sweeps him out of his place.
- <sup>22</sup>The wind will hit the evil person without mercy as he tries to run away from its power.
- <sup>23</sup>It will be as if the wind is clapping its hands at him.
It will whistle at him as he runs from his place.
- 28 "There are mines where people dig silver.
And there are places where gold is made pure.
<sup>2</sup>Iron is taken out of the ground.
And copper is melted out of rocks.

- <sup>3</sup>Miners bring light into the mines.
They search even the deepest parts of the mines.
They look for metal in places of thick darkness.
- <sup>4</sup>Miners dig a tunnel far away from where people live.
They dig it where people never go.
They work far away from people, swinging and swaying from ropes.
- <sup>5</sup>Food grows on top of the earth.
But below ground things are changed as if by fire.
- <sup>6</sup>Sapphires are found in rocks.
And the dust of the earth contains gold.
- <sup>7</sup>No hawk knows the path.
The falcon has not seen it.
- <sup>8</sup>Proud animals have not walked on this path.
And no lions cross over it.
- <sup>9</sup>Men hit the rocks of flint.
They dig away at the bottom of the mountains.
- <sup>10</sup>Miners cut tunnels through the rock.
They see all the treasures there.
- <sup>11</sup>They search the places where rivers begin.
And they bring things hidden there out into the light.
- <sup>12</sup>"But where can wisdom be found.
Where does understanding live?"
- <sup>13</sup>People do not understand the value of wisdom.
It cannot be found among living people.
- <sup>14</sup>The deep ocean says, 'It's not in me.'
The sea says, 'It's not in me.'
- <sup>15</sup>Wisdom cannot be bought with the best gold.
Its cost cannot be weighed in silver.
- <sup>16</sup>Wisdom cannot be bought with fine gold.
It cannot be bought with valuable onyx or sapphire gems.
- <sup>17</sup>Gold and crystal are not as valuable as wisdom.
And you cannot buy it with jewels of gold.
- <sup>18</sup>Coral and jasper are not even worth talking about.
The price of wisdom is much greater than rubies.
- <sup>19</sup>The topaz from Cush cannot compare to wisdom.
It cannot even be bought with the purest gold.
- <sup>20</sup>"So from where does wisdom come?
And where does understanding live?"

- <sup>21</sup>It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing.
It is hidden even from the birds of the air.
- <sup>22</sup>The places of destruction and death say,
'We have only heard reports about it.'
- <sup>23</sup>God understands the way to wisdom.
And he is the only one who knows where it lives.
- <sup>24</sup>This is because God sees to the farthest parts of the earth.
And he sees everything under the heavens.
- <sup>25</sup>Wisdom began when God gave power to the wind.
It was when he measured the water and put limits on it.
- <sup>26</sup>It was when God made rules for the rain.
And he set a path for a thunderstorm to follow.
- <sup>27</sup>Then God looked at wisdom and decided its worth.
He set wisdom up and tested it.
- <sup>28</sup>Then he said to man,
'The fear of the Lord is wisdom, and to stay away from evil is understanding.'"

Job Continues

- 29 Job continued to speak:
<sup>2</sup>"How I wish for the months that have passed.
I wish for the days when God watched over me.
- <sup>3</sup>I wish for the days when God's lamp shined on my head.
And I wish for the time I walked through darkness by his light.
- <sup>4</sup>I wish for the days when I was at my strongest, when God's close friendship blessed my house.
- <sup>5</sup>That was when my children were all around me.
And God All-Powerful was still with me.
- <sup>6</sup>Life was so good. It was as if my path were covered with cream.
It was as if even the rocks poured out streams of olive oil for me.
- <sup>7</sup>I would go to the city gate and sit in the public square.
- <sup>8</sup>When the young men saw me, they would step out of my way.
And the old men would stand up in respect for me.
- <sup>9</sup>The leading men stopped speaking

- and covered their mouths with their hands.
- <sup>10</sup>The voices of the important men were quiet.
It was as if each man's tongue stuck to the roof of his mouth.
- <sup>11</sup>Anyone who heard me said good things about me.
And those who saw me praised me.
- <sup>12</sup>This was because I saved the poor who cried for help.
And I saved the orphan who had no one to help him.
- <sup>13</sup>The dying person blessed me.
And I made the widow's heart sing.
- <sup>14</sup>I put on right living as if it were clothing.
I wore fairness as if it were my robe and my turban.
- <sup>15</sup>I tried to be eyes for the blind.
And I tried to be feet for those who were crippled.
- <sup>16</sup>I was like a father to needy people.
And I took the side of strangers when they were in trouble.
- <sup>17</sup>I broke the fangs of evil people.
And I snatched from their teeth the people they wanted to hurt.
- <sup>18</sup>"I thought, 'I will live for as many days as there are grains of sand.
And I will die in my own house.'
- <sup>19</sup>I will be like a tree whose roots reach down to the water.
The dew will lie on the branches all night.
- <sup>20</sup>New honors will come to me continually.
I will always have great strength.'
- <sup>21</sup>"People listened to me carefully.
They waited quietly for my advice.
- <sup>22</sup>After I finished speaking, they spoke no more.
My words fell very gently on their ears.
- <sup>23</sup>They waited for me as they would for rain.
They drank in my words as if they were spring rain.
- <sup>24</sup>I smiled at them when they doubted.
And my approval was important to them.
- <sup>25</sup>I chose the right way for them and was their leader.
I lived like a king among his army.
I was like a person who gives comfort to sad people.
- 30 "But now men who are younger than I make fun of me.
I would not have even let their fathers sit with my sheep dogs.
- <sup>2</sup>Their hands had no strength to help me.
They had even lost their strength to work.
- <sup>3</sup>They were thin from being hungry and in need.
They wandered through the dry and ruined land at night.
- <sup>4</sup>They gathered desert plants by the brush for food.
They even ate the root of the broom tree.
- <sup>5</sup>They were forced to live away from other people.
People shouted at them as if they were thieves.
- <sup>6</sup>These young men had to live in dried up streambeds.
They lived in caves and among the rocks.
- <sup>7</sup>They howled like animals out among the bushes.
And they huddled together in the brush.
- <sup>8</sup>They are worthless people without names.
They were forced to leave the land.
- <sup>9</sup>"Now they make fun of me with songs.
My name has become a joke among them.
- <sup>10</sup>They hate me and stay far away from me.
But they do not mind spitting in my face.
- <sup>11</sup>God has taken away my strength and made me suffer.
So they attack me with all their anger.
- <sup>12</sup>On my right side they attack me like a mob.
They lay traps for my feet.
They prepare to attack me.
- <sup>13</sup>They break up my road.
They work to destroy me without anyone stopping them.
- <sup>14</sup>They go forward as if through a hole in the wall.
They roll in among the ruins.
- <sup>15</sup>Great fears overwhelm me.
They blow my honor away as if by a great wind.
My safety disappears like a cloud.
- <sup>16</sup>"Now my life is almost over.
My days are full of suffering.
- <sup>17</sup>At night my bones ache.
Gnawing pains never stop.
- <sup>18</sup>In his great power God grabs hold of my clothing.
He chokes me with the collar of my coat.
- <sup>19</sup>He throws me into the mud.
And I become like dirt and ashes.

20<sup>a</sup>I cry out to you, God, but you do not answer.
I stand up, but you just look at me.

21<sup>b</sup>You turn on me without mercy.
You attack me with your powerful hand.

22<sup>c</sup>You snatch me up and throw me into the wind.
You toss me about in the storm.

23<sup>d</sup>I know you will bring me down to death.
You will bring me to the place where all living people must go.

24<sup>e</sup>“Surely no one would hurt a ruined man when he cries for help in his time of trouble.

25<sup>f</sup>I have cried for those who are in trouble.
My soul has been very sad for poor people.

26<sup>g</sup>But when I hoped for good, only evil came to me.
When I looked for light, darkness came.

27<sup>h</sup>I never stop being upset inside.
Days of suffering are ahead of me.

28<sup>i</sup>I have become black, but not by the sun.
I stand up in public and cry for help.

29<sup>j</sup>It is as if I have become a brother to wild dogs and a friend to ostriches.

30<sup>k</sup>My skin becomes black and peels off.
My body burns with fever.

31<sup>l</sup>My harp is tuned for singing a sad song.
And my flute is tuned for the sound of loud crying.

31 “But I made an agreement with my eyes not to look with desire at a girl.

2<sup>m</sup>What has God above promised those who do this?
What has God All-Powerful on high planned for them?

3<sup>n</sup>It is ruin for the evil people.
It is disaster for those who do wrong.

4<sup>o</sup>God sees my ways, and he counts every step I take.

5<sup>p</sup>“I have not been a dishonest person.
I have not lied to others.

6<sup>q</sup>Let God weigh me on honest scales.
Then he will know I have done nothing wrong.

7<sup>r</sup>I have not turned away from doing what is right.
My heart has not been led by my eyes to do wrong.
My hands have not been made unclean.<sup>d</sup>

8<sup>s</sup>If I have done these things, then let other people eat what I have planted.

And let my crops be plowed up.

9<sup>t</sup>“I have not desired another woman.
I have never waited at my neighbor’s door to have sexual relations with his wife.

10<sup>u</sup>If I have done these things, then let my wife grind another man’s grain.
And let other men have sexual relations with her.

11<sup>v</sup>Sexual sin is shameful.
It is a sin which must be punished.

12<sup>w</sup>It is like a fire that burns and destroys forever.
It would destroy all I have.

13<sup>x</sup>“I have been fair to my male and female slaves when they had a complaint against me.

14<sup>y</sup>If I have not, how could I tell God what I did?
What will I answer when God asks me to explain what I’ve done?

15<sup>z</sup>God made me in my mother’s womb, and he also made them.
The same God formed both of us in our mothers’ wombs.

16<sup>aa</sup>“I have never refused anything the poor wanted.
I have never let widows give up hope while looking for help.

17<sup>ab</sup>I have not kept my food to myself.
I have also given it to the orphans.

18<sup>ac</sup>Since I was young, I have been like a father to the orphans.
And from my birth I guided the widows.

19<sup>ad</sup>I have not let a person die because he had no clothes.
I have not let a needy person go without a coat.

20<sup>ae</sup>That person’s heart blessed me.
This was because I warmed him with the wool of my sheep.

21<sup>af</sup>I have never hurt an orphan even when I knew I could win in court.

22<sup>ag</sup>If I have, then let my arm fall off my shoulder.
Let it be broken at the joint.

23<sup>ah</sup>This is because I dread destruction from God.
I could not do such things because I fear his majesty.

24<sup>ai</sup>“I have not put my trust in gold.
I have not said to pure gold, ‘You are my safety.’

25<sup>aj</sup>I have not celebrated my great wealth.

I have not celebrated that my hands had gained riches.
<sup>26</sup>I have not thought about worshipping the sun in its brightness.
 I have not admired the moon moving in glory
<sup>27</sup>so that my heart was pulled away from God.
 My hand has never offered the sun and moon a kiss of worship.
<sup>28</sup>If I had, these also would have been sins to be punished.
 I would have been unfaithful to God if I had done these things.
<sup>29</sup>"I have not been happy when my enemy was ruined.
 I have not laughed when he had trouble.
<sup>30</sup>I have not let my mouth sin by cursing my enemy's life.
<sup>31</sup>The men of my house have always said, 'Everyone has eaten all he wants of Job's food.'
<sup>32</sup>No stranger ever had to spend the night in the street.
 I always let the traveler stay in my home.
<sup>33</sup>I have not hidden my sin as other men do. I did not hide my guilt in my heart.
<sup>34</sup>I was not so afraid of the crowd. I did not keep quiet and stay inside because I feared being hated by other families.
<sup>35</sup>"How I wish a court would hear my case! Here I sign my name to show I have told the truth.
 Now let God All-Powerful answer me. Let the one who is against me write down what he accuses me of.
<sup>36</sup>I would surely wear the writing on my shoulder.
 I would put it on like a crown.
<sup>37</sup>I would explain to God every step I took. I would come near to God like a prince.)
<sup>38</sup>"My land did not cry out against me. Its plowed rows were not wet with tears.
<sup>39</sup>I did not take the land's harvest without paying.
 I did not break the spirit of those who took care of the land.
<sup>40</sup>If I did, then let thorns come up instead of wheat.
 And let weeds come up instead of barley."

The words of Job are finished.

Elihu Speaks

32 These three men stopped answering Job. This is because Job was so sure he was right. <sup>2</sup>But Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite became very angry with Job. (Elihu was from the family of Ram.) He was angry because Job claimed he was right instead of God. <sup>3</sup>Elihu was also angry with Job's three friends. They had no answer to show that Job was wrong. And yet they continued to blame him. <sup>4</sup>Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job. This is because the three friends were older than he was. <sup>5</sup>But when Elihu saw that the three men had nothing more to say, he became very angry.

<sup>6</sup>So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said this:

"I am young,
 and you are old.

That is why I was afraid to tell you what I know.

<sup>7</sup>I thought, 'Older people should speak.

Those who have lived many years should teach wisdom.'

<sup>8</sup>But it is the spirit in a person that gives him understanding.

It is the breath of God All-Powerful in him.

Older people are not the only ones who understand what is right.

<sup>10</sup>So I say, listen to me!

I will also tell you what I know.

<sup>11</sup>I waited while you spoke.

I listened to your explanations.

I waited while you looked for words to use.

<sup>12</sup> I paid close attention to you.

But not one of you has proved Job wrong.

Not one of you has answered his arguments.

<sup>13</sup>Don't you say, 'We have found wisdom.

Only God will show Job to be wrong, not people.'

<sup>14</sup>Job has not spoken his words against me.

So I will not use your arguments to answer Job.

<sup>15</sup>"These three friends are defeated and have no more to say.

Words have failed them.

<sup>16</sup>Now they are standing there with no answer for Job.

Now that they are quiet, must I wait to speak?

<sup>17</sup>No, I also will speak.

I will also tell what I know.

- 18I am full of words.
And the spirit in me causes me to speak.
- 19I am like wine that has been bottled up.
I am ready to burst like a new leather bag for holding wine.
- 20I must speak. Then I will feel relief.
I must open my mouth and answer.
- 21I will be fair to everyone.
I will not flatter anyone.
- 22I don't know how to flatter.
If I did, God, my Maker, would quickly take me away.

33 "But now, Job, listen to my words.
Pay attention to everything I say.

- 2I open my mouth.
I am ready to speak.
- 3My words come from an honest heart.
I am sincere when I speak what I know.
- 4The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God created me.
The breath of God All-Powerful gave me life.
- 5Answer me if you can.
Get yourself ready and stand before me.
- 6I am just like you before God.
I was also made out of clay.
- 7Don't be afraid of me.
I will not be hard on you.
- 8"But I heard what you have said.
I heard every word.
- 9You said, 'I am pure and without sin.
I am innocent and free from guilt.'
- 10But God has found fault with me.
He considers me his enemy.
- 11He locks my feet in chains.
He closely watches everywhere I go.'
- 12"But I tell you, you are not right in saying this.
God is greater than we are!
- 13Why do you accuse God of not answering man's complaints?
- 14God does speak—sometimes one way and sometimes another.
He speaks even though men may not understand it.
- 15God may speak in a dream or a vision of the night.
This is when men are in a deep sleep and lying in their beds.
- 16He may speak in their ears and frighten them with warnings.
- 17He warns them to turn away from doing wrong.
And he warns them not to be proud.
- 18God does this to save a man's soul from death.

- He does it to keep him from dying.
- 19A man may be corrected while on his bed in great pain.
He may have continual pain in his very bones.
- 20He may be in such pain that he even hates food.
He may hate even the very best meal.
- 21His body becomes so thin there is almost nothing left of it.
And his bones that were hidden by flesh now stick out.
- 22His soul is near the place of death.
His life is almost over.
- 23"But there may be an angel on his side.
The angel may be one out of a thousand who will speak for the man.
He will tell the man what he should do.
- 24The angel will beg for mercy and say:
'Save this man from the place of death.
I have found a way to pay for his life.'
- 25Then his body is made new like a child's body.
It will be returned to the way it was when he was young.
- 26That person will pray to God, and God will listen to him.
He will see God's face and will shout with happiness.
And God will set things right for him again.
- 27Then the man will say to other people,
'I sinned and twisted what was right.
But I did not receive the punishment I should have received.'
- 28God bought back my life from death.
And I will continue to enjoy life.'
- 29"God does all these things to a man.
He does them two times or even three.
- 30He does them so a person won't die as punishment for his sins.
He does it so the man may still enjoy life.
- 31"Job, pay attention and listen to me.
Be quiet, and I will speak.
- 32If you have anything to say, answer me.
Speak up, because I want you to be shown as right.
- 33But if you have nothing to say, then listen to me.
Be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom."
- 34 Then Elihu said:
2" Hear my words, you men who think you are wise.

- Listen to me, you men who think you know a lot.
- <sup>3</sup>The ear tests words as the tongue tastes food.
- <sup>4</sup>Let's decide for ourselves what is right. And let's learn together what is good.
- <sup>5</sup>Job says, 'I am not guilty. But God has refused me a fair trial.
- <sup>6</sup>Instead of getting a fair trial, I am called a liar. I have been seriously hurt, even though I have not sinned.'
- <sup>7</sup>There is no other man like Job. He takes insults as if he were drinking water.
- <sup>8</sup>He is around people who do evil. He spends time with wicked men.
- <sup>9</sup>This is because he says, 'It does not help a man to try and please God.'
- <sup>10</sup>'So listen to me, you who can understand. God All-Powerful can never do wrong! It is impossible for God to do evil.
- <sup>11</sup>God pays a person back for what he has done. God gives him what his actions deserve.
- <sup>12</sup>Truly God will never do wrong! God All-Powerful will never twist what is right.
- <sup>13</sup>No one chose God to rule over the earth. No one put him in charge of the whole world.
- <sup>14</sup>God could decide to take away his spirit and breath.
- <sup>15</sup>If he did, all people would die together. And they would all turn back into dust.
- <sup>16</sup>'If you can understand, hear this. Listen to what I have to say.
- <sup>17</sup>Can anyone govern who hates what is right? How can you blame God who is both fair and powerful?
- <sup>18</sup>God is the one who says to kings, 'You are worth nothing.' And he says to important people, 'You are evil.'
- <sup>19</sup>God is not better to princes than other people. He is not better to rich people than poor people. This is because he made them all with his own hands.
- <sup>20</sup>They can die in a moment, in the middle of the night.
- The rich are struck down, and then they pass away. Powerful people die without man's help.
- <sup>21</sup>'God watches where people go. He sees every step they take.
- <sup>22</sup>There is no dark place or deep shadow where those who do evil can hide from God.
- <sup>23</sup>God does not need to watch people more closely. He does not need for men to come before him for judging.
- <sup>24</sup>Without asking questions, God breaks powerful people into pieces. And he puts other people in their place.
- <sup>25</sup>This is because God knows what people do. He defeats them in the night, and they are crushed.
- <sup>26</sup>He punishes them for the evil things they do. He does it so that everyone else can watch.
- <sup>27</sup>This is because they stopped following God. They did not care about any of his ways.
- <sup>28</sup>God lets the cry of poor people reach him. He hears the cry of the needy.
- <sup>29</sup>But if God keeps quiet, who can blame him? If he hides his face, no one can see him. But God still rules over both men and nations.
- <sup>30</sup>He still keeps wicked men from ruling. And he keeps them from trapping others.
- <sup>31</sup>'But suppose such a man says to God, 'I am guilty, but I will not sin anymore.
- <sup>32</sup>Teach me what I cannot see. If I have done wrong, I will not do it again.'
- <sup>33</sup>So, Job, should God reward you the way you want when you will not change your heart and life? You must decide, not I. So tell me what you know.
- <sup>34</sup>'Men who understand speak. And wise men who hear me say,
- <sup>35</sup>Job speaks without knowing what is true. His words show he does not understand.'
- <sup>36</sup>I wish Job would be tested completely because he answered like an evil man!
- <sup>37</sup>Job has sinned, and now he turns against God. He claps his hands as an insult.

And he speaks more and more against God.”

35

Then Elihu said:

<sup>2</sup>“Do you think this is fair?

You say, ‘God will show that I am right.’

<sup>3</sup>But you say to him, ‘What good is it to me?

I don’t gain anything by not sinning.’

<sup>4</sup>‘I would like to answer you.

And I want to answer your friends who are with you.

<sup>5</sup>Look up at the sky and see.

Look at the clouds so high above you.

<sup>6</sup>If you sin, it does nothing to God.

Even if your sins are many, they do nothing to God.

<sup>7</sup>If you are good, you give nothing to God.

He receives nothing from your hand.

<sup>8</sup>Your evil ways only hurt a man like yourself.

And the good you do only helps other human beings.

<sup>9</sup>“People cry out for help when they are in trouble.

They beg for relief from powerful people.

<sup>10</sup>But no one asks, ‘Where is God, my Maker?

He gives us songs in the night.

<sup>11</sup>He makes us more clever than the animals of the earth.

He makes us wiser than the birds of the air.’

<sup>12</sup>God does not answer evil people when they cry for help.

This is because they are too proud.

<sup>13</sup>He does not listen to their useless begging. God All-Powerful pays no attention to them.

<sup>14</sup>He will listen to you even less when you say you do not see him.

He will not listen when you say your case is before him and you must wait for him.

<sup>15</sup>He will not listen when you say his anger never punishes and that he doesn’t notice evil.

He says many words without knowing what is true.”

Elihu’s Speech Continues

36

Elihu continued:

<sup>2</sup>“Listen to me a little longer. Then I will show you that there is more to be said for God’s side.

<sup>3</sup>What I know comes from far away.

I will show that God, my Maker, is right.

<sup>4</sup>You can be sure that my words are not false.

One who really knows is with you.

<sup>5</sup>“God is powerful, but he does not hate people.

He is powerful and sure of what he wants to do.

<sup>6</sup>God will not keep evil people alive.

But he gives troubled people their rights.

He sets them on thrones with kings.

And he lifts them up on high forever.

<sup>8</sup>People may be bound in chains.

Or trouble may tie them up like ropes around them.

<sup>9</sup>But then God tells them what they have done.

He tells them they have sinned by being too proud.

<sup>10</sup>God makes them listen to his warning.

He commands them to change from doing evil.

<sup>11</sup>If they obey and serve him,

the rest of their lives will be successful.

And the rest of their years will be happy.

<sup>12</sup>But if they do not listen, they will die by the sword.

And they will die without knowing better.

<sup>13</sup>“People who have wicked hearts hold on to anger.

Even when God ties them down with trouble, they do not cry for help.

They die among the male prostitutes<sup>d</sup> at the places of worship.

He gets them to listen through their pain.

<sup>16</sup>“God is gently calling you from the jaws of trouble.

He is calling you to an open place of freedom.

There he has set your table full of the best food.

<sup>17</sup>But now you are given the punishment evil people should have.

Now you are being punished.

<sup>18</sup>Be careful! Don’t be led away from God by riches.

- Don't let a promise of much money turn you away.
- <sup>19</sup>Neither your wealth nor all your great strength will keep you out of trouble.
- <sup>20</sup>Don't wish for the night.
That is when people are taken from their homes.
- <sup>21</sup>Be careful not to turn to evil, which you seem to want more than suffering.
- <sup>22</sup>"God does great things by his power. No other teacher is like him.
- <sup>23</sup>No one has planned his ways for him.
No one has said to God, 'You have done wrong.'
- <sup>24</sup>Remember to praise his work.
Men sing about it.
- <sup>25</sup>Everybody has seen it.
People look at it from far off.
- <sup>26</sup>God is so great! He is greater than we can understand!
No one can discover how many years he has been alive.
- <sup>27</sup>"God takes up the drops of water from the earth.
And he turns them into drops of rain.
- <sup>28</sup>Then the rain pours down from the clouds.
And showers fall on people.
- <sup>29</sup>No one understands how God spreads out the clouds.
No one understands how he thunders from where he lives.
- <sup>30</sup>Watch how God scatters his lightning around him.
It even lights up the deepest parts of the sea.
- <sup>31</sup>This is the way God governs the nations.
This is how he gives us enough food.
- <sup>32</sup>God fills his hands with lightning.
And he commands it to strike its target.
- <sup>33</sup>His thunder announces that a storm is coming.
Even the cattle show that the storm is coming.
- 37 "At the sound of his thunder, my heart pounds.
It is as if my heart will jump out of my chest.
- <sup>2</sup>Listen! Listen to the thunder of God's voice.
Listen to the rumbling that comes from his mouth.
- <sup>3</sup>He turns his lightning loose under the whole sky.
- And he sends it to the farthest parts of the earth.
- <sup>4</sup>After that you can hear the roar when he thunders with a great sound.
He does not hold back the flashing when his voice is heard.
- <sup>5</sup>God's voice thunders in wonderful ways.
He does great things we cannot understand.
- <sup>6</sup>God says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth.'
And he says to the rain shower, 'Be a heavy rain.'
- <sup>7</sup>With it, God stops everyone from working.
That way, everyone knows it is the work of God.
- <sup>8</sup>The animals take cover from the rain.
They stay in their dens.
- <sup>9</sup>The storm comes from where it was stored.
The cold comes from the strong winds.
- <sup>10</sup>The breath of God makes ice.
And the wide waters become frozen.
- <sup>11</sup>God fills the clouds up with water.
And he scatters his lightning through them.
- <sup>12</sup>At God's command they swirl around over the whole earth.
They do whatever he commands.
- <sup>13</sup>God uses the clouds to punish people or to water his earth and show his love.
- <sup>14</sup>"Job, listen to this.
Stop and notice God's miracles."
- <sup>15</sup>Do you know how God controls the clouds and makes his lightning flash?
- <sup>16</sup>Do you know how the clouds hang in the sky?
They are the miracles of God, who knows everything.
- <sup>17</sup>You suffer in your clothes when the land is made quiet by the hot, south wind.
- <sup>18</sup>You cannot stretch out the sky like God and make it look as hard as polished bronze.
- <sup>19</sup>Tell us what we should say to God.
We cannot get our arguments ready because we do not have enough understanding.
- <sup>20</sup>Should God be told that I want to speak?
A man might try to speak to God, but he would surely be swallowed up.
- <sup>21</sup>No one can look at the sun when it is bright in the sky after the wind has blown all the clouds away.
- <sup>22</sup>God comes out of the north in golden light.

He comes in overwhelming greatness.
 23 God All-Powerful is too high for us to reach.
 He has great strength.
 He is always right and never punishes unfairly.
 24 That is why people honor God.
 He does not respect those who say they are wise."

The Lord Questions Job

38 Then the Lord answered Job from the storm. He said:

2<sup>a</sup> "Who is this that makes my purpose unclear by saying things that are not true?
 3 Be strong like a man.
 I will ask you questions,
 and you must answer me.
 4 Where were you when I made the earth's foundation?
 Tell me, if you understand.
 5 Who marked off how big it should be?
 Surely you know!
 6 What were the earth's foundations set on?
 Or who put its cornerstone<sup>d</sup> in place?
 7 Who did all this while the morning stars sang together?
 Who did this while the angels shouted with joy?
 8 "Who shut the doors to keep the sea in when it broke through and was born?
 9 This was when I made the clouds like a coat for the sea.
 And I wrapped the sea in dark clouds.
 10 It was when I put limits on the sea.
 And I put its doors and bars in place.
 11 It was when I said to the sea, 'You may come this far, but no farther.
 This is where your proud waves must stop.'
 12 "Have you ever given orders for morning to begin?
 Or have you shown the dawn where its place was?
 13 The dawn takes hold of earth by its edges and shakes evil people out of it.
 14 At dawn the earth changes like clay being pressed by a seal.<sup>d</sup>
 The hills and valleys stand out like folds in a coat.
 15 Light is not given to evil people.
 Their arm is raised to do harm, but it is broken.

16 "Have you ever gone to where the sea begins?
 Or have you walked in the valleys under the sea?
 17 Have the gates of death been opened to you?
 Or have you seen the gates of the deep darkness?
 18 Do you understand the great width of the earth?
 Tell me, if you know all these things.
 19 "What is the path to light's home?
 And where does darkness live?
 20 Can you take them to their places?
 Do you know the way to their homes?
 21 Surely you know, if you were already born when all this happened!
 Have you lived that many years?
 22 "Have you ever gone into the storehouse where snow is kept?
 Or have you seen the storehouses for hail?
 23 I save the snow and hail for times of trouble.
 I save them for days of war and battle.
 24 How do you get to the place where light comes from?
 Or where is the place from which the east winds are scattered over the earth?
 25 Who cuts a waterway for the heavy rains?
 And who sets a path for the thunderstorm to follow?
 26 Who waters the land where no one lives?
 Who waters the desert that has no one in it?
 27 Who sends rain to satisfy the empty land so the grass begins to grow?
 28 Does the rain have a father?
 Who is father to the drops of dew?
 29 Who is the mother of the ice?
 Who gives birth to the frost from the sky?
 30 The waters become hard as stone.
 Even the surface of the deep ocean is frozen.
 31 "Can you tie up the stars of the Pleiades?
 Can you loosen the ropes of the stars in Orion?
 32 Can you bring out the stars at the right times?
 Or can you lead out the stars of the Bear with its cubs?
 33 Do you know the laws of the sky?

- Can you understand their rule over the earth?
- 34“Can you shout an order to the clouds and cover yourself with a flood of water?
- 35Can you send lightning bolts on their way? Do the flashes of lightning report to you and say, ‘Here we are’?
- 36Who put wisdom inside the mind? Or who put understanding in the heart?
- 37Who has the wisdom to count the clouds? Who can pour water from the jars of heaven?
- 38Who can do this when the dust becomes hard and the clumps of dirt stick together?
- 39“Do you hunt food for the female lion to satisfy the hunger of the young lions?
- 40Do you hunt for them while they lie in their dens or hide in the bushes waiting to attack?
- 41Who gives food to the birds when their young cry out to God? And who gives them food when they wander about without any?
- 39 “Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the deer gives birth to her fawn?
- 2Do you count the months until they give birth? Do you know when the time is right for them to give birth?
- 3They lie down, and their young are born. Then the pain of giving birth is over.
- 4Their young ones grow and become strong in the wild country. Then they leave their homes and do not come back.
- 5“Who let the wild donkey go free? Who untied his ropes?
- 6I am the one who gave the donkey the desert as his home. I gave him the desert lands as a place to live.
- 7The wild donkey laughs at the confusion in the city. He does not hear the drivers shout.
- 8He roams the hills looking for pasture. And he looks for anything green to eat.
- 9“Will the wild ox agree to serve you? Will he stay by your feeding box at night?
- 10Can you hold him to the plowed row with a harness?
- Will he plow the valleys for you?
- 11Will you depend on the wild ox for his great strength? Will you leave your heavy work for him to do?
- 12Can you trust the ox to bring in your grain? Will he gather it to your threshing<sup>a</sup> floor?
- 13“The wings of the ostrich flap happily. But the ostrich’s wings are not as beautiful as the feathers of the stork.
- 14The ostrich lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand.
- 15She does not stop to think that a foot might step on them and crush them. She does not care that some animal might walk on them.
- 16The ostrich is cruel to her young, as if they were not even hers. She does not care that her work is for nothing.
- 17This is because God did not give the ostrich wisdom. God did not give her a share of good sense.
- 18But when the ostrich gets up to run, she is so fast that she laughs at the horse and its rider.
- 19“Job, are you the one who gives the horse his strength? Or do you put a flowing mane on his neck?
- 20Do you make the horse jump like a locust?<sup>a</sup> He scares people with his proud snorting.
- 21He paws wildly, enjoying his strength. And he charges into the battle.
- 22He laughs at fear and is afraid of nothing. He will not run away from the sword.
- 23The bag of arrows rattles against the horse’s side. It is there with the flashing spears.
- 24With great excitement, the horse races over the ground. He cannot stand still when he hears the trumpet.
- 25When the trumpet blows, the horse snorts, ‘Aha!’ He smells the battle from far away. He hears the thunder of commanders and the shouts of battle.
- 26“Is it through your wisdom that the hawk flies? Is this why he spreads his wings toward the south?

- <sup>27</sup>Are you the one that commands the eagle to fly and build his nest so high?
<sup>28</sup>The eagle lives on a high cliff and stays there at night.
The rocky peak is his protected place.
<sup>29</sup>From there he looks for his food.
His eyes can see it from far away.
<sup>30</sup>His young eat blood.
And where there is something dead, the eagle is there."

40 The Lord said to Job:
<sup>24</sup>"Will the person who argues with God All-Powerful correct him?
Let the person who accuses God answer him!"

- <sup>3</sup>Then Job answered the Lord:
<sup>4</sup>"I am not worthy. I cannot answer you anything.
I will put my hand over my mouth.
<sup>5</sup>I spoke one time, but I will not answer again.
I even spoke two times, but I will say nothing more."

- <sup>6</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Job from the storm:
<sup>7</sup>"Be strong, like a man.
I will ask you questions.
And you must answer me.
<sup>8</sup>Would you say that I am unfair?
Would you blame me to make yourself look right?
<sup>9</sup>Are you as strong as God?
And can your voice thunder like his?
<sup>10</sup>If so, then decorate yourself with glory and beauty.
And put on honor and greatness as if they were clothing.
<sup>11</sup>Let your great anger punish.
Look at everyone who is proud and make him feel unimportant.
<sup>12</sup>Look at everyone who is proud and bring him under your control.
Crush the wicked wherever they are.
<sup>13</sup>Bury them all in the dirt together.
Cover their faces in the grave.
<sup>14</sup>If you can do that, then I myself will praise you because you are strong enough to save yourself.
<sup>15</sup>"Look at the behemoth.<sup>a</sup>
I made him just as I made you.
He eats grass like an ox.

- <sup>16</sup>Look at the strength he has in his body.
The muscles of his stomach are powerful!
<sup>17</sup>His tail extends like a cedar tree.
The muscles of his thighs are woven together.
<sup>18</sup>His bones are like tubes of bronze metal.
His legs are like bars of iron.
<sup>19</sup>He is one of the first of God's works.
But God, his Maker, can destroy him.
<sup>21</sup>He lies under the lotus plants hidden by the tall grass in the swamp.
The poplar trees by the streams surround him.
<sup>23</sup>If the river floods, he will not be afraid.
He is not afraid even if the Jordan River rushes to his mouth.
<sup>24</sup>Can anyone blind his eyes and capture him?
Can anyone put hooks in his nose?

- 41 "Can you catch the leviathan<sup>a</sup> on a fishhook?
Or can you tie his tongue down with a rope?
<sup>2</sup>Can you put a cord through his nose or put a hook in his jaw?
<sup>3</sup>Will he keep begging you for mercy?
Will he speak to you with gentle words?
<sup>4</sup>Will he make an agreement with you?
Will he let you take him as your slave for life?
<sup>5</sup>Can you make a pet of the leviathan as you would a bird?
Or can you put him on a leash for your girls?
<sup>6</sup>Will traders try to bargain with you for him?
Will they divide him up among the traders?
<sup>7</sup>Can you stick him with darts until his skin is full of them?
Or can you fill his head with fishing spears?
<sup>8</sup>If you put one hand on him,
you will never forget the battle.
And you will never do it again!
<sup>9</sup>There is no hope of defeating him.
Just seeing him overwhelms people.
<sup>10</sup>No one is brave enough to make him angry.
So who would be able to stand up against me?

- <sup>11</sup>No one has ever given me anything that I must pay back.
Everything under heaven belongs to me.
- <sup>12</sup>I can silence his bragging.
I can silence his brave words and powerful arguments.
- <sup>13</sup>No one can tear off his outer hide.
No one can poke through his double armor.
- <sup>14</sup>No one can force open his great jaws.
There are frightening teeth all around his jaws.
- <sup>15</sup>He has rows of shields on his back.
They are tightly sealed together.
- <sup>16</sup>Each shield is so close to the next one that no air can go between them.
- <sup>17</sup>They are joined strongly to one another.
They hold on to each other and cannot be broken apart.
- <sup>18</sup>When he snorts, flashes of light are thrown out.
His eyes look like the light at dawn.
- <sup>19</sup>Flames blaze from his mouth.
Sparks of fire shoot out.
- <sup>20</sup>Smoke pours out of his nose as if coming from a large pot over a hot fire.
- <sup>21</sup>His breath sets coals on fire.
And flames come out of his mouth.
- <sup>22</sup>There is great strength in his neck.
People are afraid and run away from him.
- <sup>23</sup>The folds of his skin are tightly joined.
They are set and cannot be moved.
- <sup>24</sup>His chest is as hard as a rock.
It is as hard as a stone used to grind grain.
- <sup>25</sup>Powerful creatures fear his terrible looks.
They draw back in fear as he moves.
- <sup>26</sup>The sword that hits him does not hurt him.
The darts and spears, small and large, do not hurt him.
- <sup>27</sup>He treats iron as if it were straw.
And he treats bronze metal as if it were rotten wood.
- <sup>28</sup>He does not run away from arrows.
Stones from slings are like chaff<sup>a</sup> to him.
- <sup>29</sup>Clubs feel like pieces of straw to him.
And he laughs when they shake a spear at him.
- <sup>30</sup>The underside of his body is like broken pieces of pottery.
It leaves a trail in the mud like a threshing<sup>a</sup> board.
- <sup>31</sup>He makes the deep sea bubble like a boiling pot.

- And he stirs up the sea like a pot of oil.
- <sup>32</sup>When he swims, he leaves a shining path in the water.
It makes the sea look as if it had white hair.
- <sup>33</sup>Nothing else on earth is equal to him.
He is a creature without fear.
- <sup>34</sup>He looks down on all those who are too proud.
He is king over all proud creatures.”

Job Answers the Lord

- 42 Then Job answered the Lord:
<sup>2</sup>“I know that you can do all things.
No plan of yours can be ruined.
- <sup>3</sup>You asked, ‘Who is this that made my purpose unclear by saying things that are not true?’
Surely I talked about things I did not understand.
I spoke of things too wonderful for me to know.
- <sup>4</sup>You said, ‘Listen now, and I will speak.
I will ask you questions.
And you must answer me.’
- <sup>5</sup>My ears had heard of you before.
But now my eyes have seen you.
- <sup>6</sup>So now I hate myself.
I will change my heart and life and sit in the dust and ashes.”

End of the Story

- <sup>7</sup>After the Lord had said these things to Job, he spoke to Eliphaz the Temanite. The Lord said to him, “I am angry with you and your two friends. This is because you have not said what is right about me. But my servant Job did.
- <sup>8</sup>So now take seven bulls and seven male sheep. Go to my servant Job. And offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you. And I will listen to his prayer. Then I will not punish you for being foolish. You have not said what is right about me. But my servant Job did.”
- <sup>9</sup>So Eliphaz the Temanite did as the Lord told him to do. Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite also did as the Lord said. And the Lord listened to Job’s prayer.
- <sup>10</sup>After Job had prayed for his friends, God gave him success again. God gave Job twice as much as he had owned before.
- <sup>11</sup>Job’s brothers and sisters came to his house. Everyone who had known him before came to his house. And they all ate with him there. They comforted Job and spoke kindly to him. They made him feel better about the trouble the Lord had brought on him. And each one gave Job a piece of silver and a gold ring.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord blessed the last part of Job's life even more than the first part. Job had 14,000 sheep and 6,000 camels. He had 1,000 pairs of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup>Job also had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup>He named the first daughter Jemimah. The second daughter he named Keziah. And his third daughter he named Keren-Happuch. <sup>15</sup>There were no other women in all the land as beautiful as Job's daughters. And their father Job gave them land to own along with their brothers.

<sup>16</sup>After this, Job lived 140 years. He lived to see his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. <sup>17</sup>Then Job died. He was old and had lived many years.

The Songbook of Israel

Book 1

Two Ways to Live

- 1 Happy is the person who doesn't listen to the wicked.
He doesn't go where sinners go.
He doesn't do what bad people do.
<sup>2</sup>He loves the Lord's teachings.
He thinks about those teachings day and night.
<sup>3</sup>He is strong, like a tree planted by a river.
It produces fruit in season.
Its leaves don't die.
Everything he does will succeed.
<sup>4</sup>But wicked people are not like that.
They are like useless chaff<sup>d</sup> that the wind blows away.
<sup>5</sup>So the wicked will not escape God's punishment.
Sinners will not worship God with good people.
<sup>6</sup>This is because the Lord protects good people.
But the wicked will be destroyed.

God's Chosen King

- 2 Why are the nations so angry?
Why are the people making useless plans?
<sup>2</sup>The kings of the earth prepare to fight.
Their leaders make plans together against the Lord and his appointed king.
<sup>3</sup>"Let's break the chains that hold us prisoners.
Let's throw off the ropes that tie us," the nations say.
<sup>4</sup>But the Lord in heaven laughs.
He makes fun of them.
<sup>5</sup>Then the Lord warns them.
He frightens them with his anger.
<sup>6</sup>He says, "I have appointed my own king!
He will rule in Jerusalem on my holy mountain."
<sup>7</sup>Now I will tell you what the Lord has declared:
He said to me, "You are my son.
Today I have become your father.

- <sup>8</sup>If you ask me, I will give you the nations.
All the people on earth will be yours.
<sup>9</sup>You will make them obey you by punishing them with an iron rod.
You will break them into pieces like pottery."
<sup>10</sup>So, kings, be wise.
Rulers, learn this lesson.
<sup>11</sup>Obey the Lord with great fear.
Be happy, but tremble.
<sup>12</sup>Show that you are loyal to his son.
Otherwise you will be destroyed.
He can quickly become angry.
But happy are those who trust him for protection.

A Morning Prayer

David sang this when he ran away from his son Absalom.

- 3 Lord, I have many enemies!
Many people have turned against me.
<sup>2</sup>Many people are talking about me.
They say, "God won't rescue him." Selah<sup>d</sup>
<sup>3</sup>But, Lord, you are my shield.
You are my wonderful God who gives me courage.
<sup>4</sup>I will pray to the Lord.
And he will answer me from his holy mountain. Selah <sup>5</sup>I can lie down and go to sleep.
And I will wake up again because the Lord protects me.
<sup>6</sup>Thousands of enemies may surround me.
But I am not afraid.
<sup>7</sup>Lord, rise up!
My God, come save me!
You have hit my enemies on the cheek.
You have broken the teeth of the wicked.
<sup>8</sup>The Lord can save his people.
Lord, bless your people. Selah

An Evening Prayer

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A song of David.

- 4 Answer me when I pray to you, my God who does what is right.
Lift the load that I carry.
Be kind to me and hear my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>People, how long will you turn my honor into shame?

You love what is false, and you look for new lies. Selah<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>You know that the Lord has chosen for himself those who are loyal to him.

The Lord listens when I pray to him.

<sup>4</sup>When you are angry, do not sin.

Think about these things quietly as you go to bed. Selah

“Who will give us anything good? Lord, be kind to us.”

<sup>7</sup>But you have made me very happy.

I am happier than they are, even with all their grain and wine.

<sup>8</sup>I go to bed and sleep in peace.

Lord, only you keep me safe.

A Morning Prayer for Protection

For the director of music. For flutes.
A song of David.

5 Lord, listen to my words.

Understand what I am thinking.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to my cry for help.

My king and my God, I pray to you.

<sup>3</sup>Lord, every morning you hear my voice.

Every morning, I tell you what I need. And I wait for your answer.

<sup>4</sup>You are not a God who is pleased with what is wicked.

You do not live with those who do evil.

<sup>5</sup>Those people who make fun of you cannot stand before you.

You hate all those who do wrong.

The Lord hates those who kill and trick others.

<sup>7</sup>Because of your great love,

I can come into your Temple.<sup>d</sup>

Because I fear and respect you,

I can worship in your holy Temple.

<sup>8</sup>Lord, since I have many enemies, show me the right thing to do.

Show me clearly how you want me to live.

<sup>9</sup>With their mouths my enemies do not tell the truth.

In their hearts they want to destroy people.

Their throats are like open graves.

They use their tongues for telling lies.

<sup>10</sup>God, declare them guilty!

Let them fall into their own traps.

Send them away because their sins are many.

They have turned against you.

<sup>11</sup>But let everyone who trusts you be happy.

Let them sing glad songs forever.

Protect those who love you.

They are happy because of you.

<sup>12</sup>Lord, you bless those who do what is right.

You protect them like a soldier's shield.

A Prayer for Mercy in Troubled Times

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. By the sheminith.<sup>d</sup> A song of David.

6 Lord, don't correct me when you are angry.

Don't punish me when you are very angry.

Heal me, Lord, because my bones ache.

<sup>3</sup>I am very upset.

Lord, how long will it be?

<sup>4</sup>Lord, return and save me.

Save me because of your kindness.

<sup>5</sup>Dead people don't remember you.

Those in the grave don't praise you.

<sup>6</sup>I am tired of crying to you.

Every night my bed is wet with tears.

My bed is soaked from my crying.

<sup>7</sup>My eyes are weak from so much crying.

They are weak from crying about my enemies.

<sup>8</sup>Get away from me, all you who do evil.

The Lord has heard my crying.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord has heard my cry for help.

The Lord will answer my prayer.

<sup>10</sup>All my enemies will be ashamed and troubled.

They will turn and suddenly leave in shame.

A Prayer for Fairness

A shiggaion<sup>d</sup> of David which he sang to the Lord about Cush, from the tribe of Benjamin.

7 Lord my God, I trust in you for protection.

Save me and rescue me from those who are chasing me.

They will rip me to pieces, and no one can save me.

<sup>3</sup>Lord my God, what have I done?

Have my hands done something wrong?

4Have I done wrong to my friend?
 Have I stolen from my enemy?
 5If I have, let my enemy chase me and capture me.
 Let him trample me into the dust.
 Let him bury me in the ground. Selah<sup>d</sup>
 6Lord, rise up in your anger.
 Stand up against my enemies' anger.
 Get up and demand fairness.
 7Gather the nations around you,
 and rule them from above.
 8Lord, judge the people.
 Lord, defend me.
 Prove that I am right.
 Show that I have done no wrong, God
 Most High.
 9God, you do what is right.
 You know our thoughts and feelings.
 Stop those wicked actions done by evil
 people.
 And help those who do what is right.
 10God Most High protects me like a shield.
 He saves those whose hearts are right.
 11God judges by what is right.
 And God is always ready to punish the wicked.
 12If they do not change their lives,
 God will sharpen his sword.
 He will string his bow and take aim.
 13He has prepared his deadly weapons.
 He has made his flaming arrows.
 14There are people who think up evil.
 They plan trouble and tell lies.
 15They dig a hole to trap other people.
 But they will fall into it themselves.
 16They themselves will get into trouble.
 The violence they cause will hurt only themselves.
 17I praise the Lord because he does what is right.
 I sing praises to the name of the Lord
 Most High.

God's Greatness and Man's Worth

For the director of music. By the gittith.<sup>d</sup>
 A song of David.

8 Lord our Master, your name is the most wonderful name
 in all the earth!
 It brings you praise in heaven above.
 2You have taught children and babies to sing praises to you.
 This is because of your enemies.
 And so you silence your enemies and destroy those who try to get even.

3I look at the heavens, which you made with your hands.
 I see the moon and stars,
 which you created.
 4But why is man important to you?
 Why do you take care of human beings?
 5You made man a little lower than the angels.
 And you crowned him with glory and honor.
 6You put him in charge of everything you made.
 You put all things under his control:
 7all the sheep, the cattle and the wild animals, 8the birds in the sky,
 the fish in the sea,
 and everything that lives under water.
 9Lord our Master,
 your name is the most wonderful name
 in all the earth!

Thanksgiving for Victory

For the director of music. To the tune of "The Death of the Son." A song of David.

9 I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart.
 I will tell all the miracles<sup>d</sup> you have done.
 2I will be happy because of you.
 God Most High, I will sing praises to your name.
 3My enemies turn back.
 They are overwhelmed and die because
 of you.
 4You have heard what I complained to you about.
 You sat on your throne and judged by what was right.
 5You spoke strongly against the foreign nations
 and destroyed the wicked people.
 You wiped out their names forever and ever.
 6The enemy is gone forever.
 You destroyed their cities.
 No one even remembers them.
 7But the Lord rules forever.
 He sits on his throne to judge.
 8The Lord will judge the world by what is right.
 He will decide what is fair for the
 nations.
 9The Lord defends those who suffer.
 He protects them in times of trouble.

- <sup>10</sup>Those who know the Lord trust him.
He will not leave those who come to him.
- <sup>11</sup>Sing praises to the Lord who is king on Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>
Tell the nations what he has done.
- <sup>12</sup>He remembers who the murderers are.
He will not forget the cries of those who suffer.
- <sup>13</sup>Lord, be kind to me.
See how my enemies hurt me.
Do not let me go through the gates of death.
- <sup>14</sup>Then, at the gates of Jerusalem, I will praise you.
I will rejoice because you saved me.
- <sup>15</sup>The nations have fallen into the pit they dug.
Their feet are caught in the nets they laid.
- <sup>16</sup>The Lord has made himself known by his fair decisions.
The wicked get trapped by what they do.
- <sup>17</sup>Wicked people will go to the grave.
So will all those who forget God.
- <sup>18</sup>Those who have troubles will not be forgotten.
The hopes of the poor will not die.
- <sup>19</sup>Lord, rise up and judge the nations.
Don't let humans think they are strong.
- <sup>20</sup>Teach them to fear you, Lord.
The nations must learn that they are only human.

- 10 Lord, why are you so far away?
Why do you hide when there is trouble?
- <sup>2</sup>Proudly the wicked chase down those who suffer.
The wicked set traps to catch them.
- <sup>3</sup>They brag about the things they want.
They bless the greedy but hate the Lord.
- <sup>4</sup>The wicked people are too proud.
They do not look for God.
There is no room for God in their thoughts.
- <sup>5</sup>They always succeed.
They are far from keeping your laws.
They make fun of their enemies.
- <sup>6</sup>They say to themselves, "Nothing bad will ever happen to me.
I will never be ruined."

- <sup>7</sup>Their mouths are full of curses, lies and threats.
They use their tongues for sin and evil.
- <sup>8</sup>They hide near the villages.
They look for innocent people to kill.
They watch in secret for the helpless.
- <sup>9</sup>They wait in hiding like a lion.
They wait to catch poor people.
They catch the poor in nets.
- <sup>10</sup>The poor are thrown down and crushed.
They are defeated because the others are stronger.
- <sup>11</sup>The wicked think,
"God has forgotten us.
He doesn't see what is happening."
- <sup>12</sup>Lord, rise up and punish the wicked.
Don't forget those who need help.
- <sup>13</sup>Why do wicked people hate God?
They say to themselves, "God won't punish us."
- <sup>14</sup>Lord, surely you see these cruel and evil things.
Look at them and do something.
People in trouble look to you for help.
You are the one who helps the orphans.
- <sup>15</sup>Break the power of wicked men.
Punish them for the evil they have done.
- <sup>16</sup>The Lord is King forever and ever.
Remove from your land those nations that do not worship you.
- <sup>17</sup>Lord, you have heard what the poor people want.
Do what they ask. Listen to them.
- <sup>18</sup>Protect the oppressed. Put an end to suffering.
Then they will no longer be afraid of evil people.

A Statement About Trust in God

For the director of music. Of David.

- 11 I trust in the Lord for protection.
So why do you say to me,
"Fly like a bird to your mountain."
- <sup>2</sup>Like hunters, the wicked string their bows.
They set their arrows on the bowstrings.
They shoot from dark places at those who are honest.
- <sup>3</sup>When all that is good falls apart, what can good people do?"
- <sup>4</sup>The Lord is in his holy temple.
The Lord sits on his throne in heaven.
And he sees what people do.
He keeps his eye on them.
- <sup>5</sup>The Lord tests those who do right.

But he hates the wicked and those who love to hurt others.

- <sup>6</sup>He will send hot coals on the wicked.
 Burning sulfur and a whirlwind is what they will get.
<sup>7</sup>The Lord does what is right, and he loves justice.
 So honest people will see his face.

A Prayer Against Liars

For the director of music. By the sheminith.<sup>d</sup>
 A song of David.

- 12 Save me, Lord, because the good people are all gone.
 No true believers are left on earth.
<sup>2</sup>Everyone lies to his neighbors.
 They say one thing and mean another.
<sup>3</sup>The Lord will stop those lying lips.
 He will cut off those bragging tongues.
<sup>4</sup>They say, "Our tongues will help us win.
 We can say what we wish. No one is our master."
<sup>5</sup>But the Lord says,
 "I will now rise up
 because the poor are being hurt.
 Because of the moans of the helpless,
 I will give them the help they want."
<sup>6</sup>The Lord's words are pure.
 They are like silver purified by fire, like silver purified seven times over.

- <sup>7</sup>Lord, keep us safe.
 Always protect us from such people.
<sup>8</sup>The wicked are all around us.
 Everyone loves what is wrong.

A Prayer for God to Be Near

For the director of music. A song of David.

- 13 How long will you forget me, Lord?
 How long will you hide from me?
 Forever?
<sup>2</sup>How long must I worry?
 How long must I feel sad in my heart?
 How long will my enemy win over me?
<sup>3</sup>Lord, look at me.
 Answer me, my God.
 Tell me, or I will die.
<sup>4</sup>Otherwise my enemy will say, "I have won!"
 Those against me will rejoice that I've been defeated.
<sup>5</sup>I trust in your love.
 My heart is happy because you saved me.
<sup>6</sup>I sing to the Lord because he has taken care of me.

The Unbelieving Fool

For the director of music. Of David.

- 14 A wicked fool says to himself,
 "There is no God."
 Fools are evil. They do terrible things.
 None of them does anything good.
<sup>2</sup>The Lord looked down from heaven at all the people.
 He looked to see if anyone was wise,
 if anyone was looking to God for help.
<sup>3</sup>But all have turned away.
 Together, everyone has become evil.
 None of them does anything good.
<sup>4</sup>Don't the wicked understand?
 They destroy my people as if they were eating bread.
 They do not ask the Lord for help.
<sup>5</sup>But the wicked are filled with terror because God is with those who do what is right.
<sup>6</sup>The wicked upset the plans of the poor.
 But the Lord will protect the poor.
<sup>7</sup>I pray that victory will come to Israel from Mount Zion!<sup>d</sup>
 May the Lord give them back their riches.
 Then the people of Jacob will rejoice.
 And the people of Israel will be glad.

What God Demands

A song of David.

- 15 Lord, who may enter your Holy Tent?<sup>d</sup>
 Who may live on your holy mountain?
<sup>2</sup>Only a person who is innocent and who does what is right.
 He must speak the truth from his heart.
<sup>3</sup>He must not tell lies about others.
<sup>4</sup>He must do no wrong to his neighbors.
 He must not gossip.
<sup>5</sup>He must not respect hateful people.
 He must honor those who honor the Lord.
 He must keep his promises to his neighbor,
 even when it hurts.
<sup>6</sup>He must not charge interest on money he lends.
 And he must not take money to hurt innocent people.
 Whoever does all these things will never be destroyed.

The Lord Takes Care of His People A miktam<sup>d</sup> of David.

- 16 Protect me, God,
because I trust in you.
<sup>2</sup>I said to the Lord, "You are my Lord.
Every good thing I have comes from
you."
<sup>3</sup>There are godly people in the world.
I enjoy them.
<sup>4</sup>But those who turn to idols will have much pain.
I will not offer blood to those idols.
I won't even speak their names.
<sup>5</sup>No, the Lord is all I need.
He takes care of me.
<sup>6</sup>My share in life has been pleasant.
My part has been beautiful.
<sup>7</sup>I praise the Lord because he guides me.
Even at night, I feel his leading.
<sup>8</sup>I keep the Lord before me always.
Because he is close by my side
I will not be hurt.
<sup>9</sup>So I rejoice, and I am glad.
Even my body has hope
<sup>10</sup>because you will not leave me in the grave.
You will not let your holy one rot.
<sup>11</sup>You will teach me God's way to live.
Being with you will fill me with joy.
At your right hand I will find pleasure
forever.

A Prayer for Protection

A prayer of David.

- 17 Lord, hear me begging for fairness.
Listen to my cry for help.
Pay attention to my prayer.
I speak the truth.
<sup>2</sup>You will judge that I am right.
Your eyes can see what is true.
<sup>3</sup>You have examined my heart.
You have tested me all night.
You questioned me without finding anything wrong.
I did not plan any evil.
<sup>4</sup>I have obeyed your commands.
I have not done what evil people do.
<sup>5</sup>I have done what you told me to do.
I have not failed.
<sup>6</sup>I call to you, God, and you answer me.
Listen to me now.
Hear what I say.
<sup>7</sup>Your love is wonderful.
By your power you save from their enemies those who trust you.

- <sup>8</sup>Protect me as you would protect your own eye.
Protect me as a bird hides her young under her wings.
<sup>9</sup>Keep me from the wicked who attack me.
Protect me from my enemies who surround me.
<sup>10</sup>They are selfish.
They brag about themselves.
<sup>11</sup>They have chased me.
Now they surround me.
They plan to throw me to the ground.
<sup>12</sup>They are like lions ready to kill.
Like lions, they sit in hiding.
<sup>13</sup>Lord, rise up and face the enemy.
Throw them down.
Save me from the wicked with your sword.
<sup>14</sup>Lord, save me from them by your power.
Their reward is in this life.
They have plenty of food.
They have many sons.
They leave money to their children.
<sup>15</sup>Because I have lived right, I will see your face.
When I wake up, I will see your likeness and be satisfied.

A Song of VictoryFor the director of music. By the Lord's servant, David. David sang this song to the Lord when the Lord had saved him from Saul and all his other enemies.

- 18 I love you, Lord. You are my strength.
<sup>2</sup>The Lord is my rock, my protection, my Savior.
My God is my rock.
I can run to him for safety.
He is my shield and my saving strength,
my high tower.
<sup>3</sup>I will call to the Lord.
He is worthy of praise.
And I will be saved from my enemies.
<sup>4</sup>The ropes of death bound me.
The deadly rivers overwhelmed me.
<sup>5</sup>The ropes of death wrapped around me.
The traps of death were before me.
<sup>6</sup>In my trouble I called to the Lord.
I cried out to my God for help.
From his temple he heard my voice.
My call for help reached his ears.
<sup>7</sup>The earth trembled and shook.

- The foundations of the mountains began to shake.
They shook because the Lord was angry.
- <sup>8</sup>Smoke came out of his nose.
Burning fire came out of his mouth.
Burning coals went before him.
- <sup>9</sup>He tore open the sky and came down.
Dark clouds were under his feet.
- <sup>10</sup>He rode a creature with wings and flew.
He flew on the wings of the wind.
- <sup>11</sup>He made darkness his covering, his shelter around him, surrounded by fog and clouds.
- <sup>12</sup>Out of the brightness of his presence came clouds.
They came with hail and lightning.
- <sup>13</sup>The Lord thundered from heaven.
God Most High raised his voice.
And there was hail and lightning.
- <sup>14</sup>He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies.
His many bolts of lightning confused them with fear.
- <sup>15</sup>Lord, you spoke strongly.
The wind blew from your nose.
The valleys of the sea appeared.
The foundations of the earth were seen.
- <sup>16</sup>The Lord reached down from above and took me.
He pulled me from the deep water.
- <sup>17</sup>He saved me from my powerful enemies.
Those who hated me were too strong for me.
- <sup>18</sup>They attacked me at my time of trouble.
But the Lord supported me.
- <sup>19</sup>He took me to a safe place.
Because he delights in me, he saved me.
- <sup>20</sup>The Lord spared me because I did what was right.
Because I have not done evil, he has rewarded me.
- <sup>21</sup>I have followed the ways of the Lord.
I have not done evil by turning away from my God.
- <sup>22</sup>I remember all his laws.
I have not broken his rules.
- <sup>23</sup>I am innocent before him.
I have kept myself from doing evil.
- <sup>24</sup>The Lord rewarded me because I did what was right.
I did what the Lord said was right.
- <sup>25</sup>Lord, you are loyal to those who are loyal.
You are good to those who are good.
- <sup>26</sup>You are pure to those who are pure.
But you are against those who are bad.
- <sup>27</sup>You save those who are not proud.
But you make humble those who are proud.
- <sup>28</sup>Lord, you give light to my lamp.
My God brightens the darkness around me.
- <sup>29</sup>With your help I can attack an army.
With God's help I can jump over a wall.
- <sup>30</sup>The ways of God are without fault.
The Lord's words are pure.
He is a shield to those who trust him.
- <sup>31</sup>Who is God? Only the Lord.
Who is the Rock? Only our God.
- <sup>32</sup>God is my protection.
He makes my way free from fault.
- <sup>33</sup>He makes me like a deer, which does not stumble.
He helps me stand on the steep mountains.
- <sup>34</sup>He trains my hands for battle.
So my arms can bend a bronze bow.
- <sup>35</sup>You protect me with your saving shield.
You support me with your right hand.
You have stooped to make me great.
- <sup>36</sup>You give me a wide path on which to walk.
My feet have not slipped.
- <sup>37</sup>I chased my enemies and caught them.
I did not quit till they were destroyed.
- <sup>38</sup>I crushed them so they couldn't rise up again.
They fell beneath my feet.
- <sup>39</sup>You gave me strength in battle.
You made my enemies bow before me.
- <sup>40</sup>You made my enemies turn back.
I destroyed those who hated me.
- <sup>41</sup>They called for help, but no one came to save them.
They called to the Lord,
but he did not answer them.
- <sup>42</sup>I beat my enemies into pieces.
They were like dust in the wind.
I poured them out like mud in the streets.
- <sup>43</sup>You saved me when the people attacked me.
You made me the leader of nations.
People I never knew serve me.
- <sup>44</sup>As soon as they hear me, they obey me.
Foreigners obey me.
- <sup>45</sup>They all become afraid.
They tremble in their hiding places.
- <sup>46</sup>The Lord lives!
May my Rock be praised.
Praise the God who saves me!

<sup>47</sup>God gives me victory over my enemies.

He brings people under my rule.

<sup>48</sup>He saves me from my enemies.

You set me over those who hate me.

You saved me from cruel men.

<sup>49</sup>So I will praise you, Lord, among the nations.

I will sing praises to your name.

He is loyal to his appointed king, to David and his descendants<sup>d</sup> forever.

God's Works and Word

For the director of music. A song of David.

19 The heavens tell the glory of God.
And the skies announce what his hands have made.

<sup>2</sup>Day after day they tell the story.

Night after night they tell it again.

<sup>3</sup>They have no speech or words.

They don't make any sound to be heard.

<sup>4</sup>But their message goes out through all the world.

It goes everywhere on earth.

The sky is like a home for the sun.

<sup>5</sup> The sun comes out like a bridegroom from his bedroom.

It rejoices like an athlete eager to run a race.

<sup>6</sup>The sun rises at one end of the sky, and it follows its path to the other end.
Nothing hides from its heat.

They give new strength.

The Lord's rules can be trusted.

They make plain people wise.

They make people happy.

The Lord's commands are pure.

They light up the way.

<sup>9</sup>It is good to respect the Lord.

That respect will last forever.

The Lord's judgments are true.

They are completely right.

<sup>10</sup>They are worth more than gold, even the purest gold.

They are sweeter than honey, even the finest honey.

<sup>11</sup>They tell your servant what to do.

Keeping them brings great reward.

<sup>12</sup>No one can see all his own mistakes.

Forgive me for my secret sins.

<sup>13</sup>Keep me from the sins that I want to do.

Don't let them rule me.

Then I can be pure and free from the greatest of sins.

<sup>14</sup>I hope my words and thoughts please you.

Lord, you are my Rock,<sup>d</sup> the one who saves me.

A Prayer for the King

For the director of music. A song of David.

20 May the Lord answer you in times of trouble.

May the God of Jacob protect you.

<sup>2</sup>May he send you help from his Temple.<sup>d</sup>

May he support you from Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>May he remember all your offerings.

May he accept all your sacrifices. Selah<sup>d</sup>

<sup>4</sup>May he give you what you want.

May all your plans succeed.

<sup>5</sup>We will shout for joy when you succeed.

We will raise a flag in the name of our God.

May the Lord give you all that you ask for.

He answers him from his holy heaven.

He saves him with his strong right hand.

<sup>7</sup>Some trust in chariots, others in horses.

But we trust the Lord our God.

<sup>8</sup>They are overwhelmed and defeated.

But we march forward and win.

Answer us when we call for help.

Thanksgiving for the King

For the director of music. A song of David.

21 Lord, the king rejoices because of your strength.

He is so happy when you save him!

You did not refuse what he asked for. Selah<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>You put good things before him.

You placed a gold crown on his head.

<sup>4</sup>He asked you for life.

And you gave it to him.

His years go on and on.

<sup>5</sup>He has great glory because you gave him victories.

You gave him honor and praise.

<sup>6</sup>You always gave him blessings.

You made him glad because you were with him.

<sup>7</sup>The king truly trusts the Lord.

Because God Most High always loves him, he will not be overwhelmed.

<sup>8</sup>Your hand is against all your enemies.

Those who hate you will feel your power.
 9When you appear, you will burn them like wood in a furnace.
 In your anger you will eat them up.
 Your fire will burn them up.
 10You will destroy their families from the earth.
 Their children will not live.
 11They made evil plans against you.
 But their traps won't work.
 12You will make them turn their backs when you aim your arrows at them.
 13Be supreme, Lord, in your power.
 We sing and praise your greatness.

The Prayer of a Suffering Man

For the director of music. To the tune of "The Doe of Dawn." A song of David.

22 My God, my God, why have you left me alone?
 You are too far away to save me.
 You are too far away to hear my moans.
 2My God, I call to you during the day.
 But you do not answer.
 And I call at night.
 I am not silent.
 3You sit as the Holy One.
 The praises of Israel are your throne.
 4Our ancestors trusted you.
 They trusted you, and you saved them.
 5They called to you for help.
 And they were rescued.
 They trusted you.
 And they were not disappointed.
 6But I am like a worm instead of a man.
 Men make fun of me.
 They look down on me.
 7Everyone who looks at me laughs.
 They stick out their tongues.
 They shake their heads.
 8They say, "Turn to the Lord for help.
 Maybe he will save you.
 If he likes you,
 maybe he will rescue you."
 9You had my mother give birth to me.
 You made me trust you
 while I was just a baby.
 10I have leaned on you since the day I was born.
 You have been my God since my mother gave birth to me.
 11So don't be far away from me.
 Now trouble is near,
 and there is no one to help.

12Men have surrounded me like angry bulls.
 The strong bulls of Bashan are on every side.
 13Like hungry, roaring lions they open their jaws at me.
 14My strength is gone
 like water poured out onto the ground.
 All my bones are out of joint.
 My heart is like wax.
 It has melted inside me.
 15My strength has dried up like a piece of a broken pot.
 My tongue sticks to the top of my mouth.
 You laid me in the dust of death.
 16Evil men have surrounded me.
 Like dogs they have trapped me.
 They have bitten my arms and legs.
 17I can count all my bones.
 People look and stare at me.
 18They divided my clothes among them,
 and they threw lots<sup>d</sup> for my clothing.
 19But, Lord, don't be far away.
 You are my power. Hurry to help me.
 20Save me from the sword.
 Save my life from the dogs.
 21Rescue me from the lion's mouth.
 Save me from the horns of the bulls.
 22Then I will tell my fellow Israelites about you.
 I will praise you when your people meet to worship you.
 23Praise the Lord, all you who worship him.
 All you descendants<sup>d</sup> of Jacob, honor him.
 Fear him, all you Israelites.
 24The Lord does not ignore the one who is in trouble.
 He doesn't hide from him.
 He listens when the one in trouble calls out to him.
 25Lord, I praise you in the great meeting of your people.
 These worshipers will see me do what I promised.
 26Poor people will eat until they are full.
 Those who look to the Lord will praise him.
 May your hearts live forever!
 27People everywhere will remember and will turn to the Lord.
 All the families of the nations will worship him.
 28This is because the Lord is King.
 He rules the nations.

- <sup>29</sup>All the powerful people on earth will eat and worship.
Everyone will bow down to him.
- <sup>30</sup>The people in the future will serve him.
They will always be told about the Lord.
- <sup>31</sup>They will tell that he does what is right.
People who are not yet born will hear what God has done.

The Lord the Shepherd

A song of David.

- 23 The Lord is my shepherd.
I have everything I need.
- <sup>2</sup>He gives me rest in green pastures.
He leads me to calm water.
- <sup>3</sup> He gives me new strength.
For the good of his name,
he leads me on paths that are right.
- <sup>4</sup>Even if I walk through a very dark valley,
I will not be afraid
because you are with me.
Your rod and your walking stick<sup>a</sup> comfort
me.
- <sup>5</sup>You prepare a meal for me in front of my enemies.
You pour oil on my head.<sup>b</sup>
You give me more than I can hold.
- <sup>6</sup>Surely your goodness and love will be with
me
all my life.
And I will live in the house of the Lord
forever.

A Welcome for God into the Temple

A song of David.

- 24 The earth and everything in it belong to the Lord.
The world and all its people belong to
him.
- <sup>2</sup>He built it on the waters.
He set it on the rivers.
- <sup>3</sup>Who may go up on the mountain of the Lord?
Who may stand in his holy Temple?<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>4</sup>Only those with clean hands and pure hearts.
They must not have worshiped idols.
They must not have made promises in the name of a false god.
- <sup>5</sup>It is they who will receive a blessing from
the Lord.

The God who saves them will declare them right.

- <sup>6</sup>They try to follow God.
They look to the God of Jacob for help.

Selah<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>7</sup>Gates, open all the way.
Open wide, aged doors.
Then the glorious king will come in.
- <sup>8</sup>Who is this glorious king?
The Lord, strong and mighty.
The Lord, the powerful warrior.
- <sup>9</sup>Gates, open all the way.
Open wide, aged doors.
Then the glorious king will come in.
- <sup>10</sup>Who is this glorious king?
The Lord of heaven's armies—
he is the glorious king.

Selah

<sup>2</sup> My God, I trust you.

and wrong things I did when I was

But remember to love me always because you are good, Lord.

He points sinners to the right way.
- <sup>9</sup>He shows those who are not proud how to do right.
He teaches them his ways.
- <sup>10</sup>All the Lord's ways are loving and true for those who follow the demands of his agreement.
- <sup>11</sup>For the sake of your name, Lord, forgive my many sins.
- <sup>12</sup>Is there someone who worships the Lord?
The Lord will point him to the best way.
- <sup>13</sup>He will enjoy a good life.
His children will inherit the land.

<sup>b</sup>pour oil . . . head This can mean that God gave him great wealth and blessed him.

He tells them about his agreement.

He will keep me from any traps.
- <sup>16</sup>Turn to me and be kind to me.
I am lonely and hurting.
- <sup>17</sup>My troubles have grown larger.
Free me from my problems.
- <sup>18</sup>Look at my suffering and troubles.
Take away all my sins.
- <sup>19</sup>Look at how many enemies I have!
See how much they hate me!
- <sup>20</sup>Protect me and save me.
I trust you.
Do not let me be disgraced.
- <sup>21</sup>My hope is in you.
So may goodness and honesty guard me.
- <sup>22</sup>God, save Israel from all their troubles!

The Prayer of an Innocent Man

Of David.

- 26 Lord, defend me.
I have lived an innocent life.
I trusted the Lord and never doubted.
- <sup>2</sup>Lord, try me and test me.
Look closely into my heart and mind.
- <sup>3</sup>I see your love.
I live by your truth.
- <sup>4</sup>I do not spend time with liars.
I do not make friends with people who hide their sin.
- <sup>5</sup>I hate the company of evil people.
I won't sit with the wicked.
- <sup>6</sup>I wash my hands to show I am innocent.
I come to your altar, Lord.
- <sup>7</sup>I raise my voice in praise.
I tell of all the miracles<sup>d</sup> you have done.
- <sup>8</sup>Lord, I love the Temple<sup>d</sup> where you live.
It is where your greatness is.
- <sup>9</sup>Do not kill me with those sinners.
Do not take my life with those murderers.
- <sup>10</sup>Evil is in their hands.
They do wrong for money.
- <sup>11</sup>But I have lived an innocent life.
So save me and be kind to me.
- <sup>12</sup>I stand in a safe place.
Lord, I praise you in the great meeting.

A Song of Trust in God

Of David.

- 27 The Lord is my light and the one who saves me.
I fear no one.

- The Lord protects my life.
I am afraid of no one.
- <sup>2</sup>Evil people may try to destroy my body.
My enemies and those who hate me attack me.
But they are overwhelmed and defeated.
- <sup>3</sup>If an army surrounds me,
I will not be afraid.
If war breaks out,
I will trust the Lord.
- <sup>4</sup>I ask only one thing from the Lord.
This is what I want:
Let me live in the Lord's house
all my life.
Let me see the Lord's beauty.
Let me look around in his Temple.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>5</sup>During danger he will keep me safe in his shelter.
He will hide me in his Holy Tent.<sup>d</sup>
Or he will keep me safe on a high mountain.
- <sup>6</sup>My head is higher than my enemies around me.
I will offer joyful sacrifices in his Holy Tent.
I will sing and praise the Lord.
- <sup>7</sup>Lord, hear me when I call.
Be kind and answer me.
- <sup>8</sup>My heart said of you, "Go, worship him."
So I come to worship you, Lord.
- <sup>9</sup>Do not turn away from me.
Do not turn your servant away in anger.
You have helped me.
Do not push me away or leave me alone,
God, my Savior.
- <sup>10</sup>If my father and mother leave me,
the Lord will take me in.
- <sup>11</sup>Lord, teach me your ways.
Guide me to do what is right because I have enemies.
- <sup>12</sup>Do not let my enemies defeat me.
They tell lies about me.
They say they will hurt me.
- <sup>13</sup>I truly believe
I will live to see the Lord's goodness.
- <sup>14</sup>Wait for the Lord's help.
Be strong and brave
and wait for the Lord's help.

A Prayer in Troubled Times

Of David.

- 28 Lord, my Rock,<sup>d</sup> I call out to you for help.
Do not be deaf to me.
If you are silent,

- I will be like those in the grave.
<sup>2</sup>Hear the sound of my prayer, when I cry out to you for help.
 I raise my hands toward your Most Holy Place.
<sup>3</sup>Don't drag me away with the wicked,
 with those who do evil.
 They say, "Peace" to their neighbors.
 But evil is in their hearts.
<sup>4</sup>Pay them back for what they have done.
 They have done evil.
 Pay them back for what they have done.
 Give them their reward.
<sup>5</sup>They don't understand what the Lord has done or what he has made.
 So he will knock them down and not lift them up.
<sup>6</sup>Praise the Lord.
 He heard my prayer for help.
<sup>7</sup>The Lord is my strength and shield.
 I trust him, and he helps me.
 I am very happy.
 And I praise him with my song.
<sup>8</sup>The Lord is powerful.
 He gives power and victory to his chosen one.
<sup>9</sup>Save your people.
 Bless those who are your own.
 Be their shepherd and carry them
 forever.

God in the Thunderstorm

A song of David.

- 29 Praise the Lord, you angels.
 Praise the Lord's glory and power.
<sup>2</sup>Praise the Lord for the glory of his name.
 Worship the Lord because he is holy.
<sup>3</sup>The Lord's voice is heard over the sea.
 The glorious God thunders.
 The Lord thunders over the great ocean.
<sup>4</sup>The Lord's voice is powerful.
 The Lord's voice is majestic.
<sup>5</sup>The Lord's voice breaks the trees.
 The Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon.
<sup>6</sup>He makes the land of Lebanon dance like a calf.
 He makes Mount Hermon jump like a baby bull.
<sup>7</sup>The Lord's voice makes the lightning flash.
<sup>8</sup>The Lord's voice shakes the desert.
 The Lord shakes the Desert of Kadesh.
<sup>9</sup>The Lord's voice shakes the oaks.
 The leaves fall off the trees.

In his Temple<sup>d</sup> everyone says, "Glory to God!"

- <sup>10</sup>The Lord controls the flood.
 The Lord will be King forever.
<sup>11</sup>The Lord gives strength to his people.
 The Lord blesses his people with peace.

Thanksgiving for Escaping Death

A song of David. A song for giving the Temple<sup>d</sup> to the Lord.

- 30 I will praise you, Lord, because you rescued me.
 You did not let my enemies laugh at me.
<sup>2</sup>Lord, my God, I prayed to you.
 And you healed me.
<sup>3</sup>You lifted me out of the grave.
 You spared me from going down where the dead are.
<sup>4</sup>Sing praises to the Lord, you who belong to him.
 Praise his holy name.
<sup>5</sup>His anger lasts only a moment.
 But his kindness lasts for a lifetime.
 Crying may last for a night.
 But joy comes in the morning.
<sup>6</sup>When I felt safe, I said,
 "I will never fail."
<sup>7</sup>Lord, in your kindness you made my mountain safe.
 But when you turned away, I was frightened.
<sup>8</sup>I called to you, Lord.
 I asked you to have mercy on me.
<sup>9</sup>I said, "What good will it do if I die or if I go down to the grave?
 Dust cannot praise you.
 It cannot speak about your truth."
<sup>10</sup>Lord, hear me and be merciful to me.
 Lord, help me."
<sup>11</sup>You changed my sorrow into dancing.
 You took away my rough cloth, which shows sadness, and clothed me in happiness.
<sup>12</sup>I will sing to you and not be silent.
 Lord, my God, I will praise you forever.
- A Prayer of Faith in Troubled Times
- For the director of music. A song of David.
- 31 Lord, I trust in you.
 Let me never be disgraced.
 Save me because you do what is right.
<sup>2</sup>Listen to me.
 Save me quickly.
 Be my rock of protection,

a strong city to save me.
<sup>3</sup>You are my rock and my protection.
 For the good of your name, lead me and guide me.
<sup>4</sup>Set me free from the trap they set for me.
 You are my protection.
<sup>5</sup>I give you my life.
 Save me, Lord, God of truth.
<sup>6</sup>I hate those who worship false gods.
 I trust only in the Lord.
<sup>7</sup>I will be glad because of your love.
 You saw my suffering.
 You knew my troubles.
<sup>8</sup>You have not let my enemies defeat me.
 You have set me in a safe place.
<sup>9</sup>Lord, have mercy. I am in misery.
 My eyes are weak from so much crying.
 My whole being is tired from grief.
<sup>10</sup>My life is ending in sadness.
 My years are spent in crying.
 My troubles are using up my strength.
 My bones are getting weaker.
<sup>11</sup>Because of all my troubles, my enemies hate me.
 Even my neighbors look down on me.
 When my friends see me,
 they are afraid and run.
<sup>12</sup>I am like a piece of a broken pot.
 I am forgotten as if I were dead.
<sup>13</sup>I have heard many insults.
 Terror is all around me.
 They make plans against me.
 They want to kill me.
<sup>14</sup>Lord, I trust you.
 I have said, "You are my God."
<sup>15</sup>My life is in your hands.
 Save me from my enemies' grasp.
 Save me from those who are chasing me.
<sup>16</sup>Show your kindness to me, your servant.
 Save me because of your love.
<sup>17</sup>Lord, I called to you.
 So do not let me be disgraced.
 Let the wicked be disgraced.
 Let them lie silent in the grave.
<sup>18</sup>With pride and hatred they speak against the righteous.
 So shut their lying lips.
<sup>19</sup>How great is your goodness!
 You have stored it up for those who fear
 you.
 You do good things for those who trust
 you.
 You do this for all to see.
<sup>20</sup>You protect them by your presence from what people plan against them.

You keep them safe in your shelter from evil words.
<sup>21</sup>Praise the Lord.
 His love to me was wonderful when my city was attacked.
<sup>22</sup>In my distress, I said,
 "God cannot see me!"
 But you heard my prayer
 when I cried out to you for help.
<sup>23</sup>Love the Lord, all you who belong to him.
 The Lord protects those who truly believe.
 But he punishes the proud as much as they have sinned.
<sup>24</sup>All you who put your hope in the Lord be strong and brave.

It Is Better to Confess Sin

A maskil<sup>d</sup> of David.

32 Happy is the person whose sins are forgiven, whose wrongs are pardoned.
<sup>2</sup>Happy is the person whom the Lord does not consider guilty.
 In that person there is nothing false.
<sup>3</sup>When I kept things to myself,
 I felt weak deep inside me.
 I moaned all day long.
<sup>4</sup>Day and night
 you punished me.
 My strength was gone
 as in the summer heat. Selah<sup>d</sup>
<sup>5</sup>Then I confessed my sins to you.
 I didn't hide my guilt.
 I said, "I will confess my sins to the Lord."
 And you forgave my guilt. Selah <sup>6</sup>For this reason, all who obey you should pray to you while they still can.
 When troubles rise like a flood,
 they will not reach them.
<sup>7</sup>You are my hiding place.
 You protect me from my troubles.
 You fill me with songs of salvation. Selah <sup>8</sup>The Lord says, "I will make you wise. I will show you where to go.
 I will guide you and watch over you.
<sup>9</sup>So don't be like a horse or donkey.
 They don't understand.
 They must be led with bits and reins, or they will not come near you."
<sup>10</sup>Wicked people have many troubles.
 But the Lord's love surrounds those who trust him.

<sup>11</sup>Good people, rejoice and be happy in the Lord.

All you whose hearts are right, sing.

Praise God Who Creates and Saves

33 Sing to the Lord, you who do what is right.

Honest people should praise him.

<sup>2</sup>Praise the Lord on the harp.

Make music for him on the ten-stringed lyre.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Sing a new song to him.

Play well and joyfully.

<sup>4</sup>God's word is true.

Everything he does is right.

<sup>5</sup>He loves what is right and fair.

The Lord's love fills the earth.

<sup>6</sup>The sky was made at the Lord's command.

By the breath from his mouth, he made all the stars.

<sup>7</sup>He gathered the water in the sea into a heap.

He made the great ocean stay in its place.

<sup>8</sup>All the earth should worship the Lord.

The whole world should fear him.

<sup>9</sup>He spoke, and it happened.

He commanded, and it appeared.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord upsets the plans of nations.

He ruins all their plans.

<sup>11</sup>But the Lord's plans will stand forever.

His ideas will last from now on.

<sup>12</sup>Happy is the nation whose God is the Lord.

Happy are the people he chose for his very own.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord looks down from heaven.

He sees every person.

<sup>14</sup>From his throne he watches everyone who lives on earth.

<sup>15</sup>He made their hearts.

He understands everything they do.

<sup>16</sup>No king is saved by his great army.

No warrior escapes by his great strength.

<sup>17</sup>Horses can't bring victory.

They can't save by their strength.

<sup>18</sup>But the Lord looks after those who fear him.

He watches over those who put their hope in his love.

<sup>19</sup>He saves them from death.

He spares their lives in times of hunger.

<sup>20</sup>So our hope is in the Lord.

He is our help, our shield to protect us.

<sup>21</sup>We rejoice in him.

We trust his holy name.

<sup>22</sup>Lord, show your love to us as we put our hope in you.

Praise God Who Judges and Saves

David's song from the time he acted crazy so

Abimelech would send him away.

And David did leave.

34 I will praise the Lord at all times.
His praise is always on my lips.

<sup>2</sup>My whole being praises the Lord.

The poor will hear and be glad.

<sup>3</sup>Tell the greatness of the Lord with me.

Let us praise his name together.

<sup>4</sup>I asked the Lord for help, and he answered me.

He saved me from all that I feared.

<sup>5</sup>Those who go to him for help are happy.

They are never disgraced.

<sup>6</sup>This poor man called, and the Lord heard him.

The Lord saved him from all his troubles.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord saves those who fear him.

His angel camps around them.

<sup>8</sup>Examine and see how good the Lord is.

Happy is the person who trusts the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>People who belong to the Lord, fear him!

Those who fear him will have everything they need.

<sup>10</sup>Even lions may become weak and hungry.

But those people who go to the Lord for help will have every good thing.

<sup>11</sup>Children, come and listen to me.

I will teach you to worship the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>You must do these things to enjoy life and have many happy days.

<sup>13</sup>You must not say evil things.

You must not tell lies.

<sup>14</sup>Stop doing evil and do good.

Look for peace and work for it.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord sees the good people.

He listens to their prayers.

<sup>16</sup>But the Lord is against those who do evil.

He makes the world forget them.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord hears good people when they cry out to him.

He saves them from all their troubles.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord is close to the brokenhearted.

He saves those whose spirits have been crushed.

<sup>19</sup>People who do what is right may have many problems.

But the Lord will solve them all.

<sup>20</sup>He will protect their very bones.

Not one of them will be broken.

- <sup>21</sup>Evil will kill the wicked people.
Those who hate good people will be judged guilty.
- <sup>22</sup>But the Lord saves his servants' lives.
No one who trusts him will be judged guilty.

A Prayer for Help

Of David.

- 35 Lord, battle with those who battle with me.
Fight against those who fight against me.
- <sup>2</sup>Pick up the shield and armor.
Rise up and help me.
- <sup>3</sup>Lift up your spears, both large and small,
against those who chase me.
Tell me, "I will save you."
- <sup>4</sup>Make those who want to kill me be ashamed and disgraced.
Make those who plan to harm me turn back and run away.
- <sup>5</sup>Make them like chaff<sup>d</sup> blown by the wind.
Let the angel of the Lord chase them
away.
- <sup>6</sup>Let their road be dark and slippery as the angel of the Lord chases them.
- <sup>7</sup>For no reason they spread out their net to trap me.
For no reason they dug a pit for me.
- <sup>8</sup>So let ruin strike them suddenly.
Let them be caught in their own nets.
Let them fall into the pit and die.
- <sup>9</sup>Then I will rejoice in the Lord.
I will be happy when he saves me.
- <sup>10</sup>Even my bones will say,
"Lord, who is like you?
You save the weak from the strong.
You save the weak and poor from robbers."
- <sup>11</sup>Men without mercy stand up to testify.
They ask me things I do not know.
- <sup>12</sup>They repay me with evil for the good I
have done.
They make me very sad.
- <sup>13</sup>Yet when they were sick, I put on rough cloth to show my sadness.
I showed my sorrow by going without food.
But my prayers were not answered.
- <sup>14</sup> I acted as if they were my friends or brothers.
I bowed in sadness as if I were crying for my mother.
- <sup>15</sup>But when I was in trouble, they gathered and laughed.

- They gathered to attack before I knew it.
They insulted me without stopping.
- <sup>16</sup>They made fun of me and were cruel to
me.
They ground their teeth at me in anger.
- <sup>17</sup>Lord, how long will you watch this happen?
Save my life from their attacks.
Save me from these people who are like lions.
- <sup>18</sup>I will praise you in the great meeting.
I will praise you among crowds of
people.
- <sup>19</sup>Do not let my enemies laugh at me.
They hate me for no reason.
Do not let them make fun of me.
They have no reason to hate me.
- <sup>20</sup>Their words are not friendly.
They think up lies about peace-loving
people.
- <sup>21</sup>They speak against me.
They say, "Aha! We saw what you did!"
- <sup>22</sup>Lord, you have been watching. Do not keep quiet.
Lord, do not leave me alone.
- <sup>23</sup>Wake up! Come and defend me!
My God and Lord, fight for me!
- <sup>24</sup>Lord my God, defend me with your justice.
Don't let them laugh at me.
- <sup>25</sup>Don't let them think, "Aha! We got what we wanted!"
Don't let them say, "We destroyed him."
- <sup>26</sup>Let them be ashamed and embarrassed.
They were happy when I hurt.
Cover them with shame and disgrace.
They thought they were better than I was.
- <sup>27</sup>May my friends sing and shout for joy.
May they always say, "Praise the greatness of the Lord.
He loves to see his servants do well."
- <sup>28</sup>I will tell of your goodness.
I will praise you every day.

Wicked Men and a Good God

For the director of music. Of David,
the servant of the Lord.

- 36 Sin speaks to the wicked man in his heart.
He has no fear of or respect for God.
- <sup>2</sup>He thinks too much of himself.
He doesn't see his sin and hate it.
- <sup>3</sup>His words are wicked lies.
He is no longer wise or good.
- <sup>4</sup>At night he makes evil plans.
What he does leads to nothing good.

- He doesn't refuse things that are evil.
- <sup>5</sup>Lord, your love reaches to the heavens.
Your loyalty goes to the skies.
- <sup>6</sup>Your goodness is as high as the mountains.
Your justice is as deep as the great ocean.
- Lord, you protect both men and animals.
- <sup>7</sup>God, your love is so precious!
You protect people as a bird protects her young under her wings.
- <sup>8</sup>They eat the rich food in your house.
You let them drink from your river of pleasure.
- <sup>9</sup>You are the giver of life.
Your light lets us enjoy life.
- <sup>10</sup>Continue to love those who know you.
And continue to do good to those who are good.
- <sup>11</sup>Don't let proud people attack me.
Don't let the wicked force me away.
- <sup>12</sup>Those who do evil have been defeated.
They are overwhelmed; they cannot do evil any longer.

God Will Reward Fairly

Of David.

- 37 Don't be upset because of evil people.
Don't be jealous of those who do wrong.
- <sup>2</sup>Like the grass, they will soon dry up.
Like green plants, they will soon die away.
- <sup>3</sup>Trust the Lord and do good.
Live in the land and enjoy its safety.
- <sup>4</sup>Enjoy serving the Lord.
And he will give you what you want.
- <sup>5</sup>Depend on the Lord.
Trust him, and he will take care of you.
- <sup>6</sup>Then your goodness will shine like the sun.
Your fairness will shine like the noonday sun.
- <sup>7</sup>Wait and trust the Lord.
Don't be upset when others get rich or when someone else's plans succeed.
- <sup>8</sup>Don't get angry.
Don't be upset; it only leads to trouble.
- <sup>9</sup>Evil people will be sent away.
But people who trust the Lord will inherit the land.
- <sup>10</sup>In a little while there will be no more wicked people.
You may look for them, but they will be gone.

- <sup>11</sup>People who are not proud will inherit the land.
They will enjoy complete peace.
- <sup>12</sup>The wicked make evil plans against good people.
They grind their teeth at them in anger.
- <sup>13</sup>But the Lord laughs at the wicked.
He sees that their day is coming.
- <sup>14</sup>The wicked draw their swords.
They bend their bows.
They try to kill the poor and helpless.
They want to kill those who are honest.
- <sup>15</sup>But their swords will stab their own hearts.
Their bows will break.
- <sup>16</sup>It's better to have little and be right than to have much and be wrong.
- <sup>17</sup>The power of the wicked will be broken.
But the Lord supports those who do right.
- <sup>18</sup>The Lord watches over the lives of the innocent.
Their reward will last forever.
- <sup>19</sup>They will not be ashamed when trouble comes.
They will be full in times of hunger.
- <sup>20</sup>But the wicked will die.
The Lord's enemies will be like the flowers of the fields.
They will disappear like smoke.
- <sup>21</sup>The wicked people borrow but don't pay back.
But those who do right give freely to others.
- <sup>22</sup>Those people the Lord blesses will inherit the land.
But those he curses will be sent away.
- <sup>23</sup>When a man's steps follow the Lord, God is pleased with his ways.
- <sup>24</sup>If he stumbles, he will not fall, because the Lord holds his hand.
- <sup>25</sup>I was young, and now I am old.
But I have never seen the Lord leave good people helpless.
I have never seen their children begging for food.
- <sup>26</sup>Good people always lend freely to others.
And their children are a blessing.
- <sup>27</sup>Stop doing evil and do good.
Then you will live forever.
- <sup>28</sup>The Lord loves justice.
He will not leave those who worship him.
He will always protect them.
But the children of the wicked will die.

- <sup>29</sup>Good people will inherit the land.
They will live in it forever.
- <sup>30</sup>A good person speaks with wisdom.
He says what is fair.
- <sup>31</sup>The teachings of his God are in his heart.
He does not fail to keep them.
- <sup>32</sup>The wicked watch for good people.
They want to kill them.
- <sup>33</sup>The Lord will not take away his protection.
He will not judge good people guilty.
- <sup>34</sup>Wait for the Lord's help and follow him.
He will honor you and give you the land.
And you will see the wicked people sent
away.
- <sup>35</sup>I saw a wicked and cruel man.
He looked strong like a healthy tree in good soil.
- <sup>36</sup>But he died and was gone.
I looked for him, but he couldn't be found.
- <sup>37</sup>Think of the innocent person.
Watch the honest one.
The man who has peace
will have children to live after him.
- <sup>38</sup>But sinners will be destroyed.
In the end the wicked will die.
- <sup>39</sup>The Lord saves good people.
He is their strong city in times of trouble.
- <sup>40</sup>The Lord helps them and saves them.
He saves them from the wicked
because they trust in him for protection.

A Prayer in Time of Sickness

A song of David to remember.

- 38 Lord, don't correct me when you are angry.
Don't punish me when you are very angry.
- <sup>2</sup>Your arrows have wounded me.
Your hand has come down on me.
- <sup>3</sup>My body is sick from your punishment.
Even my bones are not healthy because of my sin.
- <sup>4</sup>My guilt has overwhelmed me.
Like a load it weighs me down.
- <sup>5</sup>My sores stink and become infected because I was foolish.
- <sup>6</sup>I am bent over and bowed down.
I am sad all day long.
- <sup>7</sup>I am burning with fever.
My whole body is sore.
- <sup>8</sup>I am weak and faint.

I moan from the pain I feel.

- <sup>9</sup>Lord, you know everything I want.
My cries are not hidden from you.
- <sup>10</sup>My heart pounds, and my strength is gone.
I am losing my sight.
- <sup>11</sup>Because of my wounds, my friends and neighbors leave me alone.
My relatives stay far away.
- <sup>12</sup>Some people set traps to kill me.
Those who want to hurt me plan trouble.
All day long they think up lies.
- <sup>13</sup>I am like a deaf man; I cannot hear.
Like a mute, I cannot speak.
- <sup>14</sup>I am like a person who does not hear.
I have no answer to give.
- <sup>15</sup>I trust you, Lord.
You will answer, my God and Lord.
- <sup>16</sup>I said, "Don't let them laugh at me.
Don't let them brag when I am defeated."
- <sup>17</sup>I am about to die.
I cannot forget my pain.
- <sup>18</sup>I confess my guilt.
I am troubled by my sin.
- <sup>19</sup>My enemies are strong and healthy.
Many people hate me for no reason.
- <sup>20</sup>They repay me with evil for the good I did.
They lie about me because I try to do good.
- <sup>21</sup>Lord, don't leave me.
My God, don't go away.
- <sup>22</sup>Quickly come and help me,
my Lord and Savior.

Life Is Short

For the director of music. For Jeduthun.

A song of David.

- 39 I said, "I will be careful how I act.
I will not sin by what I say.
I will be careful what I say around wicked people."
- <sup>2</sup>So I kept very quiet.
I didn't even say anything good.
But I became even more upset.
- <sup>3</sup>I became very angry inside.
And the more I thought about it, the angrier I became.
So I spoke:
- <sup>4</sup>Lord, tell me when the end will come.
How long will I live?
Let me know how long I have.
- <sup>5</sup>You have given me only a short life.
My lifetime is like nothing to you.
Everyone's life is only a breath.
- <sup>6</sup>A person is like a shadow moving about.

Selah<sup>d</sup>

All his work is for nothing.
He collects things, but he doesn't know who will get them.

7“So, Lord, what hope do I have?

You are my hope.

8Save me from all my sins.

Don't let wicked fools make fun of me.

9I am quiet. I do not open my mouth.

You are the one who has done this.

10Quit punishing me.

Your beating is about to kill me.

11You correct and punish people for their sins.

Like a moth, you destroy what they love.
Everyone's life is only a breath. Setlah

12“Lord, hear my prayer.

Listen to my cry.

Do not ignore my tears.

I am like a visitor with you.

Like my ancestors, I'm only here a short time.

13Leave me alone so I can be happy.

Soon I will leave and be no more.”

Praise and Prayer for Help

For the director of music. A song of David.

40 I waited patiently for the Lord.

He turned to me and heard my cry.

2He lifted me out of the pit of destruction, out of the sticky mud.

He stood me on a rock.

He made my feet steady.

3He put a new song in my mouth.

It was a song of praise to our God.

Many people will see this and worship
him.

Then they will trust the Lord.

4Happy is the person who trusts the Lord.

He doesn't turn to those who are proud, to those who worship false gods.

5Lord our God, you have done many miracles.<sup>d</sup>

Your plans for us are many.

If I tried to tell them all,
there would be too many to count.

6You do not want sacrifices and offerings.

But you have made a hole in my ear to show that my body and life are yours.

You do not ask for burnt offerings and offerings to take away sins.

7Then I said, “Look, I have come.

It is written about me in the book.

8My God, I want to do what you want.

Your teachings are in my heart.”

9I will tell about your goodness in the great meeting of your people.

Lord, you know my lips are not silent.

10I do not hide your goodness in my heart.

I speak about your loyalty and salvation.

I do not hide your love and truth from the people in the great meeting.

11Lord, do not hold back your mercy from
me.

Let your love and truth always protect
me.

12Troubles have gathered around me.

There are too many to count.

My sins have caught me.

I cannot see a way to escape.

I have more sins than hairs on my head.

I have lost my courage.

13Please, Lord, save me.

Hurry, Lord, to help me.

14People are trying to kill me.

Shame them and disgrace them.

People want to hurt me.

Let them run away in disgrace.

15People are making fun of me.

Let them be shamed into silence.

16But let those who follow you be happy and glad.

They love you for saving them.

May they always say, “Praise the Lord!”

17Lord, I am poor and helpless.

But please remember me.

You are my helper and savior.

My God, do not wait.

A Prayer in Time of Sickness

For the director of music. A song of David.

41 Happy is the person who thinks about the poor.

When trouble comes, the Lord will save
him.

2The Lord will protect him and spare his life.

The Lord will bless him in the land.

The Lord will not let his enemies take
him.

3The Lord will give him strength when he is sick.

The Lord will make him well again.

4I said, “Lord, be kind to me.

Heal me because I have sinned against
you.”

5My enemies are saying bad things about
me.

They say, "When will he die and be forgotten?"

<sup>6</sup>Some people come to see me.

But they lie.

They just come to get bad news.

Then they go and gossip.

<sup>7</sup>All my enemies whisper about me.

They think the worst about me.

<sup>8</sup>They say, "He has a terrible disease.

He will never get out of bed again."

<sup>9</sup>My best and truest friend ate at my table.

Now even he has turned against me.

<sup>10</sup>Lord, have mercy on me.

Give me strength so I can pay them back.

<sup>11</sup>My enemies do not defeat me.

That's how I know you are pleased with me.

<sup>12</sup>Because I am innocent, you support me.

You will let me be with you forever.

<sup>13</sup>Praise the Lord, the God of Israel.

He has always been,
and he will always be.

Amen and amen.

Book 2

Wishing to Be near God

For the director of music. A maskil<sup>d</sup>
of the sons of Korah.

42 A deer thirsts for a stream of water.
In the same way, I thirst for you,
God.

<sup>2</sup>I thirst for the living God.

When can I go to meet with him?

<sup>3</sup>Day and night, my tears have been my food.

People are always saying,
"Where is your God?"

<sup>4</sup>When I remember these things,

I speak with a broken heart.

I used to walk with the crowd.

I led the happy crowd to God's Temple,<sup>d</sup> with songs of praise.

<sup>5</sup>Why am I so sad?

Why am I so upset?

I should put my hope in God.

I should keep praising him,
My Savior and <sup>o</sup>my God.

I am very sad.

So I remember you while I am in the land where the Jordan River begins.

I will remember you while I am near the Hermon mountains and on the mountain of Mizar.

<sup>7</sup>Troubles have come again and again.

They sound like waterfalls.

Your waves are crashing all around me.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord shows his true love every day.

At night I have a song, and I pray to my living God.

<sup>9</sup>I say to God, my Rock,<sup>d</sup>

"Why have you forgotten me?

Why am I sad

and troubled by my enemies?"

<sup>10</sup>My enemies' insults make me feel as if my bones were broken.

They are always saying,
"Where is your God?"

<sup>11</sup>Why am I so sad?

Why am I so upset?

I should put my hope in God.

I should keep praising him,
my Savior and my God.

A Prayer for Protection

43 God, defend me.

Argue my case against those who don't follow you.

Save me from liars and those who do evil.

<sup>2</sup>God, you are my strength.

Why have you rejected me?

Why am I sad

and troubled by my enemies?

<sup>3</sup>Send me your light and truth.

They will guide me.

Lead me to your holy mountain.

Lead me to where you live.

<sup>4</sup>I will go to the altar of God, to God who is my joy and happiness.

I will praise you with a harp,
God, my God.

<sup>5</sup>Why am I so sad?

Why am I so upset?

I should put my hope in God.

I should keep praising him,
my Savior and my God.

A Prayer for Help

For the director of music. A maskil<sup>d</sup>
of the sons of Korah.

44 God, we have heard about you.
Our ancestors told us
what you did in their days,
in days long ago.

<sup>2</sup>With your power you forced the nations out of the land.

You placed our ancestors here.

You destroyed those other nations.

But you made our ancestors grow strong.
 3It wasn't their swords that took the land.
 It wasn't their power that gave them victory.
 But it was your great power and strength.
 You were with them because you loved them.

4My God, you are my King.
 Your commands led Jacob's people to victory.

5With your help we pushed back our enemies.
 In your name we walked on those who came against us.

6I don't trust my bow to help me.
 My sword can't save me.

7You saved us from Egypt.
 You made our enemies ashamed.

8We will praise God every day.
 We will praise your name forever. Selah<sup>d</sup>

9But you have rejected us and shamed us.
 You don't march with our armies anymore.

10You let our enemies push us back.
 Our enemies have taken our wealth.

11You gave us away like sheep to be eaten.
 You scattered us among the nations.

12You sold your people for nothing.
 You made no profit on the sale.

13You made us a joke to our neighbors.
 The community laughs and makes fun of us.

14You made us a joke to the other nations.
 People shake their heads.

15I am always in disgrace.
 I am covered with shame.

16My enemy is getting even with insults and curses.

17All these things have happened to us, but we have not forgotten you.
 We have kept our agreement with you.

18Our hearts haven't turned away from you.
 We haven't stopped following you.

19But you crushed us in this place where wild dogs live.
 You covered us with deep darkness.

20We did not forget our God.
 We did not lift our hands in prayer to foreign gods.

21God would have known if we had.
 He knows what is in our hearts.

22But for you we are in danger of death all the time.

People think we are worth no more than sheep to be killed.

23Wake up, Lord! Why are you sleeping?
 Get up! Don't reject us forever.

24Why are you hidden from us?
 Have you forgotten our pain and troubles?

25We have been pushed down into the dirt.
 We are flat on the ground.

26Get up and help us.
 Because of your love, save us.

A Song for the King's Wedding

For the director of music. To the tune of "Lilies."
 A maskil.<sup>d</sup> A love song of the sons of Korah.

45 Beautiful words fill my mind.
 I am speaking of royal things.
 My tongue is like the pen of a skilled writer.

2You are more handsome than anyone.
 You are a very good speaker.
 God has blessed you forever.

3Put on your sword, powerful warrior.
 Show your glory and majesty.

4In your majesty win the victory.
 Defend what is true and right.
 Your power will do amazing things.

5Your sharp arrows will enter the hearts of the king's enemies.
 Nations will be defeated before you.

6God, your throne will last forever and ever.
 You will rule your kingdom with fairness.

7You love right and hate evil.
 So God has chosen you to rule those with you.

Your God has given you much joy.
 8Your clothes smell like myrrh,<sup>d</sup> aloes<sup>d</sup> and cassia.<sup>d</sup>

From palaces of ivory music comes to make you happy.

9Kings' daughters are among your honored women.

Your bride stands at your right side wearing gold from Ophir.

10Listen to me, daughter. Look and pay attention.
 Forget your people and your father's family.

11The king loves your beauty.
 Because he is your master, you should obey him.

12People from the city of Tyre have brought a gift.
 Wealthy people will want to meet you.

- <sup>13</sup>The princess is very beautiful.
Her gown is woven with gold.
- <sup>14</sup>In her beautiful clothes she is brought to the king.
Her bridesmaids follow behind her.
And they are also brought to him.
- <sup>15</sup>They come with happiness and joy.
They enter the king's palace.
- <sup>16</sup>You will have sons to take the place of your ancestors.
You will make them rulers through all
the land.
- <sup>17</sup>I will make your name famous from now on.
People will praise you forever and ever.

God Protects His People

For the director of music. By alamothe.<sup>d</sup> A song of the sons of Korah.

- 46 God is our protection and our strength.
He always helps in times of trouble.
- <sup>2</sup>So we will not be afraid if the earth shakes, or if the mountains fall into the sea.
- <sup>3</sup>We will not fear even if the oceans roar and foam,
or if the mountains shake at the raging sea. Selah<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>4</sup>There is a river which brings joy to the city
of God.
This is the holy place where God Most High lives.
- <sup>5</sup>God is in that city, and so it will not be shaken.
God will help her at dawn.
- <sup>6</sup>Nations tremble, and kingdoms shake.
God shouts, and the earth crumbles.
- <sup>7</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies is with us.
The God of Jacob is our protection. Selah
- <sup>8</sup>Come and see what the Lord has done.
He has done amazing things on the earth.
- <sup>9</sup>He stops wars everywhere on the earth.
He breaks all bows and spears and burns up the chariots with fire.
- <sup>10</sup>God says, "Be quiet and know that I am
God.
I will be supreme over all the nations.
I will be supreme in the earth."
- <sup>11</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies is with us.
The God of Jacob is our protection. Selah

God, the King of the World

For the director of music. A song
of the sons of Korah.

- 47 Clap your hands, all you people.
Shout to God with joy.
- <sup>2</sup>The Lord Most High is wonderful.
He is the great King over all the earth!
- <sup>3</sup>He defeated nations for us and put them under our control.
- <sup>4</sup>He chose the land we would inherit.
We are the children of Jacob, whom he loved. Selah<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>5</sup>God has risen with a shout of joy.
The Lord has risen as the trumpets sounded.
- <sup>6</sup>Sing praises to God. Sing praises.
Sing praises to our King. Sing praises.
- <sup>7</sup>God is King of all the earth.
So sing a song of praise to him.
- <sup>8</sup>God is King over the nations.
God sits on his holy throne.
- <sup>9</sup>The leaders of the nations meet with the people of the God of Abraham.
Even the leaders of the earth belong to
God.
He is supreme.

Jerusalem, the City of God

A song of the sons of Korah.

- 48 The Lord is great; he should be praised in the city of our God, on his holy mountain.
- <sup>2</sup>It is high and beautiful.
It brings joy to the whole world.
Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> is like the high mountains of
the north.
It is the city of the Great King.
- <sup>3</sup>God is within its palaces.
He is known as its protection.
- <sup>4</sup>Kings joined together and came together to attack the city.
- <sup>5</sup>But when they saw it, they were amazed.
They ran away in fear.
- <sup>6</sup>Fear took hold of them.
They hurt like a woman having a baby.
- <sup>7</sup>You destroyed the large trading ships with an east wind.
- <sup>8</sup>First we heard.
And now we have seen that God will always keep his city safe.
It is the city of the Lord of heaven's armies,
the city of our God. Selah<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>9</sup>God, we come into your Temple.<sup>d</sup>

- There we think about your love.
 10 God, your name is known everywhere.
 Everywhere on earth people praise you.
 Your right hand is full of goodness.
 11 Mount Zion is happy.
 All the towns of Judah rejoice because your decisions are fair.
 12 Walk around Jerusalem and count its towers.
 13 Notice how strong they are. Look at the palaces.
 Then you will be able to tell your children about them.
 14 This God is our God forever and ever.
 He will guide us from now on.

Trusting Money Is Foolish

For the director of music. A song
 of the sons of Korah.

- 49 Listen to this, all you nations.
 Listen, all you who live on earth.
 2 Listen, both great and small,
 rich and poor together.
 3 What I say is wise.
 My heart speaks with understanding.
 4 I will pay attention to a wise saying.
 I will explain my riddle on the harp.
 5 Why should I be afraid of bad days?
 Why should I fear when evil men
 surround me?
 6 They trust in their money.
 They brag about their riches.
 7 No one can buy back the life of another person.
 No one can pay God for his own life.
 8 The price of a life is high.
 No payment is ever enough.
 9 Do people live forever?
 Don't they all face death?
 10 See, even wise men die.
 Fools and stupid people also die.
 They leave their wealth to others.
 11 Their graves will always be their homes.
 They will live there from now on, even though they named places after themselves.
 12 Even rich people do not live forever.
 Like the animals, people die.
 13 This is what will happen to people who trust in themselves.
 And this will happen to their followers who believe them. Selah<sup>d</sup>
 14 Like sheep, they must die.
 And death will be their shepherd.

- Honest people will rule over them in the morning.
 Their bodies will rot in a grave far from home.
 15 But God will save my life.
 He will take me from the grave. Selah
 16 Don't be afraid of a rich man because his house is more beautiful.
 17 He won't take anything to the grave.
 His wealth won't die with him.
 18 He was praised when he was alive.
 (And people may praise you when you succeed.)
 19 But he will go to where his ancestors are.
 He will never see light again.
 20 Rich people with no understanding are just like animals that die.

God Wants True Worship

A song of Asaph.

- 50 The God of gods, the Lord, speaks.
 He calls the earth from the rising to the setting sun.
 2 God shines from Jerusalem, whose beauty is perfect.
 3 Our God comes, and he will not be silent.
 A fire burns in front of him,
 and a storm surrounds him.
 4 He calls to the sky and to the earth to see him judge his people.
 5 He says, "You who worship me, gather around.
 You have made an agreement with me,
 using a sacrifice."
 6 God is the judge.
 Even the skies say he is right. Selah<sup>d</sup>
 7 God says, "My people, listen to me.
 Israel, I will testify against you.
 I am God, your God.
 8 I do not scold you for your sacrifices.
 You always bring me your burnt offerings.
 9 But I do not need the bulls from your stalls or the goats from your pens.
 10 Every animal of the forest is already mine.
 The cattle on a thousand hills are mine.
 11 I know every bird on the mountains.
 Every living thing in the fields is mine.
 12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you.
 The earth and everything on it are mine.
 13 I don't eat the meat of bulls or drink the blood of goats.
 14 Give an offering to show thanks to God.
 Give God Most High what you have promised.

<sup>15</sup>Call to me in times of trouble.
I will save you, and you will honor me.”

<sup>16</sup>But God says to the wicked people, “Why do you talk about my laws?
Why do you mention my agreement?

<sup>17</sup>You hate my teachings.
You turn your back on what I say.

<sup>18</sup>When you see a thief, you join him.
You take part in adultery.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>19</sup>You don't stop your mouth from speaking evil.

Your tongue makes up lies.

<sup>20</sup>You speak against your brother.
You lie about your mother's son.

<sup>21</sup>I have kept quiet while you did these things.

So you thought I was just like you.
But I will scold you.

I will accuse you to your face.

<sup>22</sup>“Think about this, you people who forget
God.

Otherwise, I will tear you apart,
and no one will save you.

<sup>23</sup>Those people honor me who give me offerings to show thanks.
And I, God, will save those who do that.”

A Prayer for Forgiveness

For the director of music. A song of David when the prophet<sup>d</sup> Nathan came to David after David's sin with Bathsheba.

51 God, be merciful to me because you are loving.
Because you are always ready to be merciful,

wipe out all my wrongs.

<sup>2</sup>Wash away all my guilt and make me clean again.

<sup>3</sup>I know about my wrongs.
I can't forget my sin.

<sup>4</sup>You are the one I have sinned against.
I have done what you say is wrong.

So you are right when you speak.
You are fair when you judge me.

<sup>5</sup>I was brought into this world in sin.
In sin my mother gave birth to me.

<sup>6</sup>You want me to be completely truthful.
So teach me wisdom.

<sup>7</sup>Take away my sin, and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

<sup>8</sup>Make me hear sounds of joy and gladness.
Let the bones you crushed be happy
again.

<sup>9</sup>Turn your face from my sins.

Wipe out all my guilt.

<sup>10</sup>Create in me a pure heart, God.
Make my spirit right again.

<sup>11</sup>Do not send me away from you.
Do not take your Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> away from
me.

<sup>12</sup>Give me back the joy that comes when you save me.
Keep me strong by giving me a willing spirit.

<sup>13</sup>Then I will teach your ways to those who do wrong.
And sinners will turn back to you.

<sup>14</sup>God, save me from the guilt of murder.
God, you are the one who saves me.
I will sing about your goodness.

<sup>15</sup>Lord, let me speak so I may praise you.

<sup>16</sup>You are not pleased by sacrifices.
Otherwise, I would give them.
You don't want burnt offerings.

<sup>17</sup>The sacrifice God wants is a willing spirit.
God, you will not reject a heart that is broken and sorry for its sin.

<sup>18</sup>Do whatever good you wish for Jerusalem.
Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>Then you will be pleased with right sacrifices and whole burnt offerings.
And bulls will be offered on your altar.

God Will Punish the Proud

For the director of music. A maskil<sup>d</sup> of David.
When Doeg the Edomite came to Saul and said to him, “David is in Ahimelech's house.”

52 Mighty warrior, why do you brag about the evil you do?

God's love will continue forever.

<sup>2</sup>You think up evil plans.
Your tongue is like a sharp razor, making up lies.

<sup>3</sup>You love wrong more than right and lies more than truth.

<sup>4</sup>You love words that bite and tongues that lie.

<sup>5</sup>But God will ruin you forever.
He will grab you and throw you out of your tent.

He will tear you away from the land of the living. Setlah<sup>d</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Those who do right will see this and fear
God.

They will laugh at you and say,

<sup>7</sup>“Look what happened to the man who did not depend on God.

Instead, he depended on his money.
He grew strong by his evil plans.”

<sup>8</sup>But I am like an olive tree growing in God’s Temple.<sup>d</sup>
I trust God’s love
forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup>God, I will thank you forever for what you have done.

With those who worship you, I will trust you because you are good.

The Unbelieving Fool

For the director of music. By mahalath.<sup>d</sup>
A maskil<sup>d</sup> of David.

53 A wicked fool says to himself,
“There is no God.”
Fools are evil. They do terrible things.
None of them does anything good.

<sup>2</sup>God looked down from heaven at all the people.

He looked to see if anyone was wise,
if anyone was looking to God for help.

<sup>3</sup>But everyone has turned away.
Together, everyone has become evil.
None of them does anything good.

<sup>4</sup>Don’t the wicked understand?
They destroy my people as if they were eating bread.

They have not asked God for help.

<sup>5</sup>The wicked became filled with terror where there had been nothing to be terrified of.

God will scatter the bones of your enemies.

You will defeat them,
because God has rejected them.

<sup>6</sup>I pray that victory will come to Israel from Mount Zion!<sup>d</sup>

May God give them back their riches.
Then the people of Jacob will rejoice.
And the people of Israel will be glad.

A Prayer for Help

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A maskil<sup>d</sup> of David when the Ziphites went to Saul and said, “We think David is hiding among our people.”

54 God, save me because of who you are.
By your strength show that I am innocent.

<sup>2</sup>Hear my prayer, God.
Listen to what I say.

<sup>3</sup>Strangers turn against me.
Cruel men want to kill me.

They do not care about God.

Selah<sup>d</sup>

<sup>4</sup>See, God will help me.
The Lord will spare my life.

<sup>5</sup>Let my enemies be punished with their own evil.

Destroy them because you are loyal to
me.

<sup>6</sup>I will offer a sacrifice as a special gift to
you.

I will thank you, Lord, because you are good.

<sup>7</sup>You have saved me from all my troubles.
I have seen my enemies defeated.

A Prayer About a False Friend

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A maskil<sup>d</sup> of David.

55 God, listen to my prayer.
Do not ignore my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>Pay attention to me and answer me.
I am troubled and upset

<sup>3</sup>by what the enemy says and how the wicked look at me.

They bring troubles down on me.
In anger they attack me.

<sup>4</sup>I am frightened inside.
The terror of death has attacked me.

<sup>5</sup>I am scared and shaking.
Terror grips me.

<sup>6</sup>I said, “I wish I had wings like a dove.
Then I would fly away and rest.

<sup>7</sup>I would wander far away.
I would stay in the desert.

Selah<sup>d</sup>

<sup>8</sup>I would hurry to my place of escape, far away from the wind and storm.”

<sup>9</sup>Lord, destroy and confuse their words.
I see violence and fighting in the city.

<sup>10</sup>Day and night they are all around its walls.
Evil and trouble are everywhere inside.

<sup>11</sup>Destruction is everywhere in the city.
Trouble and lying never leave its streets.

<sup>12</sup>It was not an enemy insulting me.
I could stand that.

It was not someone who hated me.
I could hide from him.

<sup>13</sup>But it is you, a person like me.
You were my companion and good friend.

<sup>14</sup>We had a good friendship.
We went together to God’s Temple.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Let death take away my enemies.
Let them die while they are still young because evil lives with them.

<sup>16</sup>But I will call to God for help.

And the Lord will save me.

<sup>17</sup>Morning, noon and night I am troubled and upset.

But he will listen to me.

<sup>18</sup>Many are against me.

But he keeps me safe in battle.

<sup>19</sup>God who lives forever will hear me and punish them.
But they will not change.

They do not fear God.

Selah

<sup>20</sup>The one who was my friend attacks his friends.

He breaks his promises.

<sup>21</sup>His words are slippery like butter.
But war is in his heart.

His words are smoother than oil,
but they cut like knives.

<sup>22</sup>Give your worries to the Lord.

He will take care of you.

He will never let good people down.

<sup>23</sup>But, God, you will bring down the wicked to the grave.

Murderers and liars will live only half a lifetime.

But I will trust in you.

Trusting God for Help

For the director of music. To the tune of "The Dove in the Distant Oak." A miktam<sup>d</sup> of David when the Philistines captured him in Gath.

56 God, be merciful to me because people are chasing me.

The battle has pressed me all day long.

<sup>2</sup>My enemies have chased me all day.

There are many of them fighting me.

<sup>3</sup>When I am afraid,

I will trust you.

<sup>4</sup>I praise God for his word.

I trust God. So I am not afraid.

What can human beings do to me?

<sup>5</sup>All day long they twist my words.

All their evil plans are against me.

<sup>6</sup>They wait. They hide.

They watch my steps.

They hope to kill me.

<sup>7</sup>God, do not let them escape.

Punish the foreign nations in your anger.

<sup>8</sup>You have recorded my troubles.

You have kept a list of my tears.

Aren't they in your records?

<sup>9</sup>On the day I call for help, my enemies will be defeated.

I know that God is on my side.

<sup>10</sup>I praise God for his word to me.

I praise the Lord for his word.

<sup>11</sup>I trust in God. I will not be afraid.
What can people do to me?

<sup>12</sup>God, I must keep my promises to you.

I will give you my offerings to thank you.

<sup>13</sup>You have saved me from death.

You have kept me from being defeated.

So I will walk with God
in light among the living.

A Prayer in Troubled Times

For the director of music. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A miktam<sup>d</sup> of David when he escaped from Saul in a cave.

57 Be merciful to me, God. Be merciful to me

because I come to you for protection.

I will come to you as a bird comes for protection under its mother's wings until the trouble has passed.

<sup>2</sup>I cry out to God Most High,

to the God who does everything for me.

<sup>3</sup>He sends help from heaven and saves me.
He punishes those who attack me.

God sends me his love and truth.

<sup>4</sup>Enemies are like lions all around me.

I must lie down among them.

Their teeth are like spears and arrows.

Their tongues are as sharp as swords.

<sup>5</sup>God is supreme over the skies.

His greatness covers the earth.

<sup>6</sup>They set a trap for me.

I am very worried.

They dug a pit in my path.

But they fell into it themselves.

<sup>7</sup>My heart is right, God. My heart is right.

I will sing and praise you.

<sup>8</sup>Wake up, my soul.

Wake up, harp and lyre!<sup>d</sup>

I will wake up the dawn.

<sup>9</sup>Lord, I will praise you among the nations.

I will sing songs of praise about you to all the nations.

<sup>10</sup>Your love is so great it reaches to the skies.

Your truth reaches to the clouds.

<sup>11</sup>God, you are supreme over the skies.

Let your glory be over all the earth.

Unfair Judges

For the director of music. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A miktam<sup>d</sup> of David.

58 Do you rulers really say what is right?

Do you judge people fairly?

<sup>2</sup>No, in your heart you plan evil.

You think up violent crimes in the land.
<sup>3</sup>From birth evil men start doing bad things.
 They tell lies and do wrong as soon as they are born.
<sup>4</sup>They are like poisonous snakes, like deaf cobras that can't hear.
<sup>5</sup>They cannot hear the music of the snake charmer
 no matter how well he plays for them.
<sup>6</sup>God, break the teeth out of their mouths!
 Tear out the fangs of those lions, Lord!
<sup>7</sup>Let them disappear like water that flows
 away.
 Let them be cut short like a broken arrow.
<sup>8</sup>Let them be like snails that melt as they move.
 Let them be like a child born dead who never saw the sun.
<sup>9</sup>His anger will blow them away alive.
 It will happen faster than burning thorns can heat a pot.
<sup>10</sup>Good people will be glad when they see him get even.
 They will wash their feet in the blood of the wicked.
<sup>11</sup>Then people will say,
 "There really are rewards for doing what is right.
 There really is a God who judges the world."

A Prayer for Protection

For the director of music. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A miktam<sup>d</sup> of David when Saul sent men to watch David's house to kill him.

59 God, save me from my enemies.
 Protect me from those who come
 against me.
<sup>2</sup>Save me from those who do evil.
 Save me from murderers.
<sup>3</sup>Look, men are waiting to attack me.
 Cruel men attack me.
 But I have not sinned or done wrong,
 Lord.
<sup>4</sup>I have done nothing wrong, but they are ready to attack me.
 Wake up to help me and look.
<sup>5</sup>You are the Lord God of heaven's armies,
 the God of Israel.
 Come and punish those people.
 Do not give those traitors any mercy. Selah<sup>d</sup>
<sup>6</sup>They come back at night.
 Like dogs they growl and roam around the city.

<sup>7</sup>Notice what comes from their mouths.
 Insults come from their lips.
 They say, "Who's listening?"
<sup>8</sup>But, Lord, you laugh at them.
 You make fun of all of them.
<sup>9</sup>God, my strength, I wait for you.
 God, you are my protection.
<sup>10</sup>My God loves me, and he will be with me.
 He will help me defeat my enemies.
<sup>11</sup>Lord, our protector, do not kill them.
 If you do, my people will forget.
 With your power scatter them and defeat them.
<sup>12</sup>They sin by what they say.
 They sin with their words.
 They curse and tell lies.
 So let their pride trap them.
<sup>13</sup>Destroy them in your anger.
 Destroy them completely!
 Then they will know that God rules over Israel and to the ends of the earth. Selah
<sup>14</sup>They come back at night.
 Like dogs they growl and roam around the city.
<sup>15</sup>They wander about looking for food.
 And they howl if they do not find enough.
<sup>16</sup>But I will sing about your strength.
 In the morning I will sing about your love.
 You are my protection,
 my place of safety in times of trouble.
<sup>17</sup>God, my strength, I will sing praises to
 you.
 God, my protection, you are the God who loves me.

A Prayer After a Defeat

For the director of music. To the tune of "Lily of the Agreement." A miktam<sup>d</sup> of David. For teaching. When David fought the Arameans of Northwest Mesopotamia and Zobah, and when Joab returned and defeated 12,000 Edomites at the Valley of Salt.

60 God, you have rejected us and scattered us.
 You have been angry, but please come back to us.
<sup>2</sup>You made the earth shake and crack.
 Fix its breaks because it is shaking.
<sup>3</sup>You have given your people trouble.
 You made us unable to walk straight, like people drunk with wine.
<sup>4</sup>You have raised a banner to gather those who fear you.

Now they can escape the enemy. Selah<sup>d</sup>
 5 Answer us and save us by your power.
 Then the people you love will be rescued.

6 God has said from his Temple,<sup>d</sup>
 "When I win, I will divide Shechem
 and cut up the Valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead and Manasseh are mine.
 Ephraim is like my helmet.
 Judah holds my royal scepter.<sup>d</sup>

8 Moab is like my washbowl.
 I throw my sandals at Edom.
 I shout at Philistia."

9 Who will bring me to the strong, walled city?

Who will lead me to Edom?

10 God, surely you have rejected us.
 You do not go out with our armies.

11 Help us fight the enemy.
 Human help is useless.

12 But we can win with God's help.
 He will defeat our enemies.

A Prayer for Protection

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. Of David.

61 God, hear my cry.
 Listen to my prayer.

2 I call to you from the ends of the earth.
 I am afraid.

Carry me away to a high mountain.

3 You have been my protection, like a strong tower against my enemies.

4 Let me live in your Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> forever.
 Protect me as a bird protects its young under its wings. Selah<sup>d</sup>

5 God, you have heard my promises.
 You have given me the things that belong to those who fear you.

6 Give the king a long life.
 Let him live many years.

7 Let him rule in the presence of God
 forever.

Protect him with your love and truth.

8 Then I will praise your name forever.
 And every day I will keep my promises.

Trust Only in God

For the director of music. For Jeduthun.
 A song of David.

62 I wait patiently for God.
 Only he can save me.

2 He is my rock, who saves me.
 He protects me like a strong, walled city.
 I will not be defeated.

3 How long will you attack me?
 Will all of you throw me down?
 I am like a leaning wall, like a fence ready to fall.

4 You are planning to make me fall.
 You enjoy telling lies about me.
 With your mouth you bless me.
 But in your heart you curse me. Selah<sup>d</sup>

5 I wait patiently for God to save me.
 Only he gives me hope.

6 He is my rock, who saves me.
 He protects me like a strong, walled city.
 I will not be defeated.

7 My honor and salvation come from God.
 He is my mighty rock and my protection.

8 People, trust God all the time.
 Tell him all your problems.
 God is our protection. Selah

9 People are only a breath.
 Even the greatest men are just a lie.
 On the scales, they weigh nothing.
 Together they are only a breath.

10 Do not trust in force.
 Stealing is of no use.
 Even if you gain more riches,
 don't put your trust in them.

11 God has said this,
 and I have heard it over and over:
 God, you are strong.

12 Lord, you are loving.
 You reward a person for what he does.

Wishing to Be near God

A song of David when he was in the desert of Judah.

63 God, you are my God.
 I want to follow you.

My whole being thirsts for you,
 like a man in a dry, empty land
 where there is no water.

2 I have seen you in the Temple.<sup>d</sup>
 I have seen your strength and glory.

3 Your love is better than life.
 I will praise you.

4 I will praise you as long as I live.
 I will lift up my hands in prayer to your name.

5 I will be content as if I had eaten the best foods.
 My lips will sing. My mouth will praise
 you.

6 I remember you while I'm lying in bed.
 I think about you through the night.

- <sup>7</sup>You are my help.
Because of your protection, I sing.
<sup>8</sup>I stay close to you.
You support me with your right hand.
<sup>9</sup>Some people are trying to kill me.
But they will go down to the grave.
<sup>10</sup>They will be killed with swords.
They will be eaten by wild dogs.
<sup>11</sup>But the king will rejoice in his God.
All who make promises in his name will praise him.
But the mouths of liars will be shut.

A Prayer Against Enemies

For the director of music. A song of David.

- 64 God, listen to my complaint.
I am afraid of my enemies.
Protect my life from them.
<sup>2</sup>Hide me from those wicked people, from that gang who does evil.
<sup>3</sup>They sharpen their tongues like swords.
They shoot bitter words like arrows.
<sup>4</sup>They hide and shoot at innocent people.
They shoot suddenly and are not afraid.
<sup>5</sup>They encourage each other to do wrong.
They talk about setting traps.
They think no one will see them.
<sup>6</sup>They plan wicked things and say,
“We have a perfect plan.”
The mind of man is hard to understand.
<sup>7</sup>But God will shoot them with arrows.
They will suddenly be struck down.
<sup>8</sup>Their own words will be used against them.
All who see them will shake their heads.
<sup>9</sup>Then everyone will fear God.
They will tell what God has done.
They will learn from what he has done.
<sup>10</sup>Good people will be happy in the Lord.
They will find protection in him.
Let everyone who is honest praise the
Lord.

A Hymn of Thanksgiving

For the director of music. A song of David.

- 65 God, you will be praised in Jerusalem.
We will keep our promises to you.
<sup>2</sup>You hear our prayers.
All people will come to you.
<sup>3</sup>Our guilt overwhelms us.
But you forgive our sins.
<sup>4</sup>Happy are the people you choose.
You have them stay in your courtyards.

- We are filled with good things in your house,
your holy Temple.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>5</sup>You answer us in amazing ways, God our Savior.
People everywhere on the earth and beyond the sea trust you.
<sup>6</sup>You made the mountains by your strength.
You have great power.
<sup>7</sup>You stopped the roaring seas, the roaring waves and the uproar of the
nations.
<sup>8</sup>Even those people at the ends of the earth fear your miracles.<sup>d</sup>
You are praised from where the sun rises to where it sets.
<sup>9</sup>You take care of the land and water it.
You make it very fertile.
The rivers of God are full of water.
Grain grows because you make it grow.
<sup>10</sup>You cause rain to fall on the plowed fields.
You soak them with water.
You soften the ground with rain.
And then you bless it.
<sup>11</sup>You give the year a good harvest.
You load the wagons with many crops.
<sup>12</sup>The desert is covered with grass.
The hills are covered with happiness.
<sup>13</sup>The pastures are full of sheep.
The valleys are covered with grain.
Everything shouts and sings for joy.

Praise to God for Good Crops

For the director of music. A song of praise.

- 66 Everything on earth, shout with joy to God!
<sup>2</sup>Sing about his glory!
Make his praise glorious!
<sup>3</sup>Say to God, “Your works are amazing!
Your power is great.
Your enemies fall before you.
<sup>4</sup>All the earth worships you.
They sing praises to you.
They sing praises to your name.” Selah<sup>d</sup>
<sup>5</sup>Come and see what God has done.
See what amazing things he has done for
people.
<sup>6</sup>He turned the sea into dry land.
The people crossed the river on foot.
So let us rejoice because of what he did.
<sup>7</sup>He rules forever with his power.
He keeps his eye on the nations.
So people should not turn against him.

Selah

- <sup>8</sup>You people, praise our God.
Loudly sing his praise.
- <sup>9</sup>He protects our lives and does not let us be defeated.
- <sup>10</sup>God, you have tested us.
You have purified us like silver.
- <sup>11</sup>You let us be trapped.
You put a heavy load on us.
- <sup>12</sup>You let our enemies walk on our heads.
We went through fire and flood.
But you brought us to a place with good things.
- <sup>13</sup>I will come to your Temple<sup>d</sup> with burnt offerings.
I will give you what I promised.
- <sup>14</sup>I promised to give you these things
when I was in trouble.
- <sup>15</sup>I will bring you offerings of fat animals.
And I will offer male sheep, bulls and goats. Selah
- <sup>16</sup>All of you who fear God, come and listen.
I will tell you what he has done for me.
- <sup>17</sup>I cried out to him with my mouth.
I praised him with my tongue.
- <sup>18</sup>If I had known of any sin in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened to me.
- <sup>19</sup>But God has listened.
He has heard my prayer.
- <sup>20</sup>Praise God.
He did not ignore my prayer.
He did not hold back his love from me.

Everyone Should Praise God

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A song of praise.

- 67 God, have mercy on us and bless us.
Show your kindness to us. Selah<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>2</sup>Then the world will learn your ways.
All nations will learn that you can save.
- <sup>3</sup>God, the people should praise you.
All people should praise you.
- <sup>4</sup>The nations should be glad and sing because you judge people fairly.
You guide all the nations on earth. Selah
- <sup>5</sup>God, the people should praise you.
All people should praise you.
- <sup>6</sup>The land has given its crops.
God, our God, blesses us.
- <sup>7</sup>God blesses us so people to the ends of the earth will fear him.

Praise God Who Saved the Nation

For the director of music. A song of David.

- 68 Let God come and scatter his enemies.
Let those who hate him run away.
- <sup>2</sup>Blow them away as smoke is driven away by the wind.
As wax melts before a fire,
let the wicked be destroyed before God.
- <sup>3</sup>But those who do right should be glad.
They should rejoice before God.
They should be happy and glad.
- <sup>4</sup>Sing to God. Sing praises to his name.
Prepare the way for him who rides through the desert.
His name is the Lord.
Rejoice before him.
- <sup>5</sup>God is in his holy Temple.<sup>d</sup>
He is a father to orphans.
He defends the widows.
- <sup>6</sup>God gives the lonely a home.
He leads prisoners out with joy.
But those who turn against God will live in a dry land.
- <sup>7</sup>God, you led your people out.
You marched through the desert. Selah<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>8</sup>The ground shook, and the sky poured down rain before God, the God of Mount Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.
- <sup>9</sup>God, you sent much rain.
You refreshed your tired land.
- <sup>10</sup>Your people settled there.
God, in your goodness
you took care of the poor.
- <sup>11</sup>The Lord gave the command.
And a great army told the news:
- <sup>12</sup>"Kings and their armies run away.
The women at home divide the wealth taken in war."
- <sup>13</sup>Those who stayed behind by the sheepfold will get the riches taken in battle.
- <sup>14</sup>God scattered kings like snow on Mount Zalmon.
- <sup>15</sup>The mountains of Bashan are great mountains.
Mount Bashan has many peaks.
- <sup>16</sup>Why do you mountains with many peaks look down on Mount Zion,<sup>d</sup> which God chose for his home?
The Lord will live there forever.
- <sup>17</sup>God comes with millions of chariots.

The Lord comes from Mount Sinai to his holy place.

<sup>18</sup>He went up to the heights.
He led a parade of captives.
He received the payment he demanded from the people,
even from those who turned against him.
And the Lord God will live there.

<sup>19</sup>Praise the Lord, day by day.
God our Savior helps us.

<sup>20</sup>Our God is a God who saves us.
The Lord God saves us from death.

<sup>21</sup>God will crush his enemies' heads, the hairy skulls of those who continue to sin.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord said, "I will bring the enemy back from Bashan.
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea.

<sup>23</sup>Then you can stick your feet in their blood.
And your dogs can lick their share."

<sup>24</sup>God, people have seen your victory march.
God my King marched into the holy place.

<sup>25</sup>The singers are in front, and the instruments are behind.
In the middle are the girls with the tambourines.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Praise God in the meeting place.
Praise the Lord in the gathering of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>There is the smallest tribe,<sup>d</sup> Benjamin, leading them.
And there are the leaders of Judah with their group.
There also are the leaders of Zebulun and of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup>God, order up your power.
Show the mighty power you have used for us before.

<sup>29</sup>Kings will bring their wealth to you, to your Temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup>Punish Egypt, the beast among the tall grass along the river.
Punish the leaders of nations, those bulls among the cows.
Then they will bring you their silver.
Scatter those nations that love war.

<sup>31</sup>Messengers will come from Egypt with forced payment.
The people of Cush will pray to God.

<sup>32</sup>Kingdoms of the earth, sing to God.
Sing praises to the Lord.

SelahSelah

He speaks with a thundering voice.
<sup>34</sup>Announce that God is powerful.
He rules over Israel.
His power is in the skies.
<sup>35</sup>God, you are wonderful in your Temple.
The God of Israel gives his people strength and power.
Praise God!

A Cry for Help

For the director of music. To the tune of "Lilies."
A song of David.

69 God, save me.
The water has risen to my neck.
<sup>2</sup>I'm sinking down into the mud.
There is nothing to stand on.
I am in deep water.
The flood covers me.
<sup>3</sup>I am tired from calling for help.
My throat is sore.
My eyes are tired from waiting for God to help me.

<sup>4</sup>There are more people who hate me for no reason than hairs on my head.
Those who want to destroy me are powerful.
My enemies are liars.
They make me pay back
what I did not steal.

<sup>5</sup>God, you know what I have done wrong.
I cannot hide my guilt from you.

<sup>6</sup>Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, do not let those who hope in you be ashamed because of me.
God of Israel,
do not let your worshipers be disgraced because of me.

<sup>7</sup>For you, I carry this shame.
My face is covered with disgrace.

<sup>8</sup>I am like a stranger to my brothers.
I am like a foreigner to my mother's sons.

<sup>9</sup>My strong love for your Temple<sup>d</sup> completely controls me.
When people insult you, it hurts me.

<sup>10</sup>When I cry and go without food, they make fun of me.

<sup>11</sup>When I wear rough cloth to show my sadness, they joke about me.

<sup>12</sup>They make fun of me in public places.
The drunkards make up songs about me.

<sup>13</sup>But I pray to you, Lord.
I pray that you will accept me.

God, because of your great love, answer me.
 You are truly able to save.

<sup>14</sup>Pull me from the mud.
 Do not let me sink.
 Save me from those who hate me and from the deep water.

<sup>15</sup>Do not let the flood drown me.
 Do not let the deep water swallow me.
 Do not let the grave close its mouth over me.

<sup>16</sup>Lord, answer me because your love is so good.
 Because of your great kindness, turn to me.

<sup>17</sup>Do not hide from me, your servant.
 I am in trouble. Hurry to help me!

<sup>18</sup>Come near and save me.
 Rescue me from my enemies.

<sup>19</sup>You see my shame and disgrace.
 You know all my enemies and what they have said.

<sup>20</sup>Insults have broken my heart.
 I am weak.
 I looked for sympathy, but there was none.
 I found no one to comfort me.

<sup>21</sup>They put poison in my food.
 They gave me vinegar to drink.

<sup>22</sup>Let their own feasts cause their ruin.
 Let their feasts trap them and pay them back.

<sup>23</sup>Let their eyes be closed so they cannot see.
 Let their backs be forever weak from troubles.

<sup>24</sup>Pour your anger out on them.
 Show them how angry you are.

<sup>25</sup>May their place be empty.
 Leave no one to live in their tents.

<sup>26</sup>They chase after those you have hurt.
 They talk about the pain of those you have wounded.

<sup>27</sup>Charge them with crime after crime.
 Do not let them have anything good.

<sup>28</sup>Wipe their names from the book of life.
 Do not list them with those who do what is right.

<sup>29</sup>I am sad and hurting.
 God, save me and protect me.

<sup>30</sup>I will praise God in a song.
 I will honor him by giving thanks.

<sup>31</sup>That will please the Lord more than offering him cattle.
 It will please him more than the sacrifice of a bull with horns and hoofs.

<sup>32</sup>People who are not proud will see this and be glad.
 Be encouraged, you who worship God.

<sup>33</sup>The Lord listens to those in need.
 He does not look down on captives.

<sup>34</sup>Heaven and earth should praise him.
 The seas and everything in them should also.

<sup>35</sup>God will save Jerusalem.
 He will rebuild the cities of Judah.
 Then people will live there and own the land.

<sup>36</sup> The descendants<sup>d</sup> of his servants will inherit that land.
 Those who love him will live there.

A Cry for God to Help Quickly

For the director of music. A song of David. To help people remember.

70 God, save me.
 Lord, hurry to help me.

<sup>2</sup>People are trying to kill me.
 Shame them and disgrace them.
 People want to hurt me.
 Let them run away in disgrace.

<sup>3</sup>People make fun of me.
 Stop them and make them ashamed.

<sup>4</sup>But let all the people who worship you rejoice and be glad.
 Let the people who love your salvation always say, "Praise the greatness of God."

<sup>5</sup>I am poor and helpless.
 God, hurry to me.
 You help me and save me.
 Lord, do not wait.

An Old Person's Prayer

71 In you, Lord, is my protection.
 Never let me be ashamed.

<sup>2</sup>Because you do what is right, save and rescue me.
 Listen to me and save me.

<sup>3</sup>Be my place of safety where I can always come.
 Give the command to save me.
 You are my rock and my strong, walled city.

<sup>4</sup>My God, save me from the power of the wicked.
 Save me from the hold of evil and cruel people.

<sup>5</sup>Lord God, you are my hope.
 I have trusted you since I was young.

<sup>6</sup>I have depended on you since I was born.

You have been my help from the day I was born.
I will always praise you.

<sup>7</sup>I am an example to many people.
You are my strong protection.

<sup>8</sup>I am always praising you.
All day long I honor you.

<sup>9</sup>Do not reject me when I am old.
Do not leave me when my strength is gone.

<sup>10</sup>My enemies have made plans against me.
They meet together to kill me.

<sup>11</sup>They say, "God has left him.
Go after him and take him.
No one will save him."

<sup>12</sup>God, don't be far off.
My God, hurry to help me.

<sup>13</sup>Let them be ashamed.
Destroy those who accuse me.
They are trying to hurt me.
Cover them with shame and disgrace.

<sup>14</sup>But I will always have hope.
And I will praise you more and more.

<sup>15</sup>I will tell about how you do what is right.
I will tell about your salvation all day long,
even though it is more than I can tell.

<sup>16</sup>I will come and tell about your powerful works, Lord God.
I will tell only about you and how you do what is right.

<sup>17</sup>God, you have taught me since I was young.
Even until today I tell about the miracles<sup>d</sup> you do.

<sup>18</sup>Even though I am old and gray, do not leave me, God.
I will tell the children about your power.
I will tell those who will live after me about your might.

<sup>19</sup>God, your justice reaches to the skies.
You have done great things.
God, there is no one like you.

<sup>20</sup>You have given me many troubles and bad times.
But you will give me life again.
When I am almost dead,
you will keep me alive.

<sup>21</sup>You will make me greater than ever.
And you will comfort me again.

<sup>22</sup>I will praise you with the harp.
I trust you, my God.
I will sing to you with the lyre.<sup>d</sup>
You are the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>I will shout for joy when I sing praises to you.

You have saved me.

<sup>24</sup>I will tell about your justice all day long.
And those who want to hurt me will be ashamed and disgraced.

A Prayer for the King

Of Solomon.

72 God, give the king your good judgment and the king's son your goodness.

<sup>2</sup>Help him judge your people fairly.
Help him decide what is right for the poor.

<sup>3</sup>Let there be peace on the mountains and goodness on the hills.

<sup>4</sup>Help him be fair to the poor.
Help him save the needy and punish those who hurt them.

<sup>5</sup>Help him live as long as the sun shines.
Help him rule as long as the moon glows.
Let him be king from now on!

<sup>6</sup>Let him be like rain on the grass, like showers that water the earth.

<sup>7</sup>Let goodness be plentiful while he lives.
Let peace continue as long as there is a moon.

<sup>8</sup>Let his kingdom go from sea to sea, and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>Let the people of the desert bow down to him.
And make his enemies lick the dust.

<sup>10</sup>Let the kings of Tarshish and the faraway lands bring him gifts.
Let the kings of Sheba and Seba bring their presents to him.

<sup>11</sup>Let all kings bow down to him.
Let all nations serve him.

<sup>12</sup>He will help the poor when they cry for help.
He will help the needy when no one else will help them.

<sup>13</sup>He will be kind to the weak and poor.
He will save their lives.

<sup>14</sup>He will save them from cruel people who try to hurt them.
Their lives are precious to him.

<sup>15</sup>Long live the king!
Let him receive gold from Sheba.
Let people always pray for him.

- Let them bless him all day long.
<sup>16</sup>Let the fields grow plenty of grain.
 Let the hills be covered with crops.
 Let the land be as fertile as Lebanon.
 Let the cities grow like the grass in a field.
<sup>17</sup>Let the king be famous forever.
 Let him be remembered as long as the sun shines.
 Let the nations be blessed because of him.
 And may they all bless him.
<sup>18</sup>Praise the Lord God, the God of Israel.
 Only he does such miracles.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>19</sup>Praise his glorious name forever.
 Let his glory fill the whole world.
 Amen and amen.

Book 3

Should the Wicked Be Rich?

A song of Asaph.

- 73 God is truly good to Israel, to those who have pure hearts.
<sup>2</sup>But I had almost stopped believing this truth.
 I had almost lost my faith
<sup>3</sup>because I was jealous of proud people.
 I saw wicked people doing well.
<sup>4</sup>They are not suffering.
 They are healthy and strong.
<sup>5</sup>They don't have troubles like the rest of us.
 They don't have problems like other people.
<sup>6</sup>So they wear pride like a necklace.
 They put on violence as their clothing.
<sup>7</sup>They are looking for profits.
 They do not control their selfish desires.
<sup>8</sup>They make fun of others and speak evil.
 Proudly they speak of hurting others.
<sup>9</sup>They brag to the sky.
 Their mouths gossip on the earth.
<sup>10</sup>So their people turn to them and give them whatever they want.
<sup>11</sup>They say, "How can God know?
 What does God Most High know?"
<sup>12</sup>These people are wicked, always at ease and getting richer.
<sup>13</sup>So why have I kept my heart pure?
 Why have I kept my hands from doing wrong?
<sup>14</sup>I have suffered all day long.
 I have been punished every morning.

- <sup>15</sup>God, if I had decided to talk about this,
 I would have let your people down.
<sup>16</sup>I tried to understand all this.
 But it was too hard for me to see <sup>17</sup>until I went to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God.
 Then I understood what will happen to them.
<sup>18</sup>You have put them in danger.
 You cause them to be destroyed.
<sup>19</sup>They are destroyed in a moment.
 They are swept away by terrors.
<sup>20</sup>It will be like waking from a dream.
 Lord, when you come, they will disappear.
<sup>21</sup>When my heart was sad and I was angry,
<sup>22</sup>I was senseless and stupid.
 I acted like an animal toward you.
<sup>23</sup>But I am always with you.
 You have held my hand.
<sup>24</sup>You guide me with your advice.
 And later you will receive me in honor.
<sup>25</sup>I have no one in heaven but you.
 I want nothing on earth besides you.
<sup>26</sup>My mind and my body may become weak.
 But God is my strength.
 He is mine forever.
<sup>27</sup>Those who are far from God will die.
 You destroy those who are unfaithful.
<sup>28</sup>But I am close to God, and that is good.
 The Lord God is my protection.
 I will tell all that you have done.

A Nation in Trouble Prays

A maskil<sup>d</sup> of Asaph.

- 74 God, why have you rejected us for so long?
 Why are you angry with us, the sheep of your pasture?
<sup>2</sup>Remember the people you bought long ago.
 You saved us. We are your very own.
 You live on Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>3</sup>Make your way through these old ruins.
 The enemy wrecked everything in the Temple.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>4</sup>Those who were against you shouted in your meeting place.
 They raised their flags there.
<sup>5</sup>They came with axes raised as if to cut down a forest of trees.
<sup>6</sup>They smashed the carved panels with their axes and hatchets.
<sup>7</sup>They burned your Temple to the ground.
 They have made the place where you live unclean.<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>8</sup>They thought, "We will completely crush them!"
They burned every place where God was worshipped in the land.
- <sup>9</sup>We do not see any signs.
There are no more prophets.
And no one knows how long this will last.
- <sup>10</sup>God, how much longer will the enemy make fun of you?
Will they insult you forever?
- <sup>11</sup>Why do you hold back your power?
Bring your power out in the open and destroy them!
- <sup>12</sup>God, you have been our king for a long time.
You have saved this country.
- <sup>13</sup>You split open the sea by your power.
You broke the heads of the sea monster.
- <sup>14</sup>You smashed the heads of the monster Leviathan.<sup>d</sup>
You gave him to the desert creatures as food.
- <sup>15</sup>You opened up the springs and streams.
And you made the rivers run dry.
- <sup>16</sup>Both the day and the night are yours.
You made the sun and the moon.
- <sup>17</sup>You made all the limits on the earth.
You created summer and winter.
- <sup>18</sup>Lord, remember how the enemy insulted you.
Remember how those foolish people turned away from you.
- <sup>19</sup>Do not give us, your doves, to those wild animals.
Never forget your poor people.
- <sup>20</sup>Remember the agreement you made with us because violence fills every dark corner of this land.
- <sup>21</sup>Do not let your suffering people be disgraced.
The poor and helpless people praise you.
- <sup>22</sup>God, come and defend yourself.
Remember the insults that come from those foolish people all day long.
- <sup>23</sup>Don't forget what your enemies said.
Don't forget their roar as they rise against you always.

God the Judge

For the director of music. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Song of Asaph.

- 75 God, we thank you.
We thank you because you are near.
We tell about the wonderful things you do.
- <sup>2</sup>You say, "I set the time for trial.
I will judge fairly.
- <sup>3</sup>The earth with all its people may shake.
I am the one who holds it steady. Selah<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>4</sup>I say to those who are proud, 'Don't brag.'
I say to the wicked, 'Don't show your power.
- <sup>5</sup>Don't try to use your power against heaven.
Don't be stubborn.' "
- <sup>6</sup>No one from the east or the west or the desert can judge you.
- <sup>7</sup>God is the judge.
He judges one person as guilty, and another as innocent.
- <sup>8</sup>The Lord holds a cup of anger in his hand.
It is full of wine mixed with spices.
He pours it out even to the last drop.
And the wicked drink it all.
- <sup>9</sup>I will tell about this forever.
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
- <sup>10</sup>He will take all power away from the wicked.
But the power of good people will grow.

The God Who Always Wins

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A song of Asaph.

- 76 People in Judah know God.
People in Israel know he is great.
- <sup>2</sup>He lives in Jerusalem.
His home is on Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>3</sup>There God broke the flaming arrows, the shields and swords of war. Selah<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>4</sup>God, how wonderful you are!
You are more wonderful than the hills full of animals.
- <sup>5</sup>The brave soldiers were stripped as they lay asleep in death.
Not one warrior
had the strength to stop it.
- <sup>6</sup>God of Jacob, when you spoke strongly, horses and riders fell dead.
- <sup>7</sup>You should be feared.
Who can stand against you when you are angry?
- <sup>8</sup>From heaven you gave the decision.

And the earth was afraid and silent.
 9God, you stood up to judge and to save the people of the earth who were not proud. Selah 10People praise you for your anger against evil.
 Those who live through your anger are stopped from doing more evil.
 11Keep your promises to the Lord your God.
 From all around gifts should come to the God we worship.
 12God defeats great leaders.
 The kings on earth fear him.

Remembering God's Help

For the director of music. For Jeduthun.
 A song of Asaph.

77 I cry out loud to God.
 I call to God, and he will hear me.
 2I looked for the Lord on the day of trouble.
 All night long I reached out my hands.
 I cannot be comforted.
 3When I remember God, I become upset.
 When I think, I become afraid. Selah
 4You keep my eyes from closing.
 I am too upset to say anything.
 5I keep thinking about the old days,
 the years of long ago.
 6At night I remember my songs.
 I think, and I ask myself:
 7"Will the Lord reject us forever?
 Will he never be kind to us again?
 8Is his love gone forever?
 Has he stopped speaking for all time?
 9Has God forgotten mercy?
 Is he too angry to pity us?" Selah 10Then I said, "This is what makes me sad:
 For years the power of God Most High was with us."
 11I remember what the Lord did.
 I remember the miracles<sup>d</sup> you did long ago.
 12I think about all the things you did.
 I think about what you have done.
 13God, your ways are holy.
 No god is as great as our God.
 14You are the God who did miracles.
 You showed people your power.
 15By your power you have saved your
 people,
 the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Jacob and Joseph. Selah 16God, the waters saw you.
 They saw you and became afraid.
 The deep waters shook with fear.

17The clouds poured down their rain.
 The sky thundered.
 Your lightning flashed back and forth.
 18Your thunder sounded in the whirlwind.
 Lightning lit up the world.
 The earth trembled and shook.
 19You made a way through the sea and paths through the deep waters.
 But your footprints were not seen.
 20You led your people like a flock of sheep.
 You led them by using Moses and Aaron.

God Saved Israel from Egypt

A maskil<sup>d</sup> of Asaph.

78 My people, listen to my teaching.
 Listen to what I say.
 2I will speak using stories.
 I will tell things that have been secret
 since long ago.
 3We have heard them and know them.
 Our fathers told them to us.
 4We will not keep them from our children.
 We will tell those who come later about the praises of the Lord.
 We will tell about his power and the miracles<sup>d</sup> he has done.
 5The Lord made an agreement with Jacob.
 He gave the teachings to Israel.
 And he commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children.
 6Then their children would know them, even their children not yet born.
 And they would tell their children.
 7So they would all trust God.
 They would not forget what God had
 done.
 Instead, they would obey his commands.
 8They would not be like their ancestors who were stubborn and disobedient.
 Their hearts were not loyal to God.
 They were not true to him.
 9The men of Ephraim had bows for weapons.
 But they ran away on the day of battle.
 10They didn't keep their agreement with
 God.
 They refused to live by his teachings.
 11They forgot what he had done and the miracles he had shown them.
 12He did miracles while their ancestors watched,
 in the fields of Zoan in Egypt.
 13He divided the Red Sea<sup>d</sup> and led them through.
 He made the water stand up like a wall.

14He led them with a cloud by day.
 And he led them at night by the light of a fire.
 15He split the rocks in the desert.
 And he gave them much water, as if it were from the deep ocean.
 16He brought streams out of the rock.
 The water flowed down like rivers.
 17But the people continued to sin against
 him.
 In the desert they turned against God
 Most High.
 18They decided to test God
 by asking for the food they wanted.
 19Then they spoke against God.
 They said, "Can God prepare food in the desert?
 20When he hit the rock, water poured out.
 Rivers flowed down.
 But can he give us bread also?
 Will he provide his people with meat?"
 21When the Lord heard them, he was very angry.
 His anger was like fire to the people of Jacob.
 His anger grew against the people of Israel.
 22They had not believed God.
 They had not trusted him to save them.
 23But he gave a command to the clouds
 above.
 The doors of heaven opened.
 24He rained manna<sup>d</sup> down on them to eat.
 He gave them grain from heaven.
 25So they ate the bread of angels.
 He sent them all the food they could eat.
 26He sent the east wind from heaven.
 He led the south wind by his power.
 27He rained meat on them like dust.
 The birds were as many as the sand of
 the sea.
 28He made the birds fall inside the camp,
 all around the tents.
 29So the people ate and became very full.
 God had given them what they wanted.
 30While they were still eating, and while the food was still in their mouths,
 31God became angry with them.
 He killed some of the healthiest of them.
 He struck down the best young men of Israel.
 32But they kept on sinning.

They did not believe even with the miracles.
 33So he ended their days without meaning and their years in terror.
 34Anytime he killed them, some would look to him for help.
 They would come back to God and follow him.
 35They would remember that God was their Rock,<sup>d</sup>
 that God Most High had saved them.
 36But their words were false.
 Their tongues lied to him.
 37Their hearts were not really loyal to God.
 They did not keep his agreement.
 38Still God was merciful.
 He forgave their sins.
 He did not destroy them.
 Many times he held back his anger.
 He did not stir up all his anger.
 39He remembered that they were only human.
 They were like a wind that blows and does not come back.
 40They turned against God so often in the desert!
 There they made him very sad.
 41Again and again they tested God.
 They brought pain to the Holy One of Israel.
 42They did not remember his power or the time he saved them from the enemy.
 43They forgot the signs he did in Egypt and his miracles in the fields of Zoan.
 44He turned the rivers to blood.
 So no one could drink the water.
 45He sent flies that bit the people.
 He sent frogs that destroyed them.
 46He gave their crops to grasshoppers and what they worked for to locusts.<sup>d</sup> 47He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore trees with sleet.
 48He killed their animals with hail and their cattle with lightning.
 49He showed them his hot anger.
 He sent his strong anger against them.
 He sent his destroying angels.
 50He found a way to show his anger.
 He did not keep them from dying.
 He let them die by a terrible disease.
 51God killed all the firstborn<sup>d</sup> sons in Egypt, the oldest son of each family of Ham.<sup>a</sup>
 52But God led out his people like sheep.

<sup>a</sup>Ham The people in Egypt were descendants of Ham, one of Noah's sons. See Genesis 10:6.

He guided them like a flock through the desert.
<sup>53</sup>He led them to safety. They had nothing to fear.
 But their enemies drowned in the sea.
<sup>54</sup>So God brought them to his holy land.
 He brought them to the mountain country he took with his own power.
<sup>55</sup>He forced out the other nations.
 And he had his people inherit the land.
 He let the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel settle there in tents.
<sup>56</sup>But they tested God and turned against the Most High.
 They did not keep his rules.
<sup>57</sup>They turned away and sinned just like their ancestors.
 They were like a crooked bow that does not shoot straight.
<sup>58</sup>They made God angry by building places to worship false gods.
 They made him jealous with their idols.
<sup>59</sup>When God heard them, he became very angry.
 And he rejected the people of Israel completely.
<sup>60</sup>He left his dwelling at Shiloh, the tent where he lived among men.
<sup>61</sup>He let his Ark<sup>d</sup> be captured.
 He let the Ark, which was his glory, be taken by enemies.
<sup>62</sup>He let his people be killed.
 He was very angry with his children.
<sup>63</sup>The young men died by fire.
 The young women had no one to marry.
<sup>64</sup>Their priests fell by the sword.
 But their widows were not allowed to cry.
<sup>65</sup>Then the Lord got up as if he had been asleep.
 He awoke like a man who was drunk with wine.
<sup>66</sup>He struck down his enemies.
 He disgraced them forever.
<sup>67</sup>But God rejected the family of Joseph.
 He did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.
<sup>68</sup>Instead, he chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion,<sup>d</sup> which he loves.
<sup>69</sup>And he built his Temple<sup>d</sup> high like the mountains.
 Like the earth, he built it to last forever.
<sup>70</sup>He chose David to be his servant.
 He took him from the sheep pens.
<sup>71</sup>He brought him from tending the sheep so he could lead the flock, the people of Jacob.

This flock was his own people, the people of Israel.
<sup>72</sup>And David led them with an innocent heart.
 He guided them with skillful hands.

The Nation Cries for Jerusalem

A song of Asaph.

79 God, nations have come against your people.
 They have ruined your holy Temple.<sup>d</sup>
 They have turned Jerusalem into ruins.
<sup>2</sup>They have given the bodies of your servants as food to the wild birds.
 They have given the bodies of those who worship you to the wild animals.
<sup>3</sup>They have spilled blood like water all around Jerusalem.
 No one was left to bury the dead.
<sup>4</sup>We are a bad joke to the other nations.
 They laugh and make fun of us.
<sup>5</sup>Lord, how long will this last? Will you be angry forever?
 How long will your jealousy burn like a fire?
<sup>6</sup>Be angry with the nations that do not know you.
 Be angry with the kingdoms that do not honor you.
<sup>7</sup>They have destroyed the people of Jacob.
 Those nations have destroyed the people's land.
<sup>8</sup>Don't punish us for the sins of our ancestors.
 Show your mercy to us soon.
 We are helpless!
<sup>9</sup>God our Savior, help us
 so people will praise you.
 Save us and forgive our sins
 so people will honor you.
<sup>10</sup>Why should the nations say,
 "Where is their God?"
 Tell the other nations in our presence that you punish those who kill your servants.
<sup>11</sup>Hear the moans of the prisoners.
 Use your great power to save those sentenced to die.
<sup>12</sup>Repay those around us seven times over for their insults to you, Lord.
<sup>13</sup>We are your people, the sheep of your flock.
 We will thank you always.

Forever and ever we will praise you.

A Prayer to Bring Israel Back

For the director of music. To the tune of "Lilies of the Agreement." A song of Asaph.

80 Shepherd of Israel, listen to us.
You lead the people of Joseph like a flock.

You sit on your throne between the gold creatures with wings.

Show your greatness <sup>2</sup>to the people of Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh.

Use your strength.

Come and save us.

<sup>3</sup>God, take us back.

Show us your kindness so we can be saved.

<sup>4</sup>Lord God of heaven's armies, how long will you be angry
at the prayers of your people?

<sup>5</sup>You have fed your people tears.

You have made them drink many tears.

<sup>6</sup>You made those around us fight over us.
Our enemies make fun of us.

<sup>7</sup>God of heaven's armies, take us back.

Show us your kindness so we can be saved.

<sup>8</sup>You brought us out of Egypt as if we were a vine.

You forced out other nations and planted us in the land.

<sup>9</sup>You cleared the land for us.

Like a vine, we took root and filled the land.

<sup>10</sup>We covered the mountains with our shade.

We had limbs like the mighty cedar tree.

<sup>11</sup>Our branches reached the Mediterranean Sea.

And our shoots went to the Euphrates River.

<sup>12</sup>So why did you pull down our walls?

Now everyone who passes by steals from us.

<sup>13</sup>Like wild pigs they walk over us.

Like wild animals they feed on us.

<sup>14</sup>God of heaven's armies, come back.

Look down from heaven and see.

Take care of us, your vine.

<sup>15</sup>You planted this shoot with your own hands.

You raised and strengthened this child.

<sup>16</sup>Now it is cut down and burned with fire.

You destroyed us by your angry looks.

<sup>17</sup>Help the man you have chosen.

Make this human being strong for your service.

<sup>18</sup>Then we will not turn away from you.

Give us life again, and we will call to you for help.

<sup>19</sup>Lord God of heaven's armies, take us back.

Show us your kindness so we can be saved.

A Song for a Holiday

For the director of music. By the gittith. <sup>d</sup>A song of Asaph.

81 Sing for joy to God, our strength.
Shout out loud to the God of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup>Begin the music. Play the tambourines. <sup>d</sup>

Play pleasant music on the harps and lyres. <sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Blow the sheep's horn at the time of the New Moon. <sup>d</sup>

Blow it when the moon is full, when our feast begins.

<sup>4</sup>This is the law for Israel.

It is God's command to the people of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup>He made this agreement with the people of Joseph when they went out of the land of Egypt.

I heard a language I did not know, saying:

<sup>6</sup>"I took the load off your shoulders.

I let you put down your baskets.

<sup>7</sup>When you were in trouble, you called, and I saved you.

I answered you with thunder.

I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>8</sup>My people, listen. I am warning you.

Israel, please listen to me!

<sup>9</sup>You must not have foreign gods among you.

You must not worship any false god.

<sup>10</sup>I, the Lord, am your God.

I brought you out of Egypt.

Open your mouth, and I will feed you.

<sup>11</sup>"But my people did not listen to me.
Israel did not want me.

<sup>12</sup>So I let them go their stubborn way.
They followed their own advice.

<sup>13</sup>I wish my people would listen to me.

I wish Israel would live my way.

<sup>14</sup>Then I would quickly defeat their enemies.
I would turn my hand against those who are against them.

<sup>15</sup>Those who hate the Lord would bow before him.

Selah<sup>d</sup>

Their punishment would continue forever.

- <sup>10</sup>But I would give you the finest wheat.
I would fill you with honey from the rocks."

God Judges the Judges A

A song of Asaph.

82 God is in charge of the great meeting of his people.

He judges the judges.

- <sup>2</sup>He says, "How long will you defend evil people?

How long will you show greater kindness to the wicked?" Selah<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>3</sup>Defend the orphans and the weak.
Defend the rights of the poor and suffering.

- <sup>4</sup>Save the weak and helpless from the power of the wicked.

- <sup>5</sup>"You know nothing. You don't understand.
You walk in the dark,
while the world is falling apart.

- <sup>6</sup>I said, 'You are gods.
You are all sons of the Most High God.'

- <sup>7</sup>But you will die like any other person.
You will die like all the leaders."

- <sup>8</sup>God, come and judge the earth.
You own all the nations.

A Prayer Against the Enemies

A song of Asaph.

83 God, do not keep quiet.
God, do not be silent or still.

- <sup>2</sup>Your enemies are making plans.
Those who hate you are getting ready to attack.

- <sup>3</sup>They are making plans against your people.
They plan to hurt those you love.

- <sup>4</sup>They say, "Come, let's destroy them as a nation.

Then no one will remember the name 'Israel' anymore."

- <sup>5</sup>They are united in their plan.
These have made an agreement against you:

- <sup>6</sup>the families of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites,

- <sup>7</sup>the people of Byblos, Ammon, Amalek, Philistia and Tyre.

- <sup>8</sup>Even Assyria has joined them to help Ammon and Moab, the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Lot. Selah<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>9</sup>God, do to them what you did to Midian.

Do what you did to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River.

- <sup>10</sup>They died at Endor.

Their bodies rotted on the ground.

- <sup>11</sup>Do to their important leaders what you did to Oreb and Zeeb.

Do to their princes what you did to Zebah and Zalmunna.

- <sup>12</sup>They said, "Let's take for ourselves the pasturelands that belong to God."

- <sup>13</sup>My God, make them like the tumbleweed, like chaff<sup>d</sup> blown away by the wind.

- <sup>14</sup>Be like a fire that burns a forest or like flames that blaze through the hills.

- <sup>15</sup>Chase them with your storm.
Frighten them with your wind.

- <sup>16</sup>Cover them with shame.

Then people will look for you, Lord.
<sup>17</sup>Make them afraid and ashamed forever.
Disgrace them and destroy them.

- <sup>18</sup>Then they will know that you are the Lord.
They will know that only you are God
Most High over all the earth.

Wishing to Be in the Temple

For the director of music. By the gittith.<sup>d</sup> A song of the sons of Korah.

84 Lord of heaven's armies, how lovely is your Temple!<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>2</sup>I want to be in the courtyards of the Lord's Temple.
My whole being wants to be with the living God.

- <sup>3</sup>The sparrows have found a home.
And the swallows have nests.
They raise their young near your altars, Lord of heaven's armies, my King and my God.

- <sup>4</sup>Happy are the people who live at your Temple.
They are always praising you. Selah<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>5</sup>Happy are those whose strength comes from you.

They want to travel to Jerusalem.

- <sup>6</sup>As they pass through the Valley of Baca, they make it like a spring.
The autumn rains fill it with pools of water.

- <sup>7</sup>The people get stronger as they go.
And everyone meets with God in
Jerusalem.

- <sup>8</sup>Lord God of heaven's armies, hear my prayer.

God of Jacob, listen to me. Selah

- <sup>9</sup>God, look at our shield.

Be kind to your appointed king.

- <sup>10</sup>One day in the courtyards of your Temple is better than a thousand days anywhere else.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the Temple of my God than live in the homes of the wicked.
<sup>11</sup>The Lord God is like our sun and shield.
The Lord gives us kindness and glory.
He does not hold back anything good from those whose life is innocent.
<sup>12</sup>Lord of heaven's armies, happy are the people who trust you!

A Prayer for the Nation

For the director of music. A song
of the sons of Korah.

- 85 Lord, you have been kind to your land.
You gave the people of Jacob back their riches.
<sup>2</sup>You forgave the guilt of the people.
You covered all their sins. Selah<sup>d</sup>
<sup>3</sup>You stopped all your anger.
You stopped your strong anger.
<sup>4</sup>God our Savior, bring us back again.
Stop being angry with us.
<sup>5</sup>Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you stay angry from now on?
<sup>6</sup>Won't you give us life again?
Your people would rejoice in you.
<sup>7</sup>Lord, show us your love.
Save us.
<sup>8</sup>I will listen to God the Lord.
He has ordered peace for his people who worship him.
Don't let them go back to foolishness.
<sup>9</sup>God will soon save those who respect him.
And his greatness will be seen in our
land.
<sup>10</sup>Love and truth will belong to God's people.
Goodness and peace will be theirs.
<sup>11</sup>On earth people will be loyal to God.
And God's goodness will shine down from heaven.
<sup>12</sup>The Lord will give his goodness.
And the land will give its crops.
<sup>13</sup>Goodness will go before God and prepare the way for him.

A Cry for Help

A prayer of David.

- 86 Lord, listen to me and answer me.
I am poor and helpless.
<sup>2</sup>Protect me, because I worship you.

My God, save me, your servant.
I trust in you.

- <sup>3</sup>Lord, be merciful to me.
I have called to you all day.
<sup>4</sup>Give happiness to me, your servant.
Lord, I give my life to you.
<sup>5</sup>Lord, you are kind and forgiving.
You have great love for those who call to
you.
<sup>6</sup>Lord, hear my prayer.
Listen when I ask for mercy.
<sup>7</sup>I call to you in times of trouble.
You certainly will answer me.
<sup>8</sup>Lord, there is no god like you.
There are no works like yours.
<sup>9</sup>Lord, all the nations you have made will come and worship you.
They will honor you.
<sup>10</sup>You are great, and you do miracles.<sup>d</sup>
Only you are God.
<sup>11</sup>Lord, teach me what you want me to do.
And I will live by your truth.
Teach me to respect you completely.
<sup>12</sup>Lord, my God, I will praise you with all my heart.
I will honor your name forever.
<sup>13</sup>You have great love for me.
You have saved me from death.
<sup>14</sup>God, proud men turn against me.
A gang of cruel men are trying to kill
me.
They do not respect you.
<sup>15</sup>But Lord, you are a God who shows mercy and is kind.
You don't become angry quickly.
You have great love and faithfulness.
<sup>16</sup>Turn to me and be merciful.
Give me, your servant, strength.
Save me, the son of your female servant.
<sup>17</sup>Show me a sign of your goodness.
When my enemies look, they will be ashamed.
You, Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

God Loves Jerusalem

A song of the sons of Korah.

- 87 The Lord built Jerusalem on the holy mountain.
<sup>2</sup>He loves its gates more than any other place in Israel.
<sup>3</sup>City of God, wonderful things are said about you. Selah<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>God says, "I will put Egypt and Babylon on the list of nations that know me.

People from Philistia, Tyre and Cush will be born there.”

- <sup>5</sup>They will say about Jerusalem,
“This one and that one were born there.
God Most High will strengthen her.”
<sup>6</sup>The Lord will keep a list of the nations.
He will note, “This person was born
there.”
<sup>7</sup>They will dance and sing,
“All good things come from Jerusalem.”

A Sad Complaint

A song of the sons of Korah. For the director of music. By the mahalath leannoth. <sup>d</sup>A maskil<sup>d</sup> of Heman the Ezrahite.

- 88 Lord, you are the God who saves
me.
I cry out to you day and night.
<sup>2</sup>Accept my prayer.
Listen to my cry.
<sup>3</sup>My life is full of troubles.
I am nearly dead.
<sup>4</sup>They think I am on the way to my grave.
I am like a man with no strength.
<sup>5</sup>I have been left as dead, like a body lying in a grave.
You don't remember dead people.
They are cut off from your care.
<sup>6</sup>You have brought me close to death.
I am almost in the dark place of the dead.
<sup>7</sup>You have been very angry with me.
All your waves crush me. Selah<sup>d</sup>
<sup>8</sup>You have taken my friends away from me.
You have made them hate me.
I am trapped and cannot escape.
<sup>9</sup>My eyes are weak from crying.
Lord, I have prayed to you every day.
I have lifted my hands in prayer to you.
<sup>10</sup>Do you show your miracles<sup>d</sup> for the dead?
Do their spirits rise up and praise you?
Selah
<sup>11</sup>Will your love be told in the grave?
Will your loyalty be told in the place of death?
<sup>12</sup>Will your miracles be known in the dark grave?
Will your goodness be known in the land where the dead are forgotten?
<sup>13</sup>But, Lord, I have called out to you for help.
Every morning I pray to you.
<sup>14</sup>Lord, why do you reject me?
Why do you hide from me?

- <sup>15</sup>I have been weak and dying since I was young.
I suffer from your terrors, and I am helpless.
<sup>16</sup>You have been angry with me.
Your terrors have destroyed me.
<sup>17</sup>They surround me daily like a flood.
They are all around me.
<sup>18</sup>You have taken away my loved ones and friends.
Darkness is my only friend.

A Song About God's Loyalty

A maskil<sup>d</sup> of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- 89 I will always sing about the Lord's
love.
I will tell of his loyalty from now on.
<sup>2</sup>I will say, “Your love continues forever.
Your loyalty goes on and on like the sky.” <sup>3</sup>You said, “I made an agreement with the man of my choice.
I made a promise to my servant David.
<sup>4</sup>I told him, ‘I will make your family continue forever.
Your kingdom will continue from now on.’” Selah<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>Lord, the heavens praise you for your miracles<sup>d</sup> and for your loyalty in the meeting of your holy ones.
<sup>6</sup>Who in heaven is equal to the Lord?
None of the angels is like the Lord.
<sup>7</sup>When the holy ones meet, it is God they fear.
He is more frightening than all who surround him.
<sup>8</sup>Lord God of heaven's armies, who is like
you?
Lord, you are powerful and completely to be trusted.
<sup>9</sup>You rule the mighty sea.
You calm the stormy waves.
<sup>10</sup>You crushed the sea monster Rahab.<sup>d</sup>
By your power you scattered your enemies.
<sup>11</sup>The skies and the earth belong to you.
You made the world and everything in it.
<sup>12</sup>You created the north and the south.
Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon sing for joy at your name.
<sup>13</sup>Your arm has great power.
Your hand is strong. Your right hand is lifted up.

<sup>14</sup>Your kingdom is built on what is right and fair.

Love and truth are in all you do.

<sup>15</sup>Happy are the people who know how to praise you.

Lord, let them live in the light of your presence.

<sup>16</sup>In your name they rejoice all the time. They praise your goodness.

<sup>17</sup>You are their glorious strength.

In your kindness you honor our king.

<sup>18</sup>Our king, our shield, belongs to the Lord. Our king belongs to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>Once, in a vision, you spoke to those who worship you.

You said, "I have given strength to a warrior.

I have selected a young man from my people.

<sup>20</sup>I have found my servant David.

I appointed him by pouring holy oil on him.

<sup>21</sup>I will steady him with my hand.

I will strengthen him with my arm.

<sup>22</sup>No enemy will make him give forced payments.

Wicked people will not defeat him.

<sup>23</sup>I will crush his enemies in front of him.

I will defeat those who hate him.

<sup>24</sup>My loyalty and love will be with him.

Through me he will be strong.

<sup>25</sup>I will give him power over the sea and control over the rivers.

<sup>26</sup>He will say to me, 'You are my father, my God, the Rock,<sup>d</sup> the one who saves me.'

<sup>27</sup>I will make him my firstborn<sup>d</sup> son.

He will be the greatest king on earth.

<sup>28</sup>My love will watch over him forever.

My agreement with him will never end.

<sup>29</sup>I will make his family continue.

His kingdom will last as long as the skies.

<sup>30</sup>"But his descendants<sup>d</sup> might reject my teachings and not follow my rules.

<sup>32</sup>Then I will punish their sins with a rod and their wrongs with a whip.

<sup>33</sup>But I will not hold back my love from David.

I will not stop being loyal.

<sup>34</sup>I will not break my agreement.

I will not change what I have said.

<sup>35</sup>It is certain that I am a holy God.

So it is certain I will not lie to David.

<sup>36</sup>His family will continue forever.

His kingdom will continue before me like the sun.

<sup>37</sup>It will last forever, like the moon, like a lasting witness in the sky." Selah <sup>38</sup>But now, you have rejected your appointed king.

You have been angry with him.

<sup>39</sup>You have broken the agreement with your servant.

You threw his crown to the ground.

<sup>40</sup>You have torn down all the city walls.

You have turned his strong, walled cities into ruins.

<sup>42</sup>You have given strength to his enemies. You have made them all happy.

<sup>43</sup>You have made his sword useless.

You did not help him stand in battle.

<sup>44</sup>You have kept him from winning.

You threw his throne to the ground.

<sup>45</sup>You have cut his life short.

You have covered him with shame. Selah

<sup>46</sup>Lord, how long will this go on?

Will you ignore us forever?

How long will your anger burn like a fire?

<sup>47</sup>Remember how short my life is.

Why did you create us anyway?

<sup>48</sup>What man alive will not die?

Can he escape the grave? Selah

<sup>49</sup>Lord, where is your love from times past?

With loyalty you promised it to David.

<sup>50</sup>Lord, remember how they insulted your servant.

Remember how I have suffered the insults of the nations.

<sup>51</sup>Lord, remember how your enemies insulted you.

Remember how they insulted your appointed king wherever he went.

Amen and amen.

Book 4

God Is Eternal, and We Are Not

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

90 Lord, you have been our home since the beginning.

<sup>2</sup>Before the mountains were born, and before you created the earth and the world,

you are God.
You have always been, and you will always be.

- <sup>3</sup>You turn people back into dust.
You say, "Go back into dust, human beings."
<sup>4</sup>To you, a thousand years is like the passing of a day.
It passes like an hour in the night.
<sup>5</sup>While people sleep, you take their lives.
They are like weeds that grow in the morning.
<sup>6</sup>In the morning they are fresh and new.
But by evening they dry up and die.
<sup>7</sup>We are destroyed by your anger.
We are terrified by your hot anger.
<sup>8</sup>You have put the evil we have done right in front of you.
You clearly see our secret sins.
<sup>9</sup>All our days pass while you are angry.
Our years end with a moan.
<sup>10</sup>Our lifetime is 70 years.
If we are strong, we may live to be 80.
But the years are full of hard work and pain.
They pass quickly, and then we are gone.
<sup>11</sup>Who knows the full power of your anger?
Your anger is as great as our fear of you should be.
<sup>12</sup>Teach us how short our lives really are so that we may be wise.
<sup>13</sup>Lord, how long before you return and show kindness to your servants?
<sup>14</sup>Fill us with your love every morning.
Then we will sing and rejoice all our lives.
<sup>15</sup>We have seen years of trouble.
Now give us joy as you gave us sorrow.
<sup>16</sup>Show your servants the wonderful things you do.
Show your greatness to their children.
<sup>17</sup>Lord our God, be pleased with us.
Give us success in what we do.
Yes, give us success in what we do.

Safe in the Lord

- 91 Those who go to God Most High for safety will be protected by God All-Powerful.
<sup>2</sup> will say to the Lord, "You are my place of safety and protection.
You are my God, and I trust you."

- <sup>3</sup>God will save you from hidden traps and from deadly diseases.
<sup>4</sup>He will protect you like a bird spreading its wings over its young.
His truth will be like your armor and shield.
<sup>5</sup>You will not fear any danger by night or an arrow during the day.
<sup>6</sup>You will not be afraid of diseases that come in the dark or sickness that strikes at noon.
<sup>7</sup>At your side 1,000 people may die, or even 10,000 right beside you.
But you will not be hurt.
<sup>8</sup>You will only watch what happens.
You will see the wicked punished.
<sup>9</sup>The Lord is your protection.
You have made God Most High your place of safety.
<sup>10</sup>Nothing bad will happen to you.
No disaster will come to your home.
<sup>11</sup>He has put his angels in charge of you.
They will watch over you wherever you go.
<sup>12</sup>They will catch you with their hands.
And you will not hit your foot on a rock.
<sup>13</sup>You will walk on lions and cobras.
You will step on strong lions and snakes.
<sup>14</sup>The Lord says, "If someone loves me, I will save him.
I will protect those who know me.
<sup>15</sup>They will call to me, and I will answer them.
I will be with them in trouble.
I will rescue them and honor them.
<sup>16</sup> will give them a long, full life.
They will see how I can save."

Thanksgiving for God's Goodness

A song for the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day.

- 92 It is good to praise the Lord, to sing praises to God Most High.
<sup>2</sup>It is good to tell of your love in the morning and of your loyalty at night.
<sup>3</sup>It is good to praise you with the ten-stringed lyre<sup>d</sup> and with the soft-sounding harp.
<sup>4</sup>Lord, you have made me happy by what you have done.
I will sing for joy about what your hands have done.
<sup>5</sup>Lord, you have done such great things!
How deep are your thoughts!
<sup>6</sup>Stupid people don't know these things.

- Fools don't understand.
<sup>7</sup>Wicked people grow like the grass.
 Evil people seem to do well.
 But they will be destroyed forever.
<sup>8</sup>But, Lord, you will be honored forever.
<sup>9</sup>Lord, surely your enemies, surely your enemies will be destroyed.
 All who do evil will be scattered.
<sup>10</sup>But you have made me as strong as a wild ox.
 You have poured fine oils on me.
<sup>11</sup>When I looked, I saw my enemies.
 I heard the cries of those who are against
 me.
<sup>12</sup>But good people will grow like palm trees.
 They will be tall like the cedar trees of Lebanon.
<sup>13</sup>They will be like trees planted in the courtyards of the Lord.
 They will grow strong in the courtyards of our God.
<sup>14</sup>When they are old, they will still produce fruit.
 They will be healthy and fresh.
<sup>15</sup>They will say that the Lord is good.
 He is my Rock,<sup>d</sup> and there is no wrong in him.

The Majesty of God

- 93 The Lord is king. He is clothed with majesty.
 The Lord is clothed in majesty and armed with strength.
 The world is set,
 and it cannot be moved.
<sup>2</sup>Lord, your kingdom was set up long ago.
 You are everlasting.
<sup>3</sup>Lord, the seas rise up.
 The seas raise their voice.
 The seas lift up their pounding waves.
<sup>4</sup>The sound of the water is loud.
 The ocean waves are powerful.
 But the Lord above is much greater.
<sup>5</sup>Lord, your laws will stand forever.
 Your Temple<sup>d</sup> will be holy forevermore.

God Will Pay Back His Enemies

- 94 The Lord is a God who gives people what they should get.
 God, show your greatness and punish!
<sup>2</sup>Rise up, Judge of the earth.
 Give the proud what they should get.
<sup>3</sup>How long will the wicked be happy?
 How long, Lord?

- <sup>4</sup>They are full of proud words.
 Those who do evil brag about what they
 have done.
<sup>5</sup>Lord, they crush your people.
 They make your children suffer.
<sup>6</sup>They kill widows and foreigners.
 They murder orphans.
<sup>7</sup>They say, "The Lord doesn't see.
 The God of Jacob doesn't notice."
<sup>8</sup>You stupid ones among the people, pay attention.
 You fools, when will you understand?
<sup>9</sup>Can't the creator of ears hear?
 Can't the maker of eyes see?
<sup>10</sup>Won't the one who corrects nations punish
 you?
 Doesn't the teacher of men know everything?
<sup>11</sup>The Lord knows what people think.
 He knows they are just a puff of wind.
<sup>12</sup>Lord, those you correct are happy.
 You give them your teachings.
<sup>13</sup>You give them rest from times of trouble until a grave is dug for the wicked.
<sup>14</sup>The Lord won't leave his people.
 He will not give up his children.
<sup>15</sup>Judgment will again be fair.
 And all who are honest will follow it.
<sup>16</sup>Who will help me fight against the wicked?
 Who will stand with me against those who do evil?
<sup>17</sup>If the Lord had not helped me,
 I would have died soon.
<sup>18</sup>I said, "I am about to be overwhelmed."
 But, Lord, your love kept me safe.
<sup>19</sup>I was very worried.
 But you comforted me and made me
 happy.
<sup>20</sup>Crooked leaders cannot be your friends.
 They use the law to cause suffering.
<sup>21</sup>They join forces against people who do right.
 They sentence to death the innocent.
<sup>22</sup>But the Lord protects me like a strong, walled city.
 My God is the rock of my protection.
<sup>23</sup>God will pay them back for their sins.
 He will destroy them for their evil.
 The Lord our God will destroy them.

A Call to Praise and Obedience

- 95 Come, let's sing for joy to the Lord.
 Let's shout praises to the Rock<sup>d</sup> who saves us.
<sup>2</sup>Let's come to him with thanksgiving.

Let's sing songs to him.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord is the great God.

He is the great King over all gods.

<sup>4</sup>The deepest places on earth are his.

And the highest mountains belong to him.

<sup>5</sup>The sea is his because he made it.

He created the land with his own hands.

<sup>6</sup>Come, let's bow down and worship him.

Let's kneel before the Lord who made us.

<sup>7</sup>He is our God.

And we are the people he takes care of and the sheep that he tends.

Today listen to what he says:

<sup>8</sup> "Do not be stubborn, as your ancestors were at Meribah, as they were that day at Massah in the desert.

<sup>9</sup>There your ancestors tested me.

They put me to the test even though they saw what I did.

<sup>10</sup>I was angry with those people for 40 years.

I said, 'They are not loyal to me.

They have not understood my ways.'

<sup>11</sup>I was angry and made a promise,

'They will never enter my land of rest.' "

Praise for God's Glory

96 Sing to the Lord a new song.
Sing to the Lord, all the earth.

<sup>2</sup>Sing to the Lord and praise his name.

Every day tell how he saves us.

<sup>3</sup>Tell the nations of his glory.

Tell all peoples the miracles<sup>d</sup> he does.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord is great; he should be praised.

He should be honored more than all the gods.

<sup>5</sup>All the gods of the nations are only idols.

But the Lord made the skies.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord has glory and majesty.

He has power and beauty in his Temple.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Praise the Lord, all nations on earth.

Praise the Lord's glory and power.

<sup>8</sup>Praise the glory of the Lord's name.

Bring an offering and come into his Temple courtyards.

<sup>9</sup>Worship the Lord because he is holy.

The whole earth should tremble before
the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Tell the nations, "The Lord is king."

The earth is set, and it cannot be moved.

He will judge the people fairly.

<sup>11</sup>Let the skies rejoice and the earth be glad.

Let the sea and everything in it shout.

<sup>12</sup>Let the fields and everything in them show their joy.

Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy.

<sup>13</sup>They will sing before the Lord because he is coming.

He is coming to judge the world.

He will judge the world with fairness and the nations with truth.

A Hymn About God's Power

97 The Lord is king. Let the earth rejoice.

Faraway lands should be glad.

<sup>2</sup>Thick, dark clouds surround him.

His kingdom is built on what is right and fair.

<sup>3</sup>A fire goes before him and burns up his enemies all around.

<sup>4</sup>His lightning flashes in the sky.

When the people see it, they tremble.

<sup>5</sup>The mountains melt like wax before the Lord.

He is Lord of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>The skies tell about his goodness.

And all the people see his glory.

<sup>7</sup>Those who worship idols should be ashamed.

They brag about their false gods.

All the gods should worship the Lord.

<sup>8</sup>When Jerusalem hears this, she is glad.

The towns of Judah rejoice.

They are happy because of your judgments, Lord.

<sup>9</sup>You are the Lord Most High over all the earth.

You are supreme over all gods.

<sup>10</sup>People who love the Lord should hate evil.

The Lord watches over those who follow
him.

He frees them from the power of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>Light shines on those who do right.

Joy belongs to those who are honest.

<sup>12</sup>Rejoice in the Lord, you who do right.

Praise his holy name.

The God of Power and Justice

A song.

98 Sing to the Lord a new song because he has done miracles.<sup>d</sup>

By his right hand and holy arm

he has won the victory.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord has told about his power to save.

He has shown the other nations his victory for his people.

<sup>3</sup>He has remembered his love and his loyalty to the people of Israel.
All the ends of the earth have seen
God's power to save.

<sup>4</sup>Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Burst into songs and praise.

<sup>5</sup>Make music to the Lord with harps, with harps and the sound of singing.

<sup>6</sup>Blow the trumpets and the sheep's horns.
Shout for joy to the Lord the King.

<sup>7</sup>Let the sea and everything in it shout.
Let the world and everyone on it sing.

<sup>8</sup>Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing together for joy.

<sup>9</sup>Let them sing before the Lord because he is coming to judge the world.
He will judge the world fairly.
He will judge the nations with fairness.

God the Fair and Holy King

99 The Lord is king.
Let the nations shake with fear.
He sits between the gold creatures with wings.
Let the earth shake.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord in Jerusalem is great.
He is supreme over all the nations.

<sup>3</sup>Let them praise your name.
It is great, holy and to be feared.

<sup>4</sup>The King is powerful and loves justice.
Lord, you made things fair.
You have done what is fair and right for the people of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup>Praise the Lord our God.
Worship at the Temple,<sup>d</sup> his footstool.
He is holy.

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were among his priests.
And Samuel was among his worshipers.
They called to the Lord,
and he answered them.

<sup>7</sup>He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
They kept the rules and laws he gave
them.

<sup>8</sup>Lord our God, you answered them.
You showed them that you are a forgiving God.
But you punished them for their wrongs.

<sup>9</sup>Praise the Lord our God.
Worship at his holy mountain.
The Lord our God is holy.

A Call to Praise God

A song of thanks.

100 Shout to the Lord, all the earth.
<sup>2</sup> Serve the Lord with joy.
Come before him with singing.

<sup>3</sup>Know that the Lord is God.
He made us, and we belong to him.
We are his people, the sheep he tends.

<sup>4</sup>Come into his city with songs of thanksgiving.
Come into his courtyards with songs of praise.

Thank him, and praise his name.
<sup>5</sup>The Lord is good. His love continues
forever.

His loyalty continues from now on.

A Promise to Rule Well

A song of David.

101 I will sing of love and fairness.
Lord, I will sing praises to you.
<sup>2</sup>I will be careful to live an innocent life.
When will you come to me?

I will live an innocent life in my house.

<sup>3</sup>I will not look at anything wicked.
I hate those who turn against you.
They will not be found near me.

<sup>4</sup>Let those who want to do wrong stay away from me.

I will have nothing to do with evil.

<sup>5</sup>If anyone secretly says things against his neighbor,
I will stop him.

I will not allow people to be proud and look down on others.

<sup>6</sup>I will look for trustworthy people so I can live with them in the land.
Only those who live innocent lives will be my servants.

<sup>7</sup>No one who is dishonest will live in my house.
No liars will stay around me.

<sup>8</sup>Every morning I will destroy the wicked in the land.

I will rid the Lord's city of people who do evil.

A Cry for Help

A prayer of a person who is suffering when he is discouraged and tells the Lord his complaints.

102 Lord, listen to my prayer.
Let my cry for help come to you.

<sup>2</sup>Do not hide from me in my time of trouble.

Pay attention to me.

When I cry for help, answer me quickly.

- <sup>3</sup>My life is passing away like smoke.
My bones are burned up with fire.
- <sup>4</sup>My heart is like grass that has been cut and dried.
I forget to eat.
- <sup>5</sup>Because of my grief,
my skin hangs on my bones.
- <sup>6</sup>I am like a desert owl.
I am like an owl living among the ruins.
- <sup>7</sup>I lie awake.
I am like a lonely bird on a housetop.
- <sup>8</sup>All day long enemies insult me.
Those who make fun of me use my name as a curse.
- <sup>9</sup>I eat ashes as my food.
My tears fall into my drinks.
- <sup>10</sup>Because of your great anger, you have picked me up and thrown me
away.
- <sup>11</sup>My days are like a passing shadow.
I am like dried grass.
- <sup>12</sup>But, Lord, you rule forever.
Your fame continues from now on.
- <sup>13</sup>You will come and have mercy on Jerusalem.
The time has now come to be kind to her.
- <sup>14</sup>Your servants love even her stones.
They even care about her dust.
- <sup>15</sup>Nations will fear the name of the Lord.
All the kings on earth will honor him.
- <sup>16</sup>The Lord will rebuild Jerusalem.
There his glory will be seen.
- <sup>17</sup>He will answer the prayers of the needy.
He will not reject their prayers.
- <sup>18</sup>Write these things for the future.
Then people who are not yet born will
praise the Lord.
- <sup>19</sup>The Lord looked down from his holy place above.
From heaven he looked down at the earth.
- <sup>20</sup>He heard the moans of the prisoners.
And he freed those sentenced to die.
- <sup>21</sup>The name of the Lord will be heard in Jerusalem.
His praise will be heard in Jerusalem.
- <sup>22</sup>People will come together.
Kingdoms will serve the Lord.
- <sup>23</sup>God has made me tired of living.
He has cut short my life.
- <sup>24</sup>So I said, "My God, do not take me in the middle of my life.
Your years go on and on.

- <sup>25</sup>In the beginning you made the earth.
And your hands made the skies.
- <sup>26</sup>They will be destroyed, but you will remain.
They will all wear out like clothes.
And, like clothes, you will change them.
And they will be thrown away.
- <sup>27</sup>But you never change.
And your life will never end.
- <sup>28</sup>Our children will live in your presence.
And their children will remain with
you."

Praise to the God of Love

Of David.

103 My whole being, praise the Lord.
All my being, praise his holy name.

- <sup>2</sup>My whole being, praise the Lord.
Do not forget all his kindnesses.
- <sup>3</sup>The Lord forgives me for all my sins.
He heals all my diseases.
- <sup>4</sup>He saves my life from the grave.
He loads me with love and mercy.
- <sup>5</sup>He satisfies me with good things.
He makes me young again, like the eagle.
- <sup>6</sup>The Lord does what is right and fair for all who are wronged by others.
- <sup>7</sup>He showed his ways to Moses and his miracles<sup>d</sup> to the people of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup>The Lord shows mercy and is kind.
He does not become angry quickly, and
he has great love.
- <sup>9</sup>He will not always scold us.
He will not be angry forever.
- <sup>10</sup>He has not punished us as our sins should be punished.
He has not repaid us for the evil we have done.
- <sup>11</sup>As high as the sky is above the earth, so great is his love for those who respect
him.
- <sup>12</sup>He has taken our sins away from us as far as the east is from west.
- <sup>13</sup>The Lord has mercy on those who fear
him,
as a father has mercy on his children.
- <sup>14</sup>He knows how we were made.
He remembers that we are dust.
- <sup>15</sup>Human life is like grass.
We grow like a flower in the field.
- <sup>16</sup>After the wind blows, the flower is gone.
There is no sign of where it was.
- <sup>17</sup>But the Lord's love for those who fear him continues forever and ever.

- And his goodness continues to their grandchildren 18and to those who keep his agreement and who remember to obey his orders.
 19The Lord has set his throne in heaven. And his kingdom rules over everything.
 20You who are his angels, praise the Lord. You are the mighty warriors who do what he says.
 Listen to what he says.
 21You, his armies, praise the Lord. You are his servants who do what he wants.
 22Everything the Lord has made should praise him in all the places he rules.
 My whole being, praise the Lord.

Praise to God Who Made the World

- 104 My whole being, praise the Lord. Lord my God, you are very great. You are clothed with glory and majesty.
 2 You wear light like a robe. You stretch out the skies like a tent.
 3 You build your room above the clouds. You make the clouds your chariot. You ride on the wings of the wind.
 4You make the winds your messengers. Flames of fire are your servants.
 5You built the earth on its foundations. So it can never be moved.
 6You covered the earth with oceans. The water was above the mountains.
 7But at your command, the water rushed away.
 When you gave your orders like thunder, it hurried away.
 8The mountains rose. The valleys sank. The water went to the places you made for it.
 9You set borders for the seas that they cannot cross. The water will never cover the earth again.
 10You make springs pour into the ravines. They flow between the mountains.
 11They water all the wild animals. The wild donkeys come there to drink.
 12Wild birds make nests by the water. They sing among the tree branches.
 13You water the mountains from above. The earth is full of the things you made.
 14You make the grass for cattle and vegetables for the use of man.

- You make food grow from the earth.
 15You give us wine that makes happy hearts. And you give us olive oil that makes our faces shine.
 You give us bread that gives us strength.
 16The Lord's trees have plenty of water. They are the cedar trees of Lebanon, which he planted.
 17The birds make their nests there. The stork's home is in the fir trees.
 18The high mountains belong to the wild goats. The rocks are hiding places for the badgers.
 19You made the moon to mark the seasons. And the sun always knows when to set.
 20You make it dark, and it becomes night. Then all the wild animals creep around.
 21The lions roar as they attack. They look to God for food.
 22When the sun rises, they leave. They go back to their dens to lie down.
 23Then people go to work. And they work until evening.
 24Lord, you have made many things. With your wisdom you made them all. The earth is full of your riches.
 25Look at the sea, so big and wide. Its creatures large and small cannot be counted.
 26Ships travel over the ocean. And there is the sea monster Leviathan,<sup>d</sup> which you made to play there.
 27All these things depend on you to give them their food at the right time.
 28When you give it to them, they gather it up. When you open your hand, they are filled with good food.
 29When you turn away from them, they become frightened. When you take away their breath, they die and turn into dust.
 30When you breathe on them, they are created. You make the land new again.
 31May the glory of the Lord be forever. May the Lord enjoy what he has made.
 32He just looks at the earth, and it shakes. He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
 33I will sing to the Lord all my life. I will sing praises to my God as long as I live.

<sup>34</sup>May my thoughts please him.
I am happy in the Lord.
<sup>35</sup>Let sinners be destroyed from the earth.
Let the wicked people live no longer.
My whole being, praise the Lord.
Praise the Lord.

God's Love for Israel

105 Give thanks to the Lord and pray to him.
Tell the nations what he has done.
<sup>2</sup>Sing to him. Sing praises to him.
Tell about all the wonderful things he has done.
<sup>3</sup>Be glad that you are his.
Let those who ask the Lord for help be happy.
<sup>4</sup>Depend on the Lord and his strength.
Always go to him for help.
<sup>5</sup>Remember the wonderful things he has done.
Remember his miracles<sup>d</sup> and his decisions.
<sup>6</sup>You are descendants<sup>d</sup> of his servant Abraham, the children of Jacob, his chosen people.
<sup>7</sup>He is the Lord our God.
His laws are for all the world.
<sup>8</sup>He will keep his agreement forever.
He will keep his promises always.
<sup>9</sup>He will keep his agreement he made with Abraham.
He will keep the promise he made to Isaac.
<sup>10</sup>He made it a law for the people of Jacob.
He made it an agreement with Israel to last forever.
<sup>11</sup>The Lord said, "I will give you the land of Canaan.
The promised land will belong to you."
<sup>12</sup>Then God's people were few in number.
They were strangers in the land.
<sup>13</sup>They went from one nation to another.
They went from one kingdom to another.
<sup>14</sup>But the Lord did not let anyone hurt them.
He warned kings not to harm them.
<sup>15</sup>He said, "Don't hurt my chosen people.
Don't harm my prophets."<sup>d</sup>
<sup>16</sup>God ordered a time of hunger in the land.
And he destroyed all the food.
<sup>17</sup>Then he sent a man ahead of them.
It was Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

<sup>18</sup>They put chains around his feet and an iron ring around his neck.
<sup>19</sup>Then the time he had spoken of came.
The Lord's words proved that Joseph was right.
<sup>20</sup>The king of Egypt sent for Joseph and freed him.
The ruler of the people set him free.
<sup>21</sup>He made him the master of his house.
Joseph was in charge of his riches.
<sup>22</sup>He could order the princes as he wished.
He taught the older men to be wise.
<sup>23</sup>Then his father Israel came to Egypt.
Jacob, also called Israel, lived in Egypt.<sup>n</sup>
<sup>24</sup>The Lord made his people grow in number.
He made them stronger than their enemies.
<sup>25</sup>And he caused the Egyptians to hate his people.
They made plans against the Lord's servants.
<sup>26</sup>Then he sent his servant Moses, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
<sup>27</sup>They did many signs among the Egyptians.
They worked miracles in Egypt.
<sup>28</sup>The Lord sent darkness and made the land dark.
But the Egyptians turned against what he said.
<sup>29</sup>So he changed their water into blood and made their fish die.
<sup>30</sup>Then their country was filled with frogs.
They were even in the bedrooms of their rulers.
<sup>31</sup>The Lord spoke, and flies came.
Gnats were everywhere in the country.
<sup>32</sup>He made hail fall like rain.
And he sent lightning through their land.
<sup>33</sup>He struck down their grapevines and fig trees.
He destroyed every tree in the country.
<sup>34</sup>He spoke, and grasshoppers came.
The locusts<sup>d</sup> were too many to count.
<sup>35</sup>They ate all the plants in the land.
They ate what the earth produced.
<sup>36</sup>The Lord also killed all the firstborn<sup>d</sup> sons in the land,
the oldest son of each family.
<sup>37</sup>Then he brought his people out,
and they carried with them silver and gold.
Not one of his people stumbled.

<sup>n</sup>Egypt Literally, "the land of Ham." Also in verse 27. The people in Egypt were descendants of Ham, one of Noah's sons. See Genesis 10:6.

because the Egyptians were afraid of them.

<sup>40</sup>When they asked, he brought them quail. He filled them with bread from heaven.

<sup>44</sup>He gave them lands that belonged to other nations.

They received what others had worked for.

<sup>45</sup>This was so they would keep his orders and obey his teachings.

Praise the Lord!

Israel's Failure to Trust God

106 Praise the Lord!
Thank the Lord because he is good.

His love continues forever.

<sup>2</sup>No one can tell all the mighty things the Lord has done.

No one can speak all his praise.

<sup>3</sup>Happy are those people who are fair, who do what is right at all times.

<sup>4</sup>Lord, remember me when you are kind to your people.

Help me when you save them.

<sup>5</sup>Let me see the good things you do for your chosen people.

Let me be happy along with your happy nation.

Let me join your own people in praising you.

<sup>6</sup>We have sinned just as our ancestors did. We have done wrong. We have done evil.

<sup>7</sup>Our ancestors in Egypt did not learn from your miracles.<sup>d</sup>

They did not remember all your kindnesses.

So they turned against you at the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>8</sup>But the Lord saved them for his own sake, to show his great power.

<sup>9</sup>He commanded the Red Sea, and it dried up.

He led them through the deep sea as if it were a desert.

<sup>10</sup>He saved them from those who hated them.

He saved them from their enemies.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people believed what the Lord said.

They sang praises to him.

<sup>14</sup>They became greedy for food in the desert. And they tested God there.

<sup>15</sup>So he gave them what they wanted.

But he also sent a terrible disease among them.

<sup>16</sup>The people in the camp became jealous of Moses and of Aaron, the holy priest of the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>Then the ground opened up and swallowed Dathan.

It closed over Abiram's group.

They worshiped a metal statue.

<sup>21</sup>They forgot the God who saved them, who had done great things in Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>He did miracles in Egypt.<sup>a</sup>

He did amazing things by the Red Sea.

<sup>23</sup>So God said he would destroy them.

But Moses, his chosen one, stood before him.

He stopped God's anger from destroying them.

<sup>24</sup>Then they refused to go into the beautiful land of Canaan.

They did not believe what God promised.

<sup>25</sup>They grumbled in their tents and did not obey the Lord.

<sup>26</sup>So he swore to them that they would die in the desert.

<sup>27</sup>He said their children would be killed by other nations and that they would be scattered among other countries.

<sup>a</sup>Egypt Literally, "the land of Ham." The people in Egypt were descendants of Ham, one of Noah's sons. See Genesis 10:6.

They ate meat that had been sacrificed to lifeless statues.

<sup>29</sup>They made the Lord angry by what they did.
So many people became sick with a terrible disease.

<sup>30</sup>But Phinehas prayed to the Lord, and the disease stopped.

<sup>31</sup>The Lord will remember that Phinehas did what was right.
And God will remember this from now on.

<sup>32</sup>The people also made the Lord angry at Meribah.
And Moses was in trouble because of them.

<sup>33</sup>The people turned against the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God.
So Moses spoke without stopping to think.

<sup>34</sup>The people did not destroy the other nations as the Lord had told them to do.

<sup>35</sup>Instead, they mixed with the other nations.
And they learned their customs.

<sup>36</sup>They worshiped other nations' idols.
And they were trapped by them.

<sup>37</sup>They even killed their sons and daughters as sacrifices to demons.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>38</sup>They killed innocent people.
They killed their own sons and daughters as sacrifices to the idols of Canaan.
So the land was made unholy by their blood.

<sup>39</sup>The people became unholy by their sins.
They were unfaithful to God in what they did.

<sup>40</sup>So the Lord became angry with his people.
He hated his own children.

<sup>41</sup>He let other nations defeat them.
He let their enemies rule over them.

<sup>42</sup>Their enemies were cruel to them.
Their enemies kept them under their power.

<sup>43</sup>The Lord saved his people many times.
But they continued to turn against him.
So they became even more wicked.

<sup>44</sup>But God saw their misery.
He heard their cry.

<sup>45</sup>He remembered his agreement with them.
And he felt sorry for them because of his great love.

<sup>46</sup>He caused them to be pitied by those who held them captive.

<sup>47</sup>Lord our God, save us.
Bring us back from other nations.
Then we will thank you.
Then we will gladly praise you.

<sup>48</sup>Praise the Lord, the God of Israel.
He always was and always will be.
Let all the people say, "Amen!"
Praise the Lord!

Book 5

God Saves from Many Dangers

107 Thank the Lord because he is good.
His love continues forever.

<sup>2</sup>That is what the people the Lord has saved should say.
They are the ones he has saved from the enemy.

<sup>3</sup>He has gathered them from other lands, from east and west, north and south.

<sup>4</sup>Some people had wandered in the desert lands.
They found no city to live in.

<sup>5</sup>They were hungry and thirsty.
They were discouraged.

<sup>6</sup>In their misery they cried out to the Lord.
And he saved them from their troubles.

<sup>7</sup>He led them on a straight road to a city where they could live.

<sup>8</sup>Let them give thanks to the Lord for his love and for the miracles<sup>d</sup> he does for people.

<sup>9</sup>He satisfies the thirsty.
He fills up the hungry.

<sup>10</sup>Some sat in gloom and darkness.
They were prisoners suffering in chains.

<sup>11</sup>They had turned against the words of God.
They had refused the advice of God Most High.

<sup>12</sup>So he broke their pride by hard work.
They stumbled, and no one helped.

And he saved them from their troubles.

<sup>14</sup>He brought them out of their gloom and darkness.
He broke their chains.

<sup>15</sup>Let them give thanks to the Lord for his love and for the miracles he does for people.

<sup>16</sup>He breaks down bronze gates.
And he cuts apart iron bars.

<sup>17</sup>Some became fools who turned against God.

They suffered for the evil they did.
<sup>18</sup>They refused to eat anything.
 So they almost died.
<sup>19</sup>In their misery they cried out to the Lord.
 And he saved them from their troubles.
<sup>20</sup>God gave the command and healed them.
 So they were saved from dying.
<sup>21</sup>Let them give thanks to the Lord for his love
 and for the miracles he does for people.
<sup>22</sup>Let them offer sacrifices to thank him.
 With joy they should tell what he has done.
<sup>23</sup>Others went out to sea in ships.
 They did business on the great oceans.
<sup>24</sup>They saw what the Lord could do.
 They saw the miracles he did.
<sup>25</sup>He spoke, and a storm came up.
 It blew up high waves.
<sup>26</sup>The ships tossed as high as the sky and fell low in the waves.
 The storm was so bad the men lost their courage.
<sup>27</sup>They stumbled and fell like men who were drunk.
 They did not know what to do.
<sup>28</sup>In their misery they cried out to the Lord.
 And he saved them from their troubles.
<sup>29</sup>He made the storm be still.
 He calmed the waves.
<sup>30</sup>They were happy that it was quiet.
 And God guided them to the port they wanted.
<sup>31</sup>Let them give thanks to the Lord for his love
 and for the miracles he does for people.
<sup>32</sup>Let them praise his greatness in the meeting of the people.
 They should praise him in the meeting of the older leaders.
<sup>33</sup>He changed rivers into a desert, and springs of water into dry ground.
<sup>34</sup>He made fertile land salty because the people there did evil.
<sup>35</sup>He changed the desert into pools of water and dry ground into springs of water.
<sup>36</sup>He had the hungry settle there.
 They built a city to live in.
<sup>37</sup>They planted seeds in the fields and vineyards.
 And they had a good harvest.
<sup>38</sup>God blessed them, and they grew in number.
 Their cattle did not become fewer.
<sup>39</sup>Because of disaster, troubles and sadness, their families grew smaller and weaker.

<sup>40</sup>He showed he was displeased with their important men.
 He made them wander in a pathless
 desert.
<sup>41</sup>But he lifted the poor out of their suffering.
 And he made their families grow like flocks of sheep.
<sup>42</sup>Good people see this and are happy.
 But the wicked say nothing.
<sup>43</sup>Whoever is wise will remember these things.
 He will think about the love of the Lord.

A Prayer for Victory

A song of David.

108 God, my heart is right.
 I will sing and praise you with all my being.
<sup>2</sup>Wake up, harp and lyre!<sup>d</sup>
 I will wake up the dawn.
<sup>3</sup>Lord, I will praise you among the nations.
 I will sing songs of praise about you to
 all the nations.
<sup>4</sup>Your love is so great that it is higher than the skies.
 Your truth reaches to the clouds.
<sup>5</sup>God, you are supreme over the skies.
 Let your glory be over all the earth.
<sup>6</sup>Answer us and save us by your power.
 Then the people you love will be rescued.
<sup>7</sup>God has said from his Temple,<sup>d</sup>
 "When I win, I will divide Shechem
 and cut up the Valley of Succoth.
<sup>8</sup>Gilead and Manasseh are mine.
 Ephraim is like my helmet.
 Judah holds my royal scepter.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>9</sup>Moab is like my washbowl.
 I throw my sandals at Edom.
 I shout at Philistia."
<sup>10</sup>Who will bring me to the strong, walled city?
 Who will lead me to Edom?
<sup>11</sup>God, surely you have rejected us.
 You do not go out with our armies.
<sup>12</sup>Help us fight the enemy.
 Human help is useless.
<sup>13</sup>But we can win with God's help.
 He will defeat our enemies.

A Prayer Against an Enemy

For the director of music. A song of David.

109

God, I praise you.
Do not be silent.

- <sup>2</sup>Wicked people and liars have spoken
against me.
They have told lies about me.
<sup>3</sup>They have said hateful things about me.
They attack me for no reason.
<sup>4</sup>They attacked me, even though I loved
them
and prayed for them.
<sup>5</sup>I was good to them, but they repay me with evil.
I loved them, but they hate me in return.
<sup>6</sup>They say about me, "Have the Evil One work against him.
Let the devil accuse him.
<sup>7</sup>When he is judged, let him be found guilty.
Let even his prayers show that he is guilty.
<sup>8</sup>Let his life be cut short.
Let another man replace him as leader.
<sup>9</sup>Let his children become orphans.
Let his wife become a widow.
<sup>10</sup>Make his children wander around, begging for food.
Let them be forced out of the ruins they live in.
<sup>11</sup>Let the people he owes money to take everything he owns.
Let strangers steal everything he has worked for.
<sup>12</sup>Let no one show him love.
Let no one have mercy on his children.
<sup>13</sup>Let all his descendants<sup>d</sup> die.
Let him be forgotten by people who live after him.
<sup>14</sup>Let the Lord remember how wicked his ancestors were.
Don't let the sins of his mother be wiped out.
<sup>15</sup>Let the Lord always remember their sins.
Then he will make people forget about them completely.
<sup>16</sup>"He did not remember to be loving.
He hurt the poor, the needy and those who were sad
until they were nearly dead.
<sup>17</sup>He loved to put curses on others.
So let those same curses fall on him.
He did not like to bless others.
So do not let good things happen to him.

- <sup>18</sup>He cursed others as often as he wore clothes.
Cursing others filled his body and his life,
like drinking water and using olive oil.
<sup>19</sup>So let curses cover him like clothes.
Let them wrap around him like a belt."
<sup>20</sup>May the Lord do these things to those who accuse me,
to those who speak evil against me.
<sup>21</sup>But you, Lord God, be kind to me so others will know you are good.
Because your love is good, save me.
<sup>22</sup>I am poor and helpless.
And I am very sad.
<sup>23</sup>I am dying like an evening shadow.
I am shaken off like a locust.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>24</sup>My knees are weak from hunger.
I have become thin.
<sup>25</sup>My enemies insult me.
They look at me and shake their heads.
<sup>26</sup>Lord my God, help me.
Because you are loving, save me.
<sup>27</sup>Then they will know that you have saved
me.
They will know it was your power, Lord.
<sup>28</sup>They may curse me, but you bless me.
They may attack me, but they will be disgraced.
Then I, your servant, will be glad.
<sup>29</sup>Let those who accuse me be disgraced.
Let them be covered with shame like a coat.
<sup>30</sup>I will thank the Lord very much.
I will praise him in front of many people.
<sup>31</sup>He defends the helpless.
He saved me from those who accuse me.

The Lord Appoints a King

A song of David.

110

The Lord said to my Master,
"Sit by me at my right side until I put your enemies under your control."

- <sup>2</sup>The Lord will make you king in Jerusalem over all nations.
And you will rule your enemies in their own countries.
<sup>3</sup>Your people will join you on the day you come to power.
You have been dressed in holiness from birth.
You have the freshness of a child.
<sup>4</sup>The Lord has made a promise and will not change his mind.

He said, "You are a priest forever,
a priest like Melchizedek."

- <sup>5</sup>The Lord is beside you to help you.
When he becomes angry, he will crush kings.
<sup>6</sup>He will judge those nations, filling them with dead bodies.
He will defeat rulers all over the world.
<sup>7</sup>The king will drink from the brook on the way.
Then he will be strengthened and win
the battle.

Praise for God's Goodness

- 111 Praise the Lord!
I will thank the Lord with all my heart
in the meeting of his good people.
<sup>2</sup>The Lord does great things.
Those people who love them think about
them.
<sup>3</sup>What he does is glorious and splendid.
His goodness continues forever.
<sup>4</sup>His miracles<sup>d</sup> are unforgettable.
The Lord is kind and merciful.
<sup>5</sup>He gives food to those who fear him.
He remembers his agreement forever.
<sup>6</sup>He has shown his people his power when he gave them the lands of other nations.
<sup>7</sup>Everything he does is good and fair.
All his orders can be trusted.
<sup>8</sup>They will continue forever.
They were made true and right.
<sup>9</sup>He sets his people free.
He made his agreement everlasting.
He is holy and wonderful.
<sup>10</sup>Wisdom begins with respect for the Lord.
Those who obey his orders have good understanding.
He should be praised forever.

Honest People Are Blessed

- 112 Praise the Lord!
Happy is the person who fears
the Lord.
He loves what the Lord commands.
<sup>2</sup>His descendants<sup>d</sup> will be powerful in the
land.
The children of honest people will be blessed.
<sup>3</sup>His house will be full of wealth and riches.
His goodness will continue forever.

- <sup>4</sup>A light shines in the dark for honest
people.
It shines for those who are good and kind and merciful.
<sup>5</sup>It is good to be kind and generous.
Whoever is fair in his business
<sup>6</sup>will never be defeated.
A good person will be remembered from now on.
<sup>7</sup>He won't be afraid of bad news.
He is safe because he trusts the Lord.
<sup>8</sup>That person is confident. He will not be afraid.
He will look down on his enemies.
<sup>9</sup>He gives freely to the poor.
The things he does are right and will continue forever.
He will be given great honor.
<sup>10</sup>The wicked will see this and become angry.
They will grind their teeth in anger and then disappear.
The wishes of the wicked will come to nothing.

Praise for God's Kindness

- 113 Praise the Lord!
Praise him, you servants of the
Lord.
Praise the name of the Lord.
<sup>2</sup>The Lord's name should be praised now and forever.
<sup>3</sup>The Lord's name should be praised from where the sun rises to where it sets.
<sup>4</sup>The Lord is supreme over all the nations.
His glory reaches to the skies.
<sup>5</sup>No one is like the Lord our God.
He rules from heaven.
<sup>6</sup>He bends down to look at the skies and the earth.
<sup>7</sup>The Lord lifts the poor from the dirt.
He takes the helpless from the ashes.
<sup>8</sup>And he seats them with princes, the princes of his people.
<sup>9</sup>He gives children to the woman who has none.
He makes her a happy mother.
Praise the Lord!

God Brought Israel from Egypt

- 114 The Israelites went out of Egypt.
The people of Jacob left that foreign country.
<sup>2</sup>Then Judah became God's holy place.

Israel became the land he ruled.

<sup>3</sup>The Red Sea<sup>d</sup> looked and ran away.
The Jordan River turned back.

<sup>4</sup>The mountains danced like sheep and the hills like little lambs.

<sup>5</sup>Sea, why did you run away?
Jordan, why did you turn back?

<sup>6</sup>Mountains, why did you dance like sheep?
Hills, why did you dance like little lambs?

<sup>7</sup>Earth, shake with fear before the Lord.
Tremble in the presence of the God of Jacob.

<sup>8</sup>He turned a rock into a pool of water.
He changed a hard rock into a spring of water.

The One True God

115 It does not belong to us, Lord.
The praise belongs to you because of your love and loyalty.

<sup>2</sup>Why do the nations ask,
“Where is their God?”

<sup>3</sup>Our God is in heaven.
He does what he wants.

<sup>4</sup>Their idols are made of silver and gold.
They are made by human hands.

<sup>5</sup>They have mouths, but they cannot speak.
They have eyes, but they cannot see.

<sup>6</sup>They have ears, but they cannot hear.
They have noses, but they cannot smell.

<sup>7</sup>They have hands, but they cannot feel.
They have feet, but they cannot walk.

And no sounds come from their throats.

<sup>8</sup>The people who make idols and trust them are all like them.

<sup>9</sup>Family of Israel, trust the Lord.
He is your helper and your protection.

<sup>10</sup>Family of Aaron, trust the Lord.
He is your helper and your protection.

<sup>11</sup>You people who fear the Lord should trust
him.

He is your helper and your protection.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord remembers us and will bless us.
He will bless the family of Israel.

He will bless the family of Aaron.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord will bless those who fear him, from the smallest to the greatest.

<sup>14</sup>May the Lord give you many children.
And may he give them children also.

<sup>15</sup>May the Lord bless you.
He made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup>Heaven belongs to the Lord.

But he gave the earth to people.

<sup>17</sup>Dead people do not praise the Lord.
Those in the grave are silent.

<sup>18</sup>But we will praise the Lord
now and forever.

Praise the Lord!

Thanksgiving for Escaping Death

116 I love the Lord because he listens to my prayers for help.

<sup>2</sup>He paid attention to me.
So I will call to him for help as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup>The ropes of death bound me.
The fear of death took hold of me.
I was troubled and sad.

<sup>4</sup>Then I called out the name of the Lord.
I said, “Please, Lord, save me!”

<sup>5</sup>The Lord is kind and does what is right.
Our God is merciful.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord watches over the foolish.
When I was helpless, he saved me.

<sup>7</sup>I said to myself, “Relax, because the Lord takes care of you.”

<sup>8</sup>Lord, you have saved me from death.
You have stopped my eyes from crying.
You have kept me from being defeated.

<sup>9</sup>So I will walk with the Lord in the land of the living.

<sup>10</sup>I believed, so I said,
“I am completely ruined.”

<sup>11</sup>In my distress I said,
“All people are liars.”

<sup>12</sup>What can I give the Lord for all the good things he has given to
me?

<sup>13</sup>I will give him a drink offering for saving
me.

And I will pray to the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>In front of all his people,
I will give the Lord what I promised.

<sup>15</sup>The death of one that belongs to him is precious to the Lord.

<sup>16</sup>Lord, I am your servant.
I am your servant and the son of your female servant.

You have freed me from my chains.

<sup>17</sup>I will give an offering to show thanks to
you.

And I will worship the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>In front of all his people,
I will give the Lord what I promised.

<sup>19</sup>I will do this in the Temple<sup>d</sup> courtyards in Jerusalem.

Praise the Lord!

A Hymn of Praise

117 All you nations, praise the Lord.
All you people, praise him.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord loves us very much.
His truth is everlasting.

Praise the Lord!

Thanksgiving for Victory

118 Thank the Lord because he is good.

His love continues forever.

<sup>2</sup>Let the people of Israel say,
"His love continues forever."

<sup>3</sup>Let the family of Aaron say,
"His love continues forever."

<sup>4</sup>Let those who fear the Lord say,
"His love continues forever."

<sup>5</sup>I was in trouble. So I called to the Lord.
The Lord answered me and set me free.

<sup>6</sup>I will not be afraid because the Lord is with me.

People can't do anything to me.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord is with me to help me.
I will see my enemies defeated.

<sup>8</sup>It is better to trust the Lord than to trust people.

<sup>9</sup>It is better to trust the Lord than to trust princes.

<sup>10</sup>All the nations surrounded me.
But I defeated them in the name of the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>They surrounded me on every side.
But with the Lord's power, I defeated
them.

<sup>12</sup>They surrounded me like a swarm of bees.
But they died as quickly as thorns burn.
By the Lord's power, I defeated them.

<sup>13</sup>They chased me until I was almost defeated.

But the Lord helped me.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord gives me strength and makes me sing.

He has saved me.

<sup>15</sup>Shouts of joy and victory come from the tents of those who do right:

"The Lord has done powerful things."

<sup>16</sup>The power of the Lord has won the victory.

With his power the Lord has done mighty things.

<sup>17</sup>I will not die, but live.

And I will tell what the Lord has done.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord has taught me a hard lesson.
But he did not let me die.

<sup>19</sup>Open for me the Temple's gates.
Then I will come in and thank the Lord.

<sup>20</sup>This is the Lord's gate.

Only those who are good may enter it.

<sup>21</sup>Lord, I thank you for answering me.
You have saved me.

<sup>22</sup>The stone that the builders did not want became the cornerstone.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>23</sup>The Lord did this,
and it is wonderful to us.

<sup>24</sup>This is the day that the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad today!

<sup>25</sup>Please, Lord, save us.

Please, Lord, give us success.

<sup>26</sup>God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

We bless all of you from the Temple of
the Lord.

<sup>27</sup>The Lord is God.

And he has shown kindness to us.

With branches in your hands, join the feast.

Come to the corners of the altar.

<sup>28</sup>You are my God, and I will thank you.

You are my God, and I will praise your greatness.

<sup>29</sup>Thank the Lord because he is good.
His love continues forever.

The Word of God

119 Happy are the people who live pure lives.

They follow the Lord's teachings.

<sup>2</sup>Happy are the people who keep his rules.
They ask him for help with their whole heart.

<sup>3</sup>They don't do what is wrong.
They follow his ways.

<sup>4</sup>Lord, you gave your orders to be followed completely.

<sup>5</sup>I wish I were more loyal in meeting your demands.

<sup>6</sup>Then I would not be ashamed when I think of your commands.

<sup>7</sup>When I learned that your laws are fair,
I praised you with an honest heart.

<sup>8</sup>I will meet your demands.
So please don't ever leave me.

<sup>9</sup>How can a young person live a pure life?
He can do it by obeying your word.

<sup>10</sup>With all my heart I try to obey you, God.

- Don't let me break your commands.
- 11 I have taken your words to heart
so I would not sin against you.
- 12 Lord, you should be praised.
Teach me your demands.
- 13 My lips will tell about all the laws you have spoken.
- 14 I enjoy living by your rules as people enjoy great riches.
- 15 I think about your orders and study your ways.
- 16 I enjoy obeying your demands.
And I will not forget your word.
- 17 Do good to me, your servant, so I can live, so I can obey your word.
- 18 Open my eyes to see the wonderful things in your teachings.
- 19 I am a stranger on earth.
Do not hide your commands from me.
- 20 I want to study
your laws all the time.
- 21 You scold proud people.
Those who ignore your commands are cursed.
- 22 Don't let me be insulted and hated because I obey your rules.
- 23 Even if princes speak against me,
I, your servant, will think about your demands.
- 24 Your rules give me pleasure.
They give me good advice.
- 25 I am about to die.
Give me life, as you have promised.
- 26 I told you about my life, and you answered
me.
Teach me your demands.
- 27 Help me understand your orders.
Then I will think about your miracles.<sup>d</sup>
- 28 I am sad and tired.
Make me strong again as you have promised.
- 29 Don't let me be dishonest.
Be kind to me by helping me obey your teachings.
- 30 I have chosen to obey you.
I have obeyed your laws.
- 31 I hold on to your rules.
Lord, do not let me be disgraced.
- 32 I will obey your commands because you have made me happy.
- 33 Lord, teach me your demands.
Then I will obey them until the end.
- 34 Help me understand, so I can obey your
teachings.
I will obey them with all my heart.
- 35 Help me obey your commands because that makes me happy.
- 36 Help me want to obey your rules instead of selfishly wanting riches.
- 37 Keep me from looking at worthless things.
Let me live by your word.
- 38 Keep your promise to me, your servant,
so you will be feared.
- 39 Take away the shame I fear.
Your laws are good.
- 40 How I want to follow your orders.
Give me life because of your goodness.
- 41 Lord, show me your love.
Save me as you have promised.
- 42 Then I will have an answer for people who insult me.
I trust what you say.
- 43 Never keep me from speaking your truth.
I depend on your fair laws.
- 44 I will obey your teachings
forever and ever.
- 45 So I will live in freedom because I want to follow your orders.
- 46 I will discuss your rules with kings.
And I will not be ashamed.
- 47 I enjoy obeying your commands.
I love them.
- 48 I praise your commands, which I love.
And I think about your demands.
- 49 Remember your promise to me, your servant.
It gives me hope.
- 50 When I suffer, this comforts me:
Your promise gives me life.
- 51 Proud people make fun of me all the time.
But I do not reject your teachings.
- 52 I remember your laws from long ago.
They comfort me, Lord.
- 53 I become angry with wicked people.
They have not kept your teachings.
- 54 I sing about your demands wherever I live.
- 55 Lord, I remember you at night.
I will obey your teachings.
- 56 This is what I do:
I follow your orders.
- 57 Lord, you are my share in life.
I have promised to obey your words.
- 58 I prayed to you with all my heart.
Be kind to me as you have promised.
- 59 I thought about my life, and I decided to obey your rules.
- 60 I hurried and did not wait to obey your commands.
- 61 Wicked people have surrounded me.

But I have not forgotten your teachings.
<sup>62</sup>In the middle of the night, I get up to thank you because your laws are right.
<sup>63</sup>I am a friend to everyone who fears you.
 I am a friend to anyone who follows your orders.
<sup>64</sup>Lord, your love fills the earth.
 Teach me your demands.
<sup>65</sup>You have done good things for me, your servant,
 as you have promised, Lord.
<sup>66</sup>Teach me wisdom and knowledge because I trust your commands.
<sup>67</sup>Before I suffered, I did wrong.
 But now I obey your word.
<sup>68</sup>You are good, and you do what is good.
 Teach me your demands.
<sup>69</sup>Proud people have made up lies about me.
 But I will follow your orders with all my heart.
<sup>70</sup>Those people have no feelings,
 but I love your teachings.
<sup>71</sup>It was good for me to suffer so I would learn your demands.
<sup>72</sup>Your teachings are worth more to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.
<sup>73</sup>You made me and formed me with your hands.
 Give me understanding so I can learn your commands.
<sup>74</sup>Let those who fear you rejoice when they see me
 because I put my hope in your word.
<sup>75</sup>Lord, I know that your laws are right.
 And it was right for you to punish me.
<sup>76</sup>Comfort me with your love, as you promised me, your servant.
<sup>77</sup>Have mercy on me so that I may live.
 I love your teachings.
<sup>78</sup>Make the proud people ashamed because they lied about me.
 But I will think about your orders.
<sup>79</sup>Let those who fear you come to me.
 They know your rules.
<sup>80</sup>Let me obey your demands perfectly.
 Then I will not be ashamed.
<sup>81</sup>I am weak from waiting for you to save
 me.
 But I trust your word.
<sup>82</sup>My eyes are tired from looking for your promise.
 When will you comfort me?

<sup>83</sup>Even though I am like a leather wine bag going up in smoke,
 I do not forget your demands.
<sup>84</sup>How long will I live?
 When will you judge those who are hurting me?
<sup>85</sup>Proud people have dug pits to trap me.
 They have nothing to do with your
 teachings.
<sup>86</sup>All of your commands can be trusted.
 Liars are hurting me. Help me!
<sup>87</sup>They have almost put me in the grave.
 But I have not rejected your orders.
<sup>88</sup>Give me life by your love
 so I can obey your rules.
<sup>89</sup>Lord, your word is everlasting.
 It continues forever in heaven.
<sup>90</sup>Your loyalty will continue from now on.
 You made the earth, and it still stands.
<sup>91</sup>All things continue to this day because of your laws.
 All things serve you.
<sup>92</sup>If I had not loved your teachings,
 I would have died from my sufferings.
<sup>93</sup>I will never forget your orders because you have given me life by them.
<sup>94</sup>I am yours. Save me.
 I have wanted to know your orders.
<sup>95</sup>Wicked people are waiting to destroy me.
 But I will think about your rules.
<sup>96</sup>Everything I see has its limits.
 But your commands have none.
<sup>97</sup>How I love your teachings!
 I think about them all day long.
<sup>98</sup>Your commands make me wiser than my enemies
 because they are mine forever.
<sup>99</sup>I am wiser than all my teachers because I think about your rules.
<sup>100</sup>I have more understanding than the older leaders
 because I follow your orders.
<sup>101</sup>I have avoided every evil way so I could obey your word.
<sup>102</sup>I haven't stopped obeying your laws because you yourself are my teacher.
<sup>103</sup>Your promises are so sweet to me.
 They are like honey to my mouth!
<sup>104</sup>Your orders give me understanding.
 So I hate lying ways.
<sup>105</sup>Your word is like a lamp for my feet and a light for my way.
<sup>106</sup>I will do what I have promised and obey your fair laws.
<sup>107</sup>I have suffered for a long time.

- Lord, give me life by your word.
<sup>108</sup>Lord, accept my willing praise.
 And teach me your laws.
<sup>109</sup>My life is always in danger.
 But I haven't forgotten your teachings.
<sup>110</sup>Wicked people have set a trap for me.
 But I haven't disobeyed your orders.
<sup>111</sup>I will follow your rules forever.
 They make me happy.
<sup>112</sup>I will try to do what you demand forever, until the end.
<sup>113</sup>I hate people who are not completely loyal to you.
 But I love your teachings.
<sup>114</sup>You are my hiding place and my shield.
 I trust your word.
<sup>115</sup>Get away from me, you people who do
 evil,
 so I can keep my God's commands.
<sup>116</sup>Support me as you promised so I can live.
 Don't let me be embarrassed because of my hopes.
<sup>117</sup>Help me, and I will be saved.
 I will always respect your demands.
<sup>118</sup>You reject everyone who ignores your demands.
 Their lies mislead them.
<sup>119</sup>You throw away the wicked of the world like trash.
 So I will love your rules.
<sup>120</sup>I shake in fear of you.
 I fear your laws.
<sup>121</sup>I have done what is fair and right.
 Don't leave me to my enemies.
<sup>122</sup>Promise that you will help me, your servant.
 Don't let proud people hurt me.
<sup>123</sup>My eyes are tired from looking for your salvation and for your good promise.
<sup>124</sup>Show your love to me, your servant.
 Teach me your demands.
<sup>125</sup>I am your servant. Give me wisdom so I can understand your rules.
<sup>126</sup>Lord, it is time for you to do something.
 People have disobeyed your teachings.
<sup>127</sup>I love your commands more than the purest gold.
<sup>128</sup>I respect all your orders.
 So I hate lying ways.
<sup>129</sup>Your rules are wonderful.
 That is why I obey them.
<sup>130</sup>Learning your words gives wisdom and understanding for the foolish.
<sup>131</sup>I want to learn your commands.
- I am like a person breathing hard and waiting impatiently.
<sup>132</sup>Look at me and have mercy on me as you do for those who love you.
<sup>133</sup>Guide my steps as you promised.
 Don't let any sin control me.
<sup>134</sup>Save me from harmful people.
 Then I will obey your orders.
<sup>135</sup>Show your kindness to me, your servant.
 Teach me your demands.
<sup>136</sup>Tears stream from my eyes because people do not obey your
 teachings.
<sup>137</sup>Lord, you do what is right.
 And your laws are fair.
<sup>138</sup>The rules you commanded are right and completely trustworthy.
<sup>139</sup>I am so upset I am worn out.
 This is because my enemies have forgotten your words.
<sup>140</sup>Your promises are proven.
 I, your servant, love them.
<sup>141</sup>I am unimportant and hated.
 But I have not forgotten your orders.
<sup>142</sup>Your goodness continues forever.
 And your teachings are true.
<sup>143</sup>I have had troubles and misery.
 But I love your commands.
<sup>144</sup>Your rules are good forever.
 Help me understand so I can live.
<sup>145</sup>Lord, I call to you with all my heart.
 Answer me,
 and I will keep your demands.
<sup>146</sup>I call to you. Save me
 so I can obey your rules.
<sup>147</sup>I wake up early in the morning and cry out.
 I trust your word.
<sup>148</sup>I stay awake all night so I can think about your promises.
<sup>149</sup>Listen to me because of your love.
 Lord, give me life by your laws.
<sup>150</sup>Those who love evil are near.
 They are far from your teachings.
<sup>151</sup>But, Lord, you are also near.
 And all your commands are true.
<sup>152</sup>Long ago I learned from your rules that you made them to continue forever.
<sup>153</sup>See my suffering and save me because I have not forgotten your teachings.
<sup>154</sup>Argue my case and save me.
 Let me live by your promises.
<sup>155</sup>Wicked people are far from being saved because they do not want to obey your demands.

<sup>156</sup>Lord, you are very kind.

Give me life by your laws.

<sup>157</sup>Many enemies are after me.

But I have not rejected your rules.

<sup>158</sup>I see those traitors, and I hate them because they do not obey what you say.

<sup>159</sup>See how I love your orders.

Lord, give me life by your love.

<sup>160</sup>Your words are true from the start.

And all your laws will be fair forever.

<sup>161</sup>Leaders attack me for no reason.

But I fear your law in my heart.

<sup>162</sup>I am as happy over your promises as if I had found a great treasure.

<sup>163</sup>I hate and despise lies.

But I love your teachings.

<sup>164</sup>Seven times a day I praise you for your fair laws.

<sup>165</sup>Those who love your teachings will find true peace.

Nothing will defeat them.

<sup>166</sup>I am waiting for you to save me, Lord.

I will obey your commands.

<sup>167</sup>I keep your rules.

I love them very much.

<sup>168</sup>I keep your orders and rules.

You know everything I do.

<sup>169</sup>Hear my cry to you, Lord.

Let your word help me understand.

<sup>170</sup>Listen to my prayer.

Save me as you promised.

<sup>171</sup>Let me speak your praise.

You have taught me your demands.

<sup>172</sup>Let me sing about your promises.

All your commands are fair.

<sup>173</sup>Always be ready to help me because I have chosen to obey your commands.

<sup>174</sup>I want you to save me, Lord.

I love your teachings.

<sup>175</sup>Let me live so I can praise you.

Your laws will help me.

<sup>176</sup>I have wandered like a lost sheep.

Look for your servant because I have not forgotten your commands.

A Prayer of Someone Far from Home

A song for going up to worship.

120 When I was in trouble, I called to the Lord.

And he answered me.

<sup>2</sup>Lord, save me from liars and from those who plan evil.

<sup>3</sup>You who plan evil, what will God do to you?

How will he punish you?

<sup>4</sup>He will punish you with the sharp arrows of a warrior and with burning coals of wood.

<sup>5</sup>How terrible it is to live in the land of Meshech.

I have to live among the people of Kedar.

<sup>6</sup>I have lived too long with people who hate peace.

<sup>7</sup>I want peace and try to talk peace, but they want war.

The Lord Guards His People

A song for going up to worship.

121 I look up to the hills.
But where does my help come from?

<sup>2</sup>My help comes from the Lord.

He made heaven and earth.

<sup>3</sup>He will not let you be defeated.

He who guards you never sleeps.

<sup>4</sup>He who guards Israel never rests or sleeps.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord guards you.

The Lord protects you as the shade protects you from the sun.

<sup>6</sup>The sun cannot hurt you during the day.

And the moon cannot hurt you at night.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord will guard you from all dangers.

He will guard your life.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord will guard you as you come and go,

both now and forever.

Happy People in Jerusalem

A song for going up to worship. Of David.

122 I was happy when they said to me,

"Let's go to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord."

<sup>2</sup>Jerusalem, we are standing at your gates.

<sup>3</sup>Jerusalem is built as a city where friends can come together.

<sup>4</sup>The people from the tribes<sup>d</sup> go up there.

The tribes belong to the Lord.

It is the rule to praise

the Lord at Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>There the descendants<sup>d</sup> of David set their thrones to judge the people.

<sup>6</sup>Pray for peace in Jerusalem:

"May those who love her be safe.

<sup>7</sup>May there be peace within her walls and safety within her strong towers."

<sup>8</sup>To help my relatives and friends,
 I repeat, "Let Jerusalem have peace."
<sup>9</sup>For the sake of the Temple of the Lord our God,
 I wish good for her.

A Prayer for Mercy

A song for going up to worship.

123 Lord, I look up to you.
 You live in heaven.
<sup>2</sup>Slaves depend on their masters.
 And a female servant depends on her mistress.
 In the same way, we depend on our God.
 We wait for him to show us mercy.

<sup>3</sup>Be kind to us, Lord. Be kind to us because we have been insulted.
<sup>4</sup>We have suffered many insults from lazy
 people
 and much cruelty from the proud.

The Lord Saves His People

A song for going up to worship. Of David.

124 What if the Lord had not been on our side?
 (Let Israel repeat this.)
<sup>2</sup>What if the Lord had not been on our side when men attacked us?
<sup>3</sup>When they were angry with us,
 they would have swallowed us alive.
<sup>4</sup>They would have been like a flood drowning us.
 They would have poured over us like a river.
<sup>5</sup> They would have swept us away like a mighty stream.

<sup>6</sup>Praise the Lord.
 He did not let them chew us up.
<sup>7</sup>We have escaped like a bird from the hunter's trap.
 The trap has been broken,
 and we have escaped.
<sup>8</sup>Our help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

God Protects Those Who Trust Him

A song for going up to worship.

125 Those who trust the Lord are like Mount Zion.<sup>a</sup>
 It sits unmoved forever.
<sup>2</sup>The mountains surround Jerusalem.
 And the Lord surrounds his people
 now and forever.
<sup>3</sup>The wicked will not rule over those who do right.

 If they did, the people who do right might use their power to do evil.
<sup>4</sup>Lord, be good to those who are good, whose hearts are honest.
<sup>5</sup>But, Lord, when you punish those who do
 evil,
 also punish those who stop following
 you.
 Let there be peace in Israel.

Lord, Give Our Riches Back

A song for going up to worship.

126 When the Lord gave the riches back to Jerusalem,
 it seemed as if we were dreaming.
<sup>2</sup>Then we were filled with laughter, and we sang happy songs.
 Then the other nations said,
 "The Lord has done great things for
 them."
<sup>3</sup>The Lord has done great things for us, and we are very glad.
<sup>4</sup>Lord, give us back our riches again.
 Do this as you bring streams to the desert.
<sup>5</sup>Those who cry as they plant crops will sing at harvesttime.
<sup>6</sup>Those who cry as they carry out the seeds will return singing and carrying bundles of grain.

All Good Things Come from God

A song for going up to worship. Of Solomon.

127 If the Lord doesn't build the
 house,
 the builders are working for nothing.
 If the Lord doesn't guard the city,
 the guards are watching for nothing.
<sup>2</sup>It is no use for you to get up early and stay up late,
 working for a living.
 The Lord gives sleep to those he loves.
<sup>3</sup>Children are a gift from the Lord.
 Babies are a reward.
<sup>4</sup>Sons who are born to a young man are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.
<sup>5</sup>Happy is the man who has his bag full of arrows.
 They will not be defeated
 when they fight their enemies in court.

The Happy Home

A song for going up to worship.

128 Happy are those who respect the Lord and obey him.

<sup>2</sup>You will enjoy what you work for.

You will be blessed with good things.

<sup>3</sup>Your wife will give you many children.

She will be like a vine that produces a lot of fruit.

Your children will bring you much good.

They will be like olive branches that produce many olives.

<sup>4</sup>This is how the man who respects the Lord will be blessed.

May you enjoy the good things of Jerusalem all your life.

<sup>6</sup>May you see your grandchildren.

Let there be peace in Israel.

A Prayer Against the Enemies

A song for going up to worship.

129 They have treated me badly all my life.

(Let Israel repeat this.)

<sup>2</sup>They have treated me badly all my life.

But they have not defeated me.

<sup>3</sup>Like farmers plowing, they plowed over my back, making long wounds.

<sup>4</sup>But the Lord does what is right.

He has set me free from those wicked people.

<sup>5</sup>Let those who hate Jerusalem be turned back in shame.

<sup>6</sup>Let them be like the grass on the roof.
It dries up before it has grown.

<sup>7</sup>There is not enough of it to fill a man's hand or to make into a bundle to fill his arms.

<sup>8</sup>Let those who pass by them not say,
"May the Lord bless you.
We bless you by the power of the Lord."

A Prayer for Mercy

A song for going up to worship.

130 Lord, I am in great trouble.
So I call out to you for help.

<sup>2</sup>Lord, hear my voice.

Listen to my prayer for help.

<sup>3</sup>Lord, if you punished people for all their sins, no one would be left.

<sup>4</sup>But you forgive us.

So you are respected.

<sup>5</sup>I wait for the Lord to help me.
I trust his word.

<sup>6</sup>I wait for the Lord to help me more than night watchmen wait for the dawn,
more than night watchmen wait for the dawn.

<sup>7</sup>People of Israel, put your hope in the Lord because he is loving and able to save.

<sup>8</sup>He will save Israel from all their sins.

Childlike Trust in God

A song for going up to worship. Of David.

131 Lord, my heart is not proud.
I don't look down on others.

I don't do great things, and I can't do miracles.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>2</sup>But I am calm and quiet.

I am like a baby with its mother.

I am at peace, like a baby with its mother.

<sup>3</sup>People of Israel, put your hope in the Lord
now and forever.

In Praise of the Temple

A song for going up to worship.

132 Lord, remember David and all his suffering.

<sup>2</sup>He made a promise to the Lord.
He made a promise to the Mighty God of Jacob.

<sup>3</sup>He said, "I will not go home to my house.
I will not lie down on my bed.

<sup>4</sup>I will not close my eyes or let myself sleep

<sup>5</sup>until I find a place for the Lord.
I want to provide a home for the Mighty God of Jacob."

<sup>6</sup>We heard about the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement in Bethlehem.

We found it at Kiriath Jearim.

<sup>7</sup>Let's go to the Lord's house.
Let's worship at his footstool.

<sup>8</sup>Rise, Lord, and come to your resting place.
Come with the Ark that shows your strength.

<sup>9</sup>May your priests do what is right.
May your people sing for joy.

<sup>10</sup>For the sake of your servant David,
do not reject your appointed king.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord made a promise to David.

- It was a sure promise that he will not take back.
 He promised, "I will make one of your descendants<sup>d</sup> rule as king after you.
<sup>12</sup>But your sons must keep my agreement and the rules that I teach them. Then their sons after them will rule on your throne forever and ever."
<sup>13</sup>The Lord has chosen Jerusalem. He wants it for his home.
<sup>14</sup>He says, "This is my resting place forever. Here is where I want to stay.
<sup>15</sup>I will bless her with plenty of food. I will fill her poor with food.
<sup>16</sup>I will let her priests receive salvation. And those who worship me will really sing for joy.
<sup>17</sup>"I will make a king come from the family of David. I will provide my appointed one descendants<sup>d</sup> to rule after him.
<sup>18</sup>I will cover his enemies with shame. But his crown will shine."

The Love of God's People

A song for going up to worship. Of David.

- 133 It is good and pleasant when God's people live together in peace!
<sup>2</sup>It is like having perfumed oil poured on the priest's head and running down his beard. It ran down Aaron's beard and on to the collar of his robes.
<sup>3</sup>It is like the dew of Mount Hermon falling on the hills of Jerusalem. There the Lord gives his blessing of life forever.

Temple Guards, Praise the Lord

A song for going up to worship.

- 134 Praise the Lord, all you servants of the Lord. You serve at night in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord.
<sup>3</sup>May the Lord bless you from Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup> He made heaven and earth.

God Saves, Idols Do Not

- 135 Praise the Lord!
 Praise the name of the Lord.

- Praise him, you servants of the Lord.
<sup>3</sup>Praise the Lord, because he is good. Sing praises to him, because it is pleasant.
<sup>4</sup>The Lord has chosen the people of Jacob for himself. He has chosen the people of Israel for his very own.
<sup>5</sup>I know that the Lord is great. Our Lord is greater than all the gods.
<sup>6</sup>The Lord does what he wants, in heaven and on earth, in the seas and the deep oceans.
<sup>7</sup>He brings the clouds from the ends of the earth. He sends the lightning with the rain. He brings out the wind from his storehouses.
<sup>8</sup>He destroyed the firstborn<sup>d</sup> sons in Egypt, the firstborn of both men and animals.
<sup>9</sup>He did many signs and miracles<sup>d</sup> in Egypt. He did amazing things to the king and his servants.
<sup>12</sup>Then he gave their land as a gift. It was a gift to his people, the Israelites.
<sup>13</sup>Lord, your name is everlasting. Lord, you will be remembered from now on.
<sup>14</sup>You defend your people. You have mercy on your servants.
<sup>15</sup>The idols of other nations are made of silver and gold. They are made by human hands.
<sup>16</sup>They have mouths, but they cannot speak. They have eyes, but they cannot see.
<sup>17</sup>They have ears, but they cannot hear. They have no breath in their mouths.
<sup>18</sup>The people who make idols and trust them are all like them.
<sup>20</sup>Family of Levi, praise the Lord. You people who fear the Lord should praise him.
<sup>21</sup>You people of Jerusalem, praise the Lord on Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>

Praise the Lord!

God's Love Continues Forever

136 Give thanks to the Lord because he is good.

His love continues forever.

<sup>2</sup>Give thanks to the God over all gods.

His love continues forever.

<sup>3</sup>Give thanks to the Lord of all lords.

His love continues forever.

<sup>4</sup>Only he can do great miracles.<sup>d</sup>

His love continues forever.

<sup>5</sup>With his wisdom he made the skies.

His love continues forever.

<sup>6</sup>He spread out the earth on the seas.

His love continues forever.

<sup>7</sup>He made the sun and the moon.

His love continues forever.

<sup>8</sup>He made the sun to rule the day.

His love continues forever.

<sup>9</sup>He made the moon and stars to rule the night.

His love continues forever.

<sup>10</sup>He killed the firstborn<sup>d</sup> sons of the Egyptians.

His love continues forever.

<sup>11</sup>He brought the people of Israel out of Egypt.

His love continues forever.

<sup>12</sup>He did it with his great power and strength.

His love continues forever.

<sup>13</sup>He parted the water of the Red Sea.<sup>d</sup>

His love continues forever.

<sup>14</sup>He brought the Israelites through the middle of it.

His love continues forever.

<sup>15</sup>But the king of Egypt and his army drowned in the Red Sea.

His love continues forever.

<sup>16</sup>He led his people through the desert.

His love continues forever.

<sup>17</sup>He defeated great kings.

His love continues forever.

<sup>18</sup>He killed powerful kings.

His love continues forever.

<sup>19</sup>He defeated Sihon king of the Amorites.

His love continues forever.

<sup>20</sup>He defeated Og king of Bashan.

His love continues forever.

<sup>21</sup>He gave their land as a gift.

His love continues forever.

<sup>22</sup>It was a gift to his servants, the Israelites.

His love continues forever.

<sup>23</sup>He remembered us when we were in trouble.

His love continues forever.

<sup>24</sup>He freed us from our enemies.

His love continues forever.

<sup>25</sup>He gives food to every living creature.

His love continues forever.

<sup>26</sup>Give thanks to the God of heaven.

His love continues forever.

Israelites in Captivity

137 By the rivers in Babylon we sat and cried when we remembered Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>On the poplar trees nearby we hung our harps.

<sup>3</sup>Those who captured us asked us to sing.

Our enemies wanted happy songs.

They said, "Sing us a Temple<sup>d</sup> song from Jerusalem!"

<sup>4</sup>But we cannot sing songs about the Lord while we are in this foreign country!

<sup>5</sup>Jerusalem, if I forget you, let my right hand lose its skill.

<sup>6</sup>Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you.

Let these things happen if I do not think about Jerusalem as my greatest joy.

They said, "Tear it down! Tear it down to its foundations!"

<sup>8</sup>People of Babylon, you will be destroyed. The people who pay you back will be happy.

They will punish you for what you did to us.

<sup>9</sup>They will grab your babies and throw them against the rocks.

A Hymn of Thanksgiving

A song of David.

138 Lord, I will thank you with all my heart.

I will sing to you before the false gods.

<sup>2</sup>I will bow down facing your holy Temple.<sup>d</sup>

And I will thank you for your love and loyalty.

You have made your name and your word greater than anything.

<sup>3</sup>On the day I called to you, you answered me.

You made me strong and brave.

<sup>4</sup>Lord, let all the kings of the earth praise you.

They have heard the words you speak.

<sup>5</sup>They will sing about what the Lord has done because the Lord's glory is great.

<sup>6</sup>Though the Lord is supreme he takes care of those who are not proud.

But he stays away from those who are proud.

<sup>7</sup>Lord, even when I have trouble all around me, you will keep me alive.

When my enemies are angry, you will reach down and save me by your power.

<sup>8</sup>Lord, you do everything for me. Lord, your love continues forever. You made us. Do not leave us.

God Knows Everything

For the director of music. A song of David.

139 Lord, you have examined me. You know all about me.

<sup>2</sup>You know when I sit down and when I get up.

You know my thoughts before I think them.

<sup>3</sup>You know where I go and where I lie down.

You know well everything I do.

<sup>4</sup>Lord, even before I say a word, you already know what I am going to say.

<sup>5</sup>You are all around me—in front and in back.

You have put your hand on me.

<sup>6</sup>Your knowledge is amazing to me. It is more than I can understand.

<sup>7</sup>Where can I go to get away from your Spirit?<sup>d</sup>

Where can I run from you?

<sup>8</sup>If I go up to the skies, you are there.

If I lie down where the dead are, you are there.

<sup>9</sup>If I rise with the sun in the east, and settle in the west beyond the sea, <sup>10</sup>even there you would guide me. With your right hand you would hold me.

<sup>11</sup>I could say, "The darkness will hide me.

The light around me will turn into night."

<sup>12</sup>But even the darkness is not dark to you. The night is as light as the day. Darkness and light are the same to you.

<sup>13</sup>You made my whole being. You formed me in my mother's body.

<sup>14</sup>I praise you because you made me in an amazing and wonderful way.

What you have done is wonderful. I know this very well.

<sup>15</sup>You saw my bones being formed as I took shape in my mother's body.

<sup>16</sup>When I was put together there, you saw my body as it was formed.

All the days planned for me were written in your book before I was one day old.

<sup>17</sup>God, your thoughts are precious to me. They are so many!

<sup>18</sup>If I could count them, they would be more than all the grains of sand.

When I wake up, I am still with you.

<sup>20</sup>These men say evil things about you. Your enemies use your name thoughtlessly.

<sup>22</sup>I feel only hate for them. They are my enemies.

<sup>23</sup>God, examine me and know my heart. Test me and know my thoughts.

<sup>24</sup>See if there is any bad thing in me. Lead me in the way you set long ago.

A Prayer for Protection

For the director of music. A song of David.

140 Lord, rescue me from evil people. Save me from cruel men.

<sup>2</sup>They make evil plans. They always start fights.

Their words are like snake poison. Setlah<sup>d</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Lord, guard me from the power of wicked people.

Save me from cruel men who plan to trip me up.

<sup>5</sup>Proud men have hidden a trap for me.

They have spread out a net beside the road.

They have set traps for me.

Selah

<sup>6</sup>I said to the Lord, "You are my God."
Lord, listen to my prayer for help.

<sup>7</sup>Lord God, my mighty savior, you protect me in battle.

<sup>8</sup>Lord, do not give the wicked what they want.

Don't let their plans succeed, or they will become proud.

Selah

<sup>9</sup>Those around me have planned trouble.
Now let it come to them.

<sup>10</sup>Let burning coals fall on them.
Throw them into the fire or into pits from which they cannot escape.

<sup>11</sup>Don't let liars settle in the land.
Let evil quickly hunt down cruel men.

<sup>12</sup>I know the Lord will get justice for the poor.

He will defend the needy in court.

<sup>13</sup>Good people will praise his name.
Honest people will live in his presence.

A Prayer Not to Sin

A song of David.

141 Lord, I call to you. Come quickly.
Listen to me when I call to you.

<sup>2</sup>Let my prayer be like incense<sup>d</sup> placed before you.

Let my praise be like the evening sacrifice.

<sup>3</sup>Lord, help me control my tongue.
Help me be careful about what I say.

<sup>4</sup>Don't let me want to do evil or join others in doing wrong.

Don't let me eat
with those who do evil.

<sup>5</sup>If a good man punished me, that would be kind.

If he corrected me,
that would be like having perfumed oil on my head.

I shouldn't refuse it.

But I pray against those who do evil.

<sup>6</sup>Let their leaders be thrown down the cliffs.

Then people will know that I have spoken the truth:

<sup>7</sup>"The ground is plowed and broken up.
In the same way, our bones have been scattered at the grave."

<sup>8</sup>Lord God, I look to you for help.
I trust in you. Don't let me die.

<sup>9</sup>Protect me from the traps they set for me and from the net evil people have spread.

<sup>10</sup>Let the wicked fall into their own pits.
And let me pass by safely.

A Prayer for Safety

A maskil<sup>d</sup> of David when he was in the cave.
A prayer.

142 I cry out to the Lord.
I pray to the Lord for mercy.

<sup>2</sup>I pour out my problems to him.
I tell him my troubles.

<sup>3</sup>When I am afraid, you, Lord, know the way out.
In the path where I walk,
a trap is hidden for me.

<sup>4</sup>Look around me and see.
No one cares about me.
I have no place of safety.
No one cares if I live.

<sup>5</sup>Lord, I cry out to you.
I say, "You are my protection.
You are all I want in this life."

<sup>6</sup>Listen to my cry because I am helpless.
Save me from those who are chasing me.
They are too strong for me.

<sup>7</sup>Free me from my prison.
Then I will praise your name.
Then the good people will surround me because you have taken care of me.

A Prayer Not to Be Killed

A song of David.

143 Lord, hear my prayer.
Listen to my cry for mercy.

Come to help me
because you are loyal and good.

<sup>2</sup>Don't judge me, your servant, because no one alive is right before you.

<sup>3</sup>My enemies are chasing me.
They have crushed me to the ground.
They have made me live in darkness like those who are long dead.

<sup>4</sup>I am afraid.
My courage is gone.

<sup>5</sup>I remember what happened long ago.
I recall everything you have done.
I think about all you have made.

<sup>6</sup>I lift my hands to you in prayer.
As a dry land needs rain, I thirst for you.

<sup>7</sup>Lord, answer me quickly.

I am getting weak.
 Don't turn away from me,
 or I will be like those who are dead.
 8 Tell me in the morning about your love.
 I trust you.
 Show me what I should do because my prayers go up to you.
 9 Lord, save me from my enemies.
 I come to you for safety.
 10 Teach me to do what you want,
 because you are my God.
 Let your good Spirit<sup>d</sup> lead me on level ground.
 11 Lord, let me live
 so people will praise you.
 In your goodness
 save me from my troubles.
 12 In your love defeat my enemies.
 Destroy all those who trouble me because I am your servant.

A Prayer for Victory

Of David.

144 Praise the Lord, my Rock.<sup>d</sup>
 He trains me for war.
 He trains me for battle.
 2 He gives me love and protects me like a strong, walled city.
 He is my place of safety and my Savior.
 He is my shield and my protection.
 He helps me rule my people.
 3 Lord, why is man important to you?
 Why do you even think about a human being?
 4 A man is like a breath.
 His life is like a passing shadow.
 5 Lord, tear open the sky and come down.
 Touch the mountains so they will smoke.
 6 Send the lightning and scatter my enemies.
 Shoot your arrows and force them away.
 7 Reach down from above.
 Pull me out of this sea of enemies.
 Rescue me from these foreigners.
 8 They are liars.
 They are dishonest.
 9 God, I will sing a new song to you.
 I will play to you on the ten-stringed harp.
 10 You give victory to kings.
 You save your servant David from cruel
 swords.
 11 Save me, rescue me from these foreigners.
 They are liars.
 They are dishonest.

12 Let our sons in their youth grow like strong trees.
 Let our daughters be like the decorated stones in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> 13 Let our barns be filled with crops of all kinds.
 Let our sheep in the fields have thousands and thousands of lambs.
 14 Let our cattle be strong.
 Let no one break in.
 Let there be no war.
 Let there be no screams in our streets.
 15 Happy are those who are like this.
 Happy are the people whose God is the Lord.

Praise to God the King

A song of praise. Of David.

145 I praise your greatness, my God
 the King.
 I will praise you forever and ever.
 2 I will praise you every day.
 I will praise you forever and ever.
 3 The Lord is great. He is worthy of our praise.
 No one can understand how great he is.
 4 Parents will tell their children what you
 have done.
 They will retell your mighty acts,
 5 wonderful majesty and glory.
 And I will think about your miracles.<sup>d</sup>
 6 They will tell about the amazing things you
 do.
 I will tell how great you are.
 7 They will remember your great goodness.
 They will sing about your fairness.
 8 The Lord is kind and shows mercy.
 He does not become angry quickly but is full of love.
 9 The Lord is good to everyone.
 He is merciful to all he has made.
 10 Lord, everything you have made will praise
 you.
 Those who belong to you will bless you.
 11 They will tell about the glory of your kingdom.
 They will speak about your power.
 12 Then everyone will know what powerful things you do.
 They will know about the glory and majesty of your kingdom.
 13 Your kingdom will continue forever.
 And you will be King from now on.
 The Lord will keep his promises.

- With love he takes care of all he has made.
- <sup>14</sup>The Lord helps those who have been defeated.
He takes care of those who are in trouble.
- <sup>15</sup>All living things look to you for food.
And you give it to them at the right time.
- <sup>16</sup>You open your hand, and you satisfy all living things.
- <sup>17</sup>Everything the Lord does is right.
With love he takes care of all he has made.
- <sup>18</sup>The Lord is close to everyone who prays to him,
to all who truly pray to him.
- <sup>19</sup>He gives those who fear him what they want.
He listens when they cry, and he saves them.
- <sup>20</sup>The Lord protects everyone who loves him.
But he will destroy the wicked.
- <sup>21</sup>I will praise the Lord.
Let everyone praise his holy name forever.

Praise God Who Helps the Weak

- 146 Praise the Lord!
My whole being, praise the Lord.
- <sup>2</sup>I will praise the Lord all my life.
I will sing praises to my God as long as I live.
- <sup>3</sup>Do not put your trust in princes or other people, who cannot save you.
- <sup>4</sup>When people die, they are buried.
Then all of their plans come to an end.
- <sup>5</sup>Happy are those who are helped by the God of Jacob.
Their hope is in the Lord their God.
- <sup>6</sup>He made heaven and earth,
the sea and everything in it.
He remains loyal forever.
- <sup>7</sup>The Lord does what is fair for those who have been wronged.
He gives food to the hungry.
The Lord sets the prisoners free.
- <sup>8</sup>The Lord gives sight to the blind.
The Lord lifts up people who are in trouble.
The Lord loves those who do right.
- <sup>9</sup>The Lord protects the foreigners.
He defends the orphans and widows.
But he overthrows the wicked.
- <sup>10</sup>The Lord will be King forever.

Jerusalem, your God is everlasting.

Praise the Lord!

Praise God Who Helps His People

- 147 Praise the Lord!
It is good to sing praises to our God.
- It is good and pleasant to praise him.
- <sup>2</sup>The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem.
He brings back the scattered Israelites who were taken captive.
- <sup>3</sup>He heals the brokenhearted.
He bandages their wounds.
- <sup>4</sup>He counts the stars and names each one.
- <sup>5</sup>Our Lord is great and very powerful.
There is no limit to what he knows.
- <sup>6</sup>The Lord defends those who are not proud.
But he throws the wicked to the ground.
- <sup>7</sup>Sing praises to the Lord.
Praise our God with harps.
- <sup>8</sup>He fills the sky with clouds.
He sends rain to the earth.
He makes grass grow on the hills.
- <sup>9</sup>He gives food to cattle and to the little birds that call.
- <sup>10</sup>He is not pleased by the strength of a horse or the power of a man.
- <sup>11</sup>The Lord is pleased with those who fear him, with those who trust his love.
- <sup>12</sup>Jerusalem, praise the Lord.
Jerusalem, praise your God.
- <sup>13</sup>He makes your city gates strong.
He blesses the people inside.
- <sup>14</sup>He brings peace to your country.
He fills you with the finest grain.
- <sup>15</sup>He gives a command to the earth, and it quickly obeys him.
- <sup>16</sup>He spreads the snow like wool.
He scatters the frost like ashes.
- <sup>17</sup>He throws down hail like rocks.
No one can stand the cold he sends.
- <sup>18</sup>Then he gives a command, and it melts.
He sends the breezes, and the waters flow.
- <sup>19</sup>He gave his word to Jacob.
He gave his laws and demands to Israel.
- <sup>20</sup>He didn't do this for any other nation.
They don't know his laws.
- Praise the Lord!

PROVERBS

Wise Teachings for God's People

Why Proverbs Is Important

1 These are the wise words of Solomon son of David. Solomon was king of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>They teach wisdom and self-control.
They give understanding.

<sup>3</sup>They will teach you how to be wise and self-controlled.
They will teach you what is honest and fair and right.

<sup>4</sup>They give the ability to think to those with little knowledge.
They give knowledge and good sense to the young.

<sup>5</sup>Wise people should also listen to them and learn even more.
Even smart people will find wise advice in these words.

<sup>6</sup>Then they will be able to understand wise words and stories.
They will understand the words of wise men and their riddles.

<sup>7</sup>Knowledge begins with respect for the Lord.
But foolish people hate wisdom and self-control.

Warnings Against Evil

<sup>8</sup>My child, listen to your father's teaching.
And do not forget your mother's advice.

<sup>9</sup>Their teaching will beautify your life.
It will be like flowers in your hair or a chain around your neck.

<sup>10</sup>My child, sinners will try to lead you into sin.
But do not follow them.

<sup>11</sup>They might say, "Come with us.
Let's ambush and kill someone.
Let's attack some harmless person just for fun.

<sup>12</sup>Let's swallow them alive, as death does.
Let's swallow them whole, as the grave does.

<sup>13</sup>We will take all kinds of valuable things.
We will fill our houses with what we steal.

<sup>14</sup>Come join us, and we will share with you what we steal."

<sup>15</sup>My child, do not go along with them.
Do not do what they do.

<sup>16</sup>They run to do evil.
They are quick to kill.

<sup>17</sup>It is useless to spread out a net right where the birds can see it!

<sup>18</sup>These men are setting their own trap.
They will only catch themselves!

<sup>19</sup>All greedy people end up this way.
Greed takes away the life of the greedy person.

Wisdom Speaks

<sup>20</sup>Wisdom is like a good woman who shouts in the street.

She raises her voice in the city squares.

<sup>21</sup>She cries out in the noisy street.

She makes her speech at the city gates:

<sup>22</sup>"You foolish people! How long do you want to stay foolish?

How long will you make fun of wisdom?

How long will you hate knowledge?

<sup>23</sup>Listen when I correct you.

I will tell you what's in my heart.

I will tell you what I am thinking.

<sup>24</sup>I called, but you refused to listen.

I held out my hand, but you paid no attention.

<sup>25</sup>You did not follow my advice.

You did not want me to correct you.

<sup>26</sup>So I will laugh when you are in trouble.

I will make fun when disaster happens to
you.

<sup>27</sup>Disaster will come over you like a storm.

Trouble will strike you like a whirlwind.

Pain and trouble will overwhelm you.

<sup>28</sup>"Then you will call out to me.

But I will not answer.

You will look for me.

But you will not find me.

<sup>29</sup>You rejected knowledge.

You did not choose to respect the Lord.

<sup>30</sup>You did not accept my advice.

You rejected my correction.

<sup>31</sup>So you will get what you deserve.

You will get what you planned for others.

<sup>32</sup>Fools wander away and get killed.

They are destroyed because they do not care.

<sup>33</sup>But those who listen to me will live in safety.

They will be safe, without fear of being hurt."

Rewards of Wisdom

2 My child, believe what I say.
And remember what I command you.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to wisdom.

Try with all your heart to gain understanding.

<sup>3</sup>Cry out for wisdom.

Beg for understanding.

<sup>4</sup>Search for it as you would for silver.

Hunt for it like hidden treasure.

<sup>5</sup>Then you will understand what it means to respect the Lord.

Then you will begin to know God.

<sup>6</sup>Only the Lord gives wisdom.

Knowledge and understanding come from him.

<sup>7</sup>He stores up wisdom for those who are honest.

Like a shield he protects those who are innocent.

<sup>8</sup>He guards those who are fair to others.

He protects those who are loyal to him.

<sup>9</sup>Then you will understand what is honest and fair and right.

You will understand what is good to do.

<sup>10</sup>You will have wisdom in your heart.

And knowledge will be pleasing to you.

<sup>11</sup>Good sense will protect you.

Understanding will guard you.

<sup>12</sup>It will keep you from doing evil.

It will save you from people whose words are bad.

<sup>13</sup>Such people do not do what is right.

They do what is evil.

<sup>14</sup>They enjoy doing wrong.

They are happy to do what is crooked and evil.

<sup>15</sup>What they do is wrong.

Their ways are dishonest.

<sup>16</sup>It will save you from the unfaithful wife who tries to lead you into adultery<sup>d</sup> with pleasing words.

<sup>17</sup>Such women leave the husbands they married when they were young.

They forget the promise they made before God.

<sup>18</sup>If you go to her house, you are on your way to death.

What she does leads to death.

<sup>19</sup>No one who goes to her comes back.
He will not continue to live.

<sup>20</sup>But wisdom will help you be a good person.

It will help you do what is right.

<sup>21</sup>Those who are honest will stay in the land.

Those who are innocent will remain in it.

<sup>22</sup>But evil people will be removed from the land.

The unfaithful will be thrown out of it.

Advice to Children

3 My child, do not forget my teaching.

Keep my commands in mind.

<sup>2</sup>Then you will live a long time.

And your life will be successful.

<sup>3</sup>Don't ever stop being kind and truthful.

Let kindness and truth show in all you do.

Write them down in your mind as if on a tablet.

<sup>4</sup>Then you will be respected and pleasing to both God and men.

<sup>5</sup>Trust the Lord with all your heart.

Don't depend on your own understanding.

<sup>6</sup>Remember the Lord in everything you do.

And he will give you success.

<sup>7</sup>Don't depend on your own wisdom.

Respect the Lord and refuse to do wrong.

<sup>8</sup>Then your body will be healthy.

And your bones will be strong.

<sup>9</sup>Honor the Lord by giving him part of your wealth.

Give him the firstfruits<sup>d</sup> from all your crops.

<sup>10</sup>Then your barns will be full.

And your wine barrels will overflow with new wine.

<sup>11</sup>My child, do not reject the Lord's discipline.

And don't become angry when he corrects you.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord corrects those he loves, just as a father corrects the child that he likes.

<sup>13</sup>Happy is the person who finds wisdom.

And happy is the person who gets understanding.

<sup>14</sup>Wisdom is worth more than silver.

It brings more profit than gold.

<sup>15</sup>Wisdom is more precious than rubies.

- Nothing you want is equal to it.
 16With her right hand wisdom offers you a long life.
 With her left hand she gives you riches and honor.
 17Wisdom will make your life pleasant. It will bring you peace.
 18As a tree makes fruit, wisdom gives life to those who use it.
 Everyone who uses wisdom will be happy.
 19Using his wisdom, the Lord made the earth.
 Using his understanding, he set the sky in place.
 20Using his knowledge, he made rivers flow from underground springs.
 And he made the clouds drop rain on the earth.
 21My child, hold on to wisdom and reason. Don't let them out of your sight!
 22They will give you life.
 Like a necklace, they will beautify your life.
 23Then you will go on your way in safety. And you will not get hurt.
 24You won't need to be afraid when you lie down.
 When you lie down, your sleep will be peaceful.
 25You won't need to be afraid of trouble coming suddenly.
 You won't need to fear the ruin that comes to the wicked.
 26The Lord will keep you safe.
 He will keep you from being trapped.
 27Whenever you are able, do good to people who need help.
 28If you have what your neighbor asks for, don't say to him, "Come back later. I will give it to you tomorrow."
 29Don't make plans to hurt your neighbor. He lives nearby and trusts you.
 30Don't accuse a man for no good reason. Don't accuse him if he has not harmed you.
 31Don't be jealous of men who use violence. And don't choose to be like them.
 32The Lord hates those who do wrong. But he is a friend to those who are honest.
 33The Lord will put a curse on the evil person's house.

- But he will bless the home of people who do what is right.
 34The Lord laughs at those who laugh at him.
 But he is kind to those who are not proud.
 35Wise people will receive honor.
 But foolish people will be disgraced.

Wisdom Is Important

- 4 My children, listen to your father's teaching.
 Pay attention so you will understand.
 2What I am telling you is good.
 Do not forget what I teach you.
 3I was once a young boy in my father's house.
 I was like an only child to my mother.
 4And my father taught me and said,
 "Hold on to my words with all your heart.
 Keep my commands and you will live.
 5Get wisdom and understanding.
 Don't forget or ignore my words.
 6Use wisdom, and it will take care of you.
 Love wisdom, and it will keep you safe.
 7Wisdom is the most important thing. So get wisdom.
 If it costs everything you have, get understanding.
 8Believe in the value of wisdom, and it will make you great.
 Use it, and it will bring honor to you.
 9Like flowers in your hair, it will beautify your life.
 Like a crown, it will make you look beautiful."
 10My child, listen and accept what I say.
 Then you will have a long life.
 11I am guiding you in wisdom.
 And I am leading you to do what is right.
 12Nothing will hold you back.
 You will not be overwhelmed.
 13Always remember what you have been taught.
 Don't let go of it.
 Keep safe all that you have learned.
 It is the most important thing in your life.
 14Don't follow the ways of the wicked.
 Don't do what evil people do.
 15Avoid their ways. Don't go near what they do.
 Stay away from them and keep on going.
 16They cannot sleep until they do evil.

- They cannot rest until they hurt someone.
- <sup>17</sup>They fill themselves with wickedness and cruelty as if they were eating bread and drinking wine.
- <sup>18</sup>The way of the good person is like the light of dawn.
It grows brighter and brighter until it is full daylight.
- <sup>19</sup>But the wicked are like those who stumble in the dark.
They can't even see what has hurt them.
- <sup>20</sup>My child, pay attention to my words.
Listen closely to what I say.
- <sup>21</sup>Don't ever forget my words.
Keep them deep within your heart.
- <sup>22</sup>These words are the secret to life for those who find them.
They bring health to the whole body.
- <sup>23</sup>Be very careful about what you think.
Your thoughts run your life.
- <sup>24</sup>Don't use your mouth to tell lies.
Don't ever say things that are not true.
- <sup>25</sup>Keep your eyes focused on what is right.
Keep looking straight ahead to what is good.
- <sup>26</sup>Be careful what you do.
Always do what is right.
- <sup>27</sup>Do not do anything unless it is right.
Stay away from evil.
- Warning About Adultery
- 5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Listen to my words of understanding.
- <sup>2</sup>Be careful to use good sense.
Watch what you say.
- <sup>3</sup>The words of another man's wife may seem sweet as honey.
Her words may be as pleasant as olive oil.
- <sup>4</sup>But in the end she will bring you sorrow.
She will cause you pain like a two-edged sword.
- <sup>5</sup>She is on the way to death.
Her steps are headed straight to the grave.
- <sup>6</sup>She gives no thought to life.
She does not know that her ways are wrong.
- <sup>7</sup>Now, my sons, listen to me.
Don't ignore what I say.
- <sup>8</sup>Stay away from such a woman.
Don't even go near the door of her house.
- <sup>9</sup>If you do, you will give your riches to others.
And the best years of your life will be given to someone who is cruel.
- <sup>10</sup>Strangers will enjoy your wealth.
And what you worked so hard for will go to someone else.
- <sup>11</sup>You will groan at the end of your life.
Then your health will be gone.
- <sup>12</sup>Then you will say, "I hated self-control!
I would not listen when I was corrected!"
- <sup>13</sup>I would not listen to my teachers.
I paid no attention to what they taught me.
- <sup>14</sup>I have come very close to being completely ruined in front of a whole group of people."
- <sup>15</sup>Be faithful to your own wife
She is like your own well of water from which you drink.
- <sup>16</sup>You wouldn't drink from streams flowing in the city streets or squares.
So be satisfied with your wife, not those outside your home.
- <sup>17</sup>These things are yours alone.
Don't share them with strangers.
- <sup>18</sup>Be happy with the wife you married when you were young.
She gives you joys as your fountain gives you water.
- <sup>19</sup>She is as lovely and graceful as a deer.
Let her love always make you happy.
Let her love always hold you captive.
- <sup>20</sup>My son, don't be held captive by a woman who takes part in adultery.<sup>d</sup>
Don't hold another man's wife.
- <sup>21</sup>The Lord sees everything you do.
He watches where you go.
- <sup>22</sup>An evil man will be caught in his evil ways.
He will be tied up by his sins as if they were ropes.
- <sup>23</sup>He will die because he does not control himself.
He will be held captive by his own foolishness.
- Dangers of Being Foolish
- 6 My child, be careful about giving a guarantee for somebody else.
Be careful about promising to pay what someone else owes.
- <sup>2</sup>You might get trapped by what you say.
You might be caught by your own words.
- <sup>3</sup>My child, you might do this and be under somebody's control.

- Then here is how to get free.
 Go to your neighbor and don't be proud.
 Beg him to free you from your promise.
- <sup>4</sup>Don't go to sleep.
 Don't even rest your eyes.
- <sup>5</sup>But free yourself like a deer running from a hunter.
 Free yourself like a bird flying away from a trapper.
- <sup>6</sup>Go watch the ants, you lazy person.
 Watch what they do and be wise.
- <sup>7</sup>Ants have no commander.
 They have no leader or ruler.
- <sup>8</sup>But they store up food in the summer.
 They gather their supplies at harvest.
- <sup>9</sup>How long will you lie there, you lazy person?
 When will you get up from sleeping?
- <sup>10</sup>You sleep a little; you take a nap.
 You fold your hands and rest.
- <sup>11</sup>So you will be as poor as if you had been robbed.
 You will have as little as if you had been held up.
- <sup>12</sup>Some people are wicked and no good.
 They go around telling lies.
- <sup>13</sup>They wink with their eyes and signal with their feet.
 They make signs with their fingers.
- <sup>14</sup>They make evil plans in their hearts.
 They are always causing trouble.
- <sup>15</sup>So trouble will strike them in an instant.
 Suddenly they will be hurt beyond cure.
- <sup>16</sup>There are six things the Lord hates.
 There are seven things he cannot stand:
- <sup>17</sup> a proud look,
 a lying tongue,
 hands that kill innocent people,
- <sup>18</sup> a mind that thinks up evil plans,
 feet that are quick to do evil,
- <sup>19</sup> a witness who tells lies and a man who causes trouble among brothers.

Warning About Adultery

- <sup>20</sup>My son, keep your father's commands.
 Don't forget your mother's teaching.
- <sup>21</sup>Remember their words forever.
 Let it be as if they were tied around your neck.
- <sup>22</sup>They will guide you when you walk.
 They will guard you while you sleep.
 They will speak to you when you are awake.
- <sup>23</sup>Their commands are like a lamp.

- Their teaching is like a light.
 And the correction that comes from them helps you have life.
- <sup>24</sup>Such teaching will keep you from sinful women and from the pleasing words of another man's unfaithful wife.
- <sup>25</sup>Don't want her because she is beautiful.
 Don't let her capture you by the way she looks at you.
- <sup>26</sup>A prostitute<sup>d</sup> may leave you with only a loaf of bread.
 And a woman who takes part in adultery<sup>d</sup> may cost you your life.
- <sup>27</sup>You cannot carry hot coals against your chest without burning your clothes.
- <sup>28</sup>And you cannot walk on hot coals without burning your feet.
- <sup>29</sup>The same thing happens if you have sexual relations with another man's wife.
 Anyone who does so will be punished.
- <sup>30</sup>People do not hate a thief when he steals because he is hungry.
- <sup>31</sup>But if he is caught, he must pay back seven times what he stole.
 It may cost him everything he owns.
- <sup>32</sup>A man who takes part in adultery doesn't have any sense.
 He will destroy himself.
- <sup>33</sup>He will be beaten up and disgraced.
 And his shame will never go away.
- <sup>34</sup>Jealousy makes a husband very angry.
 He will have no mercy when he gets even.
- <sup>35</sup>He will accept no payment for the wrong.
 He will take no money, no matter how much it is.

The Woman of Adultery

- 7 My son, remember what I say.
 Treasure my commands.
- <sup>2</sup>Obey my commands, and you will live.
 Protect my teachings as you would your own eyes.
- <sup>3</sup>Remind yourself of them.
 Write them down in your mind as if on a tablet.
- <sup>4</sup>Be good to wisdom as if she were your sister.
 Make understanding your closest friend.
- <sup>5</sup>Wisdom and understanding will keep you away from adultery.<sup>d</sup>
 They will keep you away from the unfaithful wife and her pleasing words.

6<sup>1</sup> once was standing at the window of my house.

I looked out through the shutters.

7<sup>1</sup> I saw some foolish, young men.

I noticed one of them who had no wisdom.

8<sup>1</sup> He was walking down the street near the corner.

He was on the road leading to her house.

9<sup>1</sup> It was the twilight of the evening.

The darkness of the night was just beginning.

10<sup>1</sup> Then the woman approached him.

She was dressed like a prostitute<sup>d</sup> and was planning to trick him.

11<sup>1</sup> She was a loud and stubborn woman.

She never stayed at home.

12<sup>1</sup> She was always out in the streets or in the city squares.

She was always waiting around on the street corners.

13<sup>1</sup> She grabbed him and kissed him.

Without shame she said to him,

14<sup>1</sup> "I made my fellowship offering and have the meat at home.

I have kept my special promises.

15<sup>1</sup> So I have come out to meet you.

I have been looking for you and have found you!

16<sup>1</sup> I have covered my bed with colored sheets from Egypt.

17<sup>1</sup> I have made my bed smell sweet with myrrh,<sup>d</sup> aloes<sup>d</sup> and cinnamon.

18<sup>1</sup> Come, let's make love until morning.

Let's enjoy each other's love!

19<sup>1</sup> My husband is not home.

He has gone on a long trip.

20<sup>1</sup> He took a lot of money with him.

And he won't be home for weeks."

21<sup>1</sup> By her clever words she made him give in.

By her pleasing words she led him into doing wrong.

22<sup>1</sup> All at once he followed her.

He was like an ox being led to the butcher.

He was like a deer caught in a trap.

23<sup>1</sup> But quickly an arrow shot through his liver.

He was like a bird caught in a trap.

He didn't know what he did would kill him.

24<sup>1</sup> Now, my sons, listen to me.

Pay attention to what I say.

25<sup>1</sup> Don't let yourself be tricked by the woman who is guilty of adultery.

Don't join her in her evil actions.

26<sup>1</sup> She has ruined many good men.

Many have died because of her.

27<sup>1</sup> Going to her house is like taking the road to death.

That road leads down to where the dead are.

Listen to Wisdom

8<sup>1</sup> Like a person, wisdom calls out to you.

Understanding raises her voice.

2<sup>1</sup> On the hilltops along the road and at the crossroads, she stands calling.

3<sup>1</sup> She stands beside the city gates.

At the entrances into the city, she calls out:

4<sup>1</sup> "People, I'm calling out to you.

I am shouting to all people.

5<sup>1</sup> You who do not know better, get the ability to think.

You who are foolish, get understanding.

6<sup>1</sup> Listen. I have important things to say.

What I tell you is right.

7<sup>1</sup> What I say is true.

I hate it when people speak evil.

8<sup>1</sup> Everything I say is honest.

Nothing I say is crooked or false.

9<sup>1</sup> People with good sense know that what I say is true.

People with knowledge know that my words are right.

10<sup>1</sup> Choose my teachings instead of silver.

Choose knowledge rather than the finest gold.

11<sup>1</sup> Wisdom is more precious than rubies.

Nothing you want is equal to it.

12<sup>1</sup> "I am wisdom, and I have the ability to think.

I also have knowledge and good sense.

13<sup>1</sup> If you respect the Lord, you also will hate evil.

It is wise to hate pride and bragging, evil ways and lies.

14<sup>1</sup> I have good sense and advice.

I have understanding and power.

15<sup>1</sup> Kings use me to govern.

And rulers use me to make fair laws.

16<sup>1</sup> Princes use me to lead.

So do important men and all good judges.

17<sup>1</sup> I love those who love me.

Those who want me find me.

18<sup>1</sup> Riches and honor are mine.

So are wealth and lasting success.

19<sup>1</sup> What I give is better than the finest gold.

What I give is better than pure silver.

20<sup>1</sup> I do what is right.

- I do what is fair.
 21 I give wealth to those who love me.
 I fill them with treasures.
- 22 "I, wisdom, was with God when he began his work.
 This was before he made anything else long ago.
- 23 I was appointed in the very beginning, even before the world began.
- 24 I began before there were oceans.
 There were no springs overflowing with water.
- 25 I began before the hills were there.
 The mountains had not even been put in place.
- 26 God still had not made the earth or fields.
 He had not even made the first dust of the earth.
- 27 I was there when God put the skies in place, when he stretched the horizon over the oceans.
- 28 I was there when he made the clouds above.
 I was there when he put the fountains in the oceans.
- 29 I was there when he ordered the sea not to go beyond the borders he had set for it.
 I was there when he laid the earth's foundation.
- 30 I was like a child by his side.
 I was happy every day and enjoyed being in his presence.
- 31 I enjoyed the whole world.
 And I was happy with all its people.
- 32 "Now, my children, listen to me.
 Those who follow my ways are happy.
- 33 Listen to my teaching, and you will be wise.
 Do not ignore it.
- 34 Those who listen to me are happy.
 They stand watching at my door every day.
 They are at my open doorway, wanting to be with me.
- 35 Whoever finds me finds life.
 And the Lord will be pleased with him.

Being Wise or Foolish

- 9 Wisdom has built her house.
 She has made its seven columns.
 2 She has prepared her food and wine.
 She has set her table.

- 3 She has sent out her servant girls.
 She calls out from the highest place in the city.
- 4 She says to those who are not wise,
 "Come in here, you foolish people!
- 5 Come and eat my food.
 And drink the wine I have prepared.
- 6 Stop your foolish ways, and you will live.
 Be a person of understanding.
- 7 "If you correct someone who makes fun of wisdom, you will get insulted.
 If you correct an evil person, you will get hurt.
- 8 Do not correct someone who makes fun of wisdom, or he will hate you.
 But correct a wise man, and he will love you.
- 9 Teach a wise man, and he will become even wiser.
 Teach a good man, and he will learn even more.

 And understanding begins with knowing God, the Holy One.

 She does not have wisdom or knowledge.
- 14 She sits at the door of her house.
 It is at the highest place in the city.
- 15 She calls out to those who are passing by.
 They are minding their own business.
- 16 She says to those who are not wise,
 "Come in here, you foolish people!
- 17 Stolen water is sweeter.
 Stolen food tastes better."
- 18 But these people don't know that everyone dies who goes there.
 They don't realize that her guests are deep in the grave.

And the Lord will reward you.
- <sup>23</sup>The north wind brings rain.
In the same way, telling gossip brings angry looks.

<sup>24</sup>It is better to live in a corner on the roof<sup>a</sup> than inside the house with a quarreling wife.

<sup>26</sup>A good person who gives in to evil is like a muddy spring or a dirty well.

<sup>27</sup>It is not good to eat too much honey. In the same way, it is not good to brag about yourself.

<sup>28</sup>A person who does not control himself is like a city whose walls have been broken down.

26 It shouldn't snow in summer or rain at harvest. Neither should a foolish person ever be honored.

<sup>2</sup>Curses will not harm someone who is innocent. They are like sparrows or swallows that fly around and never land.

<sup>3</sup>A whip is used to guide a horse, and a harness is used for a donkey. In the same way, a paddle is used on a foolish person to guide him.

<sup>4</sup>Don't give a foolish person a foolish answer. If you do, you will be just like him.

<sup>5</sup>But answer a foolish person as he should be answered. If you don't, he will think he is really wise.

<sup>6</sup>Don't send a message by a foolish person. That would be like cutting off your feet or drinking poison.

<sup>8</sup>Giving honor to a foolish person does no good. It is like tying a stone in a slingshot.

<sup>9</sup>A wise saying spoken by a fool is like a thorn stuck in the hand of a drunk.

<sup>10</sup>Someone might employ a foolish person or anyone just passing by.

That employer is like an archer who shoots at anything he sees.

<sup>11</sup>A dog eats what it throws up.

And a foolish person repeats his foolishness.

<sup>12</sup>Some people think they are wise. There is more hope for a foolish person than for them.

<sup>14</sup>The lazy person is like a door that turns back and forth on its hinges. He stays in bed and turns over and over.

<sup>15</sup>The lazy person may put his hand in the dish. But he's too tired to lift the food to his mouth.

<sup>17</sup>To grab a dog by the ears is asking for trouble. So is interfering in someone else's quarrel if you're just passing by.

<sup>18</sup><sup>19</sup>A person shouldn't trick his neighbor and then say, "I was just joking!" That is like a madman shooting deadly, burning arrows.

<sup>20</sup>Without wood, a fire will go out. And without gossip, quarreling will stop.

<sup>21</sup>Charcoal and wood keep a fire going. In the same way, a quarrelsome person keeps an argument going.

<sup>22</sup>The words of a gossip are like tasty bits of food. People take them all in.

<sup>23</sup>Kind words from a wicked mind are like a shiny coating on a clay pot.

<sup>24</sup>A person who hates you may fool you with his words.

But in his mind he is planning evil.

<sup>25</sup>His words are kind, but don't believe him. His mind is full of evil thoughts.

<sup>26</sup>He hides his hate with lies.

But his evil will be plain to everyone.

<sup>a</sup>roof In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

- <sup>27</sup>Whoever digs a deep trap for others will fall into it himself.
Whoever tries to roll a boulder over others will be crushed by it.
- <sup>28</sup>A liar hates the people he hurts.
And false praise can ruin others.
- 27 Don't brag about what will happen tomorrow.
You don't really know what will happen then.
- <sup>2</sup>Don't praise yourself. Let someone else do it.
Let the praise come from a stranger and not from your own mouth.
- <sup>3</sup>Stone is heavy, and sand is hard to carry.
But the complaining of a foolish person causes more trouble than either.
- <sup>4</sup>Anger is cruel. It destroys like a flood.
But who can put up with jealousy!
- <sup>5</sup>It is better to correct someone openly than to love him and not show it.
- <sup>6</sup>The slap of a friend can be trusted to help you.
But the kisses of an enemy are nothing but lies.
- <sup>7</sup>When someone is full, not even honey tastes good.
But when he is hungry, even something bitter tastes sweet.
- <sup>8</sup>A man who leaves his home is like a bird that leaves its nest.
- <sup>9</sup>Perfume and oils make you happy.
And good advice from a friend is sweet.
- <sup>10</sup>Don't forget your friend or your father's friend.
Don't always go to your brother for help when trouble comes.
A neighbor close by is better than a brother far away.
- <sup>11</sup>Be wise, my child, and you will make me happy.
Then I can respond to any insult.
- <sup>12</sup>When a wise person sees danger ahead, he avoids it.
But a foolish person keeps going and gets into trouble.
- <sup>13</sup>Take the coat of someone who promises to pay what a stranger owes.
Keep it until he pays the stranger's bills.
- <sup>14</sup>Don't greet your neighbor loudly early in the morning.
He will think of it as a curse.
- <sup>15</sup>A quarreling wife is as bothersome as a continual dripping on a rainy day.
- <sup>16</sup>Stopping her is like stopping the wind.
It's like trying to grab oil in your hand.
- <sup>17</sup>Iron can sharpen iron.
In the same way, people can help each other.
- <sup>18</sup>The person who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit.
And the person who takes care of his master will be honored.
- <sup>19</sup>As water shows you your face, so your mind shows you what kind of person you are.
- <sup>20</sup>People will never stop dying and being destroyed.
In the same way, people will never stop wanting more than they have.
- <sup>21</sup>A hot furnace tests silver and gold.
And people are tested by the praise they receive.
- <sup>22</sup>Even if you ground up a foolish person like grain in a bowl, you couldn't remove his foolishness.
- <sup>23</sup>Be sure you know how your sheep are doing.
Pay close attention to the condition of your cattle.
- <sup>24</sup>Riches will not continue forever.
Nor do governments continue forever.
- <sup>25</sup>Bring in the hay. Let the new grass appear.
Gather the grass from the hills.
- <sup>26</sup>Make clothes from the lambs' wool.
Sell some goats to buy a field.
- <sup>27</sup>There will be plenty of goat milk to feed you and your family.
It will make your servant girls healthy.
- 28 Evil people run even though no one is chasing them.
But good people are as brave as a lion.
- <sup>2</sup>When a country is disobedient, it has one ruler after another.
But when it is led by a man with understanding and knowledge, it continues strong.
- <sup>3</sup>Rulers who are cruel to the poor are like a hard rain that destroys the crops.

- <sup>4</sup>People who disobey what they have been taught praise the wicked.
But those who obey what they have been taught are against the wicked.
- <sup>5</sup>Evil people do not understand fairness.
But those who follow the Lord understand it completely.
- <sup>6</sup>It is better to be poor and innocent than to be rich and wicked.
- <sup>7</sup>The son who obeys what he has been taught shows he is smart.
But the son who makes friends with those who have no self-control disgraces his father.
- <sup>8</sup>Some people get rich by overcharging others.
But their wealth will be given to those who are kind to the poor.
- <sup>9</sup>If you refuse to obey what you have been taught, your prayers will not be heard.
- <sup>10</sup>Those who lead honest people to do wrong will be ruined by their own evil.
But the innocent will be rewarded with good things.
- <sup>11</sup>A rich man may think he is wise.
But a poor man who has understanding knows the rich man is wrong.
- <sup>12</sup>When good people win, there is great happiness.
But when the wicked get power, everybody hides.
- <sup>13</sup>If you hide your sins, you will not succeed.
If you confess and reject them, you will receive mercy.
- <sup>14</sup>Those who always respect the Lord will be happy.
But those who are stubborn will get into trouble.
- <sup>15</sup>A wicked ruler is as dangerous to poor people as a roaring lion or a charging bear.
- <sup>16</sup>A ruler who is cruel does not have wisdom.
But the one who hates money taken dishonestly will live a long time.
- <sup>17</sup>A man who is guilty of murder will run until he dies.
So do not stop him.
- <sup>18</sup>Innocent people will be kept safe.
But those who are dishonest will suddenly be ruined.
- <sup>19</sup>The person who works his land will have plenty of food.
But the one who chases useless dreams instead will end up very poor.
- <sup>20</sup>A truthful man will have many blessings.
But those eager to get rich will be punished.
- <sup>21</sup>It is not good for a judge to take sides.
But some will sin for just a piece of bread.
- <sup>22</sup>A selfish person is in a hurry to get rich.
He does not realize his selfishness will make him poor.
- <sup>23</sup>Those who correct others will later be liked more than those who give false praise.
- <sup>24</sup>Some people rob their fathers or mothers and say, "It's not wrong."
Such people are just like those who destroy things.
- <sup>25</sup>A greedy person causes trouble.
But the one who trusts the Lord will succeed.
- <sup>26</sup>The person who trusts in himself is foolish.
But the person who lives wisely will be kept safe.
- <sup>27</sup>The person who gives to the poor will have everything he needs.
But the one who ignores the poor will have many curses put on him.
- <sup>28</sup>When the wicked get power, everybody hides.
But when the wicked die, the good people do well.
- 29 Some people are still stubborn after they have been corrected many times.
But they will suddenly be hurt beyond cure.
- <sup>2</sup>When good people do well, everyone is happy.
But when evil people rule, everyone groans.
- <sup>3</sup>Whoever loves wisdom makes his father happy.
But the one who makes friends with prostitutes<sup>d</sup> wastes his money.

- <sup>4</sup>If a king is fair, he makes his country strong.
But if he takes money dishonestly, he tears his country down.
- <sup>5</sup>Anyone who gives false praise to his neighbor is setting a trap for him.
- <sup>6</sup>An evil person is trapped by his own sin.
But a good person can sing and be happy.
- <sup>7</sup>Good people are concerned that the poor are treated fairly.
But the wicked don't care.
- <sup>8</sup>People who make fun of others cause trouble in a city.
But wise people calm anger down.
- <sup>9</sup>A wise man should not take a foolish person to court.
The fool will only shout or laugh at him.
There will be no peace.
- <sup>10</sup>Murderers hate honest people.
But those who do right try to protect them.
- <sup>11</sup>A foolish person loses his temper.
But a wise person controls his anger.
- <sup>12</sup>If a ruler pays attention to lies,
then all his officers will become wicked.
- <sup>13</sup>The poor person and the cruel person are alike in this way:
The Lord gave eyes to both of them.
- <sup>14</sup>A king should judge poor people fairly.
Then his government will continue forever.
- <sup>15</sup>Punishment and correction make a child wise.
If he is left to do as he pleases, he will disgrace his mother.
- <sup>16</sup>When there are many wicked people, there is much sin.
But those who do right will see them destroyed.
- <sup>17</sup>Correct your child, and you will be proud of him.
He will give you pleasure.
- <sup>18</sup>Where there is no word from God, people are uncontrolled.
But those who obey what they have been taught are happy.
- <sup>19</sup>Words alone cannot correct a servant.
- Even if he understands, he won't respond.
- <sup>20</sup>Sometimes you see people who speak too quickly.
There is more hope for a foolish person than for them.
- <sup>21</sup>Don't spoil your servant when he is young.
If you do, he will bring you grief later on.
- <sup>22</sup>An angry person causes trouble.
A person who easily gets angry sins a lot.
- <sup>23</sup>A man's pride will ruin him.
But a person who is humble will be honored.
- <sup>24</sup>The partner of a thief is his own worst enemy.
He has to testify in court, but he is afraid to say anything.
- <sup>25</sup>Being afraid of people can get you into trouble.
But if you trust the Lord, you will be safe.
- <sup>26</sup>Many people want to be heard by a ruler.
But fairness comes from the Lord.
- <sup>27</sup>Good people hate those who are dishonest.
And the wicked hate those who are honest.

Wise Words from Agur

30 These are the words of Agur son of Jakeh.

This is his message to Ithiel and Ucal:

- <sup>24</sup>I am the most stupid person there is.
I have no understanding.
- <sup>3</sup>I have not learned to be wise.
And I don't know much about God, the Holy One.
- <sup>4</sup>Who has gone up to heaven and come back down?
Who can hold the wind in his hand?
Who can gather up the waters in his coat?
Who has decided where the ends of the earth will be?
What is his name? And what is his son's name?
Surely, you know!
- <sup>5</sup>Every word of God can be trusted.
He protects those who come to him for safety.
- <sup>6</sup>Do not add to his words.

- If you do, he will correct you and prove that you are a liar.
- <sup>7</sup>“I ask two things from you, Lord.
Don't refuse me before I die.
- <sup>8</sup>Keep me from lying and being dishonest.
And don't make me either rich or poor.
Just give me enough food for each day.
- <sup>9</sup>If I have too much, I might reject you.
I might say, 'I don't know the Lord.'
If I am poor, I might steal.
Then I would disgrace the name of my God.
- <sup>10</sup>“Do not say bad things about a servant to his master.
If you do, he will curse you, and you will suffer for it.
- <sup>11</sup>“Some people curse their fathers.
And they do not bless their mothers.
- <sup>12</sup>Some people think they are pure.
But they are not really free from evil.
- <sup>13</sup>Some people have such a proud look!
They look down on others.
- <sup>14</sup>Some people have teeth like swords.
It is as if their jaws are full of knives.
They want to remove the poor people from the earth.
They want to get rid of the needy.
- <sup>15</sup>“Greed has two daughters.
Their names are 'Give me. Give me.'
There are three things that are never satisfied.
There are really four that never say, 'I've had enough!'
- <sup>16</sup>These things are the cemetery, the childless mother, the land that never gets enough rain, and fire that never says, 'I've had enough!'
- <sup>17</sup>“Don't make fun of your father.
Don't refuse to obey your mother.
If you do, your eye will be pecked out by the birds of the valley.
You will be eaten by hawks.
- <sup>18</sup>“There are three things that are too hard for me.
There are really four that I don't understand:
- <sup>19</sup>the way an eagle flies in the sky,
the way a snake slides over a rock,
the way a ship sails on the sea and the way a man acts with a girl.
- <sup>20</sup>“This is the way a woman who takes part in adultery<sup>d</sup> acts:

- She does the sin and hides it.
Then she says, 'I haven't done anything wrong.'
- <sup>21</sup>“There are three things that make the earth tremble.
There are really four that it cannot stand:
- <sup>22a</sup> a servant who becomes a king,
a foolish person who has plenty to eat,
- <sup>23a</sup> a hateful woman who gets married and a maid who replaces her mistress.
- <sup>24</sup>“There are four things on earth that are small.
But they are very wise:
- <sup>25</sup>Ants are not very strong.
But they store up food in the summer.
- <sup>26</sup>Rock badgers are not powerful animals.
But they can live among the rocks.
- <sup>27</sup>Locusts<sup>d</sup> have no king.
But they all go out in formation.
- <sup>28</sup>And lizards can be caught in the hand.
But they are found even in kings' palaces.
- <sup>29</sup>“There are three things that strut proudly.
There are really four that walk as if they are important:
- <sup>30</sup>Lions are the proudest animals.
They are strong and run from nothing.
- <sup>31</sup>Roosters and male goats strut proudly.
And so does a king when his army is around him.
- <sup>32</sup>“You may have been foolish and proud.
If you planned evil, cover your mouth.
- <sup>33</sup>Stirring milk makes butter.
Twisting noses makes them bleed.
And stirring up anger makes trouble.”

Wise Words of King Lemuel

31 These are the words of King Lemuel.
This is the message his mother taught him:

- <sup>2</sup>“My son, I gave birth to you.
You are the son I prayed for.
- <sup>3</sup>Don't waste your strength on women.
Don't waste your time on those who ruin kings.
- <sup>4</sup>“Kings should not drink wine, Lemuel.
Rulers should not desire beer.
- <sup>5</sup>If they drink, they might forget the law.
They might keep the needy from getting their rights.
- <sup>6</sup>Give beer to people who are dying.
And give wine to those who are sad.
- <sup>7</sup>Let them drink and forget their need.

Then they won't remember their misery
anymore.

<sup>8</sup>"Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves.

Defend the rights of all those who have nothing.

<sup>9</sup>Speak up and judge fairly.

Defend the rights of the poor and needy."

The Good Wife

<sup>10</sup>It is hard to find an excellent wife.
She is worth more than rubies.

<sup>11</sup>Her husband trusts her completely.

With her, he has everything he needs.

<sup>12</sup>She does him good and not harm for as long as she lives.

<sup>13</sup>She looks for wool and linen.

She likes to work with her hands.

<sup>14</sup>She is like a trader's ship.

She goes far to get food.

<sup>15</sup>She gets up while it is still dark.

She prepares food for her family.

She also feeds her servant girls.

<sup>16</sup>She looks at a field and buys it.

With money she has earned, she plants a vineyard.

<sup>17</sup>She does her work with energy.

Her arms are strong.

<sup>18</sup>She makes sure that what she makes is good.

She works by her lamp late into the night.

<sup>19</sup>She makes thread with her hands and weaves her own cloth.

<sup>20</sup>She welcomes the poor.

She helps the needy.

<sup>21</sup>She does not worry about her family when it snows.

They all have fine clothes to keep them warm.

<sup>22</sup>She makes coverings for her bed.

Her clothes are made of linen and other expensive material.

<sup>23</sup>Her husband is recognized at the city meetings.

He makes decisions as one of the leaders of the land.

<sup>24</sup>She makes linen clothes and sells them.

She provides belts to the merchants.

<sup>25</sup>She is strong and is respected by the people.

She looks forward to the future with joy.

<sup>26</sup>She speaks wise words.

And she teaches others to be kind.

<sup>27</sup>She watches over her family.

And she is always busy.

<sup>28</sup>Her children bless her.

Her husband also praises her.

<sup>29</sup>He says, "There are many excellent wives, but you are better than all of them."

<sup>30</sup>Charm can fool you, and beauty can trick
you.

But a woman who respects the Lord should be praised.

<sup>31</sup>Give her the reward she has earned.

She should be openly praised for what she has done.

ECCLESIASTES

A Wise Man Believes in God

1

These are the words of the Teacher. He is a son of David, king in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>The Teacher says, “Useless! Useless!

Completely useless!

All things are useless.”

<sup>3</sup>What do people really gain from all the hard work they do here on earth?

Things Never Change

<sup>4</sup>People live, and people die.

But the earth continues forever.

<sup>5</sup>The sun rises, and the sun sets.

Then it hurries back to the place where it rises again.

<sup>6</sup>The wind blows to the south.

Then it blows to the north.

It blows from one direction and then another.

Then it turns around and repeats the same pattern, going nowhere.

<sup>7</sup>All the rivers flow to the sea.

But the sea never becomes full.

<sup>8</sup>Everything is boring.

It makes you so tired you don't even want to talk about it.

Words come again and again to our ears.

But we never can hear enough.

Nor can we ever really see all we want to see.

<sup>9</sup>All things continue the way they have been since the beginning.

The same things will be done that have always been done.

There is nothing new here on earth.

<sup>10</sup>A person might say,

“Look, this is new!”

But really it has always been here.

It was here before we were!

<sup>11</sup>People don't remember what happened long ago.

In the future, people will not remember what happens now.

And later, other people will not remember what was done before them.

Does Wisdom Bring Happiness?

<sup>12</sup>I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>I decided to use my wisdom. I wanted to learn about everything that happens here on earth. I learned that God has given us terrible things to face here on earth. <sup>14</sup>I looked at everything done here on earth. I saw that it is all a waste of time. It is like chasing the wind.

If something is missing, you can't say it is there.

<sup>16</sup>I said to myself, “I have become very wise. I am now wiser than anyone who ruled Jerusalem before me. I know what wisdom and knowledge really are.” <sup>17</sup>So I decided to find out how wisdom and knowledge are better than foolish thinking. But I learned that trying to become wise is also like chasing the wind.

<sup>18</sup>With much wisdom comes much disappointment.

The person who gains more knowledge also gains more sorrow.

Does “Having Fun” Bring Happiness?

2 I said to myself, “I will try having fun. I will enjoy myself.” But I found that this is also useless. <sup>2</sup>It is foolish to laugh all the time. Having fun gets nothing done. <sup>3</sup>I decided to cheer myself up with wine. At the same time my mind was still thinking wisely. I wanted to find a way to enjoy myself. I wanted to see what was good for people to do during their few days of life.

Does Hard Work Bring Happiness?

<sup>4</sup>Then I did great things. I built houses, and I planted vineyards for myself. <sup>5</sup>I planted gardens, and I made parks. I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. <sup>6</sup>I made pools of water for myself. And I used them to water my growing trees. <sup>7</sup>I bought men and women slaves. Slaves were also born in my house. I had large herds of cattle and flocks of sheep. I had more than anyone in Jerusalem before me. <sup>8</sup>I also gathered silver and gold for myself. I took treasures from kings and other areas. I had men and women singers. I had all the wives a man could ever want. <sup>9</sup>I became very famous. I was greater than anyone who had lived in Jerusalem before me. My wisdom helped me in all this.

<sup>10</sup>Anything I saw and wanted, I got for myself.
I did not miss any pleasure I desired.
I was pleased with everything I did.
And this pleasure was the reward for all my hard work.

<sup>11</sup>But then I looked at what I had done.
I thought about all the hard work.
Suddenly I realized it was just a waste of time, like chasing the wind!
There is nothing to gain from anything we do here on earth.

Maybe Wisdom Is the Answer

<sup>12</sup>Then I began to think again about being wise.
And I thought also about being foolish and doing crazy things.
But after all, what more can any king do?
He can only do what some other king has already done.

<sup>13</sup>I saw that being wise is certainly better than being foolish, just as light is better than darkness.

<sup>14</sup>A wise man sees where he is going.
But a foolish person is like someone walking around in the dark.

Yet I saw that both the foolish person and the wise man end the same way.

<sup>15</sup>I thought to myself,
“What happens to a foolish person will happen to me, too.
So what do I get for being so wise?”

I said to myself,
“Being wise is also useless.”

<sup>16</sup>The wise man and the foolish person will both die!
People will not remember either one forever.

In the future, both will be forgotten.

Is There Real Happiness in Life?

<sup>17</sup>So I hated life. It made me sad to think that everything here on earth is useless. It is like chasing the wind. <sup>18</sup>I hated all the things I had worked for here on earth. I hated them because I must leave them to someone who will live after me. <sup>19</sup>Someone else will control everything for which I worked so hard here on earth. And I don't know if he will be wise or foolish. This is also useless. <sup>20</sup>So I became sad about all the hard work I had done here on earth. <sup>21</sup>A person can work hard using all his wisdom, knowledge and skill. But he will die, and other people will get the things he worked for. They did not do the work, but they will get everything. This is also unfair and useless.

<sup>22</sup>What does a person get for all his work and struggling here on earth? <sup>23</sup>All his life his work is full of pain and sorrow. Even at night his mind doesn't rest. This is also useless.

<sup>24</sup>The best a person can do is eat, drink and enjoy his work. I saw that even this comes from God. <sup>25</sup>No one can eat or enjoy life without God. <sup>26</sup>If a person pleases God, God will give him wisdom, knowledge and joy. But the sinner will get only the work of gathering and storing wealth. Then he will have to give it to the one who pleases God. So all his work is useless. It is like chasing the wind.

There Is a Time for Everything

3 There is a right time for everything.
Everything on earth has its special season.

<sup>2</sup>There is a time to be born and a time to die.

There is a time to plant and a time to pull up plants.

<sup>3</sup>There is a time to kill and a time to heal.

There is a time to destroy and a time to build.

<sup>4</sup>There is a time to cry and a time to laugh.

There is a time to be sad and a time to dance.

<sup>5</sup>There is a time to throw away stones and a time to gather them.

There is a time to hug
and a time not to hug.

<sup>6</sup>There is a time to look for something and a time to stop looking for it.

There is a time to keep things and a time to throw things away.

<sup>7</sup>There is a time to tear apart and a time to sew together.

There is a time to be silent and a time to speak.

<sup>8</sup>There is a time to love and a time to hate.

There is a time for war
and a time for peace.

God Controls His World

<sup>9</sup>Does a person really gain anything from his work? <sup>10</sup>I saw the hard work God has given us to do. <sup>11</sup>God has also given us a desire to know the future. God certainly does everything at just the right time. But we can never completely understand what he is doing. <sup>12</sup>So I realize that the best thing for people is to be happy. They should enjoy themselves as long as they live. <sup>13</sup>God wants everyone to eat and drink and be happy in his work. These are gifts from God. <sup>14</sup>I know anything God does will continue forever. People cannot add anything to what God has done. And they cannot take anything away from it. God does it this way to cause people to honor him.

<sup>15</sup>What happens now has also happened in the past.

Things that will happen in the future have also happened before.

God makes the same things happen again and again.

God Allows Unfairness

<sup>16</sup>I also saw this here on earth:

Where there should have been justice, there was evil.

Where there should have been fairness, there was wickedness.

<sup>17</sup>I certainly believe that God has planned a time for every thing and every action.

He will judge both good people and bad people.

<sup>18</sup>But I decided that God leaves it the way it is to test people. He wants to show them they are just like animals. <sup>19</sup>The same thing happens to animals and to people. They both have the same breath. So they both die. People are no better off than the animals. The lives of both are soon gone. <sup>20</sup>Both end up the same way. Both came from dust. And both will go back to dust. <sup>21</sup>Who can be sure that the spirit of man goes up to God? Or who can be sure that the spirit of an animal goes down into the ground? <sup>22</sup>So I saw the best thing a person can do is to enjoy his work. That is all he has. No one can help a person see what will happen in the future.

Is It Better to Be Dead?

4 Again I saw all the people who were treated badly here on earth.

I saw their tears.

I saw that they had no one to comfort them.

Cruel people had all the power.

There was no one to comfort the people they hurt.

<sup>21</sup> decided that the dead are better off than the living.

<sup>3</sup>But those who have never been born are better off still.

They have not seen the evil that is done here on earth.

Why Work So Hard?

<sup>4</sup>I realized the reason people work hard and try to succeed: They are jealous of each other. This, too, is useless. It is like chasing the wind.

<sup>5</sup>Some say that it is foolish to fold your hands and do nothing.

You will starve to death!

<sup>6</sup>Maybe so, but I say it is better to be content with what little you have.

Otherwise, you will always be struggling for more.

That is like chasing the wind.

<sup>7</sup>Again I saw something here on earth that was senseless:

<sup>8</sup>I saw a person who had no family.

He had no son or brother.

He always worked hard.

But he was never satisfied with what he had.

He never asked himself, "For whom am I working so hard?"

Why don't I let myself enjoy life?"

This also is very sad and senseless.

Friends and Family Give Strength

<sup>9</sup>Two people are better than one.

They get more done by working together.

<sup>10</sup>If one person falls, the other can help him up.

But it is bad for the person who is alone when he falls.

No one is there to help him.

<sup>11</sup>If two lie down together, they will be warm.

But a person alone will not be warm.

<sup>12</sup>An enemy might defeat one person, but two people together can defend themselves.

A rope that has three parts wrapped together is hard to break.

Fame and Power Are Useless

<sup>13</sup>A young person may be poor but wise. He is better than a foolish, old king who doesn't listen to advice. <sup>14</sup>I saw such a young person become king. He had been born poor in the kingdom. He had even gone to prison before becoming king. <sup>15</sup>I watched some of the people who live on earth follow him. They made him their king. <sup>10</sup>Yes, a great many people followed him at first. But later, they did not like him, either. So fame and power are shown to be useless. They are like chasing the wind.

Be Careful About Making Promises

5 Be careful when you go to worship at the Temple. <sup>4</sup>It is better to listen than to offer foolish sacrifices. People who do this don't even know they are doing wrong.

<sup>2</sup>Think before you speak.

Be careful about what you promise to God.

God is in heaven,
and you are on the earth.
So say only a few words to God.

So too many words come from foolish people.

<sup>4</sup>If you make a promise to God, don't be slow to keep it. God is not happy with foolish people. Give God what you promised. <sup>5</sup>It is better not to promise anything than to promise something and not do it. <sup>6</sup>So don't let your words cause you to sin. Also, don't say to the priest at the Temple, "I didn't mean what I promised!" If you do, God will become angry with your words. He will destroy everything you have worked for. <sup>7</sup>Many empty promises are like many foolish dreams. They mean nothing. You should honor God.

Officers Cheat Each Other

<sup>8</sup>In some countries you will see poor people treated badly. They are not treated fairly or given their rights. Don't be surprised! One officer is cheated by a higher officer. They in turn are cheated by even higher officers. <sup>9</sup>The wealth of the country is divided up among them all. Even the king makes sure he gets his share of the profits.

Wealth Cannot Buy Happiness

<sup>10</sup>The person who loves money will never have all the money he wants. The person who loves wealth will not be satisfied when he gets it. This is also useless.

<sup>11</sup>The more wealth a person has, the more friends he has to help him spend it.

So what does he really gain?

He gains nothing except to look at his riches.

<sup>12</sup>A man who works hard sleeps in peace.

It is not important if he has little or much to eat.

But a rich person worries about his wealth. He cannot sleep.

<sup>13</sup>I have seen something unfair here on earth:

A person suffers harm from saving up his money.

<sup>14</sup>Then he loses it all in a bad deal.

So he has nothing to give to his son.

<sup>15</sup>A person comes into this world with nothing.

And when he dies, he leaves with nothing.

In spite of all his hard work, he leaves exactly as he came.

<sup>16</sup>This, too, is unfair:

He leaves exactly as he came.

So what does he gain from chasing the wind?

<sup>17</sup>All he gets are days filled with sadness and sorrow.

He ends up sick, defeated and angry.

Enjoy Your Life's Work

<sup>18</sup>I have seen what is best for a person to do here on earth. He should eat and drink and enjoy his work. This is because the life God has given him on earth is short. <sup>19</sup>God gives some people the ability to enjoy the wealth and property he gives them. He also gives them the ability to accept their state in life and enjoy their work. <sup>20</sup>Such people do not worry much about how short life is. This is because God keeps them busy with the things they love to do.

6 I have seen something else unfair here on earth. It causes serious problems for people. <sup>2</sup>God gives some people great wealth, riches and honor. They have everything they want. But God does not let them enjoy such things. Someone else enjoys them instead. This is unfair and senseless. <sup>3</sup>It is sad when a person can't enjoy the good things God gives him. Such a person might have 100 children. He might live a long time. But what good is it if he can't enjoy the good God gives him? I say a baby who is born dead is better off than he is. <sup>4</sup>It is useless for such a baby to be born. It ends up in the darkness of the grave without even a name. <sup>5</sup>That baby never saw the sun. It never knew anything. But it finds more rest than the person who never gets to enjoy the good things God gives him. <sup>6</sup>Even if he lives 2,000 years, it is sad if a person can't enjoy the good things God gives him. After all, both he and the baby born dead go to the same place—the grave.

<sup>7</sup>A person works just to feed himself.

But he never seems to get enough to eat.

<sup>8</sup>In this way a wise man is no better off than a foolish person.

Then, too, it does a poor man little good to know how to get along in life.

<sup>9</sup>So it is better to be happy with what you have than always to be wanting more.

Always wanting more is useless—like chasing the wind.

Who Can Understand God's Plan?

<sup>10</sup>Everything that happens was planned long ago.

A man is only what he was created to be.

It is useless to argue with God about it.

This is because God is more powerful than man is.

<sup>11</sup>The more you argue, the more useless it is.

You gain nothing at all by arguing.

<sup>12</sup>A person has only a few days of life on the earth. His short life passes like a shadow. And who knows what is best for him while he lives? Who can tell him what will happen after his time on earth?

Some Benefits of Serious Thinking

7 It is better to have respect than good perfume.

The day a person dies is better than the day he was born.

<sup>2</sup>It is better to go to a funeral than to a party.

We all must die.

Everyone living should think about this.

<sup>3</sup>Sorrow is better than laughter.

Sadness has a good influence on you.

<sup>4</sup>A wise man thinks about death, but a foolish person thinks only about having a good time.

<sup>5</sup>It is better to be criticized by a wise man than to be praised by a foolish person.

<sup>6</sup>The laughter of foolish people is useless.
It is like heating a pot by burning straw.
There is a lot of fire but no heat.

<sup>7</sup>Even a wise man will become foolish if he lets money change his thinking.

<sup>8</sup>It is better to finish something than to start it.

It is better to be patient than to be proud.

<sup>9</sup>Don't become mad quickly, because getting angry is foolish.

<sup>10</sup>Don't ask, "Why was life better in the 'good old days?'"

It is not wise to ask such questions.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom is as good to have as inheriting property.

It helps people see what to do.

<sup>12</sup>Wisdom is like money.

They both help a person.

But wisdom is better than money, because it can save a person's life.

<sup>13</sup>Stop and think about everything that God causes to happen.

You cannot change a thing,
even if you think it is wrong.

<sup>14</sup>When life is good, enjoy it.

But when life is hard, remember:

God gives us good times and hard times.

And no one knows what tomorrow will bring.

It Is Impossible to Be Truly Good

<sup>15</sup>In my short life I have seen both of these:
I have seen good men die being good.

And I have seen evil men living a long time.

<sup>16</sup>Don't try to be too right all the time.

Don't try to be too wise, either.

Why should you destroy yourself this way?

<sup>17</sup>Don't be too wicked.

And don't be a foolish person.

You will die young if you do so.

<sup>18</sup>Try to avoid going too far in doing anything.

Those who honor God will avoid doing too much of anything.

<sup>19</sup>Wisdom gives a person strength.

One wise man is stronger than ten leaders in a city.

<sup>20</sup>Surely there is not a good man on earth who always does good and never sins.

<sup>21</sup>Don't listen to everything people say.

You might hear your servant insulting you.

<sup>22</sup>You know that many times you also have insulted others.

<sup>23</sup>I used wisdom to test all these things.

I wanted to be wise,

but it was too hard for me.

<sup>24</sup>I cannot understand why things are as they are.

It is too hard for anyone to understand.

<sup>25</sup>I studied and tried very hard to find wisdom.

I tried to find some meaning for everything.

I learned that it is foolish to be evil.

And it is crazy to act like a fool.

<sup>26</sup>I found that some women are worse than death.

They are as dangerous as traps.

Their love is like a net.

Their arms hold men like chains.

A man who follows God will run away from them.

But a sinner will be caught by them.

<sup>27</sup>The Teacher says, "This is what I learned: I added all these things together to see if I could find some meaning for everything.

<sup>28</sup>I am still looking for it, but I have not found it.

But I did discover that truly good people are hard to find.

Such people are one in a million!

<sup>29</sup>One thing I have learned:

God made people good.

But people have found all kinds of ways to be bad."

Obey the King

8 No one is like the wise man. He can understand what things mean. His wisdom makes him happy. It makes his sad face happy.

<sup>2</sup>I advise you always to obey the king's command. Do this because you made a promise to God. <sup>3</sup>Don't be too quick to quit the job the king gave you. But don't support something that is wrong. Remember, the king does whatever he pleases. <sup>4</sup>The king is the highest power. No one can tell him what to do.

Yet people often have many troubles.

<sup>7</sup>They do not know what the future holds. No one can tell them what will happen.

<sup>8</sup>No one has the power to keep the wind from blowing.

No one has the power to stop his own death.

During war a soldier cannot go home.

So also, the person who does evil will not get away free.

Justice, Rewards and Punishment

<sup>9</sup>I saw all of this as I studied. I considered all that is done here on earth. And I saw men rule others and hurt them. <sup>10</sup>I saw evil people being buried. They used to go in and out of the holy place. Good things were said about them in the same towns where they had done evil. This is senseless, too.

<sup>11</sup>Sometimes people are not punished right away for the bad things they do. That makes other people want to do bad things, too. <sup>12</sup>A sinner might do a hundred evil things. And he might live a long time. Even so, I know it will be better for those who honor God. They fear him, and he sees it. <sup>13</sup>And I also know it will not go well for evil people. Their lives will be like a brief shadow. They will not live very long. <sup>14</sup>But sometimes something senseless happens on earth. Bad things happen to good people. Good things happen to bad people. This is truly senseless. <sup>15</sup>So I decided it was more important to enjoy life. The best that people can do here on earth is to eat, drink and enjoy life. These joys will help people do the hard work God gives them here on earth.

We Cannot Understand All God Does

<sup>16</sup>I used my mind to learn about all that happens on earth. I saw how busy people are. They work day and night and hardly ever sleep. <sup>17</sup>I also saw all that God has done. Nobody can understand what God does here on earth. No matter how hard a person tries to understand it, he cannot. Even if a wise man says he understands, he really cannot. No one at all can really understand it.

Is Death Fair?

9 I thought about something else and tried hard to understand it. I saw that God takes care of both good people and wise people and what they do. But no one knows if he will see good or bad times.

<sup>2</sup>Both good and bad things happen to everyone.

They happen to those who are fair and to those who are wicked.

They happen to those who are good and to those who are evil.

They happen to those who sacrifice and to those who do not.

The same things happen to a good person as happen to a sinner.

The same things happen to a person who makes promises to God
as to one who does not.

<sup>3</sup>This is something unfair that happens here on earth. The same things happen to everyone.
So men's minds are full of evil and foolish thoughts while they live. After that, they join the dead. <sup>4</sup>But anyone still alive has hope. Even a live dog is better off than a dead lion!

<sup>5</sup>The living know they will die.

But the dead no longer think about such things.

Dead people have no more reward.
People forget them.

<sup>6</sup>After a person is dead, he can no longer show love or hate or jealousy.

And he will never again share in the things that happen here on earth.

Enjoy Life While You Can

<sup>7</sup>So go eat your food and enjoy it.
Drink your wine and be happy.
It is all right with God
if you do this.

<sup>8</sup>Put on nice clothes and make yourself look good.

<sup>9</sup>Enjoy life with the wife you love. Enjoy all the days of this short life God has given you here on earth. It is all you have. So enjoy the work you have to do here on earth. <sup>10</sup>Whatever work you do, do your best. This is because you are going to the grave. There is no working, no planning, no knowledge and no wisdom there.

Time and Chance

<sup>11</sup>I also realized something else here on earth that is senseless:

The fast runner does not always win the race.

The strong army does not always win the battle.

The wise man does not always have food.
The smart man does not always become wealthy.

And the man with special skills does not always receive praise.

Bad things happen to everyone.

<sup>12</sup>A person never knows what will happen to him next.

He is like a fish caught in a cruel net.

He is like a bird caught in a trap.

In the same way, a person is trapped by bad things that suddenly happen to him.

Wisdom Does Not Always Win

<sup>13</sup>I also saw something wise happen here on earth. And it was very impressive to me.

<sup>14</sup>There was a small town with only a few people in it. A great king fought against it and put his armies all around it. <sup>15</sup>Now there was a wise man in the town. He was poor, but he used his wisdom to save his town. But later on, everyone forgot about him. <sup>16</sup>I still think wisdom is better than strength. But those people forgot about the poor man's wisdom. And they stopped listening to what he said.

<sup>17</sup>The quiet words of a wise man are better than the shouts of a foolish ruler.

<sup>18</sup>Wisdom is better than weapons of war.
But one sinner can destroy much good.

10 Dead flies will make even perfume smell bad.

In the same way, a little foolishness can ruin
a wise man's fame for wisdom.

<sup>2</sup>A wise man's heart leads him in the right way.

But the heart of a foolish person leads him in the wrong way.

<sup>3</sup>A foolish person is not wise.
It shows in everything he does.

Even as he walks along the road,
he shows everyone how stupid he is.

<sup>4</sup>Don't leave your job just because the ruler is angry with you.
Remain calm.

It will help correct your mistakes.

<sup>5</sup>Here is something else unfair that happens here on earth.

It is the kind of mistake rulers make:

<sup>6</sup>Foolish people are given important positions while rich people are given less important ones.

<sup>7</sup>I have seen servants ride on horses while princes walk beside them on foot.

<sup>8</sup>Anyone who digs a pit might fall into it.
Anyone who knocks down a wall might be bitten by a snake.

<sup>9</sup>Anyone who moves large stones might be hurt by them.

And anyone who cuts logs might get hurt while doing it.

<sup>10</sup>Cutting logs with a dull ax makes you work harder.

A wise man will sharpen his ax.

In the same way, wisdom can make any job easier.

<sup>11</sup>Someone might know how to control snakes.

But what good is such wisdom if the snake has already bitten him?

<sup>12</sup>A wise man's words bring him praise.

But a foolish person's words will destroy him.

<sup>13</sup>A foolish person begins by saying something foolish.

In the end he is saying even crazier things.

<sup>14</sup>A foolish person talks too much about what he will do.

No one knows the future.

No one can tell him what will happen after he dies.

He can't even find his way back to town. So he has to wear himself out working.

The Value of Work

<sup>16</sup>How terrible it will be for a country if its king is a child.

How terrible it will be for that country if its leaders have parties all the time.

<sup>17</sup>A country is well off if its king comes from a good family.

It is good for a country

if its leaders control their eating and drinking.

They should eat and drink for strength, not to get drunk.

<sup>18</sup>If a person is lazy and doesn't repair the roof, it will begin to fall.

If he refuses to fix it, the house will leak.

<sup>19</sup>A party makes you feel good.

And wine makes you feel happy.

But both cost you a lot of money.

<sup>20</sup>Don't say or think bad things about the king.

And don't say bad things about rich people even alone in your bedroom.

A little bird might report it to others.

A bird might fly to them and tell all you said.

Boldly Face the Future

11 Do good things everywhere you go.<sup>a</sup> After a while the good you do will return to help you.

<sup>2</sup>Invest what you have in several different businesses.

You don't know what bad things might happen on earth.

<sup>3</sup>If clouds are full of rain, they will pour water on the earth. A tree can fall to the north or south. But it will stay where it falls.

<sup>4</sup>If a person waits for perfect weather, he will never plant his seeds.

And if he is afraid that every cloud will bring rain, he will never harvest his crops.

<sup>5</sup>You don't know where the wind will blow. And you don't know how a baby grows in its mother's body.

In the same way, God certainly made all things.

But you can't understand what he is doing.

<sup>6</sup>Begin planting early in the morning, and don't stop working until evening. This is because you don't know which things you do will succeed.

It is even possible that everything you do will succeed.

Serve God While You Are Young

<sup>7</sup>It is good to be alive to enjoy the light of day.

This is true no matter how long he lives.

But he should also remember this:

You will be dead much longer than you live.

After you are dead, you accomplish nothing.

<sup>9</sup>Young people, enjoy yourselves while you are young.

Be happy while you are young.

Do whatever your heart desires.

Do whatever you want to do.

But remember that God will judge you for everything you do.

<sup>10</sup>So avoid sorrow and sadness.

Forget about all the bad things that happen to you.

This is because the joys of youth pass quickly away.

The Problems of Old Age

- 12 Remember your Creator while you are young.
Your old age is coming when you will have many troubles.
When that time comes,
you won't have much to enjoy.
- <sup>2</sup>When you become old,
the light from the sun, moon and stars will seem dark to you.
It will seem as if the rain clouds never go
away.
- <sup>3</sup>At that time your arms will lose their strength.
Your strong legs will become weak and bent.
Your teeth will fall out so you cannot chew.
Your eyes will not see clearly.
- <sup>4</sup>Your ears will be deaf to the noise in the streets.
You will barely hear singing.
The sound of the millstone grinding your grain will seem very quiet.
But you'll wake up when a bird first starts singing!
- <sup>5</sup>You will fear high places.
And you will be afraid to go for a walk
because you may fall.
Your hair will become white like the flowers on an almond tree.
You will limp along like a grasshopper when you walk.
Your desires will be gone.
Then you will go to your everlasting home.
And people will go to your funeral.
- <sup>6</sup>Remember God before your life is snapped like a silver chain.

- Remember God before your life is broken like a golden bowl.
It will be as useless as a broken bucket at the spring.
It will be no good, like a broken wheel at a water well.
- <sup>7</sup>Your body will become part of the dust of the earth again.
But your spirit will return to God who gave it.
- <sup>8</sup>Everything is useless!
The Teacher says that everything is useless.

Conclusion: Honor God

<sup>9</sup>The Teacher was very wise. He taught the people what he knew. The Teacher very carefully thought about, studied and set in order many wise teachings. <sup>10</sup>The Teacher looked for just the right words. He wrote teachings that are dependable and true.

<sup>11</sup>Words from wise men are like sharp sticks used to guide animals. These words are like nails that have been driven in firmly. They are wise teachings that come from God the Shepherd. <sup>12</sup>So be careful, my son, about other teachings. People are always writing books.
And too much study will make you very tired.

<sup>13</sup>Now, everything has been heard.
Here is my final advice:
Honor God and obey his commands.
This is the most important thing people can do.

<sup>14</sup>God knows everything people do, even the things done in secret.
He knows all the good and all the bad.
He will judge everything people do.

SONG OF SOLOMON

A Love Song

1 Solomon's Greatest Song.

The Woman Speaks to the Man She Loves

<sup>2</sup>Kiss me with the kisses of your mouth!
Your love is better than wine.
<sup>3</sup>The smell of your perfume is pleasant.
Your name is pleasant like expensive perfume!
That's why the young women love you.
<sup>4</sup>Take me with you; let's run.
The king takes me into his rooms.

Friends Speak to the Man

We will rejoice and be happy with you.
We praise your love more than wine.

The Woman Speaks

With good reason, the young women love you, my lover.
<sup>5</sup>I'm dark but lovely, women of Jerusalem.
I'm dark like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.
<sup>6</sup>Don't look at how dark I am, at how dark the sun has made me.
My brothers were angry with me.
They made me tend the vineyards.
So I haven't tended my own vineyard!
<sup>7</sup>Tell me, you whom I love, where do you feed your sheep?
Where do you make them rest at noon?
Why should I look for you near your friend's sheep?
Am I like a woman who wears a veil?<sup>a</sup>

The Man Speaks to the Woman

<sup>8</sup>You are the most beautiful of women.
Surely you know to follow the sheep.
Feed your young goats
near the shepherds' tents.
<sup>9</sup>My darling, you are like a mare that pulls the king's chariots.
<sup>10</sup>Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments.
Your neck is beautiful with jewels.
<sup>11</sup>We will make for you gold earrings with silver hooks.

<sup>a</sup>ell This was the way a prostitute usually dressed.

The Woman Speaks

<sup>12</sup>The smell of my perfume spreads out to the king on his couch.
<sup>13</sup>My lover is like a bag of myrrh<sup>d</sup> that lies all night between my breasts.
<sup>14</sup>My lover is like a bunch of flowers from the vineyards at En Gedi.

The Man Speaks

<sup>15</sup>My darling, you are beautiful!
Oh, you are beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves!

The Woman Answers the Man

<sup>16</sup>You are so handsome, my lover.
You are so pleasant!
Our bed is the grass.
<sup>17</sup>The boards of our house are cedar trees.
And the wood of our ceiling is juniper trees.

The Woman Speaks Again

2 I am a rose in the Plain of Sharon.
I am a lily in the valleys.

The Man Speaks Again

<sup>2</sup>Among the young women, my darling is like a lily among thorns!

The Woman Answers

<sup>3</sup>Among young men, my lover is like an apple tree among the trees in the woods!
I enjoy sitting in his shadow.
His fruit is sweet to my taste.
<sup>4</sup>He brought me to the banquet room.
His banner over me is love.
<sup>5</sup>Strengthen me with raisins.
Refresh me with apples,
because I am weak with love.
<sup>6</sup>My lover's left hand is under my head.
And his right arm holds me tight!

The Woman Speaks to the Friends

<sup>7</sup>Women of Jerusalem, promise me
by the gazelles<sup>d</sup> and the deer.
Promise not to wake love.
Don't excite my feelings of love

until I'm ready.

The Woman Speaks Again

- <sup>8</sup>I hear my lover's voice.
He comes jumping across the mountains.
He comes skipping over the hills!
<sup>9</sup>My lover is like a gazelle<sup>d</sup> or a young deer.
Look, he stands behind our wall.
He stares in through the windows,
looking through the blinds.
<sup>10</sup>My lover spoke. He said to me,
"Get up, my darling.
Let's go away, my beautiful one."
<sup>11</sup>Look, the winter is past.
The rains are over and gone.
<sup>12</sup>Blossoms appear through all the land.
The time has come to sing.
The cooing of doves is heard in our land.
<sup>13</sup>There are young figs on the fig trees.
The blossoms on the vines smell sweet.
Get up, my darling.
Let's go away, my beautiful one."

The Man Speaks

- <sup>14</sup>My beloved is like a dove that hides in the cracks of the rock.
She hides in the secret places of the cliff.
Show me your face.
Let me hear your voice.
Your voice is very sweet,
and your face is lovely.
<sup>15</sup>Catch the foxes for us—
the little foxes that ruin the vineyards.
Our vineyards are in blossom.

The Woman Speaks

- <sup>16</sup>My lover is mine, and I am his.
He feeds among the lilies
<sup>17</sup>until the day dawns
and the shadows disappear.
Turn, my lover.
Be like a gazelle<sup>d</sup> or a young deer on the rugged mountains.

The Woman Dreams

- 3 At night on my bed,
I looked for the one I love.
I looked for him, but I could not find
him.
<sup>2</sup>I will get up now. I will go around the city,
in the streets and squares.
I will look for the one I love.
I looked for him, but I could not find
him.

<sup>3</sup>The watchmen found me as they patrolled
the city.

I asked, "Have you seen the one I love?"

<sup>4</sup>As soon as I had left them
I found the one I love.

I held him. I would not let him go until I had brought him to my mother's house.

I brought him into the room where I was born.

The Woman Speaks to the Friends

- <sup>5</sup>Women of Jerusalem, promise me
by the gazelles<sup>d</sup> and the deer.
Promise not to wake love.
Don't excite my feelings of love
until I'm ready.
<sup>6</sup>Who is this coming out of the desert like a cloud of smoke?
Who is this that smells like myrrh,<sup>d</sup> incense<sup>d</sup>
and other spices?
<sup>7</sup>Look, it's Solomon's couch<sup>a</sup> with 60 soldiers around it.
They are the finest soldiers of Israel.
<sup>8</sup>These soldiers all carry swords.
They have been trained in war.
Every man wears his sword at his side.
He is ready for the dangers of the night.
<sup>9</sup>King Solomon had a couch made for himself.
It is made of wood from Lebanon.
<sup>10</sup>He made its posts of silver and its braces of gold.
The seat was covered with purple cloth.
The women of Jerusalem wove it with
love.
<sup>11</sup>Women of Jerusalem, go out and see King Solomon.
He is wearing the crown his mother put on his head.
It was his wedding day,
when his heart was happy!

The Man Speaks to the Woman

- 4 How beautiful you are, my darling!
Oh, you are beautiful!
Your eyes behind your veil are like doves.
Your hair is like a flock of goats streaming down Mount Gilead.
<sup>2</sup>Your teeth are white like newly-sheared sheep
just coming from their bath.
Each one has a twin.
None of them is alone.

<sup>a</sup>couch Something like a bed carried by slaves on which the king lay or sat while traveling.

<sup>3</sup>Your lips are like red silk thread.
Your mouth is lovely.
Your cheeks behind your veil
are like slices of a pomegranate.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Your neck looks like David's tower.
The tower was built with rows of stones.
A thousand shields hang on its walls.
Each shield belongs to a strong soldier.

<sup>5</sup>Your breasts are like two fawns.
They are like twins of a gazelle,<sup>d</sup> eating among the lilies.

<sup>6</sup>Until the day dawns
and the shadows disappear,
I will go to that mountain of myrrh.<sup>d</sup>
And I will go to that hill of incense.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>7</sup>My darling, everything about you is beautiful.
There is nothing at all wrong with you.

<sup>8</sup>Come with me from Lebanon, my bride.
Come with me from Lebanon.
Come from the top of Mount Amana, from the tops of Mount Senir and Mount Hermon.
Come from the lions' dens and from the leopards' hills.

<sup>9</sup>My sister, my bride,
you have thrilled my heart.
You have thrilled my heart
with a glance of your eyes, with one jewel from your necklace.

<sup>10</sup>Your love is so sweet, my sister, my bride!
Your love is better than wine.
Your perfume smells better than any spice.

<sup>11</sup>My bride, your lips drip honey.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
Your clothes smell like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>12</sup>My sister, my bride, you are like a garden locked up.
You are like a spring with a wall around it, a fountain that is closed.

<sup>13</sup>Your limbs are like an orchard of pomegranates and all the best fruit.
It is filled with flowers and nard.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>14</sup>It also has saffron,<sup>d</sup> calamus<sup>d</sup> and cinnamon.
It is filled with trees of incense, myrrh and aloes<sup>d</sup>— all the best spices.

<sup>15</sup>You are like a garden fountain—a well of fresh water flowing down from the mountains of Lebanon.

The Woman Speaks

<sup>16</sup>Awake, north wind!

Come, you south wind!
Blow on my garden.
Let its sweet smells flow out.
Let my lover enter the garden.
And let him eat its best fruits.

The Man Speaks

5 I have entered my garden, my sister, my bride.
I have gathered my myrrh<sup>d</sup> with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey.
I have drunk my wine and my milk.

The Friends Speak

Eat, friends, and drink.
Yes, drink deeply, lovers.

The Woman Dreams

<sup>2</sup>I sleep, but my heart is awake.
I hear my lover knocking.
"Open to me, my sister, my darling,
my dove, my perfect one.
My head is wet with dew.
And my hair is wet with the dampness of the night."

<sup>3</sup>I have taken off my garment.
I don't want to put it on again!
I have washed my feet.
I don't want to get them dirty again!

<sup>4</sup>My lover put his hand through the door opening.
I felt excited inside.

<sup>5</sup>I got up to open the door for my lover.
Myrrh<sup>d</sup> was dripping from my hands.
Myrrh was flowing from my fingers, onto the handles of the lock.

<sup>6</sup>I opened the door for my lover.
But my lover had left. He was gone.
When he had spoken, he had taken my breath away.

I looked for him, but I could not find him.
I called for him, but he did not answer
me.

<sup>7</sup>The watchmen found me as they patrolled the city.
They hit me; they hurt me.
The guards on the wall took away my coat.

<sup>8</sup>I tell you, women of Jerusalem, if you find my lover,
tell him I am weak with love.

The Friends Answer the Woman

<sup>9</sup>Is your lover better than other lovers, you, the most beautiful of women?

Is your lover better than other lovers?
Is that why you talk like this?

The Woman Answers the Friends

- <sup>10</sup>My love is clean and tanned.
He's the best of 10,000 men.
<sup>11</sup>His head is like the finest gold.
His hair is wavy and black like a raven.
<sup>12</sup>His eyes are like doves by springs of water.
They seem to be bathed in cream.
They are set like jewels.
<sup>13</sup>His cheeks are like garden beds of spices.
They smell like mounds of perfume.
His lips are like lilies flowing with myrrh.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>His hands are like gold hinges, filled with jewels.
His body is like smooth ivory covered with sapphires.
<sup>15</sup>His legs are like large marble posts, standing on bases of fine gold.
He is tall like a cedar of Lebanon—like the best cedar trees.
<sup>16</sup>His mouth is sweet to kiss.
I desire him very much.
Yes, daughters of Jerusalem,
this is my lover.
This is my friend.

The Friends Speak to the Woman

6 Where has your lover gone, most beautiful of women?
Which way did your lover turn?
We will look for him with you.

The Woman Answers the Friends

- <sup>2</sup>My lover has gone down to his garden.
He has gone to the garden beds of spices to feed in the gardens and to gather lilies.
<sup>3</sup>I belong to my lover.
And my lover belongs to me.
He feeds among the lilies.

The Man Speaks to the Woman

- <sup>4</sup>My darling, you are as beautiful as the city of Tirzah.
You are as lovely as the city of Jerusalem.
You are as wonderful as an army flying flags.
<sup>5</sup>Turn your eyes from me.
They excite me too much!
Your hair is like a flock of goats
streaming down Mount Gilead.
<sup>6</sup>Your teeth are white like sheep
just coming from their bath.

Each one has a twin.

None of them is alone.

- <sup>7</sup>Your cheeks behind your veil
are like slices of a pomegranate.<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>There may be 60 queens and 80 slave women<sup>d</sup> and so many girls you cannot count
them.
<sup>9</sup>But there is only one like my dove, my perfect one.
She is her mother's only daughter, the brightest of the one who gave her birth.
The young women saw her and called her happy.
The queens and the slave women also praised her.

The Young Women Praise the Woman

- <sup>10</sup>Who is that young woman?
She shines out like the dawn.
She's as pretty as the moon.
She's as bright as the sun.
And she's as wonderful as an army flying flags.

The Man Speaks

- <sup>11</sup>I went down into the orchard of nut trees.
I went to see the blossoms of the valley.
I went to look for buds on the vines, to see if the pomegranate<sup>d</sup> trees had bloomed.
<sup>12</sup>My desire for you makes me feel like a prince in a chariot.

The Friends Call to the Woman

- <sup>13</sup>Come back, come back, woman of Shulam.
Come back, come back,
so we may look at you!

The Woman Answers the Friends

Why do you want to look at the woman of Shulam
as you would at the dance of two groups?

The Man Speaks to the Woman

- 7 Your feet are beautiful in sandals, you daughter of a prince.
Your round thighs are like jewels shaped by an artist.
<sup>2</sup>Your navel is like a round drinking cup always filled with wine.
Your stomach is like a pile of wheat with lilies around it like a fence.
<sup>3</sup>Your breasts are like two fawns.
They are like twins of a gazelle.<sup>d</sup>

- <sup>4</sup>Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon near the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.
- <sup>5</sup>Your head is like Mount Carmel.
And your hair is like purple cloth.
The king is captured in its folds.
- <sup>6</sup>You are beautiful.
You are very pleasant.
My love, you are full of delights!
- <sup>7</sup>You are tall like a palm tree.
Your breasts are like its bunches of fruit.
- <sup>8</sup>I said, "I will climb up the palm tree.
I will take hold of its fruit."
Let your breasts be like bunches of grapes.
Let the smell of your breath be like apples.
- <sup>9</sup> And let your mouth be like the best wine.

The Woman Speaks to the Man

- Let this wine go down sweetly for my lover.
May it flow gently past the lips and teeth.
- <sup>10</sup>I belong to my lover,
and he desires only me.
- <sup>11</sup>Come, my lover.
Let's go out into the country.
Let's spend the night in the fields.
- <sup>12</sup>Let's go early to the vineyards.
Let's see if the buds are on the vines.
Let's see if the blossoms have already opened and if the pomegranates<sup>a</sup> have bloomed.
There I will give you my love.
- <sup>13</sup>The mandrake flowers give their sweet smell.
And at our gates there are all the best fruits.
- I have saved them for you, my lover,
the old delights and the new.
- 8 I wish you were like my brother who was fed at my mother's breasts!
If I found you outside,
I would kiss you.
And no one would look down on me.
- <sup>2</sup>I would lead you and bring you to my mother's house.
She is the one who has taught me.
I would give you a drink of spiced wine from my pomegranates.

The Woman Speaks to the Friends

- <sup>3</sup>My lover's left hand is under my head.
And his right arm holds me tight!
- <sup>4</sup>Women of Jerusalem, promise me.
Promise not to wake love.
Don't excite my feelings of love
until I'm ready.

The Friends Speak

- <sup>5</sup>Who is this coming out of the desert, leaning on her lover?

The Man Speaks to the Woman

- I woke you under the apple tree.
It was there that you were born.
There your mother gave birth to you.
- <sup>6</sup>Put me like a seal on your heart,
like a seal on your arm.
Love is as strong as death.
Desire is as strong as the grave.
Love bursts into flames.
It burns like a very hot fire.
- <sup>7</sup>Even much water cannot put out the flame of love.
Floods cannot drown love.
If a man offered everything in his house for
love,
people would totally reject it.

The Woman's Brothers Speak

- <sup>8</sup>We have a little sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.
What should we do for our sister on the day she becomes engaged?
- <sup>9</sup>If she is a wall,
we will put silver towers on her.
If she is a door,
we will protect her with cedar boards.

The Woman Speaks

- <sup>10</sup>I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers.
So I was to him,
as one who brings happiness.
- <sup>11</sup>Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.
He rented the vineyards for others to tend.
Everyone who rented had to pay 25 pounds of silver for the fruit.
- <sup>12</sup>But my own vineyard is mine to give.
Solomon, the 25 pounds of silver are for
you.
And 5 pounds are for those who tend the fruit.

The Man Speaks to the Woman

<sup>13</sup>You who live in the gardens, my friends are listening for your voice.
Let me hear it!

The Woman Speaks to the Man

<sup>14</sup>Hurry, my lover.
Be like a gazelle<sup>d</sup> or a young deer
on the mountains where spices grow.

ISAIAH

God's Message in Troubled Times

A

1 This is the vision Isaiah son of Amoz saw. God showed Isaiah what would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. Isaiah saw these things while Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah were kings of Judah.

God Finds Fault with His People

<sup>2</sup>Heaven and earth, listen, because the Lord is speaking:

"I raised my children and helped them grow.

But they have turned against me.

<sup>3</sup>An ox knows its master.

And a donkey knows where its owner feeds it.

But the people of Israel do not know me.
My people do not understand."

<sup>4</sup>Terrible times are coming for Israel, a nation of sin.

The people are loaded down with guilt.
They are like a group of children doing
evil.

They are full of evil.

They have left the Lord.

They hate God, the Holy One of Israel.
They have turned away from him.

<sup>5</sup>Why should you continue to be punished?

Why do you continue to turn against
him?

Your whole head is hurt.

And your whole heart is sick.

<sup>6</sup>There is no healthy spot from the bottom of your foot to the top of your head.

You are covered with wounds, hurts and open sores.

Your wounds are not cleaned and covered.
No medicine takes away the pain.

<sup>7</sup>Your land is ruined.

Your cities have been burned with fire.

While you watch,
your enemies are stealing everything from your land.

Your land is ruined like a country destroyed by enemies.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem is left alone like an empty shelter in a vineyard.

It is like a hut left in a field of melons.

It is like a city surrounded by enemies.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies allowed a few of our people to live.

Otherwise we would have been completely destroyed like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>10</sup>Jerusalem, your rulers are like those of Sodom.

Your people are like those of Gomorrah.
Hear the word of the Lord.

Listen to the teachings of our God!

<sup>11</sup>The Lord says,

"I do not want all these sacrifices you give me.

I have had enough of your sacrifices of male sheep and fat from fine animals.
I am not pleased
by the blood of bulls, sheep and goats.

<sup>12</sup>You come to meet with me.

But who asked you to do all this running in and out?

<sup>13</sup>Don't continue bringing me worthless sacrifices!

I hate the incense<sup>d</sup> you burn.

I can't stand your New Moons,<sup>d</sup> Sabbaths<sup>d</sup> and other feast days.

I can't stand the evil you do in holding your holy meetings.

<sup>14</sup>I hate your New Moon feasts and your other yearly feasts.

They have become like heavy weights on
me.

I am tired of carrying them.

<sup>15</sup>You will raise your arms in prayer to me.

But I will refuse to look at you.

Even if you say many prayers,
I will not listen to you.

It's because your hands are full of blood.

<sup>16</sup>Wash yourselves and make yourselves clean.<sup>d</sup>

Stop doing the evil things I see you do.
Stop doing wrong!

<sup>17</sup>Learn to do good.

Be fair to other people.

Punish those who hurt others.

Help the orphans.

Stand up for the rights of widows."

<sup>18</sup>The Lord says,

"Come, we will talk these things over.

Your sins are red like deep red cloth.
 But they can be as white as snow.
 Your sins are bright red.
 But you can be white like wool.
<sup>19</sup>If you will obey me,
 you will eat good crops from the land.
<sup>20</sup>But if you refuse to obey and if you turn against me,
 you will be destroyed by your enemies'
 swords."
 The Lord himself said these things.

Jerusalem Is Not Loyal to God

<sup>21</sup>The city of Jerusalem once followed the Lord.
 But she is no longer loyal to the Lord.
 She used to be filled with fairness.
 People there lived the way God wanted.
 But now, murderers live there.
<sup>22</sup>Jerusalem, you have become like the scum left when silver is purified.
 You are like wine mixed with water.
<sup>23</sup>Your rulers are rebels.
 They are friends of thieves.
 They all accept money for doing wrong
 things.
 They are paid to cheat people.
 They don't try to help the orphans.
 And they don't listen to the widows' needs.
<sup>24</sup>The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says:
 "You, my enemies, will not cause me any more trouble.
 I will pay you back for what you did.
<sup>25</sup>I will turn against you.
 I will clean away all your wrongs as if with soap.
 I will take all the worthless things out of
 you.
<sup>26</sup>I will bring back judges as you had long ago.
 Your counselors will be like the ones you had in the beginning.
 Then you will be called the City That Is Right with God.
 You will be called the Loyal City."
<sup>27</sup>Because the Lord does what is fair, he will rescue Jerusalem.
 Because the Lord does what is right,
 he will save her people who come back
 to him.
<sup>28</sup>But sinners and those who turn against him will be destroyed.
 Those who have left the Lord will die.
<sup>29</sup>"You will be ashamed because you have worshiped false gods under the oak trees.

 You will be disgraced because you have worshiped idols in your gardens.
<sup>30</sup>You will be like an oak whose leaves are dying.
 You will be like a garden without water.
<sup>31</sup>Powerful people will be like small, dry pieces of wood.
 And what they do will be like sparks.
 The people and what they do will burn
 together.
 And no one will be able to stop that fire."

The Message About Jerusalem

2 Isaiah son of Amoz saw this message about Judah and Jerusalem.
<sup>2</sup>In the last days the mountain on which the Lord's Temple<sup>d</sup> stands will become the most important of all
 mountains.
 It will be raised above the hills.
 And people from all nations will come streaming to it.
<sup>3</sup>Many nations will come and say,
 "Come, let us go up to the mountain of
 the Lord.
 Let us go to the Temple of the God of Jacob.
 Then God will teach us his ways.
 And we will obey his teachings."
 The Lord's teachings will go out from
 Jerusalem.
 The Lord's message will go out from
 Jerusalem.
<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord will settle arguments among many nations.
 He will make decisions for strong nations
 that are far away.
 Then the nations will make their swords
 into plows.
 They will make their spears into hooks for trimming trees.
 Nations will no longer fight other nations.
 They will not even train for war
 anymore.
<sup>5</sup>Come, family of Jacob.
 We should follow the way of the Lord.
A Terrible Day Is Coming <sup>6</sup>Lord, you have left your people, the family of Jacob.

- They have become filled with wrong ideas from people in the East.
Your people try to tell the future like the Philistines.
They have completely accepted those foreign ideas.
- <sup>7</sup>Their land has been filled with silver and gold.
There are a great many treasures there.
Their land has been filled with horses.
There are many chariots there.
- <sup>8</sup>Their land is full of idols.
The people worship these idols that they made with their own hands.
They worship statues shaped by their fingers.
- <sup>9</sup>People will not be proud any longer.
They will bow low with shame.
God, do not forgive them.
- <sup>10</sup>Go into the caves of the cliffs.
Dig holes and hide in the ground.
Hide from the anger of the Lord and from his great power!
- <sup>11</sup>Proud people will stop being proud.
They will bow low with shame.
At that time only the Lord will still be praised.
- <sup>12</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies has a certain day planned.
On that day he will punish the proud and those who brag.
They will no longer be important.
- <sup>13</sup>He will bring down the tall cedar trees from Lebanon.
He will destroy the great oak trees of Bashan.
- <sup>14</sup>He will destroy all the tall mountains and the high hills.
- <sup>15</sup>He will knock down every tall tower and every high, strong wall.
- <sup>16</sup>He will sink all the trading ships.
And he will destroy the beautiful ships.
- <sup>17</sup>At that time proud people will stop being proud.
They will bow low with shame.
And at that time only the Lord will be praised.
- <sup>18</sup> But all the idols will be gone.
- <sup>19</sup>People will run to caves in the rocky cliffs.
They will dig holes and hide in the
ground.
They will hide from the anger of the Lord
and his great power.
They will do this when the Lord stands
to shake the earth.
- <sup>20</sup>At that time people will throw away their gold and silver idols.
They made these idols for themselves to worship.
But they will throw them away to the bats and moles.
- <sup>21</sup>Then the people will hide in caves and cracks in the rocks.
They will hide from the anger of the Lord
and his great power.
They will do this when the Lord stands
to shake the earth.
- <sup>22</sup>You should stop trusting in people to save
you.
People are only human.
They aren't able to help you.

God Will Punish Judah and Jerusalem

- 3 Understand what I am telling you.
The Master, the Lord of heaven's
armies,
will take away everything Judah and Jerusalem need.
He will take away all the food and water.
- <sup>2</sup>He will take away all the heroes and great soldiers.
He will take away all the judges, prophets,<sup>d</sup>
people who do magic and older leaders.
- <sup>3</sup>He will take away the military leaders and government leaders.
He will take away the counselors, the skilled craftsmen and those who try to tell the future.
- <sup>4</sup>The Lord says, "I will cause young boys to be your leaders.
Foolish children will rule over you.
- <sup>5</sup>Everyone will be against everyone else.
Young people will not respect older
people.
Common people will not respect
important people."
- <sup>6</sup>At that time a man will grab one of his brothers
from his own family and say,
"You have a coat. So you will be our leader.
You will be the leader over all these ruins."
- <sup>7</sup>But that brother will stand up and say,
"I cannot help you.
I do not have food or clothes in my house.
You will not make me your leader."
- <sup>8</sup>This will happen because Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen.

The things they say and do are against the Lord.
 They sin openly against the Lord.
 9The look on their faces shows they are guilty of doing wrong.
 Like the people of Sodom, they are proud of their sin.
 They don't care who sees it.
 How terrible it will be for them!
 They have brought much trouble to themselves.
 10Tell the good people that good things will happen to them.
 They will receive a reward for the good they do.
 11But how terrible it will be for wicked people!
 They will be punished for all the wrong they have done.
 12Children treat my people cruelly.
 Women rule over them.
 My people, your guides lead you in the wrong way.
 They turn you away from what is right.
 13The Lord takes his place in court.
 He stands to judge the people.
 14The Lord presents his case against the older leaders and other leaders of his people.
 He says, "You have burned my vineyard.
 Your houses are full of what you took from the poor."
 15What gives you the right to crush my people?
 How can you grind the faces of the poor into the dirt?"
 The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, said this.

A Warning to Women of Jerusalem

16The Lord says,
 "The women of Jerusalem are proud.
 They walk around with their heads held high.
 They flirt with their eyes.
 They take quick, short steps, making noise with their ankle bracelets."
 17So the Lord will put sores on the heads of those women in Jerusalem.
 He will make them lose all their hair.
 18At that time the Lord will take away everything that makes them proud. He will take away their beautiful ankle bracelets, their headbands and their necklaces shaped like the moon.
 19He will take away their earrings, bracelets and veils. 20He will take away their scarves, ankle chains, the cloth belts worn around their waists, their bottles of perfume and charms. 21He will take away their signet rings, nose rings, 22their fine robes, capes, shawls and purses. 23And he will take away their mirrors, linen dresses, turbans and long shawls.

24Instead of having sweet-smelling perfume, they will stink.
 Instead of fine cloth belts, they will have ropes of captives to wear.
 Instead of having their hair fixed in fancy ways, they will be bald.
 Instead of fine clothes, they will have rough clothes of sadness.
 Instead of having beauty, they will have the brand of a captive.
 25At that time your men will be killed with swords.
 Your heroes will die in war.
 26There will be crying and sadness in the meeting places near the city gates.
 Jerusalem will be like a woman who has lost everything and sits on the ground.

4 At that time seven women will grab one man.
 They will say, "We will make our own bread.
 And we will make our own clothes.
 But please marry us!
 Please, take away our shame."

The Branch of the Lord

2At that time the Lord's branch will be very beautiful and great. The people still living in Israel will be proud of what the land grows.
 3All the people who are still living in Jerusalem will be called holy. This will be all the people whose names are recorded among the living in Jerusalem. 4The Lord will wash away the filth from the women of Jerusalem. He will wash the bloodstains out of Jerusalem. He will clean Jerusalem with the spirit of fairness and the spirit of fire. 5As he did when Israel left Egypt, the Lord will cover them with a cloud of smoke during the day. And he will cover them with a bright, flaming fire at night. These proofs will be over Mount Zion. 6They will be over every meeting of the people there. There will be a covering over every person. 7This covering will be a place of safety. It will protect the people from the heat of the sun. It will be a safe place to hide from the storm and rain.

Israel, God's Special Field

5 Now I will sing a song to my friend. This song is about his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard on a hill with very rich soil.

<sup>2</sup>He dug and cleared the field of stones.

He planted the best grapevines there.

And he built a tower in the middle of it.

He cut out a winepress<sup>d</sup> as well.

He hoped good grapes would grow there.

But only bad grapes grew.

<sup>3</sup>My friend says, "You people living in Jerusalem,

and you men of Judah,
judge between me and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup>What more could I have done for my vineyard?

I did everything I could.

I hoped for good grapes to grow.

But why were there only bad grapes?

<sup>5</sup>Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard:

I will remove the hedge,
and it will be burned.

I will break down the stone wall,
and it will be walked on.

<sup>6</sup>I will ruin my field.

It will not be trimmed or hoed.

Weeds and thorns will grow there.

I will command the clouds not to rain on it."

<sup>7</sup>The vineyard belonging to the Lord of heaven's armies

is the nation of Israel.

The garden that the Lord loves is the men of Judah.

The Lord looked for justice, but there was only killing.

The Lord hoped for right living, but there were only cries of pain.

<sup>8</sup>How terrible it will be for you who add more houses to your houses and more fields to your fields.

Finally there is no room left for other
people.

Then you are left alone in the land.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies said this to me:

"The fine houses will be destroyed.

The large and beautiful houses will be left empty.

<sup>10</sup>At that time a ten-acre vineyard will make only six gallons of wine.

And ten bushels of seed will grow only half a bushel of grain."

<sup>11</sup>How terrible it will be for people who rise early in the morning to look for strong drink.

They stay awake late at night, becoming drunk with wine.

<sup>12</sup>At their parties they have lyres,<sup>d</sup> harps, tambourines,<sup>d</sup> flutes and wine.

They don't see what the Lord has done.

They don't notice the work of his hands.

<sup>13</sup>So my people will be captured and taken
away

because they don't really know me.

All the great men will die of hunger.

The common people will die of thirst.

<sup>14</sup>So the place where the dead are wants more and more people.

It opens its mouth wide.

Jerusalem's important men will go down into it.

And the common people will go down
into it.

<sup>15</sup>So the common people and the great people will be humbled.

Those who are proud will be humbled.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies will receive glory by judging fairly.

The holy God will show himself holy by doing what is right.

<sup>17</sup>Then the sheep will go anywhere they want.

Lambs will feed on the land that rich people once owned.

<sup>18</sup>How terrible it will be for those people!
They pull their guilt and sins behind
them

as people pull wagons with ropes.

<sup>19</sup>They say, "Let's see God hurry.

Let's see him do his work soon.

We want to see it.

Let's see the plan of the Holy One of Israel happen soon.

Then we would know what it really is."

<sup>20</sup>How terrible it will be for people who call good things bad and bad things good.

They think darkness is light and light is darkness.

They think sour is sweet and sweet is sour.

<sup>21</sup>How terrible it will be for people who think they are wise.

They think they are clever.

<sup>22</sup>How terrible it will be for people who are famous for drinking wine.

They are champions at mixing drinks.

- <sup>23</sup>They take money to set the guilty free.
But they don't allow good people to be judged fairly.
- <sup>24</sup>They will be destroyed
just as fire burns straw or dry grass.
They will be destroyed like a plant whose roots rot and whose flower dies and blows away like dust.
They have refused to obey the teachings of the Lord of heaven's armies.
They hated the message from the Holy God of Israel.
- <sup>25</sup>So the Lord has become very angry with his people.
And he has raised his hand to punish them.
Even the mountains are frightened.
Dead bodies lie in the streets like garbage.
But the Lord is still angry.
His hand is still raised to strike down the people.
- <sup>26</sup>God raises a banner for the nations far away.
He is whistling to call those people.
The enemy comes quickly!
- <sup>27</sup>Not one of them becomes tired or falls down.
Not one of them gets sleepy and falls asleep.
Their weapons are close at hand.
Their sandal straps are not broken.
- <sup>28</sup>Their arrows are sharp.
All of their bows are ready to shoot.
The horses' hoofs are hard as rock.
Their chariot wheels move like a whirlwind.
- <sup>29</sup>Their shout is like the roar of a lion.
It is loud like a young lion.
The enemy growls as they grab their captives.
There is no one to stop them from taking their captives away.
- <sup>30</sup>On that day they will roar like the waves of the sea.
And when people look at the land, they will see only darkness and pain.
All light will become dark in this thick cloud.

Isaiah Becomes a Prophet

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a very high throne. His long robe filled the Temple.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Burning heavenly creatures stood above him. Each creature had six wings. They used two wings to cover their faces. They used two wings to cover their feet. And they used two wings for flying. <sup>3</sup>Each creature was calling to the others:

"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of heaven's armies.

His glory fills the whole earth."

<sup>5</sup>I said, "Oh, no! I will be destroyed. I am not pure. And I live among people who are not pure. But I have seen the King, the Lord of heaven's armies."

<sup>6</sup>On the altar there was a fire. One of the burning heavenly creatures used a pair of tongs to take a hot coal from the fire. Then he flew to me with the hot coal in his hand. <sup>7</sup>The creature touched my mouth with the hot coal. Then he said, "Look. Your guilt is taken away because this hot coal has touched your lips. Your sin is taken away."

<sup>8</sup>Then I heard the Lord's voice. He said, "Whom can I send? Who will go for us?"

So I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said, "Go and tell this to the people:

'You will listen and listen, but you will not understand.

You will look and look, but you will not learn.'

<sup>10</sup>Make these people stubborn.

Make them not able to understand what they hear and see.

Otherwise, they might really understand what they see with their eyes and hear with their ears.

They might really understand in their minds.

If they did this, they would come back to me and be forgiven."

<sup>11</sup>Then I asked, "Lord, how long should I do this?"

He answered,

"Do this until the cities are destroyed and the people are gone.

Do this until there are no people left living in the houses.

Do this until the land is destroyed and left empty.

<sup>12</sup>I will send the people far away.

And the land will be left empty.

<sup>13</sup>One-tenth of the people will be left in the land.

But the land will be destroyed again. These people will be like an oak tree.

When the tree is chopped down, a stump is left.

The people who remain will be like a stump that will sprout again."

Trouble with Aram

7 Now Ahaz was the son of Jotham, who was the son of Uzziah. When Ahaz was king of Judah, Rezin and Pekah went up to Jerusalem to fight against it. Rezin was king of Aram. And Pekah son of Remaliah was king of Israel. But they were not able to defeat the city.

<sup>2</sup>A message was told to Ahaz king of Judah. It said, "The armies of Aram and Israel<sup>a</sup> have joined together."

When Ahaz heard this, he and the people became very frightened. They shook with fear like trees of the forest blown by the wind.

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord told Isaiah, "You and your son Shear-Jashub should go out and talk to Ahaz. Go to the place where the water flows into the upper pool. This is on the road to the Washerman's Field. <sup>4</sup>Tell Ahaz, 'Be careful. Be calm, and don't be afraid. Don't let those two men, Rezin and Remaliah's son Pekah, scare you. Don't be afraid of their anger and Aram's anger. Those two men are as weak as two barely burning sticks that are ready to go out. <sup>5</sup>They have made plans against you. They said, <sup>6</sup>'Let's fight against Judah and tear it apart. We will divide Judah for ourselves. We will make the son of Tabeel the new king of Judah.'" <sup>7</sup>But I, the Lord God, say,

Their plan will not succeed.

It will not happen

<sup>8</sup>because Aram is led by the city of Damascus.

And Damascus is led by its weak king, Rezin.

Within 65 years Israel will no longer be a nation.

<sup>9</sup>Israel is led by the city of Samaria, and Samaria is led by its weak king, the son of Remaliah.

If your faith is not strong, then you will not have strength to last.' "

Immanuel—God Is with Us

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Ahaz again. <sup>11</sup>The Lord said, "Ask for a sign to prove to yourself that these things are true. It may be a sign from as deep as the place where the dead are or as high as the heavens."

<sup>12</sup>But Ahaz said, "I will not ask for a sign. I will not test the Lord."

<sup>13</sup>Then Isaiah said, "Ahaz, descendant<sup>d</sup> of David, listen very carefully! Isn't it bad enough that you wear out the patience of people? Do you have to wear out the patience of my God also? <sup>14</sup>But the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin<sup>n</sup> will be pregnant. She will have a son, and she will name him Immanuel.<sup>n</sup> <sup>15</sup>He will be eating milk curds and honey when he learns to reject what is evil and to choose what is good. <sup>16</sup>You are afraid of the kings of Israel and Aram now. But before the child learns what is good and what is evil, the lands of Israel and Aram will be empty. <sup>17</sup>The Lord will bring some troubled times to you. Those troubles will come to your people and to the people of your father's family. The Lord will bring the king of Assyria to fight against you.

<sup>18</sup>"At that time the Lord will whistle to call for the Egyptians. And they will come like flies from the streams of Egypt. The Lord will call for the Assyrians. And they will come like bees from the land of Assyria. <sup>19</sup>These enemies will camp in the deep ravines and in the cliffs. They will camp by the thornbushes and watering holes. <sup>20</sup>The Lord will use Assyria to punish Judah. Assyria will be hired and used like a razor. It will be as if the Lord is shaving the hair from Judah's head and legs and is shaving off Judah's beard.

<sup>21</sup>"At that time a person will be able to keep only one young cow and two sheep alive. <sup>22</sup>There will be only enough milk for that person to eat milk curds. All who remain in the land will go back to eating only milk curds and honey. <sup>23</sup>In this land there are now vineyards that have 1,000 grapevines. These grapevines are worth about 25 pounds of silver. But these fields will become full of weeds and thorns. <sup>24</sup>The land will become wild and useful only as a hunting ground. <sup>25</sup>People once worked and grew food on these hills. But at that time people will not go there. The land will be filled with weeds and thorns. Only sheep and cattle will go to those places."

Assyria Will Come Soon

8 The Lord told me, "Take a large scroll on which to write. Use a pen to write these words: 'Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.'<sup>a</sup> 2I will gather some men to be reliable witnesses. They will be Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberehiah."

<sup>3</sup>Then I went to the prophetess.<sup>d</sup> She became pregnant and had a son. Then the Lord told me, "Name the boy Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. <sup>4</sup>The king of Assyria will take away all the wealth and possessions of Damascus and Samaria. This will happen before the boy learns to say 'my father' or 'my mother.'"

<sup>5</sup>Again the Lord spoke to me. <sup>6</sup>He said, "These people refuse to accept the slow-moving waters of the pool of Shiloah.

These people are terrified of Rezin and Remaliah's son Pekah.

<sup>7</sup>So I, the Lord, will bring the king of Assyria and all his power against them.

They will come like a powerful flood of water from the Euphrates River.

The Assyrians will be like water rising over the banks of the river, flowing over the land.

<sup>8</sup>That water will flow into Judah and pass through it.

It will rise to Judah's throat.

Immanuel, this army will spread its wings like a bird until it covers your whole country."

<sup>9</sup>Be broken, all you nations.

Be smashed to pieces.

Listen, all you faraway countries.

Prepare for battle and be smashed to pieces!

Prepare for battle and be smashed to pieces!

<sup>10</sup>Make your plans for the fight.

But your plans will be defeated.

Give orders to your armies.

But your orders will be useless.

This is because God is with us.

Warnings to Isaiah

<sup>11</sup>The Lord spoke to me with his great power. He warned me not to follow the lead of the rest of the people. The Lord said, <sup>12</sup>"People are saying that others make plans against them.

You should not believe those things.

Don't be afraid of the things they fear.

Do not dread those things.

<sup>13</sup>But remember that the Lord of heaven's armies is holy.

He is the one you should fear.

He is the one you should dread.

<sup>14</sup>Then he would be a place of safety for you.

But for the two families of Israel, he will be like a stone that causes people to stumble.

He will be like a rock that makes them fall.

He will be like a trap for the people of Jerusalem.

He will catch them in his trap.

<sup>15</sup>Many people will fall over this rock.

They will fall and be broken.

They will be trapped and caught."

<sup>16</sup>Make an agreement.

Seal up the teaching while my followers are watching.

<sup>17</sup>I will wait for the Lord to help us.

The Lord is ashamed of the family of Israel.

I will trust the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>I am here. And with me are the children the Lord has given me. We are signs and proofs for the people of Israel. We have been sent by the Lord of heaven's armies. He lives on Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Some people say, "Ask the mediums<sup>d</sup> and fortune-tellers what to do. They whisper and mutter and ask dead people what to do." But I tell you that people should ask their God for help. Why should people who are still alive ask something from the dead? <sup>20</sup>You should follow the teachings and the agreement with the Lord. The mediums and fortune-tellers do not speak the word of the Lord. Their words are worth nothing.

<sup>21</sup>People will wander through the land troubled and hungry. When they become hungry, they will become angry. Then they will look up and curse their king and their God. <sup>22</sup>They will look around them at their land. And they will see only trouble and darkness and awful gloom. And they will be forced into the darkness.

A New Day Is Coming

9 But suddenly there will be no more gloom for the land that suffered. In the past God made the lands of Zebulun and Naphtali hang their heads in shame. But in the future that land will be made great. That land stretches from the way along the Mediterranean Sea to the land along the Jordan River. And it goes north to Galilee where the people who are not Israelites live.

<sup>2</sup>Now those people live in darkness.

But they will see a great light.

They live in a place that is very dark.

But a light will shine on them.

<sup>3</sup>God, you will cause the nation to grow.

You will make the people happy.

And they will show their happiness to you.

It will be like the joy during harvest time.

It will be like the joy of people taking what they have won in war.

<sup>4</sup>Like the time you defeated Midian, you will take away their heavy load.

You will take away the heavy pole from their backs.

You will take away the rod the enemy uses to punish your people.

<sup>5</sup>Every boot that marched in battle will be destroyed.

Every uniform stained with blood will be destroyed.

They will be thrown into the fire.

<sup>6</sup>A child will be born to us.

God will give a son to us.

He will be responsible for leading the people.

His name will be Wonderful Counselor,
Powerful God,

Father Who Lives Forever, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup>Power and peace will be in his kingdom.

It will continue to grow.

He will rule as king on David's throne and over David's kingdom.

He will make it strong,
by ruling with goodness and fair judgment.

He will rule it forever and ever.

The Lord of heaven's armies will do this because of his strong love for his people.

God Will Punish Israel

<sup>8</sup>The Lord sent a message against the people of Jacob.

That message says that God will judge Israel.

<sup>9</sup>Then everyone in Israel, even the leaders in Samaria, will know that God punished them.

Those people, who are proud and who brag now, say this:

<sup>10</sup>"These bricks have fallen,

but we will build again with cut stones.

These small trees have been chopped down.

But we will put great cedars there."

<sup>11</sup>But the Lord will make the enemies of Rezin strong against them.

He will stir up their enemies against them.

<sup>12</sup>The Arameans come from the east and the Philistines from the west.

They will eat up Israel with their armies.

But the Lord is still angry.

His hand is still raised to punish the people.

<sup>13</sup>But the people do not return to the one who struck them.

They do not follow the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>14</sup>So the Lord will cut off Israel's head and tail.

He will take away both the branch and stalk in one day.

<sup>15</sup>The older leaders and important men are the head.

The prophets<sup>d</sup> who speak lies are the tail.

<sup>16</sup>Those who lead the people lead them in the wrong direction.

And those who follow them will be destroyed.

<sup>17</sup>So the Lord is not happy with the young men.

He will not show mercy to the widows and orphans.

All the people are separated from God and are very evil.

They all speak lies.

But the Lord is still angry.

His hand is still raised to strike down the people.

<sup>18</sup>Evil is like a small fire.

First, it burns weeds and thorns.

Next, it burns the larger bushes in the forest.

They all go up in a column of smoke.

<sup>19</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies is angry.

So the land will be burned.

All the people will be burned in that fire.
No one will try to save his brother.

<sup>20</sup>People will grab something on the right, but they will still be hungry.

They will eat something on the left,
but they will not be filled.

Then each person will turn and eat his own children.

<sup>21</sup>The people of Manasseh will fight against the people of Ephraim.

And Ephraim will fight against Manasseh.
Then both of them will turn against Judah.

But the Lord is still angry.

His hand is still raised to strike down the
people.

10 How terrible it will be for the lawmakers who write evil laws.
They write laws that make life hard for
people.

<sup>2</sup>They are not fair to the poor.
They rob my people of their rights.
They allow people to steal from widows and to take from orphans what they should get.

<sup>3</sup>Lawmakers, how will you explain the things you have done?
What will you do when your destruction comes from far away?

Where will you run for help?
Where will you hide your money and your riches then?

<sup>4</sup>You will have to bow down among the captives.
You will fall down among the dead bodies.

But the Lord is still angry.

His hand is still raised to strike down the
people.

God Will Punish Assyria

<sup>5</sup>God says, "How terrible it will be for the king of Assyria.

I use him like a stick.

In anger I use Assyria like a club.

<sup>6</sup>I send it to fight against a nation that is separated from God.

I am angry with those people.

So I command Assyria to fight against
them.

Assyria will take their wealth from them.

Judah will become like dirt for them to walk on in the streets.

<sup>7</sup>But Assyria's king doesn't understand that I am using him.

He doesn't know he is a tool for me.

He only wants to destroy other people.

He plans to destroy many nations.

<sup>8</sup>The king of Assyria says to himself,
'All of my commanders are like kings.

<sup>9</sup>The city Calno is like the city Carchemish.
And the city Hamath is like the city Arpad.

The city Samaria is like the city Damascus.

<sup>10</sup>I defeated those kingdoms that worship idols.

And those idols were more than the idols of Jerusalem and Samaria.

<sup>11</sup>I defeated Samaria and her idols.

So I will also defeat Jerusalem and her
idols.' "

<sup>12</sup>The Lord will finish doing what he planned to Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> and Jerusalem. Then he will punish Assyria. The king of Assyria is very proud. His pride made him do these bad things.
So God will punish him. <sup>13</sup>The king of Assyria says this:

"By my own power I have done these things.

By my wisdom I have defeated many
nations.

I have taken their wealth.

And like a mighty one, I have taken their
people.

<sup>14</sup>I have taken the riches of all these people, like one who reaches into a bird's nest.

I have taken these nations,
like a person taking eggs.

No one raised a hand against me.

No one opened his mouth to stop me."

<sup>15</sup>An ax is not better than the person who swings it.

A saw is not better than the person who uses it.

A stick cannot control the person who picks it up.

A club cannot pick up the person!

<sup>16</sup>So the Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, will send a terrible disease against Assyria's soldiers.

The strength of Assyria will be burned up.
It will be like a fire burning until everything is gone.

<sup>17</sup>God, the Light of Israel, will be like a fire.

The Holy One will be like a flame.

He will be like a fire that suddenly burns the weeds and thorns.

<sup>18</sup>The fire burns away the great trees and rich farmlands.

It will destroy everything.

Things will be like a sick man who wastes away.

<sup>19</sup>Only a few trees will be left standing.

There will be so few even a child will be able to count them.

<sup>20</sup>At that time some people will be left alive in Israel
from the family of Jacob.

They will not continue to depend on the person who defeated them.
They will learn truly to depend on the Lord,
the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>The people who are left alive in Jacob's family

will again follow the powerful God.

<sup>22</sup>Israel, your people are very many.

They are like the grains of sand by the sea.

But only a few of them will be left alive to return to the Lord.

God has announced that he will destroy the land completely and fairly.

<sup>23</sup>The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, will certainly destroy this land.

He will destroy it as he has announced.

<sup>24</sup>This is what the Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, says:

"My people living in Jerusalem,
don't be afraid of the Assyrians.
They beat you with a rod.

They raise a stick to hurt you, as Egypt
did.

<sup>25</sup>But after a short time my anger will stop.

Then I will turn my anger to destroying
them."

<sup>26</sup>Then the Lord of heaven's armies will beat the Assyrians with a whip.

He will defeat them as he defeated
Midian at the rock of Oreb.

He will raise his stick over the waters
as he did in Egypt.

<sup>27</sup>Then the troubles that Assyria puts on you will be removed.

The load they make you carry will be taken away.

Assyria Invades Israel

<sup>28</sup>The army of Assyria will enter near Aiath.

They will walk through Migron.

They will store their food in Micmash.

<sup>29</sup>The army will go over the pass.

They will sleep at Geba.

The people of Ramah will be afraid.

The people at Gibeah of Saul will run
away.

<sup>30</sup>Cry out, Bath Gallim!

Laishah, listen!

Poor Anathoth!

<sup>31</sup>The people of Madmenah are running
away.

The people of Gebim are hiding.

<sup>32</sup>This day the army will stop at Nob.

And the army will shake their fist at Mount Zion,<sup>a</sup>

at the hill of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup>Watch! The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies,

will chop them down like a great tree.

He will do this with his great power.

Those who are great will be cut down.

Those who are important will fall to the ground.

<sup>34</sup>The Lord will cut them down as a forest is cut down with an ax.

And the great trees of Lebanon will fall by the power of the Mighty One.

The King of Peace Is Coming

11 A branch will grow from a stump of a tree that was cut down.

So a new king will come from the family of Jesse.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>2</sup>The Spirit<sup>a</sup> of the Lord will rest upon that king.

The Spirit gives him wisdom, understanding, guidance and power.

And the Spirit teaches him to know and respect the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>This king will be glad to obey the Lord.

He will not judge by the way things look.

He will not judge by what people say.

<sup>4</sup>He will judge the poor honestly.

He will be fair in his decisions for the poor people of the land.

At his command evil people will be punished.

By his words the wicked will be put to death.

<sup>5</sup>Goodness and fairness will give him
strength.

They will be like a belt around his waist.

<sup>6</sup>Then wolves will live in peace with lambs.

And leopards will lie down to rest with goats.

Calves, lions and young bulls will eat
together.

And a little child will lead them.

<sup>7</sup>Cows and bears will eat together in peace.

Their young will lie down together.

Lions will eat hay as oxen do.

<sup>8</sup>A baby will be able to play near a cobra's hole.

<sup>a</sup>Jesse King David's father.

A child will be able to put his hand into the nest of a poisonous snake.

<sup>9</sup>They will not hurt or destroy each other on all my holy mountain.
The earth will be full of the knowledge of
the Lord,
as the sea is full of water.

<sup>10</sup>At that time the new king from the family of Jesse will stand as a banner for the people.
The nations will come together around him.
And the place where he lives will be filled with glory. <sup>11</sup>At that time the Lord will again reach out and take his people who are left alive.
These are God's people who are left alive in Assyria, North Egypt, South Egypt, Cush, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath and all the islands of
the sea.

<sup>12</sup>God will raise a banner as a sign for all people.
He will gather the people of Israel who were forced from their country.
He will gather the scattered people of Judah
from all parts of the earth.

<sup>13</sup>At that time Israel will not be jealous
anymore.

Judah will have no enemies left.
Israel will not be jealous of Judah.
And Judah will not hate Israel.

<sup>14</sup>But Israel and Judah will attack the Philistines on the west.

Together they will take the riches from the people of the east.

They will conquer Edom and Moab.
And the people of Ammon will be under their control.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord will dry up the Red Sea<sup>d</sup> of Egypt.

He will wave his arm over the Euphrates
River.

He will dry it up with a scorching wind.
He will divide it into seven small rivers.

And people will be able to walk across them with their sandals on.

<sup>16</sup>So God's people who are left alive will have a way to leave Assyria.
It will be like the time the Israelites went out of Egypt.

A Song of Praise to God

12 At that time you will say:
"I praise you, Lord!
You were angry with me.
But you are not angry with me now!
You have comforted me.

<sup>2</sup>God is the one who saves me.

I trust him. I am not afraid.

The Lord, the Lord, gives me strength and makes me sing.

He has saved me."

<sup>3</sup>You will receive your salvation with joy.
You will take it as you would draw water from a well.

<sup>4</sup>At that time you will say,
"Praise the Lord, and worship him.
Tell everyone what he has done.
Tell them how great he is.

<sup>5</sup>Sing praise to the Lord, because he has done great things.

Let all the world know what he has done.

<sup>6</sup>Shout and sing for joy, you people of Jerusalem.

The Holy One of Israel does great things before your eyes."

God's Message to Babylon

13 God showed Isaiah son of Amoz this message about Babylon:

<sup>2</sup>Raise a flag on the bare mountain.

Call out to the men.

Raise your hand to signal them.

Tell them to enter through the gates for important people.

<sup>3</sup>I myself have commanded those people whom I have separated as mine.

I have called those warriors to carry out my anger.

They rejoice and are glad to do my will.

<sup>4</sup>Listen to the loud noise in the mountains.
It sounds like many people.

Listen to the noise among the kingdoms.
Nations are gathering together.

The Lord of heaven's armies is calling his army together for battle.

<sup>5</sup>This army is coming from a faraway land.
It is coming from the edge of the horizon.

In anger the Lord is using this army like a weapon.

And it will destroy the whole country.

<sup>6</sup>Cry, because the Lord's day of judging is near.

God All-Powerful is sending destruction.

<sup>7</sup>People will be weak with fear.

Their courage will melt away.

<sup>8</sup>Everyone will be afraid.

Pain and hurt will grab them.

They will hurt like a woman giving birth to a baby.

They will look at each other in fear.

Their faces will become red like fire.

God's Judgment Against Babylon

<sup>9</sup>Look, the Lord's day of judging is coming.
It will be a terrible day. God will be very
angry,

and he will destroy the country.

God will destroy the sinners who live in
the land.

<sup>10</sup>The stars will not show their light.
The skies will be dark.

The sun will grow dark as it rises.

And the moon will not give its light.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord says, "I will punish the world for its evil.

I will punish wicked people for their sins.
I will cause the proud people to lose their pride.

I will destroy the pride of those who are cruel to others.

<sup>12</sup>People will be harder to find than pure gold.

There will be fewer people than there is fine gold in Ophir.

<sup>13</sup>I will make the sky shake.

And the earth will be moved from its place.

The Lord of heaven's armies will be very angry.

His anger will burn at that time.

<sup>14</sup>"Then the people from Babylon will run away like hunted deer.

They will run like sheep who have no
shepherd.

Everyone will turn back to his own people.

Each will run back to his own land.

<sup>15</sup>Anyone who is captured will be killed.

Everyone who is caught will be killed with a sword.

<sup>16</sup>Their little children will be beaten to death as their parents watch.

Everything in their houses will be stolen.

And their wives will be raped.

<sup>17</sup>"Look, I will cause the armies of Media to attack Babylon.

They do not care about silver.

They do not delight in gold.

<sup>18</sup>Their soldiers will shoot the young men with arrows.

The soldiers will show no mercy on the children.

They will not feel sorry for the little boys.

<sup>19</sup>Babylon is the most beautiful of all kingdoms.

The Babylonians are very proud of it.

But God will destroy it like Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>20</sup>No one will ever live there.

No one will settle there again.

No Arab will put his tent there.

No shepherd will bring his sheep there.

<sup>21</sup>Only animals from the desert will live
there.

The houses of Babylon will be full of wild dogs.

Owls will live there.

Wild goats will leap about in the houses.

<sup>22</sup>Wolves will howl within the strong walls.

Wild dogs will bark in the beautiful buildings.

The end of Babylon is near.

Its time is almost over."

Israel Will Return Home

14 The Lord will again show mercy to the people of Jacob. The Lord will again choose the people of Israel. He will settle them in their own land. Then non-Israelite people will join the Israelites. The non-Israelite people will become a part of the family of Jacob. <sup>2</sup>Nations will take the Israelites back to their land.
Those men and women from the other nations will become slaves to Israel. In the past the Israelites were their slaves. But now the Israelites will defeat those nations and rule over
them.

The King of Babylon Will Fall

<sup>3</sup>The Lord will take away the Israelites' hard work, and he will comfort them. They will no longer have to work as slaves. <sup>4</sup>On that day Israel will sing this song about the king of Babylon:

The cruel king who ruled us is finished.

His rule is finished!

<sup>5</sup>The Lord breaks the scepter<sup>d</sup> of evil rulers.

He takes away their power.

<sup>6</sup>The king of Babylon beat people in anger.

He beat them again and again.

He ruled the people in anger.

He kept on doing terrible things to the
people.

<sup>7</sup>But now, the whole land rests and is quiet.

Now the people begin to sing.

<sup>8</sup>Even the pine trees are happy.

And the cedar trees of Lebanon rejoice.

They say, "The king has fallen.

No one will ever cut us down again."

<sup>9</sup>The place of the dead is excited to meet you when you come.

It wakes the spirits of the dead to greet you.
 They were the leaders of the world.
 It makes dead kings stand up from their thrones to greet you.
 They were rulers of nations.
<sup>10</sup>All these leaders will make fun of you.
 They will say,
 "Now you are weak, as we are.
 Now you are just like us."
<sup>11</sup>Your pride has been sent down to where the dead are.
 The music from your harps goes with it.
 Flies are spread out like your bed beneath you.
 And worms cover your body like a blanket.
<sup>12</sup>King of Babylon, morning star, you have fallen from heaven, even though you were as bright as the rising sun!
 In the past all the nations on earth bowed down before you.
 But now you have been cut down.
<sup>13</sup>You told yourself,
 "I will go up to heaven.
 I will put my throne above God's stars.
 I will sit on the mountain of the gods.
 I will sit on the slopes of the sacred mountain.
<sup>14</sup>I will go up above the tops of the clouds.
 I will be like God Most High."
<sup>15</sup>But you were brought down to the grave.
 You were brought down to the deep places where the dead are.
<sup>16</sup>Those who see you stare at you.
 They think about what has happened to you.
 They say, "Is this the same man who caused great fear on earth?
 Is he the one who shook the kingdoms?"
<sup>17</sup>Is this the man who turned the land into a desert?
 Is he the one who destroyed its cities?
 Is he the one who captured people in war and would not let them go home?"
<sup>18</sup>Every king of the earth has been buried with honor.
 Every king has his own grave.
<sup>19</sup>But you are thrown out of your grave, like an unwanted branch is cut from a tree and thrown away.
 You are covered by bodies that died in battle.

You have been thrown into a rocky pit.
 And other soldiers walk on you.
<sup>20</sup>You will not be buried like other people.
 This is because you ruined your own country.
 And you killed your own people.
 So your children will never be mentioned again.
<sup>21</sup>Prepare to kill his children.
 Kill them because their father is guilty.
 They will never again take control of the earth.
 They will never again fill the world with their cities.
<sup>22</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says this:
 "I will fight against those people.
 I will destroy Babylon and its people.
 I will destroy its people and their descendants,"<sup>d</sup> says the Lord.
<sup>23</sup>"I will make Babylon fit only for owls.
 It will become a swamp.
 I will sweep Babylon as with a broom of destruction,"
 says the Lord of heaven's armies.

God Will Punish Assyria

<sup>24</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies has made this promise:
 "These things will happen exactly as I planned them.
 These things will happen exactly as I set them up.
<sup>25</sup>I will destroy the king of Assyria in my country.
 I will trample him on my mountains.
 He put a heavy load on my people.
 But that weight will be removed.
<sup>26</sup>"This is what I plan to do against all the earth.
 I will raise my hand to strike down all nations."
<sup>27</sup>When the Lord of heaven's armies makes a plan, no one can stop it.
 When the Lord raises his hand to punish people,
 no one can stop him.

God's Message to Philistia

<sup>28</sup>This message was given the year King Ahaz died:
<sup>29</sup>Country of Philistia, don't be so happy.
 The king who beat you is now dead.
 But he is like a snake that will give birth to another dangerous snake.

- The new king will be like a quick, dangerous snake to bite you.
- <sup>30</sup>Even the poorest of my people will be able to eat safely.
- People in need will be able to lie down in safety.
- But I will kill your family with hunger.
And all your people who are left will die.
- <sup>31</sup>People near the city gates, cry out!
Philistines, be frightened!
- A cloud of dust comes from the north.
It is an army, full of men ready to fight.
- <sup>32</sup>What shall we tell the messengers from Philistia?
- Say that the Lord has made Jerusalem strong.
- Say that his poor people will go there for safety.

God's Message to Moab

- 15 This is a message about Moab:
In one night armies took the wealth from Ar in Moab.
- That night the city was destroyed.
In one night armies took the wealth from Kir in Moab.
- That night the city was destroyed.
- <sup>2</sup>The people of Dibon go to the places of worship to cry.
- The people of Moab cry for the cities of Nebo and Medeba.
- Everyone has shaved his head and beard to show how sad he is.
- <sup>3</sup>In the streets at Moab they wear rough cloth to show their sadness.
- On the roofs<sup>a</sup> and in the public squares, they are crying loudly.
- <sup>4</sup>People in the cities Heshbon and Elealeh cry out loud.
- You can hear their voices far away in the city Jahaz.
- Even the soldiers are frightened.
They are shaking from fear.
- <sup>5</sup>My heart cries with sorrow for Moab.
Its people run away to Zoar for safety.
They run to Eglath Shelishiyah.
People are going up the mountain road to Luhith.
- They are crying as they go.
People are going on the road to Horonaim.
They cry out loud over their destruction.
- <sup>6</sup>But the water of Nimrim has dried up.
The grass has dried up.

- All the plants are dead.
Nothing green is left.
- <sup>7</sup>So the people gather up what they have saved.
- They carry those things and cross the Ravine of the Poplars.
- <sup>8</sup>Crying is heard everywhere in Moab.
Their crying is heard as far away as the city Eglaim.
- Their crying is heard as far away as Beer Elim.
- <sup>9</sup>The water of the city Dibon is full of blood.
And I, the Lord, will bring even more troubles to Dibon.
- A few people living in Moab have escaped the enemy.
- But I will send lions to kill them.

- 16 Send the king of the land
the payment he demands.
Send a lamb from Sela through the desert to the mountain of Jerusalem.
- <sup>2</sup>The women of Moab try to cross the river Arnon.
They are like little birds that have fallen from their nest.
- <sup>3</sup>They say: "Help us.
Tell us what to do.
Protect us from our enemies
as shade protects us from the noon sun.
Hide us because we are running for safety!
Don't give us to our enemies."
- <sup>4</sup>Let those of us who were forced out of Moab live in your land.
Hide us from our enemies."
- The robbing of Moab will stop.
The enemy will be defeated.
The men who hurt others will disappear from the land.
- <sup>5</sup>Then a new loyal king will come.
This faithful king will be from the family
of David.
He will judge fairly.
He wants to do what is right.
- <sup>6</sup>We have heard that the people of Moab are proud and very conceited.
They are very proud and angry.
But their bragging means nothing.
- <sup>7</sup>So the people of Moab will cry.
They will all be sad.
They will moan and groan

<sup>a</sup>roofs In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

for the raisin cakes they had in Kir Hareseth.

<sup>8</sup>But the fields of Heshbon and the vines of Sibmah cannot grow grapes. Foreign rulers have destroyed the grapevines. The grapevines once spread as far as the city of Jazer and into the desert. They had spread as far as the sea.

<sup>9</sup>I cry with the people of Jazer for the grapevines of Sibmah. I will cry with the people of Heshbon and Elealeh. There will be no shouts of joy, because there will be no harvest or ripe fruit.

<sup>10</sup>There will be no joy and happiness in the orchards. There will be no songs or shouts of joy in the vineyards. No one makes wine in the winepresses.<sup>d</sup> I have put an end to shouts of joy.

<sup>11</sup>My heart cries for Moab like a harp playing a funeral song. I am very sad for Kir Hareseth.

<sup>12</sup>The people of Moab will go to their places of worship. They will try to pray. But when they go to their temple to pray, they will not be able.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord said these things about Moab before. <sup>14</sup>And now the Lord says, "In three years all those people and what they are proud of will be hated. (This is three years as a hired helper would count time.) There will be a few people left, but they will be weak."

God's Message to Aram

17 This is the message for Damascus: "The city of Damascus will be destroyed. Only ruins will be left there.

<sup>2</sup>People will leave the cities of Aroer. Flocks of sheep will wander freely in those empty towns. There will be no one to bother them.

<sup>3</sup>The strong, walled cities of Israel will be destroyed. The government in Damascus will end. Those left alive of Aram will be like the glory of Israel," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>4</sup>"At that time Israel's wealth will all be gone. Israel will be like a man who has lost much weight from sickness.

<sup>5</sup>That time will be like the grain harvest in the Valley of Rephaim. The workers cut the wheat. Then they cut the heads of grain from the plants. And they collect the grain.

<sup>7</sup>At that time people will look to God, their Maker. Their eyes will see the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>They will not trust the altars they have made. They will not trust what their hands have made. They will not respect the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols and altars they have made.

<sup>9</sup>In that day all their strong cities will be empty. They will be like the cities that the Hivites and the Amorites left. They left their cities when the Israelites came to take the land. Everything will be ruined.

<sup>10</sup>You have forgotten the God who saves you. You have not remembered that God is your place of safety. You plant the finest grapevines. You plant grapevines from faraway places.

<sup>11</sup>You will plant your grapevines one day and try to make them grow. The next day they will begin to grow. But at harvest time everything will be dead. A sickness will kill all the plants.

<sup>12</sup>Listen to the many people! They are crying loud like the noise from the sea. Listen to the noise! The crying is like the crashing of great waves.

<sup>13</sup>The people roar like those waves. But when God speaks harshly to them, they will run away. They will be like chaff<sup>d</sup> on the hills being blown by the wind. They will be like tumbleweeds blown away by a storm.

<sup>14</sup>At night the people will be very frightened.

Before morning, no one will be left.
So our enemies will come to our land, but they will become nothing.

God's Message to Cush

- 18 How terrible it will be for the land beyond the rivers of Cush.
It is filled with the sound of wings.
<sup>2</sup>That land sends people across the sea.
They go on the water in boats made of reeds.
Quick messengers, go to the people who are tall and smooth-skinned.
They are feared everywhere.
They are a powerful nation with strange speech.
They defeat the other nations.
Their land is divided by rivers.
<sup>3</sup>All you people of the world, look!
Everyone who lives in the world, look!
You will see a banner raised on a mountain.
You will hear a trumpet sound.
<sup>4</sup>The Lord said to me,
"I will quietly watch from where I live.
I will be like heat in the sunshine.
I will be like the dew in the heat of harvest time."
<sup>5</sup>The time will be after the flowers have bloomed and before the harvest.
The new grapes will be budding and growing.
Then the enemy will cut the plants with knives.
He will cut down the vines and take them away.
<sup>6</sup>They will be left for the birds of the mountains to eat.
They will be left for the wild animals to eat.
Birds will feed on them all summer.
And that winter wild animals will eat
them."
<sup>7</sup>At that time gifts will be brought to the Lord of heaven's armies.
They will come from the people who are tall and smooth-skinned.
They are feared everywhere.
They are a powerful nation with strange speech.
Their land is divided by rivers.
These gifts will be brought to the place of the Lord of heaven's armies.
They will be brought to Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>

God's Message to Egypt

- 19 The message about Egypt:
Look, the Lord is coming on a fast
cloud.
He will enter Egypt.
And the idols of Egypt will tremble before
him.
Egypt's courage will melt away.
<sup>2</sup>The Lord says, "I will cause the Egyptians to fight against themselves.
Men will fight with their brothers.
Neighbors will fight neighbors.
Cities will fight cities.
Kingdoms will fight kingdoms.
<sup>3</sup>The Egyptians will be afraid.
I will ruin their plans.
They will ask their idols and spirits of the dead what they should do.
They will ask their mediums<sup>d</sup> and fortune-tellers."
<sup>4</sup>The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies,
says,
"I will give Egypt to a hard master.
A powerful king will rule over them."
<sup>5</sup>The sea will become dry.
The water will disappear from the Nile River.
<sup>6</sup>The canals will stink.
The streams of Egypt will decrease and dry up.
All the water plants will rot.
<sup>7</sup> All the plants along the banks of the Nile will die.
Even the planted fields by the Nile will dry up, blow away and disappear.
<sup>8</sup>The fishermen, all those who catch fish from the Nile,
will groan and cry.
Those who depend on the Nile for food
will be sad.
<sup>9</sup>All the people who make cloth from flax will be sad.
Those who weave linen will lose hope.
<sup>10</sup>Those who weave cloth will be broken.
All those who work for money will be sad.
<sup>11</sup>The officers of the city of Zoan are fools.
The wise men who advise the king of Egypt give wrong advice.
How can they say to him they are wise?
How can they say they are from the old family of the kings?
<sup>12</sup>Egypt, where are your wise men?
Let them show you what the Lord of heaven's armies has planned for Egypt.

<sup>13</sup>The officers of Zoan have been fooled.

The leaders of Memphis have believed false things.

So the leaders of Egypt lead her the wrong way.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord has made the leaders confused.

They wander and lead Egypt in the wrong ways.

They are like drunk people stumbling in their own vomit.

No one in Egypt can help.

<sup>16</sup>In that day the people of Egypt will be like frightened women. They will be afraid of the Lord of heaven's armies. He will raise his hand to strike them down. <sup>17</sup>The land of Judah will bring fear to the people in Egypt. Anyone in Egypt who hears the name Judah will be afraid. This will happen because the Lord of heaven's armies has planned terrible things for Egypt. <sup>18</sup>At that time five cities in Egypt will speak Hebrew, the language of Canaan. They will promise to be loyal to the Lord of heaven's armies. One of these cities will be named the City of Destruction. <sup>19</sup>At that time there will be an altar for the Lord in the middle of Egypt. At the border of Egypt there will be a monument to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>This will be a sign. It will show that the Lord of heaven's armies is powerful. When the people cry to the Lord for help, he will send help. He will send someone to save and defend the people. He will rescue them from those who hurt them.

<sup>21</sup>So the Lord will show himself to the Egyptians. Then they will say he is the Lord. They will serve God and offer many sacrifices. They will make promises to the Lord, and they will keep them. <sup>22</sup>The Lord will punish the Egyptians. Then he will heal them. They will come back to the Lord. He will listen to their prayers and heal them.

<sup>23</sup>At that time there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Then people from Assyria will go to Egypt. And the Egyptians will go to Assyria. The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship God together. <sup>24</sup>At that time Israel, Assyria and Egypt will join together. This will be a blessing for the earth. <sup>25</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies will bless them. He will say, "Egypt, you are my people. Assyria, I made you. Israel, I own you. You are all blessed!"

<sup>a</sup>Desert by the Sea Probably Babylon.

Assyria Will Defeat Egypt and Cush

20 Sargon was the king of Assyria. He sent a military commander to Ashdod to attack that city. So the commander attacked and captured it. <sup>2</sup>Then the Lord spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. The Lord said, "Take the rough cloth off your body. Take your sandals off your feet." So Isaiah obeyed the Lord. He walked around without his clothes of rough cloth or his sandals.

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord said, "Isaiah my servant has walked around without his clothes of rough cloth or his sandals for three years. This is a sign for Egypt and Cush. <sup>4</sup>The king of Assyria will defeat Egypt and Cush. Assyria will take prisoners and lead them away from their countries. The old people and young people will be led away naked. They will go without clothes and without sandals. So the Egyptians will be shamed. <sup>5</sup>People who looked to Cush for help will be afraid. People who were amazed by Egypt's glory will be shamed. <sup>6</sup>Those people who live near the sea will say, 'We trusted those countries to help us. We ran to them so they would save us from the king of Assyria. But look at them. They have been captured. So how will we be able to escape?'"

God's Message to Babylon

21 The message about the Desert by the Sea: <sup>a</sup>

Disaster is coming from the desert.

It is coming like wind blowing in the south.

It is coming from a terrible country.

<sup>21</sup> I have seen a terrible vision.

I see traitors turning against you.

I see people taking your wealth.

Elam, attack the people!

Media, surround the city and attack it!

I will bring an end to the pain the city causes.

<sup>31</sup> I saw those terrible things, and now I am in pain.

My pains are like the pains of giving birth.

What I hear makes me very afraid.

What I see causes me to shake with fear.

<sup>41</sup> I am worried, and I am shaking with fear.

My pleasant evening has become a night of fear.

<sup>5</sup>They set the table.

They spread the rugs.
They eat and drink!
Leaders, stand up.
Prepare the shields for battle!

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said to me,
“Go. Have a man be a lookout for the city.
Have him report what he sees.
<sup>7</sup>If he sees chariots and teams of horses, donkeys or camels,
he should pay very close attention.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the lookout called out, “My Master, each day I stand in the watchtower watching.

Every night I have been on guard.
<sup>9</sup>Look. I see a man coming in a chariot with a team of horses.”
The man gives back the answer,
“Babylon has fallen. It has fallen!
All the statues of her gods lie broken on the ground.”

<sup>10</sup>My people are crushed like grain on the threshing<sup>a</sup> floor.
My people, I tell you what I have heard from the Lord.
He is the Lord of heaven's armies,
the God of Israel.

God's Message to Edom

<sup>11</sup>The message about Dumah:<sup>n</sup>
Someone calls to me from Edom.
He says, “Watchman, how much of the night is left?
Watchman, how much longer will it be night?”

<sup>12</sup>The watchman answered, “Morning is coming, but then night will come again.
If you have something to ask,
then come back and ask.”

God's Message to Arabia

<sup>13</sup>The message about Arabia:
A group of traders from Dedan spent the night near some trees in Arabia.
<sup>14</sup> They gave water to thirsty travelers.
The people of Tema gave food to those who were escaping.
<sup>15</sup>They were running from swords, swords that were ready to kill.

They were running from bows ready to shoot.
They were running from a hard battle.

<sup>16</sup>This is what the Lord said to me: “In one year all the glory of the country of Kedar will be gone. (This is a year as a hired helper counts time.) <sup>17</sup>At that time only a few of the archers will be left. Only a few of the soldiers of Kedar will be left alive.” The Lord, the God of Israel, has spoken.

God's Message to Jerusalem

22 The message about the Valley of Vision:<sup>n</sup>

What is wrong with you people?
Why are you on your roofs?<sup>n</sup>

<sup>2</sup>This city was a very busy city.
It was full of noise and wild parties.
But your people have been killed,
but not with swords.
They did not die in battle.

<sup>3</sup>All your leaders ran away together.
But they all have been captured without using a bow.
All you who were captured tried to run away before the enemy came near.

<sup>4</sup>So I say, “Don't look at me.
Let me cry loudly.
Don't hurry to comfort me about the destruction of Jerusalem.”

<sup>5</sup>The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, has chosen a special day.
There will be riots and confusion.
People will trample each other in the Valley of Vision.

The city walls will be knocked down.
The people will cry out to the mountain.

<sup>6</sup>The soldiers from Elam will take their bags of arrows.
Men in chariots and on horses will attack.

Kir will prepare their shields.
<sup>7</sup>Your nicest valleys will be filled with chariots.
Horsemen will be ordered to guard the gates of the city.

<sup>8</sup> The walls protecting Judah will fall.
At that time the people of Jerusalem depended on the weapons kept at the Palace of the Forest.

<sup>n</sup>roofs In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

<sup>9</sup>You saw that the walls of Jerusalem had many cracks that needed repairing.
You stored up water in the lower pool.
<sup>10</sup>You counted the houses of Jerusalem.
You tore them down to fix the walls with their stones.
<sup>11</sup>You made a pool between the two walls to save water from the old pool.
But you did not trust the God who made these things.
You did not respect the One who planned them long ago.

<sup>12</sup>The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, told the people
to cry and be sad.
He told them to shave their heads and wear rough cloth.

<sup>13</sup>But look. The people are happy.
There are wild parties.
They kill the cattle and the sheep.
They eat the food and drink the wine.
They say, "Let us eat and drink, because tomorrow we will die."

<sup>14</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies said to me:
"You people will die before this guilt is forgiven."
The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, said this.

God's Message to Shebna

<sup>15</sup>This is what the Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, says:

"Go to this servant Shebna.
He is the manager of the palace.
<sup>16</sup>Say to him, 'What are you doing here?
Who said you could cut out a tomb for yourself here?
Why are you preparing your tomb in a high place?

Why are you carving out a tomb from the rock?
<sup>17</sup>Look, mighty man! The Lord will throw you away.
He will take firm hold of you.

<sup>18</sup>He will roll you tightly into a ball and throw you into another country.
There you will die.
Your fine chariots will remain there.
You are a disgrace to your master's house.

<sup>19</sup>I will force you out of your important job here.
You will be thrown down from your important place.'

<sup>20</sup>"At that time I will call for my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup>I will take your robe and put it on him. I will give him your belt. I will give him the important job you have. He will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and the family of Judah. <sup>22</sup>I will put the key to the house of David around his neck. If he opens a door, no one will be able to close it. If he closes a door, no one will be able to open it.

<sup>23</sup>He will be like an honored chair in his father's house. I will make him strong like a peg that is hammered into a strong board. <sup>24</sup>All the honored and important things of his family will depend on him. All the adults and little children will depend on him. They will be like bowls and jars hanging on him.

<sup>25</sup>"At that time," says the Lord of heaven's armies, "the peg hammered into the strong board will weaken. It will break and fall. And everything hanging on it will be destroyed."
The Lord says this.

God's Message to Lebanon

23 The message about Tyre:
You ships of Tarshish, cry!
The houses and harbor of Tyre are destroyed.

This news came to the ships from the land of Cyprus.

<sup>2</sup>Be silent, you who live on the island of Tyre.

You merchants of Sidon, be silent.
Seamen have made you rich.

<sup>3</sup>They traveled the sea to bring grain from Egypt.

The men of Tyre brought grain from the Nile Valley and sold it to other nations.

<sup>4</sup>Sidon, be ashamed.

Strong city of the sea, be ashamed. The sea says:

"I have not felt the pain of giving birth.
I have not reared young men or women."

<sup>5</sup>Egypt will hear the news about Tyre.
And it will make Egypt hurt with sorrow.

<sup>6</sup>You ships should return to Tarshish.
You people living near the sea should be sad.

<sup>7</sup>Look at your once happy city!
Look at your old, old city!
People from that city have traveled far away to live.

<sup>8</sup>Who planned Tyre's destruction?
Tyre made others rich.
Her merchants were treated like princes.
Her traders were greatly respected.

<sup>9</sup>It was the Lord of heaven's armies who planned this!

He decided to make these proud men unimportant.

He decided to disgrace those who were greatly respected.

<sup>10</sup>Go through your land,
Tarshish, like the Nile goes through Egypt.

There is no harbor for you now!

<sup>11</sup>The Lord has stretched his hand over the sea.

He makes its kingdoms tremble.

He commands that Canaan's places of safety be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord said, "Sidon, you will not rejoice any longer.

You are destroyed.

Even if you cross the sea to Cyprus, you will not find a place to rest."

<sup>13</sup>Look at the land of the Babylonians.

Babylonia is not a country now.

Assyria has made it a place for wild animals.

Assyria built towers to attack it.

The soldiers took all the treasures from its cities.

They turned it into ruins.

<sup>14</sup>So be sad, you trading ships.

Your place of safety is destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>At that time people will forget about Tyre for 70 years. That is the length of a king's life. After 70 years, Tyre will be like the prostitute<sup>d</sup> in this song:

<sup>16</sup>"Oh woman, you are forgotten.

Take your harp and walk through the city.

Play your harp well. Sing your song often.

Then people will remember you."

<sup>17</sup>After 70 years the Lord will deal with Tyre. Tyre will again have trade. It will be like a prostitute for all the nations of the earth. <sup>18</sup>The profits will be saved for the Lord. Tyre will not keep the money she earns. It will give them to the people who serve the Lord. So they will have plenty of food and nice clothes.

God Will Punish the World

24 Look! The Lord will destroy the earth and leave it empty.

He will ruin the surface of the land and scatter its people.

<sup>2</sup>At that time the same thing will happen to everyone:

to common people and priests,
to slaves and masters,

to women slaves and their women masters,

to buyers and sellers,

to those who borrow and those who lend,

and to bankers and those who owe the bank.

<sup>3</sup>The earth will be completely empty.

The wealth will all be taken.

This will happen because the Lord commanded it.

<sup>4</sup>The earth will dry up and die.

The world will grow weak and die.

The great leaders in this land will become weak.

<sup>5</sup>The people of the earth have ruined it.

They do not follow God's teachings.

They do not obey God's laws.

They break their agreement with God that was to last forever.

<sup>6</sup>A curse will destroy the earth.

The people of the world are guilty.

So they will be burned up.

Only a few will be left.

<sup>7</sup>The new wine will be bad, and the grapevines will die.

People who were happy will be sad.

<sup>8</sup>The happy music of the tambourines<sup>d</sup> will end.

The happy sounds of wild parties will stop.

The joyful music from the harps will end.

<sup>9</sup>People will no longer sing while they drink their wine.

The beer will taste bitter to those who drink it.

<sup>10</sup>The ruined city will be empty.

People will hide behind closed doors.

<sup>11</sup>People in the streets will ask for wine.

But joy will have turned to sadness.

All the happiness will have left.

<sup>12</sup>The city will be left in ruins.

Its gates will be smashed to pieces.

<sup>13</sup>This is what will happen all over the earth.

This will happen to all the nations.

The earth will be like an olive tree after the harvest.

It will be like the few grapes left on a vine after harvest.

<sup>14</sup>The people shout for joy.

From the west they praise the greatness of the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>People in the east, praise the Lord.

People in the islands of the sea, praise the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.

- <sup>16</sup>We hear songs from every part of the earth.
These songs praise God, the Righteous One.
- But I said, "I am dying! I am dying!
How terrible it will be for me!
Traitors turn against people.
With their dishonesty, they turn against people."
- <sup>17</sup>There are terrors, holes and traps for the people of the earth.
- <sup>18</sup>Anyone who tries to escape from the sound of terror will fall into a hole.
Anyone who climbs out of the hole will be caught in a trap.
The clouds in the sky will pour out rain.
The foundations of the earth will shake.
- <sup>19</sup>The earth will be broken up.
And the earth will split open.
The earth will shake violently.
- <sup>20</sup>The earth will stumble around like a man who is drunk.
It will shake like a hut in a storm.
Its sin is like a heavy weight on its back.
The earth will fall and never rise again.
- <sup>21</sup>At that time the Lord will punish the powers in the sky above and the rulers on earth below.
- <sup>22</sup>They will be gathered together.
They will be thrown into a pit as prisoners.
They will be shut up in prison.
After much time they will be punished.
- <sup>23</sup>The moon will be embarrassed.
The sun will be ashamed.
This will happen because the Lord of heaven's armies will rule as king on Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem.
Jerusalem's leaders will see his greatness.

A Song of Praise to God

- 25 Lord, you are my God.
I honor you and praise you.
You have done amazing things.
You have always done what you said you would.
You have done what you planned long ago.
- <sup>2</sup>You have made the city a pile of rocks.
You have destroyed her walls.
The city our enemies built with strong walls is gone.
It will never be built again.
- <sup>3</sup>People from powerful nations will honor you.

- Cruel people from strong cities will fear you.
- <sup>4</sup>You help the poor people.
You help the helpless when they are in danger.
You are like a shelter from storms.
You are like shade that protects them from the heat.
The cruel people attack
like a rainstorm beating against the wall.
- <sup>5</sup> The cruel people burn like the heat in the desert.
But you, God, stop their violent attack.
As a cloud cools a hot day,
Lord, you silence the songs of those who have no mercy.

God's Banquet for His Servants

- <sup>6</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies will give a feast.
It will be on this mountain for all people.
It will be a feast with the best food and wine.
The meat and wine will be the finest.
- <sup>7</sup>On this mountain God will destroy the veil that covers all nations.
This veil, called "death," covers all peoples.
- <sup>8</sup>But God will destroy death forever.
The Lord God will wipe away every tear from every face.
God will take away the shame of his people from the earth.
The Lord has spoken.
- <sup>9</sup>At that time people will say,
"Our God is doing this!
We have trusted in him, and he has come to save us.
We have been trusting our Lord.
So we will rejoice and be happy when he saves us."
- <sup>10</sup>The Lord will protect Jerusalem.
But the Lord will crush our enemy Moab.
Moab will be like straw that is trampled down in the manure.
- <sup>11</sup>They will spread their arms in it like a person who is swimming.
The Lord will bring down their pride.
All the clever things they have made will mean nothing.
- <sup>12</sup>Moab's high walls protect them.
But the Lord will destroy these walls.
The Lord will throw them down on the ground.
The stones will lie in the dust.

A Song of Praise to God

26 At that time people will sing this song in Judah:

We have a strong city.

God protects us with its strong walls and defenses.

<sup>2</sup>Open the gates, and the good people will enter.
They follow God's good way of living.

<sup>3</sup>You, Lord, give true peace.
You give peace to those who depend on you.

You give peace to those who trust you.

<sup>4</sup>So, trust the Lord always.
Trust the Lord because he is our Rock<sup>d</sup>
forever.

<sup>5</sup>But the Lord will destroy the proud city.
And he will punish the people living there.

He will bring that high city down to the ground.

He throws it down into the dust.

<sup>6</sup>Then those who were hurt by the city will walk on its ruins.

Those who were made poor by the city will trample it under their feet.

<sup>7</sup>The path of life of the people who are right with God is level.

Lord, you make the way of life smooth for those people.

<sup>8</sup>But, Lord, we are waiting for your way of justice.
Our souls want to remember you and your name.

<sup>9</sup>My soul wants to be with you at night.
And my spirit wants to be with you at the dawn of every day.

When your way of justice comes to the land, people of the world will learn the right way of living.

<sup>10</sup>An evil person will not learn to do good even if you show him kindness.
He will continue doing evil, even if he lives in a good world.

He never sees the Lord's greatness.

<sup>11</sup>Lord, you are ready to punish those people.
But they do not see that.

Lord, show them your strong love for your people.

Then the evil people will be ashamed.
Burn them in the fire
you have prepared for your enemies.

<sup>12</sup>Lord, all our success is because of what you have done.
So give us peace.

<sup>13</sup>Lord, our God, other masters besides you have ruled us.

But we honor only you.

<sup>14</sup>Those masters are now dead.

Their ghosts will not rise from death.

You decided to destroy them.
And you destroyed any memory of them.

<sup>15</sup>Lord, you multiplied the number of your people.

You multiplied them and brought honor to yourself.

You made the borders of the land wide.

<sup>16</sup>Lord, people remember you when they are in trouble.

They say quiet prayers to you when you punish them.

<sup>17</sup>Lord, when we are with you,
we are like a woman giving birth to a baby.

She cries and has pain from the birth.

<sup>18</sup>In the same way, we had pain.

We gave birth, but only to wind.

We don't bring salvation to the land.

We don't make new people for the world.

<sup>19</sup>Your people have died, but they will live again.

Their bodies will rise from death.

Dead people in the ground,

get up and be happy!

The dew covering you is like the dew of a new day.

The ground will give birth to the dead buried in it.

Judgment: Reward or Punishment

<sup>20</sup>My people, go into your rooms.

Shut your doors behind you.

Hide in your rooms for a short time.

Hide until God's anger is finished.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord will leave his place.

He will punish the people of the world for their sins.

The earth will show the blood of the people who have been killed.

It will not cover the dead any longer.

27 At that time the Lord will judge Leviathan,<sup>d</sup> the gliding snake.

He will punish Leviathan, the coiled snake.

The Lord will use his great sword, his hard and powerful sword.

He will kill the monster in the sea.

<sup>2</sup>In that day people will sing about the pleasant vineyard.

<sup>3</sup>"I, the Lord, will care for that vineyard.
 I will water it at the right time.
 No one will hurt it.
 I will guard it day and night.
<sup>4</sup>I am not angry.
 If anyone builds a wall of thornbushes in war,
 I will march to it and burn it.
<sup>5</sup>But if anyone comes to me for safety and wants to make peace with me, he should come and make peace with
 me."
<sup>6</sup>In the days to come, the people of Jacob will be like a plant with good roots.
 Israel will grow like a plant beginning to bloom.
 Then the world will be filled with their children.

God Will Send Israel Away

<sup>7</sup>The Lord has not hurt his people as he hurt their enemies.
 His people have not been killed like those who tried to kill them.
<sup>8</sup>The Lord will settle his argument with Israel by sending it far away.
 Like a hot desert wind, he will drive
 Israel away.
<sup>9</sup>This is how Israel's guilt will be forgiven.
 This is how its sins will be taken away.
 Israel will crush the rocks of the altar to dust.
 No statues or altars will be left standing for the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols.
<sup>10</sup>At that time the strong, walled city will be empty.
 It will be like a desert.
 Calves will eat grass there.
 They will lie down there.
 They will eat leaves from the branches.
<sup>11</sup>The limbs will become dry and break off.
 Women will use them for firewood.
 The people refuse to understand.
 So God will not comfort them.
 Their Maker will not be kind to them.
<sup>12</sup>At that time the Lord will begin gathering his people one by one. He will gather all his people from the Euphrates River to the brook of Egypt. He will separate them from others as grain is separated from chaff.<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup>Many of my people are now lost in Assyria. Some of my people have run away to Egypt. But at that time a great trumpet will be blown. And all those people will come back to Jerusalem.
 They will bow down before the Lord on that holy mountain.

Warnings to North Israel

28 How terrible it will be for Samaria, the pride of Israel's drunken people!
 That beautiful crown of flowers is just a dying plant.
 It sits on a hill above a rich valley where drunkards live.
<sup>2</sup>Look, the Lord has someone who is strong and full of power.
 That person will come like a storm of hail and strong wind.
 He will come like a sudden flood of water pouring over the country.
 He will throw Samaria down to the ground.
<sup>3</sup>That city, the pride of Israel's drunken
 people,
 will be trampled underfoot.
<sup>4</sup>That beautiful crown of flowers is just a dying plant.
 It sits on a hill above a rich valley.
 That city will be like the first fig of summer.
 When a person sees it,
 he quickly picks it and eats it.
<sup>5</sup>At that time the Lord of heaven's armies will be like a beautiful crown.
 He will be like a wonderful crown of flowers for his people who are left alive.
<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord will give wisdom to the judges who rule his people.
 The Lord will give strength to those who battle at the city gate.
<sup>7</sup>But now those leaders are drunk with wine.
 They stumble from drinking too much beer.
 The priests and prophets<sup>d</sup> are drunk with beer.
 They are filled with wine.
 They stumble from too much beer.
 The prophets are drunk when they see their visions.
 The judges stumble when they make their decisions.
<sup>8</sup>Every table is covered with vomit.
 There is not a clean place anywhere.
<sup>9</sup>The Lord is trying to teach the people a lesson.
 He is trying to make them understand his teachings.
 But the people are like little babies.
 They are like babies who just nursed at their mother's breast.

<sup>10</sup>So they make fun of the Lord's prophet and say:

"A command here, a command there.
A rule here, a rule there.
A lesson here, a lesson there."

<sup>11</sup>So the Lord will use strange words and foreign languages to speak to these people.

<sup>12</sup>God said to them,
"Here is a place of rest.
Let the tired people come and rest.
This is the place of peace."
But the people would not listen.

<sup>13</sup>So the words of the Lord will be,
"A command here, a command there.
A rule here, a rule there.
A lesson here, a lesson there."
They will fall back and will be defeated.
They will be trapped and captured.

<sup>14</sup>You who brag should listen to the Lord's message.

Pay attention, you leaders in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>You say, "We have made an agreement with death.

We have a contract with death.
When punishment passes by,
it won't hurt us.
We will be safe with our lies.
We will hide behind our tricks."

<sup>16</sup>Because of these things, this is what the Lord God says:

"I will put a stone in the ground in Jerusalem.

This will be a tested stone.
Everything will be built on this important and precious rock.

Anyone who trusts in it will never be disappointed.

<sup>17</sup>I will use justice as a measuring line.
I will use goodness to measure by.

The lies you hide behind will be destroyed as if by hail.

They will be washed away as if in a flood.

<sup>18</sup>Your agreement with death will be erased.
Your contract with death will not help
you.

When punishment comes,
you will be crushed by it.

<sup>19</sup>Whenever punishment comes, it will take you away.

It will come morning after morning.
It will defeat you by day and by night.
Those who hear of this punishment will be terrified."

<sup>20</sup>You will be like the man who tried to sleep
on a bed that was too short for him.
And his blanket was too narrow to wrap around himself.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord will fight as he did at Mount Perazim.

He will be angry as he was in the Valley of Gibeon.

Then the Lord will do his work, his strange work.

He will finish his job, his strange job.

<sup>22</sup>Now, you must not make fun of these things.

If you do, the ropes around you will become tighter.

The Lord of heaven's armies has told me
these things.

He has told me how the whole earth will be destroyed.

The Lord Punishes Fairly

<sup>23</sup>Listen closely to what I tell you.

Listen carefully to what I say.

<sup>24</sup>A farmer does not plow his field all the time.

He does not go on working the soil.

<sup>25</sup>He prepares the ground.

Then he plants the dill seed and scatters
the cummin seed.

He plants the wheat in rows.

He plants barley in its special place,
and other wheat in its own field.

<sup>26</sup>His God teaches him and shows him the right way.

<sup>27</sup>A farmer doesn't use heavy boards to crush dill.

He doesn't use a wagon to crush cummin.

He uses a small stick to break open the dill.

With a stick he opens the cummin.

<sup>28</sup>The grain is ground to make bread.

People do not ruin it by crushing it
forever.

The farmer separates the wheat from the chaff<sup>d</sup> with his cart.

But he does not let his horses grind it.

<sup>29</sup>This lesson comes from the Lord of heaven's armies.

He gives wonderful advice. He is very wise.

Warnings to Jerusalem

29 How terrible it will be for you,
Jerusalem.

You are the city where David camped.

- Her festivals have continued year after year.
- <sup>2</sup>I will attack Jerusalem.
That city will be filled with sadness and crying.
It will be like an altar to me.
- <sup>3</sup>I will put armies all around you, Jerusalem.
I will surround you with towers.
I will build devices around you to attack
you.
- <sup>4</sup>You will be pulled down and will speak from the ground.
I will hear your voice rising from the
ground.
It will sound like the voice of a ghost.
Your words will come like a whisper from the dirt.
- <sup>5</sup>Your many enemies will become like fine dust.
The groups of cruel people will be like chaff<sup>d</sup> that is blown away.
Everything will happen very quickly.
- <sup>6</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies will come.
He will come with thunder, earthquakes and great noises.
He will come with storms, strong winds and a fire that destroys.
- <sup>7</sup>Then all the nations that fight against Jerusalem
will be like a dream.
All the nations that surround and attack
her will be like a vision in the night.
- <sup>8</sup>They will be like a hungry man who dreams he is eating.
But when he wakes up, he is still hungry.
They will be like a thirsty man who dreams
he is drinking.
But when he wakes up, he is still weak and thirsty.
It will be the same way with all the
nations
who fight against Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>9</sup>Be surprised and amazed.
Blind yourselves so that you cannot see.
Become drunk, but not from wine.
Trip and fall, but not from beer.
- <sup>10</sup>The Lord has made you go into a deep sleep.
He has closed your eyes. (The prophets are your eyes.)
He has covered your heads. (The seers<sup>d</sup> are your heads.)
- <sup>11</sup>This vision is like the words of a book that is closed and sealed. You may give the book to someone who can read. And you may tell that person to read it. But he will say, "I can't read the book. It is closed, and I can't open it."<sup>12</sup>Or you may give the book to someone who cannot read. You may tell him to read the book. But he will say, "I can't read it because I don't know how to read."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord says:

"These people say they love me.
They show honor to me with words.
But their hearts are far from me.
The honor they show me is nothing but human rules they have memorized:

<sup>14</sup>So I will continue to amaze these people by doing more and more miracles.<sup>d</sup>
Their wise men will lose their wisdom.
Their wise men will not be able to understand."

Warnings About Other Nations

- <sup>15</sup>How terrible it will be for those who try to hide things from the Lord.
How terrible it will be for those who do their work in darkness.
They think no one will see them or know what they do.
- <sup>16</sup>You are confused.
You think the clay is equal to the potter.
You think that an object can tell the person who made it,
"You didn't make me."
This is like a pot telling its maker,
"You don't know anything."

A Better Time Is Coming

- <sup>17</sup>In a very short time, Lebanon will become rich farmland.
And the rich farmland will seem like a forest.
- <sup>18</sup>At that time the deaf will hear the words in a book.
Instead of having darkness and gloom,
the blind will see.
- <sup>19</sup>The Lord will make the poor people happy.
They will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>20</sup>Then the people without mercy will come to an end.
Those who do not respect God will disappear.
Those who enjoy doing evil will be gone.
- <sup>21</sup>Those who lie about others in court will be gone.

Those who trap people in court will be gone.

Those who lie and take justice from innocent people in court will be gone.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord set Abraham free. This Lord speaks to the family of Jacob.

"Now the people of Jacob will not be ashamed.

They will not be disgraced any longer.

<sup>23</sup>They will see all their children, the children I made with my hands. And they will say my name is holy.

The people will agree that the Holy One of Jacob is holy.

They will respect the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>People who do wrong will now understand.

Those who complain will accept being taught."

Warnings to the Stubborn Nation

30 The Lord said, "How terrible it will be for these stubborn children.

They make plans, but they don't ask me to help them.

They make agreements with other nations, without asking my Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

They are adding more and more sins to themselves.

<sup>2</sup>They go down to Egypt for help, but they didn't ask me about it first. They hope they will be saved by the king of Egypt.

They want Egypt to protect them.

<sup>3</sup>But hiding in Egypt will bring you only shame.

Egypt's protection will only disappoint you.

<sup>4</sup>Your officers have gone to Zoan.

Your messengers have gone to Hanes.

<sup>5</sup>But they will be put to shame, because Egypt is useless to them.

Egypt will give no help and be of no use. It will cause them only shame and embarrassment."

God's Message to Judah

<sup>e</sup>This is the message about the animals in southern Judah:

Southern Judah is a dangerous place.

It is full of lions and lionesses, poisonous snakes and darting snakes.

The messengers travel through there with their wealth on donkeys' backs.

They have put their treasure on the backs of camels.

They carry them to a nation that cannot help them.

<sup>7</sup> They go to Egypt whose help is useless. So I call that country Rahab<sup>d</sup> the Do-Nothing.

<sup>8</sup>Now write this on a sign for the people.

Write this on a scroll.

Write these things for the days to come. Write them so they will last forever.

<sup>9</sup>These people are like children who lie and refuse to obey.

They refuse to listen to the Lord's teachings.

<sup>10</sup>They tell the seers,<sup>d</sup>

"Don't see any more visions!"

They say to the prophets,<sup>d</sup>

"Don't tell us the truth!

Say things that will make us feel good. See only good things for us.

<sup>11</sup>Stop blocking our path.

Get out of our way.

Stop telling us about God, the Holy One of Israel."

<sup>12</sup>So this is what the Holy One of Israel says:

"You people have refused to accept this message from the Lord.

You depended on cruelty and lies to help you.

<sup>13</sup>You are guilty of these things.

So you are like a high wall with cracks in it.

It will fall suddenly and break into small pieces.

<sup>14</sup>You will be like a clay jar that breaks into many pieces.

Those pieces will be too small to take coals from the fire or to get water from a well."

<sup>15</sup>This is what the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, says:

"If you come back to me and trust me, you will be saved.

If you will be calm and trust me, you will be strong."

But you don't want to do that.

<sup>16</sup>You say, "No, we need horses to run away on."

So you will run away on horses.

You say, "We will ride away on fast horses."

So those who chase you will be fast.

<sup>17</sup>One enemy will make threats, and 1,000 of your men will run away.

Five enemies will make threats, and all of you will run from them.
You will be left alone like a flagpole on a hilltop.

You will be like a banner on a hill.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord wants to show his mercy to you.
He wants to rise and comfort you.

The Lord is a fair God.

And everyone who waits for his help will be happy.

God Will Help His People

<sup>19</sup>You people who live on Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem will not cry anymore. The Lord will hear your crying, and he will comfort you. The Lord will hear you, and he will help you. <sup>20</sup>The Lord has given you sorrow and hurt. It was like the bread and water you ate every day. But he is your teacher, and he will not continue to hide from you. You will see your teacher with your own eyes. <sup>21</sup>If you go the wrong way—to the right or to the left—you will hear a voice behind you. It will say, "This is the right way.
You should go this way." <sup>22</sup>You have statues covered with silver and gold. But you will ruin them for further use. You will throw them away like filthy rags. You will say, "Go away!"

<sup>23</sup>At that time the Lord will send rain for you. You will plant seeds in the ground, and the ground will grow food for you. The harvest will be very great. You will have plenty of food in the fields for your animals. There will be large fields for your sheep. <sup>24</sup>Your oxen and donkeys will work the soil. They will have all the food they need. You will have to use shovels and pitchforks to spread all the food for your animals to eat. <sup>25</sup>Every mountain and hill will have streams filled with water. These things will happen after many people are killed and the towers are pulled down. <sup>26</sup>At that time the light from the moon will be bright like the sun.
The light from the sun will be seven times brighter than now. The light from the sun in one day will be like a full week. These things will happen when the Lord bandages his broken people and heals the hurts he gave them.

<sup>27</sup>Look! The Lord comes from far away.

His anger is like a fire with thick clouds of smoke.

His mouth is filled with anger, and his tongue is like a burning fire.

<sup>28</sup>The Lord's breath is like a rushing river.
It rises until it reaches the throat.

He will judge the nations as if he is sifting them through the strainer of destruction.

He will place in their mouths a bit that will lead them the wrong way.

<sup>29</sup>You will sing happy songs as on the nights you begin a festival.

You will be happy as people listening to flutes

as they go to the mountain of the Lord.
The Lord is the Rock<sup>d</sup> of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>The Lord will cause all people to hear his great voice.

He will cause them to see his powerful arm come down.

It will come with anger like a great fire that burns everything.

It will be like a great storm with much rain and hail.

<sup>31</sup>Assyria will be afraid when it hears the voice of the Lord.

The Lord will beat Assyria with a stick.

<sup>32</sup>The Lord will punish Assyria with a stick.
He will beat them to the music of tambourines<sup>d</sup> and harps.

The Lord will fight against them with his mighty weapons.

<sup>33</sup>Topheth<sup>a</sup> has been made ready for a long time.

It is ready for the king.

It was made deep and wide.

There is much wood and fire there.

And the Lord's breath will come like a stream of burning sulfur and burn
it.

Warnings About Relying on Egypt

31 How terrible it will be for those people who go down to Egypt for help.

They think horses will save them.

They think their many chariots and strong horsemen will save them.

They don't trust God, the Holy One of Israel.

They don't ask the Lord for help.

<sup>2</sup>But it is the Lord who is wise and who can bring them trouble.

He does not change his warnings.

He will rise up and fight against the evil
people.

And he will fight against those who try to help evil people.

<sup>3</sup>The Egyptians are only people and are not
God.

<sup>a</sup>Topheth Gehenna; the Valley of Hinnom. Here people burned the bodies of criminals and animals, along with garbage.

Their horses are only animals and are not spirit.

The Lord will stretch out his arm, and the one who helps will stumble.
The people who wanted help will fall.
All of them will be destroyed together.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord says this to me:
"When a lion or a lion's cub kills an animal to eat,
it stands over the dead animal and roars.

A band of shepherds may be assembled against it.
But the lion will not be afraid of their yelling.

It will not be upset by their noise.
So the Lord of heaven's armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion<sup>4</sup> and on its hill.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies will defend Jerusalem.

He will defend it like birds flying over their nests.

He will defend and save it.

He will 'pass over' and save Jerusalem."

<sup>6</sup>You children of Israel, come back to the God that you fought against. <sup>7</sup>The time is coming when each of you will stop worshiping the idols of gold and silver that you made. You truly sinned when you made them.

<sup>8</sup>"Assyria will be defeated by a sword, but not the sword of a man.

Assyria will be destroyed, but not by a man's sword.

Assyria will run away from the sword of
God.

But their young men will be caught and made slaves.

<sup>9</sup>They will panic, and their place of safety will be destroyed.

Their commanders will be terrified when they see God's battle flag."

The Lord said all these things.

The Lord's fire is in Jerusalem.

His furnace is in Jerusalem.

A Good Kingdom Is Coming

32 A king will rule in a way that brings justice.

Leaders will make fair decisions.

<sup>2</sup>Then each ruler will be like a shelter from the wind.

He will be like a safe place in a storm.

He will be like streams of water in a dry
land.

He will be like a cool shadow from a large rock in a hot land.

<sup>3</sup>People will look to the king for help.
And they will truly listen to what he says.

<sup>4</sup>People who are now worried will be able to understand.

Those who cannot speak clearly now will then be able to speak clearly and quickly.

<sup>5</sup>Fools will not be called great men.
People will not respect wicked men.

<sup>6</sup>A fool says foolish things.

And in his mind he plans evil things to do.

A fool wants to do things that are wrong.
He says wrong things about the Lord.

A fool does not feed the hungry,
He does not let thirsty people drink
water.

<sup>7</sup>The wicked man uses evil like a tool.
He plans ways to take everything from poor people.

He destroys the poor with lies,
even when the poor man is in the right.

<sup>8</sup>But a good leader plans good things to do.
And those good things make him a good leader.

Hard Times Are Coming

<sup>9</sup>You women who are calm now, stand up and listen to me.

You women who feel safe now,
hear what I say.

<sup>10</sup>You women feel safe now, but after one year you will be afraid.
There will be no grape harvest.

There will not be any summer fruit to gather.

<sup>11</sup>Women, you are calm now, but you should shake with fear.

Women, you feel safe now, but you should tremble.

Take off your nice clothes.

Then put rough cloth around your waist to show your sadness.

<sup>12</sup>Beat your breasts in grief because the fields that were pleasant are now empty.

Cry because the vines that once had fruit
now have no more grapes.

<sup>13</sup>Cry for the land of my people.

Cry because only thorns and weeds grow there now.

Cry for the city that once was happy.

And cry for all the houses that once were filled with joy.

<sup>14</sup>The palace will be empty.
 People will leave the noisy city.
 Strong cities and towers will be empty.
 Wild donkeys will love to live there.
 Sheep will go there to eat.

Things Will Get Better

<sup>15</sup>This will continue until God puts his Spirit<sup>d</sup> from above into us.
 Then the desert will be like a fertile field.
 And the fertile field will be like a forest.
<sup>16</sup>Justice will be found even in the desert.
 And fairness will be found in the fertile fields.
<sup>17</sup>That fairness will bring peace.
 And fairness will bring calm and safety
 forever.
<sup>18</sup>My people will live in peaceful places.
 They will have safe homes.
 They will live in calm places of rest.
<sup>19</sup>Hail will destroy the forest.
 And the city will be completely
 destroyed.
<sup>20</sup>But you will be happy as you plant seeds near every stream.
 You will let your cattle and donkeys wander freely.

Warnings to Assyria and Promises to God's People

33 How terrible it will be for you who destroy others.
 But you have not been destroyed yet.
 How terrible it will be for you, traitor.
 But no one has turned against you yet.
 When you stop destroying,
 others will destroy you.
 When you stop turning against others,
 they will turn against you.
<sup>2</sup>Lord, be kind to us.
 We have waited for your help.
 Lord, give us strength every morning.
 Save us when we are in trouble.
<sup>3</sup>Your powerful voice makes people run away in fear.
 Your greatness causes the nations to run
 away.
<sup>4</sup>Like locusts,<sup>d</sup> your enemies will take away the things you stole in war.
 Like locusts rushing about, they will take your wealth.
<sup>5</sup>The Lord is very great. He lives in a high place.
 He fills Jerusalem with fairness and
 justice.
<sup>6</sup>The Lord will be your safety.

He is full of salvation, wisdom and knowledge.
 Respect for the Lord is the greatest treasure.

<sup>7</sup>See, brave men are crying out in the streets.
 Those who tried to bring peace are crying loudly.
<sup>8</sup>There is no one on the roads.
 No one is walking in the paths.
 People have broken the agreements they made.
 People refuse to believe the proof from witnesses.
 No one respects other people.
<sup>9</sup>The land is sick and dying.
 Lebanon is ashamed and dying.
 The Plain of Sharon is dry like the desert.
 The trees of Bashan and Carmel are dying.
<sup>10</sup>The Lord says, "Now, I will stand up and show my greatness.
 Now, I will become important to the
 people.
<sup>11</sup>You people do useless things.
 These things are like hay and straw.
 A destructive wind will burn you like
 fire.
<sup>12</sup>People will be burned until their bones become like lime.
 They will burn quickly like dry thornbushes."
<sup>13</sup>You people in faraway lands, hear what I have done.
 You people who are near me, learn about my power.
<sup>14</sup>The sinners in Jerusalem are afraid.
 The people who are separated from God
 shake with fear.
 They say, "Can any of us live through this fire that destroys?
 Who can live near this fire that burns on and on?"
<sup>15</sup>A person might do what is right.
 He might speak what is right.
 He might refuse to take money unfairly.
 He might refuse to take money to hurt
 others.
 He might not listen to plans of murder.
 He might refuse to think about evil.
<sup>16</sup>This is the kind of person who will be safe.
 He will be protected as he would be in a high, walled city.
 He will always have bread,
 and he will not run out of water.

- <sup>17</sup>Your eyes will see the king in his beauty.
You will see the land that stretches far
away.
- <sup>18</sup>You will think about the terror of the past.
You will think, "Where is that officer?
Where is the one who collected the taxes?
Where is the officer in charge of our defense towers?"
- <sup>19</sup>You will not see those proud people from other countries anymore.
No more will you hear their strange language that you couldn't understand.

God Will Protect Jerusalem

- <sup>20</sup>Look at Jerusalem, the city of our festivals.
Look at Jerusalem, that beautiful place of rest.
It is like a tent that will never be moved.
The pegs that hold her in place will never be moved.
Her ropes will never be broken.
- <sup>21</sup>There the Lord will be our Mighty One.
That land is a place with streams and wide rivers.
But there will be no enemy boats on those rivers.
No powerful ship will sail on those rivers.
- <sup>22</sup>This is because the Lord is our judge.
The Lord makes our laws.
The Lord is our king.
He will save us.
- <sup>23</sup>You sailors from other lands, hear:
The ropes on your boats hang loose.
The mast is not held firm.
The sails are not spread open.
The Lord will give us your wealth.
There will be so much wealth even the crippled people will carry off a share.
- <sup>24</sup>No one living in Jerusalem will say, "I am sick."
The people who live there will have their sins forgiven.

God Will Punish His Enemies

- 34 All you nations, come near and listen.
Pay attention, you peoples!
The earth and all the people in it should listen.
The world and everything in it should listen.
- <sup>2</sup>The Lord is angry with all the nations.
He is angry with their armies.
He will destroy them and kill them all.

- <sup>3</sup>Their bodies will be thrown outside.
The stink will rise from the bodies, and the blood will flow down the
mountains.
- <sup>4</sup>The sun, moon and stars will dissolve.
The sky will be rolled up like a scroll.
The stars will fall like dead leaves from a vine or dried-up figs from a fig tree.
- <sup>5</sup>The Lord's sword in the sky is covered with blood.
It will cut through Edom.
He will destroy these people as an offering to the Lord.
- <sup>6</sup>The Lord's sword will be covered with blood.
It will be covered with fat.
It is the blood from lambs and goats.
It is the fat from the kidneys of male sheep.
This is because the Lord decided there will be a sacrifice in Bozrah.
He has decided there will be much killing in Edom.
- <sup>7</sup>The oxen will be killed.
And the cattle and the strong bulls will be killed.
The land will be filled with their blood.
The dirt will be covered with their fat.
- <sup>8</sup>The Lord has chosen a time for punishment.
He has chosen a year when people must pay for the wrongs they did to Jerusalem.
- <sup>9</sup>Edom's rivers will be like hot tar.
The dirt of Edom will be like burning sulfur.
The land of Edom will be like burning tar.
- <sup>10</sup>The fires will burn night and day.
The smoke will rise from Edom forever.
Year after year that land will be empty.
No one will ever travel through that land
again.
- <sup>11</sup>Birds and small animals will own that land.
Owls and ravens will live there.
God will make it an empty wasteland.
It will have nothing left in it.
- <sup>12</sup>The important men will have no one left to rule them.
The leaders will all be gone.
- <sup>13</sup>Thorns will take over the strong towers.
Wild bushes will grow in the walled cities.
Wild dogs will live there.
Owls will live in those homes.

- <sup>14</sup>Desert animals will live with the hyenas there.
And wild goats will call to their friends.
Night animals will live there.
They will find a place of rest there.
- <sup>15</sup>Owls will nest there and lay eggs.
When the eggs open, the owls will gather their young under their wings.
Hawks will gather with their own kind.
- <sup>16</sup>Look at the Lord's scroll. Read what is written there:
None of these will be missing.
Every one will have its mate.
God said he will gather them together.
So his Spirit<sup>d</sup> will gather them together.
- <sup>17</sup>God has divided the land among them.
And he has given them each their land.
So they will own that land forever.
They will live there year after year.

God Will Comfort His People

- 35 The desert and dry land will become happy.
The desert will be glad and will produce flowers.
Like a flower, <sup>2</sup>it will have many blooms.
It will show its happiness, as if it is shouting with joy.
It will be beautiful like the forest of Lebanon.
It will be as beautiful as the hill of Carmel and the Plain of Sharon.
All people will see the glory of the Lord.
They will see the splendor of our God.
- <sup>3</sup>Make the weak hands strong.
Make the weak knees strong.
- <sup>4</sup>Say to people who are afraid and confused,
"Be strong. Don't be afraid.
Look, your God will come,
and he will punish your enemies.
He will make them pay for the wrongs they did.
He will come and save you."
- <sup>5</sup>Then the blind people will see again.
Then the deaf will hear.
- <sup>6</sup>Crippled people will jump like deer.
And those who can't talk now will shout with joy.
Springs of water will flow in the desert.
Streams will flow in the dry land.
- <sup>7</sup>The burning desert will have pools of water.
The dry ground will have springs.
Where wild dogs once lived,

- grass and water plants will grow.
- <sup>8</sup>A road will be there.
This highway will be called "The Road to Being Holy."
Evil people will not be allowed to walk on that road.
Only good people will walk on that road.
No fools will go on it.
- <sup>9</sup>No lions will be there.
No dangerous animals will be on that road.
They will not be found there.
That road will be for the people God saves.
- <sup>10</sup> The people the Lord has freed will return there.
They will enter Jerusalem with joy.
Their happiness will last forever.
Their gladness and joy will fill them completely.
Sorrow and sadness will go far away.

The Assyrians Invade Judah

36 During Hezekiah's fourteenth year as king, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked Judah. He attacked all the strong, walled cities of Judah and defeated them. <sup>2</sup>The king of Assyria sent out his field commander. He went with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. When the commander came near the waterway from the upper pool, he stopped. The upper pool is on the road to the Washerman's Field. <sup>3</sup>Eliakim, Shebna and Joah went out to meet him. Eliakim son of Hilkiyah was the palace manager. Shebna was the royal assistant. And Joah son of Asaph was the recorder.

<sup>4</sup>The field commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah this:

"The great king, the king of Assyria, says: You have nothing to trust in to help you. <sup>5</sup>You say you have battle plans and power for war. But your words mean nothing. Whom are you trusting for help so that you turn against me? <sup>6</sup>Look, you are depending on Egypt to help you. Egypt is like a splintered walking stick. If you lean on it for help, it will stab you and hurt you. The king of Egypt will hurt those who depend on him. <sup>7</sup>You might say, "We are depending on the Lord our God." But Hezekiah destroyed the Lord's altars and the places of worship. Hezekiah told Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship only at this one altar."

<sup>8</sup>"Now make an agreement with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find enough men to ride them. <sup>9</sup>You cannot defeat one of my master's least important officers. So why do you depend on Egypt to give you chariots and horsemen? <sup>10</sup>I have not come to attack and destroy this country without an order from the Lord. The Lord himself told me to come to this country and destroy it.'"

<sup>11</sup>Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah spoke to the field commander. They said, "Please speak to us in the Aramaic language. We understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew because the people on the city wall can hear you."

<sup>12</sup>But the commander said, "No. My master did not send me to tell these things only to you and your king. My master sent me to tell them also to those people sitting on the wall. They will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine like you."

<sup>13</sup>Then the commander stood and shouted loudly in the Hebrew language. He said, "Listen to the words from the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup>The king says you should not let Hezekiah fool you. Hezekiah can't save you. <sup>15</sup>Don't let Hezekiah talk you into trusting the Lord. Hezekiah says, 'The Lord will surely save us. This city won't be given over to the king of Assyria.'

<sup>16</sup>"Don't listen to Hezekiah. The king of Assyria says, 'Make peace with me. Come out of the city to me. Then everyone will be free to eat the fruit from his own grapevine and fig tree. Everyone will be free to drink water from his own well. <sup>17</sup>Then I will come and take you to a land like your own. It is a land with grain and new wine. It has bread and vineyards.'

<sup>18</sup>"Don't let Hezekiah fool you. He says, 'The Lord will save us.' The god of any other nation has not saved his people from the power of the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? They did not save Samaria from my power. <sup>20</sup>Not one of all the gods of these countries has saved his people from me. Then the Lord cannot save Jerusalem from my power."

<sup>21</sup>The people were silent. They didn't answer the commander at all. This was because King Hezekiah had ordered, "Don't answer him."

<sup>22</sup>Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah tore their clothes to show how upset they were. (Eliakim son of Hilkiah was the palace manager. Shebna was the royal assistant. And Joah son of Asaph was the recorder.) The three men went to Hezekiah and told him what the field commander had said.

Hezekiah Asks God to Help

37 When King Hezekiah heard the message, he tore his clothes. And he put on rough cloth to show how sad he was. Then he went into the Temple<sup>a</sup> of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah sent Eliakim, Shebna and the older priests to Isaiah. Eliakim was the palace manager, and Shebna was the royal assistant. The men were all wearing the rough cloth when they came to Isaiah. He was a prophet,<sup>d</sup> the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup>These men told Isaiah, "This is what Hezekiah says: Today is a day of sorrow and punishment and disgrace. It is sad, as when a child should be born, but the mother is not strong enough to give birth to it. <sup>4</sup>The king of Assyria sent his field commander to make fun of the living God. Maybe the Lord your God will hear what the commander said. Maybe the Lord your God will punish him for what he said. So pray for the few people of Israel who are left alive."

<sup>9</sup>The king received a report that Tirhakah was coming to attack him. Tirhakah was the Cushite king of Egypt. When the king of Assyria heard this, he sent messengers to Hezekiah. The king said: <sup>10</sup>"Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: Don't be fooled by the god you trust. Don't believe him when he says Jerusalem will not be defeated by the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup>You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done. They have completely defeated every country. Do not think you will be saved. <sup>12</sup>The gods of those people did not save them. My ancestors destroyed them. My ancestors defeated the cities of Gozan, Haran and Zepheth. They defeated the people of Eden living in Tel Assar. <sup>13</sup>Where are the kings of Hamath and Arpad? Where is the king of the city of Sepharvaim? Where are the kings of Hena and Ivvah?"

Hezekiah Prays to the Lord

<sup>14</sup>Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Hezekiah spread the letter out before the Lord. <sup>15</sup>And he prayed to the Lord: <sup>16</sup>“Lord of heaven’s armies, you are the God of Israel. Your throne is between the gold creatures with wings. Only you are the God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. <sup>17</sup>Hear, Lord, and listen. Open your eyes, Lord, and see. Listen to all the words Sennacherib has said to insult the living God.

<sup>18</sup>“It is true, Lord. The kings of Assyria have destroyed all these countries and their lands. <sup>19</sup>These kings have thrown the gods of these nations into the fire. But they were only wood and rock statues that men made. So the kings have destroyed them. <sup>20</sup>Now, Lord our God, save us from the king’s power. Then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you, Lord, are the only God.”

God Answers Hezekiah

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah. Isaiah said, “The Lord, the God of Israel, says this: ‘You prayed to me about Sennacherib king of Assyria. <sup>22</sup>So this is what the Lord has said against Sennacherib:

The people of Jerusalem hate you and make fun of you.
The people of Jerusalem
laugh at you as you run away.

<sup>23</sup>You have insulted me and spoken against me.

You have raised your voice against me.
You have a proud look on your face.

You disobey me, the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>24</sup>You have used your messengers to insult the Lord.

You have said, “I have many chariots.
With them I have gone to the tops of the mountains.

I have climbed the highest mountains of Lebanon.

I have cut down its tallest cedars.
I have cut down its best pine trees.
I have gone to its greatest heights.

I have gone to its best forests.

<sup>25</sup>I have dug wells in foreign countries.

I have drunk water there.

By the soles of my feet,
I have dried up all the rivers of Egypt.”

<sup>26</sup>“King of Assyria, surely you have heard.
Long ago I, the Lord, planned these things.

Long ago I planned them.

Now I have made them happen.

I allowed you to turn those strong, walled cities into piles of rocks.

<sup>27</sup>The people living in those cities were weak.

They were frightened and put to shame.
They were like grass in the field.

They were like tender, young grass.
They were like grass that grows on the housetop.

It is burned by the wind before it can grow.

<sup>28</sup>“I know when you rest and when you come and go.

I know how you speak against me.

<sup>29</sup>You speak strongly against me.

And I have heard your proud words.
So I will put my hook in your nose.

And I will put my bit in your mouth.
Then I will force you to leave my country the same way that you came.’

<sup>30</sup>“Then the Lord said, ‘Hezekiah, I will give you this sign:

This year you will eat the grain that grows wild.

And the second year you will eat what grows wild from that.

But in the third year, plant grain and harvest it.

Plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>31</sup>The people left alive in the family of Judah will be saved.

Like plants that take root,
they will grow strong and have many children.

<sup>32</sup>A few people will come out of Jerusalem alive.

There will be a few from Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> who will live.

The strong love of the Lord of heaven’s armies will cause this to happen.’

<sup>33</sup>“So this is what the Lord says about the king of Assyria:

‘He will not enter this city.

He will not even shoot an arrow here.

He will not fight against it with shields.

He will not build a ramp to attack the city walls.

<sup>34</sup>He will return to his country the same way he came.

He will not enter this city,’
says the Lord.

<sup>35</sup>The Lord says, ‘I will defend and save this city.

I will do this for myself and for David, my servant.' ”

<sup>36</sup>Then the angel of the Lord went out. He killed 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up early the next morning, they saw all the dead bodies! <sup>37</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria left. He went back to Nineveh and stayed there.

<sup>38</sup>One day Sennacherib was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch. While he was there, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with a sword. Then they escaped to the land of Ararat. So Sennacherib's son Esarhaddon became king of Assyria.

Hezekiah's Illness

38 At that time Hezekiah became very sick. He was almost dead. The prophet<sup>d</sup> Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him. Isaiah told him, “This is what the Lord says: You are going to die. So you should give your last orders to everyone. You will not get well.”

<sup>2</sup>Hezekiah turned toward the wall and prayed to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>He said, “Lord, please remember that I have always obeyed you. I have given myself completely to you. I have done what you said was right.” And Hezekiah cried loudly.

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Isaiah: <sup>5</sup>“Go to Hezekiah and tell him: ‘This is what the Lord, the God of your ancestor David, says: I have heard your prayer. And I have seen your tears. I will add 15 years to your life. <sup>6</sup>I will save you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will defend this city.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah said, “Make a paste from figs. Put it on Hezekiah's boil. Then he will get well.”

<sup>22</sup>Hezekiah asked Isaiah, “What will be the sign? What will show that I will go up to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord?”

<sup>7</sup>Isaiah said, “The Lord will do what he says. This is the sign from the Lord to show you: <sup>8</sup>The sun has made a shadow go down the stairway of Ahaz. I will make it go back ten steps.” So the shadow made by the sun went back up the ten steps it had gone down.

<sup>10</sup>I said, “I am in the middle of my life.

Do I have to go through the gates where the dead are now?

Will I have the rest of my life taken away from me?”

<sup>11</sup>I said, “I will not see the Lord in the land of the living again.

I will not again see the people who live on the earth.

<sup>12</sup>Like a shepherd's tent, my home has been pulled down and taken from me.

I am finished like the cloth a weaver rolls up and cuts from the loom.<sup>a</sup>

In one day you brought me to this end.

<sup>13</sup>All night I cried loudly.

Like a lion, he crushed all my bones.

In one day you brought me to this end.

<sup>14</sup>I cried like a bird.

I moaned like a dove.

My eyes became tired as I looked to the heavens.

Lord, I have troubles. Please help me.”

<sup>15</sup>What can I say?

The Lord told me what would happen and then made it happen.

I have had these troubles in my soul.

So now I will be humble all my life.

<sup>16</sup>Lord, because of you, men live.

Because of you, my spirit also lives.

You made me well and let me live.

<sup>17</sup>It was for my own good that I had such troubles.

Because you love me very much,

you did not let me die.

You threw my sins

far away.

<sup>18</sup>People in the place where the dead are cannot praise you.

Those who have died cannot sing praises
to you.

Those who die don't trust you to help them.

<sup>19</sup>The people who are alive are the ones who praise you.

They praise you as I praise you today.

A father should tell his children that you provide help.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord saved me.

So we will sing and play songs.

We will make music in the Temple of the Lord

all the days of our lives.

Messengers from Babylon

39 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan was king of Babylon. He sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah. He did this because he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and was now well. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah was happy to see the messengers. So he showed them what was in his storehouses: the silver, gold, spices and expensive perfumes. He showed them his swords and shields. He showed them all his wealth. He showed them everything in his palace and in his kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> went to King Hezekiah. He asked Hezekiah, "What did these men say? Where did they come from?"

Hezekiah said, "They came from a faraway country. They came to me from Babylon."

<sup>4</sup>So Isaiah asked him, "What did they see in your palace?"

Hezekiah said, "They saw everything in my palace. I showed them all my wealth."

<sup>5</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah: "Listen to the words of the Lord of heaven's armies: <sup>6</sup>In the future everything in your palace will be taken away to Babylon. Everything your ancestors have stored up until this day will be taken away. Nothing will be left," says the Lord. <sup>7</sup>Some of your own children will be taken away. Those who will be born to you will be taken away. And they will become eunuchs<sup>d</sup> in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>8</sup>Hezekiah told Isaiah, "These words from the Lord are good." He said this because he thought, "There will be peace and security while I am king."

Israel's Punishment Will End

40 Your God says, "Comfort, comfort my people.
<sup>2</sup>Speak kindly to the people of Jerusalem.
 Tell them that their time of service is finished.
 Tell them that they have paid for their sins.
 Tell them that the Lord has punished
 Jerusalem
 twice for every sin they did."

<sup>3</sup>This is the voice of a man who calls out:
 "Prepare in the desert
 the way for the Lord.
 Make the road in the dry lands straight for our God.

<sup>4</sup>Every valley should be raised up.
 Every mountain and hill should be made flat.
 The rough ground should be made level.

The rugged ground should be made smooth.

<sup>5</sup>Then the glory of the Lord will be shown.
 All people together will see it.
 The Lord himself said these things."

<sup>6</sup>A voice says, "Cry out!"
 Then I said, "What shall I cry out?"

"Say all people are like the grass.
 And all their strength is like the flowers of the field.

<sup>7</sup>The grass dies, and the flowers fall.
 This is because the breath of the Lord blows on them.

Surely the people are like grass.

<sup>8</sup>The grass dies, and the flowers fall.
 But the word of our God will live
 forever."

<sup>9</sup>Jerusalem, you have good news to tell.
 Go up on a high mountain.
 Jerusalem, you have good news to tell.
 Shout out loud the good news.
 Shout it out and don't be afraid.
 Say to the towns of Judah,
 "Here is your God."

<sup>10</sup>Look, the Lord God is coming with power.
 He will use his power to rule all the
 people.

Look, he will bring reward for his people.
 He will have their payment with him.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord takes care of his people like a shepherd.
 He gathers the people like lambs in his arms.

He carries them close to him.
 He gently leads the mothers of the lambs.

God Is Supreme

<sup>12</sup>Who has measured the oceans in the palm of his hand?

Who has used his hand to measure the sky?

Who has used a bowl to measure all the dust of the earth?

Who has used scales to weigh the mountains and hills?

<sup>13</sup>Who has known the mind of the Lord?
 Who has been able to give the Lord advice?

<sup>14</sup>Whom did the Lord ask for help?
 Who taught him the right way?
 Who taught the Lord knowledge?
 Who showed him the way to understanding?

<sup>15</sup>The nations are like one small drop in a bucket.

- They are no more than the dust on his measuring scales.
To him the islands are no more than fine dust on his scales.
- <sup>16</sup>All the trees in Lebanon are not enough for the altar fires.
And all the animals in Lebanon are not enough for burnt offerings.
- <sup>17</sup>Compared to the Lord all the nations are worth nothing.
To him they are less than nothing.
- <sup>18</sup>Can you compare God to anything?
Can you compare him to an image of anything?
- <sup>19</sup>An idol is formed by a man.
And another man covers it with gold.
And he makes silver chains for it.
- <sup>20</sup>A poor man cannot buy those expensive statues.
So he finds a tree that will not rot.
And he finds a skilled workman to make it into an idol that will not fall over.
- <sup>21</sup>Surely you know. Surely you have heard.
Surely in the beginning someone told you.
Surely you understand how the earth was created.
- <sup>22</sup>God sits on his throne above the circle of the earth.
And compared to him, people are like grasshoppers.
He stretches out the skies like a piece of cloth.
He spreads them out like a tent to sit under.
- <sup>23</sup>He makes rulers unimportant.
He makes the judges of this world worth nothing.
- <sup>24</sup>They are like plants that are placed in the ground.
They are like seeds that are planted.
As soon as they begin to grow strong, he blows on them and they die.
The wind blows them away like chaff.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>25</sup>God, the Holy One, says, "Can you compare me to anyone?
Is anyone equal to me?"
- <sup>26</sup>Look up to the skies.
Who created all these stars?
He leads out all the army of heaven one by one.
He calls all the stars by name.
He is very strong and full of power.
So not one of them is missing.
- <sup>27</sup>People of Jacob, why do you complain?
People of Israel, why do you say,
"The Lord does not see what happens to me.
He does not care if I am treated fairly."
<sup>28</sup>Surely you know.
Surely you have heard.
The Lord is the God who lives forever.
He created all the world.
He does not become tired or need to rest.
No one can understand how great his wisdom is.
- <sup>29</sup>The Lord gives strength to those who are tired.
He gives more power to those who are weak.
- <sup>30</sup>Even boys become tired and need to rest.
Even young men trip and fall.
- <sup>31</sup>But the people who trust the Lord will become strong again.
They will be able to rise up as an eagle in the sky.
They will run without needing rest.
They will walk without becoming tired.

The Lord Will Help Israel

- 41 The Lord says, "Faraway countries, listen to me.
Let the nations become strong.
Come to me and speak.
We will meet together to decide who is right.
- <sup>2</sup>"Who caused the man to come from the east?
Who gives the man victories everywhere he goes?
The one who brought him gives nations over to him.
He defeats kings for him.
The man uses his sword, and the kings become like dust.
He uses his bow, and they are blown away like chaff.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>3</sup>He chases them and is never hurt.
He goes places where he has never been before.
- <sup>4</sup>Who caused this to happen?
Who has controlled history since the beginning?
I, the Lord, am the one. I was here at the beginning.
And I will be here when all things are finished."
- <sup>5</sup>All you faraway places, look and be afraid.
All you places far away on the earth, shake with fear.

Come close and listen to me.

<sup>6</sup> The workers help each other.

They say to each other, "Be strong!"

The workman who smooths the metal with a hammer encourages the man who shapes the metal.

This last workman says, "This metal work is good."

He nails the statue to a base so it can't fall over.

Only the Lord Can Save Us

<sup>8</sup> The Lord says, "People of Israel, you are my servants.

People of Jacob, I chose you.

You are from the family of my friend Abraham.

<sup>9</sup> You were far away on the earth.

I called you from a faraway country.

I said, 'You are my servants.'

I have chosen you, and I have not turned against you.

<sup>10</sup> So don't worry, because I am with you.

Don't be afraid, because I am your God.

I will make you strong and will help you.

I will support you with my right hand that saves you.

<sup>11</sup> "All those people who are angry with you will be ashamed and disgraced.

Those who are against you will disappear and be lost.

<sup>12</sup> You will look for your enemies.

But you will not find them.

Those who fought against you will vanish completely.

<sup>13</sup> I am the Lord your God.

I am holding your right hand.

And I tell you, 'Don't be afraid.

I will help you.'

<sup>14</sup> You few people of Israel who are left, do not be afraid even though you are weak as a worm.

I myself will help you," says the Lord.

"I am the one who saves you, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Look, I have made you like a threshing<sup>d</sup> board.

You are new, with many sharp teeth.

So you will walk on mountains and crush them.

You will make the hills like chaff.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>16</sup> You will throw them into the air. And the wind will carry them away.

A windstorm will scatter them.

Then you will be happy in the Lord.

You will be proud of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> "The poor and needy people look for water.

But they can't find any.

Their tongues are dry with thirst.

But I, the Lord, will answer their prayers.

I, the God of Israel, will not leave them to die.

<sup>18</sup> I will make rivers flow on the dry hills.

I will make springs of water flow through the valleys.

I will change the desert into a lake of water.

I will change the dry land into springs of water.

<sup>19</sup> I will make trees grow in the desert.

There will be cedars, acacia, myrtle and olive trees.

I will put pine, fir and cypress trees growing together in the desert.

<sup>20</sup> People will see these things and understand.

Together they will think carefully about these things.

They will know that the Lord's power did this.

They will know that the Holy One of Israel made these things."

The Lord Challenges False Gods

<sup>21</sup> The Lord says, "Present your case."

The Lord, the King of Jacob, says, "Tell me your arguments.

<sup>22</sup> Bring in your idols to tell us what is going to happen.

Have them tell us what happened in the beginning.

Then we will think about these things.

Then we will know how they will turn out.

Tell us what will happen in the future.

<sup>23</sup> Tell us what is coming next.

Then we will believe that you are gods.

Do something, whether it is good or bad. Make us afraid of you.

<sup>24</sup> You false gods are less than nothing.

You can't do anything.

Those who worship you should be hated."

- <sup>25</sup>"I have brought someone to come out of the north."
 I have called by name a man from the east, and he knows me.
 He walks on kings as if they were mud.
 He walks on them as a potter walks on the clay.
- <sup>26</sup>Who told us about this before it happened?
 Who told us ahead of time so we could say, 'He was right'?
- None of you told us anything.
 None of you told us before it happened.
 No one heard you tell about it.
- <sup>27</sup>I, the Lord, was the first one to tell Jerusalem that the people were coming home.
 I sent a messenger to Jerusalem with the good news.
- <sup>28</sup>I look at the idols, but there is not one that can answer.
 None of them can give advice.
 None of them can answer my questions.
- <sup>29</sup>Look, all these idols are false gods.
 They cannot do anything.
 They are worth nothing.

The Lord's Special Servant

- 42 "Here is my servant, the one I support.
 He is the one I chose, and I am pleased with him.
 I will put my Spirit<sup>a</sup> in him.
 And he will bring justice to all nations.
- <sup>2</sup>He will not cry out or yell.
 He will not speak loudly in the streets.
- <sup>3</sup>He will not break a crushed blade of grass.
 He will not put out even a weak flame.
 He will bring justice and find what is true.
- <sup>4</sup> He will not lose hope or give up until he brings justice to the world.
 And people far away will trust his teachings."
- <sup>5</sup>God, the Lord, said these things.
 He created the skies and stretched them out.
 He spread out the earth and everything on it.
 He gives life to all people on earth.
 He gives life to everyone who walks on the earth.
- <sup>6</sup>The Lord says, "I called you to do right.
 And I will hold your hand.
 I will protect you.

- You will be the sign of my agreement with the people.
 You will be a light to shine for all people.
- <sup>7</sup>You will help the blind to see.
 You will free those who are in prison.
 You will lead those who live in darkness out of their prison.
- <sup>8</sup>"I am the Lord. That is my name.
 I will not give my glory to another.
 I will not let idols take the praise that should be mine.
- <sup>9</sup>The things I said would happen have happened.
 And now I tell you about new things.
 Before those things happen,
 I tell you about them.

A Song of Praise to the Lord

- <sup>10</sup>Sing a new song to the Lord.
 Sing his praise everywhere on the earth.
 Praise him, you people who sail on the seas and you animals who live in them.
 Praise him, you people living in faraway places.
- <sup>11</sup>The deserts and their cities should praise him.
 The settlements of Kedar should praise him.
 The people living in Sela should sing for joy.
 They should sing from the mountaintops.
- <sup>12</sup>They should give glory to the Lord.
 People in faraway lands should praise him.
- <sup>13</sup>The Lord will march out like a strong soldier.
 He will be excited like a man ready to fight a war.
 He will shout out the battle cry.
 And he will defeat his enemies.
- <sup>14</sup>The Lord says, "For a long time I have said nothing.
 I have been quiet and held myself back.
 But now I will cry out.
 I will strain like a woman giving birth to a child.
- <sup>15</sup>I will destroy the hills and mountains.
 I will dry up all the plants that grow there.
 I will make the rivers become dry land.
 I will dry up the pools of water.
- <sup>16</sup>Then I will lead the blind along a way they never knew.

<sup>a</sup>someone . . . north This probably means Cyrus, a king of Persia.

I will guide them along paths they have not known.
 I will make the darkness become light for them.
 And I will make the rough ground smooth.
 These are the things I will do.
 I will not leave my people.
 17But some people trust in idols.
 They say to their statues,
 "You are our gods."
 Those people will be rejected in disgrace.

Israel Refused to Listen to God

18"Who who are deaf, hear me.
 You who are blind, look and see.
 19No one is more blind than my servant Israel.
 The messenger I send is the most deaf.
 No one is more blind than the person I own.
 No one is more blind than the servant of the Lord.
 20Israel, you have seen much, but you have not obeyed.
 You have heard, but you refuse to listen."
 21The Lord made his teachings wonderful.
 He did this because he is good.
 22These people have been defeated and robbed.
 They are trapped in pits.
 They are locked up in prison.
 Like robbers, enemies have taken them away.
 There is no one to save them.
 Enemies carried them off.
 And no one said, "Bring them back."
 23Will any of you listen to this?
 Will you listen carefully in the future?
 24Who let the people of Jacob be carried off?
 Who let robbers take Israel away?
 The Lord allowed this to happen because we sinned against him.
 We did not live the way the Lord wanted us to live.
 We did not obey his teaching.
 25So the Lord became very angry with us.
 He brought terrible wars against us.
 It was as if the people of Israel had fire all around them.
 But they didn't know what was happening.
 It was as if they were burning.
 But they didn't pay any attention.

God Is Always with His People

43 Now this is what the Lord says.
 He created you, people of Jacob.
 He formed you, people of Israel.
 He says, "Don't be afraid, because I have saved you.
 I have called you by name, and you are mine.
 2When you pass through the waters, I will be with you.
 When you cross rivers, you will not drown.
 When you walk through fire, you will not be burned.
 The flames will not hurt you.
 3This is because I, the Lord, am your God.
 I, the Holy One of Israel, am your Savior.
 I gave Egypt to pay for you.
 I gave Cush and Seba to make you mine.
 4You are precious to me.
 I give you honor, and I love you.
 So I will give other people in your place.
 I will give other nations to save your life.
 5So don't be afraid. I am with you.
 I will gather your children from the east.
 I will gather you from the west.
 6I will tell the north: Give my people to me.
 I will tell the south: Don't keep my people in prison.
 Bring my sons from far away.
 Bring my daughters from faraway places.
 7Bring to me all the people who are mine.
 I made them for my glory.
 I formed them; I made them."

Judah Is God's Witness

8Bring out the people who have eyes but don't see.
 Bring out those who have ears but don't hear.
 9All the nations should gather together.
 All the people should come together.
 Which of their gods said that this would happen?
 Which of their gods can tell what happened in the beginning?
 They should bring their witnesses to prove they were right.
 Then others will say, "It is true."
 10The Lord says, "You are my witnesses.
 You are the servant I chose.
 I chose you so you would know and believe me.
 I chose you so you would understand that I am the true God.
 There was no God before me,

- and there will be no God after me.
<sup>11</sup>I myself am the Lord.
 I am the only Savior.
<sup>12</sup>I myself have spoken to you, saved you and told you these things.
 It was not some foreign god among you.
 You are my witnesses, and I am God,"
 says the Lord.
<sup>13</sup> "I have always been God.
 No one can save people from my power.
 When I do something, no one can change it."
<sup>14</sup>This is what the Lord says.
 He is the Holy One of Israel who saves
 you.
 He says, "I will send armies to Babylon for
 you.
 All the Babylonians will be captured.
 They will be taken away in their ships they are proud of.
<sup>15</sup>I am the Lord, your Holy One.
 I made Israel. I am your king."

God Will Save His People Again

- <sup>16</sup>This is what the Lord says.
 He is the one who made a road through
 the sea.
 Even through rough waters he made a path for his people.
<sup>17</sup>He is the one who defeated the chariots and horses.
 He defeated the mighty armies.
 They fell together, and they will never rise
 again.
 They were destroyed as a flame is put out.
<sup>18</sup>The Lord says, "Forget what happened before.
 Do not think about the past.
<sup>19</sup>Look at the new thing I am going to do.
 It is already happening. Don't you see it?
 I will make a road in the desert.
 I will make rivers in the dry land.
<sup>20</sup>Even the wild animals will be thankful to
 me.
 The wild dogs and owls will honor me.
 They will honor me when I put water in the desert.
 They will honor me when I make rivers in the dry land.
 I will do this to give water to my people,
 the ones I chose.
<sup>21</sup> These are the people I made.
 And they will sing songs to praise me.
<sup>22</sup>"People of Jacob, you have not called to
 me.

- People of Israel, you have become tired of me.
<sup>23</sup>You have not brought your sacrifices of sheep to me.
 You have not honored me by bringing sacrifices to me.
 I did not force you to give sacrifices to me.
 I did not force you to burn incense<sup>d</sup> until you became tired.
<sup>24</sup>So you did not buy incense for me.
 You did not freely bring fat from your sacrifices to me.
 Instead you have weighed me down with your many sins.
 You have made me tired of your many wrongs.
<sup>25</sup>"I, I am the One who forgives all your sins.
 I do this to please myself.
 I will not remember your sins.
<sup>26</sup>But you should remind me.
 Let's meet and decide what is right.
 Tell what you have done and show you are right.
<sup>27</sup>Your first father sinned.
 And your leaders have turned against me.
<sup>28</sup>So I will make your holy rulers not holy.
 And I will bring destruction on the people of Jacob.
 And I will let Israel be insulted."

The Lord Is the Only God

- 44 The Lord says, "People of Jacob, you are my servants. Listen to me!
 People of Israel, I chose you."
<sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord says. He made you.
 He formed you when you were in your mother's body.
 And he will help you.
 The Lord says, "People of Jacob, my servants, don't be afraid.
 Israel, I chose you.
<sup>3</sup>I will pour out water for the thirsty land.
 I will make streams flow on dry land.
 I will put my Spirit<sup>d</sup> into your children.
 My blessing will be like a stream of water flowing over your family.
<sup>4</sup>Your children will grow like a tree in the grass.
 They will be like poplar trees growing beside streams of water.
<sup>5</sup>One person will say, 'I belong to the Lord.'
 Another will use the name Jacob.
 Another will sign his name 'I am the Lord's.'
 And another will use the name Israel."

<sup>6</sup>The Lord is the king of Israel.
 The Lord of heaven's armies saves Israel.
 The Lord says, "I am the beginning and the end.
 I am the only God.
<sup>7</sup>There is no other God like me.
 If there is, then that god should come and prove it.
 Who has announced coming events from the beginning?
 He should tell what will happen in the future.
<sup>8</sup>Don't be afraid! Don't worry!
 I have always told you what will happen.
 You are my witnesses.
 There is no other God.
 I know of no other Rock.<sup>d</sup> I am the only One."

False Gods Are Useless

<sup>9</sup>Some people make idols, but they are worth nothing.
 People love them, but they are useless.
 Those people are witnesses for the statues.
 But those people cannot see.
 They know nothing. They don't know enough to be ashamed.
<sup>10</sup>Who made these false gods?
 Who made these useless idols?
<sup>11</sup>The workmen who made those gods will be ashamed!
 Those workmen are only human.
 If they all would come together,
 they would all be ashamed and afraid.
<sup>12</sup>One workman uses tools to heat iron.
 He works over hot coals.
 He uses his hammer to beat the metal and make a statue.
 He uses his powerful arms.
 But when he becomes hungry, he loses his power.
 If he does not drink water, he becomes tired.
<sup>13</sup>Another workman uses a line and a compass to draw lines on the wood.
 Then he uses his chisels to cut a statue from wood.
 He uses his calipers to measure the statue.
 This way, the workman makes the wood look exactly like a man.
 And this statue of a man sits in the house.
<sup>14</sup>A man cuts down cedar or gets cypress or oak trees.

Those trees grew by their own power in the forest.
 Or he plants a pine tree, and the rain makes it grow.
<sup>15</sup>Then he burns the tree.
 He uses some of the wood for a fire to keep himself warm.
 He also starts a fire to bake his bread.
 But he uses part of the wood to make a god. Then he worships it!
 He makes the idol and bows down to it!
<sup>16</sup>The man burns half of the wood in the fire.
 He uses the fire to cook his meat.
 And he eats the meat until he is full.
 He burns the wood to keep himself warm.
 He says,
 "Good! Now I am warm. I can see because of the fire's light."
<sup>17</sup>But the man makes a statue from the wood that is left. He calls it his god.
 He bows down to it and worships it.
 He prays to it and says,
 "You are my god. Save me!"
<sup>18</sup>Those people don't know what they are doing. They don't understand!
 It is as if their eyes are covered so they can't see.
 Their minds don't understand.
<sup>19</sup>They have not thought about these things.
 They don't understand.
 They have never thought to themselves,
 "I burned half of the wood in the fire.
 I used the hot coals to bake my bread.
 I cooked and ate my meat.
 And I used the wood that was left to make this hated thing.
 I am worshiping a block of wood!"
<sup>20</sup>He doesn't know what he is doing.
 His confused mind leads him the wrong
 way.
 He cannot save himself.
 He cannot say, "This statue I am holding is a false god."

The Lord Is the True God

<sup>21</sup>The Lord says, "People of Jacob, remember these things!
 People of Israel, remember you are my servants.
 I made you. You are my servants.
 So Israel, I will not forget you.
<sup>22</sup>I have swept away your sins like a big cloud.
 I have removed your sins like a cloud that disappears into the air.
 Come back to me because I saved you."

<sup>23</sup>Skies, sing for joy because the Lord did great things!
 Earth, shout for joy, even in your deepest parts!
 Sing, you mountains, with thanks to God.
 Sing, too, you trees in the forest!
 The Lord saved the people of Jacob!
 The Lord showed his greatness when he saved Israel.

<sup>24</sup>The Lord saved you.
 He formed you while you were still in your mother's body.
 The Lord says, "I, the Lord, made everything!
 I alone stretched out the skies.
 I spread out the earth by myself.

<sup>25</sup>I show that the lying prophets'<sup>d</sup> signs are false.
 I make fools of those who do magic.
 I confuse even wise men.
 They think they know much, but I make them look foolish.

<sup>26</sup>I make the messages of my servants come true.
 I make the advice of my messengers come true.
 I say to Jerusalem,
 'People will live in you again!'
 I say to the towns of Judah,
 'You will be built again!'
 I say to Jerusalem's ruins,
 'I will repair you.'

<sup>27</sup>I tell the deep waters, 'Become dry!
 I will make your streams become dry!'

<sup>28</sup>I say of Cyrus,<sup>a</sup> 'He is my shepherd.
 He will do all that I want him to do.
 He will say to Jerusalem, "You will be built again!"
 He will tell the Temple,<sup>d</sup> "Your foundations will be rebuilt." " "

God Chooses Cyrus to Free Israel

45 This is what the Lord says to Cyrus, his appointed king:
 "I hold your right hand.
 I will help you defeat nations.
 I will help you take other kings' power away.
 I will open doors for you so city gates will not stop you.

<sup>21</sup> I will go before you.
 And I will make the mountains flat.
 I will break down the bronze gates of the cities.

I will cut through the iron bars on the gates.
<sup>31</sup> I will give you the wealth that is stored away.
 And I will give you hidden riches.
 I will do this so you will know I am the Lord.
 I, the God of Israel, call you by name.
<sup>41</sup> I do these things for my servants, the people of Jacob.
 I do these things for my chosen people, the Israelites.
 Cyrus, I call you by name.
 I give you a title of honor even though you don't know me.

<sup>51</sup> I am the Lord. There is no other God.
 I am the only God.
 I will make you strong
 even though you don't know me.

<sup>61</sup> I do these things so everyone will know there is no other God.
 From the east to the west they will know I alone am the Lord.

<sup>71</sup> I made the light and the darkness.
 I bring peace, and I cause troubles.
 I, the Lord, do all these things.

<sup>84</sup> "Sky above, make victory fall like rain.
 Clouds, pour down victory.
 May the earth receive it.
 May salvation grow.
 May victory grow with it.
 I, the Lord, have created it.

<sup>94</sup> "How terrible it will be for those who argue with the God who made them.
 They are like one piece of broken pottery among many pieces.
 The clay does not ask the potter,
 'What are you doing?'
 The thing that is made doesn't say to its maker,
 'You have no hands.'

<sup>10</sup> How terrible it will be for the child who says to his father, 'Why are you giving me life?'
 How terrible it will be for the child who says to his mother,
 'Why are you giving birth to me?' "

<sup>11</sup> The Lord is the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker.
 He says this:
 "You ask me about what will happen.
 You question me about my children.

<sup>a</sup>Cyrus A king of Persia. He ruled from about 550-530 B.C.

- You give me orders about what I have made.
- <sup>12</sup>I made the earth.
And I made all the people living on it.
With my own hands I stretched out the skies.
I command all the armies in the sky.
- <sup>13</sup>I will bring Cyrus to do good things.
And I will make his work easy.
Cyrus will rebuild my city,
and he will set my people free.
Cyrus has not been paid to do these things.
The Lord of heaven's armies says this."
- <sup>14</sup>The Lord says,
"The things made in Egypt and Cush and the tall people of Seba will come to you.
They will become yours.
The Sabeans will walk behind you.
They will come along in chains.
They will bow down before you.
They will pray to you, saying,
'God is with you.
And there is no other God.' "
- <sup>15</sup>You are a God that people cannot see.
You are the God and Savior of Israel.
- <sup>16</sup>All the people who make idols will be put to great shame.
They will go off together in disgrace.
- <sup>17</sup>But Israel will be saved by the Lord.
That salvation will continue forever.
Never again will Israel be put to shame.
- <sup>18</sup>The Lord created the heavens.
He is the God who formed the earth.
He made the earth.
But he did not want it to be empty.
He wanted life to be on the earth.
This is what the Lord says:
"I am the Lord. There is no other God."
- <sup>19</sup>I did not speak in secret.
I did not hide my words somewhere in a dark place.
I did not tell the family of Jacob to look for me in empty places.
I am the Lord, and I speak the truth.
I say what is right.
- <sup>20</sup>"You people have escaped from other
nations.
So gather together and come before me.
Come near together.
People who carry idols of wood don't know what they are doing.
They pray to a god who cannot save
them.
- <sup>21</sup>Tell these people to come to me.
Let them talk about these things
together.
Who told you long ago that this would happen?
Who told about it long ago?
I, the Lord, said these things.
There is no other God besides me.
I am the only good God. I am the Savior.
There is no other God.
- <sup>22</sup>"All people everywhere,
follow me and be saved.
I am God. There is no other God.
- <sup>23</sup>I will make a promise by my own power.
And my promise is true.
What I say will not be changed.
I promise that everyone will bow before
me.
Everyone will promise to follow me.
- <sup>24</sup>People will say, 'Goodness and power come only from the Lord.' "
Everyone who has been angry with the Lord will come to him and be ashamed.
- <sup>25</sup>But with the Lord's help, the people of Israel
will be found to be good.
And they will praise him.

False Gods Are Useless

- 46 Bel<sup>d</sup> and Nebo<sup>d</sup> bow down.
Their idols are carried by animals.
The statues are only heavy loads that must be carried.
They only make people tired.
- <sup>2</sup>These false gods will all bow down.
They cannot save themselves.
They will all be carried away like prisoners.
- <sup>3</sup>Family of Jacob, listen to me!
All you people from Israel who are still alive, listen!
I have carried you since you were born.
I have taken care of you from your birth.
- <sup>4</sup>Even when you are old, I will take care of
you.
Even when your hair has turned gray, I will take care of you.
I made you and will take care of you.
I will carry you, and I will save you.
- <sup>5</sup>"Can you compare me to anyone?
No one is equal to me or like me.
- <sup>6</sup>Some people are rich with gold.
They weigh their silver on the scales.

They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it into a god.
Then they bow down and worship it.
7They put it on their shoulders and carry it.
They set it in its place, and there it stands.
It cannot move from its place.
People may yell at it, but it cannot answer.
It cannot save people from their troubles.

8“Remember this, and do not forget it!
Think about these things, you who turn against God.

9Remember what happened long ago.
Remember that I am God. There is no other God.

I am God. There is no one like me.

10From the beginning I told you what would happen in the end.

A long time ago I told you things that have not yet happened.

When I plan something, it happens.

I do the things I want to do.

11I am calling a man from the east to carry out my plan.

He will come like a hawk from a country
far away.

I will make what I have said come true.

I will do what I have planned.

12Listen to me, you stubborn people.
You are far from what is right.

13I will soon do the things that are right.
I will bring salvation soon.

I will save Jerusalem.
And I will bring glory to Israel.”

God Will Destroy Babylon

47 The Lord says, “City of Babylon, go down and sit in the dirt.

People of Babylon, sit on the ground.

You are no longer the ruler.

You will no longer be called tender or beautiful.

2 You must use large stones to grind grain into flour.

Remove your veil and your nice skirts.

Uncover your legs and cross the rivers.

3Men will see your nakedness.

They will see your shame.

I will punish you.

I will punish every one of you.”

4Our Savior is named the Lord of heaven's armies.

He is the Holy One of Israel.

5“Babylon, sit in darkness and say nothing.

You will no longer be called the queen of kingdoms.

6I was angry with my people.

So I rejected those people who belonged
to me.

I gave them to you,
but you showed them no mercy.

You even made the old people work very hard.

7You said, ‘I will live forever.

I will always be the queen.’

You did not think about these things.

You did not think about what would happen.

8“Now, listen, you lover of pleasure.

You think you are safe.

You tell yourself,

‘I am the only important person.

I will never be a widow.

I will never lose my children.’

9Two things will happen to you suddenly in a single day.

You will lose your children and your husband.

These things will truly happen to you.

All your magic and powerful tricks will not save you.

10You do evil things, but you feel safe.

You say, ‘No one sees what I do.’

Your wisdom and knowledge have fooled you.

You say to yourself,

‘I am God. No one is equal to me.’

11But troubles will come to you.

You will not know how to stop them.

Disaster will fall on you.

And you will not be able to keep it
away.

You will be destroyed quickly.

You will not even see it coming.

12“Keep on using your tricks.

Continue doing all your magic.

You have done these things since you were young.

Maybe they will help you.

Maybe you will be able to scare someone.

13You are tired of the advice you have received.

So let those who study the sky come.

They tell the future by looking at the stars.

So let them save you from what is about to happen to you.

14But they are like straw.

Fire will quickly burn them up.

They cannot save themselves

from the power of the fire.
They are not like coals that give warmth.
They are not like a fire you may sit beside.

- <sup>15</sup>You have worked with these people.
They have been with you since you were young.
But they will not be able to help you.
Everyone will go his own way.
And there will be no one left to save
you.”

God Controls the Future

- 48 The Lord says, “Family of Jacob,
listen to me.
You are called Israel.
You come from the family of Judah.
You use the Lord’s name to make promises.
You praise the God of Israel,
but you are not honest or sincere.
<sup>2</sup>You call yourselves people of the holy city.
You depend on the God of Israel.
He is named the Lord of heaven’s armies.
<sup>3</sup>Long ago I told you what would happen.
I said these things and made them known.
Suddenly I acted, and these things happened.
<sup>4</sup>I did that because I knew you were stubborn.
Your neck was like an iron muscle.
It was as if your head were made of bronze.
<sup>5</sup>So a long time ago I told you about these things.
I told you about them before they happened.
I did this so you couldn’t say, ‘My idols did
this.
My wooden and metal statues made these things happen.’

<sup>6</sup>“You heard and saw all the things that happened.
So you should tell this news to others.
Now I will tell you about new things.
These are hidden things that you don’t know yet.

- <sup>7</sup>These things are happening now, not long ago.
You have not heard about them before today.
So you cannot say, ‘We already knew about that.’

<sup>8</sup>But you have not heard me. You have not understood.

Even long ago you did not listen to me.
I knew you would surely turn against me.
You have fought against me since you were born.

<sup>9</sup>But for my own sake I will be patient.
People will praise me for not becoming
angry
and destroying you.

<sup>10</sup>I have made you pure, but not by fire, as silver is made pure.
I have purified you by giving you troubles.

<sup>11</sup>I do this for myself, for my own sake.
I will not let people speak evil against
me.
I will not let some false god take my glory.

Israel Will Be Free

- <sup>12</sup>“People of Jacob, listen to me.
People of Israel, I have called you to be my people.
I am God.
I am the beginning and the end.
<sup>13</sup>I made the earth with my own hands.
With my right hand I spread out the skies.
When I call them,
they come together before me.
<sup>14</sup>“All of you, come together and listen.
None of the false gods said these things would happen.
I, the Lord, have chosen someone to attack the Babylonians.
He will carry out my wishes against Babylon.
<sup>15</sup>I have spoken. I have called him.<sup>a</sup>
I have brought him, and I will make him successful.
<sup>16</sup>Come to me and listen to this.
From the beginning I have spoken openly.
From the time it began, I was there.”
Now, the Lord God has sent me with his Spirit.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>17</sup>The Lord is your close relative who saves you, the Holy One of Israel.
The Lord says,
“I am the Lord your God.
I teach you to do what is good.
I lead you in the way you should go.

<sup>a</sup>him This probably refers to Cyrus king of Persia.

- <sup>18</sup>If you had obeyed me, you would have had peace like a full-flowing river.
Good things would have flowed to you like the waves of the sea.
- <sup>19</sup>You would have had many children.
They would have been as many as the grains of sand.
They would never have died out.
They would not have been destroyed."
- <sup>20</sup>My people, leave Babylon!
Run from the Babylonians!
Tell this news with shouts of joy to the
people.
Spread it everywhere on earth.
Say, "The Lord has saved his servants, the people of Jacob."
- <sup>21</sup>They did not become thirsty when he led them through the deserts.
He made water flow from a rock for
them.
He split the rock,
and water flowed out.
- <sup>22</sup>"There is no peace for evil people," says
the Lord.

God Calls His Special Servant

- 49 All of you people in faraway places,
listen to me.
Listen, all you nations far away.
Before I was born, the Lord called me to serve him.
The Lord named me while I was still in my mother's body.
- <sup>2</sup>The Lord made my tongue like a sharp
sword.
He hid me in the shadow of his hand.
The Lord made me like a sharp arrow.
He hid me in the holder for his arrows.
- <sup>3</sup>The Lord told me, "Israel, you are my servant.
I will show my glory through you."
<sup>4</sup>But I said, "I have worked hard for nothing.
I have used all my power, but I did nothing useful.
But the Lord will decide what my work is worth.
God will decide my reward."
- <sup>5</sup>The Lord made me in the body of my mother
so I would be his servant.
He made me to lead the people of Jacob back to him.
He made me so that Israel might be gathered to him.

- The Lord will honor me.
I will get my strength from my God.
- <sup>6</sup>The Lord told me,
"You are an important servant to me.
You will bring back the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Jacob.
You will bring back the people of Israel who are left alive.
But, more importantly, I will make you a light for all nations.
You will show people all over the world
the way to be saved."
- <sup>7</sup>The Lord is your close relative who saves
you.
He is the Holy One of Israel.
He speaks to the one who is hated by the
people.
He speaks to the servant of rulers.
The Lord says, "Kings will see you and stand to honor you.
Great leaders will bow down before you.
This is because the Lord can be trusted.
He is the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

The Day of Salvation

- <sup>8</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"At the right time I will hear your prayers.
On the day of salvation I will help you.
I will protect you.
And you will be the sign of my agreement with the people.
You will bring back the people to the land.
You will give the land that is now ruined back to its owners.
- <sup>9</sup>You will tell the prisoners, 'Come out of your prison.'
You will tell those in darkness, 'Come into the light.'
The people will eat beside the roads.
They will find food even on bare hills.
- <sup>10</sup>They will not be hungry or thirsty.
Neither the hot sun nor the desert wind will hurt them.
The God who comforts them will lead
them.
He will lead them by springs of water.
- <sup>11</sup>I will make my mountains into roads for
my people.
And the roads will be raised up.
- <sup>12</sup>Look, people are coming to me from far
away.
They are coming from the north and from the west.
They are coming from Aswan in southern Egypt."
- <sup>13</sup>Heavens and earth, be happy.

Mountains, shout with joy.
 Be happy because the Lord comforts his
 people.
 He will comfort those who suffer.

Jerusalem and Her Children

<sup>14</sup>But Jerusalem said, "The Lord has left me.
 The Lord has forgotten me."

<sup>15</sup>The Lord answers, "Can a woman forget the baby she nurses?

Can she feel no kindness for the child
 she gave birth to?

Even if she could forget her children,
 I will not forget you.

<sup>16</sup>See, I have written your name on my hand.

Jerusalem, I always think about your walls.

<sup>17</sup>Your children will soon return to you.
 And the people who defeated you and destroyed you will leave.

<sup>18</sup>Look up and look around you.
 All your children are gathering to return
 to you."

The Lord says, "As surely as I live, your children will be like jewels.
 You will be as proud of them as a bride is of her jewels.

<sup>19</sup>"You were destroyed and defeated.

Your land was made useless.

But now you will have more people than the land can hold.

And those people who destroyed you will be far away.

<sup>20</sup>Children were born to you while you were sad.

But they will say to you,

'This place is too small for us.

Give us a bigger place to live.'

<sup>21</sup>Then you will say to yourself,
 "Who gave me all these children?
 I was sad and lonely.

I was defeated and away from my
 people.

So who reared these children?

I was left all alone.

Where did all these children come from?'"

<sup>22</sup>This is what the Lord God says:

"See, I will lift my hand to signal the
 nations.

I will raise my banner for all people to see.

Then they will bring your sons back to you in their arms.

They will carry your daughters on their shoulders.

<sup>23</sup>Kings will teach your children.

Daughters of kings will take care of those children.

They will bow down before you.

They will kiss the dirt at your feet.

Then you will know I am the Lord.

Anyone who trusts in me will not be disappointed."

<sup>24</sup>Can the wealth a soldier wins in war be taken away from him?

Can a prisoner be freed from a powerful soldier?

<sup>25</sup>But this is what the Lord says:

"The prisoners will be taken from the strong soldiers.

What the soldiers have taken will be saved.

I will fight your enemies.

I will save your children.

<sup>26</sup>I will force those who trouble you to eat their own flesh.

Their own blood will be the wine that makes them drunk.

Then everyone will know

I, the Lord, am the One who saves you.

I am the Powerful One of Jacob who saves you."

Israel Was Punished for Its Sin

50 This is what the Lord says:
 "People of Israel, you say I divorced your mother.

Then where is the paper that proves it?
 Or do you think I sold you to pay a debt?
 No! It was because of the evil things you did that I sold you.

It was because of the times she turned against me that your mother was sent away.

<sup>21</sup>I came home and found no one there.

I called, but no one answered.

Do you think I am not able to save you?

Do I not have the power to save you?

Look, I need only to shout, and the sea becomes dry.

I change rivers into a desert.

Their fish rot because there is no water.

The fish die of thirst.

<sup>31</sup>I can make the skies dark.

I can make them black like clothes of sadness."

God's Servant Obeys

<sup>4</sup>The Lord God gave me the ability to teach.

He has taught me what to say to make the weak strong.
Every morning he wakes me.
He teaches me to listen like a student.
5The Lord God helps me learn.
And I have not turned against him.
I have not stopped following him.
6I offered my back to those who beat me.
I offered my cheeks to those who pulled my beard.
I won't hide my face from them when they make fun of me and spit at
me.
7The Lord God helps me.
So I will not be ashamed.
I will be determined.
I know I will not be disgraced.
8The Lord shows that I am innocent, and he is close to me.
So who can accuse me?
If there is someone, let us go to court
together.
If someone wants to prove I have done
wrong,
he should come and tell me.
9It is the Lord God who helps me.
So who can prove me guilty?
All those who try will become useless like old clothes.
Moths will eat them.
10Who among you fears the Lord and obeys his servant?
That person may walk in the dark and have no light.
Then let him trust in the Lord.
Let him depend on his God.
11But instead, some of you want to light your own fires.
You want to make your own light.
So, go, walk in the light of your fires.
Trust your own light to guide you.
But this is what you will receive from me:
You will lie down in a place of pain.

Jerusalem Will Be Saved

51 The Lord says, "Listen to me, those of you who try to live right and follow the Lord.
Look at the rock from which you were cut.
Look at the stone quarry from which you were dug.
2Look at Abraham, your ancestor.
Look at Sarah, who gave birth to your ancestors.
Abraham had no children when I called
him.

But I blessed him and gave him many descendants.<sup>d</sup>
3So the Lord will comfort Jerusalem.
He will show mercy to those who live in her ruins.
He will change her deserts into a garden like Eden.
He will make her empty lands like the garden of the Lord.
People there will be very happy.
They will give thanks and sing songs.
4" My people, listen to me.
My nation, pay attention to me.
I will give the people my teachings.
And my decisions will be like a light to all people.
5I will soon show I do what is right.
I will soon save you.
I will use my power and judge all
nations.
All the faraway places are waiting for me.
They wait for my power to help them.
6Look up to the heavens.
Look around you at the earth below.
The skies will disappear like clouds of smoke.
The earth will become useless like old clothes.
Its people will die like flies.
But my salvation will continue forever.
My goodness will never end.
7" You people who know what is right should listen to me.
You people who follow my teachings should hear what I say.
Don't be afraid of the evil things people say.
Don't be upset by their insults.
8Moths will eat those people as if they were clothes.
Worms will eat them as if they were wool.
But my goodness will continue forever.
My salvation will continue from now
on."
9Wake up, wake up, and use your strength, powerful Lord.
Wake up as you did in the old times.
Wake up as you did a long time ago.
With your own power, you cut Rahab<sup>d</sup> into pieces.
You killed that sea monster.
10You caused the sea to become dry.
You dried the waters of the deep ocean.

- You made the deepest parts of the sea into a road.
Your people crossed over on that road and were saved.
- <sup>11</sup>The people the Lord has freed will return.
They will enter Jerusalem with joy.
Their happiness will last forever.
They will have joy and gladness.
All sadness and sorrow will be gone far away.
- <sup>12</sup>The Lord says, "I am the one who comforts you.
So why should you be afraid of people, who die?
Why should you fear people who die like the grass?"
- <sup>13</sup>Have you forgotten that the Lord made you?
He stretched out the skies.
He made the earth.
Why are you always afraid of those angry people who trouble you?
They want to destroy.
But where are those angry people now?
- <sup>14</sup> People in prison will soon be set free.
They will not die in prison.
They will have enough food.
- <sup>15</sup>This is because I am the Lord your God.
I stir the sea and make the waves roar.
My name is the Lord of heaven's armies.
- <sup>16</sup>I will give you the words I want you to say.
I will cover you with my hands and protect you.
I made the heavens and the earth.
And I say to Jerusalem, 'You are my people.'

God Punished Israel

- <sup>17</sup>The Lord was very angry with you.
Your punishment was like wine in a cup.
The Lord made you drink that wine until you stumbled.
- <sup>18</sup>Jerusalem had many people.
But there was not a person to lead her.
Of all the people who grew up there,
no one was there to guide her.
- <sup>19</sup>Troubles came to you in groups of two.
No one will feel sorry for you.
There was ruin and disaster, great hunger and fighting.
No one can comfort you.
- <sup>20</sup>Your people have become weak.
They fall down and lie on every street corner.
They are like animals caught in a net.

- They have felt the full anger of the Lord.
They have heard God's angry shout.
- <sup>21</sup>So listen to me, poor Jerusalem, you who are drunk but not from wine.
- <sup>22</sup>Your God will fight for his people.
This is what the Lord your God says:
"The punishment I gave you is like a cup of wine.
You drank it and could not walk straight.
I am taking that cup of my anger away from you.
You will never be punished by my anger again.
- <sup>23</sup>I will now give that cup of punishment to those who gave you pain.
They told you,
'Bow down so we can walk over you.'
They made your back like dirt for them to walk on.
You were like a street for them to travel on."

Jerusalem Will Be Saved

- 52 Wake up, wake up, Jerusalem!
Become strong!
Be beautiful again,
holy city of Jerusalem.
The people who do not worship God and who are not pure will not enter you again.
- <sup>2</sup>Jerusalem, you once were a prisoner.
Now shake off the dust and stand up.
Jerusalem, you once were a prisoner.
But now free yourself from the chains around your neck.
- <sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"You were not sold for a price.
So you will be saved without cost."
- <sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord God says:
"First my people went down to Egypt to live.
Later Assyria made them slaves.
- <sup>5</sup>"Now see what has happened," says the Lord.
"Another nation has taken away my people for nothing.
This nation who rules them makes fun of me," says the Lord.
"All day long they speak against me.
- <sup>6</sup>But this has happened so my people will know who I am.
They will know I am God.
And they will know that I am the one speaking to them."
- <sup>7</sup>How beautiful is the person who comes over the mountains to bring good news.

How beautiful is the one who announces peace.

He brings good news
and announces salvation.
How beautiful are the feet of the one who says to Jerusalem,
"Your God is king."

<sup>8</sup>Listen! Your guards are shouting.
They are all shouting for joy!

They all will see with their own eyes when the Lord returns to Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>Jerusalem, your buildings are destroyed now.

But shout and rejoice together.
You can rejoice because the Lord has comforted his people.

He has saved Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord will show his holy power to all the nations.

Then everyone on earth will see the salvation of our God.

<sup>11</sup>You people, leave, leave; get out of Babylon!

Touch nothing that is unclean.<sup>d</sup>
You men who carry the things used in worship,
leave there and make yourselves pure.

<sup>12</sup>You will not be forced to leave Babylon quickly.

You will not be forced to run away.
The Lord will go before you.
And the God of Israel will guard you from behind.

God's Suffering Servant

<sup>13</sup>The Lord says, "See, my servant will act wisely.

People will greatly honor and respect
him.

<sup>14</sup>Many people were shocked when they saw
him.

His appearance was so changed he did not look like a man.

His form was changed so much they could barely tell he was human.

<sup>15</sup>But now he will sprinkle many people.
Kings will be amazed and shut their mouths.

They will see the things they had not been told about my servant.

They will understand the things they had not heard."

53 Who would have believed what we heard?

Who saw the Lord's power in this?

<sup>2</sup>He grew up like a small plant before the Lord.

He was like a root growing in a dry land.
He had no special beauty or form to make us notice him.

There was nothing in his appearance to make us desire him.

<sup>3</sup>He was hated and rejected by people.

He had much pain and suffering.

People would not even look at him.

He was hated, and we didn't even notice
him.

<sup>4</sup>But he took our suffering on him and felt our pain for us.

We saw his suffering.

We thought God was punishing him.

<sup>5</sup>But he was wounded for the wrong things we did.

He was crushed for the evil things we did.

The punishment, which made us well, was given to him.

And we are healed because of his wounds.

<sup>6</sup>We all have wandered away like sheep.

Each of us has gone his own way.

But the Lord has put on him the punishment

for all the evil we have done.

<sup>7</sup>He was beaten down and punished.

But he didn't say a word.

He was like a lamb being led to be killed.

He was quiet, as a sheep is quiet while its wool is being cut.

He never opened his mouth.

<sup>8</sup>Men took him away roughly and unfairly.

He died without children to continue his family.

He was put to death.

He was punished for the sins of my
people.

<sup>9</sup>He was buried with wicked men.

He died with the rich.

He had done nothing wrong.

He had never lied.

<sup>10</sup>But it was the Lord who decided to crush him and make him suffer.

So the Lord made his life a penalty offering.

But he will see his descendants<sup>d</sup> and live a long life.

He will complete the things the Lord wants him to do.

<sup>11</sup>He will suffer many things in his soul.

But then he will see life and be satisfied.
My good servant will make many people
right with God.

He carried away their sins.

<sup>12</sup>For this reason I will make him a great man among people.

He will share in all things with those who are strong.

He willingly gave his life.

He was treated like a criminal.

But he carried away the sins of many
people.

And he asked forgiveness for those who sinned.

People Will Return to Jerusalem

54 The Lord says, "Sing, Jerusalem.
You are like a woman who never gave birth to children.

Start singing and shout for joy,

You never felt the pain of giving birth to children.

But you will have more children than the woman who has a husband.

<sup>2</sup>Make your tent bigger.

Stretch it out and make it wider.

Do not hold back.

Make the ropes longer.

Make its stakes stronger.

<sup>3</sup>Do this because you will begin growing very much.

Your children will take over other
nations.

And they will again live in cities that once were destroyed.

<sup>4</sup>"Don't be afraid because you will not be ashamed.

Don't be embarrassed because you will not be disgraced.

You will forget the shame you felt earlier.

You will not remember the shame you felt when you lost your husband.

<sup>5</sup>This is because the God who made you is like your husband.

His name is the Lord of heaven's armies.
The Holy One of Israel is the one who saves you.

He is called the God of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>You were like a woman whose husband left her.

And you were very sad.

You were like a wife who married young and then her husband left her.

But the Lord called you to be his," says your God.

<sup>7</sup>God says, "I left you, but only for a short time.

But with great kindness I will bring you back again.

<sup>8</sup>I became very angry and hid from you for a short time.

But I will show you mercy with kindness
forever,"

says the Lord your close relative who saves you.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord says, "This is like the time of Noah.

I promised then that I would never flood the world again.

In the same way, I promise

I will not be angry with you or punish you again.

<sup>10</sup>The mountains may disappear, and the hills may come to an end.

But my love will never disappear.

My promise of peace will not come to an end,"

says the Lord who shows mercy to you.

<sup>11</sup>"You poor city. Storms have hurt you, and you have not been comforted.

But I will rebuild you using turquoise stones.

I will build your foundations with sapphires.

<sup>12</sup>I will use rubies to build your walls.

I will use shining jewels for the gates.

I will build all your outer walls from precious jewels.

<sup>13</sup>All your children will be taught by the Lord.

And they will have much peace.

<sup>14</sup>I will build you using fairness.

You will be safe from those who would hurt you.

So you will have nothing to fear.

Nothing will come to make you afraid.

<sup>15</sup>I will not send anyone to attack you.

And you will defeat those who do attack
you.

<sup>16</sup>"See, I made the blacksmith.

He fans the fire to make it hotter.

And he makes the kind of tool he wants.

In the same way I have made the destroyer to destroy.

<sup>17</sup> So no weapon that is used against you will defeat you.

You will show that those who speak against you are wrong.

These are the good things my servants receive.

Their victory comes from me," says the Lord.

God Gives What Is Good A

55 The Lord says, "All you who are thirsty, come and drink.

Those of you who do not have money,
come, buy and eat!

Come buy wine and milk.

You don't need money; it will cost you nothing.

<sup>2</sup>Why spend your money on something that is not real food?

Why work for something that doesn't really satisfy you?

Listen closely to me, and you will eat what is good.

You will enjoy the food that satisfies your soul.

<sup>3</sup>Come to me and listen.

Listen to me so you may live.

I will make an agreement with you that will last forever.

I will give you the blessings I promised to David.

<sup>4</sup>I made David a witness of my power for all nations.

I made him a ruler and commander of many nations.

<sup>5</sup>You will call for nations that you don't yet know.

And these nations will run to you.

This will happen because of the Lord your God.

The Holy One of Israel honors you."

<sup>6</sup>So you should look for the Lord before it is too late.

You should call to him while he is near.

<sup>7</sup>Evil people should stop being evil.

They should stop thinking bad thoughts. They should return to the Lord, and he will have mercy on them.

They should come to our God, because he will freely forgive them.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord says, "Your thoughts are not like my thoughts.

Your ways are not like my ways.

<sup>9</sup>Just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways.

And my thoughts are higher than your thoughts.

<sup>10</sup>Rain and snow fall from the sky.

They don't return without watering the ground.

They cause the plants to sprout and grow.

And the plants make seeds for the farmer.

And from these seeds people have bread to eat.

<sup>11</sup>The words I say do the same thing.

They will not return to me empty.

They make the things happen that I want to happen.

They succeed in doing what I send them to do.

<sup>12</sup>"So you will go out with joy.

You will be led out in peace.

The mountains and hills will burst into song before you.

All the trees in the fields will clap their hands.

<sup>13</sup>Large cypress trees will grow where thornbushes were.

Myrtle trees will grow where weeds were.

These things will be a reminder of the Lord's promise.

And this reminder will never be destroyed."

All Nations Will Obey the Lord

56 This is what the Lord says:

"Give justice to all people.

Do what is right.

Do this because my salvation will come to you soon. Soon everyone will know that I do what is right.

<sup>2</sup>The person who obeys the law about the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> will be blessed.

And the person who does no evil will be blessed."

<sup>3</sup>Foreigners have joined the Lord. They should not say,

"The Lord will not accept me with his people."

The eunuch<sup>d</sup> should not say,

"Because I cannot have children the Lord will not accept me."

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"The eunuchs should obey the law about the Sabbath.

They should do what I want.

They should keep my agreement.

<sup>5</sup>If they do, I will make their names remembered within my Temple<sup>d</sup> and its walls.

It will be better for them than children.

I will give them a name that will last forever.

It will never be forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>Foreigners will join the Lord to serve him.

They will worship and love him.

They will worship him.

They will obey the law about the Sabbath.

They will keep the agreement with the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>I will bring these people to my holy mountain.

I will give them joy in my house of prayer.

The offerings and sacrifices they place on my altar will please me.

This is because my Temple will be called a house for prayer for people from all nations."

<sup>8</sup>The Lord gathers the Israelites who were forced to leave their country.

This is what the Lord God says,

"I will bring other people to those who are already gathered."

Israel's Leaders Are Evil

<sup>9</sup>All you animals of the field, come to eat.

All you animals of the forest, come to eat.

<sup>10</sup>The leaders who are to guard the people are blind.

They don't know what they are doing.

All of them are like quiet dogs.

They don't know how to bark.

They lie down and dream.

They love to sleep.

<sup>11</sup>They are like hungry dogs.

They are never satisfied.

They are like shepherds who don't know what they are doing.

They each have gone their own way.

All they want to do is satisfy themselves.

<sup>12</sup>They say, "Come, let's drink some wine.

Let's drink all the beer we want.

And tomorrow we will do this again.

Or, maybe we will have even a better time."

Israel Does Not Follow God

57 Those right with God may die, but no one pays attention.

Good people are taken away,

but no one understands.

The people who do right are being taken away because of evil.

<sup>2</sup> But they are given peace.

The people who live the way God wants them to find rest in death.

Come here, you sons of prostitutes<sup>d</sup> and those who take part in adultery!<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>Whom are you making fun of?

Whom are you insulting?

At whom do you stick out your tongue?

You turn against God,

and you are liars.

<sup>5</sup>You have sexual relations under every green tree to worship your false gods.

You kill children in the ravines and sacrifice them in the rocky places.

<sup>6</sup>You take the smooth rocks from the ravines.

They are your portion.

You pour drink offerings on them to worship them.

You give grain offerings to them.

Do you think this makes me want to forgive you?

<sup>7</sup>You make your bed on every hill and mountain.

And there you offer sacrifices.

<sup>8</sup>You have hidden your idols behind your doors and doorposts.

You have left me, and you have uncovered yourself.

You have pulled back the covers and climbed into bed.

You have made an agreement with the ones whose beds you love.

And you have looked at their nakedness.

<sup>9</sup>You use your oils and perfumes to look nice for Molech.<sup>d</sup>

You have sent your messengers to faraway lands.

You even tried to send them to where the dead are.

<sup>10</sup>You have worked hard to do these things.

But you never gave up.

You found new strength.

So you did not quit.

<sup>11</sup>"Whom were you so afraid of that you lied to me?

You have not remembered me or even thought about me.

I have been quiet for a long time.

Is that why you are not afraid of me?

<sup>12</sup>I will tell about your 'goodness' and what you do.

And those things will do you no good.

<sup>13</sup>When you cry out for help,

let the false gods you have gathered help you.

The wind will blow them all away.
 Just a puff of wind will take them away.
 But the person who depends on me will receive the land.
 He will have my holy mountain."

The Lord Will Save His People

- <sup>14</sup>The Lord says, "Build a road! Build a road!
 Prepare the way!
 Make the way clear for my people."
<sup>15</sup>God lives forever and is holy.
 He is high and lifted up, and he says,
 "I live in a high and holy place.
 But I also live with people who are sad and humble.
 I give new life to those who are humble.
 I give new life to those whose hearts are broken.
<sup>16</sup>I will not accuse forever.
 I will not always be angry.
 If I continued to be angry, man's life would grow weak.
 Man, whom I created, would die.
<sup>17</sup>I was angry because they were dishonest in order to make money.
 I punished them and turned away from them in anger.
 But they continued to do evil.
<sup>18</sup>I have seen what they have done, but I will heal them.
 I will guide them and comfort them.
 And those who were sad will praise me.
<sup>19</sup>I will give peace, real peace, to those far and near.
 And I will heal them," says the Lord.
<sup>20</sup>But evil people are like the angry sea.
 It cannot rest.
 Its waves toss up waste and mud.
<sup>21</sup>"There is no peace for evil people," says
 my God.

How to Honor God

- 58 The Lord says, "Shout out loud.
 Don't hold back.
 Shout out loud like a trumpet.
 Tell the people about the things they have done against God.
 Tell the family of Jacob about their sins.
<sup>2</sup>Then they will come every day looking for
 me.
 And they will want to learn my ways.
 They will become a nation that does what
 is right.
 They will obey the commands of their
 God.
 They will ask me to judge them fairly.
 They will want God to be near them.

- <sup>3</sup>They say, "To honor you we had special days when we gave up eating.
 But you didn't see.
 We humbled ourselves to honor you.
 But you didn't notice." "

But the Lord says, "You do what pleases yourselves on these special days.
 And you are unfair to your workers.
<sup>4</sup>On these special days when you do not eat, you argue and fight.
 You hit each other with your fists.
 You cannot do these things as you do now and believe I will listen to your prayers.
<sup>5</sup>This kind of special day is not what I want.
 This is not the way I want people to be sorry for what they have done.
 I don't want people just to bow their heads like a plant.
 I don't want them to wear rough cloth and lie in ashes to show their sadness.
 This is what you do on your special days
 when you do not eat.
 But do you think this is what the Lord wants?

- <sup>6</sup>"I will tell you the kind of special day I want.
 I want you to free the people you have put in prison unfairly.
 Undo their chains.
 Free those to whom you are unfair.
 Free them from their hard labor.
<sup>7</sup>I want you to share your food with hungry
 people.
 I want you to bring poor, homeless people into your own homes.
 When you see someone who has no clothes, give him yours.
 Don't refuse to help your own relatives.
<sup>8</sup>If you do these things, your light will shine like the dawn.
 Then your wounds will quickly heal.
 Your God will walk before you, and the glory of the Lord will protect you
 from behind.
<sup>9</sup>Then you will call to the Lord, and the Lord will answer you.
 You will cry out to the Lord, and he will say, 'Here I am.'
 "You should stop making trouble for
 others.
 You should stop using cruel words and pointing your finger at others.
<sup>10</sup>You should feed those who are hungry.

You should take care of the needs of those who are troubled.

Then your light will shine in the darkness. And you will be bright like sunshine at noon.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord will always lead you. He will satisfy your needs in dry lands. He will give strength to your bones. You will be like a garden that has much water. You will be like a spring that never runs dry.

<sup>12</sup>Your people will rebuild the old cities that are now in ruins. You will rebuild the foundations of these ancient cities. You will be known for repairing the broken places. You will be known for rebuilding the roads and houses.

<sup>13</sup>“You must obey God’s law about the Sabbath.”<sup>a</sup> You must not do what pleases yourselves on that holy day. You should call the Sabbath a joyful day. You should honor the Lord’s holy day. You should honor it by not doing whatever you please on that day. You should not say whatever you please on that day.

<sup>14</sup>Then you will find joy in the Lord. And I, the Lord, will carry you to the high places above the earth. I will let you eat the crops of the land your ancestor Jacob had.” The Lord has said these things.

The Evil That People Do

59 Surely the Lord’s power is enough to save you.

He can hear you when you ask him for help.

<sup>2</sup>It is your evil that has separated you from your God. Your sins cause him to turn away from you.

And then he does not hear you.

<sup>3</sup>With your hands you have killed others. Your fingers are covered with blood from killing people.

With your lips you have lied. With your tongue you say evil things.

<sup>4</sup>People take each other to court unfairly. No one tells the truth in arguing his case. They accuse each other falsely and tell lies. They cause trouble and create more evil.

If you eat one of those eggs, you will die. And if you break one open, a poisonous snake comes out.

People tell lies as they would spin a spider’s web.

<sup>6</sup> The webs they make cannot be used for clothes.

You can’t cover yourself with those webs.

The things they do are evil. They use their hands to hurt others.

<sup>7</sup>They eagerly run to do evil. They are always ready to kill innocent people.

They think evil thoughts. Everywhere they go they cause ruin and destruction.

<sup>8</sup>They don’t know how to live in peace. There is no fairness in their lives.

They are dishonest. Anyone who lives as they live will never have peace.

Israel’s Sin Brings Trouble

<sup>9</sup>Fairness has gone far away. Goodness is nowhere to be found.

We wait for the light, but there is only darkness now.

We hope for a bright light, but all we have is darkness.

<sup>10</sup>We are like blind people feeling our way along a wall.

We have to feel our way as if we had no eyes.

In the brightness of day we trip as if it were night.

We are like dead men among the strong.

<sup>11</sup>All of us growl like the bears.

We call out sadly like the doves.

We look for justice, but there isn’t any. We want to be saved, but salvation is far away.

<sup>12</sup>We have done many wrong things against our God.

Our sins show we are wrong.

We know we have turned against God. We know the evil things we have done.

<sup>13</sup>We have sinned and turned against the Lord.

We have turned away from our God.

We have planned to hurt others and to disobey God.

We have planned and spoken lies.

<sup>14</sup>We have driven away justice.

We have kept away from what is right.
Truth is not spoken in the streets.

What is honest is not allowed to enter
the city.

<sup>15</sup>Truth cannot be found anywhere.

And people who refuse to do evil are attacked.

The Lord looked and could not find any justice.

And he was displeased.

<sup>16</sup>He could not find anyone to help the
people.

He was surprised that there was no one to help.

So the Lord used his own power to save the people.

His own goodness gave him strength.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord covered himself with goodness like armor.

He put on the helmet of salvation.

He put on the clothes of punishment.

And he put on the coat of his strong
love.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord will pay back his enemies for what they have done.

He will show his anger to those who were against him.

He will punish the people in faraway places.

He will give them the punishment they should have.

<sup>19</sup>Then people from the west will fear the Lord.

People in the east will fear his glory.

The Lord will come quickly like a fast-flowing river, driven by the breath of the Lord.

<sup>20</sup>“Then a close relative who will save you will come to Jerusalem.

He will come to the people of Jacob who sinned but turned back to God,”
says the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord says, “I will make an agreement with these people. I promise that my Spirit<sup>d</sup> and my words that I give you will never leave you. They will be with your children and your grandchildren. They will be with you now and
forever.”

Jerusalem Will Be Great

60 “Jerusalem, get up and shine. Your light has come.

The glory of the Lord shines on you.

<sup>2</sup>Darkness now covers the earth.

Deep darkness covers her people.

But the Lord shines on you,
and people see his glory around you.

<sup>3</sup>Nations will come to your light.

Kings will come to the brightness of your sunrise.

<sup>4</sup>“Look around you.

People are gathering and coming to you.

They are your sons coming from far away.

And your daughters are coming with
them.

<sup>5</sup>When you see them, you will shine with happiness.

You will be excited and full of joy.

The wealth of the nations across the seas will be given to you.

The riches of the nations will come to
you.

<sup>6</sup>Herds of camels will cover your land.

Young camels will come from Midian and Ephah.

People will come from Sheba bringing gold and incense.<sup>d</sup>

And they will sing praises to the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>All the sheep from Kedar will be given to
you.

The male sheep from Nebaioth will be brought to you.

They will be pleasing sacrifices on my altar.

And I will make my beautiful Temple<sup>d</sup> more beautiful.

<sup>8</sup>“The people are returning to you like clouds.

They are like doves flying to their nests.

<sup>9</sup>People in faraway lands are waiting for me.

The great trading ships will come first.

They are bringing your children from faraway lands.

And with them they bring silver and gold.

This will happen to honor the Lord your God.

He is the Holy One of Israel.

And he does wonderful things for you.

<sup>10</sup>“Jerusalem, foreigners will rebuild your walls.

Their kings will serve you.

When I was angry, I hurt you.

But now I want to be kind to you and comfort you.

<sup>11</sup>Your gates will always be open.

They will not be closed day or night so the nations can bring their wealth to
you.

And their kings will be led to you.

<sup>12</sup>If a nation or kingdom doesn't serve you,

- it will be destroyed.
It will be completely ruined.
- <sup>13</sup>“The great trees of Lebanon will be given to you.
Its pine, fir and cypress trees will come to you.
You will use these trees to make my Temple beautiful.
And I will give much honor to this place where I rest my feet.
- <sup>14</sup>The people who have hurt you will bow down to you.
Those who hated you will bow down at your feet.
They will call you The City of the Lord.
They will call you Jerusalem, city of the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>15</sup>“You have been hated and left empty.
No one has even passed through.
But I will make you great from now on.
You will be a place of happiness forever and ever.
- <sup>16</sup>Nations will give you what you need.
It will be like a child drinking milk from its mother.
Then you will know that it is I, the Lord, who saves you.
You will know that the Powerful One of Jacob protects you.
- <sup>17</sup>I will bring you gold in place of bronze.
I will bring you silver in place of iron.
I will bring you bronze in place of wood.
I will bring you iron in place of rocks.
I will change your punishment into peace.
And you will be ruled by what is right.
- <sup>18</sup>There will be no more violence in your country.
It will not be ruined or destroyed.
You will name your walls Salvation.
And you will name your gates Praise.
- <sup>19</sup>The sun will no longer be your light during the day.
The light from the moon will no longer be your light.
This is because the Lord will be your light forever.
Your God will be your glory.
- <sup>20</sup>Your sun will never set again.
Your moon will never be dark again.
This is because the Lord will be your light forever.
And your time of sadness will end.
- <sup>21</sup>All of your people will do what is right.
They will receive the earth forever.
They are the plant I have planted.

- I made them with my own hands to show my greatness.
- <sup>22</sup>The smallest family will grow to a thousand.
The least important of you will become a powerful nation.
I am the Lord,
and when it is time, I will make these things happen quickly.”

The Lord's Message of Freedom

- 61 The Lord God has put his Spirit<sup>d</sup> in me.
This is because he has appointed me to tell the good news to the poor.
He has sent me to comfort those whose hearts are broken.
He has sent me to tell the captives they are free.
He has sent me to tell the prisoners that they are released.
- <sup>2</sup>He has sent me to announce the time when the Lord will show his kindness and the time when our God will punish evil people.
He has sent me to comfort all those who are sad.
- <sup>3</sup>He has sent me to the sorrowing people of Jerusalem.
I will give them a crown to replace their ashes.
I will give them the oil of gladness to replace their sorrow.
I will give them clothes of praise to replace their spirit of sadness.
Then they will be called Trees of Goodness.
They will be like trees planted by the Lord and will show his greatness.
- <sup>4</sup>They will rebuild the old ruins.
They will build up the places destroyed long ago.
They will repair the ruined cities that were destroyed for so long.
- <sup>5</sup>My people, foreigners will come to tend your sheep.
People from other countries will tend your vineyards.
- <sup>6</sup>You will be called priests of the Lord.
You will be named the servants of our God.
You will have riches from all the nations on earth.
And you will take pride in them.

<sup>7</sup>Instead of being ashamed, you will receive twice as much wealth.

Instead of being disgraced, you will be happy because of what you receive. You will receive a double share of the land. So your happiness will continue forever.

I hate stealing and everything that is wrong.

I will be fair and give my people what they should have.

I will make an agreement with them that will continue forever.

<sup>9</sup>Everyone in all nations will know the children of my people.

And their children will be known among the nations.

Anyone who sees them will know that the Lord blesses them."

<sup>10</sup>The Lord makes me very happy.

All that I am rejoices in my God. The Lord has covered me with clothes of salvation.

He has covered me with a coat of goodness.

I am like a bridegroom dressed for his wedding.

I am like a bride dressed in jewels.

<sup>11</sup>The earth causes plants to grow.

And a garden causes the seeds planted there to grow.

In the same way the Lord God will make grow what is right.

He will make praise come from all the nations.

New Jerusalem

62 Because I love Jerusalem, I will continue to speak for her.

For Jerusalem's sake I will not stop speaking.

I will speak until her goodness shines like a bright light.

I will speak until her salvation burns bright like a flame.

<sup>2</sup>Jerusalem, the nations will see your goodness.

All kings will see your honor.

Then you will have a new name.

The Lord himself will give you that new name.

<sup>3</sup>You will be like a beautiful crown in the Lord's hand.

You will be like a king's crown in your God's hand.

<sup>4</sup>You will never again be called the People that God Left.

Your land will never again be called the Land that God Destroyed.

You will be called the People God Loves.

Your land will be called the Bride of God.

This is because the Lord loves you.

And your land will belong to him as a bride belongs to her husband.

<sup>5</sup>As a young man marries a woman, so your children will marry your land.

As a man is very happy about his new wife, so your God will be happy with you.

<sup>6</sup>Jerusalem, I have put guards on the walls to watch.

They must not be silent day or night.

You people who remind the Lord should never be quiet.

<sup>7</sup>You should not stop praying to the Lord until he builds up Jerusalem.

Don't stop until he makes Jerusalem a city all people will praise.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord has made a promise.

And by his power he will keep his promise.

He said, "I will never again give your grain as food to your enemies.

I will not let your enemies drink the wine that you have worked to make.

<sup>9</sup>The person who gathers food will eat it. And he will praise the Lord.

The person who gathers the grapes will drink the wine in the courts of my Temple."

<sup>10</sup>Go through, go through the gates!

Make the way ready for the people.

Build up, build up the road!

Move all the stones off the road.

Raise the banner as a sign for the people.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord is speaking to all the faraway lands:

"Tell the people of Jerusalem,

'Look, your Savior is coming.

He is bringing your reward to you.

He is bringing his payment with him.'"

<sup>12</sup>His people will be called the Holy People.

They will be called the Saved People of the Lord.

And Jerusalem will be called the City God Wants.

It will be named the City God Has Not Rejected.

The Lord Judges His People

63 Who is this coming from Edom?
He comes from the city of Bozrah dressed in red.

Who is this dressed in fine clothes?
He marches forward with his great power.

He says, "I, the Lord, speak what is right.
I have the power to save you."

<sup>2</sup>Why are your clothes bright red as if you had walked on the grapes to make wine?

<sup>3</sup>The Lord answers, "I have walked in the winepress<sup>d</sup> alone.

No one among the nations helped me.
I was angry and walked on the nations.
I crushed them because of my anger.
Blood splashed on my clothes.
I stained all my clothing.

<sup>4</sup>I chose a time to punish people.

And the time has come for me to save
my people.

<sup>5</sup>I looked around, but I saw no one to help
me.

I was surprised that no one supported
me.

So I used my own power to save my
people.

My own anger supported me.

<sup>6</sup>While I was angry, I walked on the
nations.

In my anger I punished them and poured their blood on the ground."

The Lord's Kindness to His People

<sup>7</sup>I will tell about the Lord's kindness.

And I will praise him for what he has
done.

He has given many good things to us.
He has been very good to the people of Israel.

The Lord has shown mercy to us.
And he has been kind to us.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord said, "These are my people.
My children will not lie to me."
So the Lord saved them.

<sup>9</sup>When they suffered, he suffered also.
He sent his own angel to save them.
Because of his love and kindness, the Lord saved them.

Since long ago he has picked them up and carried them.

<sup>10</sup>But they turned against the Lord.
They made his Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> very sad.
So the Lord became their enemy.

And he fought against them.

<sup>11</sup>But then his people remembered what happened long ago.

They remembered Moses.

Where is the Lord who brought the people through the sea?

Where is the one who brought them with the leaders of his people?

Where is the one who put his Holy Spirit among them?

<sup>12</sup>The Lord led Moses by the right hand.
The Lord led him by his wonderful power.

The Lord divided the water before them so the people could walk through the sea.

And by this the Lord made his name famous forever.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord led the people through the deep waters.

Like a horse walking through a desert,
the people did not stumble.

<sup>14</sup>Like cattle that go down to the valley, the Spirit of the Lord led the people to a place of rest.

Lord, that is the way you led your people.
And by this you made your name wonderful.

A Prayer for Help

<sup>15</sup>Lord, look down from the heavens and see.
Look at us from your wonderful holy home in heaven.

Where is your strong love and power?
Why are you keeping your love and mercy from us?

<sup>16</sup>You are our father.

Abraham doesn't know we are his children.

Israel doesn't know who we are.

Lord, you are our father.

You are called "the one who has always saved us."

<sup>17</sup>Lord, why are you making us wander from your ways?

Why do you make us stubborn so that we don't honor you?

For our sake come back to us.

We are your servants, and we belong to
you.

<sup>18</sup>Your people had your Temple<sup>d</sup> for a while.
But now our enemies have walked on your holy place and crushed it.

<sup>19</sup>You have never ruled over some people.
They have never worn your name.
And we have become like those people.

64 Tear open the skies and come down to earth.

The mountains would tremble before you.

<sup>2</sup>Be like a fire that burns twigs.

Be like a fire that makes water boil.

Do this so that your enemies will know who you are.

Then all nations will shake with fear when they see you.

<sup>3</sup>You have done amazing things that we did not expect.

You came down, and the mountains trembled before you.

<sup>4</sup>From long ago no one has ever heard of a God like you.

No one has ever seen a God besides you. You help the people who trust you.

<sup>5</sup>You help those who enjoy doing good.

You help those who remember how you want them to live.

But you were angry because we sinned.

For a long time we disobeyed.

How will we be saved?

<sup>6</sup>All of us are dirty with sin.

All the right things we have done are like filthy pieces of cloth.

All of us are like dead leaves.

Like the wind our sins have carried us away.

<sup>7</sup>No one worships you.

No one even asks you to help us.

So you have turned away from us.

And we are destroyed because of our sins.

<sup>8</sup>But Lord, you are our father.

We are like clay, and you are the potter. Your hands made us all.

<sup>9</sup>Lord, don't continue to be angry with us.

Don't remember our sins forever.

Please, look at us

because we are your people.

<sup>10</sup>Your holy cities are empty like the desert.

Jerusalem is like a desert;

Jerusalem is destroyed.

<sup>11</sup>Our ancestors worshiped you in our holy and wonderful Temple.

But now it has been burned with fire.

All our precious things have been destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>When you see these things, will you hold yourself back from helping us, Lord?

Will you be silent and punish us beyond what we can stand?

All People Will Learn About God

65 The Lord says, "I made myself known to people who were not looking for me.

I was found by those who were not asking me for help.

I spoke to a nation that was not praying to me.

I said, 'Here I am. Here I am.'

<sup>2</sup>All day long I stood ready to accept people who turned against me.

But the way they continue to live is not good.

They do anything they want to do.

<sup>3</sup>Right in front of me they continue to do things that make me angry.

They offer sacrifices to their false gods in their gardens.

They burn incense<sup>d</sup> on altars of brick.

They spend their nights waiting to get messages from the dead.

They eat the meat of pigs.

Their pots are full of soup made from meat that is wrong to eat.

<sup>5</sup>But they tell others, 'Stay away. Don't come near me.

I am too holy for you.'

These people are like smoke in my nose.

Like a fire that burns all the time, they continue to make me angry.

<sup>6</sup>"Look, it is written here before me.

I will not be quiet. Instead, I will repay you in full.

I will punish you for what you have done.

<sup>7</sup>I will punish you for your sins and your ancestors' sins,"

says the Lord.

"They burned incense to false gods on the mountains.

They shamed me on those hills.

So I will punish them as they should be punished for what they did."

<sup>8</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"When there is juice left in the grapes, people do not destroy them.

They know there is good left in them.

I will do the same thing to my servants.

I will not completely destroy them.

Some of the people of Judah will receive my mountain.

- I will choose the people who will live there.
My servants will live there.
- <sup>10</sup>Then the Plain of Sharon will be a field for sheep.
The Valley of Achor will be a place for cattle to rest.
They will be for the people who want to follow me.
- <sup>11</sup>“But you who left the Lord will be punished.
You forgot about my holy mountain.
You worship the false god Luck.
You hold religious feasts for the false god Fate.
- <sup>12</sup>But I decide your fate, and I will punish you with my sword.
You will all be killed.
This is because I called you, but you refused to answer.
I spoke to you, but you wouldn’t listen.
You did the things I said were evil.
You chose to do things that displease me.”
- <sup>13</sup>So the Lord God said these things:
“My servants will eat.
But you evil people will be hungry.
My servants will drink.
But you evil people will be thirsty.
My servants will be happy.
But you evil people will be shamed.
- <sup>14</sup>My servants will shout for joy because of the goodness of their hearts.
But you evil people will cry, because you will be sad.
You will cry loudly because your spirits will be broken.
- <sup>15</sup>Your names will be like curses to my servants.
And the Lord God will put you to death.
But he will call his servants by another name.
- <sup>16</sup>People in the land who ask for blessings will ask for them from the faithful God.
People in the land who make a promise will promise in the name of the faithful God.
This is because the troubles of the past will be forgotten.
I will make those troubles go away.

A New Time Is Coming

- <sup>17</sup>“Look, I will make new heavens and a new earth.
And people will not remember the past.

- They will not think about those things.
- <sup>18</sup>My people will be happy forever because of the things I will make.
I will make a Jerusalem that is full of joy.
And I will make her people a delight.
- <sup>19</sup>Then I will rejoice over Jerusalem.
I will be delighted with my people.
There will never again be crying and sadness in that city.
- <sup>20</sup>There will never be a baby from that city who lives only a few days.
And there will never be an older person who doesn’t have a long life.
A person who lives 100 years will be called young.
And the person who dies before he is 100 will be thought of as a sinner.
- <sup>21</sup>In that city the person who builds a house will live there.
The person who plants vineyards will get to eat grapes.
- <sup>22</sup>No more will one person build a house and someone else live there.
One person will not plant a garden and someone else eat its fruit.
My people will live a long time as trees live long.
My chosen people will live there and enjoy the things they make.
- <sup>23</sup>People will never again work for nothing.
They will never again give birth to children who die young.
All my people will be blessed by the Lord.
My people and their children will be blessed.
- <sup>24</sup>I will provide for their needs before they ask.
I will help them while they are still asking for help.
- <sup>25</sup>Wolves and lambs will eat together in peace.
Lions will eat hay like oxen.
A snake on the ground will not hurt anyone.
They will not hurt or destroy each other on all my holy mountain,”
says the Lord.

God Will Judge All Nations

- 66 This is what the Lord says:
“The skies are my throne.
The earth is my footstool.
So do you think you can build a house for me?
There is no place where I need to rest.
<sup>2</sup>My hand made all things.

All things are here because I made them," says the Lord.

"These are the people I am pleased with. They are those who are not proud or stubborn.

They fear me and obey me.

<sup>3</sup>But those people who kill bulls as a sacrifice to me are like those who kill men.

Those who kill sheep as a sacrifice to me are like those who break the necks of dogs.

Those who give me grain offerings are like those who offer me the blood of pigs.<sup>a</sup>

Those who burn incense<sup>d</sup> are like those who worship idols.

These people choose their own ways—not mine.

They love the terrible things they do.

<sup>4</sup>So I will punish them.

I will punish them using what they fear most.

I called to them, but they did not listen.

I spoke to them, but they did not hear me.

They did things I said were evil.

They chose to do things I did not like."

<sup>5</sup>You people who obey the words of the Lord,

listen to what he says:

"Your brothers hated you.

They turned against you because you followed me.

Your brothers said, 'When the Lord is honored, we will come back and rejoice with you.' But they will be punished.

<sup>6</sup>Listen to the loud noise coming from the city.

Hear the noise from the Temple.<sup>d</sup>

It is the Lord punishing his enemies.

He is giving them the punishment they should have.

<sup>7</sup>"A woman does not give birth before she feels the pain.

She does not give birth to a son before she feels the pain of birth.

<sup>8</sup>No one has ever heard of that happening. No one has ever seen that happen.

In the same way no one ever saw a country begin in one day.

No one has ever heard of a new nation beginning in one day.

But Jerusalem will give birth to her children just as soon as she feels the birth pains.

<sup>9</sup>In the same way I will not cause pain without allowing something new to be born," says the Lord.

"If I cause you the pain,

I will not stop you from giving birth to your new nation," says your God.

<sup>10</sup>Jerusalem, rejoice.

All you people who love Jerusalem, be happy.

Those of you who felt sad for Jerusalem should now feel happy with her.

<sup>11</sup>You will enjoy her good things and be satisfied as a child is nursed by its mother.

You will receive her good things and enjoy her wealth."

<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"I will give her peace that will flow to her like a river.

The wealth of the nations will come flowing to her.

Like babies you will be nursed and held in my arms.

You will be bounced on my knees.

<sup>13</sup>I will comfort you as a mother comforts her child.

You will be comforted in Jerusalem."

<sup>14</sup>When you see these things, you will be happy.

You will grow like the grass.

The Lord's servants will see his power.

But the Lord's enemies will see his anger.

<sup>15</sup>Look, the Lord is coming with fire.

The Lord's armies are coming with clouds of dust.

He will punish those people with his anger.

He will punish them with flames of fire.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord will judge the people with fire.

He will destroy many people with his sword.

He will kill many people.

<sup>17</sup>"These people make themselves holy and pure to go to worship their false gods in their gardens. They follow each other into their special gardens. They eat the meat of pigs and rats and other hated things. But they will all be destroyed together," says the Lord.

<sup>a</sup>dogs ... pigs God did not want his people to offer dogs and pigs as sacrifices because they were unclean animals.

<sup>18</sup>“I know they have evil thoughts and do evil things. So I am coming to punish them. I will gather all nations and all people. All people will come together and see my glory.

<sup>19</sup>“I will put a mark on some of the people. And I will send some of these saved people to the nations. I will send them to Tarshish, Libya, Lud (the land of archers), Tubal, Greece and all the faraway lands. These people have never heard about what I have done. They have never seen my glory. So the saved people will tell the nations about my glory. <sup>20</sup>And they will bring all your fellow Israelites from all nations. They will bring them to my holy mountain in Jerusalem. Your fellow Israelites will come on horses, donkeys, camels and in chariots and wagons. They will be like the grain offerings that the people bring in clean containers to the Temple,” says the Lord. <sup>21</sup>“And I will choose some of these people to be priests and Levites,” says the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>“I will make new heavens and the new earth. And they will last forever,” says the Lord. “In the same way, your names and your children will always be with me. <sup>23</sup>All people will come to worship me. They will come to worship me every Sabbath<sup>d</sup> and every New Moon,”<sup>d</sup> says the Lord. <sup>24</sup>“They will go out and see the dead bodies of the people who sinned against me. The worms that eat them will never die. The fires that burn them will never stop. And everyone will hate to see those bodies.”

JEREMIAH

A Warning About Captivity

1 These are the words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah. He belonged to the family of priests who lived in the town of Anathoth. That town is in the land that belongs to the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. This happened during the thirteenth year that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. <sup>3</sup>The Lord also spoke to Jeremiah while Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah. And the Lord spoke to Jeremiah during the 11 years and 5 months Zedekiah son of Josiah was king of Judah. After that, the people who lived in Jerusalem were taken away as captives out of their country.

God Calls Jeremiah

<sup>4</sup>The Lord spoke these words to me:
<sup>5</sup>"Before I made you in your mother's womb, I chose you.
Before you were born, I set you apart for a special work.
I appointed you as a prophet<sup>d</sup> to the nations."

<sup>6</sup>Then I said, "But Lord God, I don't know how to speak. I am only a boy."

<sup>7</sup>But the Lord said to me, "Don't say, 'I am only a boy.' You must go everywhere that I send you. You must say everything I tell you to say. <sup>8</sup>Don't be afraid of anyone, because I am with you. I will protect you," says the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord reached out with his hand and touched my mouth. He said to me, "See, I am putting my words in your mouth. <sup>10</sup>Today I have put you in charge of nations and kingdoms. You will pull up and tear down, destroy and overthrow. You will build up and plant."

Jeremiah Sees Two Visions

<sup>11</sup>The Lord spoke this word to me: "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered the Lord and said, "I see a stick of almond wood."

<sup>12</sup>The Lord said to me, "You have seen correctly! And I am watching to make sure my words come true."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me again: "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered the Lord and said, "I see a pot of boiling water. It is tipping over from the north!"

<sup>14</sup>The Lord said to me, "Disaster will come from the north. It will happen to all the people who live in this country. <sup>15</sup>In a short time I will call all of the people in the northern kingdoms," said the Lord.

"Those kings will come and set up their thrones near the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem.
They will attack the city walls around Jerusalem.

They will attack all the cities in Judah.
<sup>16</sup>And I will announce my judgments against my people.

I will do this because of their evil in turning away from me.
They offered sacrifices to other gods.
And they worshiped idols they had made with their own hands.

<sup>17</sup>"Jeremiah, get ready. Stand up and speak to the people. Tell them everything I tell you to say. Don't be afraid of the people. If you are afraid of them, I will give you good reason to be afraid of them. <sup>18</sup>Today I am going to make you a strong city, an iron pillar, a bronze wall. You will be able to stand against everyone in the land: Judah's kings, officers, priests and the people of the land. <sup>19</sup>They will fight against you, but they will not defeat you. This is because I am with you, and I will save you!" says the Lord.

Israel Turns from God

2 The Lord spoke this word to me: <sup>2</sup>"Go and speak to the people of Jerusalem. Say to them: This is what the Lord says:

"When you were a young nation, you were faithful to me.

You loved me like a young bride.
You followed me through the desert.
It was a land that had never been planted.

<sup>3</sup>The people of Israel were holy to the Lord. They were like the first fruits from his harvest.

Those who tried to hurt Israel were judged guilty.

- Disasters happened to them,'” says the Lord.
- <sup>4</sup>Hear the word of the Lord, family of Jacob.
Hear the message, all you family groups of Israel.
- <sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord says:
“I was fair to your ancestors.
Why did they turn away from me?
Your ancestors worshiped useless idols.
And they became useless themselves.
- <sup>6</sup>Your ancestors didn't say,
‘The Lord brought us out of Egypt.
He led us through the desert.
He led us through a dry and rocky land.
He led us through a dark and dangerous land.
He led us where no one travels or lives.
But where is he now?’
- <sup>7</sup>I brought you into a fertile land.
I did this so you could eat its fruit and produce.
But you came and made my land unclean.<sup>d</sup>
You made it a hated place.
- <sup>8</sup>The priests didn't ask,
‘Where is the Lord?’
The people who know the teachings didn't know me.
The leaders turned against me.
The prophets<sup>d</sup> prophesied in the name of Baal.<sup>d</sup>
They worshiped useless idols.
- <sup>9</sup>“So now I will again tell what I have against you,” says the Lord.
“And I will tell what I have against your grandchildren.
- <sup>10</sup>Go across the sea to the island of Cyprus and see.
Send someone to the land of Kedar to look closely.
See if there has ever been anything like this!
- <sup>11</sup>Has a nation ever exchanged their old gods for new ones?
(Of course, their gods are not really gods at all.)
But my people have exchanged their glorious God for idols worth nothing!
- <sup>12</sup>Skies, be shocked at the things that have happened.
Shake with great fear!” says the Lord.
- <sup>13</sup>“My people have done two sins.
They have turned away from me.
And I am the spring of living water.
And they have dug their own wells.
- But they are broken wells that cannot hold water.
- <sup>14</sup>Have the people of Israel become slaves?
Have they become like someone who was born a slave?
Why was their wealth stolen?
- <sup>15</sup>Enemies roar like lions at Israel.
They growl at Israel.
They have destroyed the land of Israel.
The cities of Israel have been burned, and all the people have left.
- <sup>16</sup>The men from the Egyptian cities of Memphis and Tahpanhes have disgraced you by shaving the top of your head.
- <sup>17</sup>You have brought this on yourselves.
You turned away from me, the Lord your God,
when I led you in the way.
- <sup>18</sup>It did not help to go to Egypt and drink from the Shihor River.
It did not help to go to Assyria and drink from the Euphrates River.
- <sup>19</sup>Your evil will bring punishment to you.
The wrong you have done will teach you a lesson.
Think about it and understand.
It is a terrible evil to turn away from the Lord your God.
It is wrong not to fear me,” says the Lord, the Lord of heaven's armies.
- <sup>20</sup>“A long time ago you refused to obey me as an ox breaks its yoke.<sup>d</sup>
You broke the ropes I used to hold you to me.
You said to me, ‘I will not serve you!’
In fact, on every high hill and under every green tree you lay down as a prostitute.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>21</sup>I planted you as a special vine.
You were like very good seed.
How then did you turn into a wild vine that grows bad fruit?
- <sup>22</sup>You might wash yourself with cleanser.
And you might use much soap.
But I can still see the stain of your guilt,”
says the Lord God.
- <sup>23</sup>“How can you say to me, ‘I am not guilty.
I have not worshiped the Baal<sup>d</sup> idols’?
Think about the things you did in the valley.
Think about what you have done.
You are like a she-camel in mating season that runs from place to place.”

<sup>24</sup>You are like a wild donkey that lives in the desert.

At mating time she sniffs the wind.

At that time no one can hold her back.

Any male who chases her will easily catch her.

At mating time, it is easy to find her.

<sup>25</sup>Don't run until your feet are bare or until your throat is dry.

But you say, 'It's no use!

I love those other gods.

I must worship them!

<sup>26</sup>A thief is ashamed when someone catches him stealing.

In the same way the family of Israel is ashamed.

The kings and the officers, the priests and the prophets are ashamed.

<sup>27</sup>They say to things of wood, 'You are my father.'

They say to idols of stone, 'You gave birth to me.'

Those people won't look at me.

They have turned their backs to me.

But when they get into trouble, they say, 'Come and save us!'

<sup>28</sup>Where are the idols you have made for yourselves?

Let them come and save you when you are in trouble!

People of Judah, you have as many idols as you have towns!

<sup>29</sup>"Why do you accuse me?

All of you have turned against me," says the Lord.

<sup>30</sup>"I punished your people, but it did not help.

They didn't come back when they were punished.

You killed with your swords the prophets who came to you.

You were like a dangerous lion.

<sup>31</sup>"People of Judah, pay attention to the word of the Lord:

Have I been like a desert to the people of Israel?

Have I been like a dark and dangerous land to them?

Why do my people say, 'We are free to wander.

We won't come to you anymore?'

<sup>32</sup>A young woman does not forget her jewelry.

A bride does not forget the decorations for her dress.

But my people have forgotten me for more days than can be counted!

<sup>33</sup>You really know how to chase after love. Even the worst women can learn evil ways from you.

<sup>34</sup>You have blood on your clothes. It is the blood of the poor and innocent people.

You killed them, but they weren't thieves you had caught breaking in.

You do all these things,

<sup>35</sup> but you say, 'I am innocent. God is not angry with me.'

But I will judge you guilty of lying.

It is because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

<sup>36</sup>It is so easy for you to change your mind. Assyria let you down.

And Egypt will let you down, too.

<sup>37</sup>You will eventually leave that place. And, like captives, your hands will be on your head.

You trusted those countries.

But you will not be helped by them.

This is because the Lord has rejected them.

Judah Is Unfaithful

3 "Now a man might divorce his wife.

And she might leave him and marry another man.

Should her first husband come back to her

again?

If he went back to her, the land would become completely unclean.<sup>d</sup>

But you have acted like a prostitute<sup>d</sup> with many lovers.

And now you want to come back to me?" says the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>"Look up to the bare hilltops, Judah.

Is there any place where you have not been a prostitute?

You have sat by the road waiting for lovers.

You sat there like an Arab in the desert.

You made the land unclean because you did evil and were like a prostitute.

<sup>3</sup>So the rain has not come.

There have not been any spring rains.

But your face still looks like the face of a prostitute.

You refuse even to be ashamed of what you did.

<sup>4</sup>But now you are calling to me.

You say, 'My father, you have been my friend since I was young.

<sup>5</sup>Will you always be angry at me?

Will your anger last forever?'

Judah, you say this,
but you do as much evil as you can!"

Judah and Israel Are like Sisters

<sup>6</sup>When King Josiah was ruling Judah, the Lord spoke to me. He said: "Jeremiah, you saw what unfaithful Israel did. She was guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> She had idols on every hill and under every green tree. <sup>7</sup>I said to myself, 'Israel will come back to me after she does this evil.' But she didn't come back to me. And Israel's wicked sister Judah saw what Israel did. <sup>8</sup>Unfaithful Israel knew that I divorced her because of her adultery. But that didn't make her wicked sister Judah afraid. She also went out and acted like a prostitute!<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>And she didn't care that she was acting like a prostitute. So she made her country unclean.<sup>d</sup> She was guilty of adultery. This was because she worshiped idols made of stone and wood. <sup>10</sup>Israel's wicked sister didn't come back to me with her whole heart. She only pretended to come back to me," says the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to me, "Unfaithful Israel had a better excuse than wicked Judah. <sup>12</sup>Go and speak this message toward the north:

'Come back, unfaithful people of Israel,'
says the Lord.

'I will stop frowning at you.

I am full of mercy,' says the Lord.

'I will not be angry with you forever.

<sup>13</sup>All you have to do is admit your sin.

You turned against the Lord your God.

You worshiped the false gods of other
nations.

You worshiped them under every green tree.

You didn't obey me," says the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>"Come back to me, you unfaithful people," says the Lord. "I am your husband. I will take one person from every city. And I will take two people from every family group. And I will bring you to Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>Then I will give you new rulers. They will be faithful to me. They will lead you with knowledge and understanding. <sup>16</sup>In those days there will be many of you in the land," says the Lord. "At that time people will no longer say, 'I remember the Ark<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement.' They won't even think about the Ark anymore. They won't even remember or miss it or make another one. <sup>17</sup>At that time Jerusalem will be called The Throne of the Lord. All nations will come together in Jerusalem to show respect to the Lord. They will not follow their stubborn, evil hearts anymore. <sup>18</sup>In those days the family of Judah will join the family of Israel. They will come together from a land in the north. They will come to the land I gave to their ancestors.

<sup>19</sup>"I, the Lord, said,

'How happy I would be to treat you as sons!

I would be glad to give you a pleasant
land.

It's a land more beautiful than that of any other nation.'

I thought you would call me 'Father' and not turn away from me.

<sup>20</sup>But like a woman who is unfaithful to her husband,

family of Israel, you have been unfaithful to me," says the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>You can hear crying on the bare hilltops.

The people of Israel are crying and praying for mercy.

They have become very evil.

They have forgotten the Lord their God.

<sup>22</sup>"Come back to me, you unfaithful people of Israel.

Come back, and I will forgive you for being unfaithful."

"Yes, we will come to you.

You are the Lord our God.

<sup>23</sup>It was foolish to worship idols on the hills.

All the loud noises on the mountains were a lie.

Surely the salvation of Israel comes from the Lord our God.

<sup>24</sup>Since we were young, shameful gods have eaten up in sacrifice

everything our fathers worked for.

The shameful gods have taken our fathers'
sheep and cattle.

They have taken our fathers' sons and daughters.

<sup>25</sup>Let us lie down in our shame.

And let our shame cover us like a blanket.

We have sinned against the Lord our God.

Both we and our fathers have sinned.

Since we were children and until now, we have not obeyed the Lord our God."

4 "If you will come back, Israel, then come back to me," says the Lord.

"Throw away your idols that I hate.

Don't wander away from me.

<sup>2</sup>Then you may say when you make a promise,

'As surely as the Lord lives.'

And you can say it in a truthful, honest and right way.

Then the nations will be blessed by the Lord.

And they will praise the Lord for what he has done."

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord says to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

"Plow your unplowed fields.

Don't plant seeds among the thorns.

<sup>4</sup>Give yourselves to the service of the Lord. Decide to obey him.

Do this, men of Judah and people of Jerusalem.

If you don't, my anger will spread among you like a fire.

No one will be able to put it out because of the evil you have done.

Trouble from the North

<sup>5</sup>Announce this message to Judah and say it in Jerusalem:

'Blow the trumpet throughout the country!'

Shout out loud and say,

'Come together!

Let's all escape to the strong, walled cities!'

<sup>6</sup>Raise the signal flag toward Jerusalem!

Run for your lives! And don't wait!

Do this because I am bringing disaster from the north.

It will be terrible destruction."

<sup>7</sup>A lion has come out of his den.

A destroyer of nations has begun to march.

He has left his home to destroy your land.

Your towns will be destroyed.

There will be no people left to live in them.

<sup>8</sup>So put on rough cloth, show how sad you are and cry loudly.

The terrible anger of the Lord has not turned away from us.

<sup>9</sup>"When this happens," says the Lord,

"the king and officers will lose their courage.

The priests will be terribly afraid.

And the prophets<sup>4</sup> will be shocked!"

<sup>10</sup>Then I, Jeremiah, said, "Lord God, you have tricked the people of Judah and Jerusalem. You said, 'You will have peace.' But now the sword is pointing at our throats!"

<sup>11</sup>At that time this message will be given to Judah and Jerusalem: "A hot wind blows from the bare hilltops. It comes out of the desert toward the Lord's people. It is not like the gentle wind farmers use to separate grain from chaff.<sup>4</sup> <sup>12</sup>It's a stronger wind than that. And it comes from the Lord. Now he will announce his judgment against the people of Judah."

<sup>13</sup>Look! The enemy rises up like a cloud.

His chariots come like a windstorm.

His horses are faster than eagles.

How terrible it will be for us! We are ruined!

<sup>14</sup>People of Jerusalem, clean the evil from your hearts and be saved.

Don't continue making evil plans.

<sup>15</sup>A voice from Dan makes an announcement.

From the mountains of Ephraim someone brings bad news.

<sup>16</sup>"Report this to the nations.

Spread this news in Jerusalem:

'Enemies are coming from a faraway country.

They are shouting words of war against the cities of Judah.

<sup>17</sup>The enemy has surrounded Jerusalem as men guard a field.

This is because Judah turned against me,'" says the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>"The way you have lived and acted has brought this trouble to you.

This is your punishment.

How terrible it is!

The pain stabs your heart!"

Jeremiah's Cry

<sup>19</sup>Oh, how I hurt! How I hurt!

I am bent over in pain.

Oh, the torture in my heart!

My heart is pounding inside me.

I cannot keep quiet

because I have heard the sound of the trumpet.

I have heard the words of war.

<sup>20</sup>Disaster follows disaster.

The whole country has been destroyed.

My tents are destroyed in only a moment.

My curtains are torn down quickly.

<sup>21</sup>How long must I look at the war flag?

How long must I listen to the war trumpets?

<sup>22</sup>The Lord says, "My people are foolish.

They do not know me.

They are stupid children.

They don't understand.

They are skillful at doing evil.

They don't know how to do good."

Disaster Is Coming

- <sup>23</sup>I looked at the earth.
It was empty and had no shape!
I looked at the sky.
And its light was gone.
- <sup>24</sup>I looked at the mountains, and they were shaking!
All the hills were trembling.
- <sup>25</sup>I looked, and there were no people!
Every bird in the sky had flown away.
- <sup>26</sup>I looked, and the good, rich land had become a desert!
All its towns had been destroyed.
The Lord and his great anger has caused
this.
- <sup>27</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"All the land will be ruined.
But I will not completely destroy it.
<sup>28</sup>So the people in the land will cry loudly.
And the sky will grow dark.
This is because I have spoken and will not change my mind.
I have made a decision, and I will not change it."
- <sup>29</sup>The towns will hear the sound of the horsemen and soldiers with bows.
All the people will run away.
Some of them will hide in the thick bushes.
Some will climb up into the rocks.
All of the cities of Judah are empty.
No one lives in them.
- <sup>30</sup>Judah, you destroyed nation, what are you doing?
Why do you put on your finest dress?
Why do you put on your gold jewelry?
Why do you put on your eye shadow?
You make yourself beautiful, but it is all useless.
Your lovers hate you.
They want to kill you.
- <sup>31</sup>I hear a cry like a woman having a baby.
It is a cry like a woman having her first child.
It is the voice of Jerusalem gasping for breath.
She lifts her hands in prayer and says,
"Oh! I am about to faint.
They are about to murder me!"

No One Is Right

- 5 The Lord says, "Walk up and down the streets of Jerusalem.
Look around and think about these things.

- Search the public squares of the city.
See if you can find one person who does honest things.
Find just one who searches for the truth.
If you can, I will forgive this city.
- <sup>2</sup>The people say, 'As surely as the Lord lives!'
But they don't really mean it."
- <sup>3</sup>Lord, don't you look for truth in people?
You hit the people of Judah.
But they didn't feel any pain.
You crushed them,
but they refused to learn what is right.
They became more stubborn than a rock.
They refused to turn back to God.
- <sup>4</sup>But I thought,
"These are only the poor, foolish people.
They have not learned the way of the Lord.
They do not know what their God wants them to do.
- <sup>5</sup>So I will go to the leaders of Judah.
I will talk to them.
Surely they understand the way of the Lord.
They know what God wants them to
do."
But the leaders had all joined together to break away from the Lord.
They broke their ties with him.
- <sup>6</sup>So a lion from the forest will attack them.
A wolf from the desert will kill them.
A leopard is hiding and waiting for them near their towns.
It will tear to pieces anyone who comes out of the city.
This will happen because the people of Judah have sinned greatly.
They have wandered away from the Lord many times.
- <sup>7</sup>The Lord said, "Tell me why I should forgive you.
Your children have left me.
They have made promises to idols that are not gods at all.
I gave your children everything they needed.
But they still were like an unfaithful wife
to me.
They spent much time in houses of prostitutes."
- <sup>8</sup>They are like well-fed, male horses filled with sexual desire.
Each one wants another man's wife.
- <sup>9</sup>Shouldn't I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?" says the Lord.

- "I should give a nation such as this the punishment it deserves.
- <sup>10</sup>"Go along and cut down Judah's vineyards. But do not completely destroy them. Cut off all her people as if they were branches. Do it because they do not belong to the Lord.
- <sup>11</sup>The families of Israel and Judah have been completely unfaithful to me," says the Lord!
- <sup>12</sup>Those people have lied about the Lord. They have said, "The Lord will not do anything to us! Nothing bad will happen to us. We will never see war or hunger.
- <sup>13</sup>The prophets<sup>d</sup> are like an empty wind. The word of God is not in them. Let these bad things they say happen to them."
- <sup>14</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies says:
"The people said I would not punish them. So, Jeremiah, the words I give you will be like fire. And these people will be like wood the fire burns up.
- <sup>15</sup>Listen, family of Israel," says the Lord. "I will soon bring a nation from far away to attack you. It is an old nation that has lasted a long time. The people there speak a language you do not know. You cannot understand what they say.
- <sup>16</sup>Their arrows bring death. All their men are strong warriors.
- <sup>17</sup>They will eat your crops and your food. They will eat your sons and daughters. They will eat your flocks and herds. They will eat your grapes and figs. They will destroy with their swords the strong, walled cities you trust in!
- <sup>18</sup>"Yet even then," says the Lord, "I will not destroy you completely. <sup>19</sup>The people of Judah will ask, 'Why has the Lord our God done this terrible thing to us?' Give them this answer: 'You have left the Lord. You have served foreign idols in your own land. So now you will serve foreigners in a land that does not belong to you!'
- <sup>20</sup>"Announce this message to the family of Jacob. And tell it to the nation of Judah:
- <sup>21</sup>Hear this message, you foolish people who have no sense. You have eyes, but you don't really see. You have ears, but you don't really listen. <sup>22</sup>Surely you are afraid of me," says the Lord. "You should shake with fear in my presence. I am the one who made the beaches to be a border for the sea. They keep the water in its place forever. The waves may pound the beach, but they can't win over it. The waves may roar, but they cannot go beyond it.
- <sup>23</sup>But the people of Judah are stubborn and have turned against me. They have turned aside and gone away from me.
- <sup>24</sup>They do not say to themselves, 'We should fear the Lord our God. He gives us autumn and spring rains in their seasons. He makes sure we have the harvest at the right time.'
- <sup>25</sup>But your evil has kept away both rain and harvest. Your sins have kept you from enjoying good things.
- <sup>26</sup>There are wicked men among my people. They are like men who make nets for catching birds. But they set their traps to catch men instead of birds.
- <sup>27</sup>Like cages full of birds, their houses are full of lies. They have become rich and powerful.
- <sup>28</sup> They have grown big and fat. There is no end to the evil things they do. They won't plead the case of the orphan. They won't help the poor be judged fairly.
- <sup>29</sup>Shouldn't I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?" says the Lord. "I should give a nation such as this the punishment it deserves.
- <sup>30</sup>"A terrible and shocking thing has happened in the land of Judah:
- <sup>31</sup>The prophets tell lies. The priests take power into their own hands. And my people love it this way. But what will you do when the end comes?

Jerusalem Is Surrounded

6 “Run for your lives, people of Benjamin!
Run away from Jerusalem!
Blow the war trumpet in the town of Tekoa!

Raise the warning flag over the town of Beth Hakkerem!

Disaster is coming from the north.
Terrible destruction is coming to you.

<sup>2</sup>Jerusalem, I will destroy you.

You are fragile and gentle.

<sup>3</sup>Shepherds with their flocks will come against Jerusalem.

They will set up their tents all around her.

Each shepherd will take care of his own section.”

<sup>4</sup>They say, “Get ready to fight against Jerusalem!

Get up! We will attack at noon!

But it is already getting late.

The evening shadows are growing long.

<sup>5</sup>So get up! We will attack at night.

We will destroy the strong towers of
Jerusalem!”

<sup>6</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies
says:

“Cut down the trees around Jerusalem.

Build an attack ramp to the top of Jerusalem’s walls.

This city must be punished!

Inside this city is nothing but slavery.

<sup>7</sup>Jerusalem pours out her evil

as a well pours out its water.

The sounds of violence and destruction are heard within her.

I can see the sickness and hurts of Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup>Listen to this warning, Jerusalem.

If you don’t listen, I will turn my back on you.

I will make your land an empty desert.

No one will be able to live there!”

<sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies
says:

“Gather the few people of Israel who are left alive.

Gather them as you would the last grapes on a grapevine.

Check each vine again,
like someone who gathers grapes.”

<sup>10</sup>To whom can I speak? Whom can I warn?
Who will listen to me?

The people of Israel have closed ears!
So they cannot hear my warnings.

They don’t like the word of the Lord.

They don’t want to listen to it!

<sup>11</sup>But I am full of the anger of the Lord.

I am tired of holding it in.

“Pour out the Lord’s anger on the children who play in the street.

Pour it out on the young men gathered together.

A husband and his wife will both be caught in his anger.

The very old people will be caught in it.

<sup>12</sup>Their houses will be turned over to others.

Their fields and wives will be given
away.

I will raise my hand and punish the people of Judah,” says

the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>“Everyone, from the least important to the greatest,

is greedy for money.

Even the prophets<sup>d</sup> and priests

all tell lies.

<sup>14</sup>They try to heal my people’s serious injuries

as if they were small wounds.

They say, ‘It’s all right, it’s all right!’

But really, it is not all right.

<sup>15</sup>They should be ashamed of the terrible way they act.

But they are not ashamed at all.

They don’t even know how to blush
about their sins.

So they will fall, along with everyone else.

They will be thrown to the ground when
I punish them,” says the Lord.

“Stand where the roads cross and look.

Ask where the old way is.

Ask where the good way is, and walk on
it.

If you do, you will find rest for yourselves.

But you have said, ‘We will not walk on the good way!’

<sup>17</sup>I chose watchmen to watch over you.

I told you, ‘Listen for the sound of the war trumpet!’

But you said, ‘We will not listen.’

<sup>18</sup>So listen, all you nations.

Pay attention, you witnesses.

Watch what I will do to the people of Judah.

<sup>19</sup>Hear this, people of the earth:

I am going to bring disaster to the people of Judah!

It will happen because of the evil they plan.
 They have not listened to my messages.
 They have rejected my teachings.
 20Why do you bring me offerings of incense<sup>d</sup> from the land of Sheba?
 Why do you bring me sweet-smelling cane from a faraway land?
 Your burnt offerings will not be accepted.
 Your sacrifices do not please me."

21So this is what the Lord says:
 "I will put problems in front of Judah.
 Fathers and sons will stumble over them.
 Neighbors and friends will die."

22This is what the Lord says:
 "Look, an army is coming from the land of the north.
 A great nation is coming from the far sides of the earth.
 23The soldiers carry bows and spears.
 They are cruel and show no mercy.
 They sound like the roaring ocean
 when they ride their horses.
 That army is coming lined up for battle.
 It is coming to attack you, Jerusalem."

24We have heard the news about that army.
 We are helpless from fear.
 We feel trapped by our troubles.
 We are in pain like a woman having a baby.

25Don't go out into the fields.
 Don't walk down the roads
 because the enemy has swords.
 There is terror on every side.

26My people, put on rough cloth and roll in the ashes to show how sad you are.
 Cry loudly for those who are dead.
 Cry as if your only son had died.
 Do it because the destroyer will soon come against us.

27"Jeremiah, I have made you like a worker who tests metal.

And my people are like the ore for the metal.

You must observe their ways.
 And you must test them.

28My people have turned against me and are stubborn.

They go around telling lies about people.
 They are like bronze and iron,
 that became covered with rust.

29The fire is fanned to make it hotter.
 But the lead does not melt.
 The pure silver does not come out.

And the evil is not removed from my
 people.

30My people will be called rejected silver.
 They will be given that name because the Lord has rejected them."

Jeremiah's Temple Sermon

7 This is the word that the Lord spoke to Jeremiah: 2"Stand at the gate of the Temple.<sup>d</sup> Preach this message there:

"Hear the word of the Lord, all you people of the nation of Judah! All you who come through these gates to worship the Lord, listen to this message! 3This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: Change your lives and do what is right! If you do, I will let you live in this place. 4Don't trust the lies that some people say! They say, "This is the Temple of the Lord. This is the Temple of the Lord. This is the Temple of the Lord!" 5You must change your lives and do what is right.
 You must be fair to each other. 6You must not be hard on the strangers, the orphans and widows. Don't kill innocent people in this place!
 Don't follow other gods, or they will ruin your lives. 7If you do these things, I will let you live in this land. This is the land I gave to your ancestors to keep forever.

8" But look! You are trusting lies. Such trust is useless. 9Will you steal and murder? Will you be guilty of adultery?<sup>d</sup> Will you falsely accuse other people? Will you worship the false god Baal?<sup>d</sup> And will you follow other gods you have not known? 10If you do that, do you think you can come before me? Can you stand in this place where I have chosen to be worshiped?
 Do you think you can say, "We are safe!" Are you safe to do all these hated things? 11This is the place where I have chosen to be worshiped.
 Is it nothing more to you than a hideout for robbers? I have been watching you, says
 the Lord!

12" You people of Judah, go now to the town of Shiloh. It was there that I first made a place to be worshiped. Go there and see what I did because of the evil things they had done.
 13You people of Israel were doing all these evil things, says the Lord. I spoke to you again and again. But you did not listen to me. I called you, but you did not answer. 14So I will destroy the place where I have chosen to be worshiped in Jerusalem. You trust in that place. I gave it to you and your ancestors. But I will destroy it just as I destroyed Shiloh. 15I will push you away from me. I will do it just as I pushed away your brothers, the people of Israel!

16" As for you, Jeremiah, don't pray for these people. Don't cry out for them or ask anything for them. Don't beg me to help them. I will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup>Don't you see what they are doing in the towns of Judah? Don't you see what they are doing in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup>This is what the people of Judah are doing: The children gather wood. The fathers use the wood to make a fire. The women make the dough for cakes of bread. And they offer them to the Queen Goddess. <sup>d</sup> They pour out drink offerings to worship other gods. They do this to make me angry. <sup>19</sup>But I am not the one the people of Judah are really hurting, says the Lord. They are only hurting themselves. They are bringing shame upon themselves.

<sup>20</sup>“ So this is what the Lord says: I will pour out my anger on this place. I will pour it out on man and animal. I will pour out my anger on the trees in the field. And I will pour it out on the crops in the ground. My anger will be like a hot fire. And no one will be able to put it out.

Obedience Is More than Sacrifice

<sup>21</sup>“ This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: Go and offer as many burnt offerings and sacrifices as you want! Eat the meat of those sacrifices yourselves! <sup>22</sup>I brought your ancestors out of Egypt. I spoke to them. But I did not give them commands only about burnt offerings and sacrifices. <sup>23</sup>I also gave them this command: Obey me, and I will be your God and you will be my people. Do all that I command, and good things will happen to you. <sup>24</sup>But your ancestors did not listen or pay attention to me. They were stubborn and did whatever their evil hearts wanted. They went backward, not forward. <sup>25</sup>Since the day your ancestors left Egypt, I have sent you my servants, the prophets. <sup>d</sup> I sent them to you again and again. <sup>26</sup>But your ancestors did not listen or pay attention to me. They were very stubborn. And they did more evil than their ancestors.’

<sup>27</sup>Jeremiah, you will tell these things to the people of Judah. But they will not listen to you! You will call to them, but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup>So say to them, ‘This is the nation that has not obeyed the Lord its God. These people do nothing when I correct them. They do not tell the truth. It has disappeared from their lips.

The Valley of Killing

<sup>29</sup>“ Cut off your hair and throw it away. Go up to the bare hilltop and cry. Do it because I, the Lord, have rejected these people. I have turned my back on them. And in my anger I will punish them! <sup>30</sup>The people of Judah have done what I said was evil, says the Lord. They have set up their hated idols in the place where I have chosen to be worshiped. They have made it unclean! <sup>d</sup> <sup>31</sup>The people of Judah have built places of worship at Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. There the people offered their own sons and daughters as sacrifices. This is something I never commanded. It never even entered my mind! <sup>32</sup>So, I warn you. The days are coming, says the Lord, when people will not call this place Topheth. They will not call it the Valley of Ben Hinnom anymore. They will call it the Valley of Killing. They will bury dead people in Topheth until there is no room to bury anyone else! <sup>33</sup>Then the bodies of the dead will lie on top of the ground. They will become food for the birds of the sky. Wild animals will eat the bodies. There will be no one left alive to chase the birds or animals away. <sup>34</sup>I will end the happy sounds of the bride and bridegroom. There will be no happy sounds in Judah or in the streets of Jerusalem. The land will become an empty desert!

8 “ The Lord says: At that time the bones will be removed from the tombs. The bones of Judah's kings and officers, priests and prophets <sup>d</sup> and the people of Jerusalem will be removed. <sup>2</sup>The bones will be spread on the ground under the sun, moon and stars the people loved and served. They went after these gods, searched them out and worshiped them. No one will gather up the bones and bury them. So they will be like dung thrown on the ground. <sup>3</sup>I will force the people of Judah to leave their homes and their land. Those of this evil family who are not dead will wish they were dead, says the Lord.’

Sin and Punishment

<sup>4</sup>“ Say to the people of Judah: ‘This is what the Lord says:

When a man falls down, doesn't he get up again?

And when a man goes the wrong way, doesn't he come back again?

<sup>5</sup>Why, then, have the people of Judah gone the wrong way?

And why do the people of Jerusalem not turn back?

They believe their own lies.

They refuse to turn around and come back.

<sup>6</sup>I have listened to them very carefully.

But they do not say what is right.

They do not feel sorry about their wicked ways.

The people don't think about the bad things they have done.
 Each person goes his own way.
 He is like a horse charging into a battle.
 7 Even the birds in the sky know the right times to do things.
 The storks, doves, swifts and thrushes know when it is time to migrate.
 But my people don't know what the Lord wants them to do!

8 "You keep saying, "We are wise.
 This is because we have the teachings of
 the Lord."

But actually, those who copy the Scriptures have written lies with their pens.

9 These wise men refused to listen to the word of the Lord.

So they are not really wise at all.
 They will be ashamed.

They will be shocked and trapped.

10 So I will give their wives to other men.
 I will give their fields to new owners.

Everyone, from the least important to the greatest,
 is greedy for money.

Even the prophets<sup>d</sup> and priests
 all tell lies.

11 They try to heal my people's serious injuries

as if they were small wounds.

They say, "It's all right, it's all right!"
 But really, it is not all right.

12 They should be ashamed of the terrible way they act.

But they are not ashamed at all.

They don't even know how to blush
 about their sins.

So they will fall, along with everyone else.
 They will be thrown to the ground when
 I punish them, says the Lord.

13 "I will take away their crops, says the Lord.

There will be no grapes on the vine.
 There will be no figs on the fig tree.
 Even the leaves will dry up and die.
 I will take away what I gave them!"

14 "Why are we just sitting here?

Let's get together!

We have sinned against the Lord.

So he has given us poisoned water to drink.

Come, let's run to the strong, walled cities.
 The Lord our God has decided that we must die.

So let's die there.

15 We hoped to have peace.

But nothing good has come.

We hoped for a time when he would heal
 us.

But only disaster has come!

16 From the land of the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Dan, the snorting of the enemy's horses is heard.

The ground shakes from the neighing of their large horses.

They have come to destroy the land and everything in it.

They have come to destroy the city and all the people who live
 there."

17 "Look! I am sending poisonous snakes to attack you.

These snakes cannot be charmed.

They will bite you," says the Lord.

Jeremiah's Sadness

18 God, you are my comfort when I am very sad.

You are my comfort when I'm afraid.

19 Listen to my people!

They are crying for help from a faraway
 land.

They say, "Is the Lord still in Jerusalem?
 Is Jerusalem's king still there?"

But God says, "Why did the people make me angry by worshiping idols?

They worshiped their useless foreign idols."

20 And the people say, "Harvest time is over.
 Summer has ended.

And we have not been saved."

21 My people are crushed. So I am crushed.
 I cry loudly, and I am afraid for them.

22 Surely there is a balm<sup>d</sup> in the land of Gilead.

Surely there is a doctor there.

So why aren't the hurts of my people healed?

9 I wish my head were like a spring of water.

And I wish my eyes were a fountain of tears!

Then I could cry day and night for my people who have been killed.

21 I wish I had a place in the desert—a house where travelers spend the night.

Then I could leave my people.

I could go away from them because they are all unfaithful to God.

They are all turning against him.

Judah's Failures

<sup>3</sup>"They use their tongues like a bow.
They shoot lies from their mouths like arrows.
Lies, not truth,
have grown strong in the land.
They go from one evil thing to another.
They do not know who I am," says the
Lord.

<sup>4</sup>"Watch your friends.
Don't trust your own brothers because every brother is a cheater.
And every friend tells lies about you.

<sup>5</sup>Everyone lies to his friend.
No one speaks the truth.
The people of Judah have taught their tongues to lie.
They become tired from sinning.

<sup>6</sup>Jeremiah, you live in the middle of evil.
And lies follow lies.
The people have refused to know me,"
says the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies
says:
"I will test the people of Judah as a person
tests metal in a fire.
I have no other choice.
My people have sinned.

<sup>8</sup>Their tongues are like sharp arrows.
Their mouths speak lies.
Everyone speaks nicely to his neighbor.
But he is secretly planning to attack him.

<sup>9</sup>Shouldn't I punish the people for doing this?" says the Lord.
"Shouldn't I give them the punishment they deserve?"

<sup>10</sup>I, Jeremiah, will cry loudly for the mountains.
I will sing a funeral song for the empty fields.
They are empty, and no one passes through.
The mooing of cattle cannot be heard.
The birds have flown away,
and the animals are gone.

<sup>11</sup>"I, the Lord, will make the city of Jerusalem a heap of ruins.
It will become a home for wild dogs.
I will destroy the cities in the land of Judah so no one can live there."

<sup>12</sup>What man is wise enough to understand these things? Is there someone who has been taught by the Lord who can explain them?
Why was the land ruined? Why has it been made like an empty desert where no one goes?

<sup>13</sup>The Lord answered, "It is because Judah quit following my teachings that I gave them.
They have not obeyed me. They have not done what I told them to do. <sup>14</sup>Instead, the people of Judah were stubborn. They followed the false god Baal.<sup>4</sup> Their fathers taught them to do this!" <sup>15</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies, God of Israel, says: "I will soon make the people of Judah eat bitter food. I will make them drink poisoned water. <sup>16</sup>I will scatter them through other nations. They will live in strange nations that they and their ancestors never knew about. I will chase the people of Judah with the sword until they are all killed."

<sup>17</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies
says:

"Now, think about these things!
Call for the women who cry at funerals.
Send for those women who are good at that job.

<sup>18</sup>Let them come quickly and cry loudly for us.
Then our eyes will fill with tears.
And streams of water will come out of our eyes.

<sup>19</sup>The sound of loud crying is heard from Jerusalem:
'We are truly ruined!
We are truly ashamed!
We must leave our land,
because our houses are in ruins.' "

<sup>20</sup>Now, women of Judah, listen to the word of the Lord.
Open your ears to hear the words of his mouth.
Teach your daughters how to cry loudly.
Teach one another a funeral song!

<sup>21</sup>Death has climbed in through our windows.
It has entered our strong cities.
Death has taken away our children who play in the streets.
It has taken the young men who meet in the city squares.

<sup>22</sup>Say, "This is what the Lord says:
'The dead bodies of men will lie in the open field like dung.
They will lie on the ground like grain a farmer has cut.
But there will be no one to gather
them.' "

<sup>23</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"Wise men must not brag about their wisdom.

Strong men must not brag about their strength.

Rich men must not brag about their money.

<sup>24</sup>But if someone wants to brag, let him brag about this:

Let him brag that he understands and knows me.

Let him brag that I am the Lord.

Let him brag that I am kind and fair.

Let him brag that I do things that are right on earth.

This kind of bragging pleases me," says the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>The Lord says, "The time is coming when I will punish all those who are circumcised<sup>d</sup> only in the flesh. <sup>26</sup>That is the people of Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon and Moab. I will also punish the desert people who cut their hair short. The men in all those countries have not given themselves to serving me. And the men of Israel do not give themselves to serving me."

The Lord and the Idols

10 Family of Israel, listen to what the Lord says to you. <sup>2</sup>This is what he says:

"Don't live like the people from other nations.

Don't be afraid of special signs in the sky, even though the other nations are afraid of them.

<sup>3</sup>The customs of other people are worth nothing.

Their idols are nothing but wood from the forest.

They are made by a worker with his chisel.

<sup>4</sup>They decorate their idols with silver and gold.

With hammers and nails they fasten them down.

That keeps them from falling over.

<sup>5</sup>Their idols are like scarecrows in melon fields.

They cannot talk.

They cannot walk.

They must be carried.

Do not be afraid of those idols.

They can't hurt you.

And they can't help you either!"

<sup>6</sup>Lord, there is no one like you.

You are great.

Your name is great and powerful.

<sup>7</sup>Everyone should respect you, King of all nations.

You deserve their respect.

There are many wise men among the nations.

And there are wise men in all the kingdoms.

But none of them are as wise as you.

<sup>8</sup>Those wise men are stupid and foolish.

Their teachings come from worthless wooden idols.

<sup>9</sup>They use silver from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz.

Their idols are made by craftsmen and goldsmiths.

They put blue and purple clothes on the idols.

All these things are made by skilled workers.

<sup>10</sup>But the Lord is the only true God.

He is the only living God, King forever.

The earth shakes when he is angry.

The nations cannot stand up to his anger.

<sup>11</sup>"Tell them this message: 'These false gods did not make heaven and earth. But they will be destroyed and disappear from heaven and earth.' "

<sup>12</sup>God made the earth by his power.

He used his wisdom to build the world.

He used his understanding to stretch out the skies.

<sup>13</sup>When he thunders, the waters in the skies roar.

He makes clouds rise in the sky all over the earth.

He sends lightning with the rain.

He brings out the wind from his storehouses.

<sup>14</sup>People are so stupid and know so little.

Goldsmiths are made ashamed by their idols.

Those statues are only false gods.

They have no breath in them.

<sup>15</sup>They are worth nothing.

People make fun of them.

When they are judged, they will be destroyed.

God made everything.

And he made Israel to be his special people.

The Lord of heaven's armies is his name.

Destruction Is Coming

<sup>17</sup>Get everything you own and prepare to leave.

You people of Judah are trapped in the city by your enemies.

“At this time I will throw out the people of Judah who live in this land.

I will bring pain and trouble to them. And they will really feel it.”

<sup>19</sup>How terrible it will be for me because of my injury.

I am injured and cannot be healed.

Yet I told myself,

“This is my sickness; I must suffer through it.”

<sup>20</sup>My tent is ruined.

All its ropes are broken.

My children have gone away and left me.

No one is left to put up my tent.

No one is left to set up a shelter for me.

They don't ask the Lord.

So they do not have success.

Their flocks are scattered and lost.

<sup>22</sup>Listen! The news is coming.

The loud noise is coming from the north.

It will make the towns of Judah an empty desert.

They will become a home for wild dogs!

Jeremiah's Prayer

<sup>23</sup>Lord, I know that a person's life doesn't really belong to him.

No one can control his own life.

<sup>24</sup>Lord, correct me, but be fair.

Don't punish me in anger.

If you do, you will destroy me.

<sup>25</sup>Pour out your anger on other nations.

They do not know you.

They do not pray to you.

Those nations have destroyed Jacob's family.

They have eaten him up.

They destroyed his homeland.

The Agreement Is Broken

11 These are the words that the Lord spoke to Jeremiah: <sup>2</sup>“Listen to the words of this agreement. Tell the people of Judah about it. Tell it to those living in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Tell them this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘Trouble will come to anyone who does not obey this agreement. <sup>4</sup>I am talking about the agreement I made with your ancestors. I made it with them when I brought them out of Egypt. Egypt was like a furnace for melting iron!’ I told them, ‘Obey me and do everything I command you. If you do this, you will be my people. And I will be your God. <sup>5</sup>Then I will keep the promise I made to your ancestors. I promised to give them a land where much food grows.’ And you are living in that country today!”

I, Jeremiah, answered, “Amen, Lord.”

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said this to me: “Prophecy<sup>d</sup> this message in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: ‘Listen to the words of this agreement. Then obey them! <sup>7</sup>I warned your ancestors to obey me when I brought them out of Egypt. I have warned them again and again to this very day! <sup>8</sup>But your ancestors did not listen to me. They were stubborn and did what their own evil hearts wanted. The agreement says curses will come upon them if they don't obey it. So I made all those curses come upon them! I commanded them to obey the agreement, but they did not.’”

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to me, “I know the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem have made secret plans. <sup>10</sup>They are doing the same sins their ancestors did! Their ancestors refused to listen to my message. They followed and worshiped other gods. The families of Israel and Judah have broken the agreement I made with their ancestors. <sup>11</sup>So this is what the Lord says: ‘I will soon bring a disaster on the people of Judah. They will not be able to escape! And they will cry to me for help. But I will not listen to them! <sup>12</sup>The people living in the towns of Judah and the city of Jerusalem will pray to their idols for help. They will burn incense<sup>d</sup> to their idols. But those idols will not be able to help when that terrible time comes! <sup>13</sup>The people of Judah have as many idols as there are towns in Judah. They have built many altars for worshiping that shameful god Baal.<sup>d</sup> There are as many altars as there are streets in Jerusalem!’

<sup>14</sup>“As for you, Jeremiah, don't pray for these people. Don't cry out for them or ask anything for them. I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their trouble.

She makes many evil plans.

Does she think animal sacrifices will stop her punishment?

When you do your evil, then you are happy.”

But with a strong storm the Lord will set that tree on fire.

And its branches will be burned up.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies planted you. And he has announced that disaster will come to you. This is because the families of Israel and Judah have done evil things. They have made him angry by offering sacrifices to Baal.

Evil Plans Against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup>The Lord showed me that men were making plans against me. The Lord showed me what they were doing. So I knew they were against me. <sup>19</sup>Before this, I was like a gentle lamb waiting to be butchered. I did not know they had made plans against me. They said: "Let us destroy the tree and its fruit!

Let's kill him!

Then people will forget him!"

<sup>20</sup>But, Lord of heaven's armies, you are a fair judge.

You know how to test peoples' hearts and minds.

I will tell you what I have against them.

And I will let you give them the punishment they should have!

<sup>21</sup>So the Lord speaks about the men from Anathoth who were planning to kill Jeremiah. Those men say, "Don't prophesy<sup>d</sup> in the name of the Lord. If you do, we will kill you!" <sup>22</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "I will soon punish the men from Anathoth. Their young men will die in war. Their sons and daughters will die from hunger. <sup>23</sup>No one from the city of Anathoth will be left alive. I will cause a disaster to happen to them that year."

Jeremiah's First Complaint

12 Lord, if I complain to you, you are always right.

But I want to ask you about the justice you give.

Why are evil people successful?

Why do dishonest people have such easy lives?

<sup>2</sup>You have put the evil people here.

They are like plants with strong roots.

They grow and produce fruit.

With their mouths they speak well of you.

But their hearts are really far away from you.

<sup>3</sup>But you know my heart, Lord.

You see me and test my mind.

Drag the evil people away like sheep to be butchered.

Set them aside for the day of killing.

<sup>4</sup>How much longer will the land stay dried up?

How long will the grass in every field be dead?

The animals and birds in the land have died.

And it is because the people are evil.

Yet, they are saying,

"God does not see what happens to us!"

God's Answer to Jeremiah

<sup>5</sup>"If you get tired racing against men, how can you race against horses?

You stumble in a country that is safe.

What will you do in the thick thornbushes along the Jordan River?

<sup>6</sup>These men are your own brothers.

Members of your own family are making plans against you.

People from your own family are crying out against you.

Don't trust them,

even when they speak to you like friends!

<sup>7</sup>"I have left Israel.

I have left my people.

I have given the people I love to their enemies.

<sup>8</sup>My people have become like a lion in the forest to me.

They roar at me.

So I hate them.

<sup>9</sup>My people have become to me like a speckled bird attacked by hawks.

Go, gather the wild animals!

Bring them to get something to eat.

<sup>10</sup>Many shepherds will ruin my vineyards.

They will walk on the plants in my field.

They will turn my beautiful field into an empty desert.

<sup>11</sup>They will turn my field into a desert.

It will be wilted and dead.

The whole country is an empty desert.

This is because no one who lives there cares.

<sup>12</sup>Many soldiers will march over those barren hills.

The Lord will use the armies to punish that land.

People from one end of the land to the other will be punished.

No one will be safe.

<sup>13</sup>The people will plant wheat.

But they will harvest only thorns.

They will work hard until they are very tired.

But they will get nothing for all their work.

You will be ashamed of your poor harvest.
The Lord's terrible anger has caused this."

<sup>14</sup>This is what the Lord said to me: "Here is what I will do to those wicked people who take the land I gave my people, the Israelites. I will pull them up and throw them out of their land. And I will pull up the people of Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup>But after I pull them up, I will feel sorry for them. I will bring each person back to his own property. And I will bring him back to his own land. <sup>16</sup>I want them to learn their lessons well. In the past they taught my people to use Baal's<sup>d</sup> name to make promises. Now I want them to learn to use my name! I want them to say, 'As surely as the Lord lives . . .' If they do, I will allow them to be successful. And I will let them live among my people. <sup>17</sup>But a nation might not listen to my message. If it doesn't, I will pull it up completely and destroy it," says the Lord.

Jeremiah's Linen Belt

13 This is what the Lord said to me: "Go and buy a linen belt. Then put it around your waist. Don't let the belt get wet."

<sup>2</sup>So I bought a linen belt, just as the Lord told me. And I put it around my waist. <sup>3</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me a second time: <sup>4</sup>"Take the belt you bought and are wearing. Go to Perath. Hide the belt there in a crack in the rocks." <sup>5</sup>So I went to Perath and hid the belt there, just as the Lord told me.

<sup>6</sup>Many days later the Lord said to me, "Now go to Perath. Get the belt that I told you to hide there." <sup>7</sup>So I went to Perath and dug up the belt. I took it from where I had hidden it. But now it was ruined. It was good for nothing.

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me. <sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord said: "In the same way I will ruin the pride of the people of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>These evil people refuse to listen to my warnings. They stubbornly do only what they want to do. They follow other gods to serve and worship them. So they will become like this linen belt. They will be good for nothing. <sup>11</sup>A belt is wrapped tightly around a man's waist. In the same way I wrapped the families of Israel and Judah around me," says the Lord. "I did that so they would be my people. Then they would bring fame, praise and honor to me. But my people would not listen to me.

Warnings About Leather Wine Bags

God of Israel, says: All leather bags for holding wine should be filled with wine.' People will say to you: 'Of course, we know all wine bags should be filled with wine.' <sup>13</sup>Then you will say to them, 'This is what the Lord says: I will make everyone in this land like a drunken man. I am talking about the kings who sit on David's throne. I am also talking about the priests and the prophets.'<sup>d</sup> I am talking about all the people who live in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>I will make the people of Judah stumble and fall into one another. Fathers and sons will fall into one another, says the Lord. I will not feel sorry or have pity for them. My mercy will not stop me from destroying them! "

Threat of Slavery

<sup>15</sup>Listen and pay attention.

Don't be too proud.

The Lord has spoken to you.

<sup>16</sup>Honor the Lord your God.

Give him glory before he brings darkness.

Praise him before you fall on the dark hills.

You hope for light.

But the Lord will turn it into thick darkness.

He will change it into deep gloom.

<sup>17</sup>If you don't listen to the Lord,

I will cry secretly.

Your pride will cause me to cry.

I will cry painfully.

My eyes will overflow with tears.

This is because the Lord's people will be captured.

<sup>18</sup>Tell this to the king and queen mother:

"Come down from your thrones.

Your beautiful crowns have fallen from your heads."

<sup>19</sup>The cities in the desert of southern Judah are shut up.

No one can open them.

All Judah will be taken as captives to a foreign land.

They will be carried away completely.

<sup>20</sup>Jerusalem, look up and see.

Someone comes from the north.

Where is the flock God gave to you to care for?

It is the flock you bragged about.

<sup>21</sup>What will you say when they appoint as your heads

those you had thought were your friends?

Won't you have much pain and trouble?

Your pain will be like that of a woman having a baby.
 22 You might ask yourself,
 "Why has this happened to me?"
 It happened because of your many sins.
 Because of your sins, your skirt was torn off
 and your body has been treated badly.
 23 A black man from Cush cannot change the color of his skin.
 A leopard cannot change his spots.
 In the same way, Jerusalem, you cannot change and do good.
 You always do evil.
 24 "I will scatter you like chaff<sup>d</sup> that is blown away by the desert wind.
 25 This is what will happen to you.
 This is your part in my plans," says the Lord.
 "This will happen because you forgot me.
 You have trusted in false gods.
 26 Jerusalem, I will pull your skirts up over your face.
 Everyone will see you, and you will be ashamed.
 27 I have seen the terrible things you have done.
 I know your acts of adultery<sup>d</sup> and your snorting.
 I have seen you acting like a prostitute.<sup>d</sup>
 I have seen your hated acts on the hills and in the fields.
 How terrible it will be for you, Jerusalem.
 How long will you continue being unclean?"<sup>d</sup>

A Time Without Rain

14 These are the words that the Lord spoke to Jeremiah about the time when there was no rain:

24 "The nation of Judah cries.
 Her cities are dying.
 They cry out for the land.
 A cry goes up to God from Jerusalem.
 3 The important men send their servants to get water.
 The servants go to the wells,
 but they find no water.
 So they return with empty jars.
 They are ashamed and embarrassed.
 They cover their heads in shame.
 4 The ground is dry and cracked open because no rain falls on the land.
 The farmers are upset and sad.
 So they cover their heads in shame.
 5 Even the mother deer in the field leaves her fawn.

 She does this because there is no grass.
 6 Wild donkeys stand on the bare hills.
 They sniff the wind like wild dogs.
 But their eyes are dull because there is no food."
 7 We know that we suffer because of our sins.
 Lord, do something to help us for the good of your name.
 We have left you many times.
 We have sinned against you.
 8 God, you are the Hope of Israel.
 You have saved Israel in times of trouble.
 But now you are like a stranger in the
 land.
 You are like a traveler who only stays
 one night.
 9 You seem like a man who has been attacked by surprise.
 You seem like a warrior who is not able to save anyone.
 But you are among us, Lord.
 And we are called by your name,
 So don't leave us without help!
 10 This is what the Lord says about the people
 of Judah:
 "They really love to wander from me.
 They don't stop themselves from leaving
 me.
 So now I, the Lord, will not accept them.
 I will now remember the evil they do.
 I will punish them for their sins."
 11 Then the Lord said this to me: "Don't pray for good things to happen to the people of Judah. 12 Even if they give up eating, I will not listen to their prayers. Even if they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings to me, I will not accept them. I will destroy the people of Judah with war, hunger and terrible diseases."
 13 But I said, "Oh! Lord God, the false prophets<sup>d</sup> keep telling the people something different! They are saying, 'You will not suffer from an enemy's sword. You will never suffer from hunger. The Lord will give you peace in this land.'"
 14 Then the Lord said to me, "Those prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I did not send them. I did not appoint them or speak to them.
 They have been prophesying false visions, idolatries and worthless magic. And they have been prophesying their own wishful thinking.
 15 So this is what I say about the prophets who are prophesying in my name. I did not send them. They said, 'No enemy with swords will ever attack this country. There will never be hunger in this land.' Those prophets will die from hunger. And an enemy's sword will kill them. <sup>16</sup>And the people the prophets spoke to will be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem. They will die from hunger and from an enemy's sword. No one will be there to bury them. And no one will bury their wives, their sons or their daughters. I will punish them.

<sup>17</sup>"Speak this message to the people of Judah:

'Let my eyes be filled with tears.
I will cry night and day, without stopping.

I will cry for my people.
They have received a terrible blow.
They have been hurt very badly.

<sup>18</sup>If I go into the country,
I see people killed by swords.

If I go into the city,
I see much sickness because the people have no food.

Both the priests and the prophets have been taken to a foreign land.' "

<sup>19</sup>Lord, have you completely rejected the nation of Judah?

Do you hate Jerusalem?
Why have you hurt us so badly that we cannot be made well again?

We hoped for peace,
but nothing good has come.
We looked for a time of healing,
but only terror came.

<sup>20</sup>Lord, we admit that we are very wicked.
We admit that our ancestors did evil things.

We have sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup>For your sake, do not hate us.
Do not take away the honor from your glorious throne.

Remember your agreement with us.
Do not break it.

<sup>22</sup>Do foreign idols have the power to bring rain?

Does the sky itself have the power to send down showers of rain?

No, it is you, Lord our God.

You are our only hope.
You are the one who made all these things.

15 The Lord said to me: "I would not feel sorry for the people of Judah even if Moses and Samuel prayed for them. Send the people away from me! Tell them to go! <sup>2</sup>They might ask you, 'Where will we go?' You tell them this: 'This is what the Lord says:

Some people are meant to die.

And they will die.

Some are meant to die in war.

And they will die in war.

Some are meant to die from hunger.

And they will die from hunger.

Some are meant to be taken as slaves to a foreign country.

And they will become slaves in that foreign country.'

<sup>3</sup>"I will send four kinds of destroyers against them," says the Lord. "I will send war to kill. I will send dogs to drag the bodies away. I will send birds of the air and wild animals. They will eat and destroy the bodies. <sup>4</sup>I will make the people of Judah hated by everyone on earth. I will do this because of what Manasseh did in Jerusalem. (Manasseh son of Hezekiah was king of the nation of Judah.)

<sup>5</sup>"Who will feel sorry for you, Jerusalem?
Who will be sad and cry for you?
Who will go out of his way to ask how you are?

<sup>6</sup>Jerusalem, you have left me," says the Lord.

"You keep going farther and farther
away.

So I will take hold of you and destroy you.
I am tired of holding back my anger.

<sup>7</sup>I will separate the people of Judah with my pitchfork.

I will scatter them at the city gates of the
land.

My people haven't changed their ways.
So I will destroy them.

I will take away their children.

<sup>8</sup>Many women will lose their husbands.
There will be more widows than the sand of the sea.

I will bring a destroyer at noontime against the mothers of the young men of Judah.

I will suddenly bring pain and fear on the people of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>The enemy will attack.

I will still hand over to the killers those who are left alive from Judah.

A woman might have seven sons, but they will all die.

She will cry until she becomes weak and unable to breathe.

She will be upset and confused.

Her bright day will become dark from sadness!" says the Lord.

Jeremiah's Second Complaint

<sup>0</sup>Mother, I am sorry that you gave birth to me.

I am the one who must accuse and criticize the whole land.

I have not loaned or borrowed anything. But everyone curses me.

<sup>1</sup>The Lord said,

"I will save you for a good reason.

I will make your enemies beg you in times of disaster and trouble.

<sup>2</sup>No one can smash a piece of iron or bronze.

I mean the kind of iron and bronze that comes from the north.

<sup>3</sup>The people of Judah have wealth and treasures.

But I will freely give those riches to others.

This is because the people of Judah have sinned throughout the country.

<sup>4</sup>I will make you slaves to your enemies.

You will be slaves in a land that you have never known.

My anger is like a hot fire.

And it will burn against you."

<sup>5</sup>Lord, you understand.

Remember me and take care of me.

Punish for me the people who are hurting me.

Don't destroy me while you remain patient with them.

Think about the pain I suffer for you, Lord.

<sup>6</sup>Your words came to me, and I listened carefully to them.

Your words made me very happy.

I was happy because I am called by your name.

Your name is the Lord God of heaven's armies.

<sup>7</sup>I never sat with the crowd as they laughed and had fun.

I sat by myself because you were there.

You filled me with anger at the evil around me.

<sup>8</sup>I don't understand why my pain has no end.

I don't understand why my injury is not cured or healed!

Lord, will you be like a brook that goes dry?

Will you be like a spring whose water stops flowing?

<sup>9</sup>So this is what the Lord says:

"If you change your heart and come back to me, I will take you back.

Then you may serve me.

You must speak things that have worth.

You must not speak useless words.

Then you may speak for me.

Let the people of Judah turn to you.

But you must not change and be like them.

<sup>20</sup>I will make you as strong as a wall to this people.

You will be as strong as a wall of bronze.

They will fight against you.

But they will not defeat you.

This is because I am with you.

I will rescue you and save you," says the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>"I will save you from these evil people.

I will save you from these cruel people."

The Day of Disaster

16 Then the Lord spoke his word to me: <sup>2</sup>"You must not get married. You must not have sons or daughters in this place."

<sup>3</sup>The Lord says this about the sons and daughters born in this land. And he says this about the mothers and fathers of those children: "They will die of terrible diseases. No one will cry for them. No one will bury them. Their bodies will lie on the ground like dung. They will die in war, or they will starve to death. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky. And they will be food for the wild animals."

<sup>5</sup>So this is what the Lord says: "Jeremiah, do not go into a house where there is a funeral meal. Do not go there to cry for the dead or to show your sorrow. Do not do this because I have taken back my blessing, my love and my pity from these people," says the Lord. "Important people and common people will die in the land of Judah. No one will bury them or cry for them. No one will cut himself for them. And no one will shave his head to show sorrow for them. <sup>7</sup>No one will bring food to the people who are crying for the dead. No one will comfort one whose mother or father has died. No one will offer a drink to comfort them.

<sup>8</sup>"Do not go into a house where the people are having a feast. Do not go there and sit down to eat and drink. <sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: I will soon stop the sounds of joy and gladness in this place! I will stop the happy sounds of brides and bridegrooms! This will happen during your lifetime.

<sup>10</sup>“You will tell the people of Judah these things. And they will ask you, ‘Why has the Lord said these terrible things to us? What have we done wrong? What sin have we done against the Lord our God?’

<sup>11</sup>“Then say to them: ‘This is because your ancestors quit following me,’ says the Lord. ‘And they began to follow other gods. They served and worshiped other gods. Your ancestors left me. And they quit obeying my teaching.’ <sup>12</sup>But you have done even more evil than your ancestors. You are very stubborn. You do only what you want to do. You have not obeyed me. <sup>13</sup>So I will throw you out of this country. You will go to a land that you and your ancestors never knew. There you can serve false gods day and night. I will not help you or show you any favors.’

<sup>14</sup>“People say, ‘As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the people of Israel out of Egypt . . .’ But the time is coming,” says the Lord, “when people will not say this anymore. <sup>15</sup>They will say instead, ‘As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the Israelites from the northern land and from all the countries where he had sent them . . .’ And I will bring them back to the land I gave to their ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>“I will soon send for many fishermen to come to this land,” says the Lord. “The fishermen will catch the people of Judah. After that, I will send for many hunters to come to this land. Those hunters will hunt the people of Judah on every mountain and hill. And they will hunt Judah in the cracks of the rocks. <sup>17</sup>I see everything they do. They cannot hide the things they do from me. Their sin is not hidden from my eyes! <sup>18</sup>I will pay back the people of Judah for the evil they have done. I will punish them two times for every one of their sins. I will do this because they have made my land unclean. <sup>19</sup>They have done it with their hated idols. They have filled my country with them!”

<sup>19</sup>Lord, you are my strength and my protection.

You are a safe place for me to run to in times of trouble.

The nations will come to you from all over the world.

They will say, “Our fathers had only false gods.

They worshiped useless idols that didn’t help them.

<sup>20</sup>Can people make gods for themselves? They will not really be gods!”

<sup>21</sup>The Lord says, “So I will teach those who make idols.

Right now I will teach them about my power and my strength. Then they will know that my name is the Lord.

Judah’s Guilty Heart

17 “The sin of the people of Judah is written with an iron tool.

Their sins were cut into stone with a hard point.

That stone is their hearts.

Their sins were cut into the corners of their altars.

<sup>2</sup>Even their children remember their altars to idols and their Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols.

They remember the altars under the green trees and on the high hills.

<sup>3</sup>They remember the altars on my mountain and in the open country.

I will give your wealth and treasures to other people.

And they will destroy the places of worship in your country.

You sinned by worshiping at those places.

<sup>4</sup>You will lose the land I gave you.

And it is your own fault.

I will let your enemies take you as their slaves.

You will be slaves in a land you have never known.

This is because you have made my anger burn like a hot fire.

And it will burn forever.”

Trusting in Man or God

<sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord says:

“A curse will be placed on those who trust other people.

It will happen to those who depend on people for strength.

Those are the ones who have stopped trusting the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>They are like a bush in a desert.

It grows in a land where no one lives.

It is in a hot and dry land with bad soil.

They don’t know about the good things that God can give.

<sup>7</sup>“But the person who trusts in the Lord will be blessed.

The Lord will show him that he can be trusted.

<sup>8</sup>He will be strong, like a tree planted near water.

That tree has large roots that find the water.

It is not afraid when the days are hot.

Its leaves are always green.

It does not worry in a year when no rain comes.

That tree always produces fruit."

<sup>9</sup>"More than anything else, a person's mind is evil.

It cannot be healed.

No one truly understands it.

<sup>10</sup>But I am the Lord, and I can look into a person's heart.

I can test a person's mind.

So I can decide what each one deserves.

I can give each one the right payment for what he does."

<sup>11</sup>Sometimes a bird will hatch an egg that it did not lay.

That bird is like the man who gets rich by cheating.

When that man's life is half finished, he will lose his riches.

At the end of his life, it will be clear he was a fool.

<sup>12</sup>From the beginning, our Temple<sup>d</sup> has been honored as a glorious throne for God.

<sup>13</sup>Lord, you are the hope of Israel.

Those who leave you will be shamed.

A person who quits following the Lord will be like a name written in the dust.

That is because he has left the Lord.

The Lord is the spring of living water.

Jeremiah's Third Complaint

<sup>14</sup>Lord, heal me, and I will truly be healed.

Save me, and I will truly be saved.

Lord, you are the one I praise.

<sup>15</sup>The people of Judah keep asking me,

"Where is the word from the Lord?

Let's see that message come true!"

<sup>16</sup>Lord, I didn't run away from being the shepherd you wanted.

I didn't want the terrible day to come.

You know everything I have said.

You see all that is happening.

<sup>17</sup>Lord, don't bring terror to me.

I run to you for safety in times of trouble.

<sup>18</sup>Make those who are hurting me be ashamed.

But don't bring shame to me.

Let them be terrified,

but keep me from terror.

Bring the day of disaster on my enemies.

Destroy them, and destroy them again.

Keeping the Sabbath Holy

<sup>19</sup>This is what the Lord said to me: "Go and stand at the People's Gate of Jerusalem. This is where the kings of Judah go in and out. And then go to all the other gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>Say to them there: 'Hear the word of the Lord. Listen, kings of Judah. Listen, all you people of Judah and all who come through these gates into Jerusalem! <sup>21</sup>This is what the Lord says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. And don't bring it through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup>Don't take a load out of your houses on the Sabbath. Don't do any work on that day. Keep the Sabbath as a holy day. I gave this same command to your ancestors. <sup>23</sup>But your ancestors did not listen. They did not pay attention to me. They were very stubborn. I punished them, but it didn't do any good. They did not listen to me. <sup>24</sup>But you must be careful to obey me, says the Lord. You must not bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath. You must keep the Sabbath as a holy day. You must not do any work on that day.

<sup>25</sup>"If you obey this command, this is what will happen: Kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of Jerusalem with their officers. They will come riding in chariots and on horses. The people of Judah and Jerusalem will be with them. And the city of Jerusalem will have people living in it forever! <sup>26</sup>People will come to Jerusalem from the villages around it and from the towns of Judah. They will come from the land of Benjamin. They will come from the western mountain slopes and from the mountains. And they will come from southern Judah. They will all bring burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, incense<sup>d</sup> and offerings to show thanks to God. They will bring these to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. <sup>27</sup>But you must obey me and keep the Sabbath day as a holy day. You must not carry any loads into Jerusalem on the Sabbath. If you do, I will start a fire that cannot be put out. It will start at the gates of Jerusalem. And it will burn until it burns even the strong towers!'"

The Potter and the Clay

18 This is the word the Lord spoke to Jeremiah: <sup>21</sup>"Go down to the potter's house. I will give you my message there." <sup>2</sup>So I went down to the potter's house. I saw him working at the potter's wheel. <sup>4</sup>He was making a pot from clay. But something went wrong with it. So the potter used that clay to make another pot. He used his hands to shape the pot the way that he wanted it to be.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me: “Family of Israel, can’t I do the same thing with you?” says the Lord. “You are like the clay in the potter’s hands. <sup>7</sup>There may come a time when I will speak about a nation or a kingdom. I might say I will pull that nation up by its roots. Or I might say I will pull that nation down and destroy it. <sup>8</sup>But if the people of that nation are sorry for the evil they have done, I would change my mind. I would not carry out my plans to bring disaster to them. <sup>9</sup>There may come another time when I will speak about a nation. I might say that I will build up and plant that nation. <sup>10</sup>But if I see it doing evil by not obeying me, I would change my mind. I would not carry out my plans to do good for them.

<sup>11</sup>“So, say this to the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem: ‘This is what the Lord says: I am preparing disaster for you right now. I am making plans against you. So stop doing the evil you are doing. Change your ways and do what is right.’ <sup>12</sup>But the people of Judah will answer, ‘It won’t do any good to try! We will continue to do what we want. Each of us will do what his stubborn, evil heart wants!’”

“Ask the people in other nations this question:
‘Have you ever heard anything like this?’
The people of Israel have done a horrible thing.

<sup>14</sup>The snow on the mountains of Lebanon never melts from the rocks.
Its cool, flowing streams do not dry up.

<sup>15</sup>But my people have forgotten me.
They make offerings to worthless idols.
This makes them stumble in what they do.
They stumble about in the old ways of their ancestors.
They walk along back roads and on poor highways.

<sup>16</sup>So Judah’s country will become an empty desert.
People will not stop making fun of it.
They will shake their heads as they pass by.
They will be shocked at how the country was destroyed.

<sup>17</sup>I will scatter them before their enemies as a strong east wind blows things away.

At that awful time they will not see me coming to help them.

They will see me leaving.”

Jeremiah's Fourth Complaint

<sup>18</sup>Then the people said, “Come, let’s make plans against Jeremiah. Surely the teaching of the law by the priest will not be lost. And the advice from the wise men will still be with us. We will still have the words of the prophets.”
So let’s ruin him by telling lies about him! We won’t pay attention to anything he says.”

<sup>19</sup>Lord, listen to me.

Listen to what my accusers are saying!

<sup>20</sup>Good should not be paid back with evil.

But they have dug a pit in order to kill me.

Lord, remember that I stood before you and asked you to do good things for these people.

I asked you to turn your anger away from them.

<sup>21</sup>So now, let their children starve.

Let their enemies defeat them with swords.

Let their wives lose their children and husbands.

Let the men from Judah be put to death.

Let the young men be killed in battle.

<sup>22</sup>Let them cry out in their houses.

Bring an enemy against them suddenly.

Let all this happen because my enemies have dug a pit to trap me.

And they have hidden traps for me to step in.

<sup>23</sup>Lord, you know about their plans to kill me.

Don’t forgive their crimes.

Don’t erase their sins.

Make them fall from their places.

Punish them while you are angry.

Judah Is Like a Broken Jar

19 This is what the Lord said to me: “Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. <sup>2</sup>Go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom. Go near the front of the Potsherd Gate. Take some of the older leaders of the people and priests with you. There speak the words I tell you. <sup>3</sup>Say, ‘King of Judah and people of Jerusalem, listen to this message from the Lord. This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies, the God of Israel, says: I will soon bring a disaster on this place! Everyone who hears about it will be amazed and full of fear. <sup>4</sup>I will do this because the people of Judah have quit following me. They have made this a place for foreign gods. They have burned sacrifices to other gods. They did not worship these gods long ago! Their ancestors didn't worship these gods. The kings of Judah filled this place with the blood of the innocent people. <sup>5</sup>The kings of Judah have built places to worship Baal. <sup>6</sup>There they burn their sons in the fire to Baal. I did not speak about it or tell them to do that. I never even thought of such a thing. <sup>7</sup>Now people call this place the Valley of Ben Hinnom or Topheth. But watch out! The days are coming, says the Lord, when people will call this place the Valley of Killing.

<sup>7</sup>"At this place I will ruin the plans of the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The enemy will chase them. And I will let the people of Judah be killed with swords. I will make their dead bodies food for the birds and wild animals. <sup>8</sup>I will completely destroy this city. People will make fun of it and hiss at it. And they will shake their heads when they pass by Jerusalem. They will be shocked when they see how the city was destroyed. <sup>9</sup>An enemy army will surround the city. They will not let anyone go out to get food. The people will become so hungry they will eat the bodies of their own sons and daughters. And then they will begin to eat each other.'"

<sup>10</sup>The Lord said, "While the people with you are watching, break that jar. <sup>11</sup>Then say this: 'The Lord of heaven's armies says: I will break this nation and this city just as someone breaks a clay jar. It cannot be put back together again. The dead people will be buried here in Topheth. We will bury bodies until there is no more room. <sup>12</sup>This is what I will do to these people and to this place, says the Lord. I will make this city like Topheth. <sup>13</sup>The houses in Jerusalem and the king's palaces will become as unclean<sup>d</sup> as this place, Topheth. This is because the people worshiped false gods on the roofs<sup>a</sup> of their houses. They worshiped the stars and burned incense<sup>d</sup> to honor them. They gave drink offerings to false gods.'"

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah left Topheth where the Lord had told him to prophesy. <sup>d</sup>He went to the Lord's Temple, <sup>d</sup>stood in the courtyard and said to all the people: <sup>15</sup>"This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: 'I said I would bring disaster to Jerusalem and the villages around it. I will make it happen soon! This is because the people are very stubborn. They do not listen at all to what I say.'"

Pashhur Will Be Captured

20 Pashhur son of Immer was a priest. He was the highest officer in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. He heard Jeremiah prophesying<sup>d</sup> in the Temple courtyard. <sup>2</sup>So he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten. And he had Jeremiah's hands and feet locked between large blocks of wood. This was at the Upper Gate of Benjamin of the Lord's Temple. <sup>3</sup>The next day Pashhur took Jeremiah out from between the blocks of wood. Then Jeremiah said to him, "The Lord's name for you is not Pashhur. Now the Lord's name for you is Terror on Every Side. <sup>4</sup>That is your name because this is what the Lord says: 'I will soon make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. You will watch enemies killing your friends with swords. And I will give all the people of Judah to the king of Babylon. He will take them away as captives to Babylon. Then his army will kill them with swords. <sup>5</sup>I will give all the wealth of this city to its enemies. I will give them its goods and its valuables. I will give the treasures of the kings of Judah to their enemies. The enemies will carry Judah and all its valuables off to Babylon. <sup>6</sup>And Pashhur, you and everyone in your house will be taken away. You will be forced to go as a captive to Babylon. You will die and be buried there. Your friends you have prophesied lies to will also die and be buried in Babylon!'"

Jeremiah's Fifth Complaint

<sup>7</sup>Lord, you tricked me, and I was fooled.

You are stronger than I am. So you won. I have become a joke.

Everyone makes fun of me all day long.

<sup>8</sup>Every time I speak, I shout.

I am always shouting about violence and destruction.

I tell the people about the message I received from the Lord.

But this only brings me insults. The people make fun of me all day long.

<sup>9</sup>Sometimes I say to myself,

"I will forget about the Lord.

I will not speak anymore in his name."

But then the Lord's message becomes like a burning fire inside me.

It feels like it burns deep within my bones.

I get tired of trying to hold the Lord's message inside of me.

And finally, I cannot hold it in.

<sup>10</sup>I hear many people whispering about me:

<sup>a</sup>roofs In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit; and it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

"Terror on every side!

Let's tell the rulers about him."

My friends are all just waiting for me to make some mistake.

They are saying,

"Maybe we can trick Jeremiah.

Then we can defeat him.

Then we can pay him back."

<sup>11</sup>But the Lord is with me like a strong warrior.

So those who are chasing me will trip and fall.

They will not defeat me.

They will be very disappointed and ashamed.

Their shame will never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup>Lord of heaven's armies, you test good
people.

You look deeply into the heart and mind of a person.

I have told you my arguments against these
people.

So let me see you give them the punishment they deserve.

<sup>13</sup>Sing to the Lord!

Praise the Lord!

He saves the life of the poor.

He saves them from the power of wicked
people.

Jeremiah's Sixth Complaint

<sup>14</sup>Let there be a curse on the day I was born.

Let there be no blessing on the day when my mother gave birth to me.

<sup>15</sup>Let there be a curse on the man who brought my father the news:

"You have a son!"

This made my father glad.

<sup>16</sup>Let that man be like the towns
the Lord destroyed without pity.

Let that man hear loud crying in the morning.

And let him hear battle cries at noon.

<sup>17</sup>This is because he did not kill me before I was born.

Then my mother would have been my grave.

I would never have been born.

<sup>18</sup>Why did I have to come out of my mother's body?

All I have known is trouble and sorrow.
And my life will end in shame.

God Rejects King Zedekiah's Request

21 This is the word that the Lord spoke to Jeremiah. It came when Zedekiah king of Judah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah to Jeremiah. He also sent the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. <sup>2</sup>They said, "Ask the Lord for us what will happen. We want to know because Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is attacking us. Maybe the Lord will do miracles<sup>d</sup> for us as he did in the past. Maybe he will make Nebuchadnezzar stop attacking us and leave."

<sup>3</sup>But Jeremiah answered them, "Tell King Zedekiah this: <sup>4</sup>Here is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: You have weapons of war in your hands. You are using them to defend yourselves against the king of Babylon and the Babylonians. But I will make those weapons useless. The army from Babylon is all around the outside of the city wall. Soon I will bring that army into the center of the city. <sup>5</sup>I myself will fight against you with my great power and strength. I am very angry with you. So I will fight against you with my own powerful arm.
I will fight very hard against you in my very great anger. <sup>6</sup>I will kill everything living in Jerusalem—both people and animals. They will die from terrible diseases. <sup>7</sup>Then, says the Lord, I'll give Zedekiah king of Judah to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will also give Zedekiah's officers to Nebuchadnezzar. Some of the people in Jerusalem will not die from the terrible diseases. Some will not die in battle or from hunger. I will give them also to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will let those win who want to kill the people of Judah. So the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be killed in war.
Nebuchadnezzar will not show any mercy or pity or feel sorry for them!"

<sup>8</sup>"Also tell this to the people of Jerusalem:
'This is what the Lord says: I will let you choose to live or die. <sup>9</sup>Anyone who stays in Jerusalem will die. He will die in war or from hunger or from a terrible disease. But anyone who goes out of Jerusalem and surrenders to the Babylonians who are around the city will live. Anyone who leaves the city will save his life. <sup>10</sup>I have decided to make trouble for this city and not to help it, says the Lord. I will give it to the king of Babylon. He will burn it with fire.'

<sup>11</sup>"Tell these things to Judah's royal family:
'Hear the word of the Lord! <sup>12</sup>Family of David,
the Lord says these things:

You must judge people fairly every day.

Protect from criminals

the person who has been robbed.

If you don't do that, I will become very angry.
 My anger will be like a fire that no one can put out.
 This will happen because you have done evil things.

13<sup>a</sup> "Jerusalem, I am against you.
 You sit on top of the mountain.
 You sit over this valley, says the Lord.
 You say, "No one can attack us.
 No one can come into our strong city."
 14<sup>b</sup> But I will give you the punishment you deserve, says the Lord.
 I will start a fire in your forests.
 It will burn up everything around you!"

Judgment Against Evil Kings

22 This is what the Lord says: "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah. Prophecy<sup>a</sup> this message there: <sup>2</sup>Hear the word of the Lord, king of Judah. You rule from David's throne. You and your officers, listen well! All of your people who come through these gates, listen! <sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord says: Do what is fair and right. Protect those who have been robbed from those who robbed them. Don't do any wrong to the orphans or widows. Don't hurt them. Don't kill innocent people here. <sup>4</sup>If you carefully obey these commands, this is what will happen: Kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this palace. They will come with their officers and people. They will all come riding in chariots and on horses. <sup>5</sup>But if you don't obey these commands, this is what the Lord says: I promise in my own name that this king's palace will become a ruin."

<sup>6</sup>This is what the Lord says about the palace where the king of Judah lives:

"This palace is tall like the forests of Gilead.

It is high like the mountains of Lebanon.
 But I will truly make it like a desert.

It will be empty like towns where no one lives.

<sup>7</sup>I will send men to destroy the palace.

Each man will have his weapons with him.

They will cut up your strong, beautiful cedar beams.

And they will throw them into the fire.

<sup>8</sup>"People from many nations will pass by this city. They will ask each other, 'Why has the Lord done such a terrible thing to Jerusalem? This was such a great city.' <sup>9</sup>And the answer will be: 'It was because the people of Judah quit following the agreement with the Lord their God. They worshiped and served other gods.'"

Judgment Against Jehoahaz

<sup>10</sup>Don't cry for the king who has died. Don't cry loudly for him.

But cry painfully for the king who is being taken away from here.

Cry for him because he will never come back again.

He will never see his homeland again.

<sup>11</sup>This is what the Lord says about Jehoahaz son of Josiah. Jehoahaz became king of Judah after his father died. He has left this place. The Lord says, "He will never come back again. <sup>12</sup>He will die where those who captured him have taken him. He will not see this land again."

Judgment Against Jehoiakim

<sup>13</sup>"How terrible it will be for him who builds his palace by doing evil.

He cheats people so he can build its upper rooms.

He is making his own people work for nothing.

He is not paying them for their work.

<sup>14</sup>He says, 'I will build a great palace for myself.

I will have large upper rooms.'

So he builds the palace with large windows.

He uses cedar wood for the walls.

And he paints it red.

<sup>15</sup>"Does having a lot of cedar in your house make you a great king?

Your father was satisfied to have food and drink.

He did what was right and fair.

So everything went well for him.

<sup>16</sup>He helped those who were poor and needy.

So everything went well for him.

That's what it means to know God," says the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>"But your eyes only look for what you can get dishonestly.

You are always thinking about getting more for yourself.

You are even willing to kill innocent people to get it.

You are making it hard for people.

You even steal things from them."

<sup>18</sup>So this is what the Lord says to Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

"The people of Judah will not cry loudly when Jehoiakim dies.

They will not say, 'Oh, my brother, I am so sad!

Oh, my sister, I am so sad!

The people of Judah will not cry for him, saying:

'Oh, master, oh, my king.'

<sup>19</sup>The people of Jerusalem will bury him like a donkey.

They will just drag his body away.

Then they will throw it outside the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup>"Judah, go up to Lebanon and cry out.

Let your voice be heard in Bashan.

Cry out from Abarim.

All your friends are destroyed!

<sup>21</sup>Judah, when you were successful, I warned
you.

But you refused to listen.

You have acted like this since you were young.

You have not obeyed me.

<sup>22</sup>My punishment will come like a storm.

And it will blow all your shepherds
away.

Your friends will be taken away as captives.

Then you will really be ashamed.

You will be disgraced because of all the wicked things you did.

<sup>23</sup>King, you live in your palace.

You are cozy in your rooms of cedar.

But you will groan when your punishment comes.

You will hurt like a woman giving birth
to a baby!

Judgment upon Jehoiachin

<sup>24</sup>"As surely as I live," says the Lord, "I will do this to you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah: Even if you were a signet<sup>d</sup> ring on my right hand, I would still pull you off.

<sup>25</sup>Jehoiachin, I will give you to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And I will hand you over to the Babylonians. Those are the people you are afraid of because they want to kill you. <sup>26</sup>I will throw you and your mother into another country. Neither of you was born there. But both of you will die there. <sup>27</sup>You will want to come back. But you will never be able to return."

<sup>28</sup>Jehoiachin is like a broken pot someone threw away.

He is like something no one wants.

Why will Jehoiachin and his children be thrown out?

Why will they be thrown into a foreign
land?

<sup>29</sup>Land, land, land of Judah, hear the word of the Lord!

<sup>30</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"Write this down about Jehoiachin:

He is a man who is to have no children.

He will not be successful in his lifetime.

And none of his children will be successful.

None of his children will sit on the throne of David.

They will not rule in Judah."

The Evil Leaders of Judah

23 "How terrible it will be for the leaders of Judah. They are destroying my people. They are making them run in all directions," says the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>They are responsible for the people. And the Lord, the God of Israel, says to them: "You have made my people run away in all directions. You have forced them away. And you have not taken care of them. So I will punish you for the evil things you have done," says the Lord. <sup>3</sup>"I sent my people to other countries.
But I will gather my people who are left alive.
And I will bring them back to their own country. When they are back in their own land, they will have many children. And they will grow in number. <sup>4</sup>I will place new leaders over my people. They will take care of my people.
And my people will not be afraid or terrified.
None of them will be lost," says the Lord.

The Good Descendant Will Come

<sup>5</sup>"The days are coming," says the Lord,

"when I will raise up a good descendant<sup>d</sup>
in David's family.

This descendant will be a king who will rule in a wise way.

And he will do what is fair and right in
the land.

<sup>6</sup>In his time Judah will be saved.

Israel will live in safety.

This will be his name:

The Lord Does What Is Right.

<sup>7</sup>"So the days are coming," says the Lord,
"when people will not say: 'As surely as the Lord lives, who brought Israel out of Egypt . . .'

<sup>8</sup>But people will say something new: 'As surely as the Lord lives, who brought Israel from the land of the north and from all the countries where he had sent them away . . .' Then the people of Israel will live in their own land."

False Prophets Will Be Punished

<sup>9</sup>A message to the prophets:<sup>d</sup>
 My heart is broken.
 All my bones shake.
 I'm like a man who is drunk.
 I'm like a man who has been overcome with wine.
 This is because of the Lord and his holy words.

<sup>10</sup>The land of Judah is full of people who are guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup>
 Because of this, the Lord cursed the land.
 And it has become very dry.
 The pastures have dried up.
 The people are evil.
 They use their power in the wrong way.

<sup>11</sup>"Both the prophets and the priests are evil.
 I have seen them doing evil things even in my own Temple,"<sup>d</sup> says the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>"So they will be in danger.
 They will be forced into darkness.
 There they will be defeated.
 I will bring disaster on them.
 At that time I will punish those prophets and priests," says the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>"I saw the prophets of Samaria do something wrong.
 I saw those prophets prophesy by the false
 god Baal.<sup>d</sup>
 And they led my people, the Israelites,
 away.

<sup>14</sup>And I have seen the prophets of Jerusalem do some terrible things.
 These prophets are guilty of adultery and live by lies.
 They encourage evil people to keep on doing evil.
 So the people don't stop sinning.
 All of those people are like the city of Sodom.
 The people of Jerusalem are like the city of Gomorrah to me!"

<sup>15</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies says about the prophets:
 "I will make those prophets eat bitter food.
 I will make them drink poisoned water.
 This is because the prophets of Jerusalem spread wickedness through the whole country."

<sup>16</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies
 says:
 "Don't pay attention to the things those prophets are saying to you.
 They are trying to fool you.

Those prophets talk of visions from their own minds.
 But they did not get their visions from
 me.

<sup>17</sup>They say to those who hate me:
 'The Lord says: You will have peace.'
 They say to those who are stubborn and do as they please:
 'Nothing bad will happen to you!'

<sup>18</sup>But none of these prophets has stood in the meeting of angels.
 None of them has seen or heard the message of the Lord.
 None of them has paid close attention to the Lord's message.

<sup>19</sup>Look, the punishment from the Lord will come like a storm.
 His anger will be like a hurricane.
 It will come crashing down on the heads of those wicked people.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord's anger will not stop until he finishes what he plans to do.
 When that day is over,
 you will understand this clearly.

<sup>21</sup>I did not send those prophets.
 But they ran to tell their message.
 I did not speak to them.
 But they prophesied anyway.

<sup>22</sup>But if they had stood in the meeting of angels,
 they would have told my message to my
 people.
 They would have turned the people from their evil ways.
 They would have turned them from doing evil.

<sup>23</sup>"I am a God who is near," says the Lord.
 "I am also a God who is far away."

<sup>24</sup>"No one can hide where I cannot see him," says the Lord.
 "I fill all of heaven and earth," says the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>"I have heard the prophets who prophesy lies in my name. They say, 'I have had a dream!
 I have had a dream!' <sup>26</sup>How long will this continue in the minds of these lying prophets?
 They prophesy from their own wishful thinking. <sup>27</sup>They are trying to make the people of Judah forget me. They are doing this by telling each other these dreams. They are trying to make my people forget me in the same way that their ancestors forgot me. Their ancestors forgot me and worshiped Baal. <sup>28</sup>Straw is not the same thing as wheat!" says the Lord. "If a prophet wants to tell about his dreams, let him!
 But let the person who hears my message speaking it truthfully! <sup>29</sup>My message is like a fire," says the Lord. "It is like a hammer that smashes a rock!

<sup>30</sup>"So I am against the false prophets," says the Lord. "These prophets keep stealing words from each another. They say these words are from me. <sup>31</sup>I am against the false prophets," says the Lord. "They use their own words and pretend it is a message from me. <sup>32</sup>I am against the prophets who prophesy false dreams," says the Lord. "They mislead my people with their lies and false teachings! I did not send those prophets to teach the people. I never commanded them to do anything for me. They can't help the people of Judah at all," says the Lord.

The Sad Message from the Lord

<sup>33</sup>"The people of Judah, a prophet<sup>d</sup> or a priest may ask you: 'Jeremiah, what is the message from the Lord?' You will answer them and say, 'You are a heavy load to the Lord. And I will throw down this heavy load, says the Lord!' <sup>34</sup>A prophet or a priest or one of the people might say, 'This is a message from the Lord!' That person has lied. So I will punish him and his whole family. <sup>35</sup>This is what you will say to each another: 'What did the Lord answer?' or 'What did the Lord say?' <sup>36</sup>But you will never again say, 'The message of the Lord.' This is because the only message you speak is your own words. You used to change the words of our God. He is the living God, the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>37</sup>This is how you speak to the prophets: 'What answer did the Lord give you?' or 'What did the Lord say?' <sup>38</sup>But don't say, 'What was the message from the Lord?' If you use these words, the Lord will say this to you: You should not have called it a message from the Lord. I told you not to use those words. <sup>39</sup>I will pick you up like a heavy load. And I'll throw you away from me. I gave the city of Jerusalem to your ancestors and to you. But I will throw you and that city away from me. <sup>40</sup>And I will make a disgrace of you forever. You will never forget your shame."

The Good and Bad Figs

24 I saw a vision after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim as a prisoner. Jehoiachin king of Judah and his officers were taken away from Jerusalem. They were taken to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar also took away all the craftsmen and metalworkers of Judah. It was then that the Lord showed me these things: I saw two baskets of figs. They were arranged in front of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>One of the baskets had very good figs in it. They were like figs that ripen early in the season. But the other basket had rotten figs. They were too rotten to eat.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

I answered, "I see figs. The good figs are very good. But the rotten figs are too rotten to eat."

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me. <sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, said: "I sent the people of Judah out of their country into Babylon. Those people will be like these good figs. I think of them as good. <sup>6</sup>I will look after them. I will bring them back to the land of Judah. I will not tear them down. I will build them up. I will not pull them up. I will plant them so they can grow. <sup>7</sup>I will make them want to know me. They will know that I am the Lord. They will be my people, and I will be their God. This is because they will return to me with their whole hearts.

<sup>8</sup>"But the bad figs are too rotten to eat," says the Lord. "Zedekiah king of Judah and his officers will be like those rotten figs. All the people from Jerusalem who are left alive will be like that. This will be true even if those people now live in Egypt. <sup>9</sup>I will make those people hated as an evil people by all the kingdoms of the earth. People will make fun of the people from Judah and tell jokes about them. People will point fingers at them. They will curse them everywhere I scatter them. <sup>10</sup>I will send war, hunger and disease against them. I will attack them until they have all been killed. Then they will no longer be in the land I gave to them and their ancestors."

A Summary of Jeremiah's Preaching

25 This is the message that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah. It came in the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah. This was the first year Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>This is the message Jeremiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> spoke to all the people of Judah and Jerusalem:

<sup>3</sup>The Lord has spoken his word to me again and again for these past 23 years. I have been a prophet since the thirteenth year of Josiah. Josiah was the son of Amon king of Judah. I have spoken messages from the Lord to you from that time until today. But you have not listened.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord has sent his servants the prophets to you over and over again. But you have not listened to them. You have not paid any attention to them. <sup>5</sup>They have said, "Stop your evil ways. Stop doing what is wrong. Do this so you can stay in the land. This is the land that the Lord gave to you and your ancestors long ago. He gave it to you to live in forever. <sup>6</sup>Don't follow other gods to serve them or to worship them. You must not worship idols that are the work of someone's hands. That makes the Lord angry, and he will punish you."

<sup>7</sup>"But you did not listen to me," says the Lord. "You worshiped idols that were the work of someone's hands. That made me angry. So I punished you."

<sup>8</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "You have not listened to my messages. <sup>9</sup>So I will soon send for all the peoples of the north," says the Lord. "I will soon send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will bring them all against Judah and all the nations around you, too. I will completely destroy all those countries. I will leave them in ruins forever. People will be shocked when they see how badly they will be destroyed. <sup>10</sup>I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness. There will be no more happy sounds of brides and bridegrooms. I will take away the sound of people grinding meal. And I will take away the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup>That whole area will be an empty desert. And these nations will be slaves of the king of Babylon for 70 years.

<sup>12</sup>"But when the 70 years have passed, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation," says the Lord. "I will punish the Babylonians for their evil. I will make that land a desert forever. <sup>13</sup>I have said many terrible things will happen to Babylonia. All of them will happen. Jeremiah prophesied about those foreign nations. And the warnings are written in this book. <sup>14</sup>The Babylonians will have to serve many nations and many great kings. I will give them the punishment they deserve. They will be punished for all the things they do."

Judgment on the Nations

<sup>15</sup>The Lord, the God of Israel, said this to me: "My anger is like the wine in a cup. Take it from my hand. I am sending you to all the nations. Make them drink all of my anger from this cup. <sup>16</sup>They will drink my anger like wine. Then they will not be able to walk straight. They will act like madmen. They will do this because of the war that I am going to send among them."

<sup>17</sup>So I took the cup from the Lord's hand. I went to those nations. And I made them drink from the cup. <sup>18</sup>I poured this wine for the people of Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. I made the kings and officers of Judah drink from the cup. I did it so that they would become a ruin. People would be shocked when they saw how badly they were destroyed. People would insult them and speak evil of them. And it happened. Judah is like that now. <sup>19</sup>I also made these people drink from that cup of my anger: the king of Egypt, his servants, his officers and all his people; <sup>20</sup>all the Arabs, and all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines (the kings of the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron and the people left at Ashdod); <sup>21</sup>the people of Edom, Moab and Ammon; <sup>22</sup>all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; all the kings of the faraway countries; <sup>23</sup>the people of Dedan and Tema and Buz; all who cut their hair short; <sup>24</sup>all the kings of Arabia; and the kings of the people who live in the desert; <sup>25</sup>all the kings of Zimri, Elam and Media; <sup>26</sup>and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after the other. I made all the kingdoms on earth drink from the cup of the Lord's anger. But the king of Babylon will drink from this cup after all the others.

<sup>27</sup>"Then say this to them: 'This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: Drink this cup of my anger. Get drunk from it and vomit. Fall down and don't get up. Don't get up because I am sending a war to kill you!'

<sup>28</sup>"They will refuse to take the cup from your hand. They will refuse to drink it. Then say this to them: 'The Lord of heaven's armies says this: You must drink from this cup. <sup>29</sup>I am already bringing disaster on Jerusalem. And it is the city that is called by my name. And do you think you will not be punished? You will be punished! I am sending war on all the people of the earth, says the Lord of heaven's armies.'

'The Lord roars from heaven.

He shouts from his Holy Temple.<sup>d</sup>

He roars against his land.

He will shout like people who walk on grapes to make wine.

He will shout against all who live on the earth.

<sup>31</sup>The noise will spread all over the earth.

This is because the Lord is punishing all the nations.

He judges and tells what is wrong with all people.

And he is killing the evil people with a sword,"' says the Lord.

<sup>32</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says:

“Disasters will soon spread from nation to nation.

They will come like a powerful storm to all the faraway places on earth.”

<sup>33</sup>At that time the dead bodies will reach from one end of the earth to the other. No one will cry for them. No one will gather up their bodies and bury them. They will be left lying on the ground like dung.

<sup>34</sup>Cry, you leaders! Cry out loud!

Roll around in the dust, leaders of the people!

It is now time for you to be killed.

You will fall and be scattered everywhere, like pieces of a broken jar.

<sup>35</sup>There will be no place for the leaders to hide.

These leaders will not escape.

<sup>36</sup>I hear the leaders shouting.

I hear the leaders of the people crying loudly.

This is because the Lord is destroying their land.

<sup>37</sup>Those peaceful pastures will be like an empty desert.

This happened because the Lord is very angry.

<sup>38</sup>The Lord, like a lion, has left his den.

Their land has been destroyed.

It is because of his destroying anger.

It is because of his fierce anger.

Jeremiah's Lesson at the Temple

26 This message came from the Lord. It was during the first year Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord said: “Jeremiah, stand in the courtyard of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Give this message to all the people of the towns of Judah. They are coming to worship at the Temple of the Lord. Tell them everything I tell you to say. Don't leave out any part of my message. <sup>3</sup>Maybe they will listen and stop their evil ways. I have plans to bring disaster on them because of the evil they have done. But if they change, I will change my mind about bringing disaster on them. <sup>4</sup>Say to them: ‘This is what the Lord says: I gave my teachings to you. You must obey me and follow my teachings. <sup>5</sup>You must listen to what my servants the prophets<sup>d</sup> say to you. I have sent prophets to you again and again. But you did not listen to them. <sup>6</sup>If you don't obey me, I will destroy my Temple in Jerusalem. I will destroy it as I destroyed my Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> at Shiloh. People all over the world will curse Jerusalem.’ ”

<sup>7</sup>The priests, the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah. He said all of these words in the Temple of the Lord. <sup>8</sup>Jeremiah finished speaking everything the Lord had commanded him to say. Then the priests, prophets and all the people grabbed Jeremiah. They said, “You must die! <sup>9</sup>How dare you prophesy such a thing in the name of the Lord! How dare you say that this Temple will be destroyed like the one at Shiloh! How dare you say that Jerusalem will become a desert without anyone to live in it!” All the people crowded around Jeremiah in the Temple of the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Now the officers of Judah heard about what that was happening. So they came out of the king's palace and went up to the Temple of the Lord. There they took their places at the entrance of the New Gate. <sup>11</sup>Then the priests and prophets spoke to the officers and all the other people. They said, “Jeremiah should be killed. He said bad things about Jerusalem! You heard him say it.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officers of Judah and all the other people. He said, “The Lord sent me to say these things about this Temple and this city. Everything that you have heard is from the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Now change your lives! You must start doing good things. You must obey the Lord your God. If you do that, the Lord will change his mind. He will not bring on you the disaster he has told you about. <sup>14</sup>As for me, I am in your power. Do to me what you think is good and right. <sup>15</sup>But if you kill me, be sure of one thing. You will be guilty of killing an innocent person. You will make this city and everyone who lives in it guilty, too! The Lord sent me to you. The message you heard is from the Lord!”

<sup>16</sup>Then the officers and all the people spoke. They said to the priests and the prophets, “Jeremiah must not be killed. What he told us comes from the Lord our God.”

<sup>17</sup>Then some of the older leaders stood up. They spoke to all the people. <sup>18</sup>They said, “Micah the prophet was from the city of Moresheth. He was a prophet during the time Hezekiah was king of Judah. Micah said these things to all the people of Judah: ‘This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says:

Jerusalem will be plowed like a field.

Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks.

The hill where the Temple stands will be covered with bushes.’ ”

<sup>19</sup>“Hezekiah was the king of Judah. And he did not kill Micah. No one else in Judah killed him. You know that Hezekiah feared the Lord. He wanted to please the Lord. So the Lord changed his mind. He did not bring on Judah the disaster he had promised. If we hurt Jeremiah, we will bring a terrible disaster on ourselves!"

<sup>20</sup>Now there was another man who prophesied in the name of the Lord. His name was Uriah the son of Shemaiah. Uriah was from the city of Kiriath Jearim. He preached the same things against this city and land that Jeremiah did. <sup>21</sup>King Jehoiakim, all his army officers and all the leaders of Judah heard Uriah preach. King Jehoiakim wanted to kill Uriah. But Uriah heard about it and was afraid. So he escaped to Egypt. <sup>22</sup>But King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Acbor and some other men to Egypt. <sup>23</sup>They brought Uriah back from Egypt. Then they took him to King Jehoiakim. Jehoiakim ordered Uriah to be killed with a sword. His body was thrown into the burial place where poor people are buried.)

<sup>24</sup>There was an important man named Ahikam son of Shaphan. Ahikam supported Jeremiah. So Ahikam kept Jeremiah from being killed by the people.

Nebuchadnezzar Is Made Ruler

27 The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. This happened when Zedekiah son of Josiah was king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord said to me: "Make a yoke<sup>d</sup> out of straps and poles. Put it on the back of your neck. <sup>3</sup>Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon. Send the messages through the messengers of these kings. Those messengers have come to Jerusalem to see Zedekiah king of Judah. <sup>4</sup>Tell them to give this message to their masters. Tell them, 'The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: "Tell your masters: 'I made the earth and everyone on it. I made all the animals on the earth. I did this with my great power and my strong arm. I can give the earth to anyone I want. <sup>6</sup>Now I have given all these lands to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He is my servant. I will make even the wild animals obey him. <sup>7</sup>All nations will serve Nebuchadnezzar and his son and grandson. Then the time will come for Babylon to be defeated. Many nations and great kings will make Babylon their servant.

<sup>8</sup>" "But now some nations or kingdoms might refuse to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. They might refuse to be under his control. If that happens, I will punish that nation with war, hunger and terrible sickness, says the Lord. I will do it until I destroy that nation. I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy the nation that fights against him. <sup>9</sup>So don't listen to your false prophets.<sup>d</sup> Don't listen to people who use magic to tell what will happen in the future. Don't listen to those who say they can tell what dreams mean. Don't listen to mediums<sup>d</sup> or magicians. They all tell you, 'You will not be slaves to the king of Babylon.' <sup>10</sup>They are telling you lies! They will only cause you to be taken far from your homeland. I will force you to leave your homes. And you will die in another land. <sup>11</sup>But some nations will put themselves under the control of the king of Babylon. They will serve him. I will let those nations stay in their own country, says the Lord. The people from those nations will live in their own land and farm it." "

<sup>12</sup>I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, "You must put yourself under the control of the king of Babylon and serve him. If you serve him and his people, you will live. <sup>13</sup>Why should you and your people die like those who do not serve the king of Babylon? Why should you die because of war, hunger and sickness? The Lord said this will happen. <sup>14</sup>But the false prophets are saying this: 'You will never be slaves to the king of Babylon.' Don't listen to them because they are prophesying lies to you! <sup>15</sup>I did not send them,' says the Lord. 'They are prophesying lies. And they are saying the message is from me. So I will send Judah away. You will die! And those prophets who prophesy to you will die also.' "

<sup>16</sup>Then I, Jeremiah, said to the priests and all the people, "This is what the Lord says: Those false prophets are saying that what the Babylonians took from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord will be brought back soon. Don't listen to them! They are prophesying lies to you. <sup>17</sup>Don't listen to those prophets. But serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. There is no reason for you to cause Jerusalem to become a ruin. <sup>18</sup>They might be prophets and have the message from the Lord. If so, let them pray to the Lord of heaven's armies. Let them pray about the things that are still in the Temple of the Lord. Let them pray about the things that are still in the king's palace and in Jerusalem. Let them pray that all this will not be taken away to Babylon.

<sup>20</sup>Nebuchadnezzar did not take these away when he took Jehoiachin king of Judah captive. Jehoiachin was the son of King Jehoiakim. Nebuchadnezzar also took other important people away from Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says about the things left in the Temple of the Lord and in the king's palace and in Jerusalem: 'All of this will also be taken to Babylon. <sup>22</sup>And they will stay there until the day I go to get them,' says the Lord. 'Then I will bring them back and return them to this place.' "

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 It was the fifth month of King Zedekiah's fourth year as king of Judah. This was at the beginning of the king's rule. At that time Hananiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> spoke to me. He was the son of Azzur. And he was from the town of Gibeon. He was in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord when he spoke to me. In front of the priests and all the people, Hananiah said: <sup>2</sup>'The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: 'I will break the yoke<sup>d</sup> the king of Babylon has put on Judah. <sup>3</sup>Before two years are over, I will bring back everything that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from the Lord's Temple. <sup>4</sup>I will also bring Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah back here. And I will bring back all the other people of Judah as captives to Babylon,' says the Lord. 'So I will break the yoke the king of Babylon put on Judah.' "

<sup>5</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah answered the prophet Hananiah. They were standing in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. The priests and all the people there could hear Jeremiah's answer. <sup>6</sup>He said, "Amen! Let the Lord really do that! May the Lord make the message you prophesy come true. May the Lord bring everything from the Lord's Temple back from Babylon. And may he bring back to their homes all the people who were taken as captives.

<sup>7</sup>"But listen to what I must say to you and all the people. <sup>8</sup>There were prophets long before we became prophets, Hananiah. They prophesied that war, hunger and terrible sicknesses would come. They would come to many countries and great kingdoms. <sup>9</sup>But a prophet might prophesy that we will have peace. The message of that prophet might come true. If it does, only then can he be recognized as one truly sent by the Lord!"

Lord says: 'In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He put that yoke on all the nations of the world. But I will break it before two years are over.' "

After Hananiah had said that, Jeremiah left the Temple.

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. This was not long after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off of the prophet Jeremiah's neck. <sup>13</sup>The Lord said, "Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the Lord says: You have broken a wooden yoke. But I will make a yoke of iron in the place of the wooden one! <sup>14</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: I will put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations. I will do that to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And they will be slaves to him. I will even give Nebuchadnezzar control over the wild animals.' "

<sup>15</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The Lord did not send you. And you have made the people of Judah trust in lies. <sup>16</sup>So this is what the Lord says: 'Soon I will remove you from the earth. You will die this year. This is because you taught the people to turn against the Lord.' "

<sup>17</sup>Hananiah died in the seventh month of that same year.

A Letter to the Jews in Babylon

29 Jeremiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> sent a letter to the people taken as captives to Babylon. He sent it to the older leaders who were among the captives, the priests and the prophets. And he sent it to all the other people Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>(This letter was sent after all these people were taken away: Jehoiachin and the queen mother; the officers and leaders of Judah and Jerusalem; and the craftsmen and metalworkers.) <sup>3</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah had sent Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah to King Nebuchadnezzar. So Jeremiah gave the letter to them to take to Babylon. This is what the letter said:

Have many children and grow in number in Babylon. Don't become fewer in number. <sup>7</sup>Also do good things for the city where I sent you as captives. Pray to the Lord for the city where you are living. If there is peace in that city, you will have peace also." <sup>8</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: "Don't let your prophets and the people who do magic fool you. Don't listen to their dreams. <sup>9</sup>They are prophesying lies. And they are saying that their message is from me. But I did not send them," says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>This is what the Lord says: "Babylon will be powerful for 70 years. After that time I will come to you who are living in Babylon. I will keep my promise to bring you back to Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>I say this because I know what I have planned for you," says the Lord. "I have good plans for you. I don't plan to hurt you. I plan to give you hope and a good future. <sup>12</sup>Then you will call my name. You will come to me and pray to me. And I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup>You will search for me. And when you search for me with all your heart, you will find me! <sup>14</sup>I will let you find me," says the Lord. "And I will bring you back from your captivity. I forced you to leave this place. But I will gather you from all the nations. I will gather you from the places I have sent you as captives," says the Lord. "And I will bring you back to this place."

<sup>16</sup>But the Lord says this about the king who is sitting on David's throne now. And I'm also talking about all the other people still in Jerusalem. These are your relatives who did not go to Babylon with you. <sup>17</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says: "I will soon send war, hunger and terrible diseases against those still in Jerusalem. I will make them like bad figs that are too rotten to eat. <sup>18</sup>I will chase them with war, hunger and terrible diseases. I will make them a hated people by all the kingdoms of the earth. People will speak evil of them. They will be shocked when they hear what has happened. And people will use them as a shameful example wherever I make them go. <sup>19</sup>This is because those in Jerusalem have not listened to my message," says the Lord. "I sent my message to them again and again. I used my servants, the prophets, to give my messages to them. But they did not listen," says the Lord.

<sup>20</sup>You captives, I forced you to leave Jerusalem and go to Babylon. So listen to the message from the Lord. <sup>21</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says this about Ahab son of Kolaiah. And he says it about Zedekiah son of Maaseiah: "These two men have been prophesying lies to you. They have said that their message is from me. But I will hand over those two prophets to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And Nebuchadnezzar will kill them in front of you who are captives in Babylon. <sup>22</sup>Because of this, all the captives from Judah will use this curse: 'May the Lord treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab. The king of Babylon burned them with fire.' <sup>23</sup>They have done evil things among the people of Israel. They are guilty of adultery<sup>d</sup> with their neighbors' wives. They have also spoken lies. And they said those lies were a message from me, the Lord. I did not tell them to do that. I know what they have done. I am a witness!" says the Lord.

<sup>24</sup>Also give a message to Shemaiah. He is from the Nehelamite family. <sup>25</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: "Shemaiah, you sent letters to all the people in Jerusalem. And they sent letters to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. You also sent letters to all the priests. You sent those letters in your own name. <sup>26</sup>You said to Zephaniah, 'The Lord has made you priest in place of Jehoiada. You are to be in charge of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. You should arrest any madman who acts like a prophet. You should lock the hands and feet of that person between wooden blocks. And put iron rings around his neck. <sup>27</sup>Now Jeremiah from Anathoth is acting like a prophet. So why haven't you arrested him? <sup>28</sup>Jeremiah has sent this message to us in Babylon: You will be there for a long time. So build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what you grow.'"

<sup>29</sup>Zephaniah the priest read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>30</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah: <sup>31</sup>"Send this message to all the captives in Babylon: 'This is what the Lord says about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Shemaiah has prophesied to you, but I did not send him. He has made you believe a lie. <sup>32</sup>Because Shemaiah has done that, this is what the Lord says: I will soon punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite. He will not see the good things I will do for my people, says the Lord. None of his family will be left alive among the people. This is because he has taught the people to turn against me.'"

Promises of Hope

30 These are the words that the Lord spoke to Jeremiah. <sup>2</sup>The Lord, the God of Israel, said: “Jeremiah, write in a book all the words I have spoken to you. <sup>3</sup>The days will come when I will make everything as good as it was before,” says the Lord. “I will bring Israel and Judah back from captivity,” says the Lord. “I will return them to the land I gave their ancestors. Then my people will own that land again!”

<sup>4</sup>The Lord spoke this message about the people of Israel and Judah: <sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord said:

“We hear people crying from fear.
They are afraid. There is no peace.

<sup>6</sup>Ask this question, and consider it:
A man cannot have a baby.

So why do I see every strong man holding his stomach in pain like a woman having a baby?

Why is everyone’s face turning white like a dead man’s face?

<sup>7</sup>This will be a terrible day!

There will never be another time like
this.

This is a time of great trouble for the people of Jacob.

But they will be saved from it.”

<sup>8</sup>The Lord of heaven’s armies says, “At that time

I will break the yoke<sup>d</sup> from their necks.
And I will break the ropes holding them.

Foreign people will never again make my people slaves!

<sup>9</sup>They will serve the Lord their God.

And they will serve David their king.
I will send that king to them.

<sup>10</sup>“So people of Jacob, my servants, don’t be afraid!

Israel, don’t be frightened,” says the
Lord.

“I will save you from that faraway place where you are captives.

I will save your family from that land.
The people of Jacob will be safe and have peace again.

There will be no enemy to frighten them.

<sup>11</sup>I am with you and will save you,”
says the Lord.

“I scattered you among those nations.
Even if I completely destroy all those
nations,

I will not destroy you.
You will be punished fairly.

But I will punish you.”

<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord said:
“You people have a wound that cannot be cured.

Your injury will not heal.

<sup>13</sup>There is no one to argue your case.

There is no cure for your sores.

So you will not be healed.

<sup>14</sup>All those nations who were your friends have forgotten you.

They don’t care about you.

I hurt you as an enemy would.

I punished you very hard.

I did this because your guilt was so great.

I did this because your sins were so many.

<sup>15</sup>Why are you crying about your injury?

There is no cure for your pain.

I, the Lord, did these things to you because of your great guilt.

I did these things because of your many sins.

<sup>16</sup>But those nations that destroyed you will now be destroyed.

Your enemies will become captives.

Those who stole from you will have their own things stolen.

Those who took things from you in war will have their own things taken.

<sup>17</sup>I will bring back your health.

And I will heal your injuries,” says the Lord.

“This is because other people forced you out from among them.

Those people said about you, ‘No one cares about Jerusalem!’ ”

<sup>18</sup>This is what the Lord said:

“I will make the tents of Jacob’s people as they used to be.

And I will have pity on Israel’s houses.

The city will be rebuilt on its hill of ruins.

And the king’s palace will stand in its proper place.

<sup>19</sup>People in those places will sing songs of praise.

There will also be the sound of laughter.

I will give them many children.

They will not be small.

I will bring honor to them.

No one will look down on them.

<sup>20</sup>Their descendants<sup>d</sup> will be like they were in the old days.

I will make their people strong before
me.

And I will punish the nations who have hurt them.

- <sup>21</sup>One of their own people will lead them.
Their ruler will come from among them.
He will come near to me when I invite him.
Who would dare to come uninvited?" says the Lord.
- <sup>22</sup>"So you will be my people, and I will be your God."
- <sup>23</sup>The Lord was very angry.
He punished the people.
And the punishment came like a storm.
It came like a hurricane against the evil people.
- <sup>24</sup>The Lord will stay angry until he finishes punishing the people.
He will stay angry
until he finishes the punishment he planned.
When that day comes,
you will understand this.

The New Israel

31 The Lord says, "At that time I will be God of all Israel's family groups. And they will be my people."

<sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"Some of the people were not killed by the enemy's sword.

Those people will find help in the desert.
I have come to give rest to Israel."

<sup>3</sup>And from far away the Lord appeared to his people. He said, "I love you people with a love that will last forever.

I became your friend
because of my love and kindness.

<sup>4</sup>People of Israel, I will build you up again, and you will be rebuilt.

You will pick up your tambourines<sup>d</sup> again.
You will dance with those who are joyful.

<sup>5</sup>You will plant vineyards again on the hills around Samaria.
The farmers will plant them and enjoy their fruit.

<sup>6</sup>There will be a time when watchmen in the mountains of Ephraim shout this message:

'Come, let's go up to Jerusalem to worship the Lord our God!'"

<sup>7</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"Be happy and sing for the people of Jacob.
Shout for Israel, the greatest of the
nations.

Sing your praises and shout this:

'Lord, save your people!

Save those who are left alive from the nation of Israel!'

<sup>8</sup>Look, I will bring Israel from the country in the north.

I will gather them from the faraway places on earth.

Some of the people are blind and crippled.
Some of the women will be pregnant and ready to give birth.

A great many people will come back.

<sup>9</sup>Those people will be crying as they come back.

But they will pray as I bring them back.
I will lead those people by streams of
water.

I will lead them on an even road where they will not stumble.

This is because I am Israel's father.
And Israel is my firstborn<sup>d</sup> son.

<sup>10</sup>"Nations, listen to the message from the Lord.

Tell this message in the faraway lands by
the sea:

'The one who scattered the people of Israel will bring them back together.

And he will watch over his people like a shepherd.'

<sup>11</sup>The Lord will bring the people of Jacob back.

The Lord will buy them back from people stronger than they were.

<sup>12</sup>The people of Israel will come to the high points of Jerusalem.

There they will shout for joy.
Their faces will shine with happiness about all the good things from the Lord:
the grain, new wine, oil, young sheep and cows.

They will be like a garden that has plenty of water.

And the people of Israel will not be troubled anymore.

<sup>13</sup>Then young women of Israel will be happy and dance.

The young men and old men will also dance.

I will change their sadness into happiness.
I will give them comfort and joy instead of sadness.

<sup>14</sup>The priests will have more than enough sacrifices.

And my people will be filled with the good things I give them!" says the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"A sound was heard in Ramah.

It was painful crying and much sadness.

Rachel cries for her children.

And she cannot be comforted,
because her children are dead!"

<sup>16</sup>But this is what the Lord says:

"Stop crying.

Don't let your eyes fill with tears.

You will be rewarded for your work!" says
the Lord.

"The people will come back from their enemy's land.

<sup>17</sup>So there is hope for you!" says the Lord.

"Your children will come back to their own land.

<sup>18</sup>"I have heard Israel moaning:

'Lord, you punished me, and I have learned my lesson.

I was like a calf that had never been trained.

Take me back, and I will come back.

You truly are the Lord my God.

<sup>19</sup>Lord, I wandered away from you.

But I changed my heart and life.

Once I understood,

I beat my breast with sorrow.

I am ashamed and disgraced because of the foolish things I did when I was young.'

<sup>20</sup>"You know that Israel is my dear son.

I love that child.

Yes, I often speak against Israel,

but I still remember him.

I love him very much.

And I want to comfort him," says the
Lord.

<sup>21</sup>"People of Israel, fix the road signs.

Put up the signs that show you the way home.

Watch the road.

Pay attention to the road on which you travel.

People of Israel, come home.

Come back to your towns.

<sup>22</sup>You are an unfaithful daughter.

How long will you wander before you come home?

The Lord will make something new happen
in the land:

A woman will go seeking a man."

<sup>23</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: "I will again do good things for the people of Judah. At that time the people in the land of Judah and its towns will again say:

'May the Lord bless you. You are a righteous dwelling. You are a holy mountain.' <sup>24</sup>People in all the towns of Judah will live together in peace. Farmers and those who move around with their flocks will live together in peace. <sup>25</sup>I will give rest and strength to those who are weak and tired."

<sup>26</sup>After hearing that, I, Jeremiah, woke up and looked around. My sleep had been very pleasant.

<sup>27</sup>The Lord says, "The days are coming when I will help the families of Israel and Judah to grow. I will help their children and animals to grow, too. It will be like planting and caring for a plant. <sup>28</sup>In the past I watched over Israel and Judah, but I watched for the time to pull them up. I tore them down. I destroyed them. I brought disaster to them. But now I will watch over them to build them up and make them strong," says the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>"At that time people will no longer say:

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes.

And that caused the children to grind their teeth from the sour taste.'

<sup>30</sup>But each person will die for his own sin. The person who eats sour grapes will grind his own teeth.

The New Agreement

<sup>31</sup>"Look, the time is coming," says the Lord,

"when I will make a new agreement.

It will be with the people of Israel and the people of Judah.

<sup>32</sup>It will not be like the agreement

I made with their ancestors.

That was when I took them by the hand to bring them out of Egypt.

I was a husband to them, but they broke that agreement," says the

Lord.

<sup>33</sup>"I will make this agreement with the people of Israel," says the Lord.

"I will put my teachings in their minds.

And I will write them on their hearts.

I will be their God,

and they will be my people.

<sup>34</sup>People will no longer have to teach their neighbors and relatives to know the Lord.

This is because all people will know me,
from the least to the most important,"

says the Lord.

"I will forgive them for the wicked things they did.

I will not remember their sins anymore."

The Lord Will Never Leave Israel

<sup>35</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"The Lord makes the sun shine in the day.
And he makes the moon and stars shine at night.

He stirs up the sea so that its waves crash on the shore.

The Lord of heaven's armies is his name.

<sup>36</sup>"Only if these laws should ever fail,"
says the Lord,

"will Israel's descendants<sup>d</sup> stop being a nation before me."

<sup>37</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"There's only one way I will reject all the descendants of Israel.

That is if people can measure the sky
above.

It is if they can learn the secrets of the earth below.

Then I will reject them because of what they have done," says the Lord.

The New Jerusalem

<sup>38</sup>The Lord says, "The days are coming when Jerusalem will be rebuilt for me. Everything from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate will be rebuilt. <sup>39</sup>The measuring line will stretch from the Corner Gate straight to the hill of Gareb. Then it will turn to the place named Goah. <sup>40</sup>There is the whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown. It will be holy to the Lord. And all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley will be included. They are on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate. All that area will be holy to the Lord. The city of Jerusalem will never again be torn down or destroyed."

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 This is the word the Lord spoke to Jeremiah. It was in the tenth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah. The tenth year of Zedekiah was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup>At that time the army of Babylon was surrounding Jerusalem. Jeremiah was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard. This courtyard was at the palace of the king of Judah.

<sup>3</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah had put Jeremiah in prison there. Zedekiah had asked, "Why have you prophesied<sup>d</sup> the things you have?" (Jeremiah had said, "This is what the Lord says: 'I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar will capture this city. <sup>4</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the army of the Babylonians. But he will surely be given to the king of Babylon. And Zedekiah will speak to the king of Babylon face to face. Zedekiah will see him with his own eyes. <sup>5</sup>The king of Babylon will take Zedekiah to Babylon. Zedekiah will stay there until I have punished him,' says the Lord. 'If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed.'")

<sup>6</sup>While Jeremiah was prisoner, he said, "The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>7</sup>Jeremiah, your cousin Hanamel will come to you soon.
He is the son of your uncle Shallum. Hanamel will say to you, 'Jeremiah, you are my nearest relative. So buy my field near the town of Anathoth. It is your right and your responsibility to buy that field.'

<sup>8</sup>"Then it happened just as the Lord had said. My cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard. He said to me, 'Buy my field near Anathoth in the land of Benjamin.
Buy that land for yourself. It is your right to buy it and own it.' So I knew this was a message from the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>"I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I weighed out seven ounces of silver for him. <sup>10</sup>I signed the record that showed I now owned the field. And I had a copy of the record sealed up. Some men witnessed it and signed it also. And I weighed out the silver on the scales. <sup>11</sup>Then I took the sealed copy of the record of ownership. And I took the copy that was not sealed. <sup>12</sup>And I gave them to Baruch son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. The sealed copy of the record of ownership had all the demands and limits of my purchase. I gave this paper of ownership to Baruch. It was while my cousin Hanamel and the other witnesses were there. Those witnesses also signed the record of ownership.
There were also many Jews sitting in the courtyard. And they saw me give the record of ownership to Baruch.

<sup>13</sup>"With all the people watching, I said to Baruch, <sup>14</sup>"This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: Take both copies of the record of ownership. Take both the sealed copy and the copy that was not sealed.
And put them in a clay jar. Do this so that they will last a long time. <sup>15</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: In the future my people will once again buy houses.
They will also buy fields for grain and vineyards in the land of Israel.'

<sup>16</sup>"I gave the record of ownership to Baruch son of Neriah. Then I prayed to the Lord. I said: <sup>17</sup>Oh, Lord God, you made the skies and the earth. You made them with your very great power. There is nothing too wonderful for you to do. <sup>18</sup>Lord, you show love and kindness to thousands of people. But you also bring punishment to children for their fathers' sins. Great and powerful God, your name is the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>19</sup>You plan and do great things, Lord. You see everything that people do. You reward people for the way they live and for what they do. <sup>20</sup>Lord, you did miracles<sup>d</sup> and wonderful things in the land of Egypt. You have kept on doing them even until today. You did miracles in Israel and among the other nations. You have become well known. <sup>21</sup>Lord, you used signs and miracles and brought your people, the Israelites out of Egypt. You used your great power and strength to do those things. You brought great terror on everyone. <sup>22</sup>Lord, you gave this land to the people of Israel. This is the land you promised to their ancestors long ago. It's a land where much food grows. <sup>23</sup>The people of Israel came into this land and took it for their own. But those people did not obey you. They did not follow your teachings. They did not do the things you commanded. So you made all these terrible things happen to them.

<sup>24</sup>"And now, the enemy has surrounded the city. They are building roads to the top of the walls. There will be war, hunger and terrible diseases. These will cause the city to be handed over to the Babylonians. They are attacking the city now. Lord, you said this would happen. And now you see it is happening. <sup>25</sup>But now, Lord God, you are telling me, 'Buy the field with silver. Choose some men to watch while I purchase it.' You are telling me this while the Babylonian army is ready to capture the city."

<sup>26</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah: <sup>27</sup>"I am the Lord. I am the God of every person on the earth. You know that nothing is impossible for me. <sup>28</sup>So this is what I say: I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the Babylonian army. And I will give it to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. That army will capture the city. <sup>29</sup>The Babylonian army is already attacking the city of Jerusalem. They will soon enter the city and start a fire to burn down the city. They will also burn down the houses. The people of Jerusalem made me angry. They offered sacrifices to Baal<sup>d</sup> on the roofs<sup>a</sup> of their houses. And the people poured out drink offerings to other idols. <sup>30</sup>The people of Israel and Judah have done only the things I said were wrong. They have done this since they were young.

They have made me angry by worshiping idols made with their own hands," says the Lord. <sup>31</sup>"From the day Jerusalem was built until now, they have made me very angry. Jerusalem has made me so angry I must remove it from my sight. <sup>32</sup>I will destroy it. This is because of the evil the people of Israel and Judah have done. The people, their kings and officers have made me angry. Their priests and prophets have made me angry. All the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem have made me angry. <sup>33</sup>They turned their backs to me. I tried to teach them again and again. But they wouldn't listen to me. I tried to correct them, but they wouldn't listen. <sup>34</sup>They put their hated idols in the place where I have chosen to be worshiped. In this way they made it unclean.<sup>d</sup> <sup>35</sup>In the Valley of Ben Hinnom those people built places to worship Baal. They built them so they could burn their sons and daughters as sacrifices to Molech.<sup>d</sup> But I never commanded them to do such a hated thing. I never even thought of it! This would make Judah sin.

<sup>36</sup>"You are saying, 'There will be war, hunger and terrible diseases. So the city will be handed over to the king of Babylon.' But the Lord, the God of Israel, says: <sup>37</sup>I have forced the people of Israel and Judah to leave their land. I was very furious and angry with them. But I will gather them from the land where I forced them to go. I will bring them back to this place. I will let them live in peace and safety. <sup>38</sup>The people of Israel and Judah will be my people. And I will be their God. <sup>39</sup>I will make them want to be truly one people. They will have one goal. They will truly want to worship me all their lives. They will do this for their own good and for their children after them.

<sup>40</sup>"I will make an agreement with them. This agreement will last forever. And I will never turn away from them. I will always be good to them. I will make them want to respect me. Then they will never turn away from me. <sup>41</sup>I will enjoy doing good to them. And I will surely plant them in this land and make them grow. I will do this with my whole being."

<sup>42</sup>This is what the Lord says: "I have brought this great disaster to the people of Israel and Judah. In the same way I will bring good things to them. I promise to do good things for them. <sup>43</sup>You are saying, 'This land is an empty desert. There are no people or animals here. The Babylonian army defeated this country.' But in the future, people will once again buy fields in this land. <sup>44</sup>They will use their money and buy fields. They will sign and seal their agreements. People will witness their signing records of ownership. They will again buy fields in the land of Benjamin and in the area around Jerusalem. They will buy fields in the towns of Judah and in the mountains. They will buy them in the western mountain slopes and in southern Judah. This is because I will make everything as good as it once was," says the Lord.

The Promise of God

33 Now Jeremiah was still locked up in the courtyard of the guards. And the Lord spoke his word to him a second time: <sup>24</sup>"The Lord made the earth. He made it, and he keeps it safe. The Lord is his name. This is what the Lord says: <sup>3</sup>'Judah, pray to me, and I will answer you. I will tell you important secrets. You have never heard these things before.' <sup>4</sup>The Lord is the God of Israel. He says these things about the houses in Jerusalem and the royal palaces of Judah. They have been torn down to be used against the attack by the Babylonian army. <sup>5</sup>The Lord says, 'Some people will come to fight against the Babylonians. They will fill these houses with dead bodies. I killed those people in my hot anger. I have turned away from this city because of all the evil its people have done.

<sup>6</sup>"But then I will bring health and heal the people there. I will let them enjoy peace and safety. <sup>7</sup>I will make good things happen to Judah and Israel again. I will make them strong as in the past. <sup>8</sup>They sinned against me. But I will wash away that sin. They did evil and turned away from me, but I will forgive them. <sup>9</sup>Then Jerusalem will be a wonderful place! People who live there will be happy. And people from all nations will praise it. This will happen because they will hear about the good things I am doing there. They will be surprised and shocked at the good things and peace I will bring to Jerusalem.'

<sup>10</sup>"You are saying, 'Our country is an empty desert. There are no people or animals living there.' It is now quiet in the streets of Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah. There are no people or animals there either. But it will be noisy there soon! <sup>11</sup>There will be sounds of joy and gladness. There will be the happy sounds of brides and bridegrooms. There will be the sounds of people bringing their offerings to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Their offerings will be to show thanks to the Lord. They will say, 'Praise the Lord of heaven's armies!

The Lord is good!

His love continues forever!'

They will say this because I will again do good things for Judah. It will be as in the beginning," says the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "This place is empty now. There are no people or animals living here. But there will be shepherds in all the towns of Judah. And there will be pastures where they let their flocks of sheep rest. <sup>13</sup>Shepherds will again count their sheep as the sheep walk in front of them. People will be counting their sheep all around the country. They will count them in the mountains and in the western mountain slopes. They will count them in southern Judah and the land of Benjamin. They will count them around Jerusalem and the other towns of Judah!"

The Good Branch

<sup>14</sup>The Lord says, "The time is coming when I will do the things I promised. I made a special promise to the people of Israel and Judah.

<sup>15</sup>In those days and at that time,

I will make a righteous branch sprout from David's family.

He will do what is fair and right in the land.

<sup>16</sup>At this time Judah will be saved.

The people of Jerusalem will live in safety.

The branch will be named:

The Lord Does What Is Right."

<sup>17</sup>This is what the Lord says: "Someone from David's family will always sit on the throne. And he will rule the family of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And there will always be priests from the family of Levi. Those priests will always stand before me. And they will offer burnt offerings and grain offerings. And they will offer sacrifices to me."

<sup>19</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. <sup>20</sup>"This is what the Lord says: I have an agreement with day and night. I agreed that they will continue forever. Day and night will always come at the right times. If you could change that agreement, <sup>21</sup>you could also change my agreement with David and Levi. Only then would descendants<sup>d</sup> from my servant David not be the kings on their thrones. And only then would the family of Levi not be priests serving me in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>But I will give many descendants to my servant David. And I will give them to the family group of Levi who serve me in the Temple. They will be as many as the stars in the sky that no one can count. And they will be as many as the grains of sand on the seashore that no one can count.”

<sup>23</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah: <sup>24</sup>“Jeremiah, have you heard what the people are saying? They are saying: ‘The Lord turned away from the two families of Israel and Judah. He chose those people. But now he doesn’t think of them as a nation anymore!’”

<sup>25</sup>This is what the Lord says: “If I had not made my agreement with day and night, and if I had not made the laws for the sky and earth, <sup>26</sup>only then might I turn away from Jacob’s descendants. And only then I might not let the descendants of David my servant rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And I will be kind to those people. I will cause good things to happen to them again.”

A Warning to Zedekiah

34 The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. It came when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and all the towns around it. Nebuchadnezzar had with him all his army. And he had the armies of all the kingdoms and peoples he ruled. <sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, said: “Jeremiah, go to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him: ‘This is what the Lord says: I will hand the city of Jerusalem over to the king of Babylon very soon. And he will burn it down! <sup>3</sup>You will not escape from the king of Babylon. You will surely be caught and given to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will talk to you face to face. And you will go to Babylon. <sup>4</sup>But, Zedekiah king of Judah, listen to the promise of the Lord. This is what the Lord says about you: You will not be killed with a sword. <sup>5</sup>You will die in a peaceful way. People made funeral fires to honor your ancestors, who ruled before you. In the same way, people will make a funeral fire to honor you. They will cry for you. They will sadly say, ‘Ah, master!’ I myself make this promise to you, says the Lord.’”

<sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet gave the message from the Lord to Zedekiah in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>This was while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem. It was also fighting against the cities of Judah that had not been taken prisoners—Lachish and Azekah. These were the only strong, walled cities left in the land of Judah.

<sup>a</sup>they walked . . . pieces This showed that the men were willing to be killed, like this animal, if they did not keep their agreement.

Slaves Are Free

<sup>8</sup>King Zedekiah had made an agreement with all the people in Jerusalem. He agreed to give freedom to all the Hebrew slaves. After Zedekiah made that agreement, the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. <sup>9</sup>Everyone was supposed to free his Hebrew slaves. This included all male and female Hebrew slaves. No one was to keep a fellow Jew as a slave. <sup>10</sup>So the officers and all the people accepted this agreement. Everyone would free their male and female slaves. They would no longer keep them as slaves. So all the slaves were set free. <sup>11</sup>But after that, the people who had slaves changed their minds. So they took back the people they had set free. And they made them slaves again.

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup>“This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I brought your ancestors out of Egypt where they were slaves. When I did that, I made an agreement with them. <sup>14</sup>I said to your ancestors: ‘At the end of every seven years, each one of you must set his Hebrew slaves free. You might have a fellow Hebrew who has sold himself to you. You must let him go free after he has served you for six years.’ But your ancestors did not listen or pay attention to me. <sup>15</sup>A short time ago you changed your hearts and did what is right. Each of you gave freedom to his fellow Hebrews who were slaves. And you even made an agreement before me. You made it in the place where I have chosen to be worshiped. <sup>16</sup>But now you have changed your minds. You have shown you do not honor me. Each of you has taken back the male and female slaves you had set free. You have forced them to become slaves again.

<sup>17</sup>“So this is what the Lord says: You have not obeyed me. You have not given freedom to your fellow Hebrews. Because you have not kept the agreement, I will give freedom, says the Lord. I will give freedom to war. And I will give freedom to terrible diseases and to hunger to kill you. I will make you hated by all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>18</sup>I will hand over the men who broke my agreement. They have not kept the promises they made before me. These men cut a calf into two pieces before me. And they walked between the two pieces. <sup>a</sup> <sup>19</sup>These people made the agreement before me: the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem; the officers of the court; the priests and all the people of the land. <sup>20</sup>So I will hand those people over to their enemies. I will hand them over to everyone who wants to kill them. Their bodies will become food for the birds of the air. And they will become food for the wild animals of the earth. <sup>21</sup>I will hand Zedekiah king of Judah and his officers over to their enemies. I will hand them over to everyone who wants to kill them. I will hand Zedekiah and his people over to the army of the king of Babylon. I will do this even though that army has left Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>I will give the order, says the Lord, to bring the Babylonian army back to Jerusalem. That army will fight against Jerusalem. They will capture it, set it on fire and burn it down. I will destroy the towns in the land of Judah. And they will become empty ruins. No one will live there!"

The Recabite Family Obeys God

35 When Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah, the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. This was his message: <sup>24</sup>"Jeremiah, go to the family of Recab. Invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Offer them wine to drink."

<sup>3</sup>So I went to get Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah. <sup>a</sup>Jeremiah was the son of Habazziniah. And I gathered all of Jaazaniah's brothers and sons. I gathered the whole family of the Recabites together. <sup>4</sup>Then I brought them into the Temple of the Lord. We went into the room of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah. Hanan was a man of God. The room was next to the one where the officers stay. It was over the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum. Maaseiah was the doorkeeper in the Temple. <sup>5</sup>Then I put some bowls full of wine and some cups before the Recabite family. And I said to them, "Drink some wine."

<sup>6</sup>But the Recabite people answered, "We never drink wine. It is because of our ancestor Jonadab son of Recab. He gave us this command: 'You and your descendants<sup>d</sup> must never drink wine. <sup>7</sup>Also you must never build houses, plant seeds or plant vineyards. You must never do any of those things. You must live only in tents. Then you will live a long time in the land where you are a wanderer.' <sup>8</sup>So we Recabites have obeyed everything Jonadab our ancestor commanded us. We never drink wine. And our wives, sons and daughters never drink wine. <sup>9</sup>We never build houses in which to live. And we never own fields or vineyards. And we never plant crops. <sup>10</sup>We have lived in tents. And we have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. <sup>11</sup>But Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the country of Judah. We said to each other, 'Come, we must enter Jerusalem. This is so we can escape the Babylonian army and the Aramean army.' So we have stayed in Jerusalem."

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup>"This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: Jeremiah, go and tell the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem: 'You should learn a lesson and obey my message,' says the Lord. <sup>14</sup>Jonadab son of Recab ordered his sons not to drink wine. And that command has been obeyed. Until today the descendants of Jonadab obeyed their ancestor's command. They do not drink wine. But I am the Lord. I have given you messages again and again. But you did not obey me. <sup>15</sup>I sent my servants the prophets to you again and again. They said to you, 'Each of you must stop doing evil. You must change and be good. Do not follow other gods to serve them. If you obey me, you will live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.' But you have not listened or paid attention to my message. <sup>16</sup>The descendants of Jonadab obeyed the commands that their ancestor gave them. But the people of Judah have not obeyed me.'

<sup>17</sup>"So the Lord God of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: 'I said many disasters would come to Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem. I will soon bring every one of those disasters on them. I spoke to those people, but they refused to listen. I called out to them, but they did not answer me.' "

<sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to the Recabites, "This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: 'You have obeyed the commands of your ancestor Jonadab. You have followed all of Jonadab's teachings. You have done everything he commanded.' <sup>19</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: 'There will always be a descendant of Jonadab son of Recab to serve me.' "

Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah's Scroll

36 The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. This was during the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah. This was his message: <sup>21</sup>Jeremiah, get a scroll. Write on it all the words I have spoken to you about Israel and Judah and all the nations. Write everything I have spoken to you since Josiah was king until now. <sup>3</sup>Maybe the family of Judah will hear what disasters I am planning to bring on them. And maybe they will stop doing wicked things. Then I would forgive them for the sins and the evil things they have done."

<sup>4</sup>So Jeremiah called for Baruch son of Neriah. Jeremiah spoke the messages the Lord had given him. And Baruch wrote those messages on the scroll. <sup>5</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, "I cannot go to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. I must stay here. <sup>6</sup>So I want you to go to the Temple of the Lord. Go there on a day of when the people are giving up eating. Read to all the people of Judah from the scroll. These people come into Jerusalem from the towns where they live. Read the messages from the Lord. Read the words that you wrote on the scroll as I spoke them to you. <sup>7</sup>Perhaps they will ask the Lord to help them. Perhaps each one will stop doing wicked things. The Lord has announced that he is very angry with them." <sup>8</sup>So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> told him to do. He read aloud the scroll that had the Lord's messages written on it. He read it in the Lord's Temple.

<sup>9</sup>It was the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king. A special time to give up eating was announced. All the people of Jerusalem were supposed to give up eating to honor the Lord. And everyone who had come into Jerusalem from the towns of Judah was supposed to give up eating. <sup>10</sup>At that time Baruch read the scroll that contained Jeremiah's words. Baruch read the scroll in the Temple of the Lord to all the people there. He was in the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan. Gemariah was a royal assistant. That room was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the Temple.

<sup>11</sup>A man named Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the messages from the Lord. Baruch read them from the scroll. <sup>12</sup>Micaiah went down to the royal assistant's room in the king's palace. All of the officers were sitting there: Elishama the royal assistant; Delaiah son of Shemaiah; Elnathan son of Abcor; Gemariah son of Shaphan; Zedekiah son of Hananiah; and all the other officers. <sup>13</sup>Micaiah told those officers everything he had heard Baruch read from the scroll.

<sup>14</sup>Then the officers sent a man named Jehudi son of Nethaniah to Baruch. (Nethaniah was the son of Shelemiah, who was the son of Cush.) Jehudi said to Baruch, "Bring the scroll that you read to the people and come with me."

So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went with Jehudi to the officers. <sup>15</sup>Then the officers said to Baruch, "Sit down and read the scroll to us."

So Baruch read the scroll to them. <sup>16</sup>When the officers heard all the words, they became afraid. And they looked at one another. They said to Baruch, "We must certainly tell the king about these words." <sup>17</sup>Then the officers asked Baruch, "Tell us, Baruch, where did you get these words you wrote on the scroll? Did you write down what Jeremiah said to you?"

<sup>18</sup>"Yes," Baruch answered. "Jeremiah spoke, and I wrote down all the words with ink on this scroll."

<sup>19</sup>Then the officers said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must go and hide. Don't tell anyone where you are hiding."

<sup>20</sup>Then the officers put the scroll in the room of Elishama the royal assistant. Then they went to the king in the courtyard and told him all about the scroll. <sup>21</sup>So King Jehoiakim sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought the scroll from the room of Elishama the royal assistant. Then Jehudi read the scroll to the king. And he read it to all the officers who stood around the king. <sup>22</sup>This happened in the ninth month of the year. So King Jehoiakim was sitting in the winter apartment. There was a fire burning in a small firepot in front of him. <sup>23</sup>Jehudi began to read from the scroll. But after he had read three or four columns, the king cut those columns off of the scroll with a pen knife. And he threw them into the firepot. Finally, the whole scroll was burned in the fire. <sup>24</sup>King Jehoiakim and his servants heard the message from the scroll. But they were not frightened! They did not tear their clothes to show their sorrow. <sup>25</sup>Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah tried to talk King Jehoiakim into not burning the scroll. But the king would not listen to them. <sup>26</sup>Instead, the king ordered some men to arrest Baruch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet. Those men were Jerahmeel son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel. But the Lord had hidden Baruch and Jeremiah.

<sup>27</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. This happened after King Jehoiakim had burned the scroll. This was the scroll where Baruch had written all the words Jeremiah had spoken to him. The Lord said: <sup>28</sup>"Jeremiah, get another scroll. Write all the words on it that were on the first scroll. That was the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up. <sup>29</sup>Also say this to Jehoiakim king of Judah: 'This is what the Lord says: You burned up that scroll. You said, "Why did Jeremiah write that the king of Babylon will come and destroy this land? Why did he say the king of Babylon will destroy both men and animals in it?"' <sup>30</sup>So the Lord says this about Jehoiakim king of Judah: Jehoiakim's descendants<sup>d</sup> will not sit on David's throne. When Jehoiakim dies, his body will be thrown out on the ground. It will be left out in the heat of the day. And it will also be left in the cold frost of the night. <sup>31</sup>I, the Lord, will punish Jehoiakim and his children. And I will punish his servants. I will do this because they have done evil things. I have promised to bring disasters upon them. And I will bring them upon all the people in Jerusalem and Judah, just as I promised. This is because they have not listened to me.”

<sup>32</sup>So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch. Baruch son of Neriah was his secretary. As Jeremiah spoke, Baruch wrote on the scroll. He wrote the same words that were on the scroll Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many other words like those words were added to the second scroll.

Jeremiah in Prison

37 Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. He appointed Zedekiah son of Josiah as king of Judah. Zedekiah took the place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. <sup>2</sup>But Zedekiah, his servants and the people of Judah did not listen to the words of the Lord. The Lord had spoken his words through Jeremiah the prophet.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Now King Zedekiah sent Jehucal and Zephaniah with a message to Jeremiah the prophet. Jehucal was the son of Shelemiah. And Zephaniah the priest was the son of Maaseiah. This was the message: “Jeremiah, pray to the Lord our God for us.”

<sup>4</sup>At that time Jeremiah had not yet been put into prison. So he was free to go anywhere he wanted. <sup>5</sup>The army of the king of Egypt had marched from Egypt toward Judah. Now the Babylonian army had surrounded the city of Jerusalem so they could attack it. Then they had heard about the Egyptian army marching toward them. So the Babylonian army left Jerusalem to fight the Egyptian army.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah the prophet: <sup>7</sup>“This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Jehucal and Zephaniah, I know Zedekiah king of Judah sent you to ask me questions. Tell this to King Zedekiah: ‘The army of the king of Egypt marched out of Egypt. They came here to help you against the Babylonian army. But that army will go back to Egypt. <sup>8</sup>After that, the Babylonian army will come back here. And they will attack Jerusalem. Then the Babylonian army will take and burn Jerusalem.’

salem, do not fool yourselves. Do not say to yourselves: ‘The Babylonian army will surely leave us alone.’ They will not! <sup>10</sup>You might defeat all of the Babylonian army that is attacking you. But there would still be a few injured men left in their tents. Even those injured men would come from their tents and burn down Jerusalem!”

<sup>14</sup>Jeremiah said to Irijah, “That's not true! I am not leaving to join the Babylonians.” But Irijah refused to listen to Jeremiah. So he arrested Jeremiah and took him to the officers of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>Those rulers were very angry with Jeremiah. They gave an order for him to be beaten. Then they put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the royal assistant. Jonathan's house had been made into a prison. <sup>16</sup>So those people put Jeremiah into a cell in a dungeon. And Jeremiah was there for a long time.

<sup>17</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the palace. Zedekiah talked to Jeremiah in private. He asked Jeremiah, “Is there any message from the Lord?”

Jeremiah answered, “Yes, there is a message from the Lord. Zedekiah, you will be handed over to the king of Babylon.” <sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What crime have I done against you? What crime have I done to your officers or the people of Jerusalem? Why have you thrown me into prison? <sup>19</sup>Where are your prophets now? Those prophets prophesied this message to you: ‘The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land of Judah.’ <sup>20</sup>But now, my master, king of Judah, please listen to me. And please do what I ask of you. Do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the royal assistant. If you do, I will die there!”

<sup>21</sup>So King Zedekiah gave orders for Jeremiah to be put under guard in the courtyard. And he ordered that Jeremiah be given bread from the street of the bakers. Jeremiah was to be given bread until there was no more bread in the city. So he stayed under guard in the courtyard.

Jeremiah Is Thrown into a Well

38 Some of the officers heard what Jeremiah was prophesying.<sup>d</sup> They were Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah and Pashhur son of Malkijah. Jeremiah was telling all the people this message: <sup>2</sup>"This is what the Lord says: 'Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die in war. Or he will die of hunger or terrible diseases. But everyone who surrenders to the Babylonian army will live. They will escape with their lives and live.'<sup>3</sup> And this is what the Lord says: 'This city of Jerusalem will surely be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon. He will capture this city!'"

<sup>4</sup>Then the officers said to the king, "Jeremiah must be put to death! He is making the soldiers who are still in the city become discouraged. He is discouraging everyone by the things he is saying. He does not want good to happen to us. He wants to ruin the people of Jerusalem."

<sup>5</sup>King Zedekiah said to them, "Jeremiah is in your control. I cannot do anything to stop you!"

<sup>6</sup>So the officers took Jeremiah and put him into the well of Malkijah, the king's son. That well was in the courtyard of the guards. The officers used ropes to lower Jeremiah into the well. It did not have any water in it, only mud. And Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

<sup>10</sup>Then King Zedekiah commanded Ebed-Melech the Cushite: "Ebed-Melech, take 30 men from the palace with you. Go and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the well before he dies."

<sup>11</sup>So Ebed-Melech took the men with him. And he went to a room under the storeroom in the palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from that room. Then he let those rags down with some ropes to Jeremiah in the well. <sup>12</sup>Ebed-Melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms. They will be pads for the ropes." So Jeremiah did as Ebed-Melech said.

<sup>13</sup>The men pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and lifted him out of the well. And Jeremiah stayed under guard in the courtyard.

Zedekiah Questions Jeremiah

<sup>14</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent someone to get Jeremiah the prophet.<sup>d</sup> He had Jeremiah brought to the third entrance to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Then the king said to Jeremiah, "I am going to ask you something. Do not hide anything from me. But tell me everything honestly."

<sup>15</sup>Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I give you an answer, you will probably kill me. And even if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

<sup>16</sup>But King Zedekiah made a secret promise to Jeremiah. He said, "As surely as the Lord lives who has given us breath and life, I will not kill you. And I promise not to give you to the officers who want to kill you."

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the Lord God of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: 'You must surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon. Then your life will be saved. And Jerusalem will not be burned down. And you and your family will live. <sup>18</sup>You must not refuse to surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon. If you do, Jerusalem will be given to the Babylonian army. They will burn Jerusalem down. And you will not escape from them.'"

<sup>19</sup>Then King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I'm afraid of some of the Jews. They have already gone over to the side of the Babylonian army. I'm afraid the Babylonians may hand me over to them. And they will treat me badly."

<sup>20</sup>But Jeremiah answered, "The Babylonians will not hand you over to the Jews. Obey the Lord by doing what I tell you. Then things will go well for you. And your life will be saved.

<sup>21</sup>But if you refuse to surrender to the Babylonians, the Lord has shown me what will happen. <sup>22</sup>All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out. They will be taken to the important officers of the king of Babylon. Your women will make fun of you with this song:

'Your good friends led you the wrong way and were stronger than you.

Those were friends that you trusted.

Your feet are stuck in the mud.

Your friends have left you.'

<sup>23</sup>"All your wives and children will be brought out. They will be given to the Babylonian army. You yourself will not even escape from them. You will be taken prisoner by the king of Babylon. And Jerusalem will be burned down."

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not tell anyone that I have been talking to you. If you do, you will die. <sup>25</sup>Those officers might find out that I talked to you. Then they will come to you and say, 'Tell us what you said to King Zedekiah. And tell us what King Zedekiah said to you. Don't keep any secrets from us. If you don't tell us everything, we will kill you.' <sup>26</sup>If they ask you, tell them this: 'I was begging the king not to send me back to Jonathan's house to die.'"

<sup>27</sup>The officers did come to question Jeremiah. So he told them everything the king had ordered him to say. Then the officers said no more to Jeremiah. This was because no one had heard what Jeremiah and the king had discussed.

<sup>28</sup>So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the courtyard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 This is how Jerusalem was captured: <sup>1</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He surrounded the city to attack it. This was during the tenth month of the ninth year Zedekiah was king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>This lasted until the ninth day of the fourth month in Zedekiah's eleventh year. Then the city wall was broken through. <sup>3</sup>And all the officers of the king of Babylon came into Jerusalem. They sat down at the Middle Gate. They were Nergal-Sharezer of the district of Samgar; Nebo-Sarsekim, a chief officer; Nergal-Sharezer, an important leader; and all the other important officers.

<sup>4</sup>When Zedekiah king of Judah and all his soldiers saw them, they ran away. They left Jerusalem at night and went out from the king's garden. They went through the gate that was between the two walls. Then they headed toward the Jordan Valley. <sup>5</sup>But the Babylonian army chased them. They caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar was at Riblah in the land of Hamath. There Nebuchadnezzar passed his sentence on Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup>There at Riblah the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons as he watched. And Nebuchadnezzar killed all the important officers of Judah as Zedekiah watched. <sup>7</sup>Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes. He put bronze chains on Zedekiah and took him to Babylon.

they set fire to the houses of the people of Jerusalem. And they broke down the walls around Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Nebuzaradan was commander of the king's special guards. He took the people left in Jerusalem as captives. He also took those captives who had surrendered to him earlier. And he took the rest of the people of Jerusalem. He carried them all away to Babylon. <sup>10</sup>But Nebuzaradan, commander of the guard, left some of the poor people of Judah behind. They were the people who owned nothing. So on that day he gave them vineyards and fields.

<sup>15</sup>While Jeremiah was guarded in the courtyard, the Lord spoke his word to him: <sup>16</sup>"Jeremiah, go and tell Ebed-Melech the Cushite this message: 'This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: Very soon I will make my words about Jerusalem come true. They will come true through disaster, not through good times. You will see everything come true with your own eyes. <sup>17</sup>But I will save you on that day, Ebed-Melech, says the Lord. You will not be handed over to the people you fear. <sup>18</sup>I will surely save you, Ebed-Melech. You will not die from a sword. But you will escape and live. This will happen because you have trusted in me, says the Lord.'"

Jeremiah Is Set Free

40 The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. This was after Nebuzaradan, commander of the guards, had set Jeremiah free at the city of Ramah. He had found Jeremiah in Ramah bound in chains. He was with all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah. They were being taken away to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>When commander Nebuzaradan found Jeremiah, Nebuzaradan said to him, "The Lord your God announced this disaster would come to this place. <sup>3</sup>And now the Lord has done everything he said he would do. This disaster happened because the people of Judah sinned against the Lord. You people did not obey the Lord. <sup>4</sup>But now I will set you free. I am taking the chains off your wrists. If you want to, come with me to Babylon. And I will take good care of you. But if you don't want to come, then don't. Look, the whole country is open to you." <sup>5</sup>Before Jeremiah turned to leave, Nebuzaradan said, "Or go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. The king of Babylon has chosen Gedaliah to be governor over the towns of Judah. Go and live with Gedaliah among the people. Or go anywhere you want."

Then Nebuzaradan gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go. <sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. And Jeremiah stayed with him there. He lived among the people who were left behind in Judah.

The Short Rule of Gedaliah

<sup>7</sup>There were some officers and their men from the army of Judah. These men were still out in the open country. They heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah son of Ahikam in charge. He was put in charge of the people who were left in the land: the men, women and children who were very poor. They were the ones who were not carried off to Babylon as captives. <sup>8</sup>So these soldiers came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan sons of Kareah. Also Seraiah son of Tanhumeth and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite came. And Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite and their men came.

<sup>9</sup>Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, made a promise to them. Gedaliah said, "Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon. Then everything will go well for you. <sup>10</sup>I myself will live in Mizpah. I will speak for you before the Babylonians who come here. You harvest the wine, the summer fruit and the oil. Put what you harvest in your storage jars. Live in the towns you control."

<sup>11</sup>Some Jews were in Moab, Ammon, Edom and other countries. They heard that the king of Babylon had left a few Jews alive in the land. And they heard the king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah as governor over them. (Gedaliah was the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan.) <sup>12</sup>When the people of Judah heard this news, they came back to Judah. They came back to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They came from all the countries where they had been scattered. They gathered a large harvest of wine and summer fruit.

<sup>13</sup>Johanan son of Kareah came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. All the army officers of Judah still in the open country also came. <sup>14</sup>Johanan and the officers with him said to Gedaliah, "Don't you know that Baalis king of the Ammonite people wants you dead? He has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you." But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

<sup>15</sup>Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah. He said to Gedaliah, "Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know anything about it. We should not let Ishmael kill you. All the Jews gathered around you would be scattered to different countries again. Then the few people of Judah who are left alive would be lost."

<sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Do not kill Ishmael! The things you are saying about Ishmael are not true!"

41 In the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah came to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. (Nethaniah was the son of Elishama.) Ishmael came with ten of his men to Mizpah. Now Ishmael was a member of the king's family. He had been one of the officers of the king of Judah. Ishmael and his men ate a meal with Gedaliah at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>While they were eating together, Ishmael and his ten men got up. They killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam with a sword. Gedaliah was the man the king of Babylon had chosen as governor over Judah. <sup>3</sup>Ishmael killed all the Jews with Gedaliah at Mizpah, too. He also killed the Babylonian soldiers who were there with Gedaliah.

things in a field." So Ishmael let those 10 men alone. He did not kill them with the others. <sup>9</sup>Now the well where he had thrown the bodies had been made by King Asa. Asa had made the well as a part of his defenses against Baasha king of Israel. But Ishmael son of Nethaniah put dead bodies in it until it was full.

<sup>10</sup>Ishmael captured all the other people in Mizpah. He captured the king's daughters and all the other people who were left there. They were the people whom Nebuzaradan commander of the guard had chosen Gedaliah son of Ahikam to take care of. So Ishmael son of Nethaniah captured those people. And he started to cross over to the country of the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup>Johanan son of Kareah heard about all the evil things Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done. All the army officers with him heard it, too.

<sup>12</sup>So Johanan and the army officers took their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught him near the big pool of water at Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>The captives Ishmael had taken saw Johanan and the army officers. And they became very happy. <sup>14</sup>Then all the people Ishmael had taken captive turned around. They ran to Johanan son of Kareah. <sup>15</sup>But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped from Johanan. And they ran away to the Ammonites.

<sup>16</sup>So Johanan son of Kareah and all his army officers saved the captives. Ishmael son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Then he had taken those people from Mizpah. Among those left alive were soldiers, women, children and court officers. Johanan brought them back from the town of Gibeon.

The Escape to Egypt

<sup>17</sup><sup>18</sup>Johanan and the other army officers were afraid of the Babylonians. The king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah son of Ahikam to be governor of Judah. But Ishmael son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah. So Johanan was afraid that the Babylonians would be angry. They decided to run away to Egypt. On the way they stayed at Geruth Kimham, near the town of Bethlehem.

42 While there, Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah went to Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>a</sup>All the army officers went with Johanan and Jezaniah. All the people, from the least important to the greatest, all went along, too. <sup>2</sup>They said to him, "Jeremiah, please listen to what we ask. Pray to the Lord your God. Pray for all the people left alive from the family of Judah. At one time there were many of us. You can see that there are few of us now. <sup>3</sup>So pray that the Lord your God will tell us where we should go. And pray he will tell us what we should do."

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet answered, "I understand what you want me to do. I will pray to the Lord your God as you have asked. I will tell you everything he says. I will not hide anything from you."

<sup>5</sup>Then the people said to Jeremiah, "We will do everything the Lord your God tells us. If we don't, may the Lord be a true and loyal witness against us. We know he will send you to tell us what to do. <sup>6</sup>It does not matter if we like the message or not. We will obey the Lord our God. We are sending you to the Lord for a message from him. We will obey what he says. Then good things will happen to us."

<sup>7</sup>Ten days later the Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup>Then Jeremiah called for Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him. Jeremiah also called all the other people, from the least important to the greatest. <sup>9</sup>Then Jeremiah said to them, "You sent me to ask the Lord for what you wanted. This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: <sup>10</sup>If you will stay in Judah, I will make you strong. I will not destroy you. I will plant you, and I will not pull you up. This is because I am sad about the disaster I brought on you. <sup>11</sup>Now you are afraid of the king of Babylon. But don't be afraid of him. Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon," says the Lord. "I am with you. I will save you. I will rescue you from his power. <sup>12</sup>I will be kind to you. And the king of Babylon will also treat you with mercy. He will bring you back to your land."

<sup>13</sup>"But you might say, 'We will not stay in Judah.' If you say that, you will disobey the Lord your God. <sup>14</sup>Or you might say, 'No, we will go and live in Egypt. We will not be bothered with war there. We will not hear the trumpets of war. And in Egypt we will not be hungry.' <sup>15</sup>If you say that, listen to the message of the Lord. It is to you who are left alive from Judah. This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: 'If you make up your mind to go and live in Egypt, these things will happen: <sup>16</sup>You are afraid of war. But it will defeat you in the land of Egypt. And you are worried about hunger. But you will be hungry in Egypt. You will die there. <sup>17</sup>Everyone who goes to live in Egypt will die in war. Or he will die from hunger or terrible disease. No one who goes to Egypt will live. No one will escape the terrible things I will bring to them.'

the God of Israel, says: 'I showed my anger against Jerusalem. I punished the people who lived in Jerusalem. In the same way I will show my anger against you when you go to Egypt. Other nations will speak evil of you. People will be shocked by what has happened to you. You will become a curse word. People will insult you. And you will never see Judah again.'

<sup>19</sup>'You who are left alive in Judah, the Lord has told you, 'Don't go to Egypt.' I warn you today. <sup>20</sup>You are making a mistake that will cause your deaths. You sent me to the Lord your God. You said to me, 'Pray to the Lord our God for us. Tell us everything the Lord says, and we will do it.' <sup>21</sup>So today I have told you the message from the Lord. But you have not obeyed the Lord your God. You have not done all that he sent me to tell you to do. <sup>22</sup>So now be sure you understand this: You want to go to live in Egypt. But you will die by war, hunger or terrible diseases.'

43 So Jeremiah finished telling the people the message from the Lord their God. He told them everything the Lord their God had sent him to tell them.

<sup>2</sup>Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah and some other men were too proud. They said to Jeremiah, 'Jeremiah, you are lying! The Lord our God did not send you to say, 'You must not go to Egypt to live there.' <sup>3</sup>Baruch son of Neriah is causing you to be against us. He wants you to hand us over to the Babylonians. Then they will kill us. Or they will capture us and take us to Babylon.'

<sup>4</sup>So Johanan, the army officers and all the people disobeyed the Lord's command. He had commanded them to stay in Judah. <sup>5</sup>But Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers took those who were left alive from Judah to Egypt. These were the people who had run away from the Babylonians to other countries. But they had come back to Judah. <sup>6</sup>Now Johanan and the army officers took the men, women and children. Among those people were the king's daughters. And they led them to Egypt. Nebuzaradan commander of the guard had put Gedaliah in charge of those people. (Gedaliah was the son of Ahikam son of Shaphan.) Johanan also took Jeremiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> and Baruch son of Neriah. <sup>7</sup>These people did not listen to the Lord. So they all went to Egypt to the town of Tahpanhes.

in front of the king of Egypt's palace in Tahpanhes. Do this while the Jews are watching you. <sup>10</sup>Then say to them, 'This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: I will send for my servant, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And I will set his throne over these stones I have buried. He will spread his covering for shade above these stones. <sup>11</sup>He will come here and attack Egypt. He will bring death to those who are supposed to die. He will make prisoners of those who are to be taken captive. And he will bring war to those who are to be killed with a sword. <sup>12</sup>Nebuchadnezzar will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt. He will burn those temples. And he will take the idols away. A shepherd wraps himself in his clothes. In the same way Nebuchadnezzar will wrap Egypt around him. Then he will safely leave Egypt. <sup>13</sup>He will destroy the stone pillars in the temple of the sun god in Egypt. And he will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.'

Disaster in Egypt

44 Jeremiah received a message from the Lord. It was for all the Jews living in Egypt. It was for the Jews in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis and southern Egypt. This was the message: <sup>2</sup>'The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: You saw the terrible things I brought on Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. Those towns are empty ruins today. <sup>3</sup>And it is because the people who lived there did evil. Those people burned incense<sup>d</sup> to other gods. And that made me angry! Your people and your ancestors did not worship those gods before. <sup>4</sup>I sent my prophets<sup>d</sup> to them again and again. Those prophets were my servants. They spoke my message and said to the people, 'Don't do this terrible thing. The Lord hates for you to worship other gods.' <sup>5</sup>But they did not listen to the prophets. They did not pay attention. They did not stop doing evil things. They did not stop burning incense to other gods. <sup>6</sup>So I showed my great anger against them. I punished the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. My anger made Jerusalem and the towns of Judah empty. They are only ruins and piles of stones today.

<sup>7</sup>'So the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: Why are you doing such great harm to yourselves by continuing to worship other gods? You are cutting off the men and women, children and babies from the family of Judah. So you leave yourselves without anyone from the family of Judah. <sup>8</sup>Why do you want to make me angry by making idols? Why do you burn incense to the gods of Egypt, where you have come to live? You will destroy yourselves. Other nations will speak evil of you. And all the other nations on the earth will make fun of you. <sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten about the evil things your ancestors did? And have you forgotten the evil the kings and queens of Judah did? Have you forgotten about the evil you and your wives did? They did these things in Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>Even to this day the people of Judah are still too proud. They have not learned to respect me. And they have not followed my teachings. They have not obeyed the laws I gave you and your ancestors!

<sup>11</sup>“So this is what the Lord of heaven’s armies, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disasters on you. I will destroy the whole family of Judah. <sup>12</sup>There were a few left alive from Judah. They were determined to go to Egypt and settle there. But they will all die in Egypt. They will be killed in war or die from hunger. From the least important to the greatest, they will be killed in war or die from hunger. Other nations will speak evil about them. People will be shocked by what has happened to them. They will become a curse word. People will insult them. <sup>13</sup>I will punish those people who have gone to live in Egypt. I will use swords, hunger and terrible diseases to punish them. I will punish them just as I punished Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Of the people of Judah who were left alive and have gone to Egypt none will escape my punishment. They want to return to Judah and live there. But none of them will live to return to Judah. None of them will return to Judah, except a few people who escape.”

<sup>15</sup>A large group of the people of Judah, who lived in southern Egypt, were meeting together. Among them were many women of Judah who lived in Egypt. They were burning incense to other gods, and their husbands knew it. All these people said to Jeremiah, <sup>16</sup>“We will not listen to the message from the Lord that you spoke to us. <sup>17</sup>We promised to make sacrifices to the Queen Goddess! And we will do everything we promised. We will burn incense and pour out drink offerings to worship to her. We did that in the past. And our ancestors, kings and officers did that in the past. All of us did those things in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food. We were successful. Nothing bad happened to us. <sup>18</sup>But then we stopped making sacrifices to the Queen Goddess. And we stopped pouring out drink offerings to her. Since then we have had problems. Our people have been killed in war and by hunger.”

<sup>19</sup>The women said, “Our husbands knew what we were doing. We had their permission to burn incense to the Queen Goddess! We had their permission to pour out drink offerings to her. Our husbands knew we were making cakes that looked like her and that we poured out drink offerings to her.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people—men and women—who answered him. <sup>21</sup>He said to them, “The Lord remembered that you burned incense. You burned it in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. You and your ancestors, kings and officers did that. And the people of the land did that. The Lord remembered and thought about it. <sup>22</sup>Then he could not be patient with you any longer. He hated the terrible things you did. So he made your country an empty desert. No one lives there now. Other people curse that country. <sup>23</sup>All this happened because you burned incense to other gods. You sinned against the Lord. You did not obey him. You did not follow his teachings or the laws he gave you. You did not keep your part of the agreement. This disaster has happened. It is there for you to see.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all those men and also to the women. He said, “People of Judah who are now in Egypt, hear the word of the Lord: <sup>25</sup>The Lord of heaven’s armies, the God of Israel, says: You women did what you said you would do. You said, ‘We will keep the promises we made. We promised to make sacrifices to the Queen Goddess. And we promised to pour out drink offerings to her.’ So, go ahead. Do the things you promised you would do. Keep your promises. <sup>26</sup>But hear the word of the Lord. Listen, all you Jews living in Egypt. The Lord says, ‘I use my great name and make this promise: The people of Judah now living in Egypt will never again use my name to make promises. They will never again say, ‘As surely as the Lord God lives . . .’” <sup>27</sup>I am watching over them. I am not watching over them to take care of them, but to hurt them. The Jews who live in Egypt will die from swords or hunger until they are all destroyed. <sup>28</sup>Some people will escape being killed by the sword. They will come back to Judah from Egypt. But there will only be a very few who escape. Then, of the people of Judah who came to live in Egypt, those who are left alive will know. They will know whether my word or their word came true. <sup>29</sup>I will give you a sign that I will punish you here in Egypt,’ says the Lord. ‘Then you will know my promises to hurt you will really happen.’ <sup>30</sup>This is what the Lord says: ‘Hophra king of Egypt has enemies who want to kill him. I will hand over King Hophra to his enemies. I will do this just as I handed Zedekiah king of Judah over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar wanted to kill Zedekiah.'"

A Message to Baruch

45 It was the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah. Jeremiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> told these things to Baruch son of Neriah. And Baruch wrote them on a scroll. This is what Jeremiah said to Baruch: <sup>2</sup>"This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you: <sup>3</sup>Baruch, you have said, 'How terrible it is for me! The Lord has given me sorrow along with my pain. I am tired because of my suffering. I cannot rest.'"

<sup>4</sup>The Lord said, "Say this to Baruch: 'This is what the Lord says: I will tear down what I have built. And I will pull up what I have planted. I will do that everywhere in Judah. <sup>5</sup>Baruch, you are looking for great things for yourself. Don't do that! Don't look for them because I will bring disaster on all the people. The Lord says these things! You will have to go many places. But I will let you escape alive wherever you go.'"

Messages About the Nations

46 The Lord spoke this word to Jeremiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> about the nations:

<sup>2</sup>This message is about Egypt: This message is about the army of King Neco, king of Egypt. His army was defeated at the city of Carchemish on the Euphrates River. It was defeated by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. This was in the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah. This is the Lord's message to Egypt:

<sup>3</sup>"Prepare your shields, large and small.

March out for battle!

<sup>4</sup>Harness the horses.

Soldiers, get on your horses!

Go to your places for battle.

Put on your helmets!

Polish your spears.

Put on your armor!

<sup>5</sup>What do I see?

That army is terrified.

The soldiers are running away.

Their warriors are defeated.

They run away quickly.

They don't look back.

There is terror on every side!" says the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>"The fast runners cannot run away.

The strong soldiers cannot escape.

They will stumble and fall in the north, by the Euphrates River.

Who comes like that strong, fast river?

<sup>8</sup>Egypt rises up like the Nile River.

It is Egypt that comes like that strong, fast river.

Egypt says, 'I will rise up and cover the earth.

I will destroy cities and the people in them!'

<sup>9</sup>Horsemen, charge into battle!

Chariot drivers, drive hard!

March on, brave soldiers—soldiers from Cush and Put who carry shields.

March on, soldiers from Lydia who use bows.

<sup>10</sup>"But that day belongs to the Master, the Lord of heaven's armies.

At that time he will give those people the punishment they deserve.

The sword will kill until it is finished.

The sword will kill until it satisfies its thirst for blood.

This is because the Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, will offer a sacrifice.

That sacrifice is Egypt's army in the land of the north, by the Euphrates River.

<sup>11</sup>"Go to Gilead and get some balm."<sup>d</sup>

Go up, people of Egypt!

You will make up many medicines, but you will not be healed.

<sup>12</sup>The nations will hear of your shame.

Your cries will fill all the earth.

One warrior will run into another. And both of them will fall down together!"

<sup>13</sup>This is the message the Lord spoke to Jeremiah the prophet.<sup>d</sup> This message is about Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon as he came to attack Egypt:

<sup>14</sup>"Announce this message in Egypt, and prophesy it in Migdol.

Preach this message also in Memphis and Tahpanhes:

'Get ready for war.

The battle is all around you.'

<sup>15</sup>Egypt, why will your warriors be killed?

They cannot stand because the Lord will push them down.

<sup>16</sup>Those soldiers will stumble again and again.

They will fall over each other.

They will say, 'Get up. Let's go back to our own people and our homeland.

We must get away from our enemy's sword!"

<sup>17</sup>In their homelands those soldiers will say,
'The king of Egypt is only a lot of noise.
His time of glory is over!'"

<sup>18</sup>The King's name is the Lord of heaven's armies.

He says, "As surely as I live,
a powerful leader will come.
He will be strong as great Mount Tabor is higher than other mountains.

He will be mighty as Mount Carmel is higher than the sea.

<sup>19</sup>People of Egypt, pack your things to be taken away as captives.
This is because Memphis will be destroyed.
The cities will be ruins, and no one will live there.

<sup>20</sup>"Egypt is like a beautiful young cow.
But a horsefly is coming from the north to attack her.

<sup>21</sup>The hired soldiers in Egypt's army are like fat calves.
They will all turn and run away together.
They will not stand strong against the attack.

Their time of destruction is coming.
They will soon be punished.

<sup>22</sup>Egypt is like a hissing snake that is trying to escape.
The enemy comes closer and closer.
They will come against Egypt with axes.
They are like men who cut down trees.

<sup>23</sup>They will chop down Egypt's army as if it were a great forest," says the Lord.

"There are more enemy soldiers than locusts."<sup>a</sup>
There are too many soldiers to count.

<sup>24</sup>The people of Egypt will be ashamed.
They will be handed over to the enemy from the north."

<sup>25</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says: "Very soon I will punish Amon, the god of Thebes. And I will punish Egypt, her king and her gods. And I will punish the people who depend on the king. <sup>26</sup>I will let all those people be defeated by their enemies. And those enemies want to kill them. I will give them to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. But in the future, Egypt will live in peace as it once did," says the Lord.

A Message to Israel

<sup>27</sup>"People of Jacob, my servants, don't be afraid.

Don't be frightened, Israel.
I will surely save you from those faraway
places.

I will save your children from the lands where they are captives.

The people of Jacob will have peace and safety again.

And no one will make them afraid.

<sup>28</sup>People of Jacob, my servants, do not be afraid.

I am with you," says the Lord.

"I scattered you to many different nations.
And I will completely destroy all those
nations.

But I will not completely destroy you.

I will punish you fairly.

But I cannot let you escape your punishment."

A Message About the Philistines

47 The Lord spoke his word to Jeremiah the prophet.<sup>d</sup> This message is about the Philistine people. It came before the king of Egypt attacked the city of Gaza.

<sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"See, the enemy is gathering in the north like rising waters.

They will become like an overflowing stream.

They will cover the whole country like a flood.

They will cover the towns and the people living in them.

Everyone living in that country will cry for help.

The people will cry painfully.

<sup>3</sup>They will hear the sound of the running horses.

They will hear the noisy chariots.

They will hear the rumbling chariot wheels.

Fathers will not help their children to safety.

Those fathers will be too weak to help.

<sup>4</sup>The time has come to destroy all the Philistines.

It's time to destroy all who are left alive who could help Tyre and Sidon.

The Lord will soon destroy the Philistines.

He will destroy those left alive from the island of Crete.

<sup>5</sup>The people from Gaza will be sad and shave their heads.
The people from Ashkelon will be made silent.
Those left alive from the valley,
how long will you cut yourselves?<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>“You cry, ‘Sword of the Lord, how long will you keep fighting?
Return to your holder.
Stop! Be still.’

<sup>7</sup>But how can the sword of the Lord rest?
The Lord gave it a command.
The Lord has ordered it to attack the city of Ashkelon and the seacoast.”

A Message About Moab

48 This message is about the country of Moab. This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies, the God of Israel, says:

“How terrible it will be for Nebo.
It will be ruined.
The town of Kiriathaim will be disgraced and captured.
The strong city will be disgraced and shattered.

<sup>2</sup>Moab will not be praised again.
Men in the town of Heshbon plan Moab’s defeat.
They say, ‘Come, let us put an end to that nation!’
Town of Madmen, you will also be silenced.
The sword will chase you.

<sup>3</sup>Listen to the cries from the town of Horonaim.
They are cries of much confusion and destruction.

<sup>4</sup>Moab will be broken up.
Her little children will cry for help.

<sup>5</sup>Moab’s people go up the path to Luhith.
They cry loudly as they go.
On the road down to the town of Horonaim, cries of pain and suffering can be heard.

<sup>6</sup>Run! Run for your lives!
Go like a bush being blown through the desert.

<sup>7</sup>You trust in the things you do and in your wealth.
So you also will be captured.
The god Chemosh<sup>d</sup> will be taken into captivity.

And his priests and officers will be taken with him.

<sup>8</sup>The destroyer will come against every town.
Not one town will escape.
The valley will be ruined.
The high plain will be destroyed.
The Lord said this would happen.

<sup>9</sup>Spread salt<sup>a</sup> over the fields in Moab.
The country will be an empty desert.
Moab’s towns will become empty.
No one will live in them.

<sup>10</sup>A curse will be on anyone who doesn’t do what the Lord says.
A curse will be on anyone who keeps back his sword from killing.

<sup>11</sup>“The people of Moab have never known trouble.
They are like wine left to settle.
They have never been poured like wine from one jar to another.
They have not been taken into captivity.
So they taste as they did before.
And their smell has not changed.

<sup>12</sup>A time is coming,” says the Lord.
“And I will soon send men to pour you from your jars.
Those men will empty Moab’s jars.
And they will smash their jugs.

<sup>13</sup>The people of Israel trusted that god in Bethel.
They were ashamed when there was no help.
In the same way Moab will be ashamed of their god Chemosh.

<sup>14</sup>“You cannot say, ‘We are warriors!
We are brave men in battle!’

<sup>15</sup>The enemy will attack Moab and destroy their towns.
Their best young men will be killed!” says the King.
The King’s name is the Lord of heaven’s armies.

<sup>16</sup>“The end of Moab is near.
They will soon be destroyed.

<sup>17</sup>All you who live around Moab, cry for her.
All you who know about her, cry for her.
Say, ‘The ruler’s power is broken.
Moab’s power and glory are gone.’

<sup>18</sup>“You people living in Dibon, come down from your place of honor.
Sit on the dry ground.

<sup>a</sup>sad and . . . yourselves? The people did these things to show their sadness.

<sup>a</sup>salt The salt would keep crops from growing there.

- This is because the destroyer of Moab is coming against you.
And he will destroy your strong, walled cities.
- <sup>19</sup>You people living in Aroer, stand next to the road and watch.
See the man running away and the woman escaping.
Ask them what happened.
- <sup>20</sup>Moab will be ruined and filled with shame.
Cry, Moab, cry out!
Announce at the Arnon River that Moab is destroyed.
- <sup>21</sup>People on the high plain have been punished.
Judgment has come to these towns:
Holon, Jahzah and Mephaath;
<sup>22</sup> Dibon, Nebo and Beth Diblathaim;
<sup>23</sup> Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul and Beth Meon; <sup>24</sup> Keriioth and Bozrah.
Judgment has come to all the towns of Moab, far and near.
- <sup>25</sup>Moab's strength has been cut off.
Moab's arm is broken!" says the Lord.
- <sup>26</sup>"The people of Moab thought they were greater than the Lord.
So punish Moab until they act as if they are drunk.
Moab will fall and roll around in their own vomit.
People will make fun of them.
- <sup>27</sup>Moab, you made fun of Israel.
Israel was caught in the middle of a gang of thieves.
You often spoke about Israel.
And you shook your head and acted as if you were better than Israel.
- <sup>28</sup>People in Moab, leave your towns empty.
Go live among the rocks.
Be like a dove that makes its nest at the entrance of a cave!
- <sup>29</sup>"We have heard that the people of Moab are proud and very conceited.
They are proud and think they are important.
They were very proud in their hearts."
- <sup>30</sup>The Lord says,
"I know Moab's quick anger, but it is useless.
Moab's bragging accomplishes nothing.
- <sup>31</sup>So I cry sadly for Moab.
- I cry out for everyone in Moab.
I moan for the men from Kir Hareseth.
- <sup>32</sup>I cry with the people of Jazer for the grapevines of Sibmah.
In the past your vines spread all the way to the sea.
They reached as far as the sea of Jazer.
But the destroyer has taken your fruit and grapes.
- <sup>33</sup>Joy and happiness are gone from the large fields of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine from the winepresses.<sup>d</sup>
No one walks on the grapes with shouts of joy.
There are shouts, but not shouts of joy.
- <sup>34</sup>"Their crying can be heard from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz.
It can be heard from Zoar as far away as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah.
Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.
- <sup>35</sup>I will stop Moab from making burnt offerings at the places of worship.
I will stop them from burning incense<sup>d</sup> to their gods," says the Lord.
- <sup>36</sup>"My heart cries for Moab like a flute playing a funeral song.
It cries for the people from Kir Hareseth.
Their money and riches have all been taken away.
- <sup>37</sup>Everyone has a shaved head.
Everyone's beard is cut off.
Everyone's hands are cut.
Everyone wears rough cloth around his waist.<sup>n</sup>
- <sup>38</sup>People are crying on every roof<sup>n</sup> in Moab and in every public square.
There is nothing but sadness because I have broken Moab like a jar no one wants," says the Lord.
- <sup>39</sup>"Moab is shattered! The people are crying! Moab turns away in shame!
People all around her make fun of her.
The things that happened fill them with fear."
- <sup>40</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"Look! An eagle is diving down from the sky.
It spreads its wings over Moab.
- <sup>41</sup>The towns of Moab will be captured.

<sup>d</sup>shaved head . . . waist The people did these things to show their sadness for those who had died.

<sup>n</sup>roof In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

The strong, walled cities will be defeated.
At that time Moab's warriors will be frightened.

They will feel pain like a woman who is having a baby.

<sup>42</sup>The nation of Moab will be destroyed.
This is because they thought they were greater than the Lord.

<sup>43</sup>Fear, deep pits and traps wait for you, people of Moab," says the Lord.

<sup>44</sup>"People will run from fear.
But they will fall into the pits.
Anyone who climbs out of the pits will be caught in the traps.
I will bring the year of punishment to Moab," says the Lord.

<sup>45</sup>"People have run from the powerful enemy.

They ran to Heshbon for safety.
But fire started in Heshbon.
A blaze broke out in Sihon's town.
And it burns the leaders of Moab.
It destroys those proud people.

<sup>46</sup>How terrible it will be for you, Moab!
Chemosh's people are being destroyed.
Your sons and daughters are being taken away as captives.

<sup>47</sup>"But in days to come,
I will make good things happen again to Moab," says the Lord.

This ends the judgment on Moab.

A Message About Ammon

49 This message is about the Ammonite people. This is what the Lord says:

"Do you think that Israel has no sons?
Do you think there is no one to take the land when the parents die?

Maybe that is why Molech<sup>d</sup> took Gad's land.

Maybe that is why Molech's people live in Gad's towns."

"The time will come when I will make the city of Rabbah of Ammon hear the battle cry.

It will be a hill covered with ruins.
And the towns around it will be burned.
Those people forced Israel out of that land.
But now the people of Israel will force them out!" says the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>"People in Heshbon, cry because the town of Ai is destroyed!
Those who live in Rabbah, cry out!

Put on your rough cloth to show your sadness, and cry loudly.

Run here and there for safety inside the walls.

This is because the enemy will take Molech away as a captive.

They will also take away his priests and officers with him.

<sup>4</sup>You brag about your valleys.
You brag about the fruit in your valleys.
You are like an unfaithful child.
You believe your treasures will save you.
You think, "Who would attack me?"

<sup>5</sup>I will bring terror on you from every side," says the Master, the Lord of heaven's armies.

"You will all be forced away.
No one will be able to gather you.

<sup>6</sup>"But the time will come when I will make good things happen to the Ammonites again," says the Lord.

A Message About Edom

<sup>7</sup>This message is about Edom. This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says:

"Is there no more wisdom in Teman?
Can the wise men of Edom no longer give good advice?
Have they lost their wisdom?

<sup>8</sup>You people living in Dedan, run away and hide in deep caves.
This is because I will punish the people of Esau with disaster for what they did.

<sup>9</sup>If workers came and picked the grapes from your vines, they would leave a few grapes behind.
If robbers came at night, they would steal only enough for themselves.

<sup>10</sup>But I will strip Esau bare.
I will find all their hiding places.
They will not be able to hide from me.
The children, relatives and neighbors will die.

<sup>11</sup>Leave the orphans, and I will take care of them.
Your widows also can trust in me."

<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord says: "Some people did not deserve to be punished. But they had to drink from the cup of suffering anyway. People of Edom, you deserve to be punished. So you will not escape punishment. You must drink from the cup of suffering." <sup>13</sup>The Lord says, "I make this promise in my own name. The city of Bozrah will become a pile of ruins! People will be shocked by what happened there. People will insult that city and speak evil of it. And all the towns around Bozrah will become ruins forever."

<sup>14</sup>I have heard a message from the Lord.
A messenger has been sent among the nations, saying,
"Gather your armies to attack it!
Get ready for battle!"

<sup>15</sup>"Soon I will make you the smallest of nations!
You will be greatly hated.
<sup>16</sup>Edom, you frightened other nations.
Your pride has fooled you.
You live in the hollow places of the cliff.
You live on the high places of the hills.
Even if you build your home as high as an eagle's nest,
I will bring you down from there!" says the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>"Edom will be destroyed.
People will be shocked to see the destroyed cities.
They will be amazed at the injuries.
<sup>18</sup>Edom will be destroyed like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and the towns around them," says the Lord.
"No one will live there!
No man will stay in Edom."

<sup>19</sup>"A lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River.
And it will go into the rich pastures where people feed their flocks.
I am like that lion! I will suddenly chase Edom from their land.
Who is the one I have chosen to do this?
There is no one like me.
There is no one who can challenge me.
None of their leaders can stand up against me."

<sup>20</sup>So listen to what the Lord has planned to do against Edom.
Listen to what he has decided to do to the people in Teman.
The Lord will surely drag away the young ones of Edom.
Edom's pastures will surely be destroyed because of them.

<sup>21</sup>At the sound of Edom's fall, the earth will shake.

Their cry will be heard all the way to the Gulf of Aqaba.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord is like an eagle swooping down.
He is like an eagle spreading its wings over the city of Bozrah.
At that time Edom's soldiers will become very frightened.
They will be crying from fear like a woman having a baby.

A Message About Damascus

<sup>23</sup>This message is about the city of Damascus:

"The towns of Hamath and Arpad are put to shame.
They are afraid because they have heard bad news.
They are discouraged.

They are troubled like the tossing sea.
<sup>24</sup>The city of Damascus has become weak.
The people want to run away.
The people are ready to panic.
The people feel pain and suffering like a woman having a baby.
<sup>25</sup>Damascus was a city of my joy.
Why have the people not left that famous city yet?
<sup>26</sup>Surely the young men will die in the public squares of that city.
All of her soldiers will be killed at that time," says the Lord of heaven's armies.
<sup>27</sup>"I will set fire to the walls of Damascus.
The fire will completely burn the strong cities of Ben-Hadad."

A Message About Kedar and Hazor

<sup>28</sup>This message is about the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated them. This is what the Lord says:

"Go and attack the people of Kedar.
Destroy the people of the East.
<sup>29</sup>Their tents and flocks will be taken away.
Their tents and all their things will be carried off.
Their enemy will take away their goods and camels.
Men will shout to them,
'Terror on every side!'

<sup>30</sup>"Run away quickly!
People in Hazor, find a good place to hide!" says the Lord.
"Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has made plans against you.
He has made plans to defeat you!"

- <sup>31</sup>“There is a nation that is comfortable.
It is sure that no one will defeat it,” says
the Lord.
“That nation does not have gates or fences to protect it.
Its people live alone.
Attack that nation!”
<sup>32</sup>The enemy will steal their camels and their large herds of cattle.
I will scatter the Arabs to every part of the earth.
And I will bring disaster on them from everywhere,” says the Lord.
<sup>33</sup>“Hazor will become a place where wild dogs live.
It will become an empty desert forever.
No one will live there.
No man will stay in it.”

A Message About Elam

- <sup>34</sup>It was early in the time when Zedekiah was king of Judah. The Lord spoke this word to Jeremiah the prophet.<sup>d</sup> This message is about the nation of Elam.
<sup>35</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies
says:
“I will break Elam’s bow.
I will break its strength.
<sup>36</sup>I will bring the four winds against Elam.
I will bring them from the four corners of the skies.
I will scatter the people of Elam everywhere the four winds blow.
And its captives will go to every nation.
<sup>37</sup>I will break Elam to pieces in front of their enemies.
The enemies want to destroy Elam.
I will bring disaster to Elam.
I will show them how angry I am!” says
the Lord.
“I will send a sword to chase Elam.
It will chase them until I have killed them all.
<sup>38</sup>I will show Elam that I am king.
And I will destroy her king and her officers!” says the Lord.
<sup>39</sup>“But I will make good things happen to Elam again
in the future,” says the Lord.

A Message About Babylon

- 50 This is the message the Lord spoke about Babylon and the Babylonian people. He spoke this message through Jeremiah the prophet.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>“Announce this to the nations.

- Lift up a banner and tell them.
Speak the whole message and say:
‘Babylon will be captured.
The god Bel<sup>d</sup> will be put to shame.
The god Marduk<sup>d</sup> will be very afraid.
Babylon’s idols will be put to shame.
Her idols will be filled with terror!’
<sup>3</sup>A nation from the north will attack
Babylon.
That nation will make Babylon like an empty desert.
No people will live there.
Both men and animals will run away from there.”
<sup>4</sup>The Lord says, “At that time the people of Israel and Judah will be together.
They will cry and look for the Lord their
God.
<sup>5</sup>Those people will ask how to go to Jerusalem.
They will start to go in that direction.
They will come and join themselves to the Lord.
They will make an agreement that will last forever.
It will be an agreement that will never be forgotten.
<sup>6</sup>“My people have been like lost sheep.
Their leaders have led them in the wrong
way.
Their leaders made them wander around in the mountains and hills.
They forgot where their resting place
was.
<sup>7</sup>Whoever found my people hurt them.
And those enemies said, ‘We did nothing wrong.
Those people sinned against the Lord, their true resting place.
He was the God their fathers trusted.’
<sup>8</sup>“Run away from Babylon.
Leave the land of the Babylonians.
Be like the goats that lead the flock.
<sup>9</sup>I will bring against Babylon many nations from the north.
This group of nations will take their places for war against Babylon.
Babylon will be captured by people from
the north.
Their arrows are like trained soldiers who do not return from war with empty
hands.
<sup>10</sup>The enemy will take all the wealth from the Babylonians.

- Those enemy soldiers will get all they want!" says the Lord.
- <sup>11</sup>"Babylon, you are excited and happy. You took my land. You dance around like a young cow in the grain. Your laughter is like the neighing of male horses.
- <sup>12</sup>Your mother will be very ashamed. The woman who gave you birth will be disgraced. Babylonia will be the least important of all the nations. She will be an empty, dry desert.
- <sup>13</sup>The Lord will show his anger. No people will live there. Babylon will be completely empty. Everyone who passes by Babylon will be afraid. They will shake their heads when they see how it has been destroyed.
- <sup>14</sup>"Take your positions for war against Babylon, all you soldiers with bows. Shoot your arrows at Babylon! Do not save any of them. This is because Babylon has sinned against the Lord.
- <sup>15</sup>Soldiers around Babylon, shout the war cry! Babylon has surrendered. Her towers have fallen. Her walls have been torn down. The Lord is giving them the punishment they deserve. You nations should give Babylon what she deserves. Do to her what she has done to others.
- <sup>16</sup>Don't let the people from Babylon plant their crops. Don't let them gather the harvest. The soldiers of Babylon treated their captives cruelly. Now, let everyone go back home! Let everyone run to his own country.
- <sup>17</sup>"The people of Israel are like a flock of sheep that are scattered. They are like sheep that have been chased away by lions. The first lion to eat them up was the king of Assyria. The last lion to crush their bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon."
- <sup>18</sup>So this is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says:
- "I will punish the king of Babylon and his country. I will punish him as I punished the king of Assyria.
- <sup>19</sup>But I will bring the people of Israel back to their own pasture. They will eat on Mount Carmel and in Bashan. They will eat and be full. They will eat on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead."
- <sup>20</sup>The Lord says, "At that time people will try to find Israel's guilt. But there will be no guilt. People will try to find Judah's sins. But no sins will be found. This is because I am saving the few people left alive from Israel and Judah. And I am forgiving their sins.
- <sup>21</sup>"Attack the land of Merathaim. Attack the people who live in Pekod. Chase them, kill them and completely destroy them. Do everything I commanded you!" says the Lord.
- <sup>22</sup>"The noise of battle can be heard all over the country. It is the noise of much destruction.
- <sup>23</sup>Babylon was the hammer of the whole earth. But how broken and shattered that hammer is now! Babylon is truly the most ruined of all the nations.
- <sup>24</sup>Babylon, I set a trap for you. And you were caught before you knew it. You fought against the Lord. So you were found and taken prisoner.
- <sup>25</sup>The Lord has opened up his storeroom. He has brought out the weapons of his anger. This is because the Lord God of heaven's armies has work to do. He has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.
- <sup>26</sup>Come against Babylon from far away. Break open her storehouses of grain. Pile up her dead bodies like big piles of grain. Completely destroy Babylon and do not leave anyone alive.
- <sup>27</sup>Kill all the young men in Babylon. Let them be killed. The time has come for their defeat.

How terrible it will be for them!
 It is time for them to be punished.

<sup>28</sup>Listen to the people running from the country of Babylon!
 They are telling Jerusalem
 how the Lord our God is punishing Babylon as it deserves.
 This is because Babylon destroyed his Temple.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>29</sup>“Call for the men who shoot arrows to come against Babylon.
 Tell them to surround the city.
 Don't let anyone escape.
 Pay her back for the bad things she has done.
 Do to her what she has done to other
 nations.
 Babylon acted with pride against the Lord,
 the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>So Babylon's young men will be killed in the streets.
 All her soldiers will die on that day,”
 says the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>“Babylon, you are too proud. And I am against you,” says the Master, the Lord of heaven's
 armies.
 “This is because the time has come for you to be punished.

<sup>32</sup>Proud Babylon will stumble and fall.
 And no one will help her get up.
 I will start a fire in her towns.
 It will completely burn up everything around her.”

<sup>33</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies
 says:
 “The people of Israel and Judah both are slaves.
 The enemy took them as prisoners.
 And they won't let them go.

<sup>34</sup>But God is strong and will buy them back.
 His name is the Lord of heaven's armies.
 He will defend them with power
 so he can give rest to their land.
 But he will not give rest to those living in Babylon.”

<sup>35</sup>The Lord says,
 “Let a sword kill the people living in Babylon!
 Let a sword kill its officers and wise men!

<sup>36</sup>Let a sword kill its false prophets!<sup>d</sup>
 They will become fools.
 Let a sword kill Babylon's warriors!
 They will be full of terror.

<sup>37</sup>Let a sword kill its horses and chariots.
 Let a sword kill all the soldiers hired from other countries!
 They will be like frightened women.
 Let there be a sword against Babylon's treasures!
 They will be taken away.

<sup>38</sup>Let there be a sword against its waters!
 They will be dried up.
 It is a land of idols.
 Those idols will go crazy with fear.

<sup>39</sup>“Babylon will never be filled with people
 again.
 Desert animals and hyenas will live there.
 Owls will live there.
 But no people will live there ever again.

<sup>40</sup>God completely destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and the towns around them,” says the
 Lord.
 “In the same way no people will live in Babylon.
 No man will stay there.

<sup>41</sup>“Look! An army is coming from the north.
 It comes from a powerful nation.
 Many kings are coming together from all around the world.

<sup>42</sup>Their armies have bows and spears.
 The soldiers are cruel and have no mercy.
 The soldiers come riding on their horses.
 And the sound is loud like the roaring
 sea.
 They stand in their places, ready for battle.
 They are ready to attack you, city of Babylon.

<sup>43</sup>The king of Babylon heard about those armies.
 And he became helpless because of his fear.
 His fear is like pain.
 It is like the pain of a woman having a baby.

<sup>44</sup>“A lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River.
 It will go into the rich pastures where people feed their flocks.
 I am like that lion! I will suddenly chase the people of Babylon from their
 land.
 Who is the one I have chosen to do this?
 There is no one like me.
 There is no one who can challenge me.
 None of their leaders can stand up against me.”

<sup>45</sup>So listen to what the Lord has planned to do against Babylon.

Listen to what he has decided to do to the people in Babylon.
He will surely drag away the young ones of Babylon.

Babylon's pastures will be destroyed because of them.

<sup>46</sup>At the sound of Babylon's fall, the earth will shake.

People in all nations will hear about their destruction.

51 This is what the Lord says:
"I will cause a destroying wind to blow.

It will blow against Babylon and the Babylonian people.

<sup>2</sup>I will send foreign people to destroy Babylon like a wind that blows chaff<sup>d</sup> away.

Those people will make Babylon empty.
Armies will surround the city when disaster comes upon her.

<sup>3</sup>The Babylonian soldiers will not use their bows and arrows.

Those soldiers will not even put on their armor.

Don't feel sorry for the young men of Babylon.

Completely destroy her army.

<sup>4</sup>Babylon's soldiers will be killed in Babylon.
They will be badly injured in Babylon's streets.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord God of heaven's armies did not leave Israel and Judah alone.
They are fully guilty of leaving the Holy One of Israel.
But he has not left them.

Run to save your lives!
Don't stay and be killed because of Babylon's sins.

It is time for the Lord to punish Babylon.
Babylon will get the punishment it deserves.

<sup>7</sup>Babylon was like a gold cup in the Lord's hand.

It made the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank Babylon's wine.
So they went crazy.

<sup>8</sup>Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken.
Cry for her!

Get balm<sup>d</sup> for her pain.
Maybe she can be healed.

<sup>9</sup>"Foreigners in Babylon say, 'We tried to heal Babylon.

But she cannot be healed.

So let us leave her and each go to his own country.

Babylon's guilt is as high as the clouds.
Babylon's guilt reaches to the sky.'

<sup>10</sup>"The people of Judah say, 'The Lord has shown us to be right.

Come, let us tell about it in Jerusalem.
Let us tell about what the Lord our God has done.'

<sup>11</sup>"Sharpen the arrows.

Pick up your shields!

The Lord has stirred up the kings of the Medes.

He has stirred them up because he wants to destroy Babylon.

The Lord will give the people of Babylon the punishment they deserve.

This is because Babylon destroyed his Temple<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem.

Bring more guards.

Put the watchmen in their places.

Get ready for a secret attack!

The Lord will do what he has planned.

He will do what he said he would do against the people of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>People of Babylon, you live near much water.

You are rich with treasures.

But your end as a nation has come.

It is time for you to be destroyed.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies has promised in his own name:

'Babylon, I will surely fill you with so many enemy soldiers they will be like a swarm of locusts.<sup>d</sup>

They will stand over you and shout their victory.'

<sup>15</sup>"The Lord made the earth by his power.

He used his wisdom to build the world.

He used his understanding to stretch out the skies.

<sup>16</sup>When he thunders, the waters in the skies roar.

He makes clouds rise in the sky all over the earth.

He sends lightning with the rain.

He brings out the wind from his storehouses.

<sup>17</sup>"People are so stupid and know so little.
Goldsmiths are made ashamed by their idols.

Those statues are only false gods.

They have no breath in them.
<sup>18</sup>They are worth nothing.
 People make fun of them.
 When they are judged, they will be destroyed.
<sup>19</sup>But God, who is Jacob's Portion,<sup>d</sup> is not like the idols.
 God made everything.
 And he made Israel to be his special people.
 The Lord of heaven's armies is his name.
<sup>20</sup>"You are my war club.
 You are my battle weapon.
 I use you to smash nations.
 I use you to destroy kingdoms.
<sup>21</sup>I use you to smash horse and rider.
 I use you to smash chariot and driver.
<sup>22</sup>I use you to smash men and women.
 I use you to smash old men and young men.
 I use you to smash young men and young women.
<sup>23</sup>I use you to smash shepherds and flocks.
 I use you to smash farmers and oxen.
 I use you to smash governors and officers.
<sup>24</sup>"But I will pay Babylon back, and I will pay back all the Babylonians for all the evil things they did to Jerusalem," says the Lord.
<sup>25</sup>The Lord says,
 "Babylon, you are a destroying mountain.
 And I am against you.
 You have destroyed the whole land.
 I will put my hand out against you.
 I will roll you off the cliffs.
 I will make you a burned-out mountain.
<sup>26</sup>People will not find any rocks in Babylon big enough for cornerstones.<sup>e</sup>
 People will not take any rocks from Babylon to use for the foundation of a building.
 This is because your city will be just a pile of ruins forever," says the Lord.
<sup>27</sup>"Lift up the banner in the land!
 Blow the trumpet among the nations!
 Get the nations ready for battle against Babylon.
 Call these kingdoms to come fight against Babylon:
 Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz.
 Choose a commander to lead the army against Babylon.
 Send so many horses that they are like a swarm of locusts.

<sup>28</sup>Get the nations ready for battle against Babylon.
 Get the kings of the Medes ready.
 Get their governors and all their officers ready.
 Get all the countries they rule ready for battle against Babylon.
<sup>29</sup>The land shakes and moves like it is in pain.
 It will shake when the Lord does what he planned to Babylon.
 His plan is to make Babylon into an empty desert.
 No one will live there.
<sup>30</sup>Babylon's warriors have stopped fighting.
 They stay in their protected cities.
 Their strength is gone.
 They have become like frightened women.
 Babylon's houses are burning.
 The bars of her gates are broken.
<sup>31</sup>One messenger follows another.
 Messenger follows messenger.
 They announce to the king of Babylon that his whole city has been captured.
<sup>32</sup>The river crossings have been captured.
 The swamplands are burning.
 All of Babylon's soldiers are terribly afraid.<sup>f</sup> <sup>33</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says:
 "The city of Babylon is like a threshing<sup>g</sup> floor, where people crush the grain at harvest time.
 The time to harvest Babylon is coming soon."
<sup>34</sup>"Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has destroyed us.
 In the past he took our people away.
 And we became like an empty jar.
 He was like a giant snake that swallowed us.
 He ate everything until he was full of our best things.
 Then he spit us out.
<sup>35</sup>Babylon did terrible things to hurt us.
 Now let those things happen to Babylon," say the people of Jerusalem.
 "The people of Babylon are guilty of killing our people.
 Now let them be punished for the evil they did," says Jerusalem.
<sup>36</sup>So this is what the Lord says:

"I will defend you, Judah.
I will make sure that Babylon is punished.
I will dry up Babylon's sea.
And I will make her springs become dry.
37Babylon will become a pile of ruins.
Wild dogs will live there.
People will be shocked by what happened there.
No one lives there anymore.
38Babylon's people are like roaring young lions.
They growl like baby lions.
39While they are stirred up,
I will give a feast for them.
I will make them drunk.
They will shout and laugh.
And they will sleep forever and never wake up!" says the Lord.
40"I will take the people of Babylon to be killed.
They will be like lambs,
like male sheep and goats waiting to be killed.
41"How Babylon will be defeated!
The pride of the whole earth will be taken captive.
People from other nations will be shocked at what happened to Babylon.
And the things they see will make them afraid.
42The sea will rise over Babylon.
Its roaring waves will cover her.
43Babylon's towns will be ruined and empty.
Babylon will become a dry, desert land.
It will become a land where no one lives.
People will not even travel through Babylon.
44I will punish the god Bel<sup>d</sup> in Babylon.
I will make him spit out what he has swallowed.
Nations will no longer come to Babylon.
And the wall around the city will fall.
45"Come out of Babylon, my people!
Run for your lives!
Run from the Lord's great anger.
46Don't lose courage.
Rumors will spread, but don't be afraid.
One rumor comes this year, and another comes the next year.
There will be rumors of terrible fighting in the country.
There will be rumors of rulers fighting against rulers.
47The time will surely come when I will punish the idols of Babylon.

And the whole land will be disgraced.
There will be many dead people lying all around.
48Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout for joy about Babylon.
They will shout because the army came from the north and fought against Babylon," says the Lord.
49"49Babylon killed people from Israel.
Babylon killed people from everywhere on earth.
So Babylon must fall.
50You people escaped being killed with swords.
You must hurry and leave Babylon.
Don't wait!
Remember the Lord in the faraway land where you are.
And think about Jerusalem."
51"41We people of Judah are disgraced.
We have been insulted.
We have been shamed.
This is because strangers have gone into the holy places of the Lord's Temple!"
52The Lord says, "The time is coming when I will punish the idols of Babylon.
Wounded people will cry with pain all over that land.
53Babylon might grow until she touches the sky.
She might make her cities strong.
But I will send people to destroy that city," says the Lord.
54"44We can hear people crying in Babylon.
We hear the sound of people destroying things in the land of the Babylonians.
55The Lord will destroy Babylon.
He will make the loud sounds of the city become silent.
Enemies will come roaring in like ocean waves.
People all around will hear that roar.
56The army will come and destroy Babylon.
Babylon's soldiers will be taken captive.
Their bows will be broken.
This is because the Lord is a God who punishes people for the evil they do.
He gives them the full punishment they deserve.
57I will make Babylon's rulers and wise men drunk.

I will make her governors, officers and soldiers drunk, too.

Then they will sleep forever and never wake up," says the King.

His name is the Lord of heaven's armies.

"Babylon's thick wall will be pulled down.

Her high gates will be burned.

The people will work hard, but it won't help.

Their work will only become fuel for the flames!"

A Message to Babylon

<sup>59</sup>This is the message that Jeremiah the prophet<sup>4</sup> gave to the officer Seraiah. Seraiah was the son of Neriah, who was the son of Mahseiah. Seraiah went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah. This happened in the fourth year Zedekiah was king of Judah. <sup>60</sup>Jeremiah had written on a scroll all the terrible things that would happen to Babylon. He had written all these words about Babylon. <sup>61</sup>Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "Go to Babylon. Be sure to read this message so all the people can hear you. <sup>62</sup>Then say, 'Lord, you have said that you will destroy this place. You will destroy it so that no people or animals will live in it. It will be an empty ruin forever.' <sup>63</sup>After you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it. And throw it into the Euphrates River. <sup>64</sup>Then say, 'In the same way Babylon will sink. It will not rise again. It will sink because of the terrible things I will make happen here. Her people will fall.'" "

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king. And he was king in Jerusalem for 11 years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah. <sup>a</sup> She was from Libnah. <sup>2</sup>Zedekiah did what the Lord said was wrong, just as Jehoiakim had done. <sup>3</sup>All this happened in Jerusalem and Judah because the Lord was angry with them. Finally, he threw them out of his presence.

Zedekiah turned against the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. They made a camp around the city. Then they built devices all around the city walls to attack it. This happened during Zedekiah's ninth year, tenth month and tenth day as king.

<sup>5</sup>The city was under attack until Zedekiah's eleventh year as king.

<sup>6</sup>By the ninth day of the fourth month, the hunger was terrible in the city. There was no food for the people to eat. <sup>7</sup>Then the city wall was broken through. And the whole army ran away at night. They went through the gate between the two walls by the king's garden. The Babylonians were still surrounding the city. Zedekiah and his men ran toward the Jordan Valley.

<sup>8</sup>But the Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah. They caught up with him in the plains of Jericho. All of his army was scattered from him. <sup>9</sup>So they captured Zedekiah and took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah. Riblah is in the land of Hamath. There he passed sentence on Zedekiah <sup>10</sup>There at Riblah the king of Babylon killed Zedekiah's sons as he watched. The king also killed all the officers of Judah. <sup>11</sup>Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes. He put bronze chains on him and took him to Babylon. And the king kept Zedekiah in prison there until the day he died.

<sup>12</sup>Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king's special guards. This servant of the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem. This was on the tenth day of the fifth month. This was in Nebuchadnezzar's nineteenth year as king of Babylon. <sup>13</sup>Nebuzaradan set fire to the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and the palace. He also set fire to all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building was burned. <sup>14</sup>The whole Babylonian army broke down the walls around Jerusalem. That army was led by the commander of the king's special guards. <sup>15</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, took captive some of the poorest people. And he took those who were left in Jerusalem. He took captive those who had surrendered to the king of Babylon. And he took away the skilled craftsmen who were left in Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>But Nebuzaradan left behind the rest of the poorest people of the land. They were to take care of the vineyards and fields.

<sup>17</sup>The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the bronze stands and the large bronze bowl, which was called the Sea. These were in the Temple of the Lord. Then they carried all the bronze to Babylon. <sup>18</sup>They also took the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, bowls, dishes and all the bronze objects. They were used to serve in the Temple. <sup>19</sup>The commander of the king's special guards took these things away: bowls, pans for carrying hot coals and large bowls; pots, lampstands, pans and bowls used for drink offerings. He took everything that was made of pure gold or silver.

<sup>20</sup>There was so much bronze that it could not be weighed. There were two pillars. There was the large bronze bowl with the 12 bronze bulls under it. And there were the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the Temple of the Lord.

<sup>24</sup>The commander of the guards took some prisoners. He took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three doorkeepers. <sup>25</sup>The commander also took other people who were still in the city. He took the officer in charge of the fighting men. He also took seven people who advised the king. He also took the royal assistant who selected people for the army. And he took 60 other men who were in the city. <sup>26</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander, took all these people. And he brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>27</sup>There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them killed.

So the people of Judah were led away from their country as captives. <sup>28</sup>This is how many people Nebuchadnezzar took away as captives: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews; <sup>29</sup>in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year, 832 people from Jerusalem; <sup>30</sup>in Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan took 745 Jews as captives. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king's special guards.

In all 4,600 people were taken captive.

Jehoiachin Is Set Free

<sup>31</sup>Jehoiachin king of Judah was in prison in Babylon for 37 years. That year Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon. He let Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison that year. He set Jehoiachin free on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month. <sup>32</sup>Evil-Merodach spoke kindly to Jehoiachin. He gave Jehoiachin a seat of honor. It was above the seats of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>33</sup>So Jehoiachin put away his prison clothes. For the rest of his life, he ate at the king's table. <sup>34</sup>Every day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin an allowance. This lasted as long as he lived, until Jehoiachin died.

Sad Songs About Jerusalem

Jerusalem Cries over Her Destruction

1 Jerusalem once was full of people.
But now the city is empty.
Jerusalem once was a great city among the nations.

But now she<sup>a</sup> has become like a widow.
She was like a queen of all the other cities.
But now she is a slave.

<sup>2</sup>She cries loudly at night.
Tears are on her cheeks.
There is no one to comfort her.
All her lovers are gone.
All her friends have turned against her.
They have become her enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Judah has gone into captivity.
She has suffered and worked hard.
She lives among other nations.
But she has found no rest.
Those who chased her caught her.
They caught her when she was in trouble.

<sup>4</sup>The roads to Jerusalem are sad.
No one comes to Jerusalem for the feasts.
No one passes through her gates.
And her priests groan.
Her young women are suffering.
And Jerusalem suffers terribly.

<sup>5</sup>Her enemies have become her masters.
Her enemies enjoy the wealth they have won.
The Lord is punishing her for her many sins.
Her children have gone away.
They are captives of the enemy in a foreign land.

<sup>6</sup>The beauty of Jerusalem has gone away.
Her rulers are like deer
that cannot find food.
They are weak and have run away from those who chased them.

<sup>7</sup>Jerusalem is suffering and homeless.
She remembers all the precious things
she had in the past.

She remembers when her people were defeated by the enemy.

There was no one to help her.
When her enemies saw her,
they laughed to see her ruined.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem sinned terribly.
So she has become unclean.<sup>d</sup>
Those who honored her hate her now because they have seen her nakedness.
Jerusalem groans and turns away.

<sup>9</sup>Jerusalem made herself dirty by her sins.
She did not think about what would happen to her.
Her defeat was surprising.
There was no one to comfort her.
She says, "Lord, see how I suffer.
The enemy has won."

<sup>10</sup>The enemy reached out and took all her precious things.
She even saw foreigners enter her Temple.<sup>d</sup> Lord, you had commanded that they should not enter the meeting of your people.

<sup>11</sup>All of Jerusalem's people are groaning.
They are looking for bread.
They are giving away their precious things
for food
so they can stay alive.
The city says, "Look, Lord, and see.
I am hated."

<sup>12</sup>Jerusalem says, "You who pass by on the road don't seem to care.
Come, look at me and see.
Is there any pain like mine?
Is there any pain like that he has caused
me?"

The Lord has punished me on the day of his great anger.

<sup>13</sup>"The Lord sent fire from above.
It went down into my bones.
He stretched out a net for my feet.
He turned me back.
He made me sad and lonely.

<sup>a</sup>she In this poem the city of Jerusalem is described as a woman.

I am weak all day.

<sup>14</sup>“He has noticed my sins.
They are tied together by his hands.
They hang around my neck.
He has turned my strength into weakness.
The Lord has let me be defeated by those who are stronger than I am.

<sup>15</sup>“The Lord has rejected all my mighty men inside my walls.
He brought an army against me to destroy my young men.
As if in a winepress,<sup>d</sup> the Lord has crushed the capital city of Judah.

<sup>16</sup>“I cry about these things.
My eyes overflow with tears.
There is no one near to comfort me.
There is no one who can give me strength again.
My children are left sad and lonely because the enemy has won.”

<sup>17</sup>Jerusalem reaches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her.
The Lord has commanded for the people of Jacob
that their enemies surround them.
Jerusalem has become unclean like those around her.

<sup>18</sup>Jerusalem says, “The Lord is right.
But I refused to obey him.
Listen, all you people.
Look at my pain.
My young women and men have gone into captivity.

<sup>19</sup>“I called out to my friends, but they turned against me.
My priests and my older leaders have died in the city.
They were looking for food
so they could stay alive.

<sup>20</sup>“Look at me, Lord. I am upset.
I am troubled.
My heart is troubled because I have been so stubborn.
Out in the streets, the sword kills.
Inside the houses, death destroys.

<sup>21</sup>“People have heard my groaning.
There is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble.
They are happy that you have done this
to me.
Now bring that day you have announced.
Let my enemies be like me.

<sup>22</sup>“Look at all their evil.
Do to them what you have done to me because of all my sins.
I groan over and over again,
and I am afraid.”

The Lord Destroyed Jerusalem

2 Look how the Lord in his anger has brought Jerusalem to shame.
He has thrown down the greatness of Israel from the sky to the earth.
He did not remember the Temple,<sup>d</sup> his footstool,
on the day of his anger.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord swallowed up without mercy all the houses of the people of Jacob.
In his anger he pulled down
the strong places of Judah.
He threw her kingdom and its rulers down to the ground in dishonor.

<sup>3</sup>In his anger the Lord has removed all the strength of Israel.
He took away his power from Israel
when the enemy came.
He burned against the people of Jacob like a flaming fire that burns up everything around it.

<sup>4</sup>Like an enemy, the Lord prepared to shoot his bow.
He took hold of his sword.
Like an enemy, he killed
all the good-looking people.
He poured out his anger like fire on the tents of Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord has become like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces.
He has destroyed all her strong places.
He has caused more moaning and groaning for Judah.

<sup>6</sup>He has destroyed his Temple as if it were a garden tent.
He has destroyed the place where he met with his people.
The Lord has made Jerusalem forget the set feasts and Sabbath<sup>d</sup> days.
He has rejected the king and the priest in his great anger.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord has rejected his altar and abandoned his Temple.
He has given to the enemy
the walls of Jerusalem's palaces.
The enemy shouted in the Lord's Temple as if it were a feast day.

- <sup>8</sup>The Lord planned to destroy the wall around Jerusalem.
He marked the wall off with a measuring line.
He did not stop himself from destroying
it.
He made the walls and defenses sad.
Together they have fallen.
- <sup>9</sup>Jerusalem's gates have fallen to the ground.
He destroyed and smashed the bars of the gates.
Her king and her princes are sent away
among the nations.
The teaching of the Lord has stopped.
The prophets<sup>a</sup> have not had any visions from the Lord.
- <sup>10</sup>The older leaders of Jerusalem sit on the ground and are silent.
They pour dust on their heads and put on rough cloth to show how sad they are.
The young women of Jerusalem bow their heads to the ground in sorrow.
- <sup>11</sup>My eyes are weak from crying.
I am troubled.
I feel as if I have been poured out on the ground
because my people have been destroyed.
Children and babies are fainting
in the streets of the city.
- <sup>12</sup>They say to their mothers,
"Where is some bread and wine?"
They faint like wounded soldiers
in the streets of the city.
They die in their mothers' arms.
- <sup>13</sup>What can I say about you, Jerusalem?
What can I compare you to?
What can I say you are like?
How can I comfort you, Jerusalem?
Your ruin is as big as the sea.
No one can heal you.
- <sup>14</sup>Your prophets saw visions about you.
But they were false and worth nothing.
They did not expose your sins.
They did not keep you from being captured.
The messages they preached to you were false.
They fooled you.
- <sup>15</sup>All who pass by on the road
clap their hands at you.
They make fun and shake their heads at Jerusalem.
- They ask, "Is this the city that people called the most beautiful city,
the happiest city on earth?"
- <sup>16</sup>All your enemies open their mouths to say things against you.
They make fun and grind their teeth in anger.
They say, "We have swallowed her up.
This is the day we were waiting for.
We have finally seen it happen."
- <sup>17</sup>The Lord has done what he planned.
He has carried out the order that he commanded long ago.
He has destroyed without mercy.
He has made your enemies happy because of what happened to you.
He has strengthened your enemies.
- <sup>18</sup>The people cry out to the Lord.
Wall of Jerusalem,
let your tears flow
like a river day and night.
Do not stop.
Do not let your eyes rest.
- <sup>19</sup>Get up, cry out in the night.
Cry all through the night.
Pour out your heart like water in prayer to the Lord.
Lift up your hands in prayer to him.
Pray for the life of your children.
They are fainting with hunger on every street corner.
- <sup>20</sup>Jerusalem says: "Look, Lord, and see.
You have never done this to anyone else.
Women eat their own babies,
the children they have cared for.
Priests and prophets are killed in the Temple of the Lord.
- <sup>21</sup>"Young men and old men lie on the ground in the streets of the city.
My young women and young men have been killed by the sword.
You, Lord, killed them on the day of your anger.
You killed them without mercy.
- <sup>22</sup>"You invited terrors to come against me on every side.
It was as if you were inviting them to a feast.
No one escaped or remained alive on the day of the Lord's anger.

My enemy has killed those whom I gave birth to and brought up."

The Meaning of Suffering

3 I am a man who has seen the suffering that comes from the rod of the Lord's anger.

<sup>2</sup>He led me into darkness, not light.

<sup>3</sup>He turned his hand against me again and again, all day long.

<sup>4</sup>He caused my flesh and skin to wear out.
He broke my bones.

<sup>5</sup>He surrounded me and attacked me with sadness and grief.

<sup>6</sup>He made me sit in the dark, like someone who has been dead a long time.

<sup>7</sup>He shut me in so I could not get out.
He put heavy chains on me.

<sup>8</sup>I cry out and beg for help.
But he ignores my prayer.

<sup>9</sup>He has blocked my way with stones.
He has made my life difficult.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord is like a bear ready to attack me.
He is like a lion in hiding.

<sup>11</sup>He led me the wrong way and tore me to pieces.

He left me without help.

<sup>12</sup>He prepared to shoot his bow.
He made me the target for his arrows.

<sup>13</sup>He shot me in the kidneys with the arrows from his arrow bag.

<sup>14</sup>I have become a joke to all my people.
All day long they make fun of me with songs.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord filled me with misery.
He filled me with suffering.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord broke my teeth with gravel.
He crushed me into the dirt.

<sup>17</sup>I have no more peace.
I have forgotten what happiness is.

<sup>18</sup>I said, "My strength is gone.
I have no more hope that the Lord will help me."

<sup>19</sup>Lord, remember my suffering and how I have no home.

Remember the misery and suffering.

<sup>20</sup>I remember them well.
And I am very sad.

<sup>21</sup>But I have hope when I think of this:

<sup>22</sup>The Lord's love never ends.
His mercies never stop.

<sup>23</sup>They are new every morning.
Lord, your loyalty is great.

<sup>24</sup>I say to myself, "The Lord is what I have left.
So I have hope."

<sup>25</sup>The Lord is good to those who put their hope in him.
He is good to those who look to him for help.

<sup>26</sup>It is good to wait quietly for the Lord to save.

<sup>27</sup>It is good for a man to work hard while he is young.

<sup>28</sup>He should sit alone and be quiet because the Lord has given him hard work to do.

<sup>29</sup>He should bow to the Lord with his face to the ground.

Maybe there is still hope.

<sup>30</sup>He should offer his cheek if someone wants to hit him.

He should be filled with shame.

<sup>31</sup>The Lord will not reject his people forever.

<sup>32</sup>Although the Lord brings sorrow, he also has mercy.
His love is great.

<sup>33</sup>The Lord does not like to punish people or make them sad.

<sup>34</sup>The Lord sees if any prisoner of the earth is crushed under his feet.

<sup>35</sup>He sees if someone is treated unfairly before the Most High God.

<sup>36</sup>The Lord sees if someone is cheated in his case in court.

<sup>37</sup>Nobody can speak and have it happen unless the Lord commands it.

<sup>38</sup>Both bad and good things come by the command of the Most High
God.

<sup>39</sup>No man should complain when he is punished for his sins.

<sup>40</sup>Let us examine and look at what we have done.

Then let us return to the Lord.

<sup>41</sup>Let us lift up our hands and pray from our hearts.

Let us say to God in heaven,

<sup>42</sup>"We have sinned and turned against you.
And you have not forgiven us.

43<sup>a</sup>You wrapped yourself in anger and chased us.
You killed us without mercy.

44<sup>b</sup>You wrapped yourself in a cloud.
No prayer could get through.

45<sup>c</sup>You made us like scum and trash among the other nations.

46<sup>d</sup>All of our enemies open their mouths and say things against us.

47<sup>e</sup>We have been frightened and fearful.
We have been ruined and destroyed.”

48<sup>f</sup>Streams of tears flow from my eyes because my people are destroyed.

49<sup>g</sup>My tears flow continually, without stopping,

50<sup>h</sup>until the Lord looks down and sees from heaven.

51<sup>i</sup>I am sad when I see what has happened to all the women of my city.

52<sup>j</sup>Those who are my enemies for no reason hunted me like a bird.

53<sup>k</sup>They threw me alive into a pit.
They threw stones at me.

54<sup>l</sup>Water came up over my head.
I said to myself, “I am going to die.”

55<sup>m</sup>I called out to you, Lord, from the bottom of the pit.

56<sup>n</sup>You heard me calling, “Do not close your ears.
Do not ignore my cry for help.”

57<sup>o</sup>You came close when I called out to you.
You said, “Don’t be afraid.”

58<sup>p</sup>Lord, you have taken my case.
You have given me back my life.

59<sup>q</sup>Lord, you have seen how I have been wronged.
Now judge my case for me.

60<sup>r</sup>You have seen how my enemies took revenge on me.
You have seen all their evil plans against
me.

61<sup>s</sup>Lord, you have heard their insults and all their evil plans against me.

62<sup>t</sup>The words and thoughts of my enemies are against me all the time.

63<sup>u</sup>Look! In everything they do they make fun of me with songs.

64<sup>v</sup>Punish them as they should be punished,
Lord.
Pay them back for what they have done.

65<sup>w</sup>Make them stubborn.
Put your curse on them.

66<sup>x</sup>Chase them in anger.
Destroy them from the Lord’s earth.

The Attack on Jerusalem

4<sup>a</sup> See how the gold has lost its shine!
See how the good gold has changed!
The stones of the Temple<sup>d</sup> are scattered at every street corner.

2<sup>b</sup>The precious people of Jerusalem were more valuable than gold.
But now they are thought of as clay jars made by the hands of a potter.

3<sup>c</sup>Even wild dogs give their milk to feed their young.
But my people are cruel like ostriches in the desert.

4<sup>d</sup>The baby is so thirsty that his tongue sticks to the roof of his mouth.
Children beg for bread.
But no one breaks off a piece to share with them.

5<sup>e</sup>Those who once ate fine foods are now starving in the streets.
The people who grew up wearing nice clothes
now pick through trash piles.

6<sup>f</sup>My people have been punished more than Sodom was.
Sodom was destroyed suddenly.
No hands reached out to help her.

7<sup>g</sup>Our princes were purer than snow.
They were whiter than milk.
Their bodies were redder than rubies.
Their faces shined like sapphires.

8<sup>h</sup>But now they are blacker than coal.
No one even recognizes them in the streets.
Their skin is stretched over their bones.
It is as dry as wood.

9<sup>i</sup>Those people who were killed by the sword had it better than those killed by hunger.
They starved in pain and died because there was no food from the field.

10<sup>j</sup>With their own hands kind women cooked their own children.
The children became food for their parents.
This happened when my people were destroyed.

11<sup>k</sup>The Lord turned loose all of his anger.
He poured out his strong anger.

- He set fire to Jerusalem.
It burned down to the foundations.
- <sup>12</sup>Kings of the earth and people of the world could not believe it.
They could not believe that enemies could come through the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>13</sup>But it happened because her prophets<sup>d</sup> had sinned.
And her priests had done evil.
They killed in the city
the people who did what was right.
- <sup>14</sup>They wandered in the streets like blind men.
They became dirty with blood.
So no one could touch their clothes.
- <sup>15</sup>"Go away! You are unclean,"<sup>d</sup> people shouted at them.
"Get away! Get away! Do not touch us!"
So they left and wandered around.
The other nations said, "Don't stay here."
- <sup>16</sup>The Lord himself scattered them.
He did not look after them anymore.
He did not respect the priests.
He showed no mercy to the older leaders.
- <sup>17</sup>Also, our eyes grew tired looking for help that never came.
We kept watch from our towers for a nation to save us.
- <sup>18</sup>Our enemies hunted us so we could not even walk in the streets.
Our end came near. Our time was up.
Our end came.
- <sup>19</sup>The men who chased us were faster than eagles in the sky.
They ran us into the mountains.
They ambushed us in the desert.
- <sup>20</sup>The Lord's appointed king, who was our very breath,
was caught in their traps.
We had said about him, "We will be protected by him
among the nations."
- <sup>21</sup>Be happy and glad, people of Edom, you who live in the land of Uz.
But the Lord's anger is like a cup of wine that you also will have to drink.
Then you will get drunk on it and make yourselves naked.
- <sup>22</sup>Your punishment is complete, Jerusalem.
He will not keep you in captivity any longer.
But the Lord will punish your wrongs, people of Edom.
He will uncover your sins.

A Prayer to the Lord

- 5 Remember, Lord, what happened to us.
Look and see our disgrace.
- <sup>2</sup>Our land has been turned over to strangers.
Our houses have been given to foreigners.
- <sup>3</sup>We have become orphans with no father.
Our mothers have become like widows.
- <sup>4</sup>We have to buy the water we drink.
We must pay for the wood for our fires.
- <sup>5</sup>They work us hard as if we were animals with a yoke<sup>d</sup> on our necks.
We get tired and have no rest.
- <sup>6</sup>We made an agreement with Egypt and with Assyria to get enough food.
- <sup>7</sup>Our ancestors sinned against you. But they are gone.
Now we must suffer because of their sins.
- <sup>8</sup>Slaves have become our rulers.
There is no one who can save us from
them.
- <sup>9</sup>We risk our lives to get our food because there are men with swords in the desert.
- <sup>10</sup>Our skin is hot like an oven.
We burn with fever because of the terrible hunger.
- <sup>11</sup>The enemy attacked the women of Jerusalem
and the girls in the cities of Judah.
- <sup>12</sup>The enemy hung our princes by the hands.
They do not honor our older leaders.
- <sup>13</sup>The young men grind grain at the mill.
Boys stumble while carrying loads of wood.
- <sup>14</sup>The older leaders no longer sit at the city gates.
The young men no longer make music.
- <sup>15</sup>We have no more joy in our hearts.
Our dancing has turned into sadness.
- <sup>16</sup>The glory has gone from Jerusalem.
How terrible it is for us because we have sinned.
- <sup>17</sup>Because of this we are afraid.
Because of these things our eyes are dim.
- <sup>18</sup>Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> is empty.
Now wild dogs wander around it.

LAMENTATIONS 5

694

<sup>19</sup>But you rule forever, Lord.

You will be King from now on.

<sup>20</sup>Why have you forgotten us for so long?

Why have you left us for so long?

<sup>21</sup>Bring us back to you, Lord. We will return.

Make our days as they were before.

<sup>22</sup>Or have you completely rejected us?

Will your anger never end?

EZEKIEL

God's Message to the Captives

Ezekiel's Vision of Living Things

1 It was the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month of our captivity. I, Ezekiel, was by the Kebar River in Babylon. I was among the people who had been carried away as captives from the land of Judah. The sky opened, and I saw visions of God.

<sup>2</sup>It was the fifth year that King Jehoiachin had been a prisoner. It was on the fifth day of the month. <sup>3</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Ezekiel son of Buzi. This was in the land of the Babylonians by the Kebar River. There he felt the power of the Lord.

<sup>4</sup>When I looked, I saw a stormy wind coming from the north. There was a great cloud with a bright light around it. Fire was flashing out of it. And there was something that looked like glowing metal in the center of the fire. <sup>5</sup>Inside the cloud were what looked like four living creatures. They were shaped like men. <sup>6</sup>Each of them had four faces. And each of them had four wings. <sup>7</sup>Their legs were straight. Their feet were like a calf's hoofs. And they sparkled like polished bronze. <sup>8</sup>The living creatures had men's hands. They were under their wings on their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings. <sup>9</sup>And their wings touched each other. The living creatures did not turn when they moved. Each went straight ahead.

<sup>15</sup>Now I looked at the living creatures. And I saw a wheel on the ground by each of the living creatures with its four faces. <sup>16</sup>The wheels and the way they were made were like this: They looked like sparkling chrysolite. All four of them looked the same. The wheels looked like one wheel crossways inside another wheel. <sup>17</sup>When they moved, they went in any one of the four directions. They did not turn as they went. <sup>18</sup>I saw the rims of the wheels. The rims were full of eyes all around.

<sup>19</sup>When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living creatures were lifted up from the ground, the wheels also were lifted up. <sup>20</sup>Wherever the spirit would go, the living creatures would go. And the wheels were lifted up beside them. This is because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup>When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved. When the living creatures stopped, the wheels stopped. And when the living creatures were lifted from the ground, the wheels were lifted beside them. This is because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>22</sup>Now there was something like a dome over the heads of the living creatures. It sparkled like ice and was frightening. <sup>23</sup>And under the dome the wings of the living creatures were stretched out straight toward one another. Each living creature also had two wings covering its body. <sup>24</sup>I heard the sound of their wings as they moved. It was like the roaring sound of the sea. It was like the voice of God All-Powerful. It was a roaring sound like a noisy army. When the living creatures stood still, they lowered their wings.

<sup>25</sup>And a voice came from above the dome over the heads of the living creatures. When the living creatures stood still, they lowered their wings. <sup>26</sup>Now above the dome there was something that looked like a throne. It looked like a sapphire gem. And on the throne was a shape like a man. <sup>27</sup>Then I noticed what he looked like from the waist up. He looked like glowing metal with fire inside it. And from his waist down he looked like fire. I saw a bright light all around him. <sup>28</sup>The glow around him looked like the rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day. It seemed to look like the glory of the Lord. So when I saw it, I bowed facedown on the ground. And I heard a voice speaking.

The Lord Speaks to Ezekiel

2 He said to me, "Human being, stand up on your feet. Then I will speak with you."<sup>2</sup> While he spoke to me, the Spirit<sup>d</sup> entered me and put me on my feet. Then I heard the Lord speaking to me.

<sup>3</sup> He said, "Human being, I am sending you to the people of Israel. They are a nation of people who turned against me. They broke away from me. They and their ancestors have sinned against me until this very day. <sup>4</sup> And I am sending you to people who are stubborn. They do not obey. You will say this to them, 'This is what the Lord God says.' <sup>5</sup> The people may listen, or they may not. They are a people who turn against me. But whatever they do, they will know that a prophet<sup>d</sup> has been among them. <sup>6</sup> You, human being, don't be afraid of the people or their words. Thorny branches and thorns may be all around you. And you may live with insects that sting with poison. Don't be afraid of their words. Don't be afraid of their looks. They are a people who turn against me. <sup>7</sup> But speak my words to them. They may listen, or they may not, because they turn against me. <sup>8</sup> But you, human being, listen to what I say to you. Don't turn against me as those people do. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you."

<sup>9</sup> I looked and saw a hand stretched out to me. A scroll was in the hand. <sup>10</sup> The Lord opened the scroll in front of me. The scroll was written on the front and back. Funeral songs, sad writings and troubles were written on the scroll.

3 Then the Lord said to me, "Human being, eat what you find. Eat this scroll. Then go and speak to the people of Israel."<sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth, and the Lord gave me the scroll.

<sup>3</sup> The Lord said to me, "Human being, eat this scroll which I am giving you. Fill your stomach with it." Then I ate it. And it was sweet like honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup> Then the Lord said to me, "Human being, go to the people of Israel. Speak my words to them. <sup>5</sup> You are not being sent to people whose speech you can't understand. Their language is not difficult. You are being sent to Israel. <sup>6</sup> You are not being sent to many nations whose speech you can't understand. The language of Israel is not difficult. You are not being sent to people whose words you cannot understand. If I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you. <sup>7</sup> But the people of Israel are not willing to listen to you. This is because they are not willing to listen to me. Yes, all the people of Israel are stubborn and will not obey. <sup>8</sup> See, I have made you as stubborn as they are. You will be as hard as they are. <sup>9</sup> I have made you as hard as a diamond, harder than stone. Don't be afraid of them. Don't be frightened by them. They are a people who turn against me."

<sup>10</sup> Also, the Lord said to me, "Human being, believe all the words that I will speak to you. And listen carefully. <sup>11</sup> Go to the captives, your people. And speak to them, whether they listen or not. Tell them, 'The Lord God says this.'"

<sup>12</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up. And I heard a loud rumbling sound behind me. A voice said, "Praise God in heaven." <sup>13</sup> I heard the wings of the living creatures touching each other. And I heard the sound of the wheels by them. It was a loud rumbling sound. <sup>14</sup> So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away. I was unhappy and angry. I felt the great power of the Lord. <sup>15</sup> I came to the captives from Judah. They lived by the Kebar River at Tel Abib. I sat there seven days where these people lived. I was shocked.

Israel's Warning

<sup>16</sup> After seven days the Lord spoke his word to me again. He said, <sup>17</sup> "Human being, I have made you a watchman for Israel. Any time you hear a word from my mouth, warn them for me. <sup>18</sup> When I say to an evil person, 'You will surely die,' you must warn him. If you don't speak out to warn the evil person to leave his evil way, he will die in his sin. But I will hold you responsible for his death. <sup>19</sup> You must warn the evil person. Then if he does not turn from his wickedness or his evil ways, he will die because of his sin. But you will have saved yourself.

<sup>20</sup> "Again, a person who does right may turn away from his goodness. He may do evil. If I caused him to sin, he will die. Because you have not warned him, he will die because of his sin. And the good he did will not be remembered. But I will hold you responsible for his death. <sup>21</sup> But if you do warn that good person not to sin, he may not sin. Then he will surely live. This is because he was warned. And you will save yourself."

<sup>22</sup> Then I felt the power of the Lord there. He said to me, "Get up and go out to the plain. There I will speak to you." <sup>23</sup> So I got up and went out to the plain. I saw the glory of the Lord standing there. It was like the glory I saw by the Kebar River. And I bowed facedown on the ground.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> entered me and made me stand on my feet. He spoke to me and said, "Go, shut yourself up in your house. <sup>25</sup> As for you, human being, the people will tie you up with ropes. They will tie you up, and you will not be able to go out among them. <sup>26</sup>Also, I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth. Then you will be silent. And you will not be able to argue with the people, even though they turn against me. <sup>27</sup>But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth. And you will say, 'The Lord God says this.' Whoever will listen, let him listen. Whoever refuses, let him refuse. They are a people who turn against me.

The Map of Jerusalem

4 "Now, human being, get yourself a brick. Put it in front of you and draw a map of Jerusalem on it. <sup>2</sup>Then surround it with an army. Build battle works against the city. Build a road of earth to the top of the city walls. Set up camps around it. Put heavy logs in place to break down the walls. <sup>3</sup>Then get yourself an iron plate. Put it up like an iron wall between you and the city. Turn your face toward the city as if to attack it. Then surround it and attack it. This is a sign to Israel.

<sup>4</sup>"Then lie down on your left side. Take the guilt of Israel on yourself. Their guilt will be on you for the number of days you lie on your left side. <sup>5</sup>I have given you the same number of days as the years of the people's sin. So you will have the guilt of Israel's sin on you for 390 days.

<sup>6</sup>"When you have finished these 390 days, lie down a second time. This time lie on your right side. You will then have the guilt of Judah on you. I have given it to you for 40 days. This is a day for each year of their sin. <sup>7</sup>Then you will turn your face toward the army attacking Jerusalem. With your arm bare, you will prophesy<sup>d</sup> against Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>I will put ropes on you so you cannot turn from one side to the other. This will last until you have finished the days of your attack on Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>"Take wheat, barley, beans, small peas and millet seeds. And put them in one bowl. Make them into bread for yourself. You will eat it the 390 days you lie on your side. <sup>10</sup>You will eat eight ounces of food every day. You will eat it at set times. <sup>11</sup>You will drink about two-thirds of a quart of water every day. Drink it at set times. <sup>12</sup>Eat your food as you would eat a barley cake. Bake it over human dung where the people can see." <sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said, "In the same way Israel will eat unclean<sup>d</sup> food. They will eat it among the nations where I force them to go."

<sup>14</sup>But I said, "No, Lord God! I have never been made unclean. From the time I was young until now I've never eaten anything that died by itself. And I've never eaten anything torn by animals. Unclean meat has never entered my mouth."

<sup>15</sup>"Very well," he said. "Then I will give you cow's dung instead of human dung. You may use it for your fire to bake your bread."

<sup>16</sup>Then the Lord said to me, "Human being, look! I am going to cut off the supply of bread to Jerusalem. They will eat the bread that is measured out to them. And they will worry as they eat it. They will drink water that is measured out to them. And they will be in shock as they drink it. <sup>17</sup>This is because bread and water will be hard to find. And the people will be shocked at the sight of each other. They will become weak because of their sin.

Ezekiel Cuts His Hair

5 "Now, human being, take a sharp sword. Use it like a barber's razor to shave your head and beard. Then take scales and weigh and divide the hair. <sup>2</sup>Burn one-third with fire when the days of the attack on Jerusalem are over. Burn it in the middle of the city. Then take one-third and cut it up with the knife all around the city. And scatter one-third to the wind. This is how I will chase them with a sword. <sup>3</sup>Also take a few of these hairs and tie them in the folds of your clothes. <sup>4</sup>Take a few more and throw them into the fire and burn them up. From there a fire will spread to all the people of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>"This is what the Lord says: This is Jerusalem. I have put her at the center of the nations with countries all around her. <sup>6</sup>But she has refused to obey my laws. She has been more evil than the nations. She has refused to obey my rules even more than those around her. The people of Jerusalem have rejected my laws and have not lived by my rules.

<sup>7</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: You caused more confusion than the nations around you. You did not follow my rules or obey my laws. You have not even obeyed the laws of the nations around you.

<sup>8</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: I myself am against you. I will punish you and the nations will watch. <sup>9</sup>I will do things among you that I have not done before. I will never do anything like them again. I will do them because you do the things I hate. <sup>10</sup>So fathers among you will eat their children. And children will eat their fathers. I will punish you. I will scatter to the winds all who are left alive.

<sup>11</sup>So the Lord God says: As surely as I live, you have made my Temple<sup>a</sup> unclean.<sup>a</sup> You have done it with all your evil idols and the hated things you do. Because of this I will cut you off. I will have no pity. I will show no mercy. <sup>12</sup>A third of you will die by disease or be destroyed by hunger inside your walls. A third will fall dead by the sword outside your walls. And a third I will scatter in every direction. I will chase them with a sword. <sup>13</sup>Then my anger will come to an end. I will use it up against them. Then I will be satisfied. Then they will know that I, the Lord God, have spoken. After I have carried out my anger against them, they will know how strongly I felt.

<sup>14</sup>“I will make you a ruin. And I will make you a shame among the nations around you. All who pass by will see this. <sup>15</sup>Then you will be shamed by the nations around you. They will make fun of you. You will be a warning to them. They will be terrified. This will happen when I punish you in my great anger. I, the Lord, have spoken. <sup>16</sup>I will send a time of hunger to destroy you. Then I will make your hunger get even worse. I will cut off your supply of food. <sup>17</sup>I will send a time of hunger and wild animals against you. They will kill your children. Disease and death will sweep through your people. I will bring the sword against you to kill you. I, the Lord, have spoken.”

Prophecies Against the Mountains

6 Again the Lord spoke his word to me. The Lord said, <sup>2</sup>“Human being, look toward the mountains of Israel. Prophecy<sup>a</sup> against them. <sup>3</sup>Say, ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord God. The Lord God says this to the mountains, the hills, the ravines and the valleys: I will bring a sword against you. I will destroy your places of idol worship. <sup>4</sup>Your altars will be destroyed. Your incense<sup>a</sup> altars will be broken down. Your people will be killed in front of your idols. <sup>5</sup>I will lay the dead bodies of the Israelites before their idols. And I will scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6</sup>In all the places you live, cities will become empty. And the places of idol worship will be ruined. Your altars will become lonely ruins. Your idols will be broken and brought to an end. Your incense altars will be cut down. And the things you made will be wiped out. <sup>7</sup>Your people will be killed and fall among you. Then you will know that I am the Lord God.

<sup>8</sup>“But I will leave some people alive. Some will not be killed by the nations when you are scattered among the foreign lands. <sup>9</sup>Then those who have escaped will remember me. They will be living among the nations where they have been taken as captives. They will remember how I was hurt because they were unfaithful to me. They had turned away from me. They will remember how I was hurt because they desired to worship their idols. They will hate themselves because of the evil things they did that I hate. <sup>10</sup>Then they will know that I am the Lord. I did not bring this terrible thing on them for no reason.

<sup>11</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet. Say, “Oh!” because the people of Israel have done terrible things. So they will die by war, hunger and disease. <sup>12</sup>The person who is far away will die by disease. The one who is nearby will die in war. The person who is still alive and has escaped these will die from hunger. So I will carry out my anger on them. <sup>13</sup>Their people will lie dead among their idols around the altars. They will be on every high hill, on all the mountain tops and under every green tree and leafy oak. These are the places where they offered sweet-smelling incense to their idols. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>14</sup>I will use my power against them. I will make the land empty and wasted from the desert to Diblah, wherever they live. Then they will know that I am the Lord.’”

Ezekiel Tells of the End

7 Again the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, the Lord says this to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. <sup>3</sup>Now the end has come for you. I will send my anger against you. I will judge you for the way you have lived. I will make you pay for your terrible actions. <sup>4</sup>I will have no pity on you. I will not hold back punishment from you. I will make you pay for your ways and for your terrible actions. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: Disaster on top of disaster is coming. <sup>6</sup>The end has come! The end has come! It has stirred itself up against you! Look! It has come! <sup>7</sup>The end has come for you who live in the land! The time has come. The day of confusion is near. There will be no happy shouting on the mountains. <sup>8</sup>Soon I will pour out my anger against you. I will carry out my anger against you. I will judge you for the way you have lived. I will make you pay for all the things you have done that I hate. <sup>9</sup>I will show no pity. I will not hold back punishment. I will pay you back for the way you have lived and the terrible things you have done. Then you will know that I am the Lord who punishes.

<sup>10</sup>“Look, the day is here. It has come. Destruction has come. Violence has grown. There is more pride than ever. <sup>11</sup>Violence has grown into a weapon for punishing wickedness. None of the people will be left. None of that crowd, none of their wealth, and nothing of value will be left among them. <sup>12</sup>The time has come. The day has arrived. Don't let the buyer be happy or the seller be sad. My burning anger is against the whole crowd. <sup>13</sup>Sellers will not return to the land they have sold as long as they live. This is because the vision against all that crowd will not be changed. Because of their sins, no one will save his life. <sup>14</sup>They have blown the trumpet, and everything is ready. But no one is going to the battle. My anger is against all that crowd.

<sup>15</sup>“The sword is outside. Disease and hunger are inside. The person who is in the field will die by the sword. Hunger and disease will destroy those in the city. <sup>16</sup>Those who are left alive and who escape will be on the mountains. They will moan like doves of the valleys. Each person will groan about his own sin. <sup>17</sup>All hands will hang weakly. All knees will become as weak as water. <sup>18</sup>They will put on rough cloth to show how sad they are. They will tremble all over with fear. Their faces will show their shame. And all their heads will be shaved. <sup>19</sup>The people will throw their silver into the streets. Their gold will be like trash. Their silver and gold will not save them from the Lord's anger. It will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs. It was what caused them to fall into sin. <sup>20</sup>They were proud of their beautiful jewelry. They used it to make their idols, which I hate, and their evil statues. So I will turn their wealth into something they hate. <sup>21</sup>And I will give it to the foreigners as treasures from war. I will give it to the evil people of the earth as treasure. These foreigners and evil people will dishonor the people's jewelry. <sup>22</sup>I will also turn away from the people of Israel. They will dishonor my treasured place. Then robbers will enter and dishonor it.

<sup>23</sup>“Make chains for captives. The land is full of bloody crimes. And the city is full of violence. <sup>24</sup>So I will bring the worst of the nations to take over the people's houses. I will also end the pride of the rich. And their holy places will be dishonored. <sup>25</sup>When the people are suffering greatly, they will look for peace. But there will be none. <sup>26</sup>Disaster will come on top of disaster. Rumor will be added to rumor. Then they will try to get a vision from a prophet. <sup>27</sup>Even the teachings of God from the priest will be lost. And advice from the older leaders will also be lost. <sup>27</sup>The king will cry greatly. The prince will give up hope. The hands of the people who owned land will shake with fear. I will punish them for the way they have lived. The way they have judged others is the way I will judge them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Ezekiel's Vision of Jerusalem **□

8 It was the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month of our captivity. I was sitting in my house with the older leaders of Judah before me. There I felt the power of the Lord God. <sup>2</sup>I looked and saw something that looked like a man. From his waist down he looked like fire. From his waist up he looked like bright glowing metal. <sup>3</sup>He stretched out the shape of a hand. And he caught me by the hair on my head. The Spirit<sup>d</sup> lifted me up between the earth and the sky. He took me in the visions of God to Jerusalem. He took me to the entrance to the north gate of the inner courtyard of the Temple. <sup>4</sup>The courtyard was where the idol was that caused God to be jealous. <sup>4</sup>The glory of the God of Israel was there. It was like what I had seen on the plain.

<sup>5</sup>Then God said to me, “Human being, now look toward the north.” So I looked up toward the north. I saw an altar to the north of the gate. The idol that caused God to be jealous was in the entrance.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said to me, “Human being, do you see what they are doing? Do you see how many hated things the people of Israel are doing here? This will drive me far away from my Temple. But you will see things more hated than these.”

<sup>7</sup>Then the Lord brought me to the entry of the courtyard. When I looked, I saw a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup>The Lord said to me, “Human being, dig through the wall.” So I dug through the wall and saw an entrance.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to me, “Go in and see the terrible, evil things they are doing here.” <sup>10</sup>So I entered and looked. And I saw pictures of every kind of crawling thing. I saw awful beasts and all the idols of the people of Israel. They were carved on the wall all around. <sup>11</sup>Severity of the older leaders of Israel were standing there. They were in front of these carvings and idols. Jaazaniah son of Shaphan stood with them. Each man had his pan for burning incense<sup>d</sup> in his hand. A sweet-smelling cloud of incense was rising.

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord said to me, “Human being, have you seen what the older leaders of Israel are doing in the dark? Have you seen each man in the room of his own idol? They say, 'The Lord doesn't see us. The Lord has left the land.'<sup>13</sup> And he said to me, "You will see even more terrible things that they are doing."

<sup>14</sup>Then the Lord brought me to the opening of the north gate of the Temple. And I saw women sitting there crying for Tammuz.<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>The Lord said to me, "Do you see, human being? You will see things even more terrible than these."

<sup>16</sup>Then the Lord brought me into the inner courtyard of the Temple. And I saw about 25 men. They were at the entrance to the Temple, between the porch and the altar. Their backs were turned to the Temple of the Lord. They faced east. They were worshiping the sun in the east.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said to me, "Do you see, human being? Is it unimportant that the people of Judah are doing the terrible things they have done here? They have filled the land with violence. They continually make me angry. Look, they are insulting me every way they can. <sup>18</sup>So I will act in anger. I will have no pity. I will not show mercy. Even if they shout in my ears, I won't listen to them."

Vision of the Angels

9 The Lord shouted with a loud voice in my ears. He said, "You who are chosen to punish this city, come near. Bring your weapon in your hand."<sup>2</sup> Then six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north. Each had his powerful weapon in his hand. Among them was a man dressed in linen. At his side he had things to write with. The men went in and stood by the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup>Then the glory of the God of Israel went up. It had been above the creatures with wings. It moved to the place in the Temple<sup>d</sup> where the door opened. Then the Lord called the man dressed in linen. He had the things to write with at his side. <sup>4</sup>The Lord said to him, "Go through Jerusalem. Put a mark on the foreheads of the people who groan and cry about all the terrible things being done among them."

<sup>5</sup>As I listened, the Lord spoke to the other men. He said, "Go through the city behind the man dressed in linen and kill. Don't pity anyone. Don't show mercy. <sup>6</sup>Kill and destroy old men, young men and women, little children and older women. But don't touch anyone who has the mark on him. Start at my Temple." So they started with the older leaders who were in front of the Temple.

<sup>7</sup>And the Lord said to the men, "Make the Temple unclean.<sup>d</sup> Fill the courtyards with those who have been killed. Go out!" Then the men went out and killed the people in the city. <sup>8</sup>While the men were killing the people, I was left alone. I bowed facedown on the ground. I cried out, "Oh, Lord God! Will you destroy everyone left alive in Israel when you turn loose your anger on Jerusalem?"

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to me, "The sin of the people of Israel and Judah is very great. The land is filled with people who murder. And the city is full of people who are not fair. The people say, 'The Lord has left the land. And the Lord does not see.'<sup>10</sup> But I will have no pity. I will show no mercy. But I will bring their evil acts back on their heads."

<sup>11</sup>Then the man dressed in linen reported to the Lord. He was the man who had things to write with at his side. He said, "I have done just as you have commanded me."

The Coals of Fire

10 Then I looked and saw the sky above the heads of the living creatures. I saw something like a sapphire gem. It looked like a throne. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to the man dressed in linen, "Go in between the wheels under the living creatures. And fill your hands with coals of fire from between the living creatures. Scatter the coals over the city."

As I watched, the man with linen clothes went in. <sup>3</sup>Now the living creatures were standing on the south side of the Temple<sup>d</sup> when the man went in. And the cloud from the Lord filled the inner courtyard. <sup>4</sup>Then the glory of the Lord went up from the living creatures. And it stood over the door of the Temple. The Temple was filled with the cloud. And the courtyard was full of the brightness from the glory of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>The sound of the wings of the living creatures was heard all the way to the outer courtyard. It was like the voice of God All-Powerful when he speaks.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord commanded the man dressed in linen, "Take fire from between the wheels, from between the living creatures." Then the man went in and stood by a wheel. <sup>7</sup>One living creature put out his hand to the fire that was among them. The living creature took some of the fire. And he put it in the hands of the man dressed in linen. The man took the fire and went out.

<sup>a</sup>Tammuz Tammuz was a false god in Babylon. Every year people thought this god died when the plants died. After they cried for him, they believed he came back to life and the plants lived again.

The Wheels and the Creatures

<sup>8</sup>Something that looked like a man's hand appeared under the wings of the living creatures. <sup>9</sup>I saw the four wheels by the living creatures. One wheel was by each living creature. The wheels looked like shining chrysolite. <sup>10</sup>All four wheels looked alike. Each looked like a wheel crossways inside another wheel. <sup>11</sup>When the wheels moved, they went in any of the directions that the four living creatures faced. The wheels did not turn about. The living creatures did not turn their bodies as they went. But they followed wherever their faces pointed. <sup>12</sup>All their bodies, their backs, hands, wings and the wheels were full of eyes all over. Now each of the four living creatures had a wheel. <sup>13</sup>I heard the wheels being called "whirling wheels." <sup>14</sup>Each living creature had four faces. The first face was the face of a creature with wings. The second face was the face of a man. The third was the face of a lion. And the fourth was the face of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup>The living creatures flew up. They were the same living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River. <sup>16</sup>And when the living creatures moved, the wheels moved by their sides. The living creatures lifted their wings to fly up from the ground. And the wheels did not leave their sides. <sup>17</sup>When the living creatures stopped, the wheels stopped. When the creatures went up, the wheels went up also. This was because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>20</sup>These are the living creatures I had seen under the God of Israel. This was by the Kebar River. I knew they were called cherubim. <sup>21</sup>Each one had four faces. Each one had four wings. Things that looked like a man's hands were under their wings. <sup>22</sup>Their faces looked the same as the ones I had seen by the Kebar River. They each went straight ahead.

Prophecies Against Evil Leaders

11 The Spirit<sup>d</sup> lifted me up. And he brought me to the front gate of the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. This gate faces east. I saw

25 men where the gate opens. I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah. They were leaders of the people. They were among these 25 men. <sup>2</sup>Then the Lord said to me, "Human being, these are the men who plan evil. And they give wicked advice in this city of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>They say, 'It is almost time for us to build houses. This city is like a cooking pot. And we are like the best meat.' <sup>4</sup>So prophesy<sup>d</sup> against them. Prophecy, human being."

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit of the Lord entered me. He told me to say: "This is what the Lord says: You have said these things, people of Israel. But I know what is going through your mind. <sup>6</sup>You have killed many people in this city. You have filled its streets with their bodies.

<sup>7</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: Those people you have killed and left in the middle of the city are like the best meat. And this city is like the cooking pot. But I will force you out of the city. <sup>8</sup>You have feared the sword. But I will bring a sword against you, says the Lord God. <sup>9</sup>I will force you out of the city. I will hand you over to strangers. I will surely punish you. <sup>10</sup>You will die by the sword. I will punish you at the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>11</sup>This city will not be your cooking pot. You will not be the best meat in the middle of the city. I will punish you at the border of Israel. <sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I am the Lord. You did not live by my rules. You did not obey my laws. You did the same things that the nations around you do."

<sup>13</sup>As I prophesied, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I bowed facedown on the ground. I shouted with a loud voice and said, "Oh no, Lord God! Will you completely destroy the Israelites who are left alive?"

Promise to Those Remaining

<sup>14</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said, <sup>15</sup>"Human being, the people still in Jerusalem have spoken about your relatives. And they have spoken about all the people of Israel who are captives with you. The people still in Jerusalem have said, 'They are far from the Lord. This land was given to us as our property.'

<sup>16</sup>"So say, 'This is what the Lord God says: I sent the people far away among the nations. I scattered them among the countries. But for a little while I have become a Temple<sup>d</sup> to them in the countries where they have gone.'

<sup>17</sup>"So say: 'This is what the Lord God says: I will gather you from the nations. And I will bring you together from the countries where you have been scattered. Then I will give you back the land of Israel.'

<sup>18</sup>“They will come to this land. Then they will take away all the hated idols from the land. They will take all the terrible images from there. <sup>19</sup>I will give them a desire to respect me completely. I will put a new way to think inside them. I will take out the stubborn heart like stone from their bodies. Then I will give them an obedient heart of flesh. <sup>20</sup>Then they will live by my rules. They will obey my laws and keep them. They will be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup>But some people will want to serve their evil statues and hated idols. And I will pay them back for their evil ways, says the Lord God.”

Ezekiel's Vision Ends

<sup>22</sup>Then the living creatures lifted their wings. The wheels went beside them. And the glory of the God of Israel was above them. <sup>23</sup>The glory of the Lord went up from inside Jerusalem. And it stopped on the mountain on the east side of the city. <sup>24</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> lifted me up. And he brought me to the captives who had been taken from Judah to Babylonia. He did this in a vision given by the Spirit of God. Then the vision I had seen ended. <sup>25</sup>And I told the things that the Lord had shown me. I told it to the captives from Judah.

Ezekiel Moves Out

12 Again the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, you are living among a people who refuse to obey. They have eyes to see, but they do not see. They have ears to hear, but they do not hear. This is because they are a family that refuses to obey.

<sup>3</sup>“So, human being, pack your things as if you will be taken away captive. And walk away like a captive. Do this in the daytime with the people watching. Move from your place to another with the people watching. Maybe they will understand, even though they are a people who refuse to obey. <sup>4</sup>Bring out the things you would pack as a captive. Do it during the day when the people are watching. At evening go out with the people watching. Go like those who are taken away as captives from their country. <sup>5</sup>Dig a hole through the wall while they watch. Bring your things out through the hole. <sup>6</sup>Lift them onto your shoulders with the people watching. Carry them out in the dark. Cover your face so you cannot see the ground. I have made you a sign to the people of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>I did these things as I was commanded. In the daytime I brought out my things. I was packed, ready to go away as a captive. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I brought my things out in the dark. I carried them on my shoulders. And the people saw all this.

<sup>8</sup>Then in the morning the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>9</sup>“Human being, Israel refuses to obey. Didn’t those people ask you, ‘What are you doing?’

<sup>10</sup>“Say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: This message is about the king in Jerusalem. And it is about all the people of Israel who live there.’ <sup>11</sup>Say, ‘I am a sign to you.’

“The same things I have done will be done to the people in Jerusalem. They will be taken away from their country as captives. <sup>12</sup>The king among them will put his things on his shoulder in the dark. And he will leave. The people will dig a hole through the wall to bring him out. He will cover his face so he cannot see the ground. <sup>13</sup>But I will spread my net over him. He will be caught in my trap. Then I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Babylonians. He will not see that land, but he will die there. <sup>14</sup>All who are around the king I will scatter in every direction. I will scatter his helpers and all his army. I will chase them with a sword.

<sup>15</sup>“Then they will know that I am the Lord. I will scatter them among the nations. And I will spread them among the countries. <sup>16</sup>But I will save a few of them from the sword. I will save a few from hunger and disease. Then they can tell about their hated actions among the nations where they go. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

The Lesson of Ezekiel's Shaking

<sup>17</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>18</sup>“Human being, shake as you eat your food. Shake with fear as you drink your water. <sup>19</sup>Then say to the people of the land: ‘This is what the Lord God says about the people who live in Jerusalem in the land of Israel: They will eat their food with fear. And they will drink their water in shock. This is because their land will be made empty. This is because of the violence of the people who live in it. <sup>20</sup>And the cities where people live will become ruins. The land will become empty. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

The Visions Will Come True

<sup>21</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>22</sup>“Human being, what is this saying you have in the land of Israel: ‘The days go by and every vision comes to nothing?’ <sup>23</sup>So say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: I will make them stop saying this. Then nobody in Israel will use it anymore.’ But tell them, ‘The time is near when every vision will come true. <sup>24</sup>There will be no more false visions or pleasing prophecies<sup>d</sup> inside the nation of Israel. <sup>25</sup>This is because I, the Lord God, will speak. What I say will be done. It will not be delayed. You are a people who refuse to obey. And in your time I will say the word and do it, says the Lord God.' "

<sup>26</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>27</sup>"Human being, look! The people of Israel are saying this: 'The vision that Ezekiel sees is for a time many years from now. He is prophesying about times far away.'

<sup>28</sup>"So say to them: 'The Lord God says this: None of my words will be delayed anymore. What I have said will be done, says the Lord God.' "

Ezekiel Speaks Against False Prophets

13 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"Human being, prophesy<sup>d</sup> against the prophets of Israel. Say to those who make up their own prophecies: 'Listen to the word of the Lord. <sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord God says: How terrible it will be for the foolish prophets. They are the ones who follow their own ideas. And they have not seen a vision from me. <sup>4</sup>People of Israel, your prophets have been like wild dogs hunting to kill and eat among ruins. <sup>5</sup>Israel is like a house in ruins. But you have not gone up into the broken places. Your prophets have not repaired the wall. So how can Israel hold back the enemy in the battle on the Lord's day of judging? <sup>6</sup>Your prophets see false visions. They prophesy lies. They say, "This is the message of the Lord." The Lord has not sent them. But they still hope their words will come true. <sup>7</sup>You said, "This is the message of the Lord." But that is a false vision. Your prophecies are lies because I have not spoken.

<sup>8</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: You prophets spoke things that are false. You saw visions that do not come true. That is why I am against you, says the Lord God. <sup>9</sup>So I will punish the prophets who see false visions and prophesy lies. They will have no place among my people. Their names will not be written on the list of the people of Israel. They will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord God.

<sup>10</sup>"It is because they led my people away. They said, "Peace!" but there is no peace. When the people build a weak wall, the prophets cover it with whitewash to make it look strong. <sup>11</sup>So tell those who cover a weak wall with whitewash that it will fall down. Rain will pour down. Hailstones will fall. And a stormy wind will break the wall down. <sup>12</sup>When the wall has fallen, people will ask you, "Where is the whitewash you used on the wall?"

<sup>13</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: I will break the wall with a stormy wind. In my anger rain will pour down. And hailstones will destroy the wall. <sup>14</sup>I will tear down the wall on which you put whitewash. I will level it to the ground. Then people will see the wall's foundation. And when the wall falls, you will be destroyed under it. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>15</sup>So I will carry out my anger on the wall and against those who covered it with whitewash. Then I will tell you, "The wall is gone. And those who covered it with whitewash are also gone. <sup>16</sup>The prophets of Israel who prophesy to Jerusalem will be gone. And those who see visions of peace for Jerusalem will be gone also. There will be no peace, says the Lord God.' "

False Women Prophets

<sup>17</sup>"Now, human being, reject the women among your people who make up their own prophecies.<sup>d</sup> Prophesy against them. <sup>18</sup>Say, "This is what the Lord God says: How terrible it will be for women who sew magic charms on their wrists. How terrible it will be for those who make veils of every length. These women do this to trap people. You ruin the lives of my people but try to save your own lives! <sup>19</sup>And you have dishonored me among my people. You have done it for handfuls of barley and pieces of bread. You have killed people who should not die. And you have kept alive those who should die. You have done this by lying to my people. And my people are willing to listen to lies.

<sup>20</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: I am against your magic charms. You use them to trap people as if they were birds. I will tear these charms off your arms. I will free those people you have trapped like birds. <sup>21</sup>I will also tear off your veils. I will save my people from your hands. They will no longer be in your power. You will not trap them. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>22</sup>By your lies you caused the heart of the person who did right to be sad. I did not make him sad. You have encouraged the evil person not to stop being evil. And that would have saved his life. <sup>23</sup>So you will not see any more false visions. You will not prophesy anymore. And I will save my people from your power. Then you will know that I am the Lord.' "

Stop Worshiping Idols

14 Some of the older leaders of Israel came to me and sat down before me. <sup>2</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>3</sup>“Human being, these men love to worship idols. They put up evil things that cause people to sin. Should I allow them to ask me for help? <sup>4</sup>So speak to them. Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: Any person in Israel might want to worship idols. He might even put up evil things that cause people to sin. Then he might come to the prophet. <sup>4</sup>When he does, I, the Lord, will answer him. I will put him to death because he worshiped idols. <sup>5</sup>Then I will win back my people Israel. They have left me because of all their idols.’

<sup>6</sup>“So say this to the people of Israel: ‘This is what the Lord God says: Change your hearts and lives. Stop worshiping idols. Stop doing all the things I hate. <sup>7</sup>Any Israelite or any foreigner in Israel can separate himself from me. He can do this by wanting to worship idols. Or he can put up the things that cause people to sin. Then if he comes to the prophet to ask me questions, I, the Lord, will answer him myself. <sup>8</sup>I will reject him. I will make him a sign and an example. I will separate him from my people. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>“‘But the prophet may be tricked into giving a prophecy. Then it is because I, the Lord, have tricked that prophet to speak. Then I will use my power against him. I will destroy him from among my people Israel. <sup>10</sup>The prophet will be as guilty as the one who asks him for help. They both will be responsible for their guilt. <sup>11</sup>Then the nation of Israel will not leave me anymore. And they will not make themselves unclean<sup>d</sup> anymore with all their sins. Then they will be my people. And I will be their God, says the Lord God.’”

Jerusalem Will Not Be Spared

<sup>12</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>13</sup>“Human being, sometimes the people of a country will sin against me by not being loyal. When that happens, I will use my power against them. I will cut off their supply of food. I will send them a time of hunger. I will destroy both their people and animals. <sup>14</sup>Three great men like Noah, Daniel and Job might be in that country. But their goodness could save only themselves, says the Lord God.

<sup>15</sup>“I might even send wild animals into that land. They would leave the land empty and without children. Then no one would pass through it because of the animals. <sup>16</sup>As surely as I live, says the Lord God, not even Noah, Daniel and Job could help. Even if they were in the land, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They could only save themselves. And that country would remain empty.

<sup>17</sup>“Or, I might bring a war against that country. I might say, ‘Let a war be fought in that land. Let it destroy its men and animals.’ <sup>18</sup>As surely as I live, says the Lord God, not even these three men could help. Even if they were in the land, they could not save their sons or daughters. They could only save themselves.

<sup>19</sup>“Or, I might cause a disease to spread in that country. I might pour out my anger against that country, destroying and killing people and animals. <sup>20</sup>As surely as I live, says the Lord God, not even Noah, Daniel and Job could help. Even if they were in the land, they could not save their son or daughter. They could save only themselves because they did what was right.

<sup>21</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: I will send my four terrible punishments against Jerusalem. They are war, hunger, wild animals and disease. They will destroy people and animals from Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>But some people will escape. Some sons and daughters will be led out. They will come out to you. You will see how they live. Then you will be comforted after the disasters I have brought against Jerusalem. You will be comforted after all the things I will bring against it. <sup>23</sup>You will be comforted when you see how they live. You will know there was a good reason for what I did to Jerusalem, says the Lord God.”

Story of the Vine

15 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, what good is the wood of the vine? Is it better than the wood of a tree in the forest? <sup>3</sup>Can wood be taken from the vine to make anything? Can you use it to make a peg on which to hang something? <sup>4</sup>The vine is thrown into the fire for fuel. The fire burns up both ends and starts to burn the middle. Then is it useful for anything? <sup>5</sup>When the vine was whole, it couldn't be made into anything. When the fire has burned it completely, it certainly cannot be made into anything.”

<sup>6</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: “Out of all the trees in the forest, I gave the wood of the vine as fuel for fire. In the same way I have given up the people who live in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>I will turn against them. They came through one fire. But fire will still destroy them. When I turn against them, you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>8</sup>So I will make the land empty. This is because the people have not been loyal, says the Lord God.”

The Lord's Kindness to Jerusalem

16 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, tell Jerusalem about her hated actions. <sup>3</sup>Say, ‘This is what the Lord God says to Jerusalem: Your beginnings and your ancestors were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite. And your mother was a Hittite. <sup>4</sup>On the day you were born, your cord<sup>a</sup> was not cut. You were not washed with water for cleansing. You were not rubbed with salt. You were not wrapped in cloths. <sup>5</sup>No one felt sorry for you. No one would do any of these things for you. No, you were thrown out into the open field. This is because you were hated on the day you were born.

<sup>6</sup>“Then I passed by and saw you kicking about in your blood. I said to you, ‘Live!’” <sup>7</sup>I made you grow like a plant in the field. You grew up and became tall. You grew up and became like a beautiful jewel. Your breasts formed. Your hair grew. But you were naked and without clothes.

<sup>8</sup>“Later I passed by you and looked at you. I saw that you were at the time for love. So I spread my robe over you and covered your nakedness. I also made a marriage promise to you. I entered into an agreement with you. Then you became mine, says the Lord God.

<sup>9</sup>“Then I bathed you with water and washed all the blood off of you. I put oil on you. <sup>10</sup>I put beautiful clothes made with needlework on you. I put sandals of fine leather on your feet. I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup>I put jewelry on you. I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck. <sup>12</sup>I also put a ring in your nose and earrings in your ears. And I put a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>13</sup>So you wore gold and silver. Your dress was made of fine linen, silk and beautiful needlework. You ate fine flour, honey and olive oil. You were very beautiful and became a queen. <sup>14</sup>Then you became famous among the nations because you were so beautiful. Your beauty was perfect, because of the glory I gave you, says the Lord God.

Jerusalem Becomes a Prostitute

<sup>15</sup>“But you trusted in your beauty. You became a prostitute<sup>d</sup> because you were so famous. You had sexual relations with anyone who passed by. <sup>16</sup>And you took some of your clothes and made your places of worship colorful. This is where you carried on your prostitution. These things should not have happened. They should never happen again. <sup>17</sup>You also took your beautiful jewelry. It was made from gold and silver I had given you. Then you made for yourselves male idols. And you were a prostitute with them. <sup>18</sup>Then you took your clothes with beautiful needlework and covered the idols. You gave my oil and incense<sup>d</sup> as an offering to them. <sup>19</sup>Also, you took the bread I gave you. You took the fine flour, oil and honey I gave you to eat. And you offered them before the false gods as a pleasing smell. This is what happened, says the Lord God.

<sup>20</sup>“Also, you took your sons and daughters who were my children. And you sacrificed them to idols as food. Your sexual sins were not enough for you. <sup>21</sup>You killed my children and offered them up in fire to idols. <sup>22</sup>You did all your hated acts and sexual sins. But you did not remember when you were young. At that time you were naked and had no clothes. You were left in your blood.

<sup>23</sup>“How terrible! How terrible it will be for you, says the Lord God. This is what you did after all these evil things. <sup>24</sup>You built yourself a place to worship false gods. You made for yourself a place of worship in every city square. <sup>25</sup>You built a place of worship at the head of every street. You made your beauty hateful. You offered your body for sex to anyone who passed by. Your sexual sins became worse and worse. <sup>26</sup>You also had sexual relations with the Egyptians. They were your neighbors and partners in sexual sin. Your sexual sins became even worse. And they caused me to be angry. <sup>27</sup>So then, I used my power against you. I took away some of your land. I let those who hated you defeat you. They were the Philistine women. Even they were ashamed of your evil ways. <sup>28</sup>Also, you had sexual relations with the Assyrians because you could not be satisfied. You had sexual relations with them, but you still were not satisfied. <sup>29</sup>You did even more sexual sins in the land of Babylonia. The Babylonians were traders. But you were not satisfied even with this.

<sup>30</sup>“Truly your will is weak, says the Lord God. You do all the things a stubborn prostitute does. <sup>31</sup>You built your place to worship false gods at the beginning of every street. And you made places of worship in every city square. But you were not like a prostitute because you refused payment.

<sup>a</sup>cord The umbilical cord that gives the unborn baby food and air from its mother.

<sup>32</sup>“You are a wife who is guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> You desire strangers instead of your husband. <sup>33</sup>Men pay prostitutes, but you pay all your lovers. You pay them to come to you. And they come from all around for sexual relations. <sup>34</sup>So you are different from other prostitutes. No one acts like a prostitute the same way you do. You give money, and no money is given to you. Yes, you are different.

The Prostitute Is Judged

<sup>35</sup>“So, prostitute,<sup>d</sup> hear the word of the Lord. <sup>36</sup>This is what the Lord God says: You showed your riches to other countries. And you uncovered your body in your sexual sins with your lovers. And you even did it with all your hated idols. You killed your children and offered their blood to your idols. <sup>37</sup>So I will gather all your lovers with whom you found pleasure. Yes, I will gather all those you loved and those you hated. Yes, I will gather them against you from all around. I will strip you naked in front of them. Then they will be able to see your nakedness. <sup>38</sup>So I will punish you as judges punish women guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> I will punish you as murderers are punished. I will put you to death because I am angry and jealous. <sup>39</sup>I will also hand you over to your lovers. They will tear down your places of worship. They will destroy the places where you worship false gods. They will tear off your clothes and take away your jewelry. They will leave you naked and bare. <sup>40</sup>They will bring a crowd against you. They will throw stones at you and cut you into pieces with their swords. <sup>41</sup>They will burn your houses with fire. They will punish you in front of many women. Then I will put an end to your sexual sins. And you will no longer pay your lovers. <sup>42</sup>Then I will rest from my anger against you. I will stop being jealous. I will be quiet and not angry anymore.

<sup>43</sup>“You didn’t remember when you were young. So you have made me angry in all these ways. And I will repay you for what you have done, says the Lord God. Didn’t you add sexual sins to all your other acts which I hate?

<sup>44</sup>“Everyone who uses wise sayings will say this about you: “The daughter is like her mother.” <sup>45</sup>You are like your mother. She hated her husband and children. You are also like your sisters. They hated their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite. And your father was an Amorite. <sup>46</sup>Now your older sister is Samaria. She lived north of you with her daughters. And your younger sister Sodom lived south of you with her daughters. <sup>47</sup>You followed their ways. And you did what they did. But you were even worse than they were in everything you did. <sup>48</sup>As surely as I live, says the Lord God, this is true. Your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.

<sup>49</sup>“This was the sin of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were proud. They had plenty of food. They lived in great comfort. But she did not help the poor and needy. <sup>50</sup>So Sodom and her daughters were proud. And they did things I hate in front of me. So I got rid of them when I saw what they did. <sup>51</sup>Also, Samaria did not do half the sins you do. You have done more hated things than they did. So you make your sisters look good because of all the hated things you have done. <sup>52</sup>You will suffer disgrace because you have provided an excuse for your sisters. They are more right than you are. Your sins were even more terrible than theirs. Be ashamed and suffer disgrace because you made your sisters seem right.

<sup>53</sup>“But I will give Sodom and her daughters their riches back. I will give Samaria and her daughters their riches back. And with them I will also give you back your riches. <sup>54</sup>But you will have to suffer disgrace. You will feel ashamed for all the things you have done. You even gave comfort to your sisters in their sins. <sup>55</sup>Your sisters are Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters. They will return to what they were before. You and your daughters will also return to what you were before. <sup>56</sup>You would not even mention your sister Samaria when you were proud. <sup>57</sup>Nor would you mention her before your evil was uncovered. And now the Edomite women and their neighbors say bad things about you. Even the Philistine women say bad things about you. Those around you hate you. <sup>58</sup>You will be punished for your sexual sins and actions that I hate, says the Lord.

God Keeps His Promises

<sup>59</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: I will give you what you should have. You hated and broke the marriage agreement. <sup>60</sup>But I will remember my agreement I made with you when you were young. I will make an agreement that will continue forever with you. <sup>61</sup>Then you will remember what you have done. You will be ashamed when you receive your sisters—both your older and your younger sisters. I will give them to you like daughters. But it will not be because of my agreement with you. <sup>62</sup>I will set up my agreement with you. And you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>63</sup>You will remember and be ashamed. You will not open your mouth again because of your shame. This is because I will forgive you for all the things you have done, says the Lord God.' "

The Eagle and the Vine

17 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"Human being, give a riddle. Tell a story to the people of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Say, 'This is what the Lord God says: A great eagle came to Lebanon. He had great wings with long feathers of many different colors. The eagle took hold of the top of a cedar tree. <sup>4</sup>He pulled off the top branch. And he brought it to a land of traders. The eagle planted it in a city of traders.

<sup>5</sup>"The eagle took a young plant from the land. And he planted it in a good field near plenty of water. He planted it to grow like a willow tree. <sup>6</sup>The plant grew and became a low vine that spread over the ground. The vine's branches turned toward the eagle. The vine's roots were under the eagle. So the plant became a vine. And its branches grew, sending out leaves.

<sup>7</sup>"'But there was another eagle with great wings and many feathers. The vine then bent its roots toward this eagle. The vine also sent out its branches toward the eagle so he could water it. The vine turned away from the area where it was planted. <sup>8</sup>It was planted in a good field. It was by plenty of water so it could grow branches and give fruit. It could have become a fine vine.'

<sup>9</sup>"Say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: The vine will not continue to grow. The first eagle will pull up the vine's roots and strip off its fruit. Then the vine will dry up. All its new leaves will dry up and die. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull the vine up by its roots. <sup>10</sup>It might be planted again. But it will not continue to grow. It will completely die when the east wind hits it. It will dry up in the area where it grew.' "

Zedekiah Against Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>12</sup>"Say now to the people who refuse to obey: 'Do you know what these things mean?' Say: 'The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem. He took the king and important men of Jerusalem and brought them to Babylon. <sup>13</sup>Then he took a member of the family of the king of Judah. He made an agreement with him. The king of Babylon made this person promise to support him. The king also took away the leaders of Judah. <sup>14</sup>He did this to make the kingdom of Judah weak so it would not be strong again. Then the kingdom of Judah could continue only by keeping its agreement with the king of Babylon. <sup>15</sup>But the king of Judah turned against the king of Babylon. The king of Judah sent his messengers to Egypt. He asked the Egyptians for horses and many soldiers. Will the king of Judah succeed? Will the one who does such things escape? He cannot break the agreement and escape.

<sup>16</sup>"'As surely as I live, says the Lord God, he will die in Babylon. He will die in the land of the king who made him king of Judah. The king of Judah hated his promise. He broke his agreement with the king of Babylon. <sup>17</sup>The king of Egypt will not help the king of Judah in the war. He will not help with his mighty army and many people. The Babylonians will build devices to attack the cities and to kill many people. <sup>18</sup>The king of Judah showed that he hated the promise by breaking the agreement. He promised to support Babylon, but he did all these things. So he will not escape.

<sup>19</sup>"'So this is what the Lord God says: As surely as I live, this is true: I will pay back the king of Judah for hating my promise and breaking my agreement. <sup>20</sup>I will spread my net over him. He will be caught in my trap. Then I will bring him to Babylon. There I will judge him for the unfaithful acts he did against me. <sup>21</sup>And all the best of his soldiers who escape will die by the sword. Those who live will be scattered to every wind. Then you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken.

<sup>22</sup>"'This is what the Lord God says: I myself will also take a young branch from the top of a cedar tree. And I will plant it. I will cut off a small twig. It will be from the top of the tree's young branches. I will plant it on a high and great mountain. <sup>23</sup>I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. Then it will grow branches and give fruit. And it will become a great cedar tree. Birds of every kind will build nests in it. They will live in the shelter of the tree's branches. <sup>24</sup>Then all the trees of the field will know that I am the Lord. I am the one who brings down the high tree. I make the low tree tall. I dry up the green tree. And I make the dry tree grow. I am the Lord. I have spoken, and I will do it.' "

God Is Fair

18 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"What do you mean by using this saying about the land of Israel:

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes.

And that caused the children to grind their teeth from the sour taste?'

<sup>3</sup>“As surely as I live, says the Lord God, this is true: You will not use this saying in Israel anymore. <sup>4</sup>Every living thing belongs to me. The life of the father is mine. And the life of the son is mine. The person who sins will die.

<sup>5</sup>“There may be a good person. This person does what is fair and right. <sup>6</sup>He does not eat at the mountain places of worship. He does not look to the idols of Israel for help. He does not have sexual relations with his neighbor's wife. He does not have sexual relations with a woman during her time of monthly bleeding. <sup>7</sup>He does not mistreat anyone. But he returns what was given as a promise for a loan. He does not rob other people. He gives bread to hungry people. He gives clothes to those who have no clothes. <sup>8</sup>He does not lend money to get too much interest or profit. He keeps his hand from doing wrong. He judges fairly between men. <sup>9</sup>He lives by my rules and obeys my laws faithfully. The person who does all these things is good. He will surely live, says the Lord God.

<sup>10</sup>“But this person might have a wild son who murders people. This son may do any of these other bad things. <sup>11</sup>(But the father himself has not done any of these things.) This son eats at the mountain places of worship. He has sexual relations with his neighbor's wife. <sup>12</sup>He mistreats the poor and needy. He steals things. He refuses to return what was promised for a loan. He looks to idols for help. He does things which I hate. <sup>13</sup>He lends money for too much interest and profit. Will this son live? No, he will not live! He has done all these hated things. He will surely be put to death. He will be responsible for his own sins.

<sup>14</sup>“But this son might have a son who has seen the sins his father did. But after seeing them, he does not do those things. <sup>15</sup>He does not eat at the mountain places of worship. He does not look to the idols of Israel for help. He does not have sexual relations with his neighbor's wife. <sup>16</sup>He does not mistreat anyone. He does not keep something promised for a loan. He does not steal. But he gives bread to the hungry people. He gives clothes to people without clothes. <sup>17</sup>He keeps his hand from doing wrong. He does not take too much interest or profit when he lends money. He obeys my laws and lives by my rules. He will not die for his father's sin. He will surely live. <sup>18</sup>But his father took other people's money unfairly. He robbed his brother. He did what was wrong among his people. So he will die for his own sin.

<sup>19</sup>“But you ask, ‘Why is the son not punished for the father's sin?’ The son has done what is fair and right. He obeys all my rules. So he will surely live. <sup>20</sup>It is the person who sins that will die. The son will not be punished for the father's sin. The father will not be punished for the son's sin. The person who does right is responsible for his own goodness. The evil person is responsible for his own evil.

<sup>21</sup>“But the evil person might stop doing all the sins he has done. And he might obey all my rules and do what is fair and right. Then he will surely live. He will not die. <sup>22</sup>His sins will be forgotten. Now he does what is right. So he will live. <sup>23</sup>I do not really want the evil person to die, says the Lord God. I want him to stop his bad ways and live.

<sup>24</sup>“But a person who does right might stop doing good and do wrong. And he might do the same hated things an evil person does. Will he live? All his good acts will be forgotten. This is because he became unfaithful. He has sinned. So he will die because of his sins.

<sup>25</sup>“But you say, ‘What the Lord does isn't fair.’ Hear now, people of Israel. I am fair. It is what you do that is not fair! <sup>26</sup>A good person might stop doing good. He might do wrong and die because of it. He will die because he did wrong. <sup>27</sup>An evil person might stop doing the evil things he has done. And he might do what is fair and right. He will save his life. <sup>28</sup>He thought about it and stopped doing all the sins he had done. He will surely live. He will not die. <sup>29</sup>But the people of Israel still say, ‘What the Lord does isn't fair.’ People of Israel, I am fair. It is what you do that is not fair.

<sup>30</sup>“So I will judge you, people of Israel. I will judge each person by what he does, says the Lord God. Change your hearts. Stop all your sinning. Then sin will not bring your ruin. <sup>31</sup>Get rid of all the sins you have done. And get for yourselves a new heart and a new way to think. Why do you want to die, people of Israel? <sup>32</sup>I do not want anyone to die. So change your hearts and lives so you may live.

A Sad Song for Israel

19 “Sing a funeral song for the leaders of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Say:

‘Your mother was like a female lion.
She lay down among the young lions.
She had many cubs.

<sup>3</sup>She brought up one of her cubs.
And he became a strong lion.
He learned to tear the animals he hunted.
And he ate people.

<sup>4</sup>The nations heard about him.
He was trapped in their pit.
And they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>“The mother lion waited and saw that there was no hope for her cub. So she took another one of her cubs and made him a strong lion.
<sup>6</sup>This cub roamed among the lions. He was now a strong lion. He learned to tear the animals he hunted. And he ate people.
<sup>7</sup>He destroyed their strong places. He destroyed their cities. The land and everything in it were terrified by the sound of his roar.
<sup>8</sup>Then the nations came against him from areas all around. And they spread their net over him. He was trapped in their pit.
<sup>9</sup>Then they put him into a cage with chains. And they brought him to the king of Babylon. They put him into prison. Then his roar could not be heard again on the mountains of Israel.
<sup>10</sup>“Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard. It was planted beside the water. The vine had many branches and gave much fruit because there was plenty of water.
<sup>11</sup>The vine had strong branches. They were good enough for a king’s scepter.<sup>a</sup> The vine became tall among the thick branches. And it was seen because it was tall with many branches.
<sup>12</sup>But it was pulled up by its roots in anger. It was thrown down to the ground. The east wind dried it up. Its fruit was torn off. Its strong branches were broken off. They were burned up.
<sup>13</sup>Now the vine is planted in the desert, in a dry and thirsty land.
<sup>14</sup>And fire has spread from the vine’s main branch. It has destroyed its fruit. There is not a strong branch left on it that could become a scepter for a king.’

This is a funeral song. It is to be used as a funeral song.”

Israel Has Refused God

20 It was the seventh year, in the fifth month of our captivity. It was the tenth day of the month. Some of the older leaders of Israel came to ask about the Lord. They sat down before me.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>3</sup>“Human being, speak to the older leaders of Israel. Say to them: ‘This is what the Lord God says: Did you come to ask me questions? As surely as I live, I will not let you ask me questions.’”

<sup>4</sup>“Will you judge them? Will you judge them, human being? Let them know the hated things their fathers did. <sup>5</sup>Say to them: ‘This is what the Lord God says: I chose Israel and made a promise to the descendants<sup>a</sup> of Jacob. At that time I made myself known to them in Egypt. I promised them, “I am the Lord your God.”’ <sup>6</sup>At that time I promised them I would bring them out of Egypt. I promised to bring them into a land I had chosen for them. This is a land where much food grows. It is the best of all lands. <sup>7</sup>I said to them, “Each one of you must throw away the hateful idols you have set your eyes on. Don’t make yourselves unclean<sup>a</sup> with the idols of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.”’

<sup>8</sup>“But they turned against me and refused to listen to me. They did not throw away the hated idols which they saw and liked. They did not leave the idols of Egypt. Then I decided to pour out my anger against them in the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>But I acted to show who I am. I did not allow myself to be dishonored before the nations where the Israelites lived. I made myself known to the Israelites. I did this by bringing them out of Egypt while the nations were watching. <sup>10</sup>So I took them out of Egypt and brought them into the desert. <sup>11</sup>I gave them my rules. I told them about my laws. If a person obeys them, he will live. <sup>12</sup>I also gave them my Sabbaths.<sup>a</sup> They were to be a sign between us. Then they would know that I am the Lord. I make them holy.

<sup>13</sup>“But in the desert Israel turned against me. They did not follow my rules. They rejected my laws. But if a person obeys them, he will live. They dishonored my Sabbaths. Then I decided to pour out my anger against them and destroy them in the desert. <sup>14</sup>But I acted for the sake of my name. I did not allow it to be dishonored before the nations. As the nations watched, I had brought the Israelites out of Egypt. <sup>15</sup>But in the desert I had to make another promise to the Israelites. I had to promise I would not bring them into the land I had given them. It is a land where much food grows. It is the best of all the lands. <sup>16</sup>This is because they rejected my laws. They did not follow my rules. They dishonored my Sabbaths. They would rather worship their idols. <sup>17</sup>But I had pity on them. I did not destroy them. I did not put an end to them in the desert. <sup>18</sup>I said to their children in the desert, "Don't live by the rules of your fathers. Don't obey their laws. Don't make yourselves unclean with their idols. <sup>19</sup>I am the Lord your God. Live by my rules. Obey my laws and do them. <sup>20</sup>Keep my Sabbaths holy. They will be a sign between me and you. Then you will know that I am the Lord your God."

<sup>21</sup>"But the people turned against me. If a person obeys my laws, he will live. But they did not live by my rules. They were not careful to obey my laws. They dishonored my Sabbaths. So I decided to pour out my anger against them. I decided to carry out my anger against them in the desert. <sup>22</sup>But I held back my anger. I acted for the sake of my name. Then my name would not be dishonored with the nations watching. As the nations watched, I had brought the Israelites out from Egypt. <sup>23</sup>Also in the desert I had to make a promise to the Israelites. I had to promise to scatter them among the nations and spread them among the countries. <sup>24</sup>This is because they did not obey my laws. They had rejected my rules and dishonored my Sabbaths. And they worshiped the idols of their ancestors. <sup>25</sup>I also allowed them to follow rules that were not good. And they followed laws by which they could not live. <sup>26</sup>I let the Israelites make themselves unclean by the gifts they brought to their false gods. They sacrificed their oldest children in the fire. This is how I shocked them so they would know that I am the Lord."

<sup>27</sup>"So, human being, speak to the people of Israel. Say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: Your ancestors spoke against me by being unfaithful to me in this way: <sup>28</sup>I had brought them into the land I promised to give them. They saw every high hill and every leafy tree. There they offered their sacrifices to false gods. They brought offerings that made me angry. There, also, they burned their incense. <sup>a</sup> There they poured out their drink offerings. <sup>29</sup>Then I said to them: What is this place where you go to worship false gods?' " (It is still called High Place today.)

<sup>30</sup>"So say to the people of Israel: 'This is what the Lord God says: Will you make yourselves unclean as your ancestors did? Will you be unfaithful and desire their hated idols? <sup>31</sup>You offer your children as gifts to the false gods. You sacrifice them in the fire. You make yourselves unclean with all your idols even today. So, people of Israel, should I let you ask me questions? As surely as I live, says the Lord God, I will not accept questions from you.

<sup>32</sup>"What you want will not come true. You say, "We want to be like the other nations and the people in other lands. We want to worship idols made of wood and stone." <sup>33</sup>As surely as I live, says the Lord God, I will rule you. I will rule you with my great power and strength and anger. <sup>34</sup>I will bring you out from the foreign nations. I will gather you from the lands where you are scattered. I will do this with my great power and strength and anger. <sup>35</sup>I will bring you among the nations as I brought your ancestors into the desert with Moses. There I will judge you face to face. <sup>36</sup>I will judge you the same way I judged your ancestors. That was in the desert of the land of Egypt. So I will judge you, says the Lord God. <sup>37</sup>I will take control of you. I will punish you by my agreement. <sup>38</sup>I will get rid of those who refuse to obey me and who turn against me. I will bring them out of the land where they are now living. But they will never enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>39</sup>"This is what the Lord God says: People of Israel, go serve your idols for now. But later you will listen to me. You will not continue to dishonor my holy name with your gifts and false gods. <sup>40</sup>My holy mountain is the high mountain of Israel. There all Israel will serve me in the land, says the Lord God. There I will accept you. There I will look for your offerings. I will look for the first harvest of your offerings and all your holy gifts. <sup>41</sup>I will accept you like a pleasing smell. This will happen when I bring you out from the foreign nations. It will take place when I gather you from the lands where you are scattered. Then through you I will show how holy I am. The nations will see it. <sup>42</sup>When I bring you into the land of Israel, you will know that I am the Lord. I will bring you into the land I promised your ancestors. <sup>43</sup>There you will remember everything you did that made you unclean. Then you will hate yourselves for all the evil things you have done. <sup>44</sup>I will deal with you to show who I am. Then you will know I am the Lord, people of Israel. But it's not because of your evil ways or unclean actions, says the Lord God.' "

<sup>45</sup>Now the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>46</sup>"Human being, look toward the south. Prophecy <sup>a</sup> against the south. Prophecy against the forest of the southern area. <sup>47</sup>Say to that forest: 'Hear the word of the Lord. This is what the Lord God says: I am ready to start a fire in you. The fire will destroy all your green trees and all your dry trees. The flame that burns will not be put out. All the land from south to north will be burned by the fire. <sup>48</sup>Then all the people will see that I, the Lord, have started the fire. It will not be put out.' "

<sup>49</sup>Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! The people are saying about me, 'He is only telling stories.' "

Babylon, the Lord's Sword

21 Then the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"Human being, look toward Jerusalem and speak against their holy place. Prophecy<sup>d</sup> against the land of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Say to Israel: 'This is what the Lord says: I am against you. I will pull my sword out of its holder. I will separate you from both wicked people and those who do right. <sup>4</sup>I am going to separate the wicked and those who do right. So my sword will come out from its holder. And it will come against all people from south to north. <sup>5</sup>Then all people will know that I, the Lord, have pulled my sword out from its holder. My sword will not go back in again.'

<sup>6</sup>"So, human being, groan with breaking heart and great sadness. Make these sad sounds in front of the people. <sup>7</sup>They will ask you, 'Why do you make these sad sounds?' Then you will say, 'Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear. All hands will become weak. Everyone will be afraid. All knees will become weak as water. Look, it is coming. It will happen, says Lord God.' "

<sup>8</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said, <sup>9</sup>"Human being, prophesy and say, 'This is what the Lord says:

A sword, a sword,
made sharp and polished.

<sup>10</sup>It is made sharp for the killing.

It is polished to flash like lightning.

"You are not happy about this horrible punishment by the sword. But my son, Judah, you did not change when you were only beaten with a rod.

<sup>11</sup>The sword should be polished.

The sword is meant to be held in the hand.

It is made sharp and polished.

It is made ready for the hand of the killer.

<sup>12</sup>Shout and yell, human being.

This is because the sword is against my people.

It is against all the rulers of Israel.

They will be killed by the sword,
along with my people.

So beat your chest in sadness.

<sup>13</sup>"The test will come. And Judah, who is hated by the armies of Babylon, will not last, says the Lord God.'

<sup>14</sup>"So, human being, prophesy.

And clap your hands.

Let the sword hit

two or three times.

It is the sword for killing.

It is the sword for much killing.

This sword surrounds the people.

<sup>15</sup>Their hearts will melt with fear.

And many people will die.

I have placed the killing sword at all their gates.

Oh! The sword is made to flash like lightning.

It is held, ready for killing.

<sup>16</sup>Sword, cut on the right side.

Then cut on the left side.

Cut anywhere your blade is turned.

<sup>17</sup>I will also clap my hands.

Then my anger will rest.

I, the Lord, have spoken."

Jerusalem to Be Destroyed

<sup>18</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said:

<sup>19</sup>"Human being, mark two roads that the king of Babylon and his sword can follow. Both of these roads will start from the same country. And make signs where the road divides and one way goes toward the city. <sup>20</sup>One sign shows the road he can take with his sword to Rabbah. It is in the land of the Ammonites. And the other sign shows the road he can take to Judah and Jerusalem. Jerusalem is protected with strong walls. <sup>21</sup>The king of Babylon will come to where the road divides into two. He will use magic. He will throw lots<sup>d</sup> with arrows. He will ask questions of his family idols.

He will look at the liver of a sacrificed animal to learn where he should go. <sup>22</sup>The lots will tell him to go toward his right to Jerusalem. They will tell him these things: Use logs to break down the city gates. Shout the battle cry and give the order to kill. Build a dirt road to the top of the walls and devices to attack the walls. <sup>23</sup>The people of Jerusalem have made agreements with other nations to help them fight Babylon. So they will think this prediction is wrong. But the king of Babylon will remind them of their sin. And he will capture them.

<sup>24</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: 'You have shown how sinful you are by turning against the Lord. Your sins are seen in all the things you do. So you will be taken captive by the enemy.'

<sup>25</sup>“You unclean<sup>d</sup> and evil leader of Israel, you will be killed! The time of your final punishment has come. <sup>26</sup>This is what the Lord God says: Take off the turban. Take off the crown. Things will change. Those who are important now will be made unimportant. And those who are unimportant now will be made important. <sup>27</sup>A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin! This place will not be rebuilt until the one comes who has a right to be king. Then I will give it to him.’

The Punishment of Ammon

<sup>28</sup>“And you, human being, prophesy<sup>d</sup> and say: ‘This is what the Lord God says about the people of Ammon and their insults:

A sword, a sword is pulled out of its holder.

It is polished to kill and destroy.

It will flash like lightning!

<sup>29</sup>Prophets<sup>d</sup> see false visions about you and prophesy lies about you.

The sword will be put on the necks of these evil people who are to be killed.
Their day has come.

The time of your final punishment has come.

<sup>30</sup>Put the sword back in its holder.

I will judge you in the place where you were created.

I will judge you in the land where you were born.

<sup>31</sup>I will pour out my anger against you.

I will breathe on you with the fire of my anger.

I will hand you over to cruel men who are skilled in destruction.

<sup>32</sup>You will be like fuel for the fire.

You will die in the land.

You will not be remembered.

I, the Lord, have spoken.’”

The Sins of Jerusalem

22 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“And you, human being, will you judge? Will you judge the city of murderers? Then tell her about all her hated acts. <sup>3</sup>You will say: ‘This is what the Lord God says: You are a city that kills those who come to live there. You make yourself unclean<sup>d</sup> by making idols. <sup>4</sup>You have become guilty of murder. And you have become unclean by your idols which you have made. So you have brought your time of punishment near. You have come to the end of your years. So I have made you a thing of shame to the nations. All lands will laugh at you. <sup>5</sup>Those near and those far away will laugh at you. You will have a bad name. You will be full of confusion.

<sup>6</sup>“Jerusalem, see how each ruler of Israel in you has been trying to kill people. <sup>7</sup>The people in you hate their fathers and mothers. They mistreat the foreigners in you. They wrong the orphans and widows in you. <sup>8</sup>You hate my holy things. You dishonor my Sabbaths.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>The men in you tell lies to cause the death of others. The people in you eat food offered to idols at the mountain places of worship. They do sexual sins in you. <sup>10</sup>The people in you have sexual relations with their fathers’ wives. The men in you have sexual relations with women who are unclean, during their time of monthly bleeding. <sup>11</sup>One person in you does a hated act with his neighbor’s wife. Another has shamefully made his daughter-in-law unclean sexually. And another forces his half sister to have sexual relations with him. <sup>12</sup>The people in you take money to kill people. You take unfair interest and profits. You make profits by mistreating your neighbor. And you have forgotten me, says the Lord God.

<sup>13</sup>“So with my fists I will hit you who have stolen money and you who have murdered people. <sup>14</sup>Will you still be brave and strong when I punish you? I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will act. <sup>15</sup>I will scatter you among the nations. I will spread you through the countries. I will get rid of your uncleanness. <sup>16</sup>But you, yourself, will be dishonored in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

Israel Is Worthless

<sup>17</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>18</sup>“Human being, the people of Israel have become useless like scum to me. They are like the copper, tin, iron and lead left in the furnace. These are left when silver is purified by melting. <sup>19</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: ‘You have become useless like scum. I am going to gather you into Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>People gather silver, copper, iron, lead and tin into a furnace. Then they melt it in a blazing fire. In the same way I will gather you in my hot anger. I will put you in Jerusalem and melt you. <sup>21</sup>I will gather you. And I will make you feel the heat of my anger. You will be melted in the fire. <sup>22</sup>Silver is melted in the furnace. In the same way you will be melted in the city. Then you will know that I, the Lord, have poured out my anger against you.’”

Sins of the People

<sup>23</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said:

<sup>24</sup>“Human being, say to the land, ‘You are a land that has not had rain or showers in a day of anger.’ <sup>25</sup>Israel’s rulers make evil plans. They are like a roaring lion that tears the animal it has caught. They have destroyed lives. They have taken treasure and valuable things. They have caused many women to become widows. <sup>26</sup>Israel’s priests do cruel things to my teachings. They do not honor my holy things. They make no difference between holy and unholy things. They teach there is no difference between clean<sup>d</sup> and unclean things. They do not remember my Sabbaths.<sup>d</sup> So I am dishonored by them. <sup>27</sup>Jerusalem’s leaders are like wolves tearing a dead animal. They have killed people for profit. <sup>28</sup>And the prophets<sup>d</sup> try to cover this up by false visions and by lying. They say, ‘This is what the Lord God says’ when the Lord has not spoken. <sup>29</sup>The people cheat others. They steal. They hurt people who are poor and needy. They cheat foreigners and don’t treat them fairly.

<sup>30</sup>“I looked for someone to build up the walls. I looked for someone to stand before me where the walls are broken to defend these people. Then I would not have to destroy them. But I did not find anyone. <sup>31</sup>So I will let them see my anger. I will destroy them with an anger that is like fire. This is because of all the things they have done, says the Lord God.”

Samaria and Jerusalem

23 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, a woman had two daughters. <sup>3</sup>While they were young, they went to Egypt and became prostitutes.<sup>d</sup> They let men touch and hold their breasts. <sup>4</sup>The older girl was named Oholah, and her sister was named Oholibah. They were mine and had sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>“So I gave her to her lovers, the Assyrians, that she wanted so badly. <sup>10</sup>They stripped her naked and took away her sons and daughters. Then they killed her with a sword. Women everywhere began talking about how she had been punished.

<sup>11</sup>“Her sister Jerusalem saw what happened to Samaria. And so Jerusalem became worse than her sister in her sexual desire and prostitution. <sup>12</sup>She also desired the Assyrians. All of them—governors, commanders, warriors dressed in uniform, and horsemen—were handsome. <sup>13</sup>I saw that both girls were alike. Both of them were prostitutes.

<sup>14</sup>“But Jerusalem went even further. She saw carvings of Babylonian men on a wall. They wore red <sup>15</sup>and had belts around their waists. They wore turbans on their heads. They all looked like chariot officers born in Babylonia. <sup>16</sup>When she saw them, she wanted to have sexual relations with them. So she sent messengers to them in Babylonia. <sup>17</sup>So these Babylonian men came and had sexual relations with her. They made her unclean. After that, she became sick of them. <sup>18</sup>But she continued her prostitution so that everyone knew about it. And I finally became sick of her, as I had her sister. <sup>19</sup>But she remembered how she was a young prostitute in Egypt. So she took part in even more prostitution. <sup>20</sup>She wanted men who behaved like animals in their sexual desire. <sup>21</sup>In the same way you desired to do the sinful things you had done in Egypt. There men touched and held your young breasts.

God’s Judgment on Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup>“So, Jerusalem, this is what the Lord God says: You have tired of your lovers. So now I will make them angry with you. And they will surround you. <sup>23</sup>Men from Babylon and all Babylonia and men from Pekod, Shoa and Koa will come against you. All the Assyrians will come against you. They are governors, commanders, chariot drivers and important men, all riding horses. <sup>24</sup>Those men will come with great armies. They will come with their weapons, chariots and wagons. They will surround you with large and small shields and with helmets. And I will hand you over to them for punishment. And they will punish you with their own kind of punishment. <sup>25</sup>Then you will see how strong my anger can be. They will punish you in their anger. They will cut off your noses and ears. They will take away your sons and daughters. Those who are left will be burned. <sup>26</sup>They will take off your clothes and steal your jewelry. <sup>27</sup>I will put a stop to the sinful life you began when you were in Egypt. You will not desire these things anymore. And you will not remember Egypt anymore.

came sick of your lovers. But I am giving you to those men you now hate. <sup>29</sup>They will treat you with hate and take away everything you worked for. They will leave you empty and naked. Everyone will know about the sinful things you did. Your sexual sins <sup>30</sup>have brought this on you. You have made yourselves unclean<sup>d</sup> by worshiping their idols. <sup>31</sup>You did the same things your sister did. So you will get the same punishment.

<sup>32</sup>“This is what the Lord God says:

You will drink the same cup your sister did.

And that cup is deep and wide.

Everyone will make fun of you, because the cup is full.

<sup>33</sup>It will make you miserable and drunk.

It is the cup of fear and ruin.

It is the cup of your sister Samaria.

<sup>34</sup>You will drink everything in it.

Then you will smash it and tear at your breasts.

I have spoken, says the Lord God.

<sup>35</sup>“So this is what the Lord God says: You have forgotten me and turned your back on me. So you will be punished for your sexual sins.”

Judgment on Samaria and Jerusalem

<sup>36</sup>The Lord said to me: “Human being, will you judge Samaria and Jerusalem? Then show them their hated acts. <sup>37</sup>They are guilty of adultery<sup>d</sup> and murder. They have taken part in adultery with their idols. They even offered their children as sacrifices in the fire. They were to be food for these idols. <sup>38</sup>They have also done this to me: They made my Temple<sup>d</sup> unclean<sup>d</sup> at the same time they dishonored my Sabbaths.<sup>d</sup> <sup>39</sup>They offered their children to their idols. Then they entered my Temple at that very time to dishonor it. That is what they did inside my Temple.

<sup>40</sup>“They even sent for men from far away. A messenger was sent to them, and they came. The two sisters bathed themselves for them, painted their eyes and put on jewelry. <sup>41</sup>They sat on a fine bed with a table set before it. They put my incense<sup>d</sup> and my oil on the table.

<sup>42</sup>“There was the noise of a reckless crowd in the city. Common people gathered, and drunkards were brought from the desert. They put bracelets on the hands of the two sisters. And they put beautiful crowns on their heads. <sup>43</sup>Then I said about the one who was worn out by her acts of adultery, ‘Let them continue their sexual sins with her. She is nothing but a prostitute.’<sup>d</sup> <sup>44</sup>They kept going to her as they would go to a prostitute. So they continued to go to Oholah, which was Samaria, and Oholibah, which was Jerusalem. These were the shameful women. <sup>45</sup>But men who do right will judge them as they judge women who take part in adultery. And they will judge them as they judge women who murder people. This is because Samaria and Jerusalem are guilty of adultery and murder.

<sup>46</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: Bring together a mob against Samaria and Jerusalem. And hand them over to be frightened and robbed. <sup>47</sup>Let the mob kill them by throwing stones at them. Let the mob cut them down with their swords. Let them kill their sons and daughters and burn their houses with fire.

<sup>48</sup>“So I will put an end to sexual sins in the land. Then all women will be warned. And they will not do the sexual sins you have done. <sup>49</sup>You will be punished for your sexual sins and the sin of worshiping idols. Then you will know that I am the Lord God.”

The Pot and the Meat

24 The Lord spoke his word to me. It was in the ninth year, in the tenth month of our captivity. It was on the tenth day of the month. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, write for yourself this date, this very date. The king of Babylon has surrounded Jerusalem this very day. <sup>3</sup>And tell a story to the people who refuse to obey me. Say to them: ‘This is what the Lord God says:

Put on the pot. Put it on and pour water in it.

<sup>4</sup>Put in the pieces of meat.

Put in the best pieces—the legs and the shoulders.

Fill it with the best bones.

<sup>5</sup> Take the best of the flock.

Pile wood under the pot.

Boil the pieces of meat until even the bones are cooked.

<sup>6</sup>“ ‘This is what the Lord God says:

How terrible it will be for the city of murderers!

How terrible it will be for the rusty pot!

Its rust will not go away!

Take the meat out of it, piece by piece.

Don’t choose any special piece.

<sup>7</sup>“ ‘The blood from her killings is still in the city.

She poured the blood on the bare rock.

She did not pour it on the ground where dust would cover it.

<sup>8</sup>To stir up my anger and revenge,

I put the blood she spilled on the bare rock.

So it will not be covered.

<sup>9</sup>“So this is what the Lord God says: How terrible it will be for the city of murderers!

I will also pile the wood high for burning.

<sup>10</sup>Pile up the wood and light the fire.

Finish cooking the meat.

Mix in the spices.

And let the bones burn.

<sup>11</sup>Then set the empty pot on the coals.

It will become hot, and its copper sides will glow.

The dirty scum stuck inside it may then melt and its rust burn away.

<sup>12</sup>But efforts to clean the pot have failed.

Its heavy rust cannot be removed, even in the fire.

<sup>13</sup>“In your sinful action there is shame. I wanted to cleanse you, but you are still unclean.<sup>d</sup> You will never be cleansed from your sin until my anger against you is carried out.

<sup>14</sup>“I, the Lord, have spoken. The time has come for me to act. I will not hold back punishment. I will not feel pity. I will judge you by your ways and actions, says the Lord God.”

The Death of Ezekiel's Wife

<sup>15</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>16</sup>“Human being, I am going to take your wife from you. She is the desire of your eyes. She will die suddenly. But you must not be sad or cry loudly for her. You must not shed any tears. <sup>17</sup>Groan silently. Do not cry loudly for the dead. Tie on your turban, and put your sandals on your feet. Do not cover your face. And do not eat the food people eat when they are sad about a death.”

<sup>18</sup>So I spoke to the people in the morning. Then my wife died in the evening. The next morning I did as I had been commanded.

<sup>19</sup>Then the people asked me, “Tell us, what do the things you are doing mean for us?”

<sup>20</sup>Then I said to them, “The Lord spoke his word to me. He said, <sup>21</sup>‘Say to the people of Israel, This is what the Lord God says: I am going to dishonor my Temple.<sup>d</sup> You think it gives you strength. You are proud of it. You love to look at it. It makes you happy. But your sons and daughters that you left behind in Jerusalem will fall dead by the sword. <sup>22</sup>And you will do as I have done. You will not cover your face. You will not eat the food people eat when they are sad about a death. <sup>23</sup>Your turbans will be on your heads. And your sandals will be on your feet. You will not cry loudly. But you will rot away in your sins. You will groan to each other. <sup>24</sup>So Ezekiel will be a sign for you. You will do all the same things he did. When it happens, you will know that I am the Lord God.’

<sup>25</sup>“And as for you, human being, this is how it will be. I will take away the Temple that gives them strength. It makes them happy and proud. They love to look at it. It makes them happy. And I will take away their sons and daughters also. <sup>26</sup>At that time the person who escapes will come to you. He will have information for you to hear. <sup>27</sup>At that time your mouth will be opened. You will speak and be silent no more. So you will be a sign for them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Ammon

25 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, look toward the people of Ammon and prophesy<sup>d</sup> against them. <sup>3</sup>Say to them, ‘Hear the word of the Lord God. This is what the Lord God says: You were glad when my Temple<sup>d</sup> was dishonored. You were glad when the land of Israel was ruined. And you were glad when the people of Judah were taken away as captives. <sup>4</sup>So I am going to give you to the people of the East to be theirs. They will set up their camps among you. They will make their homes among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk. <sup>5</sup>And I will make the city of Rabbah a pasture for camels. And the land of Ammon will become a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>6</sup>This is what the Lord God says: You clapped your hands and stamped your feet. You are happy about all the insults you have made against the land of Israel. <sup>7</sup>So I will use my power against you. I will give you to the nations as if you were valuables taken in war. I will wipe you out of the lands so you will no longer be a nation. I will destroy you. And you will know that I am the Lord.’”

Prophecy Against Moab and Edom

<sup>8</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: ‘Moab and Edom say, “The people of Judah are like all the other nations.” <sup>9</sup>So I am going to take away the cities that protect Moab's borders. They are the best cities in that land. They are Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon and Kiriathaim. <sup>10</sup>Then I will give Moab, along with the Ammonites, to the people of the East. They will take over these people. Then along with the Ammonites, Moab will not be a nation anymore. <sup>11</sup>So I will punish the people of Moab. And they will know that I am the Lord.' ”

Prophecy Against Edom

<sup>12</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: ‘Edom took revenge on the people of Judah. And the Edomites became guilty because of it. <sup>13</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: I will use my power against Edom. I will kill every man and animal in Edom. And I will destroy Edom all the way from Teman to Dedan. The Edomites will die in battle. <sup>14</sup>I will take revenge on Edom through my people Israel. So the Israelites will do to Edom what my hot anger demands. Then the Edomites will know my revenge, says the Lord God.’ ”

Prophecy Against Philistia

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: ‘The Philistines have taken revenge with hateful hearts. Because of their strong hatred, they have tried to destroy Judah. <sup>16</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: I will use my power against the Philistines. I will remove the Kerethites. I will destroy those people still alive on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>17</sup>I will punish them in my anger until they have had enough. They will know that I am the Lord when I punish them.’ ”

Prophecy Against Tyre

26 It was the eleventh year, on the first day of the month of our captivity. The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>24</sup>“Human being, the city of Tyre has spoken against Jerusalem: ‘The city that traded with the nations is destroyed. Now we can be the trading center. The city Jerusalem is ruined. Now we can make money.’ <sup>3</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: I am against you, Tyre. I will bring many nations against you. They will come like the sea beating its waves on your island shores. <sup>4</sup>They will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers. I will also scrape away her ruins. I will make Tyre a bare rock. <sup>5</sup>Tyre will be an island where fishermen dry their nets. I have spoken, says the Lord God. The nations will steal valuable things from Tyre. <sup>6</sup>Also, her villages on the shore across from the island will be destroyed by war. Then they will know that I am the Lord.

Nebuchadnezzar to Attack Tyre

<sup>7</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: I will bring a king from the north against Tyre. He is Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the greatest king. He will bring horses, chariots, horsemen and a great army. <sup>8</sup>He will fight a battle and destroy your villages on the shore across from the island. He will set up devices to attack you. He will build a road of earth to the top of the walls. He will raise his shields against you. <sup>9</sup>He will bring logs to pound through your city walls. And he will break down your towers with his iron bars. <sup>10</sup>His horses will be so many that they will cover you with their dust. Your walls will shake at the noise of horsemen, wagons and chariots. The king of Babylon will enter your city gates. He will enter as men enter a city where the walls are broken through. <sup>11</sup>The hoofs of his horses will run over your streets. He will kill your people with the sword. Your strong pillars will fall down to the ground. <sup>12</sup>Also, his men will take away your riches. They will steal the things you sell. They will break down your walls and destroy your nice houses. They will throw your stones, wood and trash into the sea. <sup>13</sup>So I will stop your songs. The music of your harps will not be heard anymore. <sup>14</sup>I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place for drying fishing nets. You will not be built again. This is because I, the Lord, have spoken, says the Lord God.

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the Lord God says to Tyre: The people who live along the seacoast will shake with fear when they hear your defeat. Those of you who are injured and dying will groan. <sup>16</sup>Then all the leaders of the seacoast will go down from their thrones. They will take off their beautiful needlework clothes. They will clothe themselves with fear. They will sit on the ground. They will shake with fear all the time. They will be shocked when they see you. <sup>17</sup>They will begin singing a funeral song about you. They will say to you:

‘Tyre, you famous city, you have been destroyed!

Once seamen lived in you.

You and your people had great power on the seas.

All the people around you were afraid of you.

<sup>18</sup>Now the people who live by the coast will shake with fear on the day you fall. The islands of the sea will be afraid because you have been defeated.’

<sup>19</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: I will make you an empty city. You will be like the cities that have no people living in them. I will bring the deep ocean waters over you. The Mediterranean Sea will cover you. <sup>20</sup>At that time I will send you down to the place of the dead. You will join the people who died long ago. I will make you live with the dead below the earth among old ruined places. You will not come back from there. People will never live in you again. <sup>21</sup>Other people will be afraid of what happened to you. It will be the end of you. People will look for you. But they will never find you again, says the Lord God."

A Funeral Song for Tyre

27 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"Human being, sing a funeral song for the city of Tyre. <sup>3</sup>Speak to Tyre that is at the entrance to the Mediterranean Sea. For the people of many lands along the seacoast, Tyre is a place for trade. 'This is what the Lord God says:

Tyre, you have said,
"I am like a beautiful ship."

<sup>4</sup>You were at home on the high seas.

Your builders have made your beauty perfect.

<sup>5</sup>Your builders made all your boards of fir trees from Mount Hermon.

They have taken a cedar tree from Lebanon.

They took it to make a ship's mast for you.

<sup>6</sup>They made your oars from oak trees in Bashan.

They made your deck from cypress trees from the coast of Cyprus.

Your deck has ivory set into it.

<sup>7</sup>Your sail of linen with designs sewed on it came from Egypt.

Your sail became like a flag for you.

Your cloth shades over the deck were blue and purple.

They came from the island of Cyprus.

<sup>8</sup>Men from Sidon and Arvad used oars to row you.

Tyre, your skilled men were the sailors on your deck.

<sup>9</sup>Workers of Byblos were on board ship with you.

They put caulk <sup>a</sup> in your ship's seams. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came alongside to trade with you.

<sup>10</sup>"Men of Persia, Lydia and Put were soldiers in your army.

They hung their shields and helmets on your walls.

Their victories made you famous.

<sup>11</sup>Men of Arvad and Celia guarded your city walls all around.

Men of Gammad were in your watchtowers.

They hung their shields around your walls. They made your beauty perfect.

<sup>12</sup>"Tarshish traded with you for many kinds of things. They paid for them with silver, iron, tin and lead.

<sup>13</sup>"People of Greece, Tubal and Meshech traded with you. They traded slaves and bronze things for the things you sell.

<sup>14</sup>"People of Beth Togamah traded work horses, war horses and mules for the things you sell.

<sup>15</sup>"People of Rhodes traded with you. You sold your things on many coastlands. They paid you with ivory tusks and valuable black wood.

<sup>16</sup>"Aram traded with you because you had so many good things to sell. They traded turquoise, purple cloth and cloth with designs sewed on. They also traded fine linen, coral and rubies for the things you sell.

<sup>18</sup>"Damascus traded with you because you have many good things. They paid for them with wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar.

<sup>20</sup>"Dedan traded saddle blankets to you.

<sup>21</sup>"Arabia and all the rulers of Kedar traded with you. They traded lambs, male sheep and goats to you.

<sup>22</sup>"The traders of Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They paid with all the best spices, valuable gems and gold.

<sup>23</sup>"Haran, Canneh, Eden and the traders of Sheba, Asshur and Kilmad traded with you.

<sup>24</sup>They paid with the best clothes, blue cloth and cloth with designs sewed on. They traded carpets of many colors and tightly wound ropes.

<sup>25</sup>"Trading ships carried the things you sold. You were like a ship full of heavy cargo in the middle of the sea.

<sup>26</sup>The men who rowed you brought you out into the high seas.

But the east wind has broken you to pieces <sup>a</sup>caulk Something like tar put between the boards of a ship to make it waterproof so it will not sink.

in the middle of the sea.
<sup>27</sup>Your wealth, your trade and the things you sell will sink.
 Your seamen, your sailors and your workers will sink.
 Your traders, your soldiers, and everyone else on board will sink into the sea.
 This will happen on the day your ship is wrecked.
<sup>28</sup>The people on the shore will shake with fear when your sailors cry out.
<sup>29</sup>All the men who row will leave their ships.
 The seamen and the sailors of other ships will stand on the shore.
<sup>30</sup>They will cry loudly about you.
 They will cry very much.
 They will throw dust on their heads.
 They will roll in ashes to show they are sad.
<sup>31</sup>They will shave their heads for you.
 And they will put on rough cloth to show they are upset.
 They will cry very much for you.
 They will cry loudly.
<sup>32</sup>And in their loud crying they will sing a funeral song for you.
 "No one was ever destroyed like Tyre, surrounded by the sea."
<sup>33</sup>The things you traded went out over the seas.
 You met the needs of many nations.
 With your great wealth and things you sold,
 you made kings of the earth rich.
<sup>34</sup>But now you are broken by the sea.
 You have sunk to the bottom.
 The things you sell and all your people have gone down with you.
<sup>35</sup>All those who live along the shore are shocked by what happened to you.
 Their kings are terribly afraid.
 Their faces show their fear.
<sup>36</sup>The traders among the nations hiss at you.
 You have come to a terrible end.
 And you are gone forever.' "

Prophecy Against the King of Tyre

28 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"Human being, say to the ruler of Tyre: 'This is what the Lord God says: You are too proud.
 And you say, "I am a god.
 I sit on the throne of a god
 in the middle of the seas."

You think you are as wise as a god.
 But you are a man, not a god.
<sup>3</sup>You think you are wiser than Daniel.
 You think you can find out all secrets.
<sup>4</sup>Through your wisdom and understanding you have made yourself rich.
 You have gained gold and silver.
 And you have saved it in your storerooms.
<sup>5</sup>Through your great skill in trading, you have made your riches grow.
 You are too proud because of your riches.
<sup>6</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: You think you are wise like a god.
<sup>7</sup>But I will bring foreign people against you.
 They will be the cruelest nation.
 They will pull out their swords and destroy all that your wisdom has built.
 And they will dishonor your greatness.
<sup>8</sup>They will kill you.
 You will die a terrible death like those who are killed at sea.
<sup>9</sup>While they are killing you, you will not be able to say anymore, "I am a god."
 You will be only a man, not a god,
 when your murderers kill you.
<sup>10</sup>You will die like an unclean<sup>d</sup> person.
 Foreigners will kill you.

I have spoken, says the Lord God.' "

<sup>11</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said:
<sup>12</sup>"Human being, sing a funeral song for the king of Tyre. Say to him: 'This is what the Lord God says:
 You were an example of what was perfect.
 You were full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
<sup>13</sup>You had a wonderful life, like those in Eden, the garden of God.
 Every valuable gem was on you:
 ruby, topaz and emerald,
 yellow quartz, onyx and jasper,
 sapphire, turquoise and chrysolite.
 Your jewelry was made of gold.
 It was prepared on the day you were created.
<sup>14</sup>I appointed a living creature to guard you.
 I put you on the holy mountain of God.
 You walked among the gems of fire.
<sup>15</sup>Your life was right and good.
 This was from the day you were created,
 until evil was found in you.

<sup>16</sup>Because you traded with countries far away, you learned to be cruel, and you sinned.
So I threw you down in disgrace from the mountain of God.

And the living creature who guarded you forced you out from among the gems of fire.

<sup>17</sup>You became too proud because of your beauty.
You ruined your wisdom because of your greatness.
I threw you down to the ground.
Your example taught a lesson to other kings.

<sup>18</sup>You dishonored your places of worship through your many sins and dishonest trade.

So I set your city on fire.
And it burned up.
I turned you into ashes on the ground for all those watching to see.

<sup>19</sup>All the nations who knew you are shocked about you.
Your punishment was so terrible.
And you are gone forever.' "

Prophecy Against Sidon

<sup>20</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said:
<sup>21</sup>"Human being, look toward the city of Sidon and prophesy<sup>d</sup> against her. <sup>22</sup>Say: 'This is what the Lord God says:

I am against you, Sidon.
I will show my greatness among you.
Then people will know that I am the Lord when I have punished Sidon.
I will show my holiness by defeating her.

<sup>23</sup>I will send diseases to Sidon, and blood will flow in her streets.
Those who are wounded in Sidon will fall dead.
She will be attacked from all sides.
Then they will know that I am the Lord.

God Will Help Israel

<sup>24</sup>"No more will neighboring nations be like thorny branches or sharp stickers to hurt Israel. Then they will know that I am the Lord God.

<sup>25</sup>"This is what the Lord God says: I will gather the people of Israel from the nations where they are scattered. I will show my holiness when the nations see what I do to my people. Then they will live in their own land—the land I gave to my servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup>Then they will live safely in the land. They will build houses and plant vineyards. They will live in safety after I have punished all the nations around who hate them. Then they will know that I am the Lord their God.' "

Prophecy Against Egypt

29 It was the tenth year, in the tenth month of our captivity. It was on the twelfth day of the month. The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"Human being, look toward the king of Egypt. And prophesy<sup>d</sup> against him and all Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Say: 'This is what the Lord God says:

I am against you, king of Egypt.
You are like a great crocodile that lies in the Nile River.

You say, "The Nile is mine.
I made it for myself."

<sup>4</sup>But I will put hooks in your jaws.
I will make the fish of the Nile stick to your sides.

I will pull you up out of your rivers,
with all the fish sticking to your sides.

<sup>5</sup>I will leave you in the desert.
I will leave you and all the fish from your rivers.

You will fall on the open field.
You will not be picked up or buried.

I have given you to the wild animals.
And I have given you to the birds of the sky for food.

<sup>6</sup>Then all the people who live in Egypt will know that I am the Lord.

"Israel tried to lean on you for help. But you were like a crutch made out of a weak stalk of grass. <sup>7</sup>When their hands grabbed you, you splintered and tore open their shoulders. When they leaned on you, you broke and made all their backs twist.

<sup>8</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: I will cause an enemy to attack you. He will kill your men and animals. <sup>9</sup>Then Egypt will become an empty desert. They will know that I am the Lord.

"This is because you said, "The Nile River is mine. And I have made it." <sup>10</sup>So, I am against you. I am against your rivers. I will destroy the land of Egypt. It will be empty desert from Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south. It will be empty all the way to the southern border of Cush. <sup>11</sup>No man or animal will walk through it. No one will live in Egypt for 40 years. <sup>12</sup>I will make the land of Egypt the emptiest country of all. And her cities will be the emptiest of all ruined cities for 40 years. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. And I will spread them among the countries.

years I will gather Egypt from the nations where they have been scattered. <sup>14</sup>I will bring back the Egyptian captives. I will make the Egyptians return to southern Egypt. They will return to the land that they came from. They will become a weak kingdom there. <sup>15</sup>It will be the weakest kingdom. It will never again rule other nations. I will make it so weak it will never again rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup>The Israelites will never again depend on Egypt. Egypt's punishment will remind the Israelites of their sin. They turned to Egypt for help and not to God. Then they will know that I am the Lord God.' "

Egypt Is Given to Babylon

<sup>17</sup>It was the twenty-seventh year of our captivity, in the first month. It was on the first day of the month. The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>18</sup>"Human being, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army fight hard against Tyre. Every soldier's head was rubbed bare. Every shoulder was rubbed raw. But Nebuchadnezzar and his army gained nothing from fighting Tyre. <sup>19</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And Nebuchadnezzar will take away Egypt's people. He will take Egypt's wealth and its valuable things as pay for his army. <sup>20</sup>I have given Nebuchadnezzar the land of Egypt. It is a reward for working hard to defeat Egypt for me. That is what the Lord God says.

<sup>21</sup>"On that day I will make Israel grow strong again. I will let you, Ezekiel, speak to them. Then they will know that I am the Lord God."

Egypt Will Be Punished

30 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said, <sup>21</sup>"Human being, prophesy<sup>d</sup> and say, 'This is what the Lord God says:

Cry and say,

"The terrible day is coming."

<sup>3</sup>The day is near.

The Lord's day of judging is near.

It is a cloudy day.

It is a time when the nations will be judged.

<sup>4</sup>An enemy will attack Egypt.

And Cush will tremble with fear.

When the killing begins in Egypt,

her wealth will be taken away.

Egypt's foundations will be torn down.

<sup>5</sup>Cush, Put, Lydia, Arabia, Libya and my people will die. All these who made an agreement with Egypt will fall dead in war.

<sup>6</sup>"This is what the Lord God says:

Those who fight on Egypt's side will fall.

The power she is proud of will go down.

The people in Egypt will fall dead in war from Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south, says the Lord God.

<sup>7</sup>They will be the emptiest land.

Egypt's cities will be like other cities that lie in ruin.

<sup>8</sup>Then they will know that I am the Lord.

This will happen when I set fire to Egypt and when all those nations on her side are crushed.

<sup>9</sup>"At that time I will send messengers in ships. They will frighten Cush which now feels safe. The people of Cush will tremble with fear when Egypt is punished. And that time is sure to come.

<sup>10</sup>"This is what the Lord God says:

I will destroy great numbers of people in Egypt.

I will do it through Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

<sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar and his army are the cruelest army of any nation.

They will be brought in to destroy the land.

They will pull out their swords against Egypt.

They will fill the land with those they kill.

<sup>12</sup>I will make the streams of the Nile River become dry land.

Then I will sell the dry land to evil people.

I will destroy the land and everything in it.

I will do it through the power of strangers.

I, the Lord, have spoken.

Egypt's Idols Are Destroyed

<sup>13</sup>"This is what the Lord God says:

I will destroy the idols.

And I will take away the statues of false gods from the city of Memphis.

There will no longer be a leader in Egypt.

And I will spread fear through the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>I will make southern Egypt empty.

I will start a fire in Zoan.

I will punish Thebes.

- <sup>15</sup>And I will pour out my anger against Pelusium,
the strong place of Egypt.
I will destroy great numbers of people in Thebes.
- <sup>16</sup>I will set fire to Egypt.
Pelusium will be in great pain.
The walls of Thebes will be broken open.
And Memphis will have troubles every day.
- <sup>17</sup>The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall dead in war.
And the people will be taken away as captives.
- <sup>18</sup>In Tahpanhes the day will be dark when I break Egypt's power.
A cloud will cover Egypt.
And her villages will be captured and taken away.
- <sup>19</sup>So I will punish Egypt.
And they will know I am the Lord.' "

Egypt Becomes Weak

<sup>20</sup>It happened in the eleventh year of our captivity, in the first month. It was on the seventh day of the month. The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>21</sup>"Human being, I have broken the powerful arm of the king of Egypt. It has not been tied up so it will not get well. It has not been wrapped with a bandage. So his arm will not be strong enough to hold a sword in war. <sup>22</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: I am against the king of Egypt. I will break his arms. I will break both the strong arm and the broken arm. I will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. And I will spread them among the countries. <sup>24</sup>I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of the king of Egypt. Then he will cry out in pain as a wounded man cries out. <sup>25</sup>So I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. But the arms of the king of Egypt will fall. Then they will know that I am the Lord. I will put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon. And he will use the sword in war against Egypt. <sup>26</sup>Then I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. And I will spread them among the countries. And they will know that I am the Lord."

Egypt Is Like a Cedar Tree

31 It happened in the eleventh year of our captivity, in the third month. It was on the first day of the month. The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>21</sup>"Human being, say to the king of Egypt and his people:

- 'No one was like you in your greatness.
<sup>3</sup>Assyria was once like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
It had beautiful branches that shaded the forest.
It was very tall.
Its top was among the clouds.
<sup>4</sup>Much water made the tree grow.
The deep springs of water made the tree tall.
Rivers flowed
around the bottom of the tree.
They sent their streams to all other trees of the field.
<sup>5</sup>So the tree was taller than all the other trees of the field.
Its branches became long and big because of so much water.
<sup>6</sup>All the birds of the sky made their nests in the tree's branches.
And all the wild animals gave birth under the tree's branches.
All great nations
lived in the tree's shade.
<sup>7</sup>So the tree was great and beautiful, with its long branches.
Its roots reached down to many waters.
<sup>8</sup>The cedar trees in the garden of God were not as great as it was.
The pine trees
did not have such great branches.
The plane trees
did not have such branches.
No tree in the garden of God was as beautiful as this tree.
<sup>9</sup>I made it beautiful with many branches.
And all the trees of Eden in the garden of God
wanted to be like it.

<sup>10</sup>"So this is what the Lord God says: The tree has grown tall. Its top has reached the clouds. And it has become proud of its height. <sup>11</sup>So I have let a mighty ruler of the nations take care of the tree. The ruler will surely punish the tree. Because it is evil I will get rid of it. <sup>12</sup>The cruelest foreign nation cut it down and left it. The tree's branches fell on the mountains and in all the valleys. Its broken branches were in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth left the shade of that tree. <sup>13</sup>The birds of the sky live on the fallen tree. The wild animals live among the tree's fallen branches. <sup>14</sup>Then the trees that grow by the water will not be proud to be tall. They will not put their tops among the clouds. None of the trees that are watered well will grow that tall. They all are meant to die and go under the ground. They will be with those who have died and have gone down to where the dead are.

<sup>15</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: On the day when the tree went down to where the dead are, I made people cry loudly. I covered the deep springs and held back their rivers. And the great waters stopped flowing. I made Lebanon cry loudly for the great tree. All the trees of the field dried up and died. <sup>16</sup>I made the nations shake with fear at the sound of the tree falling. I brought the tree down to where the dead are. It went with those who go down to the grave. Then trees of Eden and the best trees of Lebanon were comforted. All the well-watered trees were comforted in the earth below. <sup>17</sup>But these trees also went down with the great tree to the place where the dead are. They went to join those who were killed in war. They had lived under the great tree’s shade. They were its friends among the nations.

<sup>18</sup>“So no tree in Eden is equal to you in greatness and honor. But you will go down with the trees of Eden to the earth below. You will lie among unclean<sup>d</sup> people who were killed in war.

“This will happen to the king of Egypt and all his people, says the Lord God.”

A Funeral Song

32 It happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month of our captivity. It was on the first day of the month. The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, sing a funeral song about the king of Egypt. Say to him:

“You are like a young lion among the nations.

You are like a crocodile in the seas. You splash around in your streams.

And you stir up the waters with your feet.

You make the rivers muddy.

<sup>3</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: I will spread my net over you.

And I will use a large group of people to pull you up in my net.

<sup>4</sup>Then I will throw you on the land.

I will toss you into the open field.

I will let the birds of the sky rest on you.

And I will let the animals of the earth eat you until they are full.

<sup>5</sup>I will scatter your flesh on the mountains.

And I will fill the valleys with what is left of you.

<sup>6</sup>I will drench the land with your flowing blood.

I will soak the mountains, and the ravines will be full of your flesh.

<sup>7</sup>I will make you disappear.

And I will cover the sky and make the stars dark.

I will cover the sun with a cloud.

And the moon will not shine.

<sup>8</sup>I will make all the shining lights in the sky become dark over you.

I will bring darkness over your land, says the Lord God.

<sup>9</sup>I will cause many people to be afraid when I have another nation destroy you. Nations you have not known will be afraid because of you.

<sup>10</sup>I will cause people to be shocked about you.

Their kings will tremble with fear because of you when I swing my sword before them.

They will shake every moment on the day you fall.

Each king will be afraid for his own life.

<sup>11</sup>“So this is what the Lord God says: The sword of the king of Babylon will come on you.

<sup>12</sup>I will cause your people to fall by the swords of mighty soldiers.

They are the most terrible of all the nations.

They will destroy the pride of Egypt.

All Egypt’s people will be destroyed.

<sup>13</sup>I will also destroy all Egypt’s cattle which live alongside many waters.

The foot of man will not stir the waters.

And the hoofs of cattle will not muddy them anymore.

<sup>14</sup>So I will let the Egyptians’ waters become quiet.

I will cause their rivers to run as smoothly as olive oil,

says the Lord God.

<sup>15</sup>I will make the land of Egypt empty.

I will take everything that is in the land.

I will destroy all those who live in Egypt.

Then they will know that I am the Lord.’

<sup>16</sup>“This is the funeral song people will sing for Egypt. The women of the nations will sing it for Egypt. They will sing a funeral song for Egypt and all its people, says the Lord God.”

Egypt to Be Destroyed

<sup>17</sup>It happened in the twelfth year of our captivity. It was on the fifteenth day of the month. The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>18</sup>“Human being, cry for the people of Egypt. Bring down Egypt, together with the women of the powerful nations. Bring them down to the earth below. Bring them down with those who go to the place of the dead. <sup>19</sup>Say to them: ‘Are you more beautiful than others? Go lie down in death with those who are unclean.’ <sup>20</sup>The Egyptians will fall among those killed by war. Egypt is going to be killed by the sword. The enemy will drag her and all her people away. <sup>21</sup>The leaders of the mighty ones will speak from the place of death. They will say about the king of Egypt and the nations which help him: ‘The king and the nations which help him have come down here. They lie killed by the sword among those who are unclean.’

<sup>22</sup>“Assyria and all its army lie dead there. The graves of their soldiers are all around. All were killed in war. <sup>23</sup>Assyria’s grave was put in the deep parts of the place where the dead are. And its army lies around its grave. When they lived, they frightened people in the land of the living. But now all of them have been killed in war.

<sup>24</sup>“The nation of Elam is there. And all its army is around its grave. All of them were killed in war. They had frightened people on earth and were unclean. So they went down to the lowest parts of the place where the dead are. And they must carry their shame with those who go down to the place where the dead are. <sup>25</sup>A bed is made for Elam with all those killed in war. They will be in the place where the dead are. The graves of her soldiers are all around her. Elam’s people are unclean. So they have been killed in war. They also scared people who live on earth. But they must also carry their shame with those who go down to where the dead are. Their graves are with the rest who were killed.

<sup>26</sup>“Meshech and Tubal are there. The graves of all their soldiers surround them. All of them are unclean. So they have been killed in war. They also frightened people who live on earth. <sup>27</sup>But they are not buried with the other unclean soldiers who have been killed in battle. They are not with those who went where the dead are with their weapons of war. These soldiers had their swords laid under their heads and their shields on their bodies. People who live on earth used to be afraid of these mighty soldiers.

<sup>28</sup>“You, king of Egypt, will be broken and lie among those who are unclean. You will be with those who were killed in war.

<sup>29</sup>“Edom is there also. Its kings and all its leaders are there. They were mighty. But now they lie in death with those killed in war. They will lie with those who are unclean. And they will be with those who go down to where the dead are.

<sup>30</sup>“All the rulers of the north are there. And all the Sidonians are there. Their strength frightened people. These rulers of the north and the Sidonians have gone down in shame with those who were killed. They are unclean, lying with those killed in war. They have carried their shame with those who go down to where the dead are.

<sup>31</sup>“The king of Egypt and his army will see these who have been killed in war. Then the king and all his army will be comforted for all his soldiers killed in war, says the Lord God. <sup>32</sup>I made people who live on earth afraid of the king of Egypt. But he and his people will lie among those who are unclean. They will lie with those who were killed by the sword, says the Lord God.”

Ezekiel Is Watchman for Israel

33 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>24</sup>“Human being, speak to your people. Say to them: ‘I might bring a war against a land. The people of the land may choose one of their men. They may make him their watchman. <sup>3</sup>This watchman might see the enemy coming to attack the land. And he blows the trumpet and warns the people. <sup>4</sup>A person might hear the sound of the trumpet, but do nothing. Then the enemy will come and kill him. That person will be responsible for his own death. <sup>5</sup>He heard the sound of the trumpet. But he did not do anything. So he is to blame for his own death. If he had done something, he would have saved his own life. <sup>6</sup>But the watchman might see the enemy coming to attack and not blow the trumpet. So the people are not warned. Then the enemy comes and kills one of them. That person has died because of his own sin. But I will punish the watchman for the person’s death.’

<sup>7</sup>“As for you, human being, I have made you a watchman for Israel. If you hear a message from me, you must warn them for me. <sup>8</sup>I might say to the wicked person: ‘Wicked man, you will surely die.’ But you might not speak to warn the evil person to stop doing evil. Then he will die while still a sinner. But I will punish you for his death. <sup>9</sup>But you might warn a wicked person to stop doing evil. If he does not stop, he will die while still a sinner. But you have saved your life.

<sup>10</sup>“So you, human being, say to Israel: ‘You have said: Surely our law-breaking and sins are hurting us. They will kill us. What can we do so we will live?’ <sup>11</sup>Say to them: ‘The Lord God says: As surely as I live, this is true. I do not want a wicked person to die. I want him to stop doing evil and live. Turn back! Turn back from your wicked ways! You don’t want to die, people of Israel.’

<sup>12</sup>“And you, human being, say to your people: ‘The goodness of a good person will not save him when he sins. The evil of the wicked person will not cause him to be punished if he turns from it. A good person will not be able to live by the good he did earlier if he sins.’ <sup>13</sup>I might tell the good person, “You will surely live.” But he might think he has done enough good and then do evil. Then none of the good things he did will be remembered. He will die because of the evil he has done. <sup>14</sup>Or, I might say to the wicked person, “You will surely die.” But he might turn from his sin and do what is right and honest. <sup>15</sup>He returns what somebody gave him as a promise to repay a loan. He pays back what he stole. He lives by the rules that give life. He does not sin. Then that one will surely live. He will not die. <sup>16</sup>He will not be punished for any of his sins. He now does what is right and fair. He will surely live.

<sup>17</sup>“But your people say: ‘The way of the Lord is not fair.’ But it is their own way that is not fair. <sup>18</sup>The good person might turn from his goodness and do evil. Then he will die for his evil. <sup>19</sup>But the wicked person might stop doing evil and do what is right and fair. Then he will live. <sup>20</sup>You still say: ‘The way of the Lord is not fair.’ Israel, I will judge each of you by his own ways.”

The Fall of Jerusalem Explained

<sup>21</sup>It happened in the twelfth year of our captivity. It was on the fifth day of the tenth month. A person who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me. He said, “Jerusalem has been defeated.” <sup>22</sup>Now I had felt the power of the Lord on me the evening before. The Lord had made me able to talk again. He did this before the person came to me in the morning. I could speak. I was not without speech anymore.

<sup>23</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>24</sup>“Human being, people who live in the ruins in the land of Israel are saying: ‘Abraham was only one person. Yet he was given the land as his own. Surely the land has been given to us, who are many, as our very own.’ <sup>25</sup>So say to them: ‘This is what the Lord God says: You eat meat with the blood still in it. You ask your idols for help. You murder people. Should you then have the land as your very own? <sup>26</sup>You depend on your sword. You do terrible things which I hate. Each of you has sexual relations with his neighbor’s wife. So should you have the land?’

<sup>27</sup>“Say to them: ‘This is what the Lord God says: As surely as I live, this is true. Those who are among the city ruins in Israel will be killed in war. Those who live in the country will be eaten by wild animals. People hiding in the strong places and caves will die of disease. <sup>28</sup>I will make the land an empty desert. The people’s pride in the land’s power will end. The mountains of Israel will become empty. No one will pass through them. <sup>29</sup>They will know that I am the Lord when I make the land an empty desert. This is because of the things they have done that I hate.’

<sup>30</sup>“But as for you, human being, your people talk against you. They talk by the walls and in the doorways of houses. They say to each other: ‘Come now, and hear the message from the Lord.’ <sup>31</sup>So they come to you as if they are still my people. They sit before you. They hear your words. But they will not do them. With their mouths they tell me they love me. But their hearts desire their selfish profits. <sup>32</sup>To you people you are nothing more than a singer who sings love songs. You are like one who has a beautiful voice. You are like one who plays a musical instrument well. They hear your words, but they will not do them.

<sup>33</sup>“This will come true. It will surely happen. Then the people will know that a prophet<sup>d</sup> has been among them.”

The Leaders Are like Shepherds

34 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, prophesy<sup>d</sup> against the leaders of Israel, who are like shepherds. Prophesy and say to them: ‘This is what the Lord God says: How terrible it will be for the shepherds of Israel who feed only themselves! Why don’t the shepherds feed the flock? <sup>3</sup>You eat the milk curds from the sheep. You clothe yourselves with the wool from the sheep. You kill the fat sheep. But you do not feed the flock. <sup>4</sup>You have not made the weak strong. You have not healed the sick. You have not put bandages on those that were hurt. You have not brought back those who strayed away. You have not searched for the lost. You ruled the sheep with cruel force. <sup>5</sup>The sheep were scattered because there was no shepherd. Then they became food for every wild animal. <sup>6</sup>My flock wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over all the face of the earth. And no one searched or looked for them.

<sup>7</sup>“So, you shepherds, hear the word of the Lord. This is what the Lord God says: <sup>8</sup>As surely as I live, my flock has been caught. It has become food for all the wild animals. This is because the flock has no shepherd. The shepherds did not search for my flock. No, they fed themselves instead of my flock. <sup>9</sup>So, you shepherds, hear the word of the Lord. <sup>10</sup>This is what the Lord God says: I am against the shepherds. I will blame them for what has happened to my sheep. I will not let them tend the flock anymore. Then the shepherds will stop feeding themselves. And I will take my flock from their mouths. My sheep will no longer be their food.

<sup>11</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: I, myself, will search for my sheep. I will take care of them. <sup>12</sup>A shepherd will take care of his scattered flock when it is found. In the same way I will take care of my sheep. I will save them from all the places where they are scattered. I will do this on a cloudy and dark day. <sup>13</sup>I will bring them out from the nations. I will gather them from the countries. I will bring them to their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains and in the ravines of Israel. And I will feed them in all the places where people live in the land. <sup>14</sup>I will feed them in a good pasture. They will eat grass on the high mountains of Israel. They will lie down on good ground where they eat grass. They will eat in rich grassland on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup>I will feed my flock and lead them to rest, says the Lord God. <sup>16</sup>I will search for the lost. I will bring back those that were scattered. I will put bandages on those that were hurt. I will make the weak strong. I will destroy those sheep that are fat and strong. I will tend the sheep with fairness.

<sup>17</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: And as for you, my flock, I will judge between one sheep and another. I will judge between the male sheep and the male goats. <sup>18</sup>Is it not enough for you to eat grass in the good land? Must you crush the rest of the grass with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink clear water? Must you make the rest of the water muddy with your feet? <sup>19</sup>Must my flock eat what you crush? And must they drink what you make muddy with your feet?

<sup>20</sup>“So this is what the Lord God says to them: I, myself, will judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep. <sup>21</sup>You push with your side and with your shoulder. You knock down all the weak sheep with your horns. You do this until you have forced them away. <sup>22</sup>So I will save my flock. They will not be hurt anymore. I will judge between one sheep and another. <sup>23</sup>Then I will put one shepherd over them, my servant David. He will feed them. He will tend them and will be their shepherd. <sup>24</sup>Then I, the Lord, will be their God. And my servant David will be a ruler among them. I, the Lord, have spoken.

<sup>25</sup>“And I will make an agreement of peace with my sheep. I will remove harmful animals from the land. Then the sheep will live safely in the desert. And they will sleep in the woods without danger. <sup>26</sup>I will bless them and let them live around my hill. I will cause the rains to come when it is time for them. There will be showers to bless them. <sup>27</sup>Also the trees of the field will give their fruit. The land will give its harvest. And the sheep will be safe on their land. Then they will know that I am the Lord. I will break the bars of their captivity. And I will save them from the power of those who made them slaves. <sup>28</sup>They will not be led captive by the nations again. The wild animals will not eat them. But they will live safely. No one will make them afraid. <sup>29</sup>I will give them a place famous for its good crops. Then they will no longer suffer from hunger in the land. They will not suffer the insults of other nations anymore. <sup>30</sup>Then they will know that I, the Lord their God, am with them. The nation of Israel will know that they are my people, says the Lord God. <sup>31</sup>And you, my sheep, are the sheep of my pasture. You are my people and I am your God, says the Lord God.”

Prophecy Against Edom

35 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>“Human being, look toward Mount Edom and prophesy<sup>d</sup> against it. <sup>3</sup>Say to it: ‘This is what the Lord God says: I am against you, Mount Edom. I will stretch out my hand against you. And I will make you an empty desert. <sup>4</sup>I will destroy your cities. And you will become empty. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>“This is because you have always been an enemy of Israel. You let them be defeated in war when they were in trouble. It was the time of their final punishment. <sup>6</sup>So the Lord God says, As surely as I live, I will let you be murdered. Murder will chase you. You did not hate murdering people, so murder will chase you. <sup>7</sup>And I will make Mount Edom an empty ruin.

And I will destroy everyone who goes in or comes out of it. <sup>8</sup>I will fill its mountains with those who are killed. Those killed in war will fall on your hills. They will fall in your valleys and in all your ravines. <sup>9</sup>I will make you a ruin forever. No one will live in your cities. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>“You said, “These two nations, Israel and Judah, and these two lands will be ours. We will take them for our own.” But the Lord was there. <sup>11</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: As surely as I live, this is true. I will treat you just as you treated them. When you were angry and jealous, you acted hatefully against them. I will punish you. And that is how I will show the Israelites who I am. <sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I, the Lord God, have heard all your insults. Those insults were against the mountains of Israel. You said, “They have been ruined. They have been given to us to eat.” <sup>13</sup>You have not stopped your proud talk against me. I have heard you. <sup>14</sup>This is what the Lord God says: All the earth will be happy when I make you an empty ruin. <sup>15</sup>You were happy when the land of Israel was ruined. But I will do the same thing to you. Mount Edom and all Edom, you will become an empty ruin. Then you will know that I am the Lord God.’”

Israel to Come Home

36 “Human being, prophesy<sup>d</sup> to the mountains of Israel and say: ‘Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord God says: The enemy has said this against you: “Now the old places to worship false gods have become ours.”’ <sup>3</sup>So prophesy and say: ‘This is what the Lord God says: They have made you an empty ruin. They have crushed you from all around. You belonged to the other nations. People talked and whispered against you. <sup>4</sup>So, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God. The Lord God speaks to the mountains, hills, ravines and valleys. And he speaks to the empty ruins and abandoned cities that have been robbed and laughed at by the other nations. <sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord God says: I have spoken in hot anger against the other nations. I have spoken against Edom. The Edomites took my land for themselves. They did this with joy and with hate in their hearts. They forced out the people and took their pastureland.’ <sup>6</sup>So prophesy about the land of Israel. Say to the mountains, hills, ravines and valleys: ‘This is what the Lord God says: I speak in my jealous anger. This is because you have suffered the insults of the nations. <sup>7</sup>So this is what the Lord God says: I promise that the nations around you will also have to suffer insults.

<sup>8</sup>“But you, mountains of Israel, you will grow branches and fruit for my people. My people will soon come home. <sup>9</sup>I am concerned about you. I am for you. You will be plowed, and seed will be planted in you. <sup>10</sup>I will multiply the people who live on you. All the people of Israel will come. The cities will have people living in them. The ruins will be rebuilt. <sup>11</sup>I will make the people and animals living on you increase in number. They will grow and be fruitful. You will have people living on you as you did before. I will make you better off than at the beginning. Then you will know that I am the Lord. <sup>12</sup>I will cause my people Israel to walk on you. Then they will take you, and you will belong to them. You will never again take their children away from them.

<sup>13</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: People say about you: “You eat people and take children from your nation.” <sup>14</sup>You will not destroy people anymore. You will not make your nation stumble anymore, says the Lord God. <sup>15</sup>I will not make you listen to insults from the nations anymore. You will not suffer shame from them anymore, says the Lord God.’”

The Lord Acts for Himself

<sup>16</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me again. He said: <sup>17</sup>“Human being, the nation of Israel was living in their own land. But they made it unclean<sup>d</sup> by their ways and the things they did. Their ways were like a woman’s uncleanness in her time of monthly bleeding. <sup>18</sup>So I poured out my anger against them. I did it because of the murders they did in the land. And I did it because they made the land unclean with their idols. <sup>19</sup>I scattered them among the nations. And they were spread through all the countries. I punished them for how they lived and the things they did. <sup>20</sup>They dishonored my holy name in the nations where they went. The nations said about them: ‘These are the people of the Lord. But they had to leave the land which he gave them.’ <sup>21</sup>But I felt bad about my holy name. The nation of Israel had dishonored it among the nations where they went.

<sup>22</sup>“So say to the people of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord God says: Israel, I am going to act, but not for your sake. Israel, I will do something to help my holy name. You have dishonored it among the nations where you went. <sup>23</sup>I will prove the holiness of my great name. It has been dishonored among the nations. You have dishonored it among these nations. But the nations will know that I am the Lord. I will prove myself holy before their eyes, says the Lord God.

<sup>24</sup>“ I will take you from the nations. I will gather you out of all the lands. And I will bring you back into your own land. <sup>25</sup>Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your uncleanness and your idols. <sup>26</sup>Also, I will teach you to respect me completely. I will put a new way to think inside you. I will take out the stubborn heart like stone from your bodies. And I will give you an obedient heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup>I will put my Spirit<sup>a</sup> inside you. And I will help you live by my rules. You will be careful to obey my laws. <sup>28</sup>Then you will live in the land I gave to your ancestors. So you will be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup>Also, I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will command the grain to come and grow. I will not allow a time of hunger to hurt you. <sup>30</sup>I will multiply the harvest of the field. You will never again suffer shame among the nations because of hunger. <sup>31</sup>And you will remember your evil ways and the things you did that were not good. Then you will hate yourselves because of your sins and terrible acts that I hate. <sup>32</sup>I want you to know that I am not doing this for your sake, says the Lord God. Be ashamed and embarrassed about your ways, Israel.

<sup>33</sup>“ This is what the Lord God says: This is what will happen on the day I cleanse you from all your sins: I will cause the cities to have people living in them again. And the destroyed places will be rebuilt. <sup>34</sup>The empty land will be plowed. It will no longer be a ruin for everyone who passes by to see. <sup>35</sup>They will say: “This land was ruined. Now it has become like the garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were empty and ruined. But now they are protected and have people living in them.” <sup>36</sup>Then those nations still around you will know. They will know that I, the Lord, have rebuilt what was destroyed. And I have planted what was empty. I, the Lord, have spoken. And I will do it.’

<sup>37</sup>“ This is what the Lord God says: I will again be asked by the people of Israel to do this thing for them. I will make their people grow to be as many as a flock of sheep. <sup>38</sup>They will be like the flocks brought to Jerusalem during her holy feasts. Her ruined cities will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

The Vision of Dry Bones

37 I felt the power of the Lord was on me. He brought me out by the Spirit<sup>a</sup> of the Lord. And he put me down in the middle of a valley. It was full of bones. <sup>2</sup>The Lord led me around among the bones. There were many bones on the bottom of the valley. I saw the bones were very dry. <sup>3</sup>Then he asked me, “Human being, can these bones live?”

I answered, “Lord God, only you know.”

<sup>4</sup>The Lord said to me, “Prophecy<sup>a</sup> to these bones. Say to them, ‘Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>This is what the Lord God says to the bones: I will cause breath to enter you. Then you will live. <sup>6</sup>I will put muscles on you. I will put flesh on you. I will cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

<sup>7</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded. While I prophesied, there was a noise and a rattling. The bones came together, bone to bone. <sup>8</sup>I looked and saw muscles come on the bones. Flesh grew, and skin covered the bones. But there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to me, “Prophecy to the wind. <sup>a</sup>Prophecy, human being, and say to the wind: ‘This is what the Lord God says: Wind, come from the four winds. Breathe on these people who were killed so they can live again.’” <sup>10</sup>So I prophesied as the Lord commanded me. And the breath came into them, and they came to life. They stood on their feet. They were a very large army.

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to me: “Human being, these bones are like all the people of Israel. They say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope has gone. We are destroyed.’ <sup>12</sup>So, prophesy, and say to them: ‘This is what the Lord God says: My people, I will open your graves. And I will cause you to come up out of your graves. Then I will bring you into the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup>This is how you, my people, will know that I am the Lord. I will open your graves and cause you to come up from them. <sup>14</sup>And I will put my Spirit inside you. You will come to life. Then I will put you in your own land. And you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken and done it, says the Lord.’”

Judah and Israel Back Together

<sup>15</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said, <sup>16</sup>“Human being, take a stick of wood. Write on it, ‘For Judah and all the Israelites with him.’ Then take another stick of wood. Write on it, 'The stick of Ephraim, for Joseph and all the Israelites with him.' <sup>17</sup>Then join them together into one stick. Then they will be one in your hand.

<sup>18</sup>"Your people will say to you, 'Explain to us what you mean by this.' <sup>19</sup>Tell them, 'This is what the Lord God says: I will take the stick which is for Joseph and the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel with him. This stick is in the hand of Ephraim. Then I will put it with the stick of Judah. And I will make them into one stick. And they will be one in my hand.' <sup>20</sup>Hold the sticks of wood on which you wrote these names. Hold them in your hands so the people can see them. <sup>21</sup>Say to the people: 'This is what the Lord God says: I will take the people of Israel from among the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around. I will bring them into their own land. <sup>22</sup>I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. One king will rule all of them. They will never again be two nations. They will not be divided into two kingdoms anymore. <sup>23</sup>They will not continue to make themselves unclean<sup>d</sup> by their idols, their statues of gods which I hate or their sins. But I will save them from all the ways they sin and turn against me. And I will make them clean. Then they will be my people. And I will be their God.

<sup>24</sup>"And my servant David will be their king. They will all have one shepherd. They will live by my rules and obey my laws. <sup>25</sup>They will live on the land I gave to my servant Jacob. It is the land in which your ancestors lived. They will all live on the land forever: they, their children and their grandchildren. David my servant will be their king forever. <sup>26</sup>And I will make an agreement of peace with them. It will be an agreement that continues forever. I will put them in their land. I will make them grow in number. Then I will put my Temple<sup>d</sup> among them forever. <sup>27</sup>The place where I live will be with them. I will be their God, and they will be my people. <sup>28</sup>When my Temple is among them forever, the nations will know that I, the Lord, make Israel holy.' "

Prophecy Against Gog

38 The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>2</sup>"Human being, turn toward Gog of the land of Magog. He is the chief ruler of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy<sup>d</sup> against him. <sup>3</sup>Say, 'The Lord God says this: I am against you, Gog, chief ruler of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>4</sup>I will turn you around. I will put hooks in your jaws. And I will bring you out with all your army, horses and horsemen. All of them will be finely dressed. They will be a large army with large and small shields. All of them will have swords. <sup>5</sup>Persia, Cush and Put will be with them. All of them will have shields and helmets. <sup>6</sup>There will also be Gomer with all its troops. And there will be the nation of Togarmah from the far north. It will have all its troops. There will be many other nations with you.

<sup>7</sup>"Be prepared. Be prepared, you and all the armies that have come together to make you their commander. <sup>8</sup>After many days you will be called for service. After many years you will come into a land that has been rebuilt from war. The people in the land will be gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel. Those mountains were empty for a long time. These people were brought out from the nations. They will all be living in safety. <sup>9</sup>And you will go up like a storm. You will be like a cloud covering the land. It will be you, all your troops and many nations with you.

<sup>10</sup>"This is what the Lord God says: At that time ideas will come into your mind. You will think up an evil plan. <sup>11</sup>You will say, "I will march against a land of towns without walls. I will attack those who are at rest and live in safety. All of them live without city walls. They have no gate bars or gates. <sup>12</sup>I will capture valuable things and take good things. I will turn my power against the rebuilt ruins that now have people living in them. I will go against these people who have been gathered from the nations. They have become rich with farm animals and property. They live at the center of the world." <sup>13</sup>Sheba, Dedan and the traders of Tarshish, with all its villages, will say this to you: "Did you come to capture valuable things? Did you bring your troops together to take things? Did you bring them to carry away silver and gold? Did you bring them to take away farm animals and property?" "

<sup>14</sup>"So prophesy, human being, and say to Gog: 'This is what the Lord God says: Now that my people Israel are living in safety, you will know about it. <sup>15</sup>You will come from your place in the far north. And many people will be with you. All of them will ride on horses. You will be a large group with a mighty army. <sup>16</sup>You will come against my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. This will happen in the days to come. I will bring you against my land. Gog, then the nations will know me. They will see me show my greatness by what I do through you.

<sup>17</sup>"This is what the Lord God says: You are the one about whom I spoke in past days. I spoke through my servants the prophets of Israel. These prophets of Israel prophesied for many years. They said that I would bring you against them. <sup>18</sup>This is what will happen: On the day Gog comes against the land of Israel, my anger will become very great, says the Lord God. <sup>19</sup>With jealousy and great anger I tell you this. At that time there will surely be a great earthquake in Israel. <sup>20</sup>The fish of the sea and the birds of the sky will shake with fear before me. The wild animals and everything that crawls on the ground will shake with fear. And all the people on the earth will shake with fear before me. Also the mountains will be thrown down. And the cliffs will fall. Every wall will fall to the ground. <sup>21</sup>And I will call for a war against Gog on all my mountains, says the Lord God. Every man's sword will be against his brother. <sup>22</sup>I will punish Gog with disease and death. I will send a heavy rain, with hailstones and burning sulfur on Gog. I will send it on his army and on the many nations with him. <sup>23</sup>Then I will show how great I am. I will show my holiness. And I will make myself known to the many nations that watch. Then they will know that I am the Lord.'

The Death of Gog and His Army

39 'Human being, prophesy<sup>d</sup> against Gog and say: 'This is what the Lord God says: I am against you, Gog, chief ruler of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>2</sup>I will turn you around and lead you. I will bring you from the far north. I will send you to attack the mountains of Israel. <sup>3</sup>I will knock your bow out of your left hand. I will throw down your arrows from your right hand. <sup>4</sup>You will fall dead on the mountains of Israel. You, all your troops and the nations with you will fall dead. I will let you be food for every bird that eats meat and every wild animal. <sup>5</sup>You will die in the country. I have spoken, says the Lord God. <sup>6</sup>I will send fire on Magog and those who live in safety on the coastlands. Then they will know that I am the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>'And I will make myself known among my people Israel. I will not let myself be dishonored anymore. Then the nations will know that I am the Lord. They will know I am the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup>It is coming! It will happen, says the Lord God. The day I talked about is coming.

<sup>9</sup>'Then those who live in the cities of Israel will go out. They will make fires with the enemy's weapons and burn them. They will burn both large and small shields. They will burn bows and arrows, war clubs and spears. They will use the weapons to burn in their fires for seven years. <sup>10</sup>They won't need to take wood from the field or chop firewood from the forests. This is because they will make fires with the weapons. They will take the valuable things of those who took their valuable things. They will grab the things of those who grabbed their things, says the Lord God.

<sup>11</sup>'On that day I will give Gog a place to be buried in Israel. It will be the Valley of the Travelers, east of the Dead Sea.<sup>d</sup> It will block the road for travelers. This is because Gog and all his army will be buried there. People will call it The Valley of Gog's Army.

<sup>12</sup>'The people of Israel will be burying them for seven months to make the land clean<sup>d</sup> again. <sup>13</sup>All the people of the land will bury them. The people of Israel will be honored on the day of my victory, says the Lord God.

<sup>14</sup>'They will choose men to work through the land to make it clean. With others they will bury Gog's soldiers still lying dead on the ground. After the seven months are finished, they will still search. <sup>15</sup>They will go through the land. If one person sees a human bone, he will put a marker by it. The sign will stay there until the gravediggers come. They will bury the bone in The Valley of Gog's Army. <sup>16</sup>A city will be there named Hamonah. So they will make the land clean again.'

<sup>17</sup>'Human being, this is what the Lord God says: Speak to every kind of bird and wild animal: 'Come together, come! Come together from all around to my sacrifice. I will prepare it for you. It is a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. Then you can eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup>You will eat the flesh of mighty men. You will drink the blood of the rulers of the earth. You will do it as people eat all the fat animals from Bashan: male sheep, lambs, goats and bulls. <sup>19</sup>You will eat and drink from my sacrifice which I have made ready for you. So you will eat fat until you are full. You will drink blood until you are drunk. <sup>20</sup>At my table you will eat until you are full of horses and riders and all kinds of soldiers,' says the Lord God.

<sup>21</sup>'And I will show my greatness among the nations. All the nations will feel my power when I punish them. <sup>22</sup>From that day on the people of Israel will know that I am the Lord their God. <sup>23</sup>And the nations will know Israel was taken away captive because they turned against me. So I turned away from them. And I let their enemies defeat them. All of them died in war. <sup>24</sup>I punished them for their uncleanness<sup>d</sup> and their sins. I turned away from them.

<sup>25</sup>“So this is what the Lord God says: Now I will bring the people of Jacob back from captivity. I will have mercy on the whole nation of Israel. I will not let them dishonor me. <sup>26</sup>The people will forget their shame. And they will forget how they rejected me. They will live in safety on their own land. No one will make them afraid. <sup>27</sup>I will bring the people back from other lands. I will gather them from the lands of their enemies. That is how I will show that I am holy through my people. And many nations will see that I am holy. <sup>28</sup>Then my people will know that I am the Lord their God. This is because I sent them into captivity among the nations. But then I brought them back to their own land. And I didn't leave any behind. <sup>29</sup>I will not turn away from them anymore. I will put my Spirit<sup>d</sup> into the people of Israel, says the Lord God.”

The New Temple

40 It was the twenty-fifth year of our captivity. It was at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month. It was in the fourteenth year after Jerusalem was defeated. On that same day I felt the power of the Lord. He brought me to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel. He put me on a very high mountain. On the south of the mountain there were some buildings that looked like a city. <sup>3</sup>The Lord took me closer to the buildings. I saw a man who looked as if he were made of bronze. He was standing in the gateway. He had a cord made of linen and a stick in his hand, both for measuring. <sup>4</sup>The man said to me, “Human being, look with your eyes and hear with your ears. And pay attention to all that I will show you. That's why you have been brought here. Tell the people of Israel all that you see.”

The East Gate

<sup>5</sup>I saw a wall that surrounded the Temple.<sup>d</sup> The measuring stick in the man's hand was 10½ feet long. So the man measured the wall. It was 10½ feet thick and 10½ feet high.

<sup>6</sup>Then the man went to the east gate. He went up its steps and measured the opening of the gate. It was more than 10½ feet wide. <sup>7</sup>There were rooms for the guards. They were 10½ feet long and 10½ feet wide. The walls that came out between the guards' rooms were about 9 feet thick. And there was a gate next to the porch that faced the Temple. The opening of this gate was 10½ feet wide.

<sup>8</sup>Then the man measured the porch of the gate. <sup>9</sup>It was about 14 feet deep. And its doors were 3½ feet thick. The porch of the gate faced the Temple.

<sup>10</sup>There were three little rooms on each side of the last gate. These three rooms measured the same on each side. The walls between each room were the same thickness. <sup>11</sup>The man measured the width of the entrance to the gateway. It was 17½ feet wide. The length of the gate was about 23 feet. <sup>12</sup>And there was a low wall about 21 inches high in front of each room. The rooms were 10½ feet on each side. <sup>13</sup>The man measured the gateway from the roof of one room to the roof of the opposite room. It was about 44 feet from one door to the opposite door. <sup>14</sup>The man also measured the porch. It was about 35 feet wide. The courtyard was around the porch. <sup>15</sup>From the front of the outer side of the gate to the front of the porch of the inner side of the gate was 87½ feet. <sup>16</sup>The rooms and porch had small windows on all sides. The windows were narrower on the side facing the gateway. Carvings of palm trees were on each inner wall of the rooms.

The Outer Courtyard

<sup>17</sup>Then the man brought me into the outer courtyard. I saw rooms and a pavement of stones. Thirty rooms were along the edge of the paved walkway. <sup>18</sup>The pavement ran along side the gates. It was as long as the gates were wide. This was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup>Then the man measured from the outer wall to the inner wall. The outer court between these two walls was 175 feet on the east and on the north.

The North Gate

<sup>20</sup>The man measured the length and width of the gate leading to the outer courtyard. It faced north. <sup>21</sup>It had three rooms on each side. Its inner walls and its porch measured the same as the first gate. It was 87½ feet long. And it was 44 feet wide. <sup>22</sup>Its windows, porch and carvings of palm trees measured the same as the east gate. Seven steps went up to the gate. And the gate's porch was opposite them. <sup>23</sup>The inner courtyard had a gate across from the northern gate like the one on the east. The man measured it and found it was 175 feet from inner gate to outer gate.

The South Gate

<sup>24</sup>Then the man led me south. I saw a gate facing south. He measured its inner walls and its porch. They measured the same as the other gates. <sup>25</sup>The gate and its porch had windows all around like the other gates. It was 87½ feet long and 44 feet wide. <sup>26</sup>Seven steps went up to this gate. Its porch was in front of them. It had carvings of palm trees on its inner walls. <sup>27</sup>A gate was on the south side of the inner courtyard. The man measured from gate to gate on the south side. It was 175 feet.

The Inner Courtyard

<sup>28</sup>Then the man brought me through the south gate to the inner courtyard. The inner south gate measured the same as the gates in the outer wall. <sup>29</sup>The inner southgate's rooms, inner walls and porch measured the same as the gates in the outer wall. There were windows all around the gate and its porch. The gate was 87½ feet long and 44 feet wide. <sup>30</sup>Each porch of each inner gate was about 44 feet long and about 9 feet wide. <sup>31</sup>The inner south gate's porch faced the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on its inside walls. Its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup>The man brought me into the inner courtyard on the east side. He measured the inner east gate. It measured the same as the other gates. <sup>33</sup>The inner east gate's rooms, inside walls and porch measured the same as the other gates. Windows were all around the gate and its porch. The inner east gate was 87½ feet long and 44 feet wide. <sup>34</sup>Its porch faced the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on its inner walls on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup>Then the man brought me to the inner north gate. He measured it. It measured the same as the other gates. <sup>36</sup>Its rooms, inner walls and porch measured the same as the other gates. Windows were all around the gate. It was 87½ feet long and 44 feet wide. <sup>37</sup>Its porch faced the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on its inner walls on each side. And its stairway had eight steps.

Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

<sup>38</sup>There was a room with a door that opened onto the porch of the inner north gate. In this room the priests washed animals for the burnt offerings. <sup>39</sup>There were two tables on each side of the room. Animals for burnt offerings, sin offerings and penalty offerings were killed on these tables. <sup>40</sup>On each side of the porch, outside the door to the room, were two tables. <sup>41</sup>So four tables were on one side of the gate. And four tables were on the other side of the gate. In all there were eight tables on which the priests killed animals for sacrifices. <sup>42</sup>There were four tables of cut stone for the burnt offering. These tables were about 3 feet long and 3 feet wide. And they were about 2 feet high. On these tables the priests put their tools. They used the tools to kill animals for burnt offerings and the other sacrifices. <sup>43</sup>Double hooks 3 inches long were put up on all the walls. The flesh for the offering was put on the tables.

The Priests' Rooms

<sup>44</sup>There were two rooms in the inner courtyard. One was beside the north gate. It faced south. The other room was beside the south gate. It faced north. <sup>45</sup>The man said to me, "The room which faces the south is for the priests. They serve in the Temple."<sup>d</sup> <sup>46</sup>And the room that faces north is for the priests who serve at the altar. These priests are descendants<sup>d</sup> of Zadok. They are the only descendants of Levi who can come near the Lord to serve him."

<sup>47</sup>The man measured the Temple courtyard. It was a perfect square. It was 175 feet long and 175 feet wide. The altar was in front of the Temple.

The Temple Porch

<sup>48</sup>The man brought me to the porch of the Temple.<sup>d</sup> And he measured each wall of the porch. It was about 9 feet on each side. The gate was 24½ feet wide. The walls of the gate were about 5 feet on each side. <sup>49</sup>The porch was 35 feet long and 21 feet wide. Ten steps went up to the porch. Pillars were by the walls, one on each side of the entrance.

The Holy Place of the Temple

41 The man brought me to the Holy Place. He measured its walls. They were 10½ feet wide on each side. <sup>2</sup>The entrance was 17½ feet wide. The walls alongside the entrance were about 9 feet wide on each side. The man measured the Holy Place. It was 70 feet long and 35 feet wide.

<sup>3</sup>Then the man went inside. And he measured the walls of the doorway. Each was 3½ feet wide. The doorway was 10½ feet wide. The walls next to it were more than 12 feet thick. <sup>4</sup>Then the man measured the room at the end of the Holy Place. It was 35 feet long and 35 feet wide. The man said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

<sup>5</sup>Then the man measured the wall of the Temple.<sup>d</sup> It was 10½ feet wide. The side rooms were 7 feet wide all around the Temple. <sup>6</sup>The side rooms were on three different stories, each above the other. There were 30 rooms on each story. The side rooms had ledges on the wall all around. The rooms rested on the ledges but were not attached to the walls. <sup>7</sup>The side rooms around the Temple were wider on each higher story. So rooms were wider on the top story. A stairway went up from the lowest story to the highest through the middle story.

<sup>8</sup>I also saw that the Temple had a raised base all around. It was the foundation for the side rooms and was 10½ feet thick. <sup>9</sup>The outer wall of the side rooms was about 9 feet thick. There was an open area between the side rooms of the Temple <sup>10</sup>and the priests' rooms. It was 35 feet wide and went all around the Temple. <sup>11</sup>The doors of the side rooms led to a paved base around the outside of the Temple. One door faced north. And the other door faced south. The paved base was about 9 feet wide all around.

<sup>12</sup>There was a building facing the Temple courtyard at the west side. It was 122½ feet wide. The wall of the building was about 9 feet thick all around. It was 157½ feet long.

<sup>13</sup>Then the man measured the Temple. The Temple was 175 feet long. This included the courtyard with the building and its walls. It was all 175 feet long. <sup>14</sup>Also the eastern front of the Temple and its courtyard was 175 feet wide.

<sup>15</sup>The man measured the length of the building facing the courtyard on the west side, including its side rooms. Its walls from one side to the other were 175 feet.

The Holy Place, the Most Holy Place and the porch of the courtyard <sup>16</sup>had wood panels on the walls. By the doorway, the Temple had wood panels on the walls. The wood covered all the walls from the floor up to the windows. The windows were covered with crossed strips of wood.

<sup>17</sup>In the space above the entrance to the Most Holy Place there were carvings. And on the outside and all the walls around the Most Holy Place and the Holy Place were carvings. <sup>18</sup>The carvings were of creatures with wings and palm trees. A palm tree was between each carved creature. Every creature had two faces. <sup>19</sup>One was a man's face looking toward the palm tree on one side. The other was a lion's face looking toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around the Temple wall. <sup>20</sup>This was from the floor to above the door. Palm trees and creatures with wings were carved on all the walls of the Holy Place. <sup>21</sup>The walls of the Holy Place were square. In front of the Most Holy Place was something that looked like <sup>22</sup>an altar of wood. It was more than 5 feet high and 3 feet wide. Its corners, base and sides were wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that is in the presence of the Lord." <sup>23</sup>Both the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place had double doors. <sup>24</sup>Each of the doors had two pieces that would swing open. <sup>25</sup>Palm trees and creatures with wings were also carved on the doors of the Holy Place. They were like those carved on the walls. And there was a wood roof on the front Temple porch. <sup>26</sup>There were windows and palm trees on both side walls of the porch. The side rooms of the Temple were also covered by a roof.

The Priests' Room

42 Then the man led me north out into the outer courtyard. He led me to the rooms across from the Temple<sup>d</sup> courtyard. The outer wall was north of these rooms. <sup>2</sup>The building on the north side was 175 feet long and 87½ feet wide. <sup>3</sup>There was 35 feet of the Temple courtyard between this building and the Temple. On the other side, this building faced the stone pavement of the outer courtyard. The building had rooms and balconies on three stories. <sup>4</sup>There was a hallway on the north side of the rooms. It was 17½ feet wide and 175 feet long. Doors led into the rooms from this hallway. <sup>5</sup>The top rooms were narrower. This was because the balconies took more space from them. The rooms on the first and second stories of the building were wider. <sup>6</sup>The rooms were on three stories. They did not have pillars like the pillars of the courtyards. So the top rooms were farther back than those on the first and second stories. <sup>7</sup>There was a wall outside parallel to the rooms and to the outer courtyard. It ran in front of the rooms for 87½ feet. <sup>8</sup>The row of rooms along the outer courtyard was 87½ feet long. The rooms that faced the Temple were about 175 feet long. <sup>9</sup>The lower rooms had an entrance on the east end of the building. This was so a person could enter them from the courtyard.

<sup>10</sup>There were rooms on the south side, parallel to the wall of the outer courtyard. They faced the Temple courtyard. <sup>11</sup>These rooms had a hallway in front of them. They were like the rooms on the north. They had the same length and width. And the doors were the same. <sup>12</sup>The doors of the south rooms were like the doors of the north rooms. There was a door at the east end of a hall. This hall went to all the rooms.

<sup>13</sup>The man said to me, "The north and south rooms across from the Temple courtyard are holy rooms. There the priests who go near the Lord will eat the most holy offerings. There they will put the most holy offerings: the grain offerings, sin offerings and the penalty offerings. <sup>14</sup>The priests who enter the Holy Place must leave their serving clothes there. Then they may go into the outer courtyard. This is because these clothes are holy. The priests must put on other clothes. Then they may go to the part of the Temple which is for the people."

The Outside of the Temple

<sup>15</sup>The man finished measuring inside the Temple. <sup>4</sup>Then he brought me out through the east gate. He measured the area all around. <sup>16</sup>The man measured the east side with the measuring stick. It was 875 feet by the measuring stick. <sup>17</sup>He measured the north side. It was 875 feet by the measuring stick. <sup>18</sup>He measured the south side. It was 875 feet by the measuring stick. <sup>19</sup>He went around to the west side. And it measured 875 feet by the measuring stick. <sup>20</sup>So he measured the Temple on all four sides. The Temple had a wall all around it. It was 875 feet long and 875 feet wide. It separated the holy from that which is not holy.

The Lord Among His People

43 <sup>2</sup>The man led me to the outer east gate. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the greatness of the God of Israel coming from the east. God's voice was like the roar of rushing water. His greatness made the earth shine. <sup>3</sup>I saw a vision. It was like the vision I had seen when the Lord came to destroy the city. It was also like the vision I had seen by the Kebar River. I bowed face-down on the ground. <sup>4</sup>The greatness of the Lord came into the Temple <sup>d</sup> through the east gate.

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit <sup>d</sup> picked me up. And he brought me into the inner courtyard. There the Lord's greatness filled the Temple. <sup>6</sup>The man stood at my side. I heard someone speaking to me from inside the Temple. <sup>7</sup>The voice from the Temple said to me, "Human being, this is my throne. And this is the place my feet rest. I will live here among the Israelites forever. The people of Israel will not make my holy name unclean <sup>d</sup> again. Neither the people nor their kings will make it unclean by their sexual sins. Nor will they make it unclean with the dead bodies of their kings. <sup>8</sup>They made my name unclean by putting their doorway next to my doorway. And they put their doorpost next to my doorpost. Only a wall separated me from them. When they did their acts that I hate, they made my holy name unclean. So I destroyed them in my anger. <sup>9</sup>Now let them stop their sexual sins. And let them take the dead bodies of their kings far away from me. Then I will live among them forever.

<sup>10</sup>"Human being, tell the people of Israel about the Temple. Then they will be ashamed of their sins. Let them think about the plan of the Temple. <sup>11</sup>Then they will be ashamed of all they have done. Let them know the design of the Temple. Let them know how it is built. Show them its exits and entrances. Show them all its designs, all its rules and all its teachings. And write the rules as they watch. Do this so they can obey all the Temple's teachings and rules. <sup>12</sup>This is the teaching of the Temple: All the area around the top of the mountain is most holy. This is the teaching of the Temple.

The Altar

<sup>13</sup>And these are the measurements of the altar, using the measuring stick. It is 21 inches long. The altar's base is 21 inches high and 21 inches long. Its rim is about 9 inches around its edge. And the altar is this tall: <sup>14</sup>From the ground up to the lower ledge, it measures 3½ feet. It is 21 inches wide. It measures 7 feet from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge and is 21 inches wide. <sup>15</sup>The place where the sacrifice is burned on the altar is 7 feet high. The four corners are shaped like horns and reach up above it. <sup>16</sup>It is square. It is 21 feet long and 21 feet wide. <sup>17</sup>The upper ledge is also square, 24½ feet long and 24½ feet wide. The border around it is 10½ inches wide. Its base is 21 inches around. Its steps are on the east."

<sup>18</sup>Then the man said to me, "Human being, this is what the Lord God says: These are the rules for the altar. When it is built, use these rules to offer burnt offerings and sprinkle blood on it. <sup>19</sup>You must give a young bull as a sin offering to the priests. These priests are the Levites from the family of Zadok. They come near me to serve me, says the Lord God. <sup>20</sup>Take some of the bull's blood and put it on the altar's four corners. Put it also on the four corners of the ledge. And put it on the border all around. This is how you will make the altar pure and ready for God's service. <sup>21</sup>Then take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the proper place in the Temple <sup>d</sup> area. It will be outside the Holy Place.

<sup>22</sup>"On the second day offer a male goat. It must have nothing wrong with it. It will be for a sin offering. The priests will make the altar pure and ready for God's service. They will do it the same way they did with the young bull. <sup>23</sup>When you finish making the altar pure and ready, offer a young bull and a male sheep from the flock. They must also have nothing wrong with them. <sup>24</sup>You must offer them before the Lord. The priests will throw salt on them. Then they will offer them as a burnt offering to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>"You must prepare a goat every day for seven days as a sin offering. Also, you must prepare a young bull and male sheep from the flock. They must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>26</sup>For seven days the priests will make the altar pure and ready for God's service. Then the priests will give the altar to God. <sup>27</sup>After these seven days, on the eighth day, the priests must present your offerings. They must offer your burnt offerings and your fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept you, says the Lord God."

The Outer East Gate

44 Then the man brought me back to the outer east gate of the Temple<sup>d</sup> area. The gate was shut. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to me, "This gate will stay shut. It will not be opened. No one may enter through it. This is because the Lord God of Israel has entered through it. So it must stay shut. <sup>3</sup>Only the ruler himself may sit in the gateway to eat bread before the Lord. He must enter through the porch of the gateway and go out the same way."

<sup>4</sup>Then the man brought me through the outer north gate. He brought me to the front of the Temple. I looked and saw the greatness of the Lord. It was filling the Temple of the Lord. I bowed facedown on the ground.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to me, "Human being, pay attention. See this with your eyes. And hear this with your ears. See and hear everything I tell you about all the rules and teachings of the Temple of the Lord. Pay attention to the entrance to the Temple and to all the exits from the Temple area. <sup>6</sup>Then speak to those who refuse to obey. Say to the people of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: Stop doing all your acts that I hate, Israel! <sup>7</sup>You brought foreigners into my Holy Place. They were not circumcised<sup>d</sup> in the flesh. They had not given themselves to serving me. You dishonored my Temple when you offered me food, fat and blood. You broke my agreement by all your ways that I hate. <sup>8</sup>And you have not taken care of my holy things. You put foreigners in charge of my Temple. <sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord God says: Foreigners who are not circumcised in flesh and who do not give themselves to serving me may not enter my Temple. Even a foreigner living among the people of Israel may not enter.

Israel left me and followed their idols. These Levites must be punished for their sin. <sup>11</sup>These Levites are to be servants in my Holy Place. They may guard the gates of the Temple. They may serve in the Temple. They may kill the animals for the burnt offering and the sacrifices for the people. They may stand before the people to serve them. <sup>12</sup>But these Levites helped the people worship their idols and caused the people of Israel to fall. So I have made this promise: They will be punished for their sin, says the Lord God. <sup>13</sup>They will not come near me to serve as priests. They will not come near any of my holy things or the most holy offerings. But they will be ashamed of the things they did that I hate. <sup>14</sup>But I will make them take care of the Temple. They will take care of everything that must be done in it.

<sup>15</sup>"But this is not true for priests who are Levites and descendants<sup>d</sup> of Zadok. They took care of my Holy Place when Israel left me. They may come near to serve me. They may stand in my presence. They will offer me the fat and blood of the animals they sacrifice, says the Lord God. <sup>16</sup>They are the only ones who may enter my Holy Place. They may come near my table to serve me. They may take care of the things I gave them.

<sup>17</sup>"When they enter the gates of the inner courtyard, they must wear linen robes. They must not wear wool to serve at the gates of the inner courtyard or in the Temple. <sup>18</sup>They will wear linen turbans on their heads and linen underclothes. They will not wear anything that makes them perspire. <sup>19</sup>At times they will go out into the outer courtyard to the people. But before they go, they must take off their serving clothes. They must put these clothes away in the holy rooms. And they must put on other clothes. Then they will not let their holy clothes hurt the people.

<sup>20</sup>"They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long. They must keep the hair of their heads trimmed. <sup>21</sup>None of the priests may drink wine when they enter the inner courtyard. <sup>22</sup>The priests must not marry a widow or a divorced woman. They may marry only virgins<sup>d</sup> from the people of Israel. Or they may marry a widow of a priest. <sup>23</sup>They must teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is not holy. They must help my people know what is unclean<sup>d</sup> and what is clean.

<sup>24</sup>"In court they will act as judges. When they judge, they will follow my teachings. They must obey my laws and my rules at all my special feasts. They must keep my Sabbaths<sup>d</sup> holy.

<sup>25</sup>“They must not go near a dead person, making themselves unclean.<sup>d</sup> But they are allowed to make themselves unclean if the dead person is a relative. It might be his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or a sister who has not married. <sup>26</sup>After the priest has been made clean again, he must wait seven days. <sup>27</sup>Then he may go into the inner courtyard to serve in the Temple. But he must offer a sin offering for himself, says the Lord God.

<sup>28</sup>“These are the rules about the priests and their property: They will have me instead of property. You will not give them any land to own in Israel. I am what they will own. <sup>29</sup>They will eat the grain offerings, sin offerings and penalty offerings. Everything Israel offers will be theirs. <sup>30</sup>And the best fruits of all the first harvests will be for the priests. And they will have all the special gifts offered to me. You will also give to the priests the first part of your grain that you grind. This will cause a blessing to come on your house. <sup>31</sup>The priests must not eat any bird or animal that died a natural death. And they must not eat one that has been torn by wild animals.

The Land Is Divided

45 “Divide the land for the Israelite tribes<sup>d</sup> by throwing lots.<sup>d</sup> At that time you will give a part of the land to belong to the Lord. It will be about 7 miles long and about 6 miles wide. All of this land will be holy. <sup>2</sup>An area of 875 feet square will be for the Temple.<sup>d</sup> There will be an open space around the Temple that is 87½ feet wide. <sup>3</sup>In the holy area you will measure a part about 7 miles long and 3 miles wide. The Most Holy Place will be in this holy area. <sup>4</sup>This holy part of the land will be for the priests who serve in the Temple. This is where they come near to serve the Lord. It will be a place for the priests' houses. And it will be the place for the Temple. <sup>5</sup>Another area will be about 7 miles long and more than 3 miles wide. It will be for the Levites, who serve in the Temple. It will belong to them so they will have cities in which to live.

<sup>6</sup>“And you will give the city an area that is about 1½ miles wide and about 7 miles long. It will be along the side of the holy area. It will belong to all the people of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>“The ruler will have land on both sides of the holy area and the city. On the west of the holy area, his land will reach to the Mediterranean Sea. On the east of the holy area, his land will reach to the eastern border. It will be as long as the land given to each tribe. <sup>8</sup>This land will be the ruler's property in Israel. So my rulers will not be cruel to my people anymore. But they will give land to each tribe in the nation of Israel.

<sup>9</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: You have gone far enough, you rulers of Israel! Stop being cruel and hurting people. Do what is right and fair. Stop forcing my people out of their homes, says the Lord God. <sup>10</sup>You must have honest scales, an honest dry measurement and an honest liquid measurement. <sup>11</sup>The dry measure and the liquid measure will be the same: The liquid measure will always be a tenth of a homer.<sup>a</sup> The ephah will always be a tenth of a homer. The measurement they follow will be the homer. <sup>12</sup>The shekel<sup>a</sup> will be worth 20 gerahs. A mina will be worth 60 shekels.

Offerings and Holy Days

<sup>13</sup>“This is the gift you will offer: a sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat; a sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley. <sup>14</sup>The amount of oil you are to offer is a tenth of a bath from each cor. (Ten baths make a homer and also make a cor.) <sup>15</sup>You should give 1 sheep from each flock of 200 from the watering places of Israel. They are to be offered with the grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. These offerings are to remove sins so you will belong to God, says the Lord God. <sup>16</sup>All people in the land will give this special offering for the ruler of Israel. <sup>17</sup>It will be the ruler's responsibility to supply the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings. These offerings will be given at the feasts and at the New Moons.<sup>d</sup> They will also be given on the Sabbaths<sup>d</sup> and at all the other feasts of Israel. The ruler will supply the sin offerings, grain offerings and fellowship offerings. These offerings are to pay for the sins of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: On the first day of the first month take a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. Use it to make the Temple<sup>d</sup> pure and ready for God's service. <sup>19</sup>The priest will take some of the blood from the sin offering. And he will put it on the doorposts of the Temple. He will put it on the four corners of the ledge of the altar. And he will put it on the posts of the gate of the inner courtyard. <sup>20</sup>You will do the same thing on the seventh day of the month. You will do it for anyone who has sinned by accident or without knowing it. This is how you make the Temple pure and ready for God's service.

Passover Feast Offerings

<sup>21</sup>“On the fourteenth day of the first month you will celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Passover. It will be a feast of seven days when you eat bread made without yeast. <sup>22</sup>On that day the ruler must offer a bull for himself and for all the people of the land. The bull will be a sin offering. <sup>23</sup>During the seven days of the feast the ruler must offer seven bulls. And he must offer seven male sheep. The bulls and sheep must have nothing wrong with them. They will be burnt offerings to the Lord. The ruler will offer them every day of the seven days of the feast. He must also offer a male goat every day as a sin offering. <sup>24</sup>The ruler must give as a grain offering a half bushel for each bull and a half bushel for each sheep. He must give a gallon of olive oil for each half bushel.

<sup>25</sup>“Beginning on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, you will celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Shelters. During the feast, the ruler will do the same things for seven days. He will supply the sin offering, burnt offering, grain offering and the olive oil.

Rules for Worship

46 “This is what the Lord God says: The east gate of the inner courtyard will be shut on the six working days. But it will be opened on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. And it will be open on the day of the New Moon.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>The ruler will enter through the porch of the gateway. He will enter from outside and stand by the gatepost. Then the priests will offer the ruler's burnt offering and fellowship offerings. The ruler will worship at the entrance of the gate. Then he will go out. But the gate will not be shut until evening. <sup>3</sup>The people of the land will worship at the entrance of that gateway. They will worship there in the presence of the Lord on the Sabbaths and New Moons. <sup>4</sup>This is the burnt offering the ruler will offer to the Lord on the Sabbath day. It will be six male lambs that have nothing wrong with them. And it will be a male sheep that has nothing wrong with it. <sup>5</sup>He must give a half bushel grain offering with the male sheep. But he can give as much grain offering with the lambs as he pleases. He must also give a gallon of olive oil for each half bushel of grain. <sup>6</sup>On the day of the New Moon he must offer a young bull. It must have nothing wrong with it. He must also offer six lambs and a male sheep. They also must have nothing wrong with them. <sup>7</sup>The ruler must give a half bushel grain offering with the bull. And he must give the same with the male sheep. With the lambs, he can give as much grain as he pleases. But he must give a gallon of olive oil for each half bushel of grain. <sup>8</sup>And when the ruler enters, he must go in through the porch of the gateway. He must go out the same way.

<sup>11</sup>“At the feasts and regular times of worship a half bushel of grain must be offered. It will be offered with a young bull. And a half bushel of grain must be offered with a male sheep. But with an offering of lambs, the ruler may give as much grain as he pleases. He should give a gallon of olive oil for each half bushel of grain. <sup>12</sup>The ruler may give an offering as a special gift to the Lord. It may be a burnt offering or fellowship offering. When he gives it to the Lord, the inner east gate will be opened for him. He must offer his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. Then he will go out. After he has gone out, the gate will be shut.

<sup>13</sup>“Every morning you will give a year-old lamb that has nothing wrong with it. It will be for a burnt offering to the Lord every day. <sup>14</sup>Also, you must offer a grain offering with the lamb every morning. With it you will give three and a third quarts of grain and one and a third quarts of olive oil. This is to make the fine flour moist. It will be a grain offering to the Lord. This is a rule that must be kept from now on. <sup>15</sup>So they must always give the lamb, the grain offering and the olive oil every morning as a burnt offering.

Rules for the Ruler

<sup>16</sup>“This is what the Lord God says: The ruler might give a gift from his land to one of his sons. Then that land will belong to that son's children. It is their property from their family. <sup>17</sup>But the ruler might give a gift from his land to one of his slaves. That land will belong to the slave only until the year of freedom.

Then the land will go back to the ruler. Only the ruler's sons may keep a gift of land from the ruler. <sup>18</sup>The ruler must not take any of the people's land. He must not force them out of their land. He must give his sons land from his own land. Then my people will not be scattered out of their own land.' "

The Special Kitchens

<sup>19</sup>The man led me through the entrance at the side of the gateway. He led me to the priests' holy rooms that face north. There I saw a place at the west end. <sup>20</sup>The man said to me, "This is where the priests will boil the meat of the penalty offering and sin offering. There the priests will bake the grain offering. Then they will not need to bring these offerings into the outer courtyard. That would hurt the people."

<sup>21</sup>Then the man brought me out to the outer courtyard. He led me to its four corners. In each corner of the courtyard was a smaller courtyard. <sup>22</sup>Small courtyards were in the four corners of the courtyard. Each small courtyard was 70 feet long and 52½ feet wide. All four corners measured the same. <sup>23</sup>A stone wall was around each of the four small courtyards. Places for cooking were built in each of the stone walls. <sup>24</sup>The man said to me, "These are the kitchens. The Temple's priests will boil the sacrifices for the people here."

The River from the Temple

47 The man led me back to the door of the Temple. <sup>1</sup>I saw water coming out from under the doorway that faces east. (The Temple faced east.) The water flowed down from the south end of the Temple. It was south of the altar. <sup>2</sup>The man brought me out through the outer north gate. And he led me around outside to the outer east gate. The water was coming out on the south side of the gate.

<sup>3</sup>The man went toward the east with a line in his hand. He measured about a third of a mile. Then he led me through water that came up to my ankles. <sup>4</sup>The man measured about a third of a mile again. Then he led me through water that came up to my knees. Then he measured about a third of a mile again. And he led me through water up to my waist. <sup>5</sup>The man measured about a third of a mile again. But it was now a river that I could not cross. The water had risen too high. It was deep enough for swimming. It was a river that no one could cross. <sup>6</sup>The man asked me, "Human being, do you see this?"

Then the man led me back along the bank of the river. <sup>7</sup>As I went back, I saw many trees on both sides of the water. <sup>8</sup>The man said to me, "This water will flow toward the eastern areas. It will go down into the Jordan Valley. When the water enters the Dead Sea, <sup>9</sup>it will become fresh. <sup>9</sup>And everywhere the river goes, there will be many animals and fish. Wherever this water goes the Dead Sea will become fresh. So where the river goes there will be many living things. <sup>10</sup>Fishermen will stand by the sea. From En Gedi all the way to En Glaim will become a place to spread fishing nets. There will be many kinds of fish in the Dead Sea. There will be as many kinds of fish as there are in the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>11</sup>But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh. They will be left for salt. <sup>12</sup>All kinds of fruit trees will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not dry and die. The trees will have fruit every month because the water for them comes from the Temple. The fruit from the trees will be for food. And their leaves will be for medicine."

Borders of the Land

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Lord God says: "These are the borders to divide the land among the 12 tribes <sup>14</sup>of Israel. Joseph will have two parts of land. <sup>14</sup>You will divide the land equally. I promised to give it to your ancestors. So this land will belong to you from your family.

<sup>15</sup>"This will be the border line of the land.

"On the north side it will start at the Mediterranean Sea. It will go by the Hethlon Road. This is where the road turns toward Lebo Hamath. And it will go to the cities of Zedad, <sup>16</sup>Berothah and Sibraim. Sibraim is on the border between Damascus and Hamath. And it will go on to the city of Hazer Hatticon on the border of the country of Hauran. <sup>17</sup>So the border line will go from the Mediterranean Sea east to the city of Hazar Enan. This is on the northern border of Damascus. And the country of Hamath will be on the north side of the border.

<sup>18</sup>"On the east side the border runs south from a point between Hauran and Damascus. It will go along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel. It will continue to the city of Tamar on the Dead Sea. <sup>18</sup>This will be the east side of the land.

<sup>19</sup>"On the south side the border line will go east from Tamar. It will go all the way to the waters of Meribah Hadesh. Then it will run along the brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the south side of the land.

<sup>20</sup>"On the west side the Mediterranean Sea will be the border line. It will go to a place across from Lebo Hamath. This will be the west side of your land.

<sup>21</sup>“So you will divide this land among the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup>You will divide it as a property for yourselves. And it will be for you and for the foreigners who live and have children among you. These foreigners will be like people born in Israel. You will divide some land for them among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup>In whatever tribe the foreigner lives, you will give him some land,” says the Lord God.

Dividing the Land

48 “These are the names of the tribes.<sup>d</sup> Dan will have one share. It will begin at the northern border. It will go from the sea and over the Hethlon Road. It will follow the road to Lebo Hamath. It will go all the way to Hazar Enan. This is on the northern border of Damascus. It will stop there next to Hamath. This will be Dan’s northern border from the east side to the Mediterranean Sea on the west side.

<sup>24</sup>“South of Dan’s border, Asher will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>31</sup>“South of Asher’s border, Naphtali will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>44</sup>“South of Naphtali’s border, Manasseh will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>55</sup>“South of Manasseh’s border, Ephraim will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>66</sup>“South of Ephraim’s border, Reuben will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>77</sup>“South of Reuben’s border, Judah will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>88</sup>“South of Judah’s border will be the holy area which you are to give. It will be about 7 miles wide. It will be as long and wide as one of the tribes’ shares. It will run from the east side to the west side. The Temple<sup>d</sup> will be in the middle of this area.

<sup>99</sup>“The share which you will give the Lord will be about 7 miles long and 3 miles wide. <sup>10</sup>The holy area will be divided among these people. For the priests on the north side, the land will measure about 7 miles. It will be 3 miles wide on the west side and 3 miles wide on the east side. It will be about 7 miles on the south side. The Temple of the Lord will be in the middle of it. <sup>11</sup>This land is for the priests who are given to serve the Lord. They are the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Zadok who did my work. They did not leave me. The other Levites left me when Israel did. <sup>12</sup>This share from the holy portion of the land will be a gift for these priests. It will be next to the land of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>“Alongside the land for the priests, the Levites will have a share. It will be about 7 miles long and 3 miles wide. Its full length will be about 7 miles. And its full width will be about 3 miles. <sup>14</sup>The Levites are not to sell or trade any of this land. They will not sell any of this best part of the land. It belongs to the Lord.

City Property

<sup>15</sup>“The rest of the land will be an area about 1½ miles wide and 7 miles long. It will be for the other people’s use. It will be for the city, for homes and for pastures. The city will be in the middle of it. <sup>16</sup>These are the city’s measurements: the north side will be about a mile. The south side will be about a mile. The east side will be about a mile. And the west side will be about a mile. <sup>17</sup>The city’s land for pastures will be about 437 feet on the north, 437 feet on the south, 437 feet on the east and 437 feet on the west. <sup>18</sup>Alongside the length of the holy area there will be left 3 miles on the east and 3 miles on the west. It will be used to grow food for the city workers. <sup>19</sup>The city workers will plow this land. The workers will be from all the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>20</sup>This whole area will be square, 7 miles by 7 miles. You shall give to the Lord the holy share along with the city property.

<sup>21</sup>“Land that is left over on both sides of the holy area and city property will belong to the ruler. That land will extend east of the holy area to the eastern border. And it will extend west of it to the Mediterranean Sea. Both of these areas run the length of the lands of the tribes. They belong to the ruler. The holy area with the Holy Place of the Temple<sup>d</sup> will be in the middle. <sup>22</sup>The Levites’ land and the city property will be between the lands belonging to the ruler. The ruler’s land will be between Judah’s border and Benjamin’s border.

The Other Tribes’ Land

<sup>23</sup>“Here is what the rest of the tribes will receive: Benjamin will have one share. It will go from the east side to the Mediterranean Sea on the west side.

<sup>24</sup>“South of Benjamin’s land, Simeon will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>25</sup>“South of Simeon’s land, Issachar will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>26</sup>“South of Issachar’s land, Zebulun will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>27</sup>“South of Zebulun’s land, Gad will have one share. It will go from the east side to the west side.

<sup>28</sup>“The southern border of Gad’s land will go east from Tamar on the Dead Sea<sup>a</sup> to the waters of Meribah Kadesh. Then it will run along the brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>29</sup>“This is the land you will divide among the tribes of Israel. These are to be their shares,” says the Lord God.

The Gates of the City

<sup>30</sup>“These will be the outside borders of the city: The north side will measure more than a mile. <sup>31</sup>There will be three gates facing north. They are Reuben’s Gate, Judah’s Gate and Levi’s Gate. The city’s gates will be named for the tribes<sup>a</sup> of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>“The east side will measure more than a mile. There will be three gates facing east. They are Joseph’s Gate, Benjamin’s Gate and Dan’s Gate.

<sup>33</sup>“The south side will measure more than a mile. There will be three gates facing south. They are Simeon’s Gate, Issachar’s Gate and Zebulun’s Gate.

<sup>34</sup>“The west side will measure more than a mile. There will be three gates facing west. They are Gad’s Gate, Asher’s Gate and Naphtali’s Gate.

<sup>35</sup>“The city will measure about six miles around. From then on the name of the city will be The Lord God Is There.”

DANIEL

The Life and Visions of Daniel

Daniel Taken to Babylon

1 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and surrounded it with his army. This happened during the third year that Jehoiakim was king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>The Lord allowed Nebuchadnezzar to capture Jehoiakim king of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the things from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God. He carried them to Babylon and put them in the temple of his gods.

<sup>3</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar gave an order to Ashpenaz, his chief officer. He told Ashpenaz to bring some of the Israelite men into his house. He wanted them to be from important families. And he wanted those who were from the family of the king of Judah. <sup>4</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar wanted only healthy, young, Israelite men. These men were not to have anything wrong with their bodies. They were to be handsome and well educated. They were to be able to learn and understand things. He wanted those who were able to serve in his palace. Ashpenaz was to teach them the language and writings of the Babylonians. <sup>5</sup>The king gave the young men a certain amount of food and wine every day. That was the same kind of food that the king ate. They were to be trained for three years. Then the young men would become servants of the king of Babylon. <sup>6</sup>Among those young men were some from the people of Judah. These were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

<sup>7</sup>Then Ashpenaz, the chief officer, gave them Babylonian names. Daniel's new name was Belteshazzar. Hananiah's was Shadrach. Mishael's was Meshach. And Azariah's new name was Abednego.

<sup>8</sup>Daniel decided not to eat the king's food and wine because that would make him unclean.<sup>d</sup> So he asked Ashpenaz for permission not to make himself unclean in this way.

<sup>9</sup>God made Ashpenaz want to be kind and merciful to Daniel. <sup>10</sup>But Ashpenaz said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my master, the king. He ordered me to give you this food and drink. If you don't eat this food, you will begin to look worse than other young men your age. The king will see this. And he will cut off my head because of you."

<sup>11</sup>Ashpenaz had ordered a guard to watch Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. <sup>12</sup>Daniel said to the guard, "Please give us this test for ten days: Don't give us anything but vegetables to eat and water to drink. <sup>13</sup>Then after ten days compare us with the other young men who eat the king's food. See for yourself who looks healthier. Then you judge for yourself how you want to treat us, your servants."

<sup>14</sup>So the guard agreed to test them for ten days. <sup>15</sup>After ten days they looked very healthy. They looked better than all of the young men who ate the king's food. <sup>16</sup>So the guard took away the king's special food and wine. He gave Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah vegetables instead.

<sup>17</sup>God gave these four men wisdom and the ability to learn. They learned many kinds of things people had written and studied. Daniel could also understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

<sup>18</sup>The end of the three years came. And Ashpenaz brought all of the young men to King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup>The king talked to them. He found that none of the young men were as good as Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. So those four young men became the king's servants. <sup>20</sup>Every time the king asked them about something important, they showed much wisdom and understanding. He found they were ten times better than all the fortune-tellers and magicians in his kingdom. <sup>21</sup>So Daniel continued to be the king's servant until the first year Cyrus was king.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 During Nebuchadnezzar's second year as king, he had some dreams. Those dreams bothered him, and he could not sleep. <sup>2</sup>So the king called for his fortune-tellers, magicians, wizards and wise men. The king wanted those men to tell him what he had dreamed. So they came in and stood in front of the king.

<sup>3</sup>Then the king said to them, "I had a dream that bothers me. I want to know what the dream means."

<sup>4</sup>Then the wise men answered the king in the Aramaic language. They said, "Our king, live forever! We are your servants. Please tell us your dream. Then we will tell you what it means.”

<sup>5</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “No! You must tell me the dream. And then you must tell me what it means. If you don’t do these things, I will have you torn apart. And I will turn your houses into piles of stones. <sup>6</sup>But if you tell me my dream and its meaning, I will reward you. I will give you gifts and great honor. So tell me the dream, and tell me what it means.”

<sup>7</sup>Again the wise men said to the king, “Please, tell us the dream. And we will tell you what it means.”

<sup>8</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar answered, “Now I know that you are trying to get more time. You know that I meant what I said. <sup>9</sup>If you don’t tell me my dream, you will be punished. You have all agreed to tell me lies and wicked things. You are hoping things will change. Now, tell me the dream. Then I will know you can tell me what it really means!”

<sup>12</sup>When the king heard that, he became very angry. He gave an order for all the wise men of Babylon to be killed. <sup>13</sup>So King Nebuchadnezzar’s order was announced. All the wise men were to be put to death. Men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to kill them.

<sup>14</sup>Arioch was the commander of the king’s guards. He was going to put to death the wise men of Babylon. But Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and skill. <sup>15</sup>Daniel asked, “Why did the king order such a terrible punishment?” Then Arioch explained everything to Daniel. <sup>16</sup>When Daniel heard the story, he went to King Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel asked him to give him some more time. Then he would tell the king what he had dreamed and what it meant.

<sup>17</sup>So Daniel went to his house. He explained the whole story to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. <sup>18</sup>Daniel asked his friends to pray to the God of heaven. Daniel asked them to pray that God would show them mercy and help them understand this secret. Then Daniel and his friends would not be put to death with the other wise men of Babylon.

to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. <sup>20</sup>Daniel said:

“Praise God forever and ever.

He has wisdom and power.

<sup>21</sup>He changes the times and seasons of the year.

He takes away the power of kings.

And he gives their power to new kings.

He gives wisdom to people so they become wise.

And he helps people learn and know things.

<sup>22</sup>He makes known secrets that are deep and hidden.

He knows what is hidden in darkness, and light lives with him.

<sup>23</sup>I thank you and praise you, God of my ancestors.

You have given me wisdom and power.

You told me what we asked of you.

You told us about the king’s dream.”

The Meaning of the Dream

<sup>24</sup>Then Daniel went to Arioch. King Nebuchadnezzar had chosen Arioch to put to death the wise men of Babylon. Daniel said to Arioch, “Don’t put the wise men of Babylon to death. Take me to the king. I will tell him what his dream means.”

<sup>26</sup>The king asked Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) a question. He asked, “Are you able to tell me what I dreamed and what it means?”

<sup>27</sup>Daniel answered, “No person can explain to the king the secret he has asked about. No wise man, magician or fortune-teller can do this. <sup>28</sup>But there is a God in heaven who explains secret things. God has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen at a later time. This is your dream. This is the vision you saw while lying on your bed: <sup>29</sup>My king, as you were lying there, you thought about things to come. God, who can tell people about secret things, showed you what is going to happen. <sup>30</sup>God also told this secret to me. It is not because I have greater wisdom than other men. It is so that you, my king, may know what it means. In that way you will understand what went through your mind.

<sup>31</sup>“My king, in your dream you saw a large statue in front of you. It was huge, shiny and frightening. <sup>32</sup>The head of the statue was made of pure gold. Its chest and arms were made of silver. Its middle and the upper part of its legs were made of bronze. <sup>33</sup>The lower part of the legs were made of iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of baked clay. <sup>34</sup>While you were looking at the statue, you saw a rock cut free. But no human being touched the rock. It hit the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. <sup>35</sup>Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver and gold broke to pieces at the same time. They became like chaff<sup>a</sup> on a threshing<sup>a</sup> floor in the summertime. The wind blew them away, and there was nothing left. Then the rock that hit the statue became a very large mountain. It filled the whole earth.

<sup>36</sup>"That was your dream. Now we will tell the king what it means. <sup>37</sup>My king, you are the greatest king. God of heaven has given you a kingdom. He has given you power, strength and glory. <sup>38</sup>God has given you power over people, wild animals and birds. Wherever they live, God has made you ruler over them all. King Nebuchadnezzar, you are the head of gold on that statue.

<sup>39</sup>"Another kingdom will come after you. But that kingdom will not be as great as yours. Next a third kingdom will rule over the earth. That is the bronze part. <sup>40</sup>Then there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron. Iron crushes and smashes things to pieces. In the same way the fourth kingdom will smash and crush all the other kingdoms.

<sup>41</sup>"You saw that the statue's feet and toes were partly baked clay and partly iron. That means the fourth kingdom will be a divided kingdom. It will have some of the strength of iron in it. As you saw, iron was mixed with clay. <sup>42</sup>The toes of the statue were partly iron and partly clay. So the fourth kingdom will be partly strong like iron and partly breakable like clay. <sup>43</sup>You saw the iron mixed with clay. But iron and clay don't mix completely together. In the same way the people of the fourth kingdom will be a mixture. Those people will not be united as one people.

<sup>44</sup>"During the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up another kingdom. It will never be destroyed. And it will not be given to another group of people. This kingdom will crush all the other kingdoms. It will bring them to an end. But that kingdom itself will continue forever.

<sup>45</sup>"King Nebuchadnezzar, you saw a rock cut from a mountain. But no human being touched it. The rock broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver and gold to pieces. In this way the great God showed you what will happen. The dream is true, and you can trust this explanation."

<sup>46</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell facedown on the ground in front of Daniel. The king honored him. He ordered that an offering and incense<sup>d</sup> be presented to Daniel. <sup>47</sup>Then the king said to Daniel, "Truly I know your God is the greatest of all gods. And he is the Lord of all the kings. He tells people about things they cannot know. I know this is true. You were able to tell these secret things to me."

<sup>48</sup>Then the king gave Daniel an important position in his kingdom. And he gave many gifts to Daniel. Nebuchadnezzar made him ruler over the whole area of Babylon. And he put Daniel in charge of all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup>Daniel asked the king to make Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego important leaders over the area of Babylon. And the king did as Daniel asked. Daniel himself became one of the important people who stayed at the royal court.

The Gold Idol and Blazing Furnace

3 Now King Nebuchadnezzar had a gold statue made. That statue was 90 feet high and 9 feet wide. He set up the statue on the plain of Dura in the area of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>Then the king called the important leaders: the governors, assistant governors, captains of the soldiers, people who advised the king, keepers of the treasury, judges, rulers and all other officers in his kingdom. He wanted these men to come to the special service for the statue he had set up. <sup>3</sup>So they all came for the special service. And they stood in front of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>4</sup>Then the man who made announcements for the king spoke in a loud voice. He said, "People, nations and men of every language, this is what you are commanded to do: <sup>5</sup>You will hear the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres,<sup>d</sup> zithers,<sup>e</sup> harps, pipes and all the other musical instruments. When this happens, you must bow down and worship the gold statue. This is the one King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. <sup>6</sup>Everyone must bow down and worship this gold statue. Anyone who doesn't will be quickly thrown into a blazing furnace."

<sup>7</sup>Now people, nations and men who spoke every language were there. And they heard the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, zithers, pipes and all the other musical instruments. So they bowed down and worshiped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>8</sup>Then some Babylonians came up to the king. They began speaking against the men of Judah. <sup>9</sup>They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "Our king, live forever! <sup>10</sup>Our king, you gave a command. You said that everyone would hear the horns, lyres, zithers, harps, pipes and all the other musical instruments. Then they would have to bow down and worship the gold statue. <sup>11</sup>Anyone who wouldn't do this was to be thrown into a blazing furnace. <sup>12</sup>Our king, there are some men of Judah who did not pay attention to your order. You made them important officers in the area of Babylon. Their names are Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. They do not serve your gods. And they do not worship the gold statue you have set up."

<sup>13</sup>Nebuchadnezzar became very angry. He called for Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. So those men were brought to the king. <sup>14</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar said, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, is it true that you do not serve my gods? And is it true that you did not worship the gold statue I have set up? <sup>15</sup>Now, you will hear the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, zithers, harps, pipes and all the other musical instruments. And you must be ready to bow down and worship the statue I made. That will be good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown quickly into the blazing furnace. Then no god will be able to save you from my power!"

<sup>16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego answered the king. They said, "Nebuchadnezzar, you do not need to defend ourselves to you. <sup>17</sup>You can throw us into the blazing furnace. The God we serve is able to save us from the furnace and your power. If he does this, it is good. <sup>18</sup>But even if God does not save us, we want you, our king, to know this: We will not serve your gods. We will not worship the gold statue you have set up."

<sup>19</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar was furious with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. He ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than usual. <sup>20</sup>Then he commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. The king told the soldiers to throw them into the blazing furnace.

<sup>21</sup>So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were tied up and thrown into the blazing furnace. They were still wearing their robes, trousers, turbans and other clothes. <sup>22</sup>The king was very angry when he gave the command. And the furnace was made very hot. The fire was so hot that the flames killed the strong soldiers who took Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego there.

<sup>24</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar was very surprised and jumped to his feet. He asked the men who advised him, "Didn't we tie up only three men? Didn't we throw them into the fire?"

They answered, "Yes, our king."

<sup>25</sup>The king said, "Look! I see four men. They are walking around in the fire. They are not tied up, and they are not burned. The fourth man looks like a son of the gods."

<sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar went to the opening of the blazing furnace. He shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, come out! Servants of the Most High God, come here!"

So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire. <sup>27</sup>When they came out, the princes, assistant governors, governors and royal advisers crowded around them. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies. Their hair was not burned. Their robes were not burned. And they didn't even smell like smoke.

<sup>28</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Their God has sent his angel and saved his servants from the fire! These three men trusted their God. They refused to obey my command. And they were willing to die rather than serve or worship any god other than their own. <sup>29</sup>So I now make this law: The people of any nation or language must not say anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Anyone who does will be torn apart. And his house will be turned into a pile of stones. No other god can save his people like this." <sup>30</sup>Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the area of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream of a Tree

4 King Nebuchadnezzar sent a letter. It went to the people, nations and those who speak every language in all the world. The letter said:

I wish you great wealth!

<sup>2</sup>The Most High God has done miracles<sup>d</sup> and wonderful things for me. I am happy to tell you about these things.

<sup>3</sup>The things he has done are great.

His miracles are mighty.

His kingdom continues forever.

His rule will continue for all time.

<sup>4</sup>I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at my palace. I was happy and successful. <sup>5</sup>I had a dream that made me afraid. As I was lying on my bed, I saw pictures and visions in my mind. Those things made me very afraid. <sup>6</sup>So I gave an order. All the wise men of Babylon were to be brought to me. I wanted them to tell me what my dream meant. <sup>7</sup>The fortune-tellers, magicians and wise men came. I told them about the dream. But those men could not tell me what it meant.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, Daniel came to me. (I called him Belteshazzar to honor my god. The spirit of the holy gods is in him.) I told my dream to Daniel. <sup>9</sup>I said, "Belteshazzar, you are the most important of all the fortune-tellers. I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you. I know there is no secret that is too hard for you to understand. This was what I dreamed. Tell me what it means. <sup>10</sup>These are the visions I saw while I was lying in my bed: I looked, and there in front of me was a tree. It was standing in the middle of the earth. The tree was very tall. <sup>11</sup>The tree grew large and strong. The top of the tree touched the sky. It could be seen from anywhere on earth. <sup>12</sup>The leaves of the tree were beautiful. It had plenty of good fruit on it. On the tree was food for everyone. The wild animals found shelter under the tree. And the birds lived in its branches. Every animal ate from it.

<sup>13</sup>"I was looking at those things in the vision while lying on my bed. And then I saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. <sup>14</sup>He spoke very loudly. He said, "Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches. Strip off its leaves. Scatter its fruit around. Let the animals that are under the tree run away. Let the birds that were in its branches fly away. <sup>15</sup>But let the stump and its roots stay in the ground. Put a band of iron and bronze around it. Let it stay in the field with the grass around it.

"Let the man become wet with dew. Let him live among the animals and plants of the earth. <sup>16</sup>Let him not think like a man any longer. Let him have the mind of an animal for seven years.

<sup>17</sup>"Messengers gave this command. The holy ones declared the sentence. This is so all the people may know that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of men. God gives those kingdoms to anyone he wants. And he chooses people to rule them who are not proud."

shazzar, tell me what the dream means. None of the wise men in my kingdom can explain it to me. But you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

Daniel Explains the Dream

<sup>19</sup>Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) was very quiet for a while. His thoughts made him afraid. So the king said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning make you afraid."

Then Daniel, called Belteshazzar, answered the king. He said, "My master, I wish the dream were about your enemies. And I wish its meaning were for those who are against you! <sup>20</sup>You saw a tree in your dream. The tree grew large and strong. Its top touched the sky. It could be seen from all over the earth. <sup>21</sup>Its leaves were beautiful, and it had plenty of fruit. The fruit gave food for everyone. It was a home for the wild animals. And its branches were nesting places for the birds. That is the tree you saw. <sup>22</sup>My king, you are that tree! You have become great and powerful. You are like the tall tree that touched the sky. And your power reaches to the far parts of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>"My king, you saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. He said, 'Cut down the tree and destroy it. But leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Put a band of iron and bronze around it. Leave it in the field with the grass. Let him become wet with dew. He will live like a wild animal for seven years.'

<sup>24</sup>"This is the meaning of the dream, my king. The Most High God has commanded these things to happen to my master the king: <sup>25</sup>You will be forced away from people. You will live among the wild animals. People will feed you grass like an ox. And dew from the sky will make you wet. Seven years will pass, and then you will learn this lesson: The Most High God is ruler over the kingdoms of men. And the Most High God gives those kingdoms to anyone he wants.

<sup>26</sup>"The stump of the tree and its roots were to be left in the ground. This means your kingdom will be given back to you. This will happen when you learn that heaven rules your kingdom. <sup>27</sup>So, my king, please accept my advice. I advise you to stop sinning and do what is right. Stop doing wicked things and be kind to poor people. Then you might continue to be successful.”

The King's Dream Comes True

<sup>31</sup>The words were still in his mouth when a voice came from heaven. The voice said, “King Nebuchadnezzar, these things will happen to you: Your royal power has been taken away from you. <sup>32</sup>You will be forced away from people. You will live with the wild animals. You will be fed grass like an ox. Seven years will pass before you learn this lesson: The Most High God rules over the kingdoms of men. And the Most High God gives those kingdoms to anyone he wants.”

<sup>33</sup>Those things happened quickly. Nebuchadnezzar was forced to go away from people. He began eating grass like an ox. He became wet from dew. His hair grew long like the feathers of an eagle. And his nails grew long like the claws of a bird.

<sup>34</sup>Then at the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up toward heaven. And I could think correctly again. Then I gave praise to the Most High God. I gave honor and glory to him who lives forever.

God's rule is forever.

His kingdom continues for all time.

<sup>35</sup>People on earth are not truly important.

God does what he wants with the powers of heaven and the people on earth.

No one can stop his powerful hand.

No one can question the things he does.

<sup>36</sup>So, at that time I could think correctly again. And God gave back my great honor and power as king. The people who advise me and the royal family came to me for help again. I became king again. And I became even greater and more powerful than before. <sup>37</sup>Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, give praise and honor and glory to the King of heaven. Everything he does is right. He is always fair. And he is able to make proud people humble.

The Writing on the Wall

5 King Belshazzar gave a big banquet for 1,000 royal guests. And he drank wine with them. <sup>2</sup>As Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he gave an order to his servants. He told them to bring the gold and silver cups that his ancestor Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem. King Belshazzar wanted his royal guests to drink from those cups. He also wanted his wives and his slave women<sup>d</sup> to drink from them. <sup>3</sup>So they brought the gold cups. They had been taken from the Temple of God in Jerusalem. And the king and his royal guests, his wives and his slave women drank from them. <sup>4</sup>As they were drinking, they praised their gods. Those gods were made from gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood and stone.

<sup>5</sup>Then suddenly a person's hand appeared. The fingers wrote words on the plaster on the wall. This was near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote.

<sup>6</sup>King Belshazzar was very frightened. His face turned white, and his knees knocked together. He could not stand up because his legs were too weak. <sup>7</sup>The king called for the magicians and wise men to be brought to him. He said to the wise men of Babylon, “I will give a reward to anyone who can read this writing and explain it. I will give him purple clothes fit for a king. I will put a gold chain around his neck. And I will make him the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>8</sup>So all the king's wise men came in. But they could not read the writing. And they could not tell the king what it meant. <sup>9</sup>King Belshazzar became even more afraid. His face became even whiter. His royal guests were confused.

<sup>10</sup>Then the king's mother came into the banquet room. She had heard the voices of the king and his royal guests. She said, “My king, live forever! Don't be afraid! Don't let your face be white with fear! <sup>11</sup>There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father, this man showed understanding, knowledge and wisdom. He was like the gods in these things. Your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, put this man in charge of all the wise men. He ruled over all the fortune-tellers, magicians and wise men. <sup>12</sup>The man I am talking about is named <sup>a</sup>roof In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

Daniel. The king gave him the name Belshazzar. He was very smart, and he had knowledge and understanding. He could explain dreams and secrets. He could answer very hard problems. Call for Daniel. He will tell you what the writing on the wall means.”

<sup>13</sup>So they brought Daniel to the king. The king said to him, “Is your name Daniel? Are you one of the captives my father the king brought from Judah? <sup>14</sup>I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you. And I have heard that you are very smart and have knowledge and understanding. <sup>15</sup>The wise men and magicians were brought to me to read this writing on the wall. I wanted those men to explain to me what it means. But they could not explain it. <sup>16</sup>I have heard that you are able to explain what things mean. And you can find the answers to hard problems. Read this writing on the wall and explain it to me. If you can, I will give you purple clothes fit for a king. And I will put a gold chain around your neck. And you will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel answered the king, “You may keep your gifts for yourself. Or you may give those rewards to someone else. I will read the writing on the wall for you. And I will explain to you what it means.

<sup>18</sup>“My king, the Most High God made your father Nebuchadnezzar a great, important and powerful king. <sup>19</sup>God made him very important. So all the people, nations and those who spoke every language were very afraid of Nebuchadnezzar. If he wanted a person to die, he put that person to death. And if he wanted a person to live, he let that person live. If he wanted to promote a person, he promoted him. And if he wanted a person to be unimportant, he made him unimportant.

<sup>20</sup>“But Nebuchadnezzar became too proud and stubborn. So he was taken off his royal throne. His glory was taken away. <sup>21</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar was forced away from people. His mind became like the mind of an animal. He lived with the wild donkeys and was fed grass like an ox. He became wet with dew. These things happened to him until he learned his lesson: The Most High God rules over the kingdoms of men. And the Most High God sets anyone he wants over those kingdoms.

<sup>22</sup>“But, Belshazzar, you already knew these things. You are a descendant<sup>d</sup> of Nebuchadnezzar. But still you have not been sorry for what you have done. <sup>23</sup>Instead, you have turned against the Lord of heaven. You ordered the drinking cups from the Temple of the Lord to be brought to you. Then you and your royal guests drank wine from them. Your wives and your slave women also drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood and stone. They are not really gods. They cannot see or hear or understand anything. But you did not honor God. He is the One who has power over your life and everything you do. <sup>24</sup>So God sent the hand that wrote on the wall.

<sup>26</sup>“This is what these words mean: Mene: God has counted the days until your kingdom will end. <sup>27</sup>Tekel: You have been weighed on the scales and found not good enough. <sup>28</sup>Parsin: Your kingdom is being divided. It will be given to the Medes and the Persians.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Belshazzar gave an order for Daniel to be dressed in purple clothes. A gold chain was put around his neck. And he was announced to be the third highest ruler in the kingdom. <sup>30</sup>That very same night Belshazzar, king of the Babylonian people, was killed. <sup>31</sup>A man named Darius the Mede became the new king. Darius was 62 years old.

Daniel and the Lions

6 Darius thought it would be a good idea to choose 120 governors. They would rule through all of his kingdom. <sup>2</sup>And he chose three men as supervisors over those 120 governors. Daniel was one of these three supervisors. The king set up these men so that he would not be cheated. <sup>3</sup>Daniel showed that he could do the work better than the other supervisors and the governors. Because of this, the king planned to put Daniel in charge of the whole kingdom. <sup>4</sup>So the other supervisors and the governors tried to find reasons to accuse Daniel. But he went on doing the business of the government. And they could not find anything wrong with him. So they could not accuse him of doing anything wrong. Daniel was trustworthy. He was not lazy and did not cheat the king. <sup>5</sup>Finally these men said, “We will never find any reason to accuse Daniel. But we must find something to complain about. It will have to be about the law of his God.”

<sup>6</sup>So the supervisors and the governors went as a group to the king. They said: “King Darius, live forever! <sup>7</sup>The supervisors, assistant governors, governors, the people who advise you and the captains of the soldiers have all agreed on something. We think the king should make this law that everyone would have to obey: No one should pray to any god or man except to you, our king. This should be done for the next 30 days. Anyone who doesn't obey will be thrown into the lions' den. <sup>8</sup>Now, our king, make the law. Write it down so it cannot be changed. The laws of the Medes and Persians cannot be canceled." <sup>9</sup>So King Darius made the law and had it written.

<sup>10</sup>When Daniel heard that the new law had been written, he went to his house. He went to his upstairs room. The windows of that room opened toward Jerusalem. Three times each day Daniel got down on his knees and prayed. He prayed and thanked God, just as he always had done.

<sup>11</sup>Then those men went as a group and found Daniel. They saw him praying and asking God for help. <sup>12</sup>So they went to the king. They talked to him about the law he had made. They said, "Didn't you write a law that says no one may pray to any god or man except you, our king? Doesn't it say that anyone who disobeys during the next 30 days will be thrown into the lions' den?"

The king answered, "Yes, I wrote that law. And the laws of the Medes and Persians cannot be canceled."

<sup>13</sup>Then those men spoke to the king. They said, "Daniel is one of the captives from Judah. And he is not paying attention to the law you wrote. Daniel still prays to his God three times every day." <sup>14</sup>The king became very upset when he heard this. He decided he had to save Daniel. He worked until sunset trying to think of a way to save him.

<sup>15</sup>Then those men went as a group to the king. They said, "Remember, our king, the law of the Medes and Persians. It says that no law or command given by the king can be changed."

<sup>16</sup>So King Darius gave the order. They brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May the God you serve all the time save you!" <sup>17</sup>A big stone was brought. It was put over the opening of the lions' den. Then the king used his signet<sup>d</sup> ring to put his special seal<sup>d</sup> on the rock. And he used the rings of his royal officers to put their seals on the rock also. This showed that no one could move that rock and bring Daniel out. <sup>18</sup>Then King Darius went back to his palace. He did not eat that night. He did not have any entertainment brought to entertain him. And he could not sleep.

<sup>19</sup>The next morning King Darius got up at dawn. He hurried to the lions' den. <sup>20</sup>As he came near the den, he was worried. He called out to Daniel. He said, "Daniel, servant of the living God! Has your God that you always worship been able to save you from the lions?"

<sup>21</sup>Daniel answered, "My king, live forever! <sup>22</sup>My God sent his angel to close the lions' mouths. They have not hurt me, because my God knows I am innocent. I never did anything wrong to you, my king."

<sup>23</sup>King Darius was very happy. He told his servants to lift Daniel out of the lions' den. So they lifted him out and did not find any injury on him. This was because Daniel had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup>Then the king gave a command. The men who had accused Daniel were brought to the lions' den and thrown into it. Their wives and children were also thrown into it. The lions grabbed them before they hit the floor of the den. And the lions crushed their bones.

<sup>25</sup>Then King Darius wrote a letter. It was to all people and all nations, to those who spoke every language in the world:

I wish you great wealth.

<sup>26</sup>I am making a new law. This law is for people in every part of my kingdom. All of you must fear and respect the God of Daniel.

Daniel's God is the living God.
He lives forever.

His kingdom will never be destroyed.
His rule will never end.

<sup>27</sup>God rescues and saves people.

God does mighty miracles<sup>d</sup> in heaven and on earth.

God saved Daniel from the power of the lions.

<sup>28</sup>So Daniel was successful during the time that Darius was king. This was also the time that Cyrus the Persian was king.

Daniel's Dream about Four Animals

7 In Belshazzar's first year as king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream. He saw visions as he was lying on his bed. Daniel wrote down what he had dreamed.

<sup>2</sup>Daniel said: "I saw my vision at night. In the vision the wind was blowing from all four directions. These winds made the sea very rough. <sup>3</sup>I saw four huge animals come up from the sea. Each animal was different from the others.

<sup>4</sup>"The first animal looked like a lion. But it had wings like an eagle. I watched this animal until its wings were torn off. It was lifted from the ground so that it stood up on two feet like a man. And it was given the mind of a man.

<sup>5</sup>"And then I saw a second animal before me. It looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides. And it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, 'Get up and eat all the meat you want!'

<sup>6</sup>"After that, I looked, and there before me was another animal. This animal looked like a leopard. And the leopard had four wings on its back. The wings looked like a bird's wings. This animal had four heads. It was given power to rule.

<sup>7</sup>"After that, in my vision at night I continued looking. There in front of me was a fourth animal. This animal looked cruel and terrible and very strong. It had large iron teeth. It crushed and ate what it killed. Then it walked on whatever was left. This fourth animal was different from all the animals I had seen before it. It had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup>"While I was thinking about the horns, another horn grew up among them. It was a little horn. It had eyes like a person's eyes. It also had a mouth. And the mouth was bragging. The little horn pulled out three of the other horns.

<sup>9</sup>"As I looked, thrones were put in their places.

And God, who has been alive forever, sat on his throne.

His clothes were white like snow.

And the hair on his head was white like wool.

His throne was made from fire.

And the wheels of his throne were blazing with fire.

<sup>10</sup>A river of fire was flowing from in front of him.

Many thousands of angels were serving him.

Millions of angels stood before him.

Court was ready to begin.

And the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup>"I kept on looking because the little horn was bragging. I kept watching until finally the fourth animal was killed. Its body was destroyed, and it was thrown into the burning fire. <sup>12</sup>(The power and rule of the other animals had been taken from them. But they were permitted to live for a certain period of time.)

<sup>13</sup>"In my vision at night I looked. There in front of me was someone who looked like a human being. He was coming with clouds in the sky. He came near God, who has been alive forever. And he was led to God. <sup>14</sup>The one who looked like a human being was given the power to rule. He was also given glory and royal power. All peoples, nations and men who spoke every language will serve him. His rule will last forever. His kingdom will never be destroyed.

The Meaning of the Dream

<sup>15</sup>"I, Daniel, was worried. The visions that went through my mind frightened me. <sup>16</sup>I came near one of those standing there. I asked him what all this meant.

"So he told me. He explained to me what these things meant. <sup>17</sup>He said, 'The four great animals are four kingdoms. Those four kingdoms will come from the earth. <sup>18</sup>But the people who belong to the Most High God will receive the power to rule. And they will have the power to rule forever. They will have it from now on.'

<sup>19</sup>"Then I wanted to know what the fourth animal meant. It was different from all the other animals. It was very terrible. It had iron teeth and bronze claws. It was the animal that crushed and ate what it killed. And it walked on whatever was left. <sup>20</sup>I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head. And I wanted to know about the little horn that grew there. It had pulled out three of the other ten horns. It looked greater than the others. And it had eyes and a mouth that kept bragging. <sup>21</sup>As I watched, the little horn began making war against God's people. And the horn kept killing them <sup>22</sup>until God, who has been alive forever, came. He judged in favor of the people who belong to the Most High God. And the time came for them to receive the power to rule.

<sup>23</sup>"And he explained this to me: 'The fourth animal is a fourth kingdom that will come on the earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will destroy people all over the world. It will walk on and crush the whole earth. <sup>24</sup>The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this fourth kingdom. After those ten kings are gone, another king will come. He will be different from the kings who ruled before him. He will defeat three of the other kings. <sup>25</sup>This king will say things against the Most High God. And he will hurt and kill God's people. He will try to change times and laws that have already been set. The people that belong to God will be in that king's power for three and one-half years.

<sup>26</sup>"'But the court will decide what should happen. And the power of the king will be taken away. His kingdom will be completely destroyed. <sup>27</sup>Then the people who belong to the Most High God will have the power to rule. They will rule over all the kingdoms under heaven with power and greatness. Their power to rule will last forever. And people from all the other kingdoms will respect and serve them.'

<sup>28</sup>"And that was the end of the dream. I, Daniel, was very afraid. My face became very white from fear. But I kept everything to myself."

Daniel's Vision

8 During the third year Belshazzar was king, I saw this vision. This was after the other one. <sup>2</sup>In this vision I saw myself in the capital city of Susa. Susa is in the area of Elam. I was standing by the Ulai River. <sup>3</sup>I looked up, and I saw a male sheep standing beside the river. It had two long horns. But one horn was longer than the other. The long horn was newer than the other horn. <sup>4</sup>I watched the male sheep charge to the west. He also charged to the north and the south. No animal could stand before him. And none could save another animal from his power. He did whatever he wanted. And he became very powerful.

<sup>5</sup>While I was thinking about this, I saw a male goat come from the west. This goat had one large horn that was easy to see. It was between his eyes. He crossed over the whole earth. But his feet did not touch the ground.

<sup>6</sup>That goat charged the male sheep with the two horns. This was the male sheep I had seen standing by the river. The goat was very angry. <sup>7</sup>I watched the goat attack the male sheep. It broke the sheep's two horns. The sheep could not stop it. The goat knocked the sheep to the ground. Then the goat walked all over him. No one was able to save the sheep from the goat. <sup>8</sup>So the male goat became very great. But when he was strong, his big horn broke off. Then four horns grew in place of the one big horn. Those four horns were easy to see. They pointed in four different directions.

<sup>9</sup>Then a little horn grew from one of those four horns. It became very big. It grew to the south and the east and toward the beautiful land of Judah. <sup>10</sup>That little horn grew until it reached to the sky. It even threw some of the army of heaven to the ground. And it walked on them. <sup>11</sup>That little horn became very strong against God, the commander of heaven's armies. It stopped the daily sacrifices that were offered to the commander. The place where people worshiped the commander was pulled down. <sup>12</sup>There was a turning away from God. Because of this the people stopped the daily sacrifices. It was like throwing truth down to the ground. The horn was successful in everything it did.

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard one angel speaking. Another angel asked the first one, "How long will the things in this vision last? The vision is about the daily sacrifices. It is about the turning away from God that brings destruction. It is about the Temple<sup>d</sup> being pulled down. It is about the army of heaven being walked on."

<sup>14</sup>The angel said to me, "This will happen for 1,150 days. Then the holy place will be repaired."

<sup>15</sup>I, Daniel, saw this vision. And I tried to understand what it meant. Then someone who looked like a man suddenly stood before me. <sup>16</sup>And I heard a man's voice calling from the Ulai River: "Gabriel, explain the vision to this man."

<sup>17</sup>Gabriel came to where I was standing. When he came close to me, I was very afraid. I bowed facedown on the ground. But Gabriel said to me, "Human being, understand that this vision is about the time of the end."

<sup>18</sup>While Gabriel was speaking, I fell into a deep sleep. My face was on the ground. Then he touched me and lifted me to my feet. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Now, I will explain the vision to you. I will tell you what will happen later, in the time of God's anger. Your vision was about the set time of the end.

<sup>23</sup>"When the end comes near for those kingdoms, a bold and cruel king will come. This king will tell lies. This will happen when many people have turned against God. <sup>24</sup>This king will be very powerful. But his power will not come from himself. He will cause terrible destruction. He will be successful in everything he does. He will destroy powerful people and even God's people. <sup>25</sup>This king will use his wisdom to make lies successful. He will think that he is very important. He will destroy many people without warning. He will try to fight even God, the Prince of princes! But that cruel king will be destroyed. And it will not be human power that destroys him.

<sup>26</sup>"The vision that has been shown to you about those times is true. But seal up the vision. Those things won't happen for a long time."

<sup>27</sup>I, Daniel, became very weak. I was sick for several days after that vision. Then I got up and went back to work for the king. But I was very upset about the vision. I didn't understand what it meant.

Daniel's Prayer

9 These things happened during the first year Darius son of Xerxes was king. He was a descendant<sup>a</sup> of the Medes. <sup>2</sup>During Darius' first year as king, I, Daniel, was reading the Scriptures.<sup>d</sup> In them I saw what the Lord told Jeremiah. He said Jerusalem would be an empty desert for 70 years.

<sup>3</sup>Then I turned to the Lord God. I prayed to him and asked him for help. I did not eat any food. To show how sad I was I put on rough cloth and sat in ashes. <sup>4</sup>I prayed to the Lord my God. I told him about all of my sins. I said, "Lord, you are a great God. You cause fear and wonder. You keep your agreement of love with all who love you and obey your commands.

<sup>5</sup>"But we have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and turned against you. We have not obeyed your commands and laws. <sup>6</sup>We did not listen to your servants, the prophets. They spoke for you to our kings, our leaders and our ancestors. They spoke to all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup>"Lord, you are good and right. But we are full of shame today. The people of Judah and Jerusalem and all the people of Israel are ashamed. People near and far whom you scattered among many nations are ashamed. We were not loyal to you. <sup>8</sup>Lord, we are all ashamed. Our kings and leaders and our fathers are ashamed. This is because we have sinned against you.

<sup>9</sup>"But, Lord our God, you show us mercy. You forgive us even though we have turned against you. <sup>10</sup>We have not obeyed the Lord our God. We have not obeyed the teachings he gave us through his servants, the prophets.

<sup>11</sup>All the people of Israel have disobeyed your teachings. They all have turned away and refused to obey you. So you brought on us the curses and promises of punishment written in the Teachings of Moses, the servant of God. These things have happened to us because we sinned against you.

<sup>12</sup>"God said these things would happen to us and our leaders. And he made them happen. You brought on us a great disaster. Nothing has ever been done here on earth like what was done to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>All this disaster came to us just as it is written in the Teachings of Moses. But we still have not stopped sinning. We still do not pay attention to your truth. <sup>14</sup>The Lord was ready to bring the disaster on us. This is because he is right in everything he does. But we still have not obeyed him.

<sup>15</sup>"Lord our God, you used your power and brought us out of Egypt. Because of that, your name is known even today. Lord, we have sinned. We have done wrong. <sup>16</sup>Lord, you do the right things. So do not be angry with Jerusalem. Jerusalem is your city on your holy hill. All this has happened because of our sins and the evil things done by our ancestors. So now people all around insult and make fun of Jerusalem and your people.

<sup>17</sup>"Now, our God, hear my prayers. I am your servant. Listen to my prayer for help. Do good things for your holy place that is in ruins. Do this for your sake. <sup>18</sup>My God, pay attention and hear me. Open your eyes and see all the terrible things that have happened to us. See what has happened to the city that is called by your name. We do not ask these things because we are good. We ask because of your mercy. <sup>19</sup>Lord, listen! Lord, forgive! Lord, hear us and do something! For your sake, don't wait! Your city and your people are called by your name."

Gabriel's Explanation

<sup>20</sup>I was saying those things in my prayer to the Lord, my God. I was confessing my sins and the sins of the people of Israel. I was praying for God's holy hill. <sup>21</sup>While I was still praying, Gabriel came to me. Gabriel was the person I had seen in my last vision. He came flying quickly to me about the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup>Gabriel said to me, "Daniel, I have come to give you wisdom and to help you understand. <sup>23</sup>When you first started praying, an answer was given. And I came to tell you, because God loves you very much. So think about the message and understand the vision.

<sup>24</sup>"God has ordered 490 years for your people and your holy city. These years are ordered for these reasons: to stop people from turning against God; to put an end to sin; to take away evil; to bring in goodness that continues forever; to make the vision and prophecy<sup>d</sup> come true; and to appoint a most holy place.

<sup>25</sup>"Learn and understand these things. A command will come to rebuild Jerusalem. The time from this command until the appointed leader comes will be 49 years and 434 years. Jerusalem will be rebuilt with streets and a trench around it. But it will be built in times of trouble. <sup>26</sup>After the 434 years the appointed leader will be killed. He will have nothing. The people of the leader who is to come will destroy the city. They will also destroy the holy place. That end will come like a flood. War will continue until the end. God has ordered that place to be completely destroyed. <sup>27</sup>That leader will make an agreement with many people for 7 years. He will put a stop to offerings and sacrifices after 3½ years. And the horrible thing that destroys will be placed on the highest point of the Temple. <sup>4</sup>But God has ordered him to be destroyed!"

Daniel's Vision of a Man

10 During Cyrus' third year as king of Persia, Daniel learned about these things. (Daniel's other name is Belshazzar.) The message was true. It was about a great war. But Daniel understood it, because it was explained to him in a vision.

<sup>2</sup>At that time I, Daniel, was very sad for three weeks. <sup>3</sup>I did not eat any fancy food. I did not eat any meat or drink any wine. I did not use any perfumed oil. I did not do any of these things for three weeks.

<sup>7</sup>I, Daniel, was the only person who saw the vision. The men with me did not see it. But they were badly frightened. They were so afraid they ran away and hid. <sup>8</sup>So I was left alone, watching this great vision. I lost my strength. My face turned white like a dead person, and I was helpless. <sup>9</sup>Then I heard the man in the vision speaking. As I listened, I fell into a deep sleep. My face was on the ground.

<sup>10</sup>Then a hand touched me and set me on my hands and knees. I was so afraid that I was shaking. <sup>11</sup>The man in the vision said to me, "Daniel, God loves you very much. Think very carefully about the words I will speak to you. Stand up because I have been sent to you." And when he said this, I stood up. I was still shaking.

<sup>12</sup>Then the man said to me, "Daniel, do not be afraid. Some time ago you decided to try to get understanding. You wanted to be humble before God. Since that time God has listened to you. And I came to you because you have been praying. <sup>13</sup>But the prince of Persia has been fighting against me for 21 days. Then Michael, one of the most important angels, came to help me. He came because I had been left there with the king of Persia. <sup>14</sup>Now I have come to you, Daniel. I will explain to you what will happen to your people. The vision is about a time in the future."

<sup>15</sup>While he was speaking to me, I bowed facedown. I could not speak. <sup>16</sup>Then one who looked like a man touched my lips. I opened my mouth and started to speak. I said to the one standing in front of me, "Master, I am upset and afraid. It is because of what I saw in the vision. I feel helpless. <sup>17</sup>Master, I am Daniel your servant. How can I talk with you! My strength is gone, and it is hard for me to breathe."

<sup>18</sup>The one who looked like a man touched me again. And he gave me strength. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Daniel, don't be afraid. God loves you very much. Peace be with you. Be strong now, be strong."

When he spoke to me, I became stronger. Then I said, "Master, speak, since you have given me strength."

<sup>20</sup>So then he said, "Daniel, do you know why I have come to you? Soon I must go back to fight against the prince of Persia. When I go, the prince of Greece will come. <sup>21</sup>But before I go, I must first tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one stands with me against them except Michael. He is the angel ruling over your people.

11 In the first year Darius the Mede was king, I stood up to support Michael. I supported him in his fight against the prince of Persia.

Kingdoms of the South and North

<sup>2</sup>"Now then, Daniel, I tell you the truth: Three more kings will rule in Persia. Then a fourth king will come. He will be much richer than all the kings of Persia before him. He will use his riches to get power. And he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. <sup>3</sup>Then a mighty king will come. He will rule with great power. He will do anything he wants. <sup>4</sup>After that king has come, his kingdom will be broken up. It will be divided out toward the four parts of the world. His kingdom will not go to his descendants. <sup>4</sup>And it will not have the power that he had. This is because his kingdom will be pulled up and given to other people.

<sup>5</sup>"The king of the South will become strong. But one of his commanders will become even stronger. He will begin to rule his own kingdom with great power. <sup>6</sup>Then after a few years, the king of the South and the commander will become friends. The daughter of the king of the South will marry the king of the North. She will do this to bring peace. But she will not keep her power. And his family will not last. She, her husband, her child and those who brought her to that country will be killed.

<sup>7</sup>But a person from her family will become king of the South. He will attack the armies of the king of the North. He will go into that king's strong, walled city. He will fight and win. <sup>8</sup>He will take their gods and their metal idols. He will also take their valuable things made of silver and gold. He will take those things to Egypt. Then he will not bother the king of the North for a few years. <sup>9</sup>Next, the king of the North will attack the king of the South. But he will be beaten back to his own country.

<sup>10</sup>The sons of the king of the North will prepare for war. They will get a large army together. That army will move through the land very quickly, like a powerful flood. Later, that army will come back and fight. They will fight all the way to the strong, walled city of the king of the South. <sup>11</sup>Then the king of the South will become very angry. He will march out to fight against the king of the North. The king of the North will have a large army. But he will lose the battle. <sup>12</sup>The soldiers will be carried away. So the king of the South will be very proud. And he will kill thousands of soldiers from the northern army. But he will not continue to be successful. <sup>13</sup>The king of the North will gather another army. That army will be larger than the first one. After several years he will attack. That army will be very large, and it will have plenty of weapons.

<sup>14</sup>In those times many people will be against the king of the South. Some of your own people who love to fight will turn against the king of the South. They will think it is time for God's promises to come true. But it will not be the time yet. And they will fail. <sup>15</sup>Then the king of the North will come. He will build dirt roads to the tops of the city walls. And he will capture a strong, walled city. The southern army will not have the power to fight back. Even their best soldiers will not be strong enough to stop the northern army. <sup>16</sup>The king of the North will do whatever he wants. No one will be able to stand against him. He will gain power and control in the beautiful land of Israel. And he will have the power to destroy it. <sup>17</sup>The king of the North will decide to use all his power to fight against the king of the South. He will make an agreement with the king of the South. The king of the North will give one of his daughters as a wife to the king of the South. He will do that so he can defeat the king of the South. But those plans will not succeed or help him. <sup>18</sup>Then the king of the North will turn his attention to other places. He will take many cities along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. But a commander will put an end to the pride of the king of the North. The commander will turn that pride back on him. <sup>19</sup>After that happens the king of the North will go back to the strong, walled cities of his own country. But he will lose his power. That will be the end of him.

<sup>20</sup>The next king of the North will send out a tax collector. He will then have plenty of money. In a few years that ruler will be killed. But he will not die in anger or in a battle.

<sup>21</sup>That ruler will be followed by a very cruel and hated man. He will not have the honor of being from a king's family. He will attack the kingdom when the people feel safe. He will take power by lying to the people. <sup>22</sup>He will sweep away in defeat large and powerful armies. He will even defeat a prince who made an agreement. <sup>23</sup>Many nations will make agreements with that cruel and hated ruler. But he will lie to them. He will gain much power. But only a few people will support him. <sup>24</sup>The richest areas will feel safe. But that cruel and hated ruler will attack them. And he will succeed where his ancestors did not. He will take things from the countries he defeated. And he will give those things to his followers. He will plan to defeat and destroy strong cities. He will be successful, but only for a short time.

<sup>25</sup>That very cruel and hated ruler will have a large army. He will use it to stir up his strength and courage. He will attack the king of the South. The king of the South will get a large and very powerful army and get ready for war. But the people who are against him will make secret plans. And the king of the South will be defeated. <sup>26</sup>There were people who were supposed to be good friends of the king of the South. But they will try to destroy him. His army will be swept away in defeat. Many of his soldiers will be killed in battle. <sup>27</sup>Those two kings will want to hurt each other. They will sit at the same table and lie to each other. But it will not do either one any good. This is because God has set a time for their end to come. <sup>28</sup>The king of the North will go back to his own country with much wealth. Then he will decide to go against the holy agreement. He will do what he planned. Then he will go back to his own country.

will attack the king of the South again. But this time he will not be successful as he was before. <sup>30</sup>Ships from the west will come and fight against the king of the North. He will see those ships coming and be afraid. Then he will return and show his anger against God's people who obey the holy agreement. He will be good to those who have stopped obeying the holy agreement.

<sup>31</sup>"The king of the North will send his army. They will make the Temple<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem unclean. <sup>4</sup> They will stop the people from offering the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the horrible thing that destroys. <sup>32</sup>The king of the North will tell lies to God's people. Those who have not obeyed God will be ruined. But there will be some who know God and obey him. They will be strong and fight back.

<sup>33</sup>"Those who are wise will help the others understand what is happening. But some of them will be killed with swords. Some will be burned or taken captive. Some of them will have their homes and things taken away. These things will continue for many days. <sup>34</sup>When the wise ones are suffering, they will get a little help. Many who join the wise ones will not love God. <sup>35</sup>Some of the wise ones will be killed. But the hard times must come. This is so they can be made stronger and purer. They will be without faults until the time of the end comes. Then, at the right time the end will come.

The King Who Praises Himself

<sup>36</sup>"The king of the North will do whatever he wants. He will brag about himself. He will praise himself and think he is even better than a god. He will say things against the God of gods that no one has ever heard. He will be successful until all the bad things have happened. What God has planned to happen will happen. <sup>37</sup>That king of the North will not care about the gods his ancestors worshiped. He won't care about the god that women worship. He won't care about any god. Instead, he will make himself more important than any god. <sup>38</sup>The king of the North will worship power and strength. His ancestors did not love power as he will. He will honor the god of power with gold and silver, expensive jewels and gifts. <sup>39</sup>That king will attack strong, walled cities. He will do it with the help of a foreign god. He will give much honor to the people who join him. He will make them rulers in charge of many other people. He will make those rulers pay him for the land they rule.

South will fight a battle against the king of the North. The king of the North will attack him. He will attack with chariots and soldiers on horses and many large ships. He will invade many countries and sweep through their lands like a flood. <sup>41</sup>The king of the North will attack the beautiful land of Judah. He will defeat many countries. But Edom, Moab and the leaders of Ammon will be saved from him. <sup>42</sup>The king of the North will show his power in many countries. Egypt will not escape. <sup>43</sup>The king will get treasures of gold and silver. And he will get all the riches of Egypt. The Libyan and Nubian people will obey him. <sup>44</sup>But the king of the North will hear news from the east and the north. And it will make him afraid and angry. He will go to destroy completely many nations. <sup>45</sup>He will set up his royal tents. They will be between the sea and the beautiful mountain where the Temple<sup>d</sup> is built. But, finally, his end will come. There will not be anyone to help him when he dies.

The Time of the End

12 "Daniel, at that time Michael, the great prince, will stand up. (He is the one who protects your people.) There will be a time of much trouble. It will be the worst time since nations have been on earth. But your people will be saved. Everyone whose name is written in God's book will be saved. <sup>2</sup>Many people who have already died will live again. Some of them will wake up to have life forever. But some will wake up to find shame and disgrace forever. <sup>3</sup>The wise people will shine like the brightness of the sky. Those who teach others to live right will shine like stars forever and ever.

<sup>4</sup>"But you, Daniel, close up the book and seal it. These things will happen at the time of the end. Many people will go here and there to find true knowledge."

<sup>5</sup>Then I, Daniel, looked, and I saw two other men. One was standing on my side of the river. And the other was standing on the far side. <sup>6</sup>The man who was dressed in linen was standing over the water in the river. One of the two men spoke to him. He asked, "How long will it be before these amazing things come true?"

<sup>7</sup>The man dressed in linen who stood over the water raised his hands toward heaven. And I heard him make a promise. He used the name of God who lives forever. He said, "It will be for three and one-half years. The power of the holy people will finally be broken. Then all these things will come true."

<sup>8</sup>I heard the answer, but I did not really understand. So I asked, "Master, what will happen after all these things come true?"

<sup>9</sup>He answered, "Go your way, Daniel. The message is closed up and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup>Many people will be made clean,<sup>d</sup> pure and spotless. But the wicked will continue to be wicked. And those wicked people will not understand these things. But the wise people will understand them.

<sup>11</sup>"The daily sacrifice will be stopped. There will be 1,290 days from that time. Then the horrible thing that destroys will be set up. <sup>12</sup>Those who wait for the end of the 1,335 days will be happy.

<sup>13</sup>"As for you, Daniel, go your way till the end. You will get your rest when you die. And at the end you will rise from the dead to get your reward."

HOSEA

Israel Acts Like an Unfaithful Wife

1 The Lord spoke his word to Hosea son of Beeri. This was during the time that Uzzi-ah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. During part of this time Jeroboam son of Jehoash was king of Israel.

Hosea's Wife and Children

<sup>2</sup>The Lord said to him, "Go, and marry a woman who will be unfaithful to you. She will give you children whose fathers are other men. Do this because people in this country have acted like an unfaithful wife toward the Lord."

<sup>3</sup>So Hosea married Gomer daughter of Diblaim. Gomer became pregnant and gave birth to Hosea's son.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord said to Hosea, "Name him Jezreel. This is because soon I will punish the family of Jehu for the people they killed at Jezreel. Then I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel. <sup>5</sup>And I will also break the power of Israel's army in the Valley of Jezreel."

<sup>6</sup>Gomer became pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. The Lord said to Hosea, "Name her Lo-Ruhamah." <sup>7</sup>This is because I will not pity Israel anymore. I will no longer forgive them. <sup>8</sup>But I will show pity to the people of Judah. I will save them. I will not use bows or swords, horses or horsemen, or weapons of war to save them. I, the Lord their God, will save them."

<sup>9</sup>After Gomer had finished nursing Lo-Ruhamah, she became pregnant again. And she gave birth to another son. <sup>10</sup>The Lord said, "Name him Lo-Ammi" because you are not my people. And I am not your God.

God's Promise to Israel

<sup>10</sup>"But the people of Israel will become like the grains of sand of the sea. You cannot measure or count them. Now it is said to Israel, 'You are not my people.' But later they will be called 'children of the living God.' <sup>11</sup>Then the people of Judah and Israel will be joined together again. They will choose one leader for themselves. And again they will grow in their land.

The day of Jezreel, when God plants, will be truly great.

2 "Your brothers and your sisters will be called 'my people' and 'you have been shown love.'

God Speaks About Israel

<sup>2</sup>"Plead with your mother."

Plead with her because she no longer acts like a wife to me.

And I am not treated like her husband.

Tell her to stop acting like a prostitute.<sup>d</sup>

Tell her to stop behaving like an unfaithful wife.

<sup>3</sup>If she refuses, I will strip her naked.

I will leave her bare like the day she was born.

I will make her dry like a desert.

I will make her like a land without water.

I will kill her with thirst.

<sup>4</sup>I will not take pity on her children.

They are the children of an unfaithful wife.

<sup>5</sup>Their mother has acted like a prostitute.

The one who became pregnant with them has acted disgracefully.

She said, 'I will chase after my lovers.'<sup>e</sup>

They give me food and water.

They give me wool and linen.

They give me wine and olive oil.'

<sup>6</sup>So I will block her road with thornbushes.

I will build a wall around her so she cannot find her way.

<sup>7</sup>She will run after her lovers.

But she won't catch up to them.

She will look for them.

But she won't find them.

Then she will say, 'I will go back to my first husband.'<sup>f</sup>

Life was better for me then than it is now.'

<sup>8</sup>But she has not accepted that I was the one who gave her grain, wine and oil.

I gave her much silver and gold.
But she used it to make statues of Baal.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>9</sup>“So I will take away my grain at harvest time.
And I will take away my wine when it is ready.
I will take back my wool and linen.
I gave her those things to cover her nakedness.

<sup>10</sup>So I will show her nakedness to her lovers.
No one will save her from my punishment.

<sup>11</sup>I will put an end to all her celebrations:
her yearly festivals, her New Moon<sup>d</sup> festivals and her Sabbaths.<sup>d</sup>
I will stop all of her special feasts.

<sup>12</sup>I will destroy her vines and fig trees.
She said they were her pay from her lovers.
I will turn them into a forest.
Wild animals will eat those plants.

<sup>13</sup>I will punish her for all the times she burned incense<sup>d</sup> to the Baals.
She put on her rings and jewelry.
Then she went chasing after her lovers.
But she has forgotten me!”
says the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>“So I am going to attract her.
I will lead her into the desert and speak tenderly to her.

<sup>15</sup>then I will give her back her vineyards.
And I will make the Valley of Achor<sup>n</sup> a door of hope.
Then she will respond as when she was young,
as when she came out of Egypt.”

<sup>16</sup>The Lord says, “Then she will call me ‘my husband.’
She will no longer call me ‘my baal.’<sup>n</sup>

<sup>17</sup>I will never let her say the names of Baal again.
Then people won’t use their names anymore.

<sup>18</sup>At that time I will make an agreement for them.
It will be with the wild animals, the birds and the crawling things.
I will remove from the land the bow and the sword and the weapons of war.
Then my people will live in safety.

<sup>19</sup>And I will make you my promised bride forever.
I will be good and fair.
I will show you my love and mercy.

<sup>20</sup>I will be true to you as my promised bride.
Then you will accept that I am the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>“And at that time I will answer you,” says the Lord.
“I will speak to the skies.
And they will give rain to the earth.

<sup>22</sup>The earth will produce grain, wine and oil.
Much will grow because my people are called Jezreel—God plants.

<sup>23</sup>I will plant my people in the land.
I will show pity to the one I had called ‘not shown pity.’
I will say, ‘You are my people’ to those I had called ‘not my people.’
And they will say to me, ‘You are our God.’”

Hosea Buys Gomer Back

3 The Lord said to me, “Go, show your love to your wife again. She has had other lovers and has been unfaithful to you. But you must keep on loving her the way the Lord loves the people of Israel. This is true even though the Israelites worship other gods. They love to eat the raisin cakes.”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>2</sup>So I bought Gomer for six ounces of silver<sup>2</sup> and about ten bushels of barley. <sup>3</sup>Then I told her, “You must wait for me for many days. You must not be a prostitute.<sup>d</sup> You must not be any other man’s lover. I, in turn, will wait for you.”

<sup>4</sup>In the same way Israel will live many days without a king or leader. They will not have sacrifices or holy stone pillars. They will be without the holy vest<sup>d</sup> or an idol. <sup>5</sup>After this, the people of Israel will return to the Lord their God. They will follow the Lord and the king from David’s family. In the last days they will come to the Lord. And he will bless them.

The Lord’s Word Against Israel

4 People of Israel, listen to the Lord’s message.

The Lord says he has this against you who live in this country:

“The people are not true, not loyal to God.
They do not even know him.

<sup>2</sup>They curse. They lie. They kill. They steal.
They are guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup>
They break all my laws.

<sup>n</sup>Achor This name in Hebrew means “trouble.” It refers here to punishment as the way to blessing.

<sup>d</sup>baal Another Hebrew word for husband. But it was the same word as the false god Baal.

<sup>2</sup>raisin cakes This food may have been used in the feasts that honored false gods.

One murder follows another.
 3Because of this the land dries up,
 and all its people are dying off.
 Even the wild animals are dying.
 Even the birds of the air and the fish of the sea are dying.

God's Case Against the Priests

4<sup>a</sup>No one should accuse or blame another person.
 Don't blame the people, you priests,
 when they quarrel with you.
 5You will be ruined one of these days.
 And your prophets<sup>d</sup> will be ruined with you one of these nights.
 I will also destroy your mother, the nation
 of Israel.
 6My people will be destroyed because they have no knowledge.
 You priests have refused to learn.
 So I will refuse to let you be priests to
 me.
 You have forgotten the teachings of your
 God.
 So I will reject your children.
 7The more priests there are,
 the more they sin against me.
 I will take away their honor and give them nothing but shame.
 8The priests live off the sin offerings of the
 people.
 So they want the people to sin more and
 more.
 9The priests are as wrong as the people.
 I will punish them both for what they
 have done.
 I will repay them for the wrong they
 have done.
 10<sup>a</sup>They will eat
 but not have enough.
 They will have sexual relations with the prostitutes.<sup>d</sup>
 But they will not have children.
 This is because they left the Lord.

God's Case Against the People

11<sup>a</sup>Sexual sins, old wine and new wine take away my people's ability to understand.
 12My people ask wooden idols for advice.
 They ask those sticks of wood to advise
 them!
 Like prostitutes, they have chased after other gods.

<sup>a</sup>Gilgal and Beth Aven Cities in Israel where people worshiped false gods.

They have left their own God.
 13They make sacrifices on the tops of the mountains.
 They burn offerings on the hills,
 under oaks, poplars and other trees.
 They think the shade under those trees is nice.
 So your daughters become prostitutes.
 And your daughters-in-law are guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> 14<sup>a</sup>But I will not punish your daughters when they become prostitutes.
 I will not punish your daughters-in-law for their sins of adultery.
 I will not punish them because you yourselves have sexual relations with prostitutes.
 You offer sacrifices with the temple
 prostitutes.
 You foolish people are destroying yourselves.

15<sup>a</sup>Israel, you act like a prostitute.
 But don't let Judah be guilty.
 Don't go to sacrifice at Gilgal.
 Don't go up to give offerings at Beth Aven.<sup>a</sup>
 Don't use the Lord's name to make promises.
 Don't say, 'As surely as the Lord lives...'
 16The people of Israel are stubborn like a stubborn young cow.
 How then can the Lord feed them like lambs in a meadow?
 17Israel has chosen to worship idols.
 So, let them.
 18Her rulers get drunk.
 Then they give themselves to being prostitutes.
 They love these disgraceful things.
 19They will be swept away as by a whirlwind.
 Their sacrifices will bring them only shame.

The Lord's Word Against the Leaders

5 <sup>a</sup>Listen, you priests.
 Pay attention, people of Israel.
 Listen, royal family.
 You will all be judged.
 You have been like a trap at Mizpah.
 You have been like a net spread out at Mount Tabor.
 2You have done many bad things.
 So I will punish you all.

- <sup>3</sup>I know all about Israel.
What they have done is not hidden from me.
They all act like prostitutes.<sup>d</sup>
Israel has made itself unclean.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>4</sup>“And those bad things they have done keep them from returning to their God. They are determined to be unfaithful to me.
They do not know the Lord.
- <sup>5</sup>Israel’s pride testifies against them.
The people of Israel will stumble because of their sin.
The people of Judah will also stumble with them.
- <sup>6</sup>The people will come to worship the Lord.
They will come with their sheep and cattle.
But they will not be able to find him, because he has left them.
- <sup>7</sup>They have not been true to the Lord.
Their children do not belong to him.
So their false worship will destroy them and their land.
- <sup>8</sup>“Blow the horn in Gibeah.
Blow the trumpet in Ramah.
Give the warning at Beth Aven.
Be first into battle, people of Benjamin.
- <sup>9</sup>A time of punishment is coming.
Israel will be destroyed.
I warn the tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel that this will surely happen.
- <sup>10</sup>The leaders of Judah are like thieves.
They try to steal the property of others.
My punishment will overwhelm them like a flood of water.
- <sup>11</sup>Israel will be crushed by the punishments, because they decided to follow idols.
- <sup>12</sup>I will destroy Israel as a moth destroys clothing.
I will destroy Judah as rot destroys wood.
- <sup>13</sup>“Israel saw how weak she was.
Judah saw the wounds she suffered.
So Israel turned to Assyria for help.
She sent to the great king of Assyria for help.
But he cannot heal you.
He cannot cure your wound.
- <sup>14</sup>I will be like a lion to Israel.
I will be like a young lion to Judah.
I will attack them and tear them to pieces.

I will drag them off,
and no one will be able to save them.
<sup>15</sup>Then I will go back to my place until the people admit they are guilty.
At that time they must look for me.
In their trouble they must turn to me.”

The People Are Not Faithful

- 6 You people say,
“Come, let’s go back to the Lord.
He has hurt us, but he will heal us.
He has wounded us, but he will bandage our wounds.
<sup>2</sup>In a short while he will put new life in us.
We will not have to wait long for him to raise us up.
Then we may live in his presence.
- <sup>3</sup>Let’s learn about the Lord.
Let’s try hard to know who he is.
He will come to us as surely as the dawn comes.
The Lord will come to us like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the ground.”
- <sup>4</sup>The Lord says, “Israel, what should I do with you?
Judah, what should I do with you?
Your faithfulness is like a morning mist.
It lasts only as long as the dew in the morning.
- <sup>5</sup>I have warned you by my prophets<sup>d</sup> that I will kill you and destroy you.
My judgments will flash forth like lightning against you.
- <sup>6</sup>I want faithful love more than I want animal sacrifices.
I want people to know me more than I want burnt offerings.
- <sup>7</sup>But you have broken the agreement as Adam did.
You have been unfaithful to me.
<sup>8</sup>Gilead is full of people who do evil.
It is covered with bloody footprints.
- <sup>9</sup>Some of the priests are like robbers waiting in ambush.
They murder people on the way to Shechem.<sup>n</sup>
They do wicked crimes.
- <sup>10</sup>I have seen horrible things in Israel.
The people are unfaithful to God, and Israel has become unclean.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>11</sup>“Judah, I have set a time to punish you also.

<sup>n</sup>Shechem A city of safety where men could go for protection.

"I would like to give my people back their riches.

7 I would like to heal Israel.
But their sin can be seen by everyone.
The wickedness of Israel is too well-known.

They cheat one another.

They break into other peoples' houses.
There are robberies in the streets.

<sup>2</sup>It never enters their minds that I remember all their wicked deeds.
The bad things they do are all around,
and I can see their sins clearly.

Israel Destroys Her Rulers

<sup>3</sup>"They make the king happy with their wickedness.

They make their rulers glad with their lies.

<sup>4</sup>But all of them are traitors.
They are like an oven heated by a baker.
While he mixes the dough,
he does not stir up the flame.

<sup>5</sup>They hold a festival day for the king.
On that day the rulers become drunk
with wine.

The king joins in with those who had made evil plans.

<sup>6</sup>They approach him with murder in mind.
Their hearts are like a hot oven.
All night long its fire is low.

When morning comes, it is fanned into flame.

<sup>7</sup>So all these people are as hot as an oven.
Like a fire they destroy their rulers.
Their kings fall one after another.
And no one calls on me.

Israel and the Other Nations

<sup>8</sup>"Israel mixes with other nations.
Israel is useless like a pancake cooked only on one side.

<sup>9</sup>Foreign nations are using up Israel's strength.
And Israel doesn't even know it.
Israel is weak and feeble, like an old man.
And they don't even know it.

<sup>10</sup>Israel's pride will cause their defeat.
They have had many troubles.
But they still do not turn to the Lord their
God.

They do not look to him for help.
<sup>11</sup>Israel has become like a silly pigeon.
The people have no understanding.
First they call to Egypt for help.
Then they run for help to Assyria.

<sup>12</sup>When they go, I will catch them as men catch birds in a net.

Then I will punish them
as I have warned them.

<sup>13</sup>How terrible for them because they left
me!

They will be destroyed because they turned against me.

I want to save them.

But they have spoken lies against me.

<sup>14</sup>They do not call to me from their hearts.
They just lie on their beds and cry.

They come together to ask for grain and new wine.

But they really turn away from me.

<sup>15</sup>I trained them and gave them strength.
But they have made evil plans against
me.

<sup>16</sup>They did not turn to the Most High God.
They are like a crooked bow that does not shoot straight.

Their leaders brag about their strength.
But they will be killed with swords.

Then the people in Egypt will laugh at them.

Israel Has Trusted Wrong Things

8 "Put the trumpet to your lips and give the warning!

The enemy swoops down on my people like an eagle.

The Israelites have broken my agreement.
They have turned against my teachings.

<sup>2</sup>They cry out to me,
'Our God, we in Israel know you!'

<sup>3</sup>But Israel has rejected what is good.
So the enemy chases them.

<sup>4</sup>They chose their own kings without asking my permission.
They chose their own leaders,
men I did not know.

They made their silver and gold into idols.
For all this they will be destroyed.

<sup>5</sup>I hate that calf-shaped idol.
I am very angry with the people.

How long will they remain unclean?<sup>4</sup>

<sup>6</sup>The idol is something a craftsman made.
It is not God.

Israel's calf-shaped idol will surely be smashed to pieces.

<sup>7</sup>"Israel's foolish plans are like planting the wind.

But they will harvest a whirlwind.
Her plans are like a stalk with no head of grain.

It produces nothing.
Even if it produces something,

other nations would eat it.
<sup>8</sup>Israel is destroyed.
 The people are mixed among the other nations.
 They have become useless to me.
<sup>9</sup>Like a wild donkey,
 Israel has run to Assyria.
 Israel has hired other nations to protect her.
<sup>10</sup>Although Israel is mixed among the nations,
 I will gather them together.
 They will become weaker and weaker as they suffer under the great king of Assyria.
<sup>11</sup>“The more altars Israel built to remove sin, the more they have become altars for sinning.
<sup>12</sup>They reject the many teachings I have written for them.
 They act as if the teachings were strange and foreign to them.
<sup>13</sup>The Israelites offer sacrifices to me and eat the meat.
 But the Lord is not pleased with them.
 He remembers the evil they have done.
 And he will punish them for their sins.
 They will be slaves again as they were in Egypt.
<sup>14</sup>The people of Israel have forgotten their Maker.
 They trust in the palaces they have built.
 And Judah trusts in her many strong,
 walled cities.
 But I will send fire on their cities and destroy their strong towers.”

Israel's Punishment

9 Israel, do not rejoice.
 Don't celebrate as the other nations do.
 You have been unfaithful to your God.
 You love the grain on your threshing<sup>d</sup> floors.
 So you worship the gods who supposedly gave it.
<sup>2</sup>But there won't be enough grain to feed
 the people.
 And there won't be enough wine to go around.
<sup>3</sup>The Israelites will not stay in the Lord's
 land.
 Israel will return to being captives as they were in Egypt.

In Assyria they will eat food that they are not allowed to eat.
<sup>4</sup>The Israelites will not give offerings of wine to the Lord.
 Their sacrifices will not please him.
 Their sacrifices will be like food that is eaten at a funeral.
 It is unclean,<sup>d</sup> and everyone who eats it becomes unclean.
 Their food will only satisfy their hunger.
 They cannot sacrifice it in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>What will you do then on the day of feasts and on the festival days of the Lord?
<sup>6</sup>Even if the people are not destroyed,
 Egypt will take them as captives.
 They will be buried in Memphis.<sup>n</sup>
 Weeds will grow over their silver treasures.
 Thorns will grow over their houses.
<sup>7</sup>Let Israel know this.
 The time of punishment has come.
 The time to pay for your sins has come.
 You have sinned very much,
 and your hatred is great.
 You think the prophet<sup>d</sup> is a fool.
 You say the spiritual man is crazy.
<sup>8</sup>The prophet is God's watchman to warn Israel of danger.
 But everywhere he goes you set traps for
 him.
 You treat him as an enemy in God's own
 land.
<sup>9</sup>The men of Israel have become as sinful as the men of Gibeah<sup>n</sup> were.
 The Lord will remember the evil things they have done.
 He will punish them for their sins.
<sup>10</sup>“When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert.
 Your ancestors were like finding the first figs on the tree.
 But when they came to Baal Peor,
 they began worshiping an idol.
 They became as disgusting as the thing they worshiped.
<sup>11</sup>Israel's glory will fly away like a bird.
 There will be no more pregnancies, no more births, no more babies.
<sup>12</sup>But even if the Israelites bring up children,
 I will take them all away.
 How terrible it will be for them
 when I turn away from them!
<sup>13</sup>I have seen Israel, like Tyre, given a pleasant place.
 But the people of Israel will soon bring out

- their children to be killed.”
- <sup>14</sup>Lord, give them what they should have.
What will you give them?
Make their women unable to have children.
Give them breasts that cannot feed their babies.
- <sup>15</sup>“The Israelites were wicked in Gilgal, so I began to hate them there.
Because of the sinful things they have done,
I will force them to leave my land.
I will no longer love them.
Their leaders have turned against me.
- <sup>16</sup>Israel is like a sick plant.
Its root is dying, and it has no fruit.
So the people will have no more children.
And if they did, I would kill the children they love.”
- <sup>17</sup>God will reject them, because they have not obeyed him.
They will wander among the nations.

Israel Will Pay for Sin

- 10 Israel is like a vine that produced plenty of fruit.
As the people became richer,
they built more altars for idols.
As their land became better,
they put up better stone pillars to honor false gods.
- <sup>2</sup>Their heart was false.
Now they must pay for their guilt.
The Lord will break down their altars.
He will destroy their holy stone pillars.
- <sup>3</sup>Then the Israelites will say, “We have no king, because we didn’t honor the Lord.
But even if we had one,
he couldn’t do anything for us.”
- <sup>4</sup>They make many false promises.
They make agreements they don’t keep.
So people sue each other in court.
They are like poisonous weeds growing in a plowed field.
- <sup>5</sup>The people from Israel are worried about the calf-shaped idol at Beth Aven.
The people and the priests will cry because their glorious idol is gone.
- <sup>6</sup>It will be carried off as a payment that was demanded to the great king of Assyria.
Israel will be disgraced.
- The people will be ashamed of trusting that idol.
- <sup>7</sup>The king of Israel will be carried off like a chip of wood floating on the water.
- <sup>8</sup>The places of worship at Beth Aven will be destroyed.
They are where Israel sins.
Thorns and weeds will grow up and cover their altars.
Then they will say to the mountains, “Cover us!”
And they will say to the hills, “Fall on us!”
- <sup>9</sup>“Israel, you have sinned since the time of Gibeah.”
The people there have continued sinning.
But war will surely overwhelm them, because of the evil they have done there.
- <sup>10</sup>When I am ready,
I will come to punish them.
Armies will come together against them.
They will be punished for their many sins.
- <sup>11</sup>Israel is like a well-trained young cow that likes to thresh<sup>d</sup> grain.
But I will put a yoke<sup>d</sup> on her neck.
I will make Israel work hard in the field.
Judah will plow.
Israel will break up the ground.
- <sup>12</sup> said, ‘Break new ground.
Plant what is right.
Then you will harvest good things from your loyalty to me.
It is time for you to turn back to me, the Lord.
Do it until I come and pour out my goodness on you.’
- <sup>13</sup>But you have planted evil.
So you have harvested trouble.
You have trusted in your own power and your many soldiers.
Now you must live with the result of your lies.
- <sup>14</sup>So your armies will hear the noise of battle.
And all your strong, walled cities will be destroyed.
It will be like the time King Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in battle.
Mothers and children were crushed to the ground together.
- <sup>15</sup>The same will happen to you, people of Bethel, because you did so much evil.

<sup>d</sup>Gibeah The sins of the men of Gibeah caused a civil war. See Judges 19:21.

When that time comes,
the king of Israel will die.

God's Love for Israel

11 "When Israel was a child, I loved him.
And I called my son out of Egypt.
<sup>2</sup>But the more I called to the people of Israel, the further they went from me.
They offered sacrifices to the Baals.<sup>d</sup>
They burned incense<sup>d</sup> to the idols.
<sup>3</sup>But it was I who taught Israel to walk.
I took them by the arms.
But they did not understand that I had healed them.
<sup>4</sup>I led them with cords of human kindness, with ties of love.
I lifted the yoke<sup>d</sup> from their neck.
I bent down and fed them.
<sup>5</sup>"The Israelites will become captives again, as they were in Egypt.
The king of Assyria will become their king.
This is because they refuse to turn to God.
<sup>6</sup>War will sweep through their cities.
It will destroy them,
because of their wicked plans.
<sup>7</sup>My people have made up their minds to turn away from me.
The prophets<sup>d</sup> call them to turn to me.
But none of them honors me at all.
<sup>8</sup>"Israel, I don't want to give you up.
I don't want to go away and leave you.
I don't want to make you like Admah.
I don't want to treat you like Zebaiim.<sup>e</sup>
My heart beats for you.
My love for you stirs up my pity.
<sup>9</sup>I won't punish you in my anger.
I won't destroy Israel again.
I am God and not man.
I am the Holy One, and I am among you.
I will not come against you in anger.
<sup>10</sup>I will call for my people like a lion calling for its young.
My children will come and follow me.
They will hurry to me from the west.
<sup>11</sup>They will come swiftly like birds from a captivity like Egypt was,
and like doves from Assyria.
I will settle them again in their homes,"
says the Lord.

The Lord Is Against Israel

<sup>12</sup>Israel has surrounded me with lies.
The people of Israel have made their secret plans.
And Judah turns against God,
the faithful Holy One.
12 What Israel does is as useless as chasing the wind,
as dangerous as being in a windstorm.
They tell more and more lies and do more and more violence.
They make agreements with Assyria, and they send a gift of olive oil to Egypt.
<sup>2</sup>The Lord also has some things against Judah.
He will punish Israel for what they have done.
He will give them what they deserve.
<sup>3</sup>Their ancestor Jacob held on to his brother's heel while the two of them were being born.
When Jacob grew to be a man,
he wrestled with God.
<sup>4</sup>He wrestled with the angel and won.
Jacob cried and asked for his blessing.
Later, God met with him at Bethel and spoke with him there.
<sup>5</sup>He is the Lord God of heaven's armies.
He wants to be remembered as the Lord.
<sup>6</sup>Like Jacob you must return to him.
You must be loyal and true to him.
You must do what is honest and just.
You must always trust in him as your God.
<sup>7</sup>The merchants use dishonest scales.
They like to cheat people.
<sup>8</sup>The people of Israel brag that they are rich.
They think that because they are rich
no one will learn about their sins.
<sup>9</sup>"But I am the Lord your God.
I brought you out of Egypt.
I will make you live in tents again as you used to do in the desert.
<sup>10</sup>I spoke to the prophets<sup>d</sup> and gave them many visions.
Through them, I taught my lessons to you."
<sup>11</sup>The people of Gilead are evil.
They are worth nothing.
People sacrifice bulls at Gilgal.
But their altars will become like piles of stone in a plowed field.

<sup>d</sup>Admah and Zebaiim Two other cities destroyed when God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>12</sup>Your ancestor Jacob fled to Northwest Mesopotamia.

There he worked to get a wife.
He tended sheep to pay for her.

<sup>13</sup>Later the Lord used a prophet to bring Jacob's descendants<sup>d</sup> out of Egypt.

The Lord used a prophet to take care of the Israelites.

<sup>14</sup>But the Israelites made the Lord angry. They killed other people.

They deserve to die for their crimes.

The Lord will make them pay for the disgraceful things they have done.

The Final Word Against Israel

13 People used to fear the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Ephraim.

They were important people in Israel. But they sinned by worshiping Baal.<sup>d</sup> So they must die.

<sup>2</sup>But they keep on sinning more and more. They make idols of their silver.

Those idols are cleverly made. They are the work of a craftsman.

Yet the people of Israel say to each other, "Kiss those calf idols and sacrifice to them."

<sup>3</sup>So those people will be like the morning dew.

They will disappear like the morning mist.

They will be like chaff<sup>d</sup> blown from the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor.

They will vanish away like smoke rising from a chimney.

<sup>4</sup>"I have been the Lord their God since they were in the land of Egypt.

They have really known no other God except me.

I am the one who has saved them.

<sup>5</sup>I cared for them in the desert where it was hot and dry.

<sup>6</sup>I gave them food, and they became full and satisfied.

But then they became proud and forgot me.

<sup>7</sup>That is why I will be like a lion to them.

I will be like a leopard waiting by the road.

<sup>8</sup>I will attack like a bear robbed of her cubs.

I will rip their bodies open.

I will devour them like a lion.

I will tear them apart like a wild animal.

<sup>9</sup>"Israel, I will destroy you for turning against me, your helper.

Can they save you in any of your towns? You asked for them, saying, 'Give us a king and leaders.'

<sup>11</sup>So I gave you kings, but only in anger.

And I took them away in my great anger.

<sup>12</sup>The sins of Israel are on record.

They are filed away, waiting for punishment.

<sup>13</sup>Israel has a chance to live again, but the people are too foolish to take it.

They are like an unborn baby who won't come out of its mother's womb.

<sup>14</sup>So I will not save them from the place where the dead are.

I will not rescue them from death.

I will call on death to hurt them.

I will call on the place where the dead are to destroy them.

I will show them no mercy.

<sup>15</sup>Israel has become important among the nations.

But the Lord will send a destroyer from the east.

He will come like a wind from the desert that dries up all the springs and wells of water.

He will destroy all their treasures, everything of value.

<sup>16</sup>The nation of Israel will be punished, because it fought against God.

The people of Israel will die by the sword. Their children will be torn to pieces.

And their pregnant women will be ripped open."

Israel Returns to God

14 Israel, return to the Lord your God. Your sins have caused your ruin.

<sup>2</sup>Come back to the Lord and say these words to him:

"Take away all our sin and kindly receive us.

Then we will give you the praise we promised you.

<sup>3</sup>Assyria cannot save us.

We will not trust in our horses.

We will not say again, 'Our gods,' to the things our hands have made.

You show mercy to us, who are like orphans."

<sup>4</sup>The Lord says,

- "I will forgive them for leaving me.
 I will love them freely.
 I am not angry with them anymore.
- <sup>5</sup>I will be like the dew to Israel.
 It will blossom like a lily.
 Like the cedar trees in Lebanon,
 its roots will be firm.
- <sup>6</sup>The people will be like spreading branches.
 They will be like the beautiful olive trees.
 They will be like the sweet-smelling cedars in Lebanon.
- <sup>7</sup>The people of Israel will again live under my protection.
 They will grow like the grain.
 They will bloom like a vine.
- They will be as famous as the wine of Lebanon.
- <sup>8</sup>Israel, have nothing to do with idols.
 I, the Lord, am the one who answers your prayers.
 I am the one who watches over you.
 I am like a green pine tree.
 Your blessings come from me."
- <sup>9</sup>A wise person will know these things.
 An understanding person will take them to heart.
- The Lord's ways are right.
 Good people live by following them, but those who turn against God die because of them.

JOEL

God Will Punish Judah

Locusts Destroy the Crops

1 The Lord spoke his word to Joel son of Pethuel:

<sup>2</sup>Older leaders, listen to this message.

Listen to me, all you people who live in the land.

Nothing like this has ever happened during your lifetime.

Nothing like this has ever happened during your fathers' lifetimes.

<sup>5</sup>Drunks, wake up and cry! All of you people who drink wine, cry! Cry because your sweet wine has been taken away from you.

<sup>6</sup>A powerful nation has come into my land. It has too many soldiers to count. It has teeth like a lion. And it has fangs like a female lion.

<sup>7</sup>That army has eaten my grapevines. It has destroyed my fig trees. It has eaten the bark off my trees and left the branches white.

<sup>8</sup>Cry as a young woman cries when the man she was going to marry is killed.

<sup>9</sup>There will be no more grain or drink offerings to offer in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. Because of this, the priests, the servants of the Lord, cry.

<sup>10</sup>The fields are ruined. Even the ground is dried up. The grain is destroyed. The new wine is dried up. And the olive oil runs out.

<sup>11</sup>Be sad, farmers.

Cry loudly, you who grow grapes.

Cry for the wheat and the barley.

Cry because the harvest in the field is lost.

<sup>12</sup>The vines have become dry.

And the fig trees are dying.

The pomegranate<sup>d</sup> trees, the date palm trees and the apple trees have dried up.

All the trees in the field have died.

And the happiness of the people has died, too.

<sup>13</sup>Priests, put on your rough cloth and cry to show your sadness.

Servants of the altar, cry out loud.

Servants of my God, sleep in your rough cloth to show your sadness.

Cry because there will be no more grain or drink offerings to offer in the Temple of your God.

<sup>14</sup>Call the people together.

Tell them there will be a time to give up food.

Bring together the older leaders and everyone who lives in the land.

Bring them to the Temple of the Lord your God.

And cry out to the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>This will be a terrible day!

The Lord's day of judging is near.

At that time punishment will come like an attack from God All-Powerful.

<sup>16</sup>Our food is taken away while we watch.

Joy and happiness are gone from the Temple of our God.

<sup>17</sup>We planted seeds, but they lie dry and dead in the dirt.

Our barns are empty and falling down. The storerooms for grain have been broken down.

This is because the grain has dried up.

The herds of cattle wander around confused.

They have no grass to eat.

Even the flocks of sheep suffer.

<sup>19</sup>Lord, I am calling to you for help.

Fire has burned up the open pastures.

Flames have burned all the trees in the field.

<sup>20</sup>Wild animals also need your help.

The water in the streams has dried up.

Fire has burned up the open pastures.

The Coming Day of Judgment

2 Blow the trumpet in Jerusalem.

Shout a warning on my holy mountain.

Let all the people who live in the land
shake with fear.

The Lord's day of judging is coming.

The Lord's day of judging is near.

<sup>2</sup>It will be a dark, gloomy day.

It will be a cloudy and black day.

Like the light at sunrise, the great and powerful army will spread over the mountains.

There has never been anything like it before.

And there will never be anything like it
again.

<sup>3</sup>The army destroys the land like a burning fire.

The land in front of them is like the garden of Eden.

The land behind them is like an empty
desert.

Nothing will escape them.

<sup>4</sup>They look like horses.

They run like war horses.

<sup>5</sup>Listen to them!

It is like the noise of chariots rumbling over the mountains.

It is like the noise of crackling flames burning dry stalks.

They are like a powerful army lined up for battle.

<sup>6</sup>Before this army, nations shake with fear.

Their faces become pale.

<sup>7</sup>The army charges ahead like soldiers.

They climb over the walls like warriors.

They all march straight ahead.

They do not move off their path.

<sup>8</sup>They do not run into each other.

Each one walks in line.

They charge through all efforts to stop
them

and stay in line.

<sup>9</sup>They run into the city.

They run along the tops of the walls.

They climb into the houses.

They enter through windows like a thief.

<sup>10</sup>Before them, earth and sky shake.

The sun and the moon become dark, and the stars stop shining.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord calls out orders loudly as he leads his army.

That army obeys his commands.

It is very large and powerful.

The Lord's day of judging is an overwhelming and terrible day.

No one can stand up against it.

Change Your Hearts

<sup>12</sup>The Lord says, "Now, come back to me with all your heart.

Go without food, and cry and be sad."

<sup>13</sup>Tearing your clothes is not enough to show you are sad.

Let your heart be broken.

Come back to the Lord your God.

He is kind and shows mercy.

He doesn't become angry quickly.

He has great love.

He would rather forgive than punish.

<sup>14</sup>Who knows? Maybe the Lord will change his mind and leave behind a blessing for you.

Then you may give grain and drink
offerings

to the Lord your God.

<sup>15</sup>Blow the trumpet in Jerusalem.

Call for a special time of going without food.

Call for a special meeting.

<sup>16</sup>Bring the people together.

Make the meeting holy for the Lord.

Bring together the older leaders.

Bring together the children, even babies that still feed at their mothers' breasts.

The bridegroom should come from his room.

The bride should come from her bedroom.

<sup>17</sup>The priests, the Lord's servants, should cry.

They should cry between the altar and entrance to the Temple.<sup>d</sup>

They should say, "Lord, have mercy on
your people.

Don't let them be put to shame.

Don't let other nations make fun of
them.

Don't let people in other nations ask,

‘Where is their God?’ ”

The Lord Restores the Land

<sup>18</sup>Then the Lord became concerned about his land.

He felt sorry for his people.

<sup>19</sup>The Lord said to them:

“I will send you grain, wine and olive oil.

You will have plenty.

No more will I shame you among the nations.

<sup>20</sup>I will force the army from the north to leave your land.

I will force them into a dry, empty land.

Their soldiers in front will be forced into the Dead Sea.<sup>d</sup>

And those in the rear will be forced into the Mediterranean Sea.

Their bodies will rot and stink because they did horrible things.”

<sup>21</sup>But, land, don’t be afraid.

Be happy and full of joy because the Lord has begun to do wonderful things.

<sup>22</sup>Wild animals, don’t be afraid.

The open pastures will grow grass. The trees will grow fruit.

The fig trees and the vines will grow much fruit.

Be joyful in the Lord your God. He will do what is right and will give you rain. He will send the early rain and the late rain for you, as before.

<sup>24</sup>And the threshing<sup>d</sup> floors will be full of wheat.

And the barrels will overflow with wine and olive oil.

The Lord Speaks

<sup>25</sup>“I sent my great army against you.

Those swarming locusts and the hopping locusts, the destroying locusts and the cutting locusts<sup>a</sup> ate your crops.

But I will pay you back for those years of trouble.

<sup>26</sup>Then you will have plenty to eat.

You will be full.

You will praise the name of the Lord your God.

He has done miracles<sup>d</sup> for you.

My people will never again be shamed.

<sup>27</sup>Then you will know that I am among the people of Israel.

You will know that I am the Lord your God.

There is no other God.

My people will never be shamed again.

<sup>28</sup>“After this,

I will give my Spirit<sup>d</sup> freely to all kinds of people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy.<sup>d</sup>

Your old men will dream dreams.

Your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup>At that time I will give my Spirit even to servants, both men and women.

<sup>30</sup>I will show miracles in the sky and on the earth: blood, fire and thick smoke.

<sup>31</sup>The sun will become dark.

The moon will become red as blood.

And then the Lord’s overwhelming and terrible day of judging will come.

<sup>32</sup>Then anyone who asks the Lord for help will be saved.

Even on Mount Zion<sup>d</sup> and in Jerusalem there will be people who will be saved.

This will happen just as the Lord has said.

Those left alive after the day of punishment are the people whom the Lord called.

Punishment for Judah’s Enemies

3 “In those days and at that time, I will give Judah and Jerusalem back their riches.

<sup>2</sup>I will also gather all the nations together. I will bring them down into the Valley

Where the Lord Judges.

And there I will judge them.

Those nations scattered my own people, Israel.

They forced my people to live in other nations.

They divided up my land.

<sup>3</sup>They threw lots<sup>d</sup> for my people.

They traded boys for prostitutes.<sup>d</sup>

And they sold girls to buy wine to drink.

<sup>4</sup>“Tyre and Sidon and all of you regions of Philistia! What do you have against me? Are you punishing me for something I did? Or are you doing something to hurt me? Then I will quickly do to you what you have done to me.

<sup>5</sup>You took my silver and gold. You took my precious treasures and put them in your temples. <sup>6</sup>You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. That way you could send them far from their land.

<sup>7</sup>“You sent my people to that faraway place. But I will bring them back. And I will do to you what you have done to them. <sup>8</sup>I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. Then they will sell them to the Sabeans people far away.” The Lord said this.

God Judges the Nations

<sup>9</sup>Announce this among the nations:
Prepare for war!
Wake up the soldiers!
Let all the men of war come near and attack.

<sup>10</sup>Make your plows into swords.
Make spears from your hooks for trimming trees.

Let the weak say,
“I am strong.”

<sup>11</sup>All of you nations, hurry.
Come together in that place.
Lord, send your strong soldiers to gather the nations.

<sup>12</sup>“Wake up, nations.
Come to the Valley Where the Lord Judges.

There I will sit to judge
all the nations on every side.

<sup>13</sup>Cut them down like grain because the harvest is ripe with sin.
Come, walk on them as you would walk on grapes, because the winepress<sup>d</sup> is full.
The barrels are full of their sins and spilling over.
These people are so evil!”

<sup>14</sup>There are many people in the Valley of Decision.<sup>a</sup>
The Lord’s day of judging is near in the Valley of Decision.

<sup>15</sup>The sun and the moon will become dark.
The stars will stop shining.

His loud voice will sound like a growl from Jerusalem.

And the sky and the earth will shake.
But the Lord will be a safe place for his people.

He will be a strong place of safety for the people of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>“Then you will know that I am the Lord your God.

I stay in my holy Mount Zion.<sup>d</sup>
Jerusalem will become holy.
Strangers will never take over that city again.

A New Life Promised for Judah

<sup>18</sup>“On that day the mountains will be covered with grapes for sweet wine.
The hills will be covered with cows to give milk.

And water will flow through all the ravines of Judah.

A fountain will flow from the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord.

It will give water to the valley of acacia trees.

<sup>19</sup>But Egypt will become empty.
And Edom will become an empty desert.
This is because they were cruel to the people of Judah.

They killed innocent people in the land of Judah.

<sup>20</sup>But there will always be people living in Judah.

And people will live in Jerusalem from now on.

<sup>21</sup>Egypt and Edom killed my people.
So I will definitely punish them.”

The Lord lives in Jerusalem!

<sup>a</sup>Valley of Decision This is like the name “The Valley Where the Lord Judges” in 3:2 and 3:12.

AMOS

God Warns Israel to Stop Sinning

A

1 Amos was one of the shepherds from the town of Tekoa. God showed him this vision about Israel. It was at the time Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Jehoash was king of Israel. This happened two years before the earthquake.

<sup>2</sup>Amos said,
"The Lord will roar like a lion from Jerusalem.
His loud voice will sound like a growl from Jerusalem.
The green pastures of the shepherds will become dry.
Even Mount Carmel will dry up."

Israel's Neighbors Are Punished

The People of Aram

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Damascus is doing,
I will punish them.
They beat the people of Gilead with threshing<sup>d</sup> boards that had iron teeth.
<sup>4</sup>So I will send fire upon the house of Hazael.
That fire will destroy the strong towers of Ben-Hadad.
<sup>5</sup>I will break down the gate of Damascus.
I will destroy the king who is in the Valley of Aven.
I will also destroy the king of Beth Eden.
The people of Aram will be taken captive to the country of Kir," says the Lord.

The People of Philistia

<sup>6</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Gaza is doing,
I will punish them.
They sold all the people of one area as slaves to Edom.
<sup>7</sup>So I will send a fire on the walls of Gaza.
That fire will destroy the city's strong towers.
<sup>8</sup>I will destroy the king of the city of Ashdod.
I will destroy the king of the city of Ashkelon.

Then I will turn against the people of the city of Ekron.

I will punish the Philistines until they are all dead," says the Lord God.

The People of Phoenicia

<sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Tyre is doing,
I will punish them.
They sold all the people of one area as slaves to Edom.
They forgot the brotherly agreement they had made with Israel.
<sup>10</sup>So I will send fire on the walls of Tyre.
That fire will destroy the city's strong towers."

The People of Edom

<sup>11</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Edom is doing,
I will punish them.
They hunted down their brothers, the Israelites, with the sword.
They showed them no mercy.
The people of Edom were continually angry.
And they did not hold back their great anger.
<sup>12</sup>So I will send fire on the city of Teman.
That fire will even destroy the strong towers of Bozrah."<sup>a</sup>

The People of Ammon

<sup>13</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Ammon is doing,
I will punish them.
They ripped open the pregnant women in Gilead.
They did this so they could take over that land and make their own country larger.
<sup>14</sup>So I will send fire on the walls of Rabbah.
That fire will destroy the city's strong towers.
It will come during a day of battle.
There will be strong winds on a stormy day.

<sup>a</sup>Teman and Bozrah Teman was in northern Edom, and Bozrah was in southern Edom. So this means the whole country will be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>Then their king and leaders will be captured.
They will all be taken away together,"
says the Lord.

The People of Moab

2 This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Moab is doing,
I will punish them.
They burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime.
<sup>2</sup>So I will send fire on Moab.
And it will destroy the strong towers of the city of Kerioth.
The people of Moab will die in a great noise.
They will die in the middle of sounds of war and trumpets.
<sup>3</sup>So I will bring an end to the king of Moab.
And I will kill all its leaders with him,"
says the Lord.

The People of Judah

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Judah is doing,
I will punish them.
They rejected the teachings of the Lord.
They did not keep his commands.
Their ancestors followed false gods.
And Judah followed those same gods.
<sup>5</sup>So I will send fire on Judah.
It will destroy the strong towers of
Jerusalem."

Israel Is Punished

<sup>6</sup>This is what the Lord says:
"For the many crimes Israel is doing,
I will punish them.
For silver they sell people who have done nothing wrong.
They sell poor people for the price of a pair of sandals.
<sup>7</sup>They walk on poor people as if they were dirt.
They refuse to be fair to those who are suffering.
Fathers and sons have sexual relations with the same woman.
By doing this they ruin my holy name.
<sup>8</sup>As they worship at their altars, they lie down on clothes taken from poor
people.
They make people pay money as punishment.
With that money they buy wine to drink
in the house of their god.

<sup>9</sup>"But it was I who destroyed the Amorites before them.

The Amorites were tall like cedar trees and as strong as oaks.

But I destroyed them completely.

<sup>10</sup>It was I who brought you from the land of Egypt.

For 40 years I led you through the desert.

I led you so I could give you the land of the Amorites.

<sup>11</sup>I made some of your sons to be prophets.<sup>d</sup>
I made some of your young men to be Nazirites.<sup>d</sup>

People of Israel, isn't this true?" says the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>"But you made the Nazirites drink wine.
You told the prophets not to prophesy my message.

<sup>13</sup>Now I will crush you as a wagon loaded with grain crushes anything beneath it.

<sup>14</sup>No one will escape, not even the fastest runner.

Strong men will not be strong enough.
Warriors will not be able to save themselves.

<sup>15</sup>Soldiers with bows and arrows will not stand and fight.

Even soldiers who run quickly will not get away.

Soldiers on horses will not escape alive.

<sup>16</sup>At that time even the bravest warriors will run away without their armor," says
the Lord.

Warning to Israel

3 Listen to this message that the Lord has spoken against you, people of Israel. The message is against the whole nation the Lord brought out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>"I have chosen only you out of all the families of the earth.
So I will punish you for all your sins."

<sup>3</sup>Two people will not walk together unless they have agreed to do this.

<sup>4</sup>A lion in the forest will roar when he has caught an animal.
He does not growl in his den
when he has caught nothing.

<sup>5</sup>A bird will not fall into a trap where there is no bait.

The trap will not spring shut
if there is nothing to catch.

<sup>6</sup>When a trumpet blows a warning, the people tremble.

 When trouble comes to a city,
 the Lord has caused it.
<sup>7</sup>Before the Lord God does anything, he tells his servants the prophets.<sup>d</sup>
<sup>8</sup>The lion has roared!
 Who wouldn't be afraid?
 The Lord God has spoken, and I must prophesy his message.
<sup>9</sup>Announce this to the strong towers of Ashdod.
 Announce it to the strong cities of Egypt:
 "Come to the mountains of Samaria.
 There you will see great confusion.
 You will see people hurting others."
<sup>10</sup>"The people don't know how to do what is right," says the Lord.
 "Their strong cities are filled with treasures they took by force from others."
<sup>11</sup>So this is what the Lord God says:
 "An enemy will take over the land.
 He will pull down your strong towers.
 He will take the treasures you hid in your strong cities."
<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord says:
 "A shepherd might save from a lion's mouth
 only two leg bones or a scrap of an ear of his sheep.
 In the same way only a few Israelites will be saved.
 These people now sit on their beds in Samaria.
 They sit on their couches."
<sup>13</sup>"You nations, listen to what I say against the family of Israel. You are my witnesses against them," says the Lord God, the God of heaven's armies.
<sup>14</sup>"The people of Israel sinned, and I will punish them.
 I will also destroy the altars at Bethel.
 The corners of the altar will be cut off,
 and they will fall to the ground.
<sup>15</sup>I will tear down the winter house, together with the summer house.
 The houses decorated with ivory will be destroyed.
 And the great houses will come to an end," says the Lord.

Israel Will Not Return

4 Listen to this message, you rich women on the Mountain of Samaria,

You take things from the poor and crush people who are in need.
 You tell your husbands,
 "Bring us money so we can drink!"
<sup>2</sup>The Lord God has promised this:
 "It is certain that I am a holy God.
 So it is certain that the time will come when some of you will be taken away by hooks.
 The rest of you will be taken away with fishhooks.
<sup>3</sup>You will go straight out of the city through holes in the walls.
 And you will be thrown on the garbage dump," says the Lord.
<sup>4</sup>"Go to the city of Bethel and sin.
 Go to Gilgal and sin even more.
 Offer your sacrifices every morning.
 Bring one-tenth of your crops on the third day.
<sup>5</sup>Offer bread made with yeast as a sacrifice to show your thanks.
 And brag about the offerings you bring to show thanks to the Lord.
 Brag about these things, Israelites.
 This is what you love to do," says the Lord God.
<sup>6</sup>"I did not give you any food to eat.
 There was not enough food in any of your towns.
 But you did not come back to me," says
 the Lord.
<sup>7</sup>"I held back the rain from you three months before harvest time.
 Then I let it rain on one city but not on another.
 Rain fell on one field,
 but another field got none and dried up.
<sup>8</sup>People weak from thirst went from town to town for water.
 But they could not get enough water to drink.
 But you still did not come back to me,"
 says the Lord.
<sup>9</sup>"I made your crops die from disease and mildew.<sup>d</sup>
 I destroyed your gardens and your vineyards.
 Locusts<sup>d</sup> ate your fig trees and olive trees.
 But you still did not come back to me,"
 says the Lord.
<sup>10</sup>"I sent disasters against you,
 as I did to Egypt.
 I killed your young men with swords.
 I also killed your horses.

I made you smell the stink from all the dead bodies.
 But you still did not come back to me,"
 says the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>"I destroyed some of you as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.
 You were like a burning stick pulled from a fire.
 But you still have not come back to me,"
 says the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>"So this is what I will do to you, Israel.
 And because I will do this to you, get ready to meet your God, Israel."

<sup>13</sup>He is the one who makes the mountains.
 He creates the wind.
 He makes his thoughts known to man.
 He changes the dawn into darkness.
 He walks over the mountains of the earth.
 His name is the Lord God of heaven's
 armies.

Israel Needs to Repent

5 Listen to this funeral song that I sing about you, people of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>"Israel has fallen.
 It will not rise up again.
 It was left alone in the land.
 There is no one to lift it up."

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord God says:
 "If 1,000 soldiers leave a city,
 only 100 will return.
 If 100 soldiers leave a city,
 only 10 will return."

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord says to the nation of Israel:

"Come to me and live.
<sup>5</sup> But do not look in Bethel.
 Do not go to Gilgal,
 and do not go down to Beersheba.
 The people of Gilgal will be taken away as captives.
 And Bethel will become nothing."

<sup>6</sup>Come to the Lord and live.
 If you don't, he will destroy the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Joseph as a fire would.

The fire will burn.
 But there will be no one to put it out for Bethel.

<sup>7</sup>You change the justice of the courts into something unfair.
 You reject what is right.

<sup>8</sup>God is the one who made the star groups
 Pleiades and Orion.

He changes darkness into the morning light.

And he changes the day into the dark night.

He calls for the waters of the sea
 to pour out on the earth.

The Lord is his name.

<sup>9</sup>He destroys the protected city.
 And he ruins the strong, walled city.

<sup>10</sup>You hate those who speak in court against evil.

And you hate those who tell the truth.

<sup>11</sup>You walk on poor people.

You force them to give you grain.

You have built fancy houses of cut stone.
 But you will not live in them.

You have planted beautiful vineyards.

But you will not drink the wine from
 them.

<sup>12</sup>It is because I know your many crimes.
 I know your terrible sins.

You hurt people who do right.

You accept money to do wrong.

You keep the poor from getting justice in court.

<sup>13</sup>In such times the wise man will keep quiet,
 because it is a bad time.

<sup>14</sup>Try to do good, not evil.

Then you will live.

And the Lord God of heaven's armies will be with you
 just as you say he is.

<sup>15</sup>Hate evil and love good.

Be fair in the courts.

Maybe the Lord God of heaven's armies will be kind to the people of Joseph who are left alive.

<sup>16</sup>This is what the Lord, the Lord God of heaven's armies, says:

"People will be crying in all the public places.

They will be saying, 'Oh, no!' in the streets.

They will call the farmers to come and weep.

They will pay people to cry out loud for
 them.

<sup>17</sup>People will be crying in all the vineyards.

This is because I will pass among you to punish you," says the Lord.

The Lord's Day of Judging

- <sup>18</sup>How terrible it will be for you who want the Lord's day of judging to come. Why do you want that day to come? It will bring darkness for you, not light.
- <sup>19</sup>It will be like a man who runs from a lion and meets a bear. It will be like him going into his house and putting his hand on the wall. And then a snake bites him.
- <sup>20</sup>So the Lord's day of judging will bring darkness, not light. It will be a time of sadness, not joy.
- <sup>21</sup>The Lord says, "I hate your feasts. I cannot stand your religious meetings.
- <sup>22</sup>You offer me burnt offerings and grain offerings. But I won't accept them. You bring the best fellowship offerings. But I will ignore them.
- <sup>23</sup>Take the noise of your songs away from here! I won't listen to the music of your harps.
- <sup>24</sup>But let justice flow like a river. Let goodness flow like a stream that never stops.
- <sup>25</sup>"People of Israel, you did not bring me sacrifices and offerings while you traveled in the desert for 40 years.
- <sup>26</sup>But now you will have to carry with you your king, the false god Sakkuth, and Kaiwan your idol and the idols of your other star gods you have made.
- <sup>27</sup>This is because I will send you away as captives beyond Damascus," says the Lord. His name is God of heaven's armies.

Israel Will Be Destroyed

- 6 How terrible it will be for you who have it easy in Jerusalem. How terrible for you who live on Mount Samaria and feel safe. You think you are important people of the best nation in the world. The Israelites come to you for help.
- <sup>2</sup>Go look at the city of Calneh. From there go to the great city Hamath. Go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Are their lands larger than yours?

- <sup>3</sup>You put off the day of punishment. But you bring near the day when you can do evil to others.
- <sup>4</sup>You lie on beds decorated with ivory. You stretch out on your couches. You eat tender lambs and fattened calves.
- <sup>5</sup>You play your harps. Like David, you compose songs on musical instruments.
- <sup>6</sup>You drink wine by the bowlful. You use the best perfumed lotions. But you are not sad over the ruin of Israel, Joseph's descendants.<sup>d</sup>
- <sup>7</sup>So you will be some of the first ones taken as slaves. Your feasting and lying around will come to an end.
- <sup>8</sup>The Lord God made this promise. The Lord God of heaven's armies says: "I hate the pride of the people of Israel. I hate their strong towers. So I will let the enemy take the city and everything in it."
- <sup>9</sup>At that time there might be ten people left alive in a house. But they will also die. <sup>10</sup>A relative and one who is to prepare bodies for burial may come to get the bodies. One of them will take the bodies out to burn them. He will call to the other and ask, "Are there any other dead bodies with you?" That person will answer, "No." Then the one who asked will say, "Hush! We must not speak the name of the Lord."
- <sup>11</sup>The Lord has given the command. The large house will be broken into pieces. And the small house will be broken into bits.
- <sup>12</sup>Horses do not run on rocks. People do not plow rocks with oxen. But you have changed fairness into poison. You have changed what is right into something wrong.
- <sup>13</sup>You are happy that the town of Lo Debar<sup>n</sup> was taken. You say, "We have taken Karnaim<sup>n</sup> by our own strength."
- <sup>14</sup>The Lord God of heaven's armies says, "Israel, I will bring a nation against you. It will bring trouble for you from Lebo Hamath in the north to the valley south of the Dead Sea."<sup>d</sup>

The Vision of Locusts

7 This is what the Lord God showed me: He was forming a swarm of locusts.<sup>d</sup> This was after the king had taken his share of the first crop. The second crop had just begun growing.<sup>2</sup> The locusts ate all the crops in the country. After that I said, "Lord God, forgive us, I beg you! No one in Israel could live through this. Israel is too small already!"

<sup>3</sup>So the Lord felt sorry about this. "This will not happen," said the Lord.

The Vision of Fire

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord God showed me: The Lord God was calling for fire to come to punish. The fire dried up the deep water and destroyed the land.<sup>5</sup> Then I cried out, "Lord God, stop, I beg you! No one in Israel could live through this. Israel is too small already."

<sup>6</sup>So the Lord felt sorry about this. "This will not happen either," said the Lord God.

The Vision of the Plumb Line

<sup>7</sup>This is what the Lord showed me: The Lord stood by a straight wall. He had a plumb line<sup>d</sup> in his hand.<sup>8</sup> The Lord said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "See, I will put a plumb line among my people Israel to show how crooked they are. I will not feel sorry for them any longer.

<sup>9</sup>"The places where Isaac's descendants<sup>d</sup> worship will be destroyed.

Israel's holy places will be turned into ruins.

And I will attack King Jeroboam's family with the sword."

Amaziah Speaks Against Amos

<sup>10</sup>So Amaziah, a priest at Bethel, sent this message to Jeroboam king of Israel: "Amos is making evil plans against you with the people of Israel. He has been speaking so much that this land can't hold all his words. <sup>11</sup>Amos has said this:

'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and the people of Israel will be taken as captives
out of their own country.'

anymore here at Bethel. This is King Jeroboam's holy place. This is Israel's temple."

<sup>14</sup>Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I do not make my living as a prophet. And I am not a member of a group of prophets. I make my living as a shepherd. And I take care of sycamore trees. <sup>15</sup>But the Lord took me away from tending the sheep. He said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people, the Israelites.' <sup>16</sup>So listen to the Lord's message. You tell me, 'Don't prophesy against Israel.

And stop prophesying against the descendants of Isaac.'

<sup>17</sup>"Because you have said this, the Lord says: "Your wife will become a prostitute<sup>d</sup> in the city.

Your sons and daughters will be killed with swords.

Other people will take your land and divide it among themselves.

And you will die in a foreign country.

The people of Israel will definitely be taken from their own land as captives.'"

The Vision of Ripe Fruit

8 This is what the Lord showed me: a basket of ripe fruit. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A basket of fruit from the end of the harvest."

Then the Lord said to me, "An end has come for my people, the Israelites. I will not overlook their sins anymore.

<sup>3</sup>"On that day the palace songs will become funeral songs," says the Lord God. "There will be dead bodies thrown everywhere! Silence!"

<sup>4</sup>Listen to me you who walk on helpless people.

You are trying to destroy the poor people of this country.

<sup>5</sup>Your businessmen say,

"When will the New Moon<sup>d</sup> Festival be over so we can sell grain?

When will the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> be over so we can bring out wheat to sell?

We can charge them more and give them less.

We can change the scales to cheat the people.

<sup>6</sup>We will buy poor people for silver.

And we will buy needy people for the price of a pair of sandals.

We will even sell the wheat that was swept up from the floor."

<sup>7</sup>The Lord used his name, the Pride of Jacob, to make a promise. He said, "I will never forget what these people did.

<sup>8</sup>The whole land will shake because of it. Everyone who lives in the land will cry for those who died.

The whole land will rise like the Nile. It will be shaken, and then it will fall like the Nile River in Egypt."

<sup>9</sup>The Lord God says: "At that time I will cause the sun to go down at noon.

I will make the earth dark on a clear day.

<sup>10</sup>I will change your festivals into days of crying for the dead.

All your songs will become songs of sadness for the dead.

I will make all of you wear rough cloth to show your sadness.

You will shave your heads to show sadness.

I will make that day like the crying for the death of an only son.

Its end will be very painful."

<sup>11</sup>The Lord God says: "The days are coming when I will cause a time of hunger in the land.

The people will not be hungry for bread or thirsty for water.

But they will be hungry for words from the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>People will wander from the Mediterranean Sea to the Dead Sea.<sup>d</sup>

They will wander from the north to the east.

They will search for the word of the Lord. But they won't find it.

<sup>13</sup>At that time the beautiful young women and the young men will become weak from thirst.

<sup>14</sup>They made promises by the idol in Samaria.

They said, 'As surely as the god of Dan lives . . .'

And they said, 'As surely as the god of Beersheba<sup>a</sup> lives, we promise . . .'

So they will fall and never get up again."

Israel Will Be Destroyed

9 I saw the Lord standing by the altar. He said:

"Smash the top of the pillars

so that even the bottom of the doors will shake.

Make the pillars fall on the people's heads.

Anyone left alive I will kill with a sword.

Not one person will get away.

No one will escape.

<sup>2</sup>If they dig down as deep as where the dead are,

I will pull them up from there.

If they climb up into the skies,

I will bring them down from there.

<sup>3</sup>If they hide at the top of Mount Carmel,

I will find them and take them away.

If they try to hide from me at the bottom of the sea,

I will command a snake to bite them.

<sup>4</sup>If they are captured and taken away by their enemies,

I will command the sword to kill them.

I will keep watch over them.

But I will keep watch to give them trouble, not to do them good."

<sup>5</sup>The Master, the Lord of heaven's armies, will touch the land.

And the land will shake.

Then everyone who lives in the land will cry for the dead.

The whole land will rise like the Nile River.

It will fall like the river of Egypt.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord built his upper rooms above the skies.

He sets their foundations on the earth.

He calls for the waters of the sea.

He pours them out on the land.

The Lord is his name.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord says this:

"Israel, you are no different to me than the people of Cush.

I brought Israel out of the land of Egypt.

I also brought the Philistines from Crete and the Arameans from Kir.

<sup>8</sup>I, the Lord God, am watching the sinful kingdom Israel.

I will destroy Israel from the earth's surface.

But I will not completely destroy Jacob's descendants,"<sup>d</sup> says the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>"I am giving the command to scatter the nation of Israel among all nations.

It will be like someone sifting flour.

A person shakes flour through a sifter.

<sup>a</sup>Dan . . . Beersheba Dan was the city farthest north in Israel, and Beersheba was the city farthest south.

The good flour falls through, but not the bad clumps.

<sup>10</sup>Sinners among my people will die by the sword.
All of them say,
'Nothing bad will happen to us.'

The Lord Promises to Restore Israel

<sup>11</sup>"The kingdom of David is like a fallen tent.
But in that day I will set it up again and mend its broken places.

I will rebuild its ruins.

I will rebuild it as it was before.

<sup>12</sup>Then Israel will take over what is left of Edom
and the other nations that belong to
me,"
says the Lord.
And he will make it happen.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord says, "The time is coming when there will be plenty of food.

A person will still be harvesting his crops when it's time to plow again.

A person will still be taking the juice from his grapes

when it's time to plant again.

Sweet wine will drip from the mountains.

And it will pour from the hills.

<sup>14</sup>I will bring my people Israel back from captivity.

They will build the ruined cities again.

And they will live in them.

They will plant vineyards and drink the wine from them.

They will plant gardens and eat their fruit.

<sup>15</sup>I will plant my people on their land.
And they will not be pulled out again from the land which I have given them," says the Lord your God.

OBADIAH

God Will Punish Edom

The Lord Will Punish the Edomites

<sup>1</sup>This is the vision of Obadiah.

This is what the Lord God says about Edom:<sup>a</sup>

We have heard a message from the Lord.

A messenger has been sent among the nations, saying

“Let’s go attack Edom!”

The Lord Speaks to the Edomites

<sup>2</sup>“Look, I have made you only a small nation.

Others do not respect you.

<sup>3</sup>But your pride has fooled you.

You live in the hollow places of the cliff.

Your home is up high.

And you say to yourself,

‘No one can bring me down to the ground.’

<sup>4</sup>You fly high like the eagle.

You make your nest among the stars.

But I will bring you down from there,”<sup>b</sup> says the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>“You will really be ruined!

It would be better if thieves come to you, if robbers come by night.

They would steal only enough for themselves.

Workers come and pick the grapes from your vines.

But they would leave a few grapes behind.

<sup>6</sup>But you, Edom, will really lose everything!

People will find even your hidden treasures!

<sup>7</sup>All the people who are your friends will force you out of the land.

The people who are at peace with you will trick you and defeat you.

They eat your bread with you now.

But they are planning a trap for you. And you will not notice it.”

<sup>8</sup>The Lord says, “On that day

I will surely destroy the wise men from Edom.

I will destroy these men of understanding from the mountains of Edom.

<sup>9</sup>Then, city of Teman, your mighty men will be afraid.

And everyone from the mountains of Edom will be killed.

<sup>10</sup>You did violence against your relatives, the people of Israel.

So you will be covered with shame.

You will be destroyed forever.

<sup>11</sup>You stood aside without helping while strangers carried Israel’s treasures away.

Foreigners entered Israel’s city gate.

They threw lots<sup>d</sup> to decide what part of Jerusalem they would take.

At that time you were like one of those foreigners.

Commands That Edom Broke

<sup>12</sup>“Do not laugh at your brothers’ trouble.

Do not be happy when people destroy Judah.

Do not brag about the cruel things done to them.

<sup>13</sup>Do not enter the city gate of my people in their time of trouble.

Do not laugh at their problems in their time of trouble.

Do not take their treasures in their time of trouble.

<sup>14</sup>Do not stand at the crossroads to destroy those who are trying to escape.

Do not capture those who escape alive in a time of trouble.

The Nations Will Be Judged

<sup>15</sup>“The Lord’s day of judging is coming soon to all the nations.

You did evil things to other people.

Those same things will happen to you.

They will come back upon your own head.

<sup>16</sup>Because you joined the nations in robbing my Temple,<sup>d</sup> you drank my anger.

So all the nations will drink my anger.

They will be punished so much that they will disappear.

<sup>a</sup>Edom The Edomites were the people who came from Esau, Jacob’s twin brother. They were enemies of the Israelites.

The mountain will be a holy place.

The people of Jacob will take back their land.

They will take it from those who took it from them.

<sup>18</sup>The people of Jacob, the Israelites, will be like a fire.

And the people of Joseph will be like a flame.

But the people of Esau, the Edomites, will be like dry stalks.

The people of Jacob will set these stalks on fire.

They will burn up the Edomites.

Then there will be no one left of the people of Esau."

This will happen because the Lord has said it.

<sup>19</sup>Then God's people will regain southern Judah from Edom, the mountain of Esau.

They will take back the western mountain slopes from the Philistines.

They will regain the lands of Ephraim and Samaria.

And Benjamin will take over Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>People from Israel once were forced to leave their homes.

But at that time they will take the land of the Canaanites.

They will take it all the way to Zarephath.

People from Judah were once forced to leave Jerusalem and live in Sepharad.

But at that time they will take back the cities of southern Judah.

<sup>21</sup>Powerful warriors will go up on Mount Zion.

There they will rule the people living on Edom's mountain.

And the kingdom will belong to the Lord.

JONAH

A Prophet Runs from God

God Calls and Jonah Runs

1 The Lord spoke his word to Jonah son of Amittai: <sup>2</sup>"Get up, go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it. I see the evil things they do."

<sup>3</sup>But Jonah got up to run away from the Lord. He went to the city of Joppa. There he found a ship that was going to the city of Tarshish. Jonah paid for the trip and went aboard. He wanted to go to Tarshish to run away from the Lord.

<sup>4</sup>But the Lord sent a great wind on the sea. This wind made the sea very rough. So the ship was in danger of breaking apart. <sup>5</sup>The sailors were afraid. Each man cried to his own god. The men began throwing the cargo into the sea. This would make the ship lighter so it would not sink.

But Jonah had gone down into the ship to lie down. He fell fast asleep. <sup>6</sup>The captain of the ship came and said, "Why are you sleeping? Get up! Pray to your god! Maybe your god will pay attention to us. Maybe he will save us!"

<sup>7</sup>Then the men said to each other, "Let's throw lots<sup>d</sup> to see who caused these troubles to happen to us."

So the men threw lots. The lot showed that the trouble had happened because of Jonah. <sup>8</sup>Then the men said to Jonah, "Tell us what you have done. Why has this terrible thing happened to us? What is your job? Where do you come from? What is your country? Who are your people?"

<sup>9</sup>Then Jonah said to them, "I am a Hebrew. I fear the Lord, the God of heaven. He is the God who made the sea and the land."

<sup>10</sup>Then the men were very afraid. They asked Jonah, "What terrible thing did you do?" They knew Jonah was running away from the Lord because Jonah had told them.

<sup>11</sup>The wind and the waves of the sea were becoming much stronger. So the men said to Jonah, "What should we do to you to make the sea calm down?"

<sup>12</sup>Jonah said to them, "Pick me up, and throw me into the sea. Then it will calm down. I know it is my fault that this great storm has come on you."

to the land. But they could not. The wind and the waves of the sea were becoming much stronger.

Jonah's Punishment

<sup>14</sup>So the men cried to the Lord, "Lord, please don't let us die because of taking this man's life. Please don't think we are guilty of killing an innocent man. Lord, you have caused all this to happen. You wanted it this way."

<sup>15</sup>Then the men picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea. So the sea became calm. <sup>16</sup>Then they began to fear the Lord very much. They offered a sacrifice to the Lord. They also made promises to him.

<sup>17</sup>And the Lord caused a very big fish to swallow Jonah. Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

2 While Jonah was in the stomach of the fish, he prayed to the Lord his God. Jonah said, <sup>2</sup>"I was in danger.

So I called to the Lord,
and he answered me.

I was about to die.

So I cried to you,
and you heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup>You threw me into the sea.

I went down, down into the deep sea.

The water was all around me.

Your powerful waves flowed over me.

<sup>4</sup>I said, 'I was driven out of your presence.'

But I hope to see your Holy Temple<sup>d</sup>
again.'

<sup>5</sup>The waters of the sea closed over me.

I was about to die.

The deep sea was all around me.

Seaweed wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>I went down to where the mountains of the sea start to rise.

I thought I was locked in this prison
forever.

But you saved me from death,
Lord my God.

<sup>7</sup>"When my life had almost gone,
I remembered the Lord.

Lord, I prayed to you.

And you heard my prayers in your Holy Temple.

<sup>8</sup>“People who worship useless idols give up their loyalty to you.
<sup>9</sup>Lord, I will praise and thank you while I give sacrifices to you. I will make promises to you. And I will do what I promise. Salvation comes from the Lord!”

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord spoke to the fish. And the fish spit Jonah out of its stomach onto the dry land.

God Calls and Jonah Obeys

3 Then the Lord spoke his word to Jonah again. The Lord said, <sup>2</sup>“Get up. Go to the great city Nineveh. Preach against it what I tell you.”

<sup>3</sup>So Jonah obeyed the Lord. He got up and went to Nineveh. It was a very large city. It took a person three days just to walk across it. <sup>4</sup>Jonah entered the city. When he had walked for one day, he preached to the people. He said, “After 40 days, Nineveh will be destroyed!”

<sup>5</sup>The people of Nineveh believed in God. They announced they would stop eating for a while. They put on rough cloth to show how sad they were. All the people in the city wore the cloth. People from the most important to the least important did this.

<sup>6</sup>When the king of Nineveh heard this news, he got up from his throne. He took off his robe. He covered himself with rough cloth and sat in ashes to show how upset he was.

<sup>7</sup>He made an announcement and sent it through the city. The announcement said:

By command of the king and his important men: No person or animal should eat anything. No herd or flock will be allowed to taste anything. Do not let them eat food or drink water. <sup>8</sup>But every person and animal should be covered with rough cloth. People should cry loudly to God. Everyone must turn away from his evil life. Everyone must stop doing harm. <sup>9</sup>Maybe God will change his mind. Maybe he will stop being angry. Then we will not die.

<sup>10</sup>God saw what the people did. He saw that they stopped doing evil things. So God changed his mind and did not do what he had warned. He did not punish them.

God's Mercy Makes Jonah Angry

4 But Jonah was very unhappy that God did not destroy the city. He was angry. <sup>2</sup>He complained to the Lord and said, “I knew this would happen. I knew it when I was still in my own country. It is why I quickly ran away to Tarshish. I knew that you are a God who is kind and shows mercy. You don't become angry quickly. You have great love. I knew you would rather forgive than punish them. <sup>3</sup>So now I ask you, Lord, please kill me. It is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord said, “Do you think it is right for you to be angry?”

<sup>5</sup>Jonah went out and sat down east of the city. There he made a shelter for himself. And he sat there in the shade. He was waiting to see what would happen to the city. <sup>6</sup>The Lord made a plant grow quickly up over Jonah. This made a cool place for him to sit. And it helped him to be more comfortable. Jonah was very pleased to have the plant for shade. <sup>7</sup>The next day the sun rose. And God sent a worm to attack the plant. Then the plant died.

<sup>8</sup>When the sun was high in the sky, God sent a hot east wind to blow. The sun became very hot on Jonah's head. And he became very weak. He wished he were dead. Jonah said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>9</sup>But God said this to Jonah: “Do you think it is right for you to be angry because of the plant?”

Jonah answered, “It is right for me to be angry! I will stay angry until I die!”

<sup>10</sup>And the Lord said, “You showed concern for that plant. But you did not plant it or make it grow. It appeared in the night, and the next day it died. <sup>11</sup>Then surely I can show concern for the great city Nineveh. There are many animals in that city. And there are more than 120,000 people living there. Those people simply do not know right from wrong!”

MICAH

Assyria Will Punish Israel and Judah

Samaria and Israel to Be Punished

1 Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. During the time they were kings, the word of the Lord came to Micah, who was from Moresheth. He saw these visions about Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Hear this, all you nations.

Listen, all you who live on the earth.
The Lord God will come from his Holy Temple.<sup>a</sup>

He will come as a witness against you.

<sup>3</sup>See, the Lord is coming out of his place in heaven.

He is coming down to walk on the tops of the mountains.

<sup>4</sup>The mountains will melt under him like wax in a fire.

The valleys will crack open as if split by water raging down a mountain.

It is because of the sins of the nation of Israel.

Who is responsible for Jacob's sin?
Samaria!

Who is responsible for Judah's worshiping idols?
Jerusalem!

The Lord Speaks

<sup>6</sup>"So I will make Samaria a pile of ruins in the open country.

It will be like a place for planting vineyards.

I will pour Samaria's stones down into the valley.

And I will destroy her down to her foundations.

<sup>7</sup>All her idols will be broken into pieces.

All the gifts to her idols will be burned with fire.

I will destroy all her idols.

This is because Samaria earned her money by being unfaithful to me.

So this money will be carried off by other people who are not faithful to me."

Micah's Great Sadness

<sup>8</sup>I will moan and cry because of this evil.

I will go around barefoot and without clothes.

I will cry loudly like the wild dogs.

I will cry like the ostriches.

<sup>9</sup>I will do this because Samaria's wound cannot be healed.

Her destruction will spread to Judah.

It will reach the city gate of my people.

It will come all the way to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Don't tell it in Gath.<sup>n</sup>

Don't cry in Acco.<sup>n</sup>

Cry and roll in the dust at Beth Ophrah.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Pass on your way, naked and ashamed, you who live in Shaphir.<sup>n</sup>

Those who live in Zaanan<sup>n</sup> won't come out to help you.

The people in Beth Ezel<sup>n</sup> will cry.

But they will not give you any support.

<sup>12</sup>Those who live in Maroth<sup>n</sup> will be anxious for good news to come.

This is because trouble will come from the Lord.

It will come all the way to the gate of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>You people living in Lachish,<sup>n</sup> harness the fastest horse to the chariot. Jerusalem's sins started in you.

This is because you followed in Israel's sins.

<sup>n</sup>Moresheth This may be a wordplay on the word "engaged," referring to a farewell gift to a bride.

The houses in Aczib<sup>a</sup> will be false help to the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>I will bring an enemy against you who live in Mareshah.<sup>b</sup>
He will take what you own.

The leaders Israel brags about will hide in the cave at Adullam.

<sup>16</sup>Cut off your hair to show you are sad.
Cry for the children you love.

Make yourself bald like the eagle, because your children will be forced to live in a foreign land.

The Evil Plans of People

2 How terrible it will be for people who plan wickedness.

They lie on their beds and make evil plans.

When the morning light comes, they do the things they planned.

They do them just because they have the power to do so.

<sup>2</sup>They want fields; so they take them.
They want houses; so they take them.
They cheat a man and take his house.

They cheat a man and take his property.

<sup>3</sup>That is why the Lord says:

“Look, I am planning trouble against such
people.

You won’t be able to save yourselves.
You will no longer walk proudly,
because it will be a terrible time.

<sup>4</sup>At that time people will make fun of you.
They will sing this sad song about you:

“We are completely ruined.
The Lord has taken away our land.

Yes, he has taken our land away from us.
He has divided our fields among our enemies!”

<sup>5</sup>So you will have no land for people to measure.

They will not throw lots<sup>d</sup> to divide the land among the Lord’s people.

Micah Is Asked Not to Prophesy

<sup>6</sup>People say, “Don’t prophesy<sup>d</sup> to us!
Don’t say those bad things about us!
Nothing like that will happen to us!”

<sup>7</sup>But I must say this, people of Jacob.

The Lord is becoming angry about what you have done.

If you lived right,

I could say nice words to you.

<sup>8</sup>But recently, my people have become my enemy.

You take the coats from people who pass by.

They think they are safe.

But you rob them
as if they were prisoners of war.

<sup>9</sup>You’ve forced the women of my people from their nice houses.

You’ve taken my glory from their children forever.

<sup>10</sup>Get up and leave.

This is not your promised place of rest
anymore.

You have made this place unclean.<sup>d</sup>
It is doomed to destruction.

<sup>11</sup>But you people want a false prophet who will tell you nothing but lies.

You want one who promises to prophesy good things for you if you give him wine and beer.
He’s just the prophet for you.

The Lord Promises to Rescue His People

<sup>12</sup>“Yes, people of Jacob, I will bring all of you together.

I will bring together all those left alive in Israel.

I’ll put them together like sheep in a pen,
like a flock in its pasture.

Then the place will be filled with many
people.

<sup>13</sup>Someone will open the way and lead the people out.

The people will break through the gate and leave the city where they were held captive.

Their king will go out in front of them.

The Lord will lead his people.”

The Leaders of Israel Are Guilty of Evil

3 Then I said,
“Listen, leaders of the people of Jacob.
Listen, you rulers of the nation of Israel.
You should know how to decide cases fairly.

<sup>2</sup> But you hate good and love evil.
You skin my people alive.

You tear the flesh off their bones.

<sup>3</sup>You are destroying my people.

You skin them and break their bones.

You chop them up in pieces like meat to put in the pot.

<sup>4</sup>Then you will pray to the Lord.

<sup>b</sup>Mareshah This name sounds like the Hebrew word for a person who captures other cities and lands.

But he won't answer you.
He will hide his face from you,
because you have done evil."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord says this about the prophets<sup>d</sup> who teach his people the wrong way of living:
"If someone gives these prophets food to eat,
they shout, 'Peace!'
But if he doesn't give them food,
they prepare for war against him.
<sup>6</sup>So it will become like night to the prophets.

They won't have any visions from the Lord.

It will become dark for them.

They won't be able to tell what will happen in the future.

The sun is about to set for the prophets.
Their days will become dark.

<sup>7</sup>The seers<sup>d</sup> will be ashamed.

The people who see the future will be embarrassed.

Yes, all of them will cover their mouths.

This is because there will be no answer from God."

Micah Is an Honest Prophet of God

<sup>8</sup>But the Lord's Spirit<sup>d</sup> has filled me with power and strength to preach fairness.

I will tell the people of Jacob how they have turned against God.

I will tell the people of Israel how they have done wrong.

<sup>9</sup>Leaders of Jacob and rulers of Israel, listen to me.

You hate fairness.

You destroy what is right.

<sup>10</sup>You build Jerusalem by murdering people.

You build it with the sins you do.

<sup>11</sup>The judges in Jerusalem take money to decide who wins in court.

The priests in Jerusalem only teach for pay.

The prophets<sup>d</sup> only look into the future when they get paid.

But yet those leaders say,

"The Lord is with us.

Nothing bad will happen to us."

<sup>12</sup>Because of you,

Jerusalem will be plowed like a field.

Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks.

The hill on which the Temple<sup>d</sup> stands will be covered with bushes.

The Mountain of the Lord

<sup>4</sup>In the last days
the mountain on which the Lord's Temple<sup>d</sup> stands will become the most important of all
mountains.

It will be raised above the hills.

People from other nations will come streaming to it.

<sup>2</sup>Many nations will come and say,

"Come, let us go up to the mountain of
the Lord.

Let us go to the Temple of the God of Jacob!

Then God will teach us his ways.

And we will obey his teachings."

The Lord's teachings will go out from Jerusalem.

The word of the Lord will go out from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord will settle arguments among many nations.

He will decide between strong nations
that are far away.

Then the nations will make their swords
into plows.

They will make their spears into hooks
for trimming trees.

Nations will no longer fight other nations.
They will not even train for war
anymore.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone will sit under his own vine and fig tree.

No one will make them afraid.

This is because the Lord of heaven's armies has said it.

<sup>5</sup>All other nations follow their own gods.

But we will follow the Lord our God
forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord says, "At that time,

I will bring back to me the crippled.

I will bring back to Jerusalem those who were sent away.

I will bring back to me those who were hurt.

<sup>7</sup>I will keep alive those who were crippled.

I will make a strong nation of those who were sent away.

The Lord will be their king in Mount Zion<sup>d</sup>
forever.

<sup>8</sup>And you, watchtower of the flocks,<sup>a</sup> strong city of Jerusalem,
you will be a kingdom as in the past.

<sup>a</sup>watchtower . . . flocks This probably means a part of Jerusalem. The leaders would be like shepherds in a tower watching their sheep.

Jerusalem, the right to rule will come again to you."

Why the Israelites Must Go to Babylon

- <sup>9</sup>Now, why do you cry so loudly?
Is your king gone?
Have you lost your leader?
You are in pain like a woman trying to give birth.
- <sup>10</sup>People of Jerusalem, be in pain.
Be like a woman trying to give birth.
Now you must leave the city and live in the field.
You will go to Babylon.
But you will be saved from that place.
The Lord will go there and take you back from your enemies.
- <sup>11</sup>But now many nations have come to fight against you.
They say, "Let's destroy Jerusalem and be proud we have defeated her."
- <sup>12</sup>But they don't know what the Lord is thinking.
They don't understand his plan for them.
He will crush them like a bundle of grain on the threshing<sup>d</sup> floor.
- <sup>13</sup>"Get up and crush them, people of Jerusalem.
I will make you strong as if you had horns of iron.
I will make you strong as if you had hoofs of bronze.
You will beat many nations into small pieces.
You will give their wealth to the Lord.
You will give their treasure to the Lord of all the earth."
- 5 So, strong city, gather your soldiers
together.
We are surrounded and attacked.
The enemy will swing his club.
He will hit the leader of Israel in the face.

The Ruler to Be Born in Bethlehem

- <sup>2</sup>"But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are one of the smallest towns in Judah.
But from you will come one who will rule
Israel for me.
He comes from very old times,
from days long ago."
- <sup>3</sup>The Lord will leave his people in Babylon until Jerusalem, who is in labor, gives birth to her children.

- Then his brothers who are in captivity will return.
They will come back to the people of Israel living in Judah.
- <sup>4</sup>Then the ruler of Israel will stand and take care of his people.
He will lead them with the Lord's power.
He will lead them in the wonderful name of the Lord his God.
They will live in safety.
And his greatness will be known all over the earth.
- <sup>5</sup> He will bring peace.

Rescue and Punishment

- The Assyrian army will come into our country.
They will destroy our large houses.
But we will choose seven or eight leaders.
They will shepherd our people.
- <sup>6</sup>They will destroy the Assyrians with their swords.
They will conquer the land of Assyria with their swords drawn.
The Assyrians will come into our land.
They will come within our borders.
But the leaders of Israel will save us from them.
- <sup>7</sup>Then the people of Jacob who are left alive will be like dew from the Lord to many
people.
They will be like rain which does not wait for man.
They will be like showers which do not wait for human beings.
- <sup>8</sup>Those left alive of Jacob's people will be scattered among the nations.
They will be among many peoples.
They will be like a lion among the animals of the forest.
They will be like a young lion going through the flock.
He steps on what is in his way.
No one can save the nations from God's
people.
- <sup>9</sup>So you will raise your fist in victory over your enemies,
and you will destroy them.
- <sup>10</sup>The Lord says, "At that time,
I will take your horses from you.
I will destroy your chariots.
- <sup>11</sup>I will destroy the walled cities in your country.
I will tear down all your defenses.
- <sup>12</sup>You will no longer be able to do witchcraft.<sup>d</sup>

- You will not have anyone who can tell the future.
<sup>13</sup>I will destroy your statues of false gods.
I will tear down the stone pillars you
worship.
 You will no longer worship
what your hands have made.
<sup>14</sup>I will destroy the Asherah<sup>d</sup> idols.
I will destroy your cities.
<sup>15</sup>Some people won't obey me.
I will show my anger and punish them."

The Lord's Complaint

6 Now hear what the Lord says: "Get up; plead your case in front of the mountains.

Let the hills hear your story.

<sup>2</sup>Mountains, listen to the Lord's complaint.
Foundations of the earth, listen to the Lord.

The Lord has a complaint against his
people.

He will prove that Israel is wrong."

<sup>3</sup>The Lord says, "My people, did I do something wrong to you?
How did I make you tired of me?
Tell me.

<sup>4</sup>I brought you from the land of Egypt.
I freed you from slavery.
I sent Moses, Aaron and Miriam to you.

<sup>5</sup>My people, remember the evil plans of Balak king of Moab.
Remember what Balaam son of Beor told Balak.

Remember what happened from Acacia to Gilgal.

Then you will know the Lord does what
is right!"

<sup>6</sup>You say, "What can I bring with me when I come before the Lord?
What can I bring when I bow before God on high?
Should I come before the Lord with burnt offerings,
with year-old calves?

<sup>7</sup>Will the Lord be pleased with 1,000 male sheep?
Will he be pleased with 10,000 rivers of oil?

Should I give my first child for the evil I
have done?
Should I give my very own child for my
sin?"

<sup>8</sup>The Lord has told you what is good.
He has told you what he wants from
you:

Do what is right to other people.
Love being kind to others.
And live humbly, trusting your God.

<sup>9</sup>The voice of the Lord shouts to the city.
The wise person honors the Lord.
So pay attention to the rod of punishment.
Pay attention to the One who threatens to punish.

<sup>10</sup>Can the Lord forget that the wicked still hide treasures they have stolen?
Do they still cheat others?
I curse their false measure!

<sup>11</sup>Can I forgive people who cheat others with wrong weights and scales?

<sup>12</sup>The rich men in the city still do cruel things.
The people still tell lies.
They do not tell the truth.

<sup>13</sup>So I have started to punish you.
I will destroy you because of your sins.

<sup>14</sup>You will eat, but you won't become full.
You will still be hungry and empty.
You will store up but save nothing.
What you store up the sword will destroy.

<sup>15</sup>You will plant, but you won't harvest.
You will squeeze your olives.
But you won't get any oil from them to put on your skin.
You will crush the grapes.
But you will not drink the wine.

<sup>16</sup>This is because you obey the wicked laws of King Omri.
You do all the evil that Ahab's family
does.

You follow their teachings.
So I will let you be destroyed.
The people in your city will be laughed at.

Other nations will make fun of you.

Micah Is Upset at the Evil That People Do

7 Poor me! I am like a hungry man.
And all the summer fruit has been picked.

There are no grapes left to eat.
There are none of the early figs I love.

<sup>2</sup>All of the faithful people are gone.
There is not one good person left in this country.

Everyone is waiting to kill someone.
Everyone is trying to trap his brother.

<sup>3</sup>People are good at doing evil with both hands.

Rulers ask for money.
And judges' decisions are bought for a price.

Rich people make their wishes known.
They all join in their evil plans.

<sup>4</sup>Even the best of them is like a thornbush.
Even the nicest of them is worse than a thornbush.

Your watchmen<sup>a</sup> warned you about this day.

Now it has come.
Now you will be punished.
Your punishment will amaze you.

<sup>5</sup>Don't trust your neighbor.
Don't even trust a friend.
Be careful what you say,
even to your wife.

<sup>6</sup>A son will not honor his father.
A daughter will turn against her mother.
A daughter-in-law will fight with her mother-in-law.

A person's enemies will be members of his own family.

The Lord's Kindness

<sup>7</sup>Israel says, "I will look to the Lord for help.

I will wait for God to save me.
My God will hear me.

<sup>8</sup>Enemy, don't laugh at me.
I have fallen, but I will get up again.
I sit in the shadow of trouble now.
But the Lord will be a light for me.

<sup>9</sup>I sinned against the Lord.
So he was angry with me.
But he will defend my case in court.
He will do what is right for me.
Then he will bring me out into the light.
I will see him set things right.

<sup>10</sup>Then my enemies will see this,
and they will be ashamed.

My enemies said to me,
'Where is the Lord your God?'
Now I will laugh at them.
They will fall down defeated, like the mud people walk on."

The Jews to Return

<sup>11</sup>The time will come when your walls will be built again.

At that time your country will grow.

<sup>12</sup>Your people will come back to your land.

They will come from Assyria and the cities of Egypt.

They will come from the countries between the river of Egypt and the Euphrates River.

They will come from the countries between the Mediterranean Sea in the west and the mountains in the east.

<sup>13</sup>The rest of the earth will be ruined.
This is because of what the people who lived in it did.

A Prayer to God

<sup>14</sup>So shepherd your people with your stick.
Tend the flock of people who belong to you.

That flock now lives alone in the desert.
But there is fertile pasture nearby.
Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as they did long ago.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord says, "I did many miracles<sup>d</sup> when I brought you out of Egypt.
I will show you more miracles like that."

<sup>16</sup>The nations will see those miracles.
Then they will no longer brag about their power.

They will be amazed and put their hands over their mouths.
They will refuse to listen.

<sup>17</sup>They will crawl in the dust like a snake.
They will shake with fear.

They will crawl on the ground like insects crawling from their holes.
They will come trembling to you, Lord our God.

They will tremble in fear before you.

<sup>18</sup>There is no God like you.
You forgive people who are guilty of sin.
You don't look at the sins of your people who are left alive.

You, Lord, will not stay angry forever.
You enjoy being kind.

<sup>19</sup>Lord, you will have mercy on us again.
You will conquer our sins.
You will throw away all our sins into the deepest sea.

<sup>20</sup>You will be true to the people of Jacob!
You will be kind to the people of Abraham.

You will do what you promised to our ancestors long ago.

<sup>a</sup>watchmen Another name for a prophet. The prophets were like guards who stood on a city's wall. They watched for trouble coming from far away.

NAHUM

God Will Punish Assyria

1 This is the message for the city of Nineveh<sup>a</sup> This is the vision of Nahum, who was from the town of Elkosh.

The Lord Is Angry with Nineveh

<sup>2</sup>The Lord is a jealous God who gives punishment.

The Lord punishes wicked people and is filled with anger.

The Lord punishes those who are against him.

He stays angry with his enemies.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord does not become angry quickly.

His power is great.

The Lord will not let the guilty go unpunished.

Where the Lord goes, whirlwinds and storms show his power.

The clouds are the dust that his feet kick up.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord speaks to the sea and makes it dry.

He dries up all the rivers.

The areas of Bashan and Carmel dry up.
And the flowers of Lebanon die.

<sup>5</sup>He shakes the mountains and makes the hills melt away.

The earth trembles when he comes.

The world and all who live in it shake with fear.

<sup>6</sup>No one can stay alive when the Lord is angry with him.

No one can survive his strong anger.

His anger is poured out like fire.

He smashes rocks that are in his path.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord is good.

He gives protection in times of trouble.

He knows who trusts in him.

<sup>8</sup>But he will completely destroy the city of Nineveh.

An army will come like a rushing flood.

The Lord will chase his enemies until he kills them.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord will completely destroy the plans that are made against him.

Trouble will not come a second time.

<sup>10</sup>Those people will be like tangled thorns or like people drunk from their wine. They will be destroyed quickly like dry weeds.

<sup>11</sup>Someone has come from Nineveh. He makes evil plans against the Lord. And he gives wicked advice.

<sup>12</sup>This is what the Lord says:

"Assyria is strong and has many people. But it will be defeated and brought to an end.

Judah, I have punished you, my people. But I will punish you no more.

<sup>13</sup>Now I will free you from their control. And I will tear away the chains with which they hold you."

<sup>14</sup>The Lord has given you this command, Nineveh:

"You will not have descendants<sup>a</sup> to carry on your name.

I will destroy the idols and metal images that are in the temple of your gods.

I will dig your grave because you are wicked."

<sup>15</sup>Look, there on the hills, someone is bringing good news! He is announcing peace!

Celebrate your feasts, people of Judah.

And do what you promised to God.

The wicked will not attack you again.

They have been completely destroyed.

Nineveh Will Be Defeated

2 The destroyer<sup>a</sup> is coming to attack you, Nineveh.

Guard the defenses.

Watch the road.

Get ready.

Gather all your strength!

But the Lord will make the people of Jacob and the people of Israel great again.

<sup>3</sup>The shields of the soldiers are red.

The army is dressed in red.

<sup>a</sup>destroyer The Babylonians, the Scythians and the Medes destroyed Nineveh.

The metal on the chariots flashes when they are ready to attack.
 Their horses are excited.

<sup>4</sup>The chariots race through the streets.
 They rush back and forth through the city squares.
 They look like torches.
 They run like lightning.

<sup>5</sup>He<sup>n</sup> calls his officers.
 But they fall down on the way.
 They hurry to the city wall.
 The shield is put into place.

<sup>6</sup>The river gates are thrown open.
 And the palace is destroyed.

<sup>7</sup>It has been announced that the people of Nineveh
 will be captured and carried away.
 The slave girls moan like doves.
 They beat their breasts because they are sad.

<sup>8</sup>Nineveh is like a pool.
 And its water is draining away.
 "Stop! Stop!" the people yell.
 But no one turns back.

<sup>9</sup>Take the silver!
 Take the gold!
 There is no end to the treasure.
 There is wealth of every kind.

<sup>10</sup>Nineveh is robbed, ruined and destroyed.
 The people lose their courage. Their knees knock with fear.
 Stomachs ache. And everyone's face grows pale from fright.

<sup>11</sup>Where is the lions'<sup>n</sup> den?
 Where do they feed their young?
 Where did the lion, lioness and cubs go?
 Where were they not afraid?

<sup>12</sup>The lion killed enough for his cubs.
 He killed it for his mate.
 He filled his cave with the animals he caught.
 He filled his den with what he had killed.

<sup>13</sup>"I am against you, Nineveh," says the Lord of heaven's armies.
 "I will burn up your chariots in smoke.
 And I will kill your young lions with a sword.
 I will stop you from hunting down others on the earth.
 Your messengers' voices will no longer be heard."

It Will Be Terrible for Nineveh

3 How terrible it will be for the city which has killed so many.
 It is full of lies.
 It is full of stolen things from other countries.
 It is always hurting or killing somebody.

<sup>2</sup>Hear the sound of whips.
 Listen to the wheels.
 Hear horses galloping and chariots bouncing along!

<sup>3</sup>Soldiers on horses are charging.
 Their swords are shining.
 Their spears are gleaming!
 There are many bodies.
 Dead people are piled up.
 There are too many to count.
 People fall over the dead bodies.

<sup>4</sup>The city was like a prostitute.<sup>d</sup>
 She was charming and a lover of magic.
 She made nations slaves with her evil ways and her witchcraft.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>5</sup>"I am against you, Nineveh," says the Lord of heaven's armies.
 "I will pull your dress up over your face.
 I will show the nations your nakedness.
 And I will show the kingdoms your shame.

<sup>6</sup>I will throw dirt on you.
 I will make a fool of you.
 People will see you and make fun of you.

<sup>7</sup>Everyone who sees you will run away and say,
 'Nineveh is in ruins. Who will cry for her?'
 Nineveh, I cannot find anyone to comfort
 you."

<sup>8</sup>Nineveh, you are no better than Thebes.<sup>n</sup>
 She sits by the Nile River with water all around her.
 The river was her defense.
 The waters were like a wall around her.

<sup>9</sup>Cush and Egypt gave her endless strength.
 Put and Libya supported her.

<sup>10</sup>But Thebes was captured.
 And she went into captivity.
 Her small children were beaten to death
 at every street corner.
 Lots<sup>d</sup> were thrown for her important men.
 And all of her leaders were put in chains.

<sup>11</sup>Nineveh, you will be drunk, too.
 You will hide.

<sup>n</sup>lions' The symbol of Assyria was the lion.
<sup>d</sup>Thebes A great city in Egypt.

- You will look for a place safe from the enemy.
- <sup>12</sup>All your defenses are like fig trees with ripe fruit.
When the tree is shaken, the figs fall into the mouth of the eater.
- <sup>13</sup>Look at your soldiers.
They are all women!
The gates of your land are wide open for your enemies.
Fire has burned the bars of those gates.
- <sup>14</sup>Get enough water before the attack begins.
Make your defenses strong!
Make the bricks.
Mix the mortar.
Repair the wall!
- <sup>15</sup>There the fire will burn you up.
The sword will kill you.
Like grasshoppers eating crops, the battle will completely destroy you.
Grow in number like hopping locusts.<sup>d</sup>
- Grow in number like swarming locusts!
- <sup>16</sup>Your traders are more than the stars in the sky.
But like locusts, they strip the land and then fly away.
- <sup>17</sup>Your guards are like locusts.
Your officers are like swarms of locusts that settle in the walls on a cold day.
But when the sun comes up they fly away.
And no one knows where they have gone.
- <sup>18</sup>King of Assyria, your rulers are asleep.
Your important men lie down to rest.
Your people have been scattered on the mountains.
And there is no one to bring them back.
- <sup>19</sup>Nothing can heal your wound.
Your injury will not heal.
Everyone who hears about you applauds because everyone has felt your endless cruelty.

HABAKKUK

Learning How to Trust God

1 This is the message that was given to Habakkuk the prophet.<sup>d</sup>

Habakkuk Complains

<sup>2</sup>Lord, I continue to ask for help.
How long will you ignore me?
I cry out to you about violence,
but you do not save us!

<sup>3</sup>Why do you let me see wrong things?
Why do you put up with evil?
People are destroying things and hurting others while I am looking.
They are arguing and fighting.

<sup>4</sup>People are not forced to obey the teachings.
No one receives a fair trial.
Evil people gain while good people lose.
The judges no longer make fair decisions.

The Lord Answers

<sup>5</sup>“You and your people, look at the nations!
Watch them and be amazed.
I will do something in your lifetime that will amaze you.

You won’t believe it even when you are told about it.

<sup>6</sup>I will use the Babylonian people to punish the evil people.
The Babylonians are cruel and powerful fighters.

They march across the earth.
They take lands that don’t belong to
them.

<sup>7</sup>The Babylonians frighten other people.
They do what they want to do.
They are good only to themselves.

<sup>8</sup>Their horses are faster than leopards and more cruel than wolves at sunset.
Their horse soldiers attack quickly.
They come from places that are far away.
They attack quickly, like an eagle swooping down for food.

<sup>9</sup> They all come to fight.
Their armies march quickly like a whirlwind in the desert.
Their prisoners are as many as the grains of sand.

<sup>10</sup>The Babylonian soldiers laugh at kings.
They make fun of rulers.
They laugh at all the strong, walled cities.

They build dirt roads up to the top of the walls.

They capture the cities.

<sup>11</sup>Then they leave like the wind and move
on.

They are guilty of worshipping their own
strength.”

Habakkuk Complains Again

<sup>12</sup>Lord, you are the Lord who lives forever.
You are my God, my holy God.
You will not let those who trust you die.
Lord, you have chosen the Babylonians to punish people.

Our Rock,<sup>d</sup> you created them to punish the people.

<sup>13</sup>Your eyes are too good to look at evil.
You cannot stand to see people do
wrong.

So how can you put up with those evil
people?

How can you be quiet when wicked people defeat people who are better than they are?

<sup>14</sup>You treat people like fish in the sea.
You treat them like sea animals without a leader.

<sup>15</sup>The enemy catches all of them with hooks.
He catches them in his net.
He drags them in.

He is glad that he has caught them.

<sup>16</sup>The enemy offers sacrifices to his net.
He burns incense<sup>d</sup> to worship it.
This is because his net lets him live like a rich man.

His net lets him enjoy the best food.

<sup>17</sup>Will he keep on taking riches with his net?
Will he go on destroying people without showing mercy?

2 I will stand like a guard to watch.
I will stand on the tower.

I will wait to see what the Lord will say to
me.

I will wait to learn how to answer his complaint.

The Lord Answers

<sup>2</sup>The Lord answered me:
“Write down what I show you.

Write it clearly on tablets so whoever reads it can run to tell others.

<sup>3</sup>It is not yet time for the message to come true.
But that time is coming soon.
The message will come true.
It may seem like a long time before it happens.
But be patient and wait for it.
These things will happen.
They will not be delayed.

<sup>4</sup>See, the nation that is evil and trusts in itself will fail.
But those who do right because they trust in God will live.

<sup>5</sup>“Wine can trick a person.
In the same way the Babylonians are fooled by their pride.
Their desire for wealth is like a grave’s desire for death.
They always want more and more.
And, like death, they collect other nations for themselves.
They make them their own people.

<sup>6</sup>But all the nations the Babylonians have hurt will laugh at them.
They will make fun of the Babylonians.
They will say, ‘How terrible it will be for the nation that steals many things.
How long will that nation get rich by forcing others to pay them?’

<sup>7</sup>“One day the people you have taken money from will turn against you.
They will realize what is happening and make you shake with fear.
Then they will hurt you.

<sup>8</sup>You have stolen from many nations.
So the people who are left will take much from you.
This is because you have killed many
people.
You have destroyed countries and cities and everyone in them.

<sup>9</sup>“How terrible it will be for the nation that becomes rich by doing wrong.
They do those things to live in a safe place.
They think they will be safe from harm.

<sup>10</sup>You have made plans to destroy many
people.
This has made your own houses ashamed
of you.
Because of it, you will lose your lives.

<sup>11</sup>The stones of the walls will cry out against
you.
Even the wooden boards that support the roof will agree that you are wrong.

<sup>12</sup>“How terrible it will be for the nation that kills people to build a city.
How terrible for that nation that wrongs others to start a town.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord of heaven’s armies will send fire to destroy what those people have built.
All the nations’ work will be for nothing.

<sup>14</sup>Then people everywhere will know the Lord’s greatness.
This news will spread like water covering the sea.

<sup>15</sup>“How terrible for the nation that becomes angry and makes others suffer.
In anger they knock other people to the ground.
And they treat them as if they are naked and drunk.

<sup>16</sup>You Babylonians will receive the Lord’s anger, not respect.
This anger will be like a cup of poison in the Lord’s right hand.
You will taste this anger and fall to the ground like a drunk person.
You will drink from this cup.
You will receive disgrace, not respect.

<sup>17</sup>You hurt many people in Lebanon.
Now you will be hurt.
You killed many animals there.
And now you must be afraid.
You will be afraid because of what you did to those cities and the people who lived in them.

The Message About Idols

<sup>18</sup>“An idol does no good, because a man made it.
It is only a statue that teaches lies.
The person who made it expects his own work to help him.
But it can’t even speak!

<sup>19</sup>How terrible it will be for the nation that says to a wooden statue, ‘Come to life!’
How terrible it will be when this nation says to a stone that cannot speak, ‘Get up!’
These things cannot tell them what to do.
That idol is only a statue covered with gold and silver.
There is no life in it.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord is in his Holy Temple.<sup>d</sup>

So all the earth should be silent in his presence."

Habakkuk's Prayer

3 This is the prayer of Habakkuk the prophet,<sup>d</sup> on shigionoth.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Lord, I have heard the news about you.

Lord, I am amazed at the powerful things you have done.

Do great things once again in our time.

Make those things happen again in our own days.

Even when you are angry, remember to be gentle with us.

<sup>3</sup>God is coming from Teman in the south.

The Holy One comes from Mount Paran.<sup>n</sup>

The Lord's greatness covers the heavens.

His praise fills the earth.

<sup>4</sup>He is like a bright light.

Rays of light shine from his hand.

And there he hides his power.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord stands and shakes the earth. He looks, and the nations shake with fear.

The mountains, which stood for ages, break into pieces.

The old hills fall down.

God has always done this.

<sup>7</sup>I saw that the tents of Cushan were in trouble.

The tents of Midian trembled.

<sup>8</sup>Lord, were you angry at the rivers?

Were you angry at the streams?

Were you angry with the sea when you rode your horses and chariots to victory?<sup>n</sup>

<sup>9</sup>You uncovered your bow.

You commanded many arrows to be brought to you.

You split the earth with rivers.

<sup>10</sup> The mountains saw you and shook with fear.

The rushing water flowed by.

The sea made a loud noise, and its waves rose high.

<sup>11</sup>The sun and moon stood still in the sky.

They stopped when they saw the flash of your flying arrows.

They stopped when they saw the gleam of your shining spear.

<sup>12</sup>In anger you marched on the earth.

In anger you punished the nations.

<sup>13</sup>You came to save your people.

You came to save your chosen one.

You crushed the leader of the wicked ones.

You took everything away from them. Selah

<sup>14</sup>With the enemy's own spear you stabbed the leader of his army.

His soldiers rushed out like a storm to scatter us.

They were happy as if they were robbing the poor people in secret.

<sup>15</sup>But you marched through the sea with your horses, stirring the great waters.

<sup>16</sup>I hear these things, and my body trembles.

My lips tremble when I hear the sound.

My bones feel weak.

My legs shake.

But I will wait patiently for the day of disaster.

That day is coming to the people who attack us.

<sup>17</sup>Fig trees may not grow figs.

There may be no grapes on the vines.

There may be no olives growing on the trees.

There may be no food growing in the fields.

There may be no sheep in the pens.

There may be no cattle in the barns.

<sup>18</sup>But I will still be glad in the Lord.

I will rejoice in God my Savior.

<sup>19</sup>The Lord God gives me my strength.

He makes me like a deer, which does not stumble.

He leads me safely on the steep mountains.

For the director of music. On my stringed instruments.

<sup>n</sup>Teman . . . Paran God is seen as again coming from the direction of Mount Sinai. He came from Sinai when he rescued his people from Egypt.

<sup>d</sup>sea . . . victory This is probably talking about the Israelites crossing the Red Sea.

ZEPHANIAH

God Will Judge the World

A

1 This is the message of the Lord that came through Zephaniah. It came while Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cushi, who was the son of Gedaliah. Gedaliah was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Hezekiah.

The Lord's Judgment

<sup>2</sup>"I will destroy everything on earth," says the Lord.
<sup>3</sup>"I will destroy the people and animals. I will destroy the birds in the air and the fish of the sea. I will ruin the evil people. I will remove all the people from the earth," says the Lord.

The Future of Judah

<sup>4</sup>"I will punish Judah and all the people living in Jerusalem. I will remove from this place all signs of Baal<sup>a</sup> and his priests.
<sup>5</sup>I will destroy those who worship the stars from the roofs.<sup>a</sup> I will destroy those who worship and make promises by both the Lord and the god Molech.<sup>a</sup>
<sup>6</sup>I will destroy those who turned away from the Lord. They quit following the Lord and consulting him.
<sup>7</sup>Be silent before the Lord God. His day for judging people is coming soon. The Lord has prepared to sacrifice Judah. He has appointed the invited guests to feast on Judah.
<sup>8</sup>On that day the Lord will sacrifice Judah. I, the Lord, will punish the princes and the king's sons. And I will punish all those who wear foreign clothes.
<sup>9</sup>On that day I will punish those who worship Dagon.<sup>a</sup> I will punish those who hurt others and tell lies in the temples of their gods.

<sup>10</sup>"On that day this will happen," says the Lord.

"A cry will be heard at the Fish Gate. A wail will come from the new area of the city.

A loud crash will echo from the hills.

<sup>11</sup>The people living in the market area will wail.

All the merchants will be dead. All the silver traders will be gone.

<sup>12</sup>At that time I, the Lord, will search Jerusalem with lamps.

I will punish those who are settled and satisfied with themselves.

They are like wine left to settle.

They think, 'The Lord never does anything. He won't help us or punish us.'

<sup>13</sup>Their wealth will be stolen.

Their houses will be destroyed.

They may build houses, but they will never live in them.

They may plant vineyards, but they will never drink any wine from them.

The Lord's Day of Judging

<sup>14</sup>"The Lord's day of judging is coming soon.

That great day is near and coming fast.

The cry will be very sad on that day. Even soldiers will cry.

<sup>15</sup>That day will be a day of anger.

It will be a day of terror and trouble.

It will be a day of destruction and ruin.

It will be a day of darkness and gloom.

It will be a day of clouds and blackness.

<sup>16</sup>It will be a day of alarms and battle cries.

'Attack the strong, walled cities!

Attack the corner towers!'

<sup>17</sup>I will make life hard on the people.

They will walk around like blind men.

This is because they have sinned against the Lord.

Their blood will be poured out like dust.

And their bodies will be dumped like trash.

<sup>18</sup>On that day God will show his anger.

<sup>a</sup>roofs In Bible times houses were built with flat roofs. The roof was used for drying things such as flax and fruit. And it was used as an extra room, as a place for worship and as a place to sleep in the summer.

Then neither their silver nor gold will save them.

The Lord's anger will be like fire.
And the whole world will be burned up.
Suddenly he will bring an end to everyone on earth."

God Asks People to Change

2 Gather together, you unwanted people.

<sup>2</sup>Do it before it's too late.

Do it before you are blown away like chaff.<sup>d</sup>

Do it before the Lord's terrible anger reaches you.

Do it before the day of the Lord's anger comes to you.

<sup>3</sup>All you who are not proud, come to the Lord.

You who obey his laws, come to him.

Do what is right. Learn to be humble.

Maybe you will escape
on the day the Lord shows his anger.

Philistia Will Be Punished

<sup>4</sup>No one will be left in the city of Gaza.

The city of Ashkelon will be destroyed.

Ashdod will be empty by noon.

And the people of Ekron will be chased away.

<sup>5</sup>How terrible it will be for you who live by the Mediterranean Sea, you Philistines!

This message from the Lord is for you, people of Canaan, land of the Philistines.

"I will destroy you.

No one will be left."

<sup>6</sup>You live in the land by the Mediterranean Sea.

It will be a place for shepherds and sheep.

<sup>7</sup>Your land will belong to the descendants<sup>d</sup> of Judah who are left alive.

There they will let their sheep eat grass.

At night they will sleep in the houses of Ashkelon.

The Lord their God will come to be with them.

He will give them back their riches.

Moab and Ammon Will Be Punished

<sup>8</sup>"I heard the country of Moab insult my people.

The country of Ammon threatened to take their land."

<sup>9</sup>So the Lord of heaven's armies, the God of Israel, says,

"As surely as I live,

Moab will be destroyed like Sodom.

Ammon will be destroyed like

Gomorrah."<sup>n</sup>

Their land will be covered with weeds and salt.

It will be destroyed forever.

Those of my people who are left alive will take whatever they want from them.

Those who are left from my nation will take their land."

This will happen because they insulted and made fun of the people of the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>11</sup>Those people will be afraid of the Lord.

He will destroy all the gods of the earth.

Then those people in faraway places will worship the Lord in their own countries.

Cush and Assyria Will Be Destroyed

<sup>12</sup>"You Cushites also will be killed by my sword."

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord will turn against the north and punish Assyria.

He will destroy Nineveh.

It will be dry like a desert.

<sup>14</sup>Sheep and goats will lie down there.

Wild animals will live there.

The owls and crows will sit on the stone pillars that are left standing.

Their calls will be heard through the windows.

Trash will be in the doorways.

The wooden boards of the buildings will be gone.

<sup>15</sup>This is the happy and safe city.

It thinks there is no one else as strong as it is.

But that city will be destroyed.

Only animals will stay there.

Those who pass by will make fun and shake their fists.

Jerusalem Will Be Punished

3 How terrible it will be for Jerusalem that hurts its own people.

It's a wicked, stubborn city.

<sup>n</sup>Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities God destroyed because the people were so evil.

<sup>2</sup>Her people don't listen.

They can't be taught to do right.

They don't trust the Lord.

They don't worship their God.

<sup>3</sup>Their officers are like roaring lions.

Their rulers are like hungry wolves that attack in the evening.

In the morning nothing is left of those they attacked.

<sup>4</sup>Their prophets<sup>d</sup> are proud.

They cannot be trusted.

Their priests don't respect holy things.

They break God's teachings.

<sup>5</sup>But the Lord is good, and he is there in that city.

He does no wrong.

Every morning he governs the people fairly.

Every day he can be trusted by his people.

But evil people are not ashamed of the bad things they do.

<sup>6</sup>"I have destroyed other nations.

Their towers have fallen.

I made their streets empty.

No one goes there anymore.

Their cities are ruined.

No one lives there anymore.

<sup>7</sup>I said, "Maybe now Jerusalem will respect me.

Maybe now my people will let me teach them to do right."

Then the place where they lived would not be destroyed.

Then I would not have punished them.

They got up early in order to do evil.

Everything they did was bad.

<sup>8</sup>Just wait," says the Lord.

"Some day I will hold court and be the judge.

I will gather nations.

I will assemble kingdoms.

I will pour out my anger on them.

My anger will be very strong.

My anger will be like fire.

And the whole world will be burned up.

A New Day for God's People

<sup>9</sup>"Then I will make the people of all nations speak a pure language.

All of them will speak the name of the Lord.

And they will worship me together.

<sup>10</sup>People will come from where the Nile River begins.

My scattered people will come with gifts for me.

<sup>11</sup>Then Jerusalem will not be ashamed of the wrongs done against me.

I will remove from this city those who like to brag.

There will never be any more proud people on my holy mountain in Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup>Only the meek and humble will stay in my city.

And they will trust in the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Those who are left alive of Israel won't do wrong.

They won't tell lies.

They won't trick people with their words.

They will be like sheep that eat and lie down.

No one will bother them."

A Happy Song

<sup>14</sup>Sing, Jerusalem.

Israel, shout for joy!

Jerusalem, be happy.

Rejoice with all your heart.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord has stopped punishing you.

He has sent your enemies away.

The King of Israel, the Lord, is with you.

You will never again be afraid of being harmed.

<sup>16</sup>On that day Jerusalem will be told,

"Don't be afraid, city of Jerusalem.

Don't be so discouraged that you can't do anything.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord your God is with you.

The mighty One will save you.

The Lord will be happy with you.

You will rest in his love.

He will sing and be joyful about you."

<sup>18</sup>"I will take away the sadness planned for you.

It would have made you very ashamed.

<sup>19</sup>At that time I will punish all those who harmed you.

I will save my people who are hurt.

I will gather my people who are scattered.

I will give them praise and honor in every place where they were disgraced.

<sup>20</sup>At that time I will gather you.

At that time I will bring you back home.

I will give you honor and praise from people everywhere.

That will happen when I give you back your riches.

You will see this with your own eyes," says the Lord.

HAGGAI

The Temple Is Rebuilt

It Is Time to Build the Temple

1 The prophet<sup>d</sup> Haggai spoke the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel and to Joshua. Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel was governor of Judah. Joshua son of Jehozadak was high priest. This message came in the second year that Darius was king of Persia. It came on the first day of the sixth month of that year. This was the message:

<sup>2</sup>“This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: ‘The people say the right time has not come to rebuild the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord.’”

<sup>3</sup>Then Haggai the prophet spoke the word of the Lord: <sup>4</sup>“The Temple is still in ruins. Is it right for you to be living in fancy houses?”

<sup>5</sup>This is why the Lord of heaven’s armies says: <sup>6</sup>“Think about what you have done. <sup>6</sup>You have planted much, but you harvest little. You eat, but you do not become full. You drink, but you are still thirsty. You put on clothes, but you are not warm enough. You earn money, but then you lose it all. It is as if you put it into a purse full of holes.”

<sup>7</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: <sup>8</sup>“Think about what you have done. <sup>8</sup>Go up to the mountains. Bring back wood and build the Temple. Then I will be pleased with it and be honored,” says the Lord. <sup>9</sup>The Lord of heaven’s armies says: <sup>9</sup>“You look for much, but you find little. When you bring it home, I destroy it. Why? Because you are busy working on your own houses. But my house is still in ruins! <sup>10</sup>Because of what you have done, the sky holds back its rain. And the ground holds back its crops.<sup>d</sup> <sup>11</sup>I have called for a dry time in the land. There will be no rain in the mountains for the grain, new wine and olive oil. It will be a dry time for the plants which the earth produces. It will be a dry time for men and farm animals. The dry time will make your hard work useless.”

<sup>12</sup>Zerubbabel was the son of Shealtiel. And Joshua, the high priest, was the son of Jehozadak. Zerubbabel and Joshua obeyed the Lord their God. And they obeyed the message from Haggai the prophet. All the rest of the people who were left alive also obeyed. This was because they realized that the Lord their God had sent Haggai. And they feared the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord sent a message to Haggai, the Lord’s messenger. Haggai gave this message to the people. He said: <sup>14</sup>“The Lord says, ‘I am with you.’” <sup>14</sup>The Lord made Zerubbabel and Joshua excited about building the Temple. Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel was the governor of Judah. Joshua son of Jehozadak was the high priest. The Lord made all the rest of the people who were left alive excited, too. They came and worked on the Temple of their God, the Lord of heaven’s armies. <sup>15</sup>They began on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month. This was in the second year that Darius was king of Persia.

The Beauty of the Temple

2 The Lord spoke his word through Haggai the prophet<sup>d</sup> on the twenty-first day of the seventh month. This is what the Lord said: <sup>2</sup>“Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah. Speak also to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. And speak to the rest of the people who were left alive. Say: <sup>3</sup>‘Do any of you who are still alive remember how beautiful the Temple<sup>d</sup> was before it was destroyed? What does it look like now? The truth is it means nothing to you!’ <sup>4</sup>But the Lord says: ‘Zerubbabel, be brave. Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, be brave. And all you people who live in the land, be brave,’ says the Lord. ‘Work, because I am with you,’ says the Lord of heaven’s armies. <sup>5</sup>I made a promise to you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit<sup>d</sup> is still with you. So don’t be afraid.’

<sup>6</sup>“This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: ‘In a short time I will shake the heavens and earth once again. And I will shake the sea and the dry land. <sup>7</sup>I will shake all the nations. All the nations will bring their wealth. Then I will fill this Temple with glory,’ says the Lord of heaven’s armies. <sup>8</sup>‘The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,’ says the Lord of heaven’s armies. <sup>9</sup>‘The new Temple will be more beautiful than the one that was destroyed,’ says the Lord of heaven’s armies. ‘And in this place I will give peace to the people,’ says the Lord of heaven’s armies.”

<sup>10</sup>The Lord spoke his word to Haggai the prophet. This was on the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. It was in the second year that Darius was king of Persia. This is what the Lord said: <sup>11</sup>“This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: ‘Ask the priests what the teachings say. <sup>12</sup>A person might carry meat made holy for the Lord in the fold of his clothes. And that fold might touch bread, cooked food, wine, olive oil or some other food. Will the thing the fold touches be made holy for the Lord, too?’”

The priests answered, “No.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, “A person who touches a dead body will become unclean.<sup>d</sup> If he touches any of these foods, will it become unclean, too?”

The priests answered, “Yes. It would become unclean.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Haggai answered, “The Lord says this: ‘This is also true for the people of this nation. They are unclean, and everything they do with their hands is unclean to me. If these people offer something at the altar to me, it is also unclean.’

<sup>15</sup>“Think about this from now on! Think about how it was before you started piling stones on top of stones. Think about how it was before you started building the Temple of the Lord. <sup>16</sup>A person used to come to a pile of grain expecting to find 20 basketfuls. But there were only 10. And a person used to come to the wine vat to take out 50 jarfuls. But only 20 were there. <sup>17</sup>I destroyed your work with diseases, mildew<sup>d</sup> and hail. But you still did not come to me.’ The Lord says this. <sup>18</sup>It is the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. On this day the people finished working on the foundation of the Temple of the Lord. From now on, think about these things: <sup>19</sup>Do you have seeds for your crops already in the barn? No! Your vines and trees are not giving fruit yet, either. You don’t have any figs, pomegranates<sup>d</sup> or olives yet. But from now on I will bless you!’”

The Lord Makes a Promise to Zerubbabel

<sup>20</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word a second time to Haggai. It was on the twenty-fourth day of the month. This is what the Lord said: <sup>21</sup>“Tell Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah: ‘I am going to shake the heavens and the earth. <sup>22</sup>I will destroy the foreign kingdoms. I will take away the power of the kingdoms of the nations. I will destroy the chariots and their riders. The horses will fall with their riders. People will kill each other with swords.’ <sup>23</sup>The Lord of heaven’s armies says this: ‘On that day I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant.’ The Lord says this: ‘I will make you important like my signet<sup>d</sup> ring. This is because I have chosen you!’ says the Lord of heaven’s armies.”

ZECHARIAH

Encouraging the People

The Lord Calls His People Back

1 It was the eighth month of the second year Darius was king of Persia. The Lord spoke his word to the prophet<sup>a</sup> Zechariah son of Berechiah. Berechiah was the son of Iddo. The Lord said:

<sup>2</sup>“The Lord was very angry with your ancestors. <sup>3</sup>So tell the people: This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: Return to me, and I will return to you. <sup>4</sup>Don’t be like your ancestors. In the past the prophets spoke to them. They said: This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: ‘Stop your evil ways and evil actions.’ But they wouldn’t listen or pay attention to me, says the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Your ancestors are dead. And those prophets didn’t live forever. <sup>6</sup>I commanded my words and laws to my servants the prophets. They preached to your ancestors, who returned to me. They said, ‘The Lord of heaven’s armies did as he said he would. He punished us for the way we lived and for what we did.’”

The Vision of the Horses

<sup>7</sup>It was on the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is called Shebat. It was Darius’s second year as king. The Lord spoke his word to the prophet<sup>a</sup> Zechariah son of Berechiah. Berechiah was the son of Iddo.

<sup>8</sup>During the night I had a vision. I saw a man riding a red horse. He was standing among some myrtle trees in the ravine. Behind him were red, brown and white horses.

<sup>9</sup>I asked, “What are these, sir?”

The angel who was talking with me answered. He said, “I’ll show you what they are.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained. He said, “They are the ones the Lord sent through all the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>Then they spoke to the Lord’s angel. He was standing among the myrtle trees. They said, “We have gone through all the earth. Everything is calm and quiet.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord’s angel asked, “Lord of heaven’s armies, how long before you show mercy to Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? You have been angry with them for 70 years now.” <sup>13</sup>Then the Lord answered the angel who was talking with me. His words were comforting and good.

<sup>14</sup>Then the angel told me, “Announce this: This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: ‘I have a strong love for Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>And I am very angry with the nations that feel so safe. I was only a little angry, but they made things worse for my people.’

<sup>16</sup>“So this is what the Lord says: ‘I will return to Jerusalem with mercy. My Temple<sup>d</sup> will be rebuilt,’ says the Lord of heaven’s armies. ‘And the measuring line will be used to rebuild Jerusalem.’

<sup>17</sup>“Also announce: This is what the Lord of heaven’s armies says: ‘My towns will be rich again. I will comfort Jerusalem again. I will still choose Jerusalem.’”

The Vision of the Horns

<sup>18</sup>Then I looked up and saw four animal horns. <sup>19</sup>I asked the angel who was talking with me, “What are these?”

He said, “These are the strong nations that scattered the people of Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the Lord showed me four craftsmen. <sup>21</sup>I asked, “What are they coming to do?”

He answered, “They have come to scare and throw down the horns. Those horns scattered the people of Judah. No one could even lift up his head. The horns stand for the strong nations that attacked the people of Judah and scattered them.”

The Vision of the Measuring Line

2 Then I looked up. And I saw a man holding a line for measuring things. <sup>21</sup>I asked him, “Where are you going?”

He said to me, “I am going to measure Jerusalem. I will see how wide and how long it is.”

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel who was talking with me left. And another angel came out to meet him. <sup>4</sup>The second angel said to him, “Run and tell that young man this: ‘Jerusalem will become a city without walls because there will be so many people and cattle in it. <sup>5</sup>I will be a wall of fire around it,’ says the Lord. ‘And I will be the glory within it.’

<sup>6</sup>“Hurry! Run away from Babylon. I have scattered you in all directions,” says the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>"Hurry, people of Jerusalem! Escape from Babylon." <sup>8</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "Whoever hurts you hurts what is precious to me."

So the Lord will honor me. And he will send me to speak against those nations who scattered you. <sup>9</sup>"I will raise my hand against them. Their slaves will rob them."

Then you will know that the Lord of heaven's armies sent me.

<sup>10</sup>"Shout and be glad, Jerusalem. I am coming, and I will live among you," says the Lord. <sup>11</sup>"At that time people from many nations will come to the Lord. And they will become my people. I will live among you. And you will know that the Lord of heaven's armies has sent me to you. <sup>12</sup>Judah will be the Lord's special part of the holy land. And Jerusalem will be his chosen city again. <sup>13</sup>Be silent, everyone. The Lord is coming out of the holy place where he lives."

The Vision of the High Priest

3 Then he showed me Joshua the high priest. He was standing in front of the Lord's angel. And Satan was standing by Joshua's right side to accuse him. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to Satan, "The Lord says you are guilty, Satan. The Lord who has chosen Jerusalem says you are guilty. This man was like a burning stick pulled from the fire."

<sup>3</sup>Joshua was standing in front of the angel. And Joshua was wearing dirty clothes. <sup>4</sup>Then the angel spoke to those standing near him. He said, "Take those dirty clothes off Joshua."

Then the angel said to Joshua, "Look, I have taken away your sin. And I am giving you new clothes." <sup>5</sup>Then I said, "Put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head. They also dressed him while the Lord's angel stood there.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord's angel said to Joshua, "This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: <sup>7</sup>'Do as I tell you and serve me. Then you will be in charge of my Temple. <sup>8</sup>You will take care of my courtyards. And I will let you be with these angels who are standing here.

<sup>8</sup>"Listen, high priest Joshua and the people with you. You stand for things that will happen. I am going to bring my servant called the Branch. <sup>9</sup>Look, I put this stone in front of Joshua. The stone has seven sides. I will carve a message on it," says the Lord of heaven's armies. "And in one day I will take away the sin of this land."

<sup>10</sup>"The Lord of heaven's armies says, 'In that day, each of you will invite your neighbor to join you. And you will sit together under your own grapevine and under your own fig tree.'"

The Vision of the Lampstand

4 Then the angel who was talking with me came back. He woke me up as if I had been asleep. <sup>2</sup>He asked me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a solid gold lampstand. There is a bowl at the top. And there are seven lamps. There are also seven places for wicks. <sup>3</sup>There are two olive trees by it. One is on the right of the bowl. And one is on the left."

<sup>4</sup>I asked the angel who talked with me, "Sir, what are these?"

<sup>5</sup>The angel said, "Don't you know what they are?"

"No, sir," I said.

<sup>6</sup>Then he told me, "This is the message from the Lord to Zerubbabel: 'You will not succeed by your own strength or power. The power will come from my Spirit,'<sup>d</sup> says the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>7</sup>"No mountain can stand in Zerubbabel's way. It will be flattened. Then he will bring out the topmost stone. There will be shouts of 'It's beautiful! It's beautiful!'"

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord spoke his word to me again. He said: <sup>9</sup>"Zerubbabel has laid the foundation of this Temple. <sup>4</sup>He will also complete it. Then you will know that the Lord of heaven's armies has sent me to you.

<sup>10</sup>"The people should not think that small beginnings are unimportant. They will be happy when they see Zerubbabel with tools, building the Temple.

"(These seven lamps stand for the eyes of the Lord. They look back and forth across the earth.)"

<sup>11</sup>Then I asked the angel, "What are the two olive trees on the right and left of the lampstand?"

<sup>12</sup>I also asked him, "What are the two branches full of olives? The olive oil flows through the two gold pipes to the lamps."

<sup>13</sup>He answered, "Don't you know what they are?"

"No, sir," I said.

<sup>14</sup>So he said, "They stand for two men. They have been appointed to serve the Lord of all the earth."

The Vision of the Flying Scroll

5 I looked up again. And I saw a flying scroll. <sup>2</sup>The angel asked me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a flying scroll. It is 30 feet long and 15 feet wide."

<sup>3</sup>And he said to me, "This is the curse that will go all over the land. One side says every thief will be sent away. The other side says everyone who makes false promises will be sent away. <sup>4</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says, 'I will send it to the houses of thieves. I will also send it to those who use my name to make false promises. The scroll will stay in that person's house. And it will destroy the house with its wood and stones.'"

The Vision of the Woman

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who was talking with me came forward. He said to me, "Look up and see what is coming."

<sup>6</sup>I asked, "What is it?"

He answered, "It is a measuring basket." He also said, "It stands for the people's sins in all the land."

<sup>7</sup>Then the lid made of lead was raised. There was a woman sitting in the basket. <sup>8</sup>The angel said, "The woman stands for wickedness." Then he pushed her back into the basket. And he put the lid back down.

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked up. I saw two women. They had wind in their wings. Their wings were like those of a stork. They lifted up the basket into the sky.

<sup>10</sup>I spoke to the angel who was talking with me. I asked, "Where are they taking the basket?"

<sup>11</sup>He answered, "They are going to Babylon. They will build a temple for it. When the temple is ready, they will set the basket there in its place."

The Vision of the Four Chariots

6 I looked up again. I saw four chariots coming from between two mountains. They were mountains of bronze. <sup>2</sup>Red horses pulled the first chariot. Black horses pulled the second chariot. <sup>3</sup>White horses pulled the third chariot. And strong, spotted horses pulled the fourth chariot. <sup>4</sup>I spoke to the angel who was talking with me. I asked, "What are these, sir?"

He said, "These are going to the four directions on earth. They have just come from the presence of the Lord of the whole world. <sup>6</sup>The chariot pulled by the black horses will go north. The white horses will go west. And the spotted horses will go south."

<sup>7</sup>The powerful horses were trying to go through all the earth. So he said, "Go through all the earth." And they did.

<sup>8</sup>Then he called to me, "Look. The horses that went north have calmed the Lord's anger that came from there to punish."

A Crown for Joshua

<sup>9</sup>The Lord spoke his word to me. He said: <sup>10</sup>"Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah were captives in Babylon. Get silver and gold from them. Go that same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup>Make the silver and gold into a crown. And put it on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak. Joshua is the high priest. <sup>12</sup>Tell him this is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: 'There is a man whose name is the Branch. He will branch out from where he is. He will build the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord. <sup>13</sup>One man<sup>a</sup> will build the Temple of the Lord. And the other<sup>a</sup> will receive the honor of a king. One man will sit on his throne and rule. And the other will be a priest on his throne. And these two men will work together in peace.' <sup>14</sup>The crown will be kept in the Temple of the Lord. It will remind Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah and Josiah son of Zephaniah of God's king. <sup>15</sup>People living far away will come and build the Temple of the Lord. Then you will know the Lord of heaven's armies has sent me to you. This will happen if you completely obey the Lord your God."

The People Should Show Mercy

7 It was the fourth year of King Darius's rule. It was on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is called Kislev. The Lord spoke his word to Zechariah. <sup>2</sup>The city of Bethel sent Sharezer, Regem-Melech and their men to ask the Lord a question. <sup>3</sup>They went to the prophets<sup>d</sup> and priests. They were at the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord of heaven's armies. The men said, "For years the fifth month of each year has been a special time for us. We have shown our sadness and gone without food in this month. Should we continue to do this?"

<sup>4</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies spoke his word to me. He said, <sup>5</sup>"Tell the priests and the people in the country this: 'For 70 years you went without food and cried in the fifth and seventh months. But that was not really for me. <sup>6</sup>And when you ate and drank, it was really for yourselves. <sup>7</sup>The Lord used the earlier prophets to say the same thing. Jerusalem and the surrounding towns were at peace and wealthy then. People lived in the southern area and the western mountain slopes.'"

<sup>8</sup>And the Lord spoke his word to Zechariah again: <sup>9</sup>"This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: 'Do what is right and fair. Be kind and merciful to each other. <sup>10</sup>Don't hurt widows and orphans, foreigners or the poor. Don't even think of doing evil to somebody else.'

<sup>11</sup>"But they refused to pay attention. They were stubborn and would not listen. <sup>12</sup>They made their hearts as hard as rock. They would not listen to the teachings of the Lord of heaven's armies. And they would not hear his words through the earlier prophets. So the Lord of heaven's armies became very angry.

<sup>13</sup>"The Lord of heaven's armies says, 'When I called to them, they would not listen. So when they called to me, I would not listen. <sup>14</sup>I scattered them like a hurricane to other countries. These were countries they did not know. This good land was left so ruined that no one could live there.'"

The Lord Will Bless Jerusalem

8 The Lord of heaven's armies spoke his word to me again. <sup>2</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "I have a very strong love for Jerusalem. My strong love for her is like a fire burning in me."

<sup>3</sup>This is what the Lord says: "I will return to Jerusalem. I will live in Jerusalem. Then it will be called the City of Truth. And the mountain of the Lord of heaven's armies will be called the Holy Mountain."

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "Old men and old women will again sit along Jerusalem's streets. Each will carry a cane because of his age. <sup>5</sup>And the streets will be filled with boys and girls playing."

<sup>6</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "Those who are left alive then may think it is too difficult to happen. But it is not too difficult for me," says the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>7</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "I will save my people from countries in the east and west. <sup>8</sup>I will bring them back. And they will live in Jerusalem. They will be my people. And I will be their good and loyal God."

<sup>9</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "Be strong, you who are hearing these words today. The prophets spoke these words when the foundation was laid for the building of the Temple. <sup>10</sup>Before that time there was no money to hire men or animals. People could not safely come and go because of the enemies. I had turned everyone against his neighbor. <sup>11</sup>But I will not do to these people who are left alive what I did in the past," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>12</sup>"Their seeds will come up. Their grapevines will have fruit. The ground will give good crops. And the sky will send rain. I will give all this to those who are left alive. <sup>13</sup>Judah and Israel, your names have been used as curses. But I will save you. And you will be a blessing. So don't be afraid. Be strong."

<sup>14</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "Your ancestors made me angry. So I planned to punish you. I had no mercy," says the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>15</sup>"But now I am planning to do good to Jerusalem and Judah. So don't be afraid. <sup>16</sup>But do these things: Tell each other the truth. In the courts judge with truth and complete fairness. <sup>17</sup>Do not make plans to hurt your neighbors. And don't make false promises. I hate all these things," says the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies spoke his word to me again. <sup>19</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "You have special days when you give up eating. These days are in the fourth, fifth, seventh and tenth months. Those days will become good, joyful, happy feasts in Judah. But you must love truth and peace."

<sup>20</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "Many people from many cities will still come to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>People from one city will say to those from another city, 'We are going to pray to the Lord. We want to ask the Lord of heaven's armies for help. Come and go with us.' <sup>22</sup>Many people and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem. They will worship the Lord of heaven's armies. They will pray to the Lord."

<sup>23</sup>This is what the Lord of heaven's armies says: "At that time, ten men from different countries with different languages will come. They will take hold of one Jew by his coat. They will say to him, 'Let us go with you. We have heard that God is with you.'"

Punishment on Israel's Enemies

9 This message is the word of the Lord.

The message is against the land of Hadrach.

And it is against the city of Damascus.

The tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel and all people belong to the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord's message is also against the city of Hamath, which is on the border of the land of Hadrach.

The Lord's message is against Tyre and Sidon, with their skill.

<sup>3</sup>Tyre has built a strong, walled city.

The people have piled up silver like dust.

- They have as much gold as mud in the streets.
- <sup>4</sup>But the Lord will take away all she has.
He will destroy her power on the sea.
That city will be destroyed by fire.
- <sup>5</sup>The city of Ashkelon will see it and be afraid.
The people of Gaza will shake with fear.
And the people of Ekron will lose hope.
No king will be left in Gaza.
And no one will live in Ashkelon anymore.
- <sup>6</sup>Foreigners will live in Ashdod.
And I will destroy the pride of the Philistines.
- <sup>7</sup>I will stop them from drinking blood.
They will not eat any other forbidden food.
Those left alive will belong to God.
They will be leaders in Judah.
And Ekron will become part of my people like the Jebusites.
- <sup>8</sup>I will protect my Temple<sup>d</sup> from armies who come and go.
No one will hurt my people again because now I am guarding it.

The King Is Coming

- <sup>9</sup>Rejoice, people of Jerusalem.
Shout for joy, people of Jerusalem.
Your king is coming to you.
He does what is right, and he saves.
He is gentle and riding on a donkey.
He is on the colt of a donkey.
- <sup>10</sup>I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the horses from Jerusalem.
The bows used in war will be broken.
The king will talk to the nations about peace.
His kingdom will go from sea to sea, and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.
- <sup>11</sup>My people, I made an agreement with you and sealed it with the blood of sacrifices.
Because of this, I will set your prisoners free from captivity,
which is like a dry pit.
- <sup>12</sup>You prisoners who have hope, return to your place of safety.
Today I am telling you that I will give you back twice as much as before.
- <sup>13</sup>I will use Judah like a bow.
And Ephraim will be like the arrows.
Jerusalem, I will use your men to fight the men of Greece.

I will make you like the sword of a warrior.

- <sup>14</sup>Then the Lord will appear to them.
He will shoot his arrows like lightning.
The Lord God will blow the trumpet.
And he will march in the storms of the south.
- <sup>15</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies will protect them.
They will destroy the enemy with slingshots.
They will drink and shout like drunk men.
They will be filled like a bowl used for sprinkling blood at the corners of the altar.
- <sup>16</sup>On that day the Lord their God will save them as if his people were sheep.
They will shine in his land like jewels in a crown.
- <sup>17</sup>They will be so pretty and beautiful.
The young men will grow strong on the grain.
And the young women will grow strong on new wine.

The Lord's Promises

- 10 Ask the Lord for rain in the springtime.
The Lord makes the clouds.
He sends the showers.
And he gives everyone green fields.
- <sup>2</sup>Idols tell lies.
Fortune-tellers see false visions.
They tell about false dreams.
The comfort they give is worth nothing.
So the people are like lost sheep.
They are abused because there is no shepherd.
- <sup>3</sup>The Lord says, "I am angry at my shepherds.
I will punish the leaders.
I, the Lord of heaven's armies, will care for my flock, which is the people of Judah.
I will make them like my proud war horses.
- <sup>4</sup>From Judah will come the cornerstone<sup>d</sup> and the tent peg.
From him will come the battle bow.
From him will come every ruler.
- <sup>5</sup>They will be like soldiers marching to battle through muddy streets.
The Lord is with them.

So they will fight and defeat the horsemen.

<sup>6</sup>"I will strengthen the people of Judah.
And I will save the people of Joseph.

I will bring them back because I care for them.

It will be as though

I had never left them.

I am the Lord their God,
and I will answer their calls for help.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Ephraim will be strong like soldiers.

They will be glad as when they have drunk wine.

Their children will see it and rejoice.

They will be happy in the Lord.

<sup>8</sup>I will call my people and gather them together.

I will save them.

And there will be as many of them as there used to be.

<sup>9</sup>I have scattered them among the nations.
But in those faraway places, they will remember me.

They and their children will live and return.

<sup>10</sup>I will bring them back from Egypt.

I will gather them from Assyria.

I will bring them to Gilead and Lebanon.

There won't be enough room in the land for them all.

<sup>11</sup>They will come through their sea of trouble.

The waves of the sea will be calm.

And the Nile River will dry up.

I will defeat Assyria's pride.

I will destroy Egypt's power over other countries.

<sup>12</sup>I will make my people strong.

And they will live as I say," says the Lord.

11 Lebanon, open your gates so fire may burn your cedar trees.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Cry, pine trees, because the cedar has fallen.

The tall trees are ruined.

Cry, oaks in Bashan,

because the mighty forest has been cut down.

<sup>3</sup>Listen to the shepherds crying.

Their rich pastures are destroyed.

Listen to the lions roaring.

The thick bushes near the Jordan River are ruined.

The Two Shepherds

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord my God says: "Feed the sheep that are about to be killed. <sup>5</sup>Their buyers kill them and are not punished. Those who sell them say, 'Praise the Lord. I am rich.' Even the shepherds don't feel sorry for their sheep. <sup>6</sup>Even I don't feel sorry anymore for the people of this country," says the Lord. "I will let everyone be under the power of his neighbor and king. They will bring trouble to the country. And I will not stop them."

<sup>7</sup>So I fed the sheep about to be killed, particularly the weakest ones. Then I took two sticks. I called one Favor. I called the other Union. And I fed the sheep. <sup>8</sup>In one month I got rid of three shepherds. The flock hated me, and I got impatient with them. <sup>9</sup>I said, "I will no longer take care of you like a shepherd. Let those that are dying die. Let those that are to be destroyed be destroyed. Let those that are left eat each other."

<sup>10</sup>Then I broke the stick named Favor. This broke the agreement God made with his people. <sup>11</sup>That day it was broken. Those weak sheep were watching me. They knew this message was from the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Then I said, "If you want to pay me, then pay me. If not, then don't." So they paid me 30 pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord said to me, "Throw the money to the potter." That is how little they thought I was worth.<sup>a</sup> So I threw the money to the potter in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>Then I broke the second stick named Union. This broke the tie between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup>Then the Lord said to me, "Become a foolish shepherd again. <sup>16</sup>I am going to get a new shepherd for the country. He will not care for the dying sheep. He will not look for the young one. He will not heal the injured ones. He will not feed the healthy. But he will eat the best sheep and tear off their hoofs.

<sup>17</sup>"How terrible it will be for the useless shepherd.

He abandoned the flock.

May war destroy his power and wisdom.

May his power become useless.

May his wisdom be taken away."

<sup>a</sup>worth Thirty pieces of silver was a small amount. It was about the price paid for a slave.

Jerusalem Will Be Saved

12 This message is the word of the Lord to Israel. The Lord stretched out the skies. He laid the foundations of the earth. He put man's spirit in him. And the Lord says this: <sup>2</sup>"I will make Jerusalem like a cup of poison to the nations around her. They will come and attack Jerusalem and Judah. <sup>3</sup>One day all the nations on earth will come together to attack Jerusalem. But I will make Jerusalem like a heavy rock. Anyone who tries to move it will get hurt. <sup>4</sup>At that time I will scare every horse. And its rider will panic," says the Lord. "I will watch over Judah. But I will blind all the horses of the enemies. <sup>5</sup>Then the leaders of Judah will say to themselves, 'The people of Jerusalem are strong. This is because the Lord of heaven's armies is their God.'

<sup>6</sup>"At that time I will make the leaders of Judah like a fire burning a stack of wood. They will be like a fire burning straw. They will destroy all the people around them left and right. But Jerusalem will remain safe.

<sup>7</sup>"The Lord will save the people of Judah first. Then the people in Jerusalem, David's city, won't have more honor than Judah. <sup>8</sup>At that time the Lord will protect the people in Jerusalem. Then even the weakest of them will be strong like David. And the family of David will be like God. They will be like an angel of the Lord leading the people. <sup>9</sup>At that time I will go to destroy all the nations that attack Jerusalem.

Crying for the One They Stabbed

<sup>10</sup>"I will give David's family and people in Jerusalem a spirit of kindness and mercy. They will look at me, the one they have stabbed. And they will cry like someone crying over the death of an only child. They will be as sad as someone who has lost a firstborn<sup>d</sup> son. <sup>11</sup>At that time there will be much crying in Jerusalem. It will be like the crying for Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. <sup>12</sup>The land will cry. Each family will cry alone. The family of David and their wives will cry. The family of Nathan and their wives will cry. <sup>13</sup>The family of Levi and their wives will cry. The family of Shimei and their wives will cry. <sup>14</sup>And all the rest of the families and their wives will cry.

13 "At that time a fountain will be opened. It will be for David's descendants<sup>d</sup> and for the people of Jerusalem. It will cleanse them of their sins and wrongs."

<sup>2</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says, "At that time I will get rid of the names of the idols from the land. No one will remember them anymore. I will also remove the prophets<sup>d</sup> and unclean<sup>d</sup> spirits. <sup>3</sup>A person might continue to prophesy. If he does, his own father and mother will tell him, 'You have told lies using the Lord's name. So you must die.' When he prophesies, his own parents should stab him.

<sup>4</sup>"At that time the prophets will be ashamed of their visions and prophecies. They won't wear the prophet's clothes made of hair to trick people. <sup>5</sup>They will say, 'I am not a prophet. I am a farmer. I have been a farmer since I was young.' <sup>6</sup>But someone will ask, 'What are the deep cuts on your body?' And he will answer, 'I was hurt at my friend's house.'

The Shepherd Is Killed

<sup>7</sup>"Sword, hit the shepherd.

Attack the man who is my friend," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

"Kill the shepherd, and the sheep will scatter. I will punish the little ones."

<sup>8</sup>The Lord says, "Two-thirds of the people through all the land will die.

And one-third will be left.

<sup>9</sup>I will test the ones left with fire.

I will purify them like silver.

I will test them like gold.

Then they will call on me.

And I will answer them.

I will say, 'You are my people.'

And they will say, 'The Lord is our God.' "

The Day of Punishment

14 The Lord's day of judging is coming. The wealth you have taken will be divided among you.

<sup>2</sup>I will bring all the nations together to fight Jerusalem. They will capture the city and rob the houses. The women will be attacked. Half the people will be taken away as captives. But the rest won't be taken from the city.

<sup>3</sup>Then the Lord will go to war against those nations. He will fight as in a day of battle. <sup>4</sup>On that day he will stand on the Mount of Olives,<sup>d</sup> east of Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives will split in two. A deep valley will run east and west. Half the mountain will move north. And half will move south. <sup>5</sup>You will run through this mountain valley to the other side. You will run as you ran from the earthquake. That was when Uzziah was king of Judah. Then the Lord my God will come. And all the holy ones will be with him.

<sup>6</sup>On that day there will be no light, cold or frost. <sup>7</sup>There will be no other day like it. The Lord knows when it will come. There will be no day or night. Even at evening it will still be light.

<sup>8</sup>At that time fresh water will flow from Jerusalem. Half of it will flow east to the Dead Sea.<sup>d</sup> And half of it will flow west to the Mediterranean Sea. It will flow summer and winter.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord will be king over the whole world. At that time there will be only one Lord. And his name will be the only name.

<sup>10</sup>All the land south of Jerusalem from Geba to Rimmon will be turned into a plain. Jerusalem will be raised up. But it will stay in the same place. The city will reach from the Benjamin Gate to the First Gate to the Corner Gate. It will go from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.<sup>d</sup> <sup>11</sup>People will live there. It will never be destroyed again. Jerusalem will be safe.

<sup>12</sup>But the Lord will punish the nations that fought against Jerusalem. He will bring a terrible disease on them. Their flesh will rot away while they are still standing up. Their eyes will rot in their sockets. And their tongues will rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup>At that time the Lord will cause panic. Everybody will grab his neighbor. They will attack each other. <sup>14</sup>The people of Judah will fight in Jerusalem. And the wealth of the nations around them will be collected. There will be much gold, silver and clothes. <sup>15</sup>A similar disease will strike the horses, mules, camels and donkeys. All the animals in the camps will have the disease.

<sup>16</sup>Some of the people who came to fight Jerusalem will be left alive. They will come back to Jerusalem year after year. They will come to worship the King, the Lord of heaven's armies. They will celebrate the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Shelters.

<sup>17</sup>Some people from the nations might not go to Jerusalem. They might not worship the King, the Lord of heaven's armies. Then rain will not fall on their land. <sup>18</sup>The Egyptians might not go to Jerusalem. They might not celebrate the Feast of Shelters. Then the Lord will send them the same terrible disease the other nations got. <sup>19</sup>This will be the punishment. It will be for Egypt and any nation which does not go to celebrate the Feast of Shelters.

<sup>20</sup>At that time the horses' bells will have written on them: Holy to the Lord. The cooking pots in the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord will be like the holy altar bowls. <sup>21</sup>Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the Lord of heaven's armies. And everyone who offers sacrifices will be able to cook in them. At that time there will not be any traders in the Temple of the Lord of heaven's armies.

MALACHI

God Tells Israel to Be Loyal

1 This message is the word of the Lord. It is given to Israel through Malachi.

God Loves Israel

<sup>2</sup>The Lord said, "I love you."

But you ask, "How have you loved us?"

The Lord said, "Esau and Jacob were brothers. I loved Jacob, <sup>3</sup>but I hated Esau. I destroyed his mountain country. I left his land to the wild dogs of the desert."

<sup>4</sup>The people of Edom might say, "We were destroyed. But we will go back and rebuild the ruins."

But the Lord of heaven's armies says, "If they rebuild them, I will destroy them. People will say, 'Edom is the Wicked Country. The Lord is always angry with the Edomites.'<sup>5</sup>You will see these things with your own eyes. You will say, 'The Lord is great, even outside the borders of Israel!'"

The Priests Don't Respect God

<sup>6</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says, "A child honors his father. A servant honors his master. I am a father. So why don't you honor me? I am a master. So why don't you respect me? You priests do not respect me.

"But you ask, 'How have we shown you disrespect?'"

<sup>7</sup>"You have shown it by bringing unclean<sup>d</sup> sacrifices to my altar.

"But you ask, 'What makes them unclean?'"

"They are unclean because you don't show respect for my altar. <sup>8</sup>You bring blind animals as sacrifices, and that is wrong. You bring crippled and sick animals. That is wrong. Try giving them to your governor. Would he be pleased with you? He wouldn't accept you," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>9</sup>"Now ask God to be kind to you. But he won't accept you with such offerings," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>10</sup>"I wish one of you would close the Temple<sup>d</sup> doors. Then you would not light useless fires on my altar! I am not pleased with you. I will not accept your gifts," says the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>11</sup>"From the east to the west I will be honored among the nations. Everywhere they will bring incense<sup>d</sup> and clean offerings to me. I will be honored among the nations," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>12</sup>"But you don't honor me. You say about the Lord's altar, 'It is unclean. The food has no worth.'<sup>13</sup>You say, 'We are tired of doing this.' And you sniff at it in disgust," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

"And you bring hurt, crippled and sick animals. You bring them as gifts. But I won't accept them from you," says the Lord. <sup>14</sup>"The cheat will be cursed. He has an animal in his flock. He promises to offer it. But then he offers me an animal that has something wrong with it. I am a great king," says the Lord of heaven's armies. "I am feared by all the nations.

Rules for Priests

2 "Priests, this command is for you. <sup>2</sup>Listen to me. Pay attention to what I say. Honor my name," says the Lord of heaven's armies. "If you don't, I will send a curse on you. I will curse your blessings. I have already cursed them because you don't pay attention to what I say.

<sup>3</sup>"I will punish your descendants.<sup>d</sup> I will smear your faces with the garbage from your feasts. And you will be thrown away with it. <sup>4</sup>Then you will know why I am giving you this command. It is so that my agreement with Levi will continue," says the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>5</sup>"My agreement for priests was with the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Levi. I promised them life and peace. And I gave these to them so they would honor me. They did honor me and fear me. <sup>6</sup>They taught the true teachings. They spoke no lies. With peace and honesty they did what I said they should do. They kept many people from sinning.

<sup>7</sup>"A priest should teach what he knows. People should learn the teachings from him because he is the messenger of the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>8</sup>But you priests have stopped obeying me. With your teachings you have caused many people to do wrong. You have broken the agreement with the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Levi!" says the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>9</sup>"You have not been careful to do what I say. You take sides in court cases. So I have caused you to be hated and disgraced in front of everybody."

Judah Was Not Loyal to God

<sup>10</sup>We all have the same father. The same God made us. So why do people break their promises to each other? They don't respect the agreement that our ancestors made with God.

<sup>11</sup>The people of Judah have broken their promises. They have done something God hates in Israel and Jerusalem. The people of Judah did not respect the Temple<sup>d</sup> that the Lord loves. The men of Judah married the women who worship foreign gods. <sup>12</sup>The man who does this might bring offerings to the Lord of heaven's armies. But the Lord will still separate him from the community of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>This is another thing you do. You cover the Lord's altar with your tears. You cry and moan because the Lord does not accept your offerings. He is not pleased with what you bring. <sup>14</sup>You ask, "Why?" It is because the Lord sees how you treated the wife you married when you were young. You broke your promise with her. She was your partner. You promised yourself to her. <sup>15</sup>God made husbands and wives to become one body and one spirit for his purpose. This is so they would have children who are true to God. So be careful. Do not break your promise with the wife you married when you were young.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord God of Israel says, "I hate divorce. And I hate people who do cruel things as easily as they put on clothes," says the Lord of heaven's armies. So be careful. And do not break your trust.

The Special Day of Judging

<sup>17</sup>You have tired the Lord with what you say. You ask, "How have we tired him?"

You did it by saying, "God thinks anyone who does evil is good. And he is pleased with them." Or you asked, "Where is the God who is fair?"

3 The Lord of heaven's armies says, "I will send my messenger. He will prepare the way for me to come. Suddenly, the Lord you are looking for will come to his Temple.<sup>d</sup> The messenger of the agreement, whom you want, will come." <sup>2</sup>No one can live through that time. No one can survive when he comes. He will be like a purifying fire. He will be like laundry soap. <sup>3</sup>He will be like someone who heats and purifies silver. He will purify the Levites. He will make them pure like gold and silver. Then they will bring offerings to the Lord in the right way. <sup>4</sup>And he will accept the offerings from Judah and Jerusalem. It will be as it was in the past. <sup>5</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says, "Then I will come to you and judge you. I will testify against those who take part in evil magic, adultery<sup>d</sup> and lying. I will testify against those who cheat workers of their pay and who cheat widows and orphans. And I will testify against those who are unfair to foreigners. These people do not respect me.

Stealing from God

<sup>6</sup>"I am the Lord. I do not change. So you descendants<sup>d</sup> of Jacob have not been destroyed. <sup>7</sup>Like your ancestors before you, you have disobeyed my rules. You have not kept them. Return to me. Then I will return to you," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

"But you ask, 'How can we return?'"

<sup>8</sup>"Should a man rob God? But you rob me.

"You ask, 'How have we robbed you?'"

"You have robbed me in your offerings and the tenth of your crops. <sup>9</sup>So a curse is on you because the whole nation has robbed me. <sup>10</sup>Bring to the storehouse a tenth of what you gain. Then there will be food in my house. Test me in this," says the Lord of heaven's armies. "I will open the windows of heaven for you. I will pour out more blessings than you have room for. <sup>11</sup>I will stop the insects so they won't eat your crops. The grapes won't fall from your vines before they are ready to pick," says the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>12</sup>"All the nations will call you blessed. You will have a pleasant country," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

The Lord's Promise of Mercy

<sup>13</sup>The Lord says, "You have said terrible things about me.

"But you ask, 'What have we said about you?'"

<sup>14</sup>"You have said, 'It is useless to serve God. It did no good to obey his laws. And it did no good to show the Lord of heaven's armies that we are sorry for what we did. <sup>15</sup>So we say that proud people are happy. Evil people succeed. They challenge God and get away with it.'"

<sup>16</sup>Then those who honored the Lord spoke with each other. The Lord listened and heard them. The names of those who honored the Lord and respected him were written in a book. The Lord will remember them.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord of heaven's armies says, "They belong to me. On that day they will be my very own. A father shows mercy to his son who serves him. In the same way I will show mercy to my people. <sup>18</sup>You will again see the difference between good and evil people. You will see the difference between those who serve God and those who don't.

The Day of the Lord's Judging

4 "There is a day coming that will be like a hot furnace. All the proud and evil people will be like straw. On that day they will be completely burned up. Not a root or branch will be left," says the Lord of heaven's armies. <sup>2</sup>"But for you who honor me, goodness will shine on you like the sun. There will be healing in its rays. You will jump around, like calves freed from their stalls. <sup>3</sup>Then you will crush the wicked. They will be like ashes under your feet. I will do this on that day," says the Lord of heaven's armies.

<sup>4</sup>"Remember the teaching of Moses my servant. I gave those laws and rules to him at Mount Sinai. They are for all the Israelites.

<sup>5</sup>"But I will send Elijah the prophet<sup>6</sup> to you. He will come before that great and terrible day of the Lord's judging. <sup>6</sup>Elijah will help fathers love their children. And he will help the children love their fathers. Otherwise, I will come and put a curse on the land."

MATTHEW

Matthew Tells the Jews About Jesus

The Family History of Jesus

1 This is the family history of Jesus Christ. He came from the family of David. David came from the family of Abraham.

<sup>2</sup>Abraham was the father<sup>a</sup> of Isaac.

Isaac was the father of Jacob.

Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers.

<sup>3</sup>Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah. (Their mother was Tamar.)

Perez was the father of Hezron.

Hezron was the father of Ram.

<sup>4</sup>Ram was the father of Amminadab. Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.

Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

<sup>5</sup>Salmon was the father of Boaz.

(Boaz's mother was Rahab.)

Boaz was the father of Obed.

(Obed's mother was Ruth.)

Obed was the father of Jesse.

<sup>6</sup>Jesse was the father of King David.

David was the father of Solomon.

(Solomon's mother had been Uriah's wife.)

<sup>7</sup>Solomon was the father of Rehoboam.

Rehoboam was the father of Abijah.

Abijah was the father of Asa.

<sup>8</sup>Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat.

Jehoshaphat was the father of Jehoram.

Jehoram was the ancestor of Uzziah.

<sup>9</sup>Uzziah was the father of Jotham.

Jotham was the father of Ahaz.

Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah.

<sup>10</sup>Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh.

Manasseh was the father of Amon.

Amon was the father of Josiah.

<sup>11</sup>Josiah was the grandfather of Jehoiachin and his brothers.

(This was at the time that the people were taken to Babylon.)

<sup>12</sup>After they were taken to Babylon:

Jehoiachin was the father of Shealtiel.

Shealtiel was the grandfather of Zerubbabel.

<sup>13</sup>Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud.

Abiud was the father of Eliakim.

Eliakim was the father of Azor.

<sup>14</sup>Azor was the father of Zadok.

Zadok was the father of Akim.

Akim was the father of Eliud.

<sup>15</sup>Eliud was the father of Eleazar.

Eleazar was the father of Matthan.

Matthan was the father of Jacob.

<sup>16</sup>Jacob was the father of Joseph.

Joseph was the husband of Mary, and Mary was the mother of Jesus.

Jesus is called the Christ.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>17</sup>So there were 14 generations from Abraham to David. And there were 14 generations from David until the time when the people were taken to Babylon. And there were 14 generations from the time when the people were taken to Babylon until Christ was born.

The Birth of Jesus Christ

<sup>18</sup>The mother of Jesus Christ was Mary. And this is how the birth of Jesus came about. Mary was engaged<sup>a</sup> to marry Joseph. But before they married, she learned that she was pregnant by the power of the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>Mary's husband, Joseph, was a good man. He did not want to disgrace her in public, so he planned to divorce her secretly.

<sup>20</sup>While Joseph thought about this, an angel of the Lord came to him in a dream. The angel said, "Joseph, descendant<sup>d</sup> of David, don't be afraid to take Mary as your wife. The baby in her is from the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>She will give birth to a son. You will name him Jesus<sup>a</sup> because he will save his people from their sins."

<sup>22</sup>All this happened to make clear the full meaning of what the Lord had said through the prophet:<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>"The virgin<sup>d</sup> will be pregnant. She will have a son, and they will name him Immanuel."<sup>a</sup> This name means "God is with us."

<sup>24</sup>When Joseph woke up, he did what the Lord's angel had told him to do. Joseph married Mary. <sup>25</sup>But he did not have sexual relations with her until she gave birth to the son. And Joseph named the son Jesus.

<sup>a</sup>father "Father" in Jewish lists of ancestors can sometimes mean grandfather or more distant relative.

<sup>d</sup>engaged For the Jews an engagement was a lasting agreement. It could only be broken by a divorce. If a bride was unfaithful, it was considered adultery, and she could be put to death.

<sup>a</sup>Jesus The name Jesus means "salvation."

<sup>d</sup>"The virgin . . . Immanuel." Quotation from Isaiah 7:14.

Wise Men Come to Visit Jesus

2 Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem in Judea during the time when Herod was king. After Jesus was born, some wise men from the east came to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>They asked, "Where is the baby who was born to be the king of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him."

<sup>3</sup>When King Herod heard about this new king of the Jews, he was troubled. And all the people in Jerusalem were worried too. <sup>4</sup>Herod called a meeting of all the leading priests and teachers of the law. He asked them where the Christ<sup>d</sup> would be born. <sup>5</sup>They answered, "In the town of Bethlehem in Judea. The prophet<sup>d</sup> wrote about this in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>"But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, you are important among the rulers of Judah.

A ruler will come from you.

He will be like a shepherd for my people, the Israelites.' "

Micah 5:2

<sup>7</sup>Then Herod had a secret meeting with the wise men from the east. He learned from them the exact time they first saw the star. <sup>8</sup>Then Herod sent the wise men to Bethlehem. He said to them, "Go and look carefully to find the child. When you find him, come tell me. Then I can go worship him too."

Jesus' Parents Take Him to Egypt

<sup>13</sup>After they left, an angel of the Lord came to Joseph in a dream. The angel said, "Get up! Take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Herod will start looking for the child to kill him. Stay in Egypt until I tell you to return."

<sup>14</sup>So Joseph got up and left for Egypt during the night with the child and his mother. <sup>15</sup>Joseph stayed in Egypt until Herod died. This was to make clear the full meaning of what the Lord had said through the prophet.<sup>d</sup> The Lord said, "I called my son out of Egypt." <sup>a</sup>

Herod Kills the Baby Boys

<sup>16</sup>When Herod saw that the wise men had tricked him, he was very angry. So he gave an order to kill all the baby boys in Bethlehem and in all the area around Bethlehem. He said to kill all the boys who were two years old or younger. This was in keeping with the time he learned from the wise men. <sup>17</sup>So what God had said through the prophet<sup>d</sup> Jeremiah came true: <sup>18</sup>"A sound was heard in Ramah.

It was painful crying and much sadness.

Rachel cries for her children, and she cannot be comforted, because her children are dead." Jeremiah 31:15

Joseph and Mary Return

<sup>19</sup>After Herod died, an angel of the Lord came to Joseph in a dream. This happened while Joseph was in Egypt. <sup>20</sup>The angel said, "Get up! Take the child and his mother and go to Israel. The people who were trying to kill the child are now dead."

<sup>21</sup>So Joseph took the child and his mother and went to Israel. <sup>22</sup>But he heard that Archelaus was now king in Judea. Archelaus became king when his father Herod died. So Joseph was afraid to go there. After being warned in a dream, he went to the area of Galilee. <sup>23</sup>He went to a town called Nazareth and lived there. And so what God had said through the prophets<sup>d</sup> came true: "He will be called a Nazarene."<sup>n</sup>

The Work of John the Baptist

3 About that time John the Baptist<sup>d</sup> came and began preaching in the desert area of Judea. <sup>2</sup>John said, "Change your hearts and lives because the kingdom of heaven is coming soon." <sup>3</sup>John the Baptist is the one Isaiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> was talking about. Isaiah said:

"This is a voice of a man who calls out in the desert: 'Prepare the way for the Lord. Make the road straight for him.' "

Isaiah 40:3

<sup>4</sup>John's clothes were made from camel's hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food, he ate locusts<sup>d</sup> and wild honey. <sup>5</sup>Many people went to hear John preach. They came from Jerusalem and all Judea and all the area around the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup>They told of the sins they had done, and John baptized them in the Jordan River.

<sup>7</sup>Many of the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and Sadducees<sup>d</sup> came to the place where John was baptizing people. When John saw them, he said: "You are all snakes! Who warned you to run away from God's anger that is coming? <sup>8</sup>You must do the things that show that you have really changed your hearts and lives. <sup>9</sup>And don't think that you can say to yourselves, 'Abraham is our father.' I tell you that God could make children for Abraham from these rocks. <sup>10</sup>The ax is now ready to cut down the trees. Every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>11</sup>"I baptize you with water to show that your hearts and lives have changed. But there is one coming later who is greater than I am. I am not good enough to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> and with fire. <sup>12</sup>He will come ready to clean the grain. He will separate the good grain from the chaff.<sup>d</sup> He will put the good part of the grain into his barn. And he will burn the chaff with a fire that cannot be put out."<sup>n</sup>

Jesus Is Baptized by John

<sup>13</sup>At that time Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan River. He came to John and wanted John to baptize him. <sup>14</sup>But John tried to stop him. John said, "Why do you come to me to be baptized? I should be baptized by you!"

<sup>15</sup>Jesus answered, "Let it be this way for now. We should do all things that are right." So John agreed to baptize Jesus.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus was baptized and came up out of the water. Then heaven opened, and he saw God's Spirit<sup>d</sup> coming down on him like a dove. <sup>17</sup>And a voice spoke from heaven. The voice said, "This is my Son and I love him. I am very pleased with him."<sup>n</sup>

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil. <sup>2</sup>Jesus ate nothing for 40 days and nights. After this, he was very hungry. <sup>3</sup>The devil came to Jesus to tempt him. The devil said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these rocks to become bread."

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered, "It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> 'A person does not live only by eating bread. But a person lives by everything the Lord says.'"<sup>n</sup> <sup>5</sup>Then the devil led Jesus to the holy city of Jerusalem. He put Jesus on a very high place of the Temple.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>The devil said, "If you are the Son of God, jump off. It is written in the Scriptures,

'He has put his angels in charge of you.

They will catch you with their hands.

And you will not hit your foot on a rock.'"<sup>n</sup>

Psalms 91:11-12

<sup>7</sup>Jesus answered him, "It also says in the Scriptures, 'Do not test the Lord your God.'"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Then the devil led Jesus to the top of a very high mountain. He showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and all the great things that are in those kingdoms. <sup>9</sup>The devil said, "If you will bow down and worship me, I will give you all these things."

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said to the devil, "Go away from me, Satan! It is written in the Scriptures, 'You must worship the Lord your God. Serve only him!'"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>11</sup>So the devil left Jesus. And then some angels came to Jesus and helped him.

Jesus Begins Work in Galilee

<sup>12</sup>Jesus heard that John had been put in prison. So Jesus went back to Galilee. <sup>13</sup>He left Nazareth and went and lived in Capernaum, a town near Lake Galilee. Capernaum is in the area near Zebulun and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup>Jesus did this to make true what the prophet<sup>d</sup> Isaiah said:

<sup>15</sup>"Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali are on the way to the sea.

They are along the Jordan River.

This is Galilee where the non-Jewish people live.

<sup>16</sup>These people who live in darkness will see a great light.

They live in a place that is very dark.

But a light will shine on them."<sup>n</sup> Isaiah 9:1-2

Jesus Chooses Some Followers

<sup>17</sup>From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Change your hearts and lives, because the kingdom of heaven is coming soon."

<sup>18</sup>As Jesus was walking by Lake Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and Simon's brother Andrew. The brothers were fishermen, and they were fishing in the lake with a net. <sup>19</sup>Jesus said, "Come follow me. I will make you fishermen for men." <sup>20</sup>At once Simon and Andrew left their nets and followed him.

<sup>d</sup>The ax . . . fire. This means that God is ready to punish his people who do not obey him.

<sup>d</sup>He will . . . out. This means that Jesus will come to separate the good people from the bad people, saving the good and punishing the bad.

<sup>21</sup>Jesus continued walking by Lake Galilee. He saw two other brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets to catch fish. Jesus told them to come with him. <sup>22</sup>At once they left the boat and their father, and they followed Jesus.

Jesus Teaches and Heals People

<sup>23</sup>Jesus went everywhere in Galilee. He taught in the synagogues<sup>d</sup> and preached the Good News<sup>d</sup> about the kingdom of heaven. And he healed all the people's diseases and sicknesses. <sup>24</sup>The news about Jesus spread all over Syria, and people brought all the sick to him. These sick people were suffering from different kinds of diseases and pain. Some were suffering very great pain, some had demons,<sup>d</sup> some were epileptics,<sup>a</sup> and some were paralyzed. Jesus healed all of them. <sup>25</sup>Many people followed him. They came from Galilee, the Ten Towns,<sup>a</sup> Jerusalem, Judea, and the land across the Jordan River.

Jesus Teaches the People

5 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a hill and sat down. His followers came to him, <sup>2</sup>and he began to teach them, saying:

- <sup>3</sup>"Those people who know they have great spiritual needs are happy.
The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.
- <sup>4</sup>Those who are sad now are happy.
God will comfort them.
- <sup>5</sup>Those who are humble are happy.
The earth will belong to them.
- <sup>6</sup>Those who want to do right more than anything else are happy.
God will fully satisfy them.
- <sup>7</sup>Those who give mercy to others are happy.
Mercy will be given to them.
- <sup>8</sup>Those who are pure in their thinking are happy.
They will be with God.
- <sup>9</sup>Those who work to bring peace are happy.
God will call them his sons.
- <sup>10</sup>Those who are treated badly for doing good are happy.
The kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

<sup>a</sup>epileptics People with a disease that causes them sometimes to lose control of their bodies, and maybe faint, shake strongly, or not be able to move.

<sup>b</sup>Ten Towns In Greek, called "Decapolis." It was an area east of Lake Galilee that once had ten main towns.

<sup>11</sup>"People will say bad things about you and hurt you. They will lie and say all kinds of evil things about you because you follow me. But when they do these things to you, you are happy. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice and be glad. You have a great reward waiting for you in heaven. People did the same evil things to the prophets<sup>d</sup> who lived before you.

You Are like Salt and Light

<sup>13</sup>"You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its salty taste, it cannot be made salty again. It is good for nothing. It must be thrown out for people to walk on.

<sup>14</sup>"You are the light that gives light to the world. A city that is built on a hill cannot be hidden. <sup>15</sup>And people don't hide a light under a bowl. They put the light on a lampstand. Then the light shines for all the people in the house. <sup>16</sup>In the same way, you should be a light for other people. Live so that they will see the good things you do. Live so that they will praise your Father in heaven.

The Importance of the Law

<sup>17</sup>"Don't think that I have come to destroy the law of Moses or the teaching of the prophets.<sup>d</sup> I have not come to destroy their teachings but to do what they said. <sup>18</sup>I tell you the truth. Nothing will disappear from the law until heaven and earth are gone. The law will not lose even the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter until all has happened. <sup>19</sup>Whoever refuses to obey any command and teaches other people not to obey that command will be the least important in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys the law and teaches other people to obey the law will be great in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>20</sup>I tell you that you must do better than the teachers of the law and the Pharisees.<sup>d</sup> If you are not better than they are, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Jesus Teaches About Anger

<sup>21</sup>"You have heard that it was said to our people long ago, 'You must not murder anyone.'<sup>a</sup> Anyone who murders another will be judged.'<sup>22</sup>But I tell you, if you are angry with your brother, you will be judged. And if you say bad things to your brother, you will be judged by the Jewish council. And if you call your brother a fool, then you will be in danger of the fire of hell.

<sup>23</sup>“So when you offer your gift to God at the altar, and you remember that your brother has something against you, <sup>24</sup>leave your gift there at the altar. Go and make peace with him. Then come and offer your gift.

<sup>25</sup>“If your enemy is taking you to court, become friends with him quickly. You should do that before you go to court. If you don’t become his friend, he might turn you over to the judge. And the judge might give you to a guard to put you in jail. <sup>26</sup>I tell you that you will not leave that jail until you have paid everything you owe.

Jesus Teaches About Sexual Sin

<sup>27</sup>“You have heard that it was said, ‘You must not be guilty of adultery.’” <sup>28</sup>But I tell you that if anyone looks at a woman and wants to sin sexually with her, then he has already done that sin with the woman in his mind. <sup>29</sup>If your right eye causes you to sin, then take it out and throw it away. It is better to lose one part of your body than to have your whole body thrown into hell. <sup>30</sup>If your right hand causes you to sin, then cut it off and throw it away. It is better to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Jesus Teaches About Divorce

<sup>31</sup>“It was also said, ‘Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a written divorce paper.’” <sup>32</sup>But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife is causing his wife to be guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> The only reason for a man to divorce his wife is if she has sexual relations with another man. And anyone who marries that divorced woman is guilty of adultery.

Make Promises Carefully

<sup>33</sup>“You have heard that it was said to our people long ago, ‘When you make a promise, don’t break your promise. Keep the promises that you make to the Lord.’” <sup>34</sup>But I tell you, never make an oath. Don’t make an oath using the name of heaven, because heaven is God’s throne. <sup>35</sup>Don’t make an oath using the name of the earth, because the earth belongs to God. Don’t make an oath using the name of Jerusalem, because that is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup>And don’t even say that your own head is proof that you will keep your oath. You cannot make one hair on your head become white or black. <sup>37</sup>Say only ‘yes’ if you mean ‘yes,’ and say only ‘no’ if you mean ‘no.’ If you must say more than ‘yes’ or ‘no,’ it is from the Evil One.

Don’t Fight Back

<sup>38</sup>“You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’” <sup>39</sup>But I tell you, don’t stand up against an evil person. If someone slaps you on the right cheek, then turn and let him slap the other cheek too. <sup>40</sup>If someone wants to sue you in court and take your shirt, then let him have your coat too. <sup>41</sup>If a soldier forces you to go with him one mile, then go with him two miles. <sup>42</sup>If a person asks you for something, then give it to him. Don’t refuse to give to a person who wants to borrow from you.

Love All People

<sup>43</sup>“You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor<sup>a</sup> and hate your enemies.’” <sup>44</sup>But I tell you, love your enemies. Pray for those who hurt you. <sup>45</sup>If you do this, then you will be true sons of your Father in heaven. Your Father causes the sun to rise on good people and on bad people. Your Father sends rain to those who do good and to those who do wrong. <sup>46</sup>If you love only the people who love you, then you will get no reward. Even the tax collectors do that. <sup>47</sup>And if you are nice only to your friends, then you are no better than other people. Even people without God are nice to their friends. <sup>48</sup>So you must be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Jesus Teaches About Giving

G “Be careful! When you do good things, don’t do them in front of people to be seen by them. If you do that, then you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>“When you give to the poor, don’t be like the hypocrites.<sup>d</sup> They blow trumpets before they give so that people will see them. They do that in the synagogues<sup>d</sup> and on the streets. They want other people to honor them. I tell you the truth. Those hypocrites already have their full reward. <sup>3</sup>So when you give to the poor, give very secretly. Don’t let anyone know what you are doing. <sup>4</sup>Your giving should be done in secret. Your Father can see what is done in secret, and he will reward you.

Jesus Teaches About Prayer

<sup>5</sup>“When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites.<sup>d</sup> They love to stand in the synagogues<sup>d</sup> and on the street corners and pray loudly. They want people to see them pray. I tell you the truth. They already have their full reward. <sup>6</sup>When you pray, you should go into your room and close the door. Then pray to your Father who cannot be seen. Your Father can see what is done in secret, and he will reward you.

<sup>7</sup>“And when you pray, don’t be like those people who don’t know God. They continue saying things that mean nothing. They think that God will hear them because of the many things they say. <sup>8</sup>Don’t be like them. Your Father knows the things you need before you ask him. <sup>9</sup>So when you pray, you should pray like this:

‘Our Father in heaven, we pray that your name will always be kept holy.

<sup>10</sup>We pray that your kingdom will come.

We pray that what you want will be done,
here on earth as it is in heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Give us the food we need for each day.

<sup>12</sup>Forgive the sins we have done, just as we have forgiven those who did wrong to us.

<sup>13</sup>Do not cause us to be tested; but save us from the Evil One.’

<sup>14</sup>Yes, if you forgive others for the things they do wrong, then your Father in heaven will also forgive you for the things you do wrong. <sup>15</sup>But if you don’t forgive the wrongs of others, then your Father in heaven will not forgive the wrong things you do.

Jesus Teaches About Worship

God Is More Important than Money

<sup>19</sup>“Don’t store treasures for yourselves here on earth. Moths and rust will destroy treasures here on earth. And thieves can break into your house and steal the things you have. <sup>20</sup>So store your treasure in heaven. The treasures in heaven cannot be destroyed by moths or rust. And thieves cannot break in and steal that treasure. <sup>21</sup>Your heart will be where your treasure is.

<sup>22</sup>“The eye is a light for the body. If your eyes are good, then your whole body will be full of light. <sup>23</sup>But if your eyes are evil, then your whole body will be full of darkness. And if the only light you have is really darkness, then you have the worst darkness.

<sup>24</sup>“No one can be a slave to two masters. He will hate one master and love the other. Or he will follow one master and refuse to follow the other. So you cannot serve God and money at the same time.

Don’t Worry

<sup>25</sup>“So I tell you, don’t worry about the food you need to live. And don’t worry about the clothes you need for your body. Life is more important than food. And the body is more important than clothes. <sup>26</sup>Look at the birds in the air. They don’t plant or harvest or store food in barns. But your heavenly Father feeds the birds. And you know that you are worth much more than the birds. <sup>27</sup>You cannot add any time to your life by worrying about it.

<sup>28</sup>“And why do you worry about clothes? Look at the flowers in the field. See how they grow. They don’t work or make clothes for themselves. <sup>29</sup>But I tell you that even Solomon with his riches was not dressed as beautifully as one of these flowers. <sup>30</sup>God clothes the grass in the field like that. The grass is living today, but tomorrow it is thrown into the fire to be burned. So you can be even more sure that God will clothe you. Don’t have so little faith!

<sup>31</sup>Don’t worry and say, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ <sup>32</sup>All the people who don’t know God keep trying to get these things. And your Father in heaven knows that you need them. <sup>33</sup>The thing you should want most is God’s kingdom and doing what God wants. Then all these other things you need will be given to you. <sup>34</sup>So don’t worry about tomorrow. Each day has enough trouble of its own. Tomorrow will have its own worries.

Be Careful About Judging Others

7 “Don’t judge other people, and you will not be judged. <sup>2</sup>You will be judged in the same way that you judge others. And the for-givenness you give to others will be given to you.

<sup>n</sup>give up eating This is called “fasting.” The people would give up eating for a special time of prayer and worship to God. It was also done to show sadness.

<sup>3</sup>“Why do you notice the little piece of dust that is in your brother’s eye, but you don’t notice the big piece of wood that is in your own eye? <sup>4</sup>Why do you say to your brother, ‘Let me take that little piece of dust out of your eye?’ Look at yourself first! You still have that big piece of wood in your own eye. <sup>5</sup>You are a hypocrite!<sup>d</sup> First, take the wood out of your own eye. Then you will see clearly enough to take the dust out of your brother’s eye.

<sup>6</sup>“Don’t give holy things to dogs. Don’t throw your pearls before pigs. Pigs will only trample on them. And the dogs will only turn to attack you.

Ask God for What You Need

<sup>7</sup>“Continue to ask, and God will give to you. Continue to search, and you will find. Continue to knock, and the door will open for you. <sup>8</sup>Yes, everyone who continues asking will receive. He who continues searching will find. And he who continues knocking will have the door opened for him.

<sup>9</sup>“What would you do if your son asks for bread? Which of you would give him a stone? <sup>10</sup>Or if your son asks for a fish, would you give him a snake? <sup>11</sup>Even though you are bad, you know how to give good gifts to your children. So surely your heavenly Father will give good things to those who ask him.

The Most Important Rule

<sup>12</sup>“Do for other people the same things you want them to do for you. This is the meaning of the law of Moses and the teaching of the prophets.<sup>d</sup>

The Way to Heaven Is Hard

<sup>13</sup>“Enter through the narrow gate. The road that leads to hell is a very easy road. And the gate to hell is very wide. Many people enter through that gate. <sup>14</sup>But the gate that opens the way to true life is very small. And the road to true life is very hard. Only a few people find that road.

People Know You by Your Actions

<sup>15</sup>“Be careful of false prophets.<sup>d</sup> They come to you and look gentle like sheep. But they are really dangerous like wolves. <sup>16</sup>You will know these people because of the things they do. Good things don’t come from bad people, just as grapes don’t come from thornbushes. And figs don’t come from thorny weeds. <sup>17</sup>In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit. And bad trees produce bad fruit. <sup>18</sup>A good tree cannot produce bad fruit. And a bad tree cannot produce good fruit. <sup>19</sup>Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup>You will know these false prophets by what they produce.

<sup>21</sup>“Not everyone who says that I am his Lord will enter the kingdom of heaven. The only people who will enter the kingdom of heaven are those who do the things that my Father in heaven wants. <sup>22</sup>On the last day many people will say to me, ‘You are our Lord! We spoke for you. And through you we forced out demons<sup>d</sup> and did many miracles.’<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>Then I will tell them clearly, ‘Get away from me, you who do evil. I never knew you.’

Two Kinds of People

<sup>24</sup>“Everyone who hears these things I say and obeys them is like a wise man. The wise man built his house on rock. <sup>25</sup>It rained hard and the water rose. The winds blew and hit that house. But the house did not fall, because the house was built on rock. <sup>26</sup>But the person who hears the things I teach and does not obey them is like a foolish man. The foolish man built his house on sand. <sup>27</sup>It rained hard, the water rose, and the winds blew and hit that house. And the house fell with a big crash.”

<sup>28</sup>When Jesus finished saying these things, the people were amazed at his teaching. <sup>29</sup>Jesus did not teach like their teachers of the law. He taught like a person who had authority.

Jesus Heals a Sick Man

8 When Jesus came down from the hill, great crowds followed him. <sup>2</sup>Then a man sick with a harmful skin disease came to Jesus. The man bowed down before him and said, “Lord, you have the power to heal me if you want.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus touched the man and said, “I want to heal you. Be healed!” And immediately the man was healed from his skin disease. <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus said to him, “Don’t tell anyone about what happened. But go and show yourself to the priest. <sup>5</sup>And offer the gift that Moses commanded<sup>a</sup> for people who are made well. This will show people that you are healed.”

<sup>a</sup>show . . . priest The law of Moses said a priest must say when a Jew who had a harmful skin disease was well.

<sup>b</sup>Moses commanded Read about this in Leviticus 14:1-32.

Jesus Heals a Soldier's Servant

<sup>5</sup>Jesus went to the city of Capernaum. When he entered the city, an army officer came to Jesus and begged for help. <sup>6</sup>The officer said, "Lord, my servant is at home in bed. He can't move his body and is in much pain."

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to the officer, "I will go and heal him."

<sup>8</sup>The officer answered, "Lord, I am not good enough for you to come into my house. All you need to do is command that my servant be healed, and he will be healed. <sup>9</sup>I myself am a man under the authority of other men. And I have soldiers under my command. I tell one soldier, 'Go,' and he goes. I tell another soldier, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and my servant obeys me."

<sup>10</sup>When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. He said to those who were with him, "I tell you the truth. This man has more faith than any other person I have found, even in Israel."

<sup>11</sup>Many people will come from the east and from the west. They will sit and eat with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>12</sup>And those people who should have the kingdom will be thrown outside into the darkness. In that place people will cry and grind their teeth with pain."

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the officer, "Go home. Your servant will be healed just as you believed he would." And at that same time his servant was healed.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>14</sup>Jesus went to Peter's house. There Jesus saw that Peter's mother-in-law was in bed with a high fever. <sup>15</sup>Jesus touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she stood up and began to serve Jesus.

<sup>16</sup>That evening people brought to Jesus many who had demons. <sup>17</sup>Jesus spoke and the demons left them. Jesus healed all the sick. <sup>18</sup>He did these things to make come true what Isaiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> said:

"He took our suffering on him.

And he felt our pain for us."

Isaiah 53:4

People Want to Follow Jesus

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he told his followers to go to the other side of the lake. <sup>19</sup>Then a teacher of the law came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, I will follow you any place you go."

<sup>20</sup>Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes to live in. The birds have nests to live in. But the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> has no place where he can rest his head."

<sup>21</sup>Another man, one of Jesus' followers, said to Jesus, "Lord, let me go and bury my father first."

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the people who are dead bury their own dead."

Jesus Stops a Storm

<sup>23</sup>Jesus got into a boat, and his followers went with him. <sup>24</sup>A very bad storm arose on the lake so that the waves covered the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. <sup>25</sup>The followers went to Jesus and woke him. They said, "Lord, save us! We will drown!"

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, "Why are you afraid? You don't have enough faith." Then Jesus got up and gave a command to the wind and the sea. The wind stopped, and the sea became very calm.

<sup>27</sup>The men were amazed. They said, "What kind of man is this? Even the wind and the sea obey him!"

Jesus Heals Two Men with Demons

<sup>28</sup>Jesus arrived at the other side of the lake in the country of the Gadarene<sup>n</sup> people. There, two men who had demons<sup>d</sup> in them came to Jesus. These men lived in the burial caves. They were so dangerous that people could not use the road by those caves. <sup>29</sup>The two men came to Jesus and shouted, "What do you want with us, Son of God? Did you come here to punish us before the right time?"

<sup>30</sup>Near that place there was a large herd of pigs feeding. <sup>31</sup>The demons begged Jesus, "If you make us leave these men, please send us into that herd of pigs."

<sup>32</sup>Jesus said to them, "Go!" So the demons left the men and went into the pigs. Then the whole herd of pigs ran down the hill into the lake and were drowned. <sup>33</sup>The men who were caring for the pigs ran away and went into town. They told about all of this and what had happened to the men who had demons. <sup>34</sup>Then the whole town went out to see Jesus. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their area.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

9 Jesus got into a boat and went back across the lake to his own town. <sup>2</sup>Some people brought to Jesus a man who was paralyzed. The man was lying on his mat. Jesus saw that these people had great faith, so he said to the paralyzed man, "Be happy, young man. Your sins are forgiven."

<sup>3</sup>Some of the teachers of the law heard this. They said to themselves, "This man speaks as if he were God—that is blasphemy!"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said, "Why are you thinking evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup>Which is easier: to tell this paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to tell him, 'Stand up and walk'? <sup>6</sup>But I will prove to you that the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> has power on earth to forgive sins." Then Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "Stand up. Take your mat and go home."<sup>7</sup> And the man stood up and went home. <sup>8</sup>When the people saw this, they were amazed. They praised God for giving power like this to men.

Jesus Chooses Matthew

<sup>9</sup>When Jesus was leaving, he saw a man named Matthew sitting in the tax office. Jesus said to him, "Follow me." And Matthew stood up and followed Jesus.

<sup>10</sup>Jesus had dinner at Matthew's house. Many tax collectors and "sinners" came and ate with Jesus and his followers. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> saw this and asked Jesus' followers, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and 'sinners'?"

<sup>12</sup>Jesus heard the Pharisees ask this. So he said, "Healthy people don't need a doctor. Only the sick need a doctor. <sup>13</sup>Go and learn what this means: 'I want faithful love more than I want animal sacrifices.'<sup>a</sup> I did not come to invite good people. I came to invite sinners."

Jesus Is Not like Other Jews

<sup>14</sup>Then the followers of John<sup>a</sup> came to Jesus. They said to Jesus, "We and the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> often give up eating.<sup>n</sup> But your followers don't. Why?"

<sup>15</sup>Jesus answered, "The friends of the bridegroom are not sad while he is with them. But the time will come when the bridegroom will leave them. Then his friends will give up eating.

<sup>16</sup>"When someone sews a patch over a hole in an old coat, he never uses a piece of cloth that is not yet shrunk. If he does, the patch will shrink and pull away from the coat. Then the hole will be worse. <sup>17</sup>Also, people never pour new wine into old leather bags for holding wine. If they do, the old bags will break. The wine will spill, and the wine bags will be ruined. But people always pour new wine into new wine bags. Then the wine and the wine bags will continue to be good."

Jesus Gives Life to a Dead Girl and Heals a Sick Woman

<sup>18</sup>While Jesus was saying these things, a ruler of the synagogue<sup>d</sup> came to him. The ruler bowed down before Jesus and said, "My daughter has just died. But come and touch her with your hand, and she will live again."

<sup>19</sup>So Jesus stood up and went with the ruler. Jesus' followers went too.

<sup>20</sup>Then a woman who had been bleeding for 12 years came behind Jesus and touched the edge of his coat. <sup>21</sup>She was thinking, "If I can touch his coat, then I will be healed."

<sup>22</sup>Jesus turned and saw the woman. He said, "Be happy, dear woman. You are made well because you believed." And the woman was healed at once.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus continued along with the ruler and went into the ruler's house. Jesus saw people there who play music for funerals. And he saw many people there crying. <sup>24</sup>Jesus said, "Go away. The girl is not dead. She is only asleep." But the people laughed at Jesus. <sup>25</sup>After the crowd had been put outside, Jesus went into the girl's room. He took her hand, and she stood up. <sup>26</sup>The news about this spread all around the area.

Jesus Heals More People

<sup>27</sup>When Jesus was leaving there, two blind men followed him. They cried out, "Show kindness to us, Son of David!"<sup>d</sup>

<sup>28</sup>Jesus went inside, and the blind men went with him. He asked the men, "Do you believe that I can make you see again?"

They answered, "Yes, Lord."

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus touched their eyes and said, "You believe that I can make you see again. So this will happen."<sup>30</sup> Then the men were able to see. But Jesus warned them very strongly, saying, "Don't tell anyone about this."<sup>31</sup> But the blind men left and spread the news about Jesus all around that area.

<sup>32</sup>When the two men were leaving, some people brought another man to Jesus. This man could not talk because he had a demon<sup>d</sup> in him. <sup>33</sup>Jesus forced the demon to leave the man. Then the man who couldn't talk was able to speak. The crowd was amazed and said, "We have never seen anything like this in Israel."

<sup>34</sup>But the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> said, "The leader of demons is the one that gives him power to force demons out."

<sup>35</sup>Jesus traveled through all the towns and villages. He taught in their synagogues<sup>d</sup> and told people the Good News<sup>d</sup> about the kingdom. And he healed all kinds of diseases and sicknesses. <sup>36</sup>He saw the crowds of people and felt sorry for them because they were worried and helpless. They were like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>37</sup>Jesus said to his followers, "There are many people to harvest, but there are only a few workers to help harvest them. <sup>38</sup>God owns the harvest. Pray to him that he will send more workers to help gather his harvest."<sup>a</sup>

Jesus Sends Out His Apostles

10 Jesus called his 12 followers together. He gave them power to drive out evil spirits and to heal every kind of disease and sickness. <sup>2</sup>These are the names of the 12 apostles:<sup>d</sup> Simon (also called Peter) and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; <sup>3</sup>Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew, the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; <sup>4</sup>Simon the Zealot<sup>d</sup> and Judas Iscariot. Judas is the one who turned against Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>These 12 men he sent out with the following order: "Don't go to the non-Jewish people. And don't go into any town where the Samaritans<sup>d</sup> live. <sup>6</sup>But go to the people of Israel. They are like sheep that are lost. <sup>7</sup>When you go, preach this: 'The kingdom of heaven is coming soon.' <sup>8</sup>Heal the sick. Give dead people life again. Heal those who have harmful skin diseases. Force demons<sup>d</sup> to leave people. I give you these powers freely. So help other people freely. <sup>9</sup>Don't carry any money with you—gold or silver or copper. <sup>10</sup>Don't carry a bag. Take for your trip only the clothes and sandals you are wearing. Don't take a walking stick. A worker should be given the things he needs.

<sup>11</sup>"When you enter a city or town, find some worthy person there and stay in his home until you leave. <sup>12</sup>When you enter that home, say, 'Peace be with you.' <sup>13</sup>If the people there welcome you, let your peace stay there. But if they don't welcome you, take back the peace you wished for them. <sup>14</sup>And if a home or town refuses to welcome you or listen to you, then leave that place. Shake its dust off your feet."<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>I tell you the truth. On the Judgment Day it will be worse for that town than for the towns of Sodom and Gomorrah."<sup>a</sup>

Jesus Warns His Apostles

<sup>16</sup>"Listen! I am sending you out, and you will be like sheep among wolves. So be as smart as snakes. But also be like doves and do nothing wrong. <sup>17</sup>Be careful of people. They will arrest you and take you to court. They will whip you in their synagogues.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Because of me you will be taken to stand before governors and kings. You will tell them and the non-Jewish people about me. <sup>19</sup>When you are arrested, don't worry about what to say or how you should say it. At that time you will be given the things to say. <sup>20</sup>It will not really be you speaking. The Spirit of your Father will be speaking through you.

<sup>21</sup>"Brothers will turn against their own brothers and give them over to be killed. Fathers will turn against their own children and give them to be killed. Children will fight against their own parents and have them killed. <sup>22</sup>All people will hate you because you follow me. But the person who continues strong until the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup>When you are treated badly in one city, go to another city. I tell you the truth. You will not finish going through all the cities of Israel before the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> comes.

Fear God, Not People

<sup>26</sup>"So don't be afraid of those people. Everything that is hidden will be shown. Everything that is secret will be made known. <sup>27</sup>I tell you these things in the dark, but I want you to tell them in the light. I speak these things only to you, but you should tell them to everyone. <sup>28</sup>Don't be afraid of people. They can only kill the body. They cannot kill the soul. The only one you should fear is the One who can destroy the body and the soul in hell. <sup>29</sup>When <sup>a</sup>"There are . . . harvest." As a farmer sends workers to harvest the grain, Jesus sends his followers to bring people to God.

<sup>d</sup>Shake . . . feet. A warning. It showed that they were finished talking to these people.

<sup>d</sup>Sodom and Gomorrah. Two cities that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

birds are sold, two small birds cost only a penny. But not even one of the little birds can die without your Father's knowing it. <sup>30</sup>God even knows how many hairs are on your head. <sup>31</sup>So don't be afraid. You are worth much more than many birds.

Tell People About Your Faith

<sup>32</sup>"If anyone stands before other people and says he believes in me, then I will say that he belongs to me. I will say this before my Father in heaven. <sup>33</sup>But if anyone stands before people and says he does not believe in me, then I will say that he does not belong to me. I will say this before my Father in heaven.

<sup>34</sup>"Don't think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup>I have come to make this happen:

'A son will be against his father, a daughter will be against her mother, a daughter-in-law will be against her mother-in-law.

<sup>37</sup>"Whoever loves his father or mother more than he loves me is not worthy to be my follower. Whoever loves his son or daughter more than he loves me is not worthy to be my follower. <sup>38</sup>Whoever is not willing to die on a cross and follow me is not worthy of me. <sup>39</sup>Whoever tries to hold on to his life will give up true life. Whoever gives up his life for me will hold on to true life. <sup>40</sup>Whoever accepts you also accepts me. And whoever accepts me also accepts the One who sent me. <sup>41</sup>Whoever meets a prophet<sup>d</sup> and accepts him will receive the reward of a prophet. And whoever accepts a good man because that man is good will receive the reward of a good man. <sup>42</sup>Whoever helps one of these little ones because they are my followers will truly get his reward. He will get his reward even if he only gave my follower a cup of cold water."

Jesus and John the Baptist

11 Jesus finished telling these things to his 12 followers. Then he left there and went to the towns in Galilee to teach and preach.

<sup>2</sup>John the Baptist<sup>d</sup> was in prison, but he heard about the things Christ was doing. So John sent some of his followers to Jesus. <sup>3</sup>They asked Jesus, "Are you the man who John said was coming, or should we wait for another one?"

<sup>7</sup>As John's followers were leaving, Jesus began talking to the people about John. Jesus said, "What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed<sup>a</sup> blown by the wind? No. <sup>8</sup>Really, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No. Those people who wear fine clothes live in kings' palaces. <sup>9</sup>So what did you go out to see? A prophet?<sup>d</sup> Yes, and I tell you, John is more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup>This was written about John in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

'I will send my messenger ahead of you.

He will prepare the way for you.' Malachi 3:1

<sup>11</sup>I tell you the truth: John the Baptist is greater than any other man who has ever lived. But even the least important person in the kingdom of heaven is greater than John. <sup>12</sup>Since the time John the Baptist came until now, the kingdom of heaven has been going forward in strength. People using force have been trying to take the kingdom. <sup>13</sup>All the prophets and the law of Moses spoke until the time John came. They told about the things that would happen. <sup>14</sup>And if you will believe the things the law and the prophets said, then you will believe that John is Elijah. The law and the prophets said he would come. <sup>15</sup>You people who hear me, listen!

<sup>16</sup>"What can I say about the people who live today? What are they like? They are like children sitting in the marketplace. One group calls to the other,

<sup>17</sup>"We played music for you, but you did not dance;

we sang a sad song, but you did not cry.'

<sup>18</sup>John came, and he did not eat like other people or drink wine. And people say, 'He has a demon.'<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> came, eating and drinking wine, and people say, 'Look at him! He eats too much and drinks too much. He is a friend of tax collectors and "sinners."' But wisdom is proved to be right by the things it does."

Jesus Warns Unbelievers

<sup>20</sup>Then Jesus criticized the cities where he did most of his miracles.<sup>d</sup> He criticized them because the people there did not change their lives and stop sinning.<sup>21</sup> Jesus said, “How terrible for you, Korazin! How terrible for you, Bethsaida! I did many miracles in you. If those same miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon,<sup>n</sup> then the people there would have changed their lives a long time ago. They would have worn rough cloth and put ashes on themselves to show that they had changed.<sup>22</sup> But I tell you, on the Judgment Day it will be worse for you than for Tyre and Sidon.<sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum,<sup>n</sup> will you be lifted up to heaven? No. You will be thrown down to the depths. I did many miracles in you. If those same miracles had happened in Sodom,<sup>n</sup> its people would have stopped sinning, and it would still be a city today.<sup>24</sup> But I tell you it will be worse for you on the Judgment Day than for Sodom.”

<sup>a</sup>reed It means that John was not weak like grass blown by the wind.

Jesus Offers Rest to People

<sup>25</sup>Then Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. I praise you because you have hidden these things from the people who are wise and smart. But you have shown them to those who are like little children.<sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, this is what you really wanted.

<sup>27</sup>“My Father has given me all things. No one knows the Son—only the Father knows the Son. And no one knows the Father—only the Son knows the Father. And the only people who will know about the Father are those whom the Son chooses to tell.

<sup>28</sup>“Come to me, all of you who are tired and have heavy loads. I will give you rest.<sup>29</sup> Accept my work and learn from me. I am gentle and humble in spirit. And you will find rest for your souls.<sup>30</sup> The work that I ask you to accept is easy. The load I give you to carry is not heavy.”

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

12 About that same time, Jesus was walking through some fields of grain on a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. His followers were with him, and they were hungry. So they began to pick the grain and eat it.<sup>2</sup> The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> saw this, and they said to Jesus, “Look! Your followers are doing something that is against the Jewish law to do on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, “Have you not read what David did when he and the people with him were hungry? <sup>4</sup>David went into God’s house. He and those with him ate the bread that was made holy for God. It was against the law for them to eat that bread. Only the priests were allowed to eat it.<sup>5</sup> And have you not read in the law of Moses that on every Sabbath day the priests in the Temple<sup>d</sup> break this law about the Sabbath day? But the priests are not wrong for doing that.<sup>6</sup> I tell you that there is something here that is greater than the Temple.<sup>7</sup> The Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, ‘I want faithful love more than I want animal sacrifices.’<sup>n</sup> You don’t really know what those words mean. If you understood them, you would not judge those who have done nothing wrong.

Jesus Heals a Man’s Crippled Hand

<sup>9</sup>Jesus left there and went into their synagogue.<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>In the synagogue, there was a man with a crippled hand. Some Jews there were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus of doing wrong. So they asked him, “Is it right to heal on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day?”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, “If any of you has a sheep, and it falls into a ditch on the Sabbath day, then you will take the sheep and help it out of the ditch.<sup>12</sup> Surely a man is more important than a sheep. So the law of Moses allows people to do good things on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the man with the crippled hand, “Let me see your hand.” The man put his hand out, and the hand became well again, the same as the other hand.<sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> left and made plans to kill Jesus.

Jesus Is God’s Chosen Servant

<sup>15</sup>Jesus knew what the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> were doing, so he left that place. Many people followed him, and he healed all who were sick.<sup>16</sup> But Jesus warned the people not to tell who he was.<sup>17</sup> He did these things to make come true what Isaiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> had said:

<sup>18</sup>“Here is my servant whom I have chosen.

I love him, and I am pleased with him.

I will put my Spirit<sup>d</sup> in him.

Then he will tell how I will judge all people fairly.

<sup>19</sup>He will not argue or shout.

No one will hear his voice in the streets.

<sup>n</sup>Sodom City that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

<sup>n</sup>‘Is it right . . . day? It was against Jewish law to work on the Sabbath day.’

He will not put out even a weak flame.
He will continue until he makes fair judgment win the victory.

21 In him will the nations find hope.”

Isaiah 42:1 d

Jesus' Power Is from God

22Then some people brought a man to Jesus. This man was blind and could not talk, because he had a demon.<sup>d</sup> Jesus healed the man, and the man could talk and see. 23All the people were amazed. They said, “Perhaps this man is the Son of David!”<sup>d</sup>

24The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> heard the people saying this. The Pharisees said, “Jesus uses the power of Beelzebul<sup>d</sup> to force demons out of people. Beelzebul is the ruler of demons.”

25Jesus knew what the Pharisees were thinking. So he said to them, “Every kingdom that is fighting against itself will be destroyed. And every city that is divided will fall. And every family that is divided cannot succeed. 26So if Satan forces out his own demons, then Satan is divided, and his kingdom will not continue. 27You say that I use the power of Satan when I force out demons. If that is true, then what power do your people use when they force out demons? So your own people prove that you are wrong. 28But if I use the power of God’s Spirit<sup>d</sup> to force out demons, this shows that the kingdom of God has come to you.

29“If anyone wants to enter a strong man’s house and steal his things, first he must tie up the strong man. Then he can steal the things from the strong man’s house.

30“If anyone is not with me, then he is against me. He who does not work with me is working against me. 31So I tell you, people can be forgiven for every sin they do. And people can be forgiven for every bad thing they say. But if anyone speaks against the Holy Spirit, then he will not be forgiven. 32Anyone who says things against the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> can be forgiven. But anyone who says things against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. He will not be forgiven now or in the future.

People Know You by Your Words

33“If you want good fruit, you must make the tree good. If your tree is not good, then it will have bad fruit. A tree is known by the kind of fruit it produces. 34You snakes! You are evil people! How can you say anything good? The mouth speaks the things that are in the heart. 35A good person has good things in his heart. And so he speaks the good things that come from his heart. But an evil person has evil in his heart. So he speaks the evil things that come from his heart. 36And I tell you that people will have to explain about every careless thing they have said. This will happen on the Judgment Day. 37The words you have said will be used to judge you. Some of your words will prove you right, but some of your words will prove you guilty.”

The Jews Ask for a Miracle

38Then some of the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and teachers of the law answered Jesus. They said, “Teacher, we want to see you work a miracle<sup>d</sup> as a sign.”

39Jesus answered, “Evil and sinful people are the ones who want to see a miracle for a sign. But no sign will be given to them. The only sign will be what happened to the prophet<sup>d</sup> Jonah. 40Jonah was in the stomach of the big fish for three days and three nights. In the same way, the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be in the grave three days and three nights. 41And on the Judgment Day the men from Nineveh<sup>n</sup> will stand up with you people who live today. They will show that you are guilty because when Jonah preached to them, they were sorry and changed their lives. And I tell you that someone greater than Jonah is here! 42On the Judgment Day, the Queen of the South<sup>n</sup> will stand up with you people who live today. She will show that you are guilty because she came from far away to listen to Solomon’s wise teaching. And I tell you that someone greater than Solomon is here!

People Today Are Full of Evil

43“When an evil spirit comes out of a man, it travels through dry places looking for a place to rest. But it finds no place to rest. 44So the spirit says, ‘I will go back to the home I left.’ When the spirit comes back to the man, the spirit finds the home still empty. The home is swept clean and made neat. 45Then the evil spirit goes out and brings seven other spirits even more evil than it is. Then all the spirits go into the man and live there. And that man has even more trouble than he had before. It is the same way with the evil people who live to-day.”

<sup>n</sup>Nineveh The city where Jonah preached to warn the people. Read Jonah 3.

<sup>n</sup>Queen of the South The Queen of Sheba. She traveled 1,000 miles to learn God’s wisdom from Solomon. Read 1 Kings 10:1-13.

Jesus' True Family

<sup>46</sup>While Jesus was talking to the people, his mother and brothers stood outside. They wanted to talk to him. <sup>47</sup>Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and brothers are waiting for you outside. They want to talk to you."

<sup>48</sup>He answered, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" <sup>49</sup>Then he pointed to his followers and said, "See! These people are my mother and my brothers. <sup>50</sup>My true brothers and sisters and mother are those who do the things that my Father in heaven wants."

A Story About Planting Seed

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake. <sup>2</sup>Large crowds gathered around him. So Jesus got into a boat and sat, while the people stayed on the shore. <sup>3</sup>Then Jesus used stories to teach them many things. He said: "A farmer went out to plant his seed. <sup>4</sup>While he was planting, some seed fell by the road. The birds came and ate all that seed. <sup>5</sup>Some seed fell on rocky ground, where there wasn't enough dirt. That seed grew very fast, because the ground was not deep. <sup>6</sup>But when the sun rose, the plants dried up because they did not have deep roots. <sup>7</sup>Some other seed fell among thorny weeds. The weeds grew and choked the good plants. <sup>8</sup>Some other seed fell on good ground where it grew and became grain. Some plants made 100 times more grain. Other plants made 60 times more grain, and some made 30 times more grain. <sup>9</sup>You people who hear me, listen!"

Why Jesus Used Stories to Teach

<sup>10</sup>The followers came to Jesus and asked, "Why do you use stories to teach the people?"

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, "Only you can know the secret truths about the kingdom of heaven. Other people cannot know these secret truths. <sup>12</sup>The person who has something will be given more. And he will have all he needs. But the person who does not have much, even what he has will be taken from him. <sup>13</sup>This is why I use stories to teach the people: They see, but they don't really see. They hear, but they don't really understand. <sup>14</sup>So they show that the things Isaiah said about them are true:

"You will listen and listen, but you will not understand.

You will look and look, but you will not learn.

<sup>15</sup>For these people have become stubborn. They do not hear with their ears.

And they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might really understand what they see with their eyes and hear with their ears. They might really understand in their minds.

If they did this, they would come back to me and be forgiven."

Isaiah 6:9-10

<sup>16</sup>But you are blessed. You understand the things you see with your eyes. And you understand the things you hear with your ears. <sup>17</sup>I tell you the truth. Many prophets<sup>a</sup> and good people wanted to see the things that you now see. But they did not see them. And many prophets and good people wanted to hear the things that you now hear. But they did not hear them.

Jesus Explains the Seed Story

<sup>18</sup>"So listen to the meaning of that story about the farmer. <sup>19</sup>What is the seed that fell by the road? That seed is like the person who hears the teaching about the kingdom but does not understand it. The Evil One comes and takes away the things that were planted in that person's heart. <sup>20</sup>And what is the seed that fell on rocky ground? That seed is like the person who hears the teaching and quickly accepts it with joy. <sup>21</sup>But he does not let the teaching go deep into his life. He keeps it only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the teaching he accepted, then he quickly gives up. <sup>22</sup>And what is the seed that fell among the thorny weeds? That seed is like the person who hears the teaching but lets worries about this life and love of money stop that teaching from growing. So the teaching does not produce fruit<sup>a</sup> in that person's life. <sup>23</sup>But what is the seed that fell on the good ground? That seed is like the person who hears the teaching and understands it. That person grows and produces fruit, sometimes 100 times more, sometimes 60 times more, and sometimes 30 times more."

A Story About Wheat and Weeds

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus told them another story. He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who planted good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup>That night, when everyone was asleep, his enemy came and planted weeds among the wheat. Then the enemy went away. <sup>26</sup>Later, the wheat grew and heads of grain grew on the wheat plants. But at the same time the weeds also grew. <sup>27</sup>Then the man's servants came to him and said, 'You planted good seed in your field. Where did the weeds come from?' <sup>28</sup>The man answered, 'An enemy planted weeds.' The servants asked, 'Do you want us to pull up the weeds?' <sup>29</sup>The man answered, 'No, because when you pull up the weeds, you might also pull up the wheat. <sup>30</sup>Let the weeds and the wheat grow together until the harvest time. At harvest time I will tell the workers this: First gather the weeds and tie them together to be burned. Then gather the wheat and bring it to my barn.' "

<sup>a</sup>produce fruit To produce fruit means to have in your life the good things God wants.

Stories of Mustard Seed and Yeast

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus told another story: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed. A man plants the seed in his field. <sup>32</sup>That seed is the smallest of all seeds. But when it grows, it is one of the largest garden plants. It becomes a tree, big enough for the wild birds to come and make nests in its branches."

<sup>33</sup>Then Jesus told another story: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman mixes into a big bowl of flour. The yeast makes all the dough rise."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus used stories to tell all these things to the people. He always used stories to teach people. <sup>35</sup>This is as the prophet<sup>d</sup> said:

"I will speak using stories;

I will tell things that have been secret

since the world was made." Psalms 78:2

Jesus Explains About the Wheat and Weeds

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus left the crowd and went into the house. His followers came to him and said, "Explain to us the meaning of the story about the weeds in the field."

<sup>40</sup>"The weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire. It will be this way at the end of the world. <sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send out his angels. They will gather out of his kingdom all who cause sin and all who do evil. <sup>42</sup>The angels will throw them into the blazing furnace. There the people will cry and grind their teeth with pain. <sup>43</sup>Then the good people will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. You people who hear me, listen!

Stories of a Treasure and a Pearl

<sup>44</sup>"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field. One day a man found the treasure, and then he hid it in the field again. The man was very happy to find the treasure. He went and sold everything that he owned to buy that field.

<sup>45</sup>"Also, the kingdom of heaven is like a man looking for fine pearls. <sup>46</sup>One day he found a very valuable pearl. The man went and sold everything he had to buy that pearl.

A Story of a Fishing Net

<sup>47</sup>"Also, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was put into the lake. The net caught many different kinds of fish. <sup>48</sup>When it was full, the fishermen pulled the net to the shore. They sat down and put all the good fish in baskets. Then they threw away the bad fish. <sup>49</sup>It will be this way at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the evil people from the good people. <sup>50</sup>The angels will throw the evil people into the blazing furnace. In that place the people will cry and grind their teeth with pain.

<sup>51</sup>Jesus asked his followers, "Do you understand all these things?"

They answered, "Yes, we understand."

<sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "So every teacher of the law who has been taught about the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house. He brings out both new things and old things he has saved in his house."

Jesus Goes to His Hometown

<sup>53</sup>When Jesus finished teaching with these stories, he left there. <sup>54</sup>He went to the town where he grew up. He taught the people in the synagogue,<sup>d</sup> and they were amazed. They said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and this power to do miracles?<sup>d</sup> <sup>55</sup>He is only the son of the carpenter. And his mother is Mary. His brothers are James, Joseph, Simon and Judas. <sup>56</sup>And all his sisters are here with us. So where does this man get all these things?" <sup>57</sup>And the people refused to accept Jesus.

But Jesus said to them, "A prophet<sup>d</sup> is honored everywhere except in his own town or in his own home."

<sup>58</sup>The people there did not believe in Jesus. So Jesus did not do many miracles there.

How John the Baptist Was Killed

14 At that time Herod, the ruler of Galilee, heard the reports about Jesus. <sup>2</sup>So Herod said to his servants, "Jesus is really John the Baptist.<sup>d</sup> He has risen from death. That is why he is able to do these miracles.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Sometime before this, Herod had arrested John, tied him up, and put him into prison. Herod did this because of Herodias. Herodias was the wife of Philip, Herod’s brother. <sup>4</sup>Herod arrested John because he told Herod: “It is not right for you to have Herodias.” <sup>5</sup>Herod wanted to kill John, but he was afraid of the people. They believed that John was a prophet.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>6</sup>On Herod’s birthday, the daughter of Herodias danced for Herod and his guests. Herod was very pleased with her. <sup>7</sup>So he promised he would give her anything she wanted. <sup>8</sup>Herodias told her daughter what to ask for. So she said to Herod, “Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter.” <sup>9</sup>King Herod was very sad. But he had promised to give her anything she wanted, and the people eating with him had heard his promise. So Herod ordered that what she asked for be done. <sup>10</sup>He sent men to the prison to cut off John’s head. <sup>11</sup>And the men brought John’s head on a platter and gave it to the girl. She took it to her mother, Herodias. <sup>12</sup>John’s followers came and got his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus what happened.

More than 5,000 People Fed

<sup>13</sup>When Jesus heard what happened to John, Jesus left in a boat. He went to a lonely place by himself. But when the crowds heard about it, they followed him on foot from the towns. <sup>14</sup>When Jesus arrived, he saw a large crowd. He felt sorry for them and healed those who were sick.

<sup>15</sup>Late that afternoon, his followers came to him and said, “No one lives in this place. And it is already late. Send the people away so they can go to the towns and buy food for themselves.”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus answered, “They don’t need to go away. You give them some food to eat.”

<sup>17</sup>The followers answered, “But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish.”

<sup>18</sup>Jesus said, “Bring the bread and the fish to me.” <sup>19</sup>Then he told the people to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves of bread and the two fish. Then he looked to heaven and thanked God for the food. Jesus divided the loaves of bread. He gave them to his followers, and they gave the bread to the people. <sup>20</sup>All the people ate and were satisfied. After they finished eating, the followers filled 12 baskets with the pieces of food that were not eaten.

<sup>21</sup>There were about 5,000 men there who ate, as well as women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water

<sup>22</sup>Then Jesus made his followers get into the boat. He told them to go ahead of him to the other side of the lake. Jesus stayed there to tell the people they could go home. <sup>23</sup>After he said good-bye to them, he went alone up into the hills to pray. It was late, and Jesus was there alone. <sup>24</sup>By this time, the boat was already far away on the lake. The boat was having trouble because of the waves, and the wind was blowing against it.

<sup>25</sup>Between three and six o’clock in the morning, Jesus’ followers were still in the boat. Jesus came to them, walking on the water. <sup>26</sup>When the followers saw him walking on the water, they were afraid. They said, “It’s a ghost!” and cried out in fear.

<sup>27</sup>But Jesus quickly spoke to them. He said, “Have courage! It is I! Don’t be afraid.”

<sup>28</sup>Peter said, “Lord, if that is really you, then tell me to come to you on the water.”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus said, “Come.”

And Peter left the boat and walked on the water to Jesus. <sup>30</sup>But when Peter saw the wind and the waves, he became afraid and began to sink. He shouted, “Lord, save me!”

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus reached out his hand and caught Peter. Jesus said, “Your faith is small. Why did you doubt?”

<sup>32</sup>After Peter and Jesus were in the boat, the wind became calm. <sup>33</sup>Then those who were in the boat worshiped Jesus and said, “Truly you are the Son of God!”

<sup>34</sup>After they crossed the lake, they came to the shore at Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup>The people there saw Jesus and knew who he was. So they told people all around there that Jesus had come. They brought all their sick to him. <sup>36</sup>They begged Jesus to let them just touch the edge of his coat to be healed. And all the sick people who touched it were healed.

Obey God’s Law, Not Men’s

15 Then some Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem. They asked him, <sup>24</sup>“Why do your followers not obey the rules given to us by the great people who lived before us? Your followers don’t wash their hands before they eat!”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, “And why do you refuse to obey God’s command so that you can follow those rules you have? <sup>4</sup>God said, ‘Honor your father and mother.’<sup>n</sup> And God also said, ‘Anyone who says cruel things to his father or mother must be put to death.’<sup>n</sup> <sup>5</sup>But you say that a person can tell his father or mother, ‘I have something I could use to help you. But I will not use it for you. I will give it to God.’ <sup>6</sup>You teach that person not to honor his father. You teach that it is not important to do what God said. You think that it is more important to follow the rules you have. <sup>7</sup>You are hypocrites!<sup>d</sup> Isaiah was right when he spoke about you:

<sup>8</sup>These people show honor to me with words.

But their hearts are far from me.

<sup>9</sup>Their worship of me is worthless.

The things they teach are nothing but human rules they have memorized.’ ”

Isaiah 29:13

<sup>10</sup>Jesus called the crowd to him. He said, “Listen and understand what I am saying. <sup>11</sup>It is not what a person puts into his mouth that makes him unclean.<sup>d</sup> It is what comes out of his mouth that makes him unclean.”

<sup>12</sup>Then his followers came to him and asked, “Do you know that the Pharisees are angry because of what you said?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered, “Every plant that my Father in heaven has not planted himself will be pulled up by the roots. <sup>14</sup>Stay away from the Pharisees. They are blind leaders. And if a blind man leads another blind man, then both men will fall into a ditch.”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus said, “You still have trouble understanding? <sup>17</sup>Surely you know that all the food that enters the mouth goes into the stomach. Then that food goes out of the body. <sup>18</sup>But what a person says with his mouth comes from the way he thinks. And these are the things that make him unclean. <sup>19</sup>Out of his mind come evil thoughts, murder, adultery,<sup>d</sup> sexual sins, stealing, lying, and saying bad things against other people. <sup>20</sup>These things make a person unclean. But eating with unwashed hands does not make him unclean.”

Jesus Helps a Non-Jewish Woman

<sup>21</sup>Jesus left that place and went to the area of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup>A Canaanite woman from that area came to Jesus. The woman cried out, “Lord, Son of David,<sup>d</sup> please help me! My daughter has a demon,<sup>d</sup> and she is suffering very much.”

<sup>23</sup>But Jesus did not answer the woman. So the followers came to Jesus and begged him, “Tell the woman to go away. She is following us and shouting.”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered, “God sent me only to the lost sheep, the people of Israel.”

<sup>25</sup>Then the woman came to Jesus again. She bowed before him and said, “Lord, help me!”

<sup>27</sup>The woman said, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat the pieces of food that fall from their masters’ table.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Jesus answered, “Woman, you have great faith! I will do what you asked me to do.” And at that moment the woman’s daughter was healed.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus left that place and went to the shore of Lake Galilee. He went up on a hill and sat there.

<sup>30</sup>Great crowds came to Jesus. They brought their sick with them: the lame, the blind, the crippled, the dumb and many others. They put them at Jesus’ feet, and he healed them. <sup>31</sup>The crowd was amazed when they saw that people who could not speak were able to speak again. The crippled were made strong again. Those who could not walk were able to walk again. The blind were able to see again. And they praised the God of Israel for this.

More than 4,000 People Fed

<sup>32</sup>Jesus called his followers to him and said, “I feel sorry for these people. They have been with me three days, and now they have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry. They might faint while going home.”

<sup>33</sup>His followers asked him, “Where can we get enough bread to feed all these people? We are far away from any town.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus asked, “How many loaves of bread do you have?”

They answered, “We have seven loaves and a few small fish.”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus told the people to sit on the ground. <sup>36</sup>He took the seven loaves of bread and the fish and gave thanks to God for the food. Then Jesus divided the food and gave it to his followers. They gave the food to the people. <sup>37</sup>All the people ate and were satisfied. After this, the followers filled seven baskets with the pieces of food that were not eaten. <sup>38</sup>There were about

4,000 men there who ate, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup>After they ate, Jesus told the people to go home. He got into the boat and went to the area of Magadan.

The Leaders Ask for a Miracle

16 The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and Sadducees<sup>d</sup> came to Jesus. They wanted to trap him. So they asked him to show them a miracle<sup>d</sup> to prove that he was from God.

<sup>2</sup>Jesus answered, “When you see the sunset, you know what the weather will be. If the sky is red, then you say we will have good weather. <sup>3</sup>And in the morning if the sky is dark and red, then you say that it will be a rainy day. You see these signs in the sky, and you know what they mean. In the same way, you see the things that are happening now. But you don’t know their meaning. <sup>4</sup>Evil and sinful people ask for a miracle as a sign. But they will have no sign—only the sign of Jonah.”<sup>n</sup> Then Jesus left them and went away.

Guard Against Wrong Teachings

<sup>5</sup>Jesus and his followers went across the lake. But the followers forgot to bring bread. <sup>6</sup>Jesus said to them, “Be careful! Guard against the yeast of the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and the Sadducees.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>7</sup>The followers discussed the meaning of this. They said, “Did Jesus say this because we forgot to bring bread?”

<sup>8</sup>Jesus knew that they were talking about this. So he asked them, “Why are you talking about not having bread? Your faith is small. <sup>9</sup>You still don’t understand? Remember the five loaves of bread that fed the 5,000 people? And remember that you filled many baskets with bread after the people finished eating? <sup>10</sup>And remember the seven loaves of bread that fed the 4,000 people? Remember that you filled many baskets then also? <sup>11</sup>So I was not talking to you about bread. Why don’t you understand that? I am telling you to be careful and guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.” <sup>12</sup>Then the followers understood what Jesus meant. He was not telling them to guard against the yeast used in bread. He was telling them to guard against the teaching of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.

Peter Says Jesus Is the Christ

<sup>13</sup>Jesus went to the area of Caesarea Philippi.

He said to his followers, “I am the Son of Man.<sup>d</sup> Who do the people say I am?”

<sup>15</sup>Then Jesus asked them, “And who do you say I am?”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus answered, “You are blessed, Simon son of Jonah. No person taught you that. My Father in heaven showed you who I am. <sup>18</sup>So I tell you, you are Peter.<sup>n</sup> And I will build my church on this rock. The power of death will not be able to defeat my church. <sup>19</sup>I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. The things you don’t allow on earth will be the things that God does not allow. The things you allow on earth will be the things that God allows.” <sup>20</sup>Then Jesus warned his followers not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

Jesus Says that He Must Die

<sup>21</sup>From that time on Jesus began telling his followers that he must go to Jerusalem. He explained that the older Jewish leaders, the leading priests, and the teachers of the law would make him suffer many things. And he told them that he must be killed. Then, on the third day, he would be raised from death.

<sup>22</sup>Peter took Jesus aside and began to criticize him. Peter said, “God save you from those things, Lord! Those things will never happen to you!”

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to Peter, “Go away from me, Satan!<sup>n</sup> You are not helping me! You don’t care about the things of God. You care only about things that men think are important.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to his followers, “If anyone wants to follow me, he must say ‘no’ to the things he wants. He must be willing even to die on a cross, and he must follow me. <sup>25</sup>Whoever wants to save his life will give up true life. And whoever gives up his life for me will have true life. <sup>26</sup>It is worth nothing for a man to have the whole world if he loses his soul. He could never pay enough to buy back his soul. <sup>27</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will come again with his Father’s glory and with his angels. At that time, he will reward everyone for what he has done. <sup>28</sup>I tell you the truth. There are some people standing here who, before they die, will see the Son of Man coming with his kingdom.”

Jesus Talks with Moses and Elijah

17 Six days later, Jesus took Peter, James, and John the brother of James up on a high mountain. They were all alone there. <sup>2</sup>While they watched, Jesus was changed. His face became bright like the sun. And his clothes became white as light. <sup>3</sup>Then Moses and Elijah<sup>a</sup> appeared to them, talking with him.

<sup>4</sup>Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you want, I will put three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>5</sup>While Peter was talking, a bright cloud covered them. A voice came from the cloud. The voice said, “This is my Son and I love him. I am very pleased with him. Obey him!”

<sup>6</sup>The followers with Jesus heard the voice. They were so frightened that they fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup>But Jesus went to them and touched them. He said, “Stand up. Don’t be afraid.” <sup>8</sup>When the followers looked up, they saw Jesus was now alone.

<sup>9</sup>When Jesus and the followers were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Don’t tell anyone about the things you saw on the mountain. Wait until the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> has been raised from death. Then you may tell.”

<sup>10</sup>The followers asked Jesus, “Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first, before the Christ<sup>d</sup> comes?”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, “They are right to say that Elijah is coming. And it is true that Elijah will make everything the way it should be. <sup>12</sup>But I tell you, Elijah has already come. People did not know who he was. They did to him everything they wanted to do. It will be the same with the Son of Man. Those same people will make the Son of Man suffer.” <sup>13</sup>Then the followers understood that Jesus was talking about John the Baptist.<sup>d</sup>

Jesus Heals a Sick Boy

<sup>14</sup>Jesus and his followers went back to the crowd. A man came to Jesus and bowed before him. <sup>15</sup>The man said, “Lord, please help my son. He has epilepsy<sup>a</sup> and is suffering very much. He often falls into the fire or into the water. <sup>16</sup>I brought him to your followers, but they could not cure him.”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus answered, “You people have no faith. Your lives are all wrong. How long must I stay with you? How long must I continue to be patient with you? Bring the boy here.” <sup>18</sup>Jesus gave a strong command to the demon<sup>d</sup> inside the boy. Then the demon came out, and the boy was healed.

<sup>19</sup>The followers came to Jesus when he was alone. They said, “Why couldn’t we force the demon out?”

<sup>20</sup>Jesus answered, “You were not able to drive out the demon because your faith is too small. I tell you the truth. If your faith is as big as a mustard seed,<sup>e</sup> you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there.’ And the mountain will move. All things will be possible for you.” <sup>21</sup> <sup>a</sup>

Jesus Talks About His Death

<sup>22</sup>Later, the followers met together in Galilee. Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be given into the control of some men. <sup>23</sup>They will kill him, but on the third day he will be raised from death.” And the followers were filled with sadness.

Jesus Talks About Paying Taxes

<sup>24</sup>Jesus and his followers went to Capernaum. There some men came to Peter. They were the men who collected the Temple<sup>d</sup> tax. They asked, “Does your teacher pay the Temple tax?”

<sup>25</sup>Peter answered, “Yes, Jesus pays the tax.” Peter went into the house where Jesus was. Before Peter could speak, Jesus said to him, “The kings on the earth collect different kinds of taxes. But who are the people who pay the taxes? Are they the king’s children? Or do others pay the taxes? What do you think?”

Jesus said to Peter, “Then the children of the king don’t have to pay taxes. <sup>27</sup>But we don’t want to make these tax collectors angry. So go to the lake and fish. After you catch the first fish, open its mouth. Inside its mouth you will find a coin. Take that coin and give it to the tax collectors. That will pay the tax for you and me.”

<sup>d</sup>epilepsy A disease that causes a person sometimes to lose control of his body, and maybe faint, shake strongly, or not be able to move.

<sup>a</sup>Verse 21 Some Greek copies add verse 21: “That kind of spirit comes out only if you use prayer and give up eating.”

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At that time the followers came to Jesus and asked, "Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

<sup>2</sup>Jesus called a little child to him. He stood the child before the followers. <sup>3</sup>Then he said, "I tell you the truth. You must change and become like little children. If you don't do this, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. <sup>4</sup>The greatest person in the kingdom of heaven is the one who makes himself humble like this child.

<sup>5</sup>"Whoever accepts a little child in my name accepts me. <sup>6</sup>If one of these little children believes in me, and someone causes that child to sin, then it will be very bad for that person. It would be better for him to have a large stone tied around his neck and be drowned in the sea. <sup>7</sup>How terrible for the people of the world because of the things that cause them to sin. Such things will happen. But how terrible for the one who causes them to happen. <sup>8</sup>If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to have only part of your body but have life forever. That is much better than to have two hands and two feet but be thrown into the fire that burns forever. <sup>9</sup>If your eye causes you to sin, take it out and throw it away. It is better for you to have only one eye but have life forever. That is much better than to have two eyes but be thrown into the fire of hell.

A Lost Sheep

<sup>10</sup>"Be careful. Don't think these little children are worth nothing. I tell you that they have angels in heaven who are always with my Father in heaven. <sup>11</sup> <sup>a</sup>

<sup>12</sup>"If a man has 100 sheep, but 1 of the sheep gets lost, he will leave the other 99 sheep on the hill. He will go to look for the lost sheep. <sup>13</sup>And if he finds it, he is happier about that 1 sheep than about the 99 that were never lost. I tell you the truth. <sup>14</sup>In the same way, your Father in heaven does not want any of these little children to be lost.

When a Person Sins Against You

<sup>15</sup>"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him what he did wrong. Do this in private. If he listens to you, then you have helped him to be your brother again. <sup>16</sup>But if he refuses to listen, then go to him again and take one or two other people with you. 'Every case may be proved by two or three witnesses.' <sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup>If he refuses to listen to them, then tell it to the church. If he refuses to listen to the church, then treat him as you would one who does not believe in God. Treat him as if he were a tax collector.

<sup>18</sup>"I tell you the truth. The things you don't allow on earth will be the things God does not allow. The things you allow on earth will be the things that God allows.

<sup>19</sup>"Also, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about something, then you can pray for it. And the thing you ask for will be done for you by my Father in heaven. <sup>20</sup>This is true because if two or three people come together in my name, I am there with them."

An Unforgiving Servant

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, when my brother sins against me, how many times must I forgive him? Should I forgive him as many as 7 times?"

<sup>22</sup>Jesus answered, "I tell you, you must forgive him more than 7 times. You must forgive him even if he does wrong to you 77 times."

<sup>26</sup>"But the servant fell on his knees and begged, 'Be patient with me. I will pay you everything I owe.' <sup>27</sup>The master felt sorry for his servant. So the master told the servant he did not have to pay. He let the servant go free.

<sup>28</sup>"Later, that same servant found another servant who owed him a few dollars. The servant grabbed the other servant around the neck and said, 'Pay me the money you owe me!'

<sup>29</sup>"The other servant fell on his knees and begged him, 'Be patient with me. I will pay you everything I owe.'

<sup>30</sup>"But the first servant refused to be patient. He threw the other servant into prison until he could pay everything he owed. <sup>31</sup>All the other servants saw what happened. They were very sorry. So they went and told their master all that had happened.

<sup>32</sup>"Then the master called his servant in and said, 'You evil servant! You begged me to forget what you owed. So I told you that you did not have to pay anything. <sup>33</sup>I had mercy on you. You should have had the same mercy on that other servant.' <sup>34</sup>The master was very angry, and he put the servant in prison to be punished. The servant had to stay in prison until he could pay everything he owed.

<sup>35</sup>"This thing did what my heavenly Father will do to you if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

Jesus Teaches About Divorce

19 After Jesus said all these things, he left Galilee. He went into the area of Judea on the other side of the Jordan River. <sup>2</sup>Large crowds followed Jesus, and he healed them there.

<sup>3</sup>Some Pharisees<sup>d</sup> came to Jesus and tried to trick him. They asked, "Is it right for a man to divorce his wife for any reason he chooses?"

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered, "Surely you have read in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> When God made the world, 'he made them male and female.'<sup>n</sup> <sup>5</sup>And God said, 'So a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife. And the two people will become one body.'<sup>n</sup> <sup>6</sup>So the two are not two, but one. God joined the two people together. No person should separate them."

<sup>7</sup>The Pharisees asked, "Why then did Moses give a command for a man to divorce his wife by giving her divorce papers?"

<sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, "Moses allowed you to divorce your wives because you refused to accept God's teaching. But divorce was not allowed in the beginning. <sup>9</sup>I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman is guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> The only reason for a man to divorce and marry again is if his first wife has sexual relations with another man."

<sup>10</sup>The followers said to him, "If that is the only reason a man can divorce his wife, then it is better not to marry."

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, "Not everyone can accept this truth about marriage. But God has made some able to accept it. <sup>12</sup>There are different reasons why some men cannot marry. Some men were born without the ability to become fathers. Others were made that way later in life by other people. And other men have given up marriage because of the kingdom of heaven. But the person who can marry should accept this teaching about marriage."<sup>n</sup>

Jesus Welcomes Children

<sup>13</sup>Then the people brought their little children to Jesus so that he could put his hands on them<sup>n</sup> and pray for them. When his followers saw this, they told the people to stop bringing their children to Jesus. <sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me. Don't stop them, because the kingdom of heaven belongs to people who are like these children." <sup>15</sup>After Jesus put his hands on the children, he left there.

A Rich Young Man's Question

<sup>16</sup>A man came to Jesus and asked, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to have life forever?"

<sup>17</sup>Jesus answered, "Why do you ask me about what is good? Only God is good. But if you want to have life forever, obey the commands."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>18</sup>The man asked, "Which commands?"

Jesus answered, "'You must not murder anyone. You must not be guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> You must not steal. You must not tell lies about your neighbor in court. <sup>19</sup>Honor your father and mother.'<sup>n</sup> Love your neighbor as you love yourself.'<sup>n</sup>"

<sup>20</sup>The young man said, "I have obeyed all these things. What else do I need to do?"

<sup>21</sup>Jesus answered, "If you want to be perfect, then go and sell all the things you own. Give the money to the poor. If you do this, you will have a treasure in heaven. Then come and follow me!"

<sup>22</sup>But when the young man heard this, he became very sad because he was very rich. So he left Jesus.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to his followers, "I tell you the truth. It will be very hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven. <sup>24</sup>Yes, I tell you that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."

<sup>25</sup>When the followers heard this, they were very surprised. They asked, "Then who can be saved?"

<sup>26</sup>Jesus looked at them and said, "This is <sup>d</sup>he made . . . female.' Quotation from Genesis 1:27 or 5:2.

<sup>d</sup>But . . . marriage. This may also mean, "The person who can accept this teaching about not marrying should accept it."

something that men cannot do. But God can do all things."

<sup>27</sup>Peter said to Jesus, "We left everything we had and followed you. So what will we have?"

<sup>28</sup>Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth. When the new age comes, the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will sit on his great throne. And all of you who followed me will also sit on 12 thrones. And you will judge the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>29</sup>And everyone who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, children, or farms to follow me will get much more than he left. And he will have life forever. <sup>30</sup>Many who have the highest place in life now will have the lowest place in the future. And many who have the lowest place now will have the highest place in the future.

A Story About Vineyard Workers

20 "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who owned some land. One morning, he went out very early to hire some people to work in his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>The man agreed to pay the workers one silver coin<sup>n</sup> for working that day. Then he sent them into the vineyard to work. <sup>3</sup>About nine o'clock the man went to the marketplace and saw some other people standing there, doing nothing. <sup>4</sup>So he said to them, 'If you go and work in my vineyard, I will pay you what your work is worth.' <sup>5</sup>So they went to work in the vineyard. The man went out again about twelve o'clock and again at three o'clock. Both times he hired people to work in his vineyard. <sup>6</sup>About five o'clock the man went to the marketplace again. He saw others standing there. He asked them, 'Why did you stand here all day doing nothing?' <sup>7</sup>They answered, 'No one gave us a job.' The man said to them, 'Then you can go and work in my vineyard.'

<sup>8</sup>"At the end of the day, the owner of the vineyard said to the boss of all the workers, 'Call the workers and pay them. Start by paying the last people I hired. Then pay all of them, ending with the workers I hired first.'

<sup>9</sup>"The workers who were hired at five o'clock came to get their pay. Each worker received one silver coin. <sup>10</sup>Then the workers who were hired first came to get their pay. They thought they would be paid more than the others. But each one of them also received one silver coin. <sup>11</sup>When they got their silver coin, they complained to the man who owned the land. <sup>12</sup>They said, 'Those people were hired last and worked only one hour. But you paid them the same as you paid us. And we worked hard all day in the hot sun.' <sup>13</sup>But the man who owned the vineyard said to one of those workers, 'Friend, I am being fair to you. You agreed to work for one silver coin. <sup>14</sup>So take your pay and go. I want to give the man who was hired last the same pay that I gave you. <sup>15</sup>I can do what I want with my own money. Are you jealous because I am good to those people?'

<sup>16</sup>"So those who have the last place now will have the first place in the future. And those who have the first place now will have the last place in the future."

Jesus Talks About His Own Death

<sup>17</sup>While Jesus was going to Jerusalem, he gathered the 12 followers together privately. He said to them, <sup>18</sup>"We are going to Jerusalem. The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be turned over to the leading priests and the teachers of the law. They will say that he must die. <sup>19</sup>They will give the Son of Man to the non-Jewish people. They will laugh at him and beat him with whips, and then they will kill him on a cross. But on the third day after his death, he will be raised to life again."

A Mother Asks Jesus a Favor

<sup>20</sup>Then the wife of Zebedee came to Jesus with her sons. She bowed before Jesus and asked him to do something for her.

<sup>21</sup>Jesus asked, "What do you want?"

She said, "Promise that one of my sons will sit at your right side in your kingdom. And promise that the other son will sit at your left side."

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus said, "You don't understand what you are asking. Can you accept the kind of suffering that I must suffer?"<sup>n</sup>

The sons answered, "Yes, we can!"

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said to them, "Truly you will suffer the same things that I will suffer. But I cannot choose who will sit at my right side or my left side. Those places belong to those for whom my Father has prepared them."

<sup>24</sup>The other ten followers heard this and were angry with the two brothers.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus called all the followers together. He said, "You know that the rulers of the non-Jewish people love to show their power over the people. And their important leaders love to use all their authority. <sup>26</sup>But it should not be that way among you. If one of you wants to become great, then he must serve the rest of you like a servant. <sup>27</sup>If one of you wants to become first, then he must serve the rest of you like a slave. <sup>28</sup>So it is with the Son of Man.<sup>d</sup> The Son of Man did not come for other people to serve him. He came to serve others. The Son of Man came to give his life to save many people.”

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

<sup>29</sup>When Jesus and his followers were leaving Jericho, a great many people followed Jesus. <sup>30</sup>There were two blind men sitting by the road. The blind men heard that Jesus was going by, so they shouted, “Lord, Son of David,<sup>d</sup> please help us!”

<sup>31</sup>All the people criticized the blind men. They told them to be quiet. But the blind men shouted more and more, “Lord, Son of David, please help us!”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus stopped and said to the blind men, “What do you want me to do for you?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus felt sorry for the blind men. He touched their eyes, and at once they were able to see. Then the men followed Jesus.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem as a King

21 Jesus and his followers were coming closer to Jerusalem. But first they stopped at Bethphage at the hill called the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup> From there Jesus sent two of his followers into the town. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, “Go to the town you can see there. When you enter it, you will find a donkey tied there with its colt. Untie them and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks you why you are taking the donkeys, tell him, ‘The Master needs them. He will send them back soon.’”

<sup>4</sup>This was to make clear the full meaning of what the prophet<sup>d</sup> said:

<sup>5</sup>“Tell the people of Jerusalem,
“Your king is coming to you.
He is gentle and riding on a donkey.
He is on the colt of a donkey.””

<sup>6</sup>The followers went and did what Jesus told them to do. <sup>7</sup>They brought the donkey and the colt to Jesus. They laid their coats on the donkeys, and Jesus sat on them. <sup>8</sup>Many people spread their coats on the road before Jesus.

Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup>Some of the people were walking ahead of Jesus. Others were walking behind him. All the people were shouting,

“Praise<sup>n</sup> to the Son of David!<sup>d</sup>

God bless the One who comes in the name of the Lord!

Psalms 118:26

Praise to God in heaven!”

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus went into Jerusalem. The city was filled with excitement. The people asked, “Who is this man?”

<sup>11</sup>The crowd answered, “This man is Jesus. He is the prophet from the town of Nazareth in Galilee.”

Jesus Goes to the Temple

<sup>12</sup>Jesus went into the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He threw out all the people who were buying and selling there. He turned over the tables that belonged to the men who were exchanging different kinds of money. And he upset the benches of those who were selling doves. <sup>13</sup>Jesus said to all the people there, “It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> ‘My Temple will be a house where people will pray.’<sup>n</sup> But you are changing God’s house into a ‘hideout for robbers.’”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>14</sup>The blind and crippled people came to Jesus in the Temple, and Jesus healed them. <sup>15</sup>The leading priests and the teachers of the law saw that Jesus was doing wonderful things. They saw the children praising him in the Temple. The children were saying, “Praise<sup>n</sup> to the Son of David.”<sup>d</sup> All these things made the priests and the teachers of the law very angry.

<sup>16</sup>They asked Jesus, “Do you hear the things these children are saying?”

Jesus answered, “Yes. Haven’t you read in the Scriptures, ‘You have taught children and babies to sing praises?’”<sup>n</sup> <sup>17</sup>Then Jesus left and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night.

The Power of Faith

<sup>18</sup>Early the next morning, Jesus was going back to the city. He was very hungry. <sup>19</sup>He saw a fig tree beside the road. Jesus went to it, but there were no figs on the tree. There were only leaves. So Jesus said to the tree, “You will never again have fruit!” The tree immediately dried up.

<sup>20</sup>His followers saw this and were amazed.

<sup>d</sup>Praise Literally, “Hosanna,” a Hebrew word used at first in praying to God for help. At this time it was probably a shout of joy used in praising God or his Messiah.

They asked, “How did the fig tree dry up so quickly?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth. If you have faith and do not doubt, you will be able to do what I did to this tree. And you will be able to do more. You will be able to say to this mountain, ‘Go, mountain, fall into the sea.’ And if you have faith, it will happen. <sup>22</sup>If you believe, you will get anything you ask for in prayer.”

Leaders Doubt Jesus’ Authority

<sup>23</sup>Jesus went to the Temple.<sup>d</sup> While he was teaching there, the leading priests and the older leaders of the people came to Jesus. They said to him, “Tell us! What authority do you have to do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered, “I will ask you a question, too. If you answer me, then I will tell you what authority I have to do these things. <sup>25</sup>Tell me: When John baptized people, did that come from God or from man?”

The priests and the leaders argued about Jesus’ question. They said to each other, “If we answer, ‘John’s baptism was from God,’ then Jesus will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe John?’ <sup>26</sup>But if we say, ‘It was from man,’ we are afraid of what the people will do because they all believe that John was a prophet.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>27</sup>So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Then Jesus said, “Then I won’t tell you what authority I have to do these things!

A Story About Two Sons

<sup>28</sup>“Tell me what you think about this: There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first son and said, ‘Son, go and work today in my vineyard.’ <sup>29</sup>The son answered, ‘I will not go.’ But later the son decided he should go, and he went. <sup>30</sup>Then the father went to the other son and said, ‘Son, go and work today in my vineyard.’ The son answered, ‘Yes, sir, I will go and work.’ But he did not go. <sup>31</sup>Which of the two sons obeyed his father?”

The priests and leaders answered, “The first son.”

Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth. The tax collectors and the prostitutes<sup>d</sup> will enter the kingdom of God before you do. <sup>32</sup>John came to show you the right way to live. And you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes believed John. You saw this, but you still refused to change and believe him.

A Story About God’s Son

<sup>33</sup>“Listen to this story: There was a man who owned a vineyard. He put a wall around the vineyard and dug a hole for a winepress.<sup>d</sup> Then he built a tower. He leased the land to some farmers and left for a trip. <sup>34</sup>Later, it was time for the grapes to be picked. So the man sent his servants to the farmers to get his share of the grapes. <sup>35</sup>But the farmers grabbed the servants, beat one, killed another, and then killed a third servant with stones. <sup>36</sup>So the man sent some other servants to the farmers. He sent more servants than he sent the first time. But the farmers did the same thing to the servants that they had done before. <sup>37</sup>So the man decided to send his son to the farmers. He said, ‘The farmers will respect my son.’ <sup>38</sup>But when the farmers saw the son, they said to each other, ‘This is the owner’s son. This vineyard will be his. If we kill him, then his vineyard will be ours!’ <sup>39</sup>So the farmers grabbed the son, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. <sup>40</sup>So what will the owner of the vineyard do to these farmers when he comes?”

<sup>41</sup>The priests and leaders said, “He will surely kill those evil men. Then he will lease the vineyard to some other farmers. They will give him his share of the crop at harvest time.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, “Surely you have read this in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

‘The stone that the builders did not want became the cornerstone.’<sup>d</sup>

The Lord did this,

and it is wonderful to us.’

Psalms 118:22-23

<sup>43</sup>“So I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you. It will be given to people who do the things God wants in his kingdom. <sup>44</sup>The person who falls on this stone will be broken. But if the stone falls on him, he will be crushed.”

<sup>45</sup>The leading priests and the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> heard these stories that Jesus told. They knew he was talking about them. <sup>46</sup>They wanted to arrest him. But they were afraid of the people, because the people believed that Jesus was a prophet.<sup>d</sup>

A Story About a Wedding Feast

22 Jesus used stories to tell other things to the people. He said, <sup>21</sup>“The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding feast for his son. <sup>3</sup>The king invited some people to the feast. When the feast was ready, the king sent his servants to tell the people to come. But they refused to come to the feast.

<sup>4</sup>“Then the king sent other servants. He said to them, 'Tell those who have been invited that my feast is ready. I have killed my best bulls and calves for the dinner. Everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.'

<sup>5</sup>"But the people refused to listen to the servants. They went to do other things. One went to work in his field, and another went to his business. <sup>6</sup>Some of the other people grabbed the servants, beat them, and killed them. <sup>7</sup>The king was very angry. He sent his army to kill the people who had killed his servants. And the army burned their city.

<sup>8</sup>"After that, the king said to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready. I invited those people, but they were not worthy to come. <sup>9</sup>So go to the street corners and invite everyone you see. Tell them to come to my feast.' <sup>10</sup>So the servants went into the streets. They gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup>"Then the king came in to see all the guests. He saw a man there who was not dressed in the right clothes for a wedding. <sup>12</sup>The king said, 'Friend, how were you allowed to come in here? You are not wearing the right clothes for a wedding.' But the man said nothing. <sup>13</sup>So the king told some servants, 'Tie this man's hands and feet. Throw him out into the darkness. In that place, people will cry and grind their teeth with pain.'

<sup>14</sup>"Yes, many people are invited. But only a few are chosen."

Jewish Leaders Try to Trap Jesus

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> left the place where Jesus was teaching. They made plans to trap Jesus with a question. <sup>16</sup>They sent some of their own followers and some men from the group called Herodians.<sup>a</sup> These men said, "Teacher, we know that you are an honest man. We know that you teach the truth about God's way. You are not afraid of what other people think about you. All men are the same to you. <sup>17</sup>So tell us what you think. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar<sup>d</sup> or not?"

<sup>18</sup>But Jesus knew that these men were trying to trick him. So he said, "You hypocrites!<sup>d</sup> Why are you trying to trap me? <sup>19</sup>Show me a coin used for paying the tax." The men showed him a silver coin. <sup>20</sup>Then Jesus asked, "Whose picture is on the coin? And whose name is written on the coin?"

Then Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's. And give to God the things that are God's."

<sup>22</sup>The men heard what Jesus said, and they were amazed. They left him and went away.

Sadducees Try to Trick Jesus

<sup>23</sup>That same day some Sadducees<sup>d</sup> came to Jesus. (Sadducees believe that no person will rise from death.) The Sadducees asked Jesus a question. <sup>24</sup>They said, "Teacher, Moses told us that a married man might die without having children. Then his brother must marry the widow and have children for him. <sup>25</sup>There were seven brothers among us. The first one married but died. He had no children. So his brother married the widow. <sup>26</sup>Then the second brother also died. The same thing happened to the third brother and all the other brothers. <sup>27</sup>The woman was last to die. <sup>28</sup>But all seven men had married her. So when people rise from death, whose wife will she be?"

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "You don't understand because you don't know what the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say. And you don't know about the power of God. <sup>30</sup>When people rise from death, there will be no marriage. People will not be married to each other. They will be like the angels in heaven. <sup>31</sup>Surely you have read what God said to you about the rising from death? <sup>32</sup>God said, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'<sup>a</sup> God is the God of living people, not dead people."

<sup>33</sup>All the people heard this. They were amazed at Jesus' teaching.

The Most Important Command

law and the writings of the prophets<sup>d</sup> depend on these two commands.”

Jesus Questions the Pharisees

The Pharisees answered, “The Christ is the Son of David.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>43</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Then why did David call him ‘Lord’? David was speaking by the power of the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> David said, <sup>44</sup>‘The Lord said to my Lord:

Sit by me at my right side, until I put your enemies under your control.’

Psalm 110:1

<sup>45</sup>David calls the Christ ‘Lord.’ So how can he be David’s son?”

<sup>46</sup>None of the Pharisees could answer Jesus’ question. And after that day no one was brave enough to ask Jesus any more questions.

Jesus Accuses Jewish Leaders

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his followers. Jesus said, <sup>24</sup>‘The teachers of the law and the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> have the authority to tell you what the law of Moses says. <sup>25</sup>So you should obey and follow whatever they tell you. But their lives are not good examples for you to follow. They tell you to do things, but they don’t do the things themselves. <sup>26</sup>They make strict rules and try to force people to obey them. But they themselves will not try to follow any of those rules.

<sup>27</sup>‘The reason they do good things is so other people will see them. They make the boxes<sup>a</sup> of Scriptures<sup>d</sup> that they wear bigger and bigger. And they make their special prayer clothes very long so that people will notice them. <sup>28</sup>Those Pharisees and teachers of the law love to have the most important seats at the feasts. And they love to have the most important seats in the synagogues.<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>They love people to show respect to them in the marketplaces. And they love to have people call them ‘Teacher.’

<sup>30</sup>‘But you must not be called ‘Teacher.’ You are all brothers and sisters together. You have only one Teacher. <sup>31</sup>And don’t call any person on earth ‘Father.’ You have one Father. He is in heaven. <sup>32</sup>And you should not be called ‘Master.’ You have only one Master, the Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>33</sup>He who serves you as a servant is the greatest among you. <sup>34</sup>Whoever makes himself great will be made humble. Whoever makes himself humble will be made great.

<sup>35</sup>‘How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You are hypocrites!<sup>d</sup> You close the door for people to enter the kingdom of heaven. You yourselves don’t enter, and you stop others who are trying to enter. <sup>36</sup>’

<sup>37</sup>‘How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You are hypocrites! You travel across land and sea to find one person who will follow your ways. When you find that person, you make him more fit for hell than you are.

<sup>38</sup>‘How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You guide the people, but you are blind. You say, ‘If anyone swears by the Temple<sup>d</sup> when he makes a promise, that means nothing. But if anyone swears by the gold that is in the Temple, then he must keep that promise.’ <sup>39</sup>You are blind fools! Which is greater: the gold or the Temple? The Temple makes that gold holy. <sup>40</sup>And you say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar when he makes a promise, that means nothing. But if he swears by the gift on the altar, then he must keep his promise.’ <sup>41</sup>You are blind! Which is greater: the gift or the altar? The altar makes the gift holy. <sup>42</sup>The person who swears by the altar is really using the altar and also everything on the altar. <sup>43</sup>And the person who uses the Temple to make a promise is really using the Temple and also everything in the Temple. <sup>44</sup>The person who uses heaven to make a promise is also using God’s throne and the One who sits on that throne.

<sup>45</sup>‘How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You are hypocrites! You give to God one-tenth of everything you earn—even your mint, dill, and cummin.<sup>a</sup> But you don’t obey the really important teachings of the law—being fair, showing mercy, and being loyal. These are the things you should do, as well as those other things. <sup>46</sup>You guide the people, but you are blind! You are like a person who picks a fly out of his drink and then swallows a camel!<sup>b</sup>’ the outside of your cups and dishes. But inside they are full of things that you got by cheating others and pleasing only yourselves. <sup>26</sup>Pharisees, you are blind! First make the inside of the cup clean and good. Then the outside of the cup can be truly clean.

<sup>27</sup>“How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees. You are hypocrites! You are like tombs that are painted white. Outside, those tombs look fine. But inside, they are full of the bones of dead people, and all kinds of unclean things are there. <sup>28</sup>It is the same with you. People look at you and think you are good. But on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and evil.

<sup>29</sup>“How terrible for you, teachers of the law and Pharisees! You are hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets. <sup>a</sup>You show honor to the graves of people who lived good lives. <sup>30</sup>And you say, ‘If we had lived during the time of our fathers, we would not have helped them kill the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup>But you give proof that you are children of those people who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup>And you will complete the sin that your fathers started!

<sup>33</sup>“You are snakes! A family of poisonous snakes! You will not escape God. You will all be judged guilty and be sent to hell! <sup>34</sup>So I tell you this: I am sending to you prophets and wise men and teachers. You will kill some of these people. You will nail some of them to crosses. You will beat some of them in your synagogues. You will chase them from town to town. <sup>35</sup>So you will be guilty for the death of all the good people who have been killed on earth. You will be guilty for the murder of that good man Abel. And you will be guilty for the murder of Zechariah <sup>n</sup> son of Berakiah. He was murdered when he was between the Temple and the altar. <sup>36</sup>I tell you the truth. All of these things will happen to you people who are living now.

Jesus Feels Sorry for Jerusalem

<sup>37</sup>“Jerusalem, Jerusalem! You kill the prophets <sup>d</sup> and kill with stones those men God sent to you. Many times I wanted to help your people! I wanted to gather them together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. But you did not let me. <sup>38</sup>Now your home will be left completely empty. <sup>39</sup>I tell you, you will not see me again until that time when you will say, ‘God bless the One who comes in the name of the Lord.’” <sup>n</sup>

The Temple Will Be Destroyed

24 Jesus left the Temple <sup>d</sup> and was walking away. But his followers came up to show him the Temple’s buildings. <sup>2</sup>Jesus asked, “Do you see all these buildings? I tell you the truth. Every stone will be thrown down to the ground. Not one stone will be left on another.”

<sup>3</sup>Later, Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives. <sup>4</sup>His followers came to be alone with him. They said, “Tell us when these things will happen. And what will happen to show us that it is time for you to come again and for the world to end?”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered: “Be careful that no one fools you. <sup>5</sup>Many people will come in my name. They will say, ‘I am the Christ.’ <sup>d</sup> And they will fool many people. <sup>6</sup>You will hear about wars and stories of wars that are coming. But don’t be afraid. These things must happen before the end comes. <sup>7</sup>Nations will fight against other nations. Kingdoms will fight against other kingdoms. There will be times when there is no food for people to eat. And there will be earthquakes in different places. <sup>8</sup>These things are like the first pains when something new is about to be born.

<sup>9</sup>“Then men will arrest you and hand you over to be hurt and kill you. They will hate you because you believe in me. <sup>10</sup>At that time, many who believe will lose their faith. They will turn against each other and hate each other. <sup>11</sup>Many false prophets <sup>d</sup> will come and cause many people to believe false things. <sup>12</sup>There will be more and more evil in the world. So most people will stop showing their love for each other. <sup>13</sup>But the person who continues to be strong until the end will be saved. <sup>14</sup>The Good News <sup>d</sup> about God’s kingdom will be preached in all the world, to every nation. Then the end will come.

<sup>15</sup>“Daniel the prophet spoke about ‘the horrible thing that destroys.’ <sup>n</sup> You will see this terrible thing standing in the holy place.” (You who read this should understand what it means.) <sup>16</sup>“At that time, the people in Judea should run away to the mountains. <sup>17</sup>If a person is on the roof <sup>n</sup> of his house, he must not go down to get anything out of his house. <sup>18</sup>If a person is in the field, he must not go back to get his coat. <sup>19</sup>At that time, it will be hard for women who are pregnant or have nursing babies! <sup>20</sup>Pray that it will not be winter or a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day when these things happen and you have to run away. <sup>21</sup>This is because at that time there will be much trouble. There will be more trouble than has ever happened since the beginning of the world. And nothing as bad as that will ever happen again. <sup>22</sup>God has decided to make that terrible time short. If that time were not made short, then no one would go on living. But God will make that time short to help the people he has chosen. <sup>23</sup>At that time, someone might say to you, 'Look, there is the Christ!' Or another person might say, 'There he is!' But don't believe them. <sup>24</sup>False Christs and false prophets will come and perform great things and miracles.<sup>d</sup> They will do these things to the people God has chosen. They will fool them, if that is possible. <sup>25</sup>Now I have warned you about this before it happens.

<sup>26</sup>'If people tell you, 'The Christ is in the desert'—don't go there. If they say, 'The Christ is in the inner room'—don't believe it. <sup>27</sup>When the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> comes, he will be seen by everyone. It will be like lightning flashing in the sky that can be seen everywhere. <sup>28</sup>Wherever there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather.

<sup>29</sup>'Soon after the trouble of those days, this will happen:

'The sun will grow dark.

And the moon will not give its light.

The stars will fall from the sky.

And everything in the sky will be changed.'

Isaiah 13:10; 34:4

<sup>30</sup>'At that time, there will be something in the sky that shows the Son of Man is coming. All the peoples of the world will cry. They will see the Son of Man coming on clouds in the sky. He will come with great power and glory. <sup>31</sup>He will use a loud trumpet to send his angels all around the earth. They will gather his chosen people from every part of the world.

<sup>32</sup>The fig tree teaches us a lesson: When its branches become green and soft, and new leaves begin to grow, then you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup>So also, when you see all these things happening, you will know that the time is near, ready to come. <sup>34</sup>I tell you the truth. All these things will happen while the people of this time are still living! <sup>35</sup>The whole world, earth and sky, will be destroyed, but the words I have said will never be destroyed!

When Will Jesus Come Again?

<sup>36</sup>'No one knows when that day or time will be. Even the Son and the angels in heaven don't know. Only the Father knows. <sup>37</sup>When the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> comes, it will be the same as what happened during Noah's time. <sup>38</sup>In those days before the flood, people were eating and drinking. They were marrying and giving their children to be married. They were still doing those things until the day Noah entered the boat. <sup>39</sup>They knew nothing about what was happening. But then the flood came, and all those people were destroyed. It will be the same when the Son of Man comes. <sup>40</sup>Two men will be working together in the field. One man will be taken and the other left. <sup>41</sup>Two women will be grinding grain with a hand mill.<sup>a</sup> One woman will be taken and the other will be left.

<sup>42</sup>'So always be ready. You don't know the day your Lord will come. <sup>43</sup>Remember this: If the owner of the house knew what time a thief was coming, then the owner would be ready for him. The owner would watch and not let the thief enter his house. <sup>44</sup>So you also must be ready. The Son of Man will come at a time you don't expect him.

<sup>45</sup>'Who is the wise and trusted servant? The master trusts one servant to give the other servants their food at the right time. <sup>46</sup>When the master comes and finds the servant doing his work, the servant will be very happy. <sup>47</sup>I tell you the truth. The master will choose that servant to take care of everything the master owns. <sup>48</sup>But what will happen if the servant is evil and thinks his master will not come back soon? <sup>49</sup>Then that servant will begin to beat the other servants. He will feast and get drunk with others like him. <sup>50</sup>And the master will come when the servant is not ready and is not expecting him. <sup>51</sup>Then the master will punish that servant. He will send him away to be among the hypocrites.<sup>d</sup> There people will cry and grind their teeth with pain.

A Story About Ten Girls

25 'At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten girls who went to wait for the bridegroom. They took their lamps with them. <sup>2</sup>Five of the girls were foolish and five were wise. <sup>3</sup>The five foolish girls took their lamps, but they did not take more oil for the lamps to burn. <sup>4</sup>The wise girls took their lamps and more oil in jars. <sup>5</sup>The bridegroom was very late. All the girls became sleepy and went to sleep.

<sup>6</sup>“At midnight someone cried out, ‘The bridegroom is coming! Come and meet him!’
<sup>7</sup>Then all the girls woke up and got their lamps ready.
<sup>8</sup>But the foolish girls said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil. Our lamps are going out.’
<sup>9</sup>The wise girls answered, ‘No! The oil we have might not be enough for all of us. Go to the people who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup>“So the five foolish girls went to buy oil. While they were gone, the bridegroom came. The girls who were ready went in with the bridegroom to the wedding feast. Then the door was closed and locked.

<sup>11</sup>“Later the others came back. They called, ‘Sir, sir, open the door to let us in.’
<sup>12</sup>But the bridegroom answered, ‘I tell you the truth, I don’t know you.’

<sup>13</sup>“So always be ready. You don’t know the day or the time the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will come.

A Story About Three Servants

<sup>14</sup>“The kingdom of heaven is like a man who was going to another place for a visit. Before he left, he talked with his servants. The man told them to take care of his things while he was gone.
<sup>15</sup>He decided how much each servant would be able to care for. He gave one servant five bags of money. He gave another servant two bags of money. And he gave a third servant one bag of money. Then the man left.
<sup>16</sup>The servant who got five bags went quickly to invest the money. The five bags of money earned five more.
<sup>17</sup>It was the same with the servant who had two bags of money. He invested the money and earned two more.
<sup>18</sup>But the servant who got one bag of money went out and dug a hole in the ground. Then he hid his master’s money in the hole.

<sup>19</sup>“After a long time the master came home. He asked the servants what they did with his money.
<sup>20</sup>The servant who got five bags of money brought five more bags to the master. The servant said, ‘Master, you trusted me to care for five bags of money. So I used your five bags to earn five more.’
<sup>21</sup>The master answered, ‘You did well. You are a good servant who can be trusted. You did well with small things. So I will let you care for much greater things. Come and share my happiness with me.’

<sup>22</sup>“Then the servant who got two bags of money came to the master. The servant said, ‘Master, you gave me two bags of money to care for. So I used your two bags to earn two more.’
<sup>23</sup>The master answered, ‘You did well. You are a good servant who can be trusted.

You did well with small things. So I will let you care for much greater things. Come and share my happiness with me.’

<sup>24</sup>“Then the servant who got one bag of money came to the master. The servant said, ‘Master, I knew that you were a hard man. You harvest things you did not plant. You gather crops where you did not sow any seed.’
<sup>25</sup>So I was afraid. I went and hid your money in the ground. Here is the bag of money you gave me.’
<sup>26</sup>The master answered, ‘You are a bad and lazy servant! You say you knew that I harvest things I did not plant, and that I gather crops where I did not sow any seed?’
<sup>27</sup>So you should have put my money in the bank. Then, when I came home, I would get my money back with interest.’

<sup>28</sup>“So the master told his other servants, ‘Take the bag of money from that servant and give it to the servant who has ten bags of money.’
<sup>29</sup>Everyone who uses what he has will get more. He will have much more than he needs. But the one who does not use what he has will have everything taken away from him.’
<sup>30</sup>Then the master said, ‘Throw that useless servant outside, into the darkness! There people will cry and grind their teeth with pain.’

The King Will Judge All People

<sup>31</sup>“The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will come again in his great glory. All his angels will come with him. He will be King and sit on his great throne.
<sup>32</sup>All the people of the world will be gathered before him. Then he will separate them into two groups as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.
<sup>33</sup>The Son of Man will put the sheep, the good people, on his right and the goats, the bad people, on his left.

<sup>34</sup>“Then the King will say to the good people on his right, ‘Come. My Father has given you his blessing. Come and receive the kingdom God has prepared for you since the world was made.’
<sup>35</sup>I was hungry, and you gave me food. I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink. I was alone and away from home, and you invited me into your house.
<sup>36</sup>I was without clothes, and you gave me something to wear. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.’

<sup>37</sup>“Then the good people will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and give you food? When did we see you thirsty and give you something to drink?’
<sup>38</sup>When did we see you alone and away from home and invite you into our house? When did we see you without clothes and give you something to wear?’

<sup>39</sup>When did we see you sick or in prison and care for you?"

<sup>40</sup>"Then the King will answer, 'I tell you the truth. Anything you did for any of my people here, you also did for me.'

<sup>41</sup>"Then the King will say to those on his left, 'Go away from me. God has said that you will be punished. Go into the fire that burns forever. That fire was prepared for the devil and his helpers. <sup>42</sup>I was hungry, and you gave me nothing to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me nothing to drink. <sup>43</sup>I was alone and away from home, and you did not invite me into your house. I was without clothes, and you gave me nothing to wear. I was sick and in prison, and you did not care for me.'

<sup>44</sup>"Then those people will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty? When did we see you alone and away from home? Or when did we see you without clothes or sick or in prison? When did we see these things and not help you?'

<sup>45</sup>"Then the King will answer, 'I tell you the truth. Anything you refused to do for any of my people here, you refused to do for me.'

<sup>46</sup>"These people will go off to be punished forever. But the good people will go to live forever."

The Plan to Kill Jesus

26 After Jesus finished saying all these things, he told his followers, <sup>24</sup>"You know that the day after tomorrow is the day of the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. On that day the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be given to his enemies to be killed on a cross."

<sup>3</sup>Then the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders had a meeting at the palace of the high priest. The high priest's name was Caiaphas. <sup>4</sup>At the meeting, they planned to set a trap to arrest Jesus and kill him. <sup>5</sup>But they said, "We must not do it during the feast. The people might cause a riot."

A Woman with Perfume for Jesus

<sup>6</sup>Jesus was in Bethany. He was at the house of Simon, who had a harmful skin disease. <sup>7</sup>While Jesus was there, a woman came to him. She had an alabaster<sup>d</sup> jar filled with expensive perfume. She poured this perfume on Jesus' head while he was eating.

<sup>8</sup>His followers saw the woman do this and were upset. They asked, "Why waste that perfume? <sup>9</sup>It could be sold for a great deal of money, and the money could be given to the poor."

<sup>10</sup>But Jesus knew what had happened. He said, "Why are you troubling this woman? She did a very beautiful thing for me. <sup>11</sup>You will always have the poor with you. But you will not always have me. <sup>12</sup>This woman poured perfume on my body to prepare me for burial. <sup>13</sup>I tell you the truth. The Good News<sup>d</sup> will be told to people in all the world. And in every place where it is preached, what this woman has done will be told. And people will remember her."

Judas Becomes an Enemy of Jesus

<sup>14</sup>Then 1 of the 12 followers went to talk to the leading priests. This was the follower named Judas Iscariot. <sup>15</sup>He said, "I will give Jesus to you. What will you pay me for doing this?" The priests gave Judas 30 silver coins. <sup>16</sup>After that, Judas waited for the best time to give Jesus to the priests.

Jesus Eats the Passover Feast

<sup>17</sup>On the first day of the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread, the followers came to Jesus. They said, "We will prepare everything for you to eat the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. Where do you want to have the feast?"

<sup>18</sup>Jesus answered, "Go into the city to a certain man. Tell him that the Teacher says, 'The chosen time is near. I will have the Passover Feast with my followers at your house.' " <sup>19</sup>The followers did what Jesus told them to do, and they prepared the Passover Feast.

<sup>20</sup>In the evening Jesus was sitting at the table with his 12 followers. <sup>21</sup>They were all eating. Then Jesus said, "I tell you the truth. One of you 12 will turn against me."

<sup>22</sup>This made the followers very sad. Each one said to Jesus, "Surely, Lord, I am not the one who will turn against you. Am I?"

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered, "The man who has dipped his hand with me into the bowl is the one who will turn against me. <sup>24</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will die. The Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say this will happen. But how terrible it will be for the person who gives the Son of Man to be killed. It would be better for him if he had never been born."

<sup>25</sup>Then Judas said to Jesus, "Teacher, surely I am not the one. Am I?" (Judas is the one who would give Jesus to his enemies.)

Jesus answered, "Yes, it is you."

The Lord's Supper

<sup>26</sup>While they were eating, Jesus took some bread. He thanked God for it and broke it. Then he gave it to his followers and said, "Take this bread and eat it. This bread is my body."

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus took a cup. He thanked God for it and gave it to the followers. He said, "Every one of you drink this. <sup>28</sup>This is my blood which begins the new agreement that God makes with his people. This blood is poured out for many to forgive their sins. <sup>29</sup>I tell you this: I will not drink of this fruit of the vine<sup>n</sup> again until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

<sup>30</sup>They sang a hymn. Then they went out to the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup>

Jesus' Followers Will All Leave Him

<sup>31</sup>Jesus told the followers, "Tonight you will lose your faith because of me. It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

'I will kill the shepherd,
and the sheep will scatter.'

Zechariah 13:7

<sup>32</sup>But after I rise from death, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

<sup>33</sup>Peter said, "All the other followers may lose their faith because of you. But I will never lose my faith."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said, "I tell you the truth. Tonight you will say you don't know me. You will say this three times before the rooster crows."

<sup>35</sup>But Peter said, "I will never say that I don't know you! I will even die with you!" And all the other followers said the same thing.

Jesus Prays Alone

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus went with his followers to a place called Gethsemane. He said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." <sup>37</sup>He told Peter and the two sons of Zebedee to come with him. Then Jesus began to be very sad and troubled. <sup>38</sup>He said to Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, "My heart is full of sorrow and breaking with sadness. Stay here with me and watch."

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus walked a little farther away from them. He fell to the ground and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, do not give me this cup<sup>n</sup> of suffering. But do what you want, not what I want." <sup>40</sup>Then Jesus went back to his followers and found them asleep. Jesus said to Peter, "You men could not stay awake with me for one hour? <sup>41</sup>Stay awake and pray for strength against temptation. Your spirit wants to do what is right. But your body is weak."

<sup>42</sup>Then Jesus went away a second time. He prayed, "My Father, if it is not possible for this painful thing to be taken from me, and if I must do it, then I pray that what you want will be done."

<sup>43</sup>Then Jesus went back to the followers. Again he found them asleep, because their eyes were heavy. <sup>44</sup>So Jesus left them and went away one more time and prayed. This third time he prayed, he said the same thing.

<sup>45</sup>Then Jesus went back to the followers and said, "You are still sleeping and resting? The time has come for the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> to be given to sinful people. <sup>46</sup>Get up. We must go. Here comes the man who has turned against me."

Jesus Is Arrested

<sup>47</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, Judas came up. Judas was 1 of the 12 followers. Many people carrying swords and clubs came with him. They had been sent from the leading priests and the older leaders of the people. <sup>48</sup>Judas had planned to give them a signal. He had said, "The man I kiss is Jesus. Arrest him." <sup>49</sup>At once Judas went to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Teacher!" Then Judas kissed him.

<sup>50</sup>Jesus answered, "Friend, do the thing you came to do."

Then the men came and grabbed Jesus and arrested him. <sup>51</sup>When that happened, one of Jesus' followers reached for his sword and pulled it out. The follower struck the servant of the high priest with the sword and cut off his ear.

<sup>52</sup>Jesus said to the man, "Put your sword back in its place. All who use swords will be killed with swords. <sup>53</sup>Surely you know I could ask my Father, and he would give me more than 12 armies of angels. <sup>54</sup>But this thing must happen this way so that it will be as the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say."

<sup>55</sup>Then Jesus said to the crowd, "You came to get me with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal. Every day I sat in the Temple<sup>d</sup> teaching. You did not arrest me there. <sup>56</sup>But all these things have happened so that it will be as the prophets<sup>d</sup> wrote." Then all of Jesus' followers left him and ran away.

Jesus Before the Jewish Leaders

<sup>57</sup>Those men who arrested Jesus led him to the house of Caiaphas, the high priest. The teachers of the law and the older Jewish leaders were gathered there. <sup>58</sup>Peter followed Jesus but did not go near him. He followed Jesus to the courtyard of the high priest's house. He sat down with the guards to see what would happen to Jesus.

<sup>n</sup>fruit of the vine Product of the grapevine; this may also be translated "wine."

<sup>d</sup>cup Jesus is talking about the bad things that will happen to him. Accepting these things will be very hard, like drinking a cup of something that tastes very bitter.

<sup>59</sup>The leading priests and the Jewish council tried to find something false against Jesus so that they could kill him. <sup>60</sup>Many people came and told lies about him. But the council could find no real reason to kill Jesus. Then two people came and said, <sup>61</sup>“This man said, ‘I can destroy the Temple<sup>d</sup> of God and build it again in three days.’”

<sup>62</sup>Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Aren’t you going to answer? Don’t you have something to say about their charges against you?” <sup>63</sup>But Jesus said nothing.

Again the high priest said to Jesus, “You must swear to this. I command you by the power of the living God to tell us the truth. Tell us, are you the Christ,<sup>d</sup> the Son of God?”

<sup>64</sup>Jesus answered, “Yes, I am. But I tell you, in the future you will see the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> sitting at the right hand of God, the Powerful One. And you will see him coming in clouds in the sky.”

<sup>65</sup>When the high priest heard this, he was very angry. He tore his clothes and said, “This man has said things that are against God! We don’t need any more witnesses. You all heard him say these things against God. <sup>66</sup>What do you think?”

The people answered, “He is guilty, and he must die.”

<sup>67</sup>Then the people there spit in Jesus’ face and beat him with their fists. Others slapped Jesus. <sup>68</sup>They said, “Prove to us that you are a prophet,<sup>d</sup> you Christ! Tell us who hit you!”

Peter Says He Doesn’t Know Jesus

<sup>69</sup>At that time, Peter was sitting in the courtyard. A servant girl came to him and said, “You were with Jesus, that man from Galilee.”

<sup>70</sup>But Peter said that he was never with Jesus. He said this to all the people there. Peter said, “I don’t know what you are talking about.”

<sup>71</sup>Then he left the courtyard. At the gate, another girl saw him. She said to the people there, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

<sup>72</sup>Again, Peter said that he was never with Jesus. Peter said, “I swear that I don’t know this man Jesus!”

<sup>73</sup>A short time later, some people standing there went to Peter. They said, “We know you are one of those men who followed Jesus. We know this because of the way you talk.”

<sup>74</sup>Then Peter began to curse. He said, “May a curse fall on me if I’m not telling the truth. I don’t know the man.” After Peter said this, a rooster crowed. <sup>75</sup>Then he remembered what Jesus had told him: “Before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” Then Peter went outside and cried painfully.

Jesus Is Taken to Pilate

27 Early the next morning, all the leading priests and older leaders of the people decided to kill Jesus. <sup>2</sup>They tied him, led him away, and turned him over to Pilate, the governor.

Judas Kills Himself

<sup>3</sup>Judas saw that they had decided to kill Jesus. Judas was the one who gave Jesus to his enemies. When Judas saw what happened, he was very sorry for what he had done. So he took the 30 silver coins back to the priests and the leaders. <sup>4</sup>Judas said, “I sinned. I gave you an innocent man to be killed.”

The leaders answered, “What is that to us? That’s your problem, not ours.”

<sup>5</sup>So Judas threw the money into the Temple.<sup>d</sup> Then he went off and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup>The leading priests picked up the silver coins in the Temple. They said, “Our law does not allow us to keep this money with the Temple money. This money has paid for a man’s death.” <sup>7</sup>So they decided to use the coins to buy a field called Potter’s Field. This field would be a place to bury strangers who died while visiting Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>That is why that field is still called the Field of Blood. <sup>9</sup>So the thing came true that Jeremiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> had said: “They took 30 silver coins. That is how little the Israelites thought he was worth. <sup>10</sup>They used those 30 silver coins to buy the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”<sup>a</sup>

Pilate Questions Jesus

<sup>11</sup>Jesus stood before Pilate the governor. Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

Jesus answered, “Yes, I am.”

<sup>12</sup>When the leading priests and the older leaders accused Jesus, he said nothing.

<sup>13</sup>So Pilate said to Jesus, “Don’t you hear these people accusing you of all these things?”

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus said nothing in answer to Pilate. Pilate was very surprised at this.

<sup>a</sup>“They . . . commanded me.” See Zechariah 11:12-13 and Jeremiah 32:6-9.

Pilate Tries to Free Jesus

<sup>15</sup>Every year at the time of Passover<sup>d</sup> the governor would free one person from prison. This was always a person the people wanted to be set free. <sup>16</sup>At that time there was a man in prison who was known to be very bad. His name was Barabbas. <sup>17</sup>All the people gathered at Pilate's house. Pilate said, "Which man do you want me to free: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Christ?"<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Pilate knew that the people gave Jesus to him because they were jealous.

<sup>19</sup>Pilate said these things while he was sitting on the judge's seat. While he was sitting there, his wife sent a message to him. The message said, "Don't do anything to that man. He is not guilty. Today I had a dream about him, and it troubled me very much."

<sup>20</sup>But the leading priests and older leaders told the crowd to ask for Barabbas to be freed and for Jesus to be killed.

<sup>21</sup>Pilate said, "I have Barabbas and Jesus. Which do you want me to set free for you?"

The people answered, "Barabbas!"

<sup>22</sup>Pilate asked, "What should I do with Jesus, the one called the Christ?"

They all answered, "Kill him on a cross!"

<sup>23</sup>Pilate asked, "Why do you want me to kill him? What wrong has he done?"

But they shouted louder, "Kill him on a cross!"

<sup>24</sup>Pilate saw that he could do nothing about this, and a riot was starting. So he took some water and washed his hands<sup>n</sup> in front of the crowd. Then he said, "I am not guilty of this man's death. You are the ones who are causing it!"

<sup>25</sup>All the people answered, "We will be responsible. We accept for ourselves and for our children any punishment for his death."

<sup>26</sup>Then Pilate freed Barabbas. Pilate told some of the soldiers to beat Jesus with whips. Then he gave Jesus to the soldiers to be killed on a cross.

they finished making fun of Jesus, the soldiers took off the robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led Jesus away to be killed on a cross.

Jesus Is Killed on a Cross

<sup>32</sup>The soldiers were going out of the city with Jesus. They forced another man to carry the cross to be used for Jesus. This man was Simon, from Cyrene. <sup>33</sup>They all came to the place called Golgotha. (Golgotha means the Place of the Skull.) <sup>34</sup>At Golgotha, the soldiers gave Jesus wine to drink. This wine was mixed with gall.<sup>n</sup> He tasted the wine but refused to drink it. <sup>35</sup>The soldiers nailed Jesus to a cross. They threw lots<sup>d</sup> to decide who would get his clothes. <sup>36</sup>The soldiers sat there and continued watching him. <sup>37</sup>They put a sign above Jesus' head with the charge against him written on it. The sign read: "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS." <sup>38</sup>Two robbers were nailed to crosses beside Jesus, one on the right and the other on the left. <sup>39</sup>People walked by and insulted Jesus. They shook their heads, <sup>40</sup>saying, "You said you could destroy the Temple<sup>d</sup> and build it again in three days. So save yourself! Come down from that cross, if you are really the Son of God!"

<sup>41</sup>The leading priests, the teachers of the law, and the older Jewish leaders were also there. These men made fun of Jesus <sup>42</sup>and said, "He saved other people, but he can't save himself! People say he is the King of Israel! If he is the King, then let him come down now from the cross. Then we will believe in him. <sup>43</sup>He trusts in God. So let God save him now, if God really wants him. He himself said, 'I am the Son of God.'" <sup>44</sup>And in the same way, the robbers who were being killed on crosses beside Jesus also insulted him.

Jesus Dies

<sup>45</sup>At noon the whole country became dark. This darkness lasted for three hours. <sup>46</sup>About three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" This means, "My God, my God, why have you left me alone?"

<sup>47</sup>Some of the people standing there heard this. They said, "He is calling Elijah."

<sup>48</sup>Quickly one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled the sponge with vinegar and tied it to a stick. Then he used the stick to give the sponge to Jesus to drink from it. <sup>49</sup>But the others said, "Don't bother him. We want to see if Elijah will come to save him."

<sup>n</sup>washed his hands He did this as a sign to show that he wanted no part in what the people did.

<sup>50</sup>Again Jesus cried out in a loud voice. Then he died.

<sup>51</sup>Then the curtain in the Temple<sup>a</sup> split into two pieces. The tear started at the top and tore all the way down to the bottom. Also, the earth shook and rocks broke apart. <sup>52</sup>The graves opened, and many of God's people who had died were raised from death. <sup>53</sup>They came out of the graves after Jesus was raised from death. They went into the holy city, and many people saw them.

<sup>54</sup>The army officer and the soldiers guarding Jesus saw this earthquake and everything else that happened. They were very frightened and said, "He really was the Son of God!"

<sup>55</sup>Many women were standing at a distance from the cross, watching. These were women who had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for him. <sup>56</sup>Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of James and John were there.

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>57</sup>That evening a rich man named Joseph came to Jerusalem. He was a follower of Jesus from the town of Arimathea. <sup>58</sup>Joseph went to Pilate and asked to have Jesus' body. Pilate gave orders for the soldiers to give it to Joseph. <sup>59</sup>Then Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth. <sup>60</sup>He put Jesus' body in a new tomb that he had cut in a wall of rock. He rolled a very large stone to block the entrance of the tomb. Then Joseph went away. <sup>61</sup>Mary Magdalene and the other woman named Mary were sitting near the tomb.

The Tomb of Jesus Is Guarded

<sup>62</sup>That day was the day called Preparation<sup>d</sup> Day. The next day, the leading priests and the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> went to Pilate. <sup>63</sup>They said, "Sir, we remember that while that liar was still alive he said, 'After three days I will rise from death.' <sup>64</sup>So give the order for the tomb to be guarded closely till the third day. His followers might come and steal the body. Then they could tell the people that he has risen from death. That lie would be even worse than the first one."

<sup>65</sup>Pilate said, "Take some soldiers and go guard the tomb the best way you know." <sup>66</sup>So they all went to the tomb and made it safe from thieves. They did this by sealing the stone in the entrance and then putting soldiers there to guard it.

Jesus Rises from Death

28 The day after the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day was the first day of the week. At dawn on the first day, Mary Magdalene and another woman named Mary went to look at the tomb.

<sup>2</sup>At that time there was a strong earthquake. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven. The angel went to the tomb and rolled the stone away from the entrance. Then he sat on the stone. <sup>3</sup>He was shining as bright as lightning. His clothes were white as snow. <sup>4</sup>The soldiers guarding the tomb were very frightened of the angel. They shook with fear and then became like dead men.

<sup>5</sup>The angel said to the women, "Don't be afraid. I know that you are looking for Jesus, the one who was killed on the cross. <sup>6</sup>But he is not here. He has risen from death as he said he would. Come and see the place where his body was. <sup>7</sup>And go quickly and tell his followers. Say to them: 'Jesus has risen from death. He is going into Galilee ahead of you. You will see him there.'" Then the angel said, "Now I have told you."

<sup>8</sup>The women left the tomb quickly. They were afraid, but they were also very happy. They ran to tell Jesus' followers what had happened. <sup>9</sup>Suddenly, Jesus met them and said, "Greetings." The women came up to Jesus, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go on to Galilee. They will see me there."

The Soldiers Report to the Jewish Leaders

<sup>11</sup>The women went to tell Jesus' followers. At the same time, some of the soldiers who had been guarding the tomb went into the city. They went to tell the leading priests everything that had happened. <sup>12</sup>Then the priests met with the older Jewish leaders and made a plan. They paid the soldiers a large amount of money. <sup>13</sup>They said to the soldiers, "Tell the people that Jesus' followers came during the night and stole the body while you were asleep. <sup>14</sup>If the governor hears about this, we will satisfy him and save you from trouble." <sup>15</sup>So the soldiers kept the money and obeyed the priests. And that story is still spread among the Jews even today.

<sup>a</sup>curtain in the Temple A curtain divided the Most Holy Place from the other part of the Temple. That was the special building in Jerusalem where God commanded the Jews to worship him.

Jesus Talks to His Followers

<sup>16</sup>The 11 followers went to Galilee. They went to the mountain where Jesus told them to go. <sup>17</sup>On the mountain they saw Jesus and worshiped him. But some of them did not believe that it was really Jesus. <sup>18</sup>Then Jesus came to them and said, "All power in heaven and on earth is given to me. <sup>19</sup>So go and make followers of all people in the world. Baptize them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Teach them to obey everything that I have told you. You can be sure that I will be with you always. I will continue with you until the end of the world."

MARK

Mark Tells About the Power of Jesus

John Prepares for Jesus

1 This is the beginning of the Good News<sup>d</sup> about Jesus Christ, the Son of God,<sup>n</sup> <sup>2</sup>as the prophet<sup>d</sup> Isaiah wrote:

“I will send my messenger ahead of you.

He will prepare your way.” Malachi 3:1

<sup>3</sup>“There is a voice of a man who calls out in the desert:

‘Prepare the way for the Lord.

Make the road straight for him.’” Isaiah 40:3

<sup>4</sup>John was baptizing people in the desert. He preached a baptism of changed hearts and lives for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>5</sup>All the people from Judea and Jerusalem were going out to John. They told about the sins they had done. Then they were baptized by him in the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup>John wore clothes made from camel’s hair and had a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts<sup>d</sup> and wild honey. <sup>7</sup>This is what John preached to the people: “There is one coming later who is greater than I. I am not good enough even to kneel down and untie his sandals. <sup>8</sup>I baptize you with water. But the one who is coming will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”<sup>d</sup>

Jesus Is Baptized

<sup>9</sup>At that time Jesus came from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to the place where John was. John baptized Jesus in the Jordan River. <sup>10</sup>When Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven open. The Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> came down on him like a dove. <sup>11</sup>A voice came from heaven and said: “You are my Son and I love you. I am very pleased with you.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the Spirit sent Jesus into the desert alone. <sup>13</sup>He was in the desert 40 days and was there with the wild animals. While he was in the desert, he was tempted by Satan. Then angels came and took care of Jesus.

Jesus Chooses Some Followers

<sup>14</sup>After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee and preached the Good News<sup>d</sup> from God. <sup>15</sup>Jesus said, “The right time has come. The kingdom of God is near. Change your hearts and lives and believe the Good News!”

<sup>16</sup>When Jesus was walking by Lake Galilee, he saw Simon<sup>n</sup> and Simon’s brother, Andrew. They were fishermen and were throwing a net into the lake to catch fish. <sup>17</sup>Jesus said to them, “Come and follow me. I will make you fishermen for men.” <sup>18</sup>So Simon and Andrew immediately left their nets and followed him.

<sup>19</sup>Jesus continued walking by Lake Galilee. He saw two more brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in their boat, preparing their nets to catch fish. <sup>20</sup>Their father Zebedee and the men who worked for him were in the boat with the brothers. When Jesus saw the brothers, he called them to come with him. They left their father and followed Jesus.

Jesus Removes an Evil Spirit

<sup>21</sup>Jesus and his followers went to Capernaum. On the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day Jesus went to the synagogue<sup>d</sup> and began to teach. <sup>22</sup>The people there were amazed at his teaching. He did not teach like their teachers of the law. He taught like a person who had authority. <sup>23</sup>While he was in the synagogue, a man was there who had an evil spirit in him. The man shouted, <sup>24</sup>“Jesus of Nazareth! What do you want with us? Did you come to destroy us? I know who you are—God’s Holy One!”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus said strongly, “Be quiet! Come out of the man!” <sup>26</sup>The evil spirit made the man shake violently. Then the spirit gave a loud cry and came out of him.

<sup>27</sup>The people were amazed. They asked each other, “What is happening here? This man is teaching something new. And he teaches with authority. He even gives commands to evil spirits, and they obey him.” <sup>28</sup>And the news about Jesus spread quickly everywhere in the area of Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>29</sup>Jesus and his followers left the synagogue.<sup>d</sup> They all went at once with James and John to the home of Simon<sup>n</sup> and Andrew. <sup>30</sup>Simon’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a fever.

The people there told Jesus about her. <sup>31</sup>So Jesus went to her bed, took her hand, and helped her up. Immediately the fever left her, and she was healed. Then she began serving them.

<sup>32</sup>That night, after the sun went down, the people brought to Jesus all who were sick. They also brought those who had demons<sup>d</sup> in them. <sup>33</sup>The whole town gathered at the door of the house. <sup>34</sup>Jesus healed many who had different kinds of sicknesses. He also forced many demons to leave people. But he would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who he was.

<sup>35</sup>Early the next morning, Jesus woke and left the house while it was still dark. He went to a place to be alone and pray. <sup>36</sup>Later, Simon and his friends went to look for Jesus. <sup>37</sup>They found him and said, "Everyone is looking for you!"

<sup>38</sup>Jesus answered, "We should go somewhere else, to other towns around here. Then I can preach there too. That is the reason I came." <sup>39</sup>So he traveled everywhere in Galilee. He preached in the synagogues and forced demons to leave people.

Jesus Heals a Sick Man

<sup>40</sup>A man who had a harmful skin disease came to Jesus. The man fell to his knees and begged Jesus, "I know that you can heal me if you will."

<sup>41</sup>Jesus felt sorry for the man. So he touched him and said, "I want to heal you. Be healed!" <sup>42</sup>At once the disease left the man, and he was healed.

<sup>43</sup>Jesus told the man to go at once. But Jesus warned him strongly, <sup>44</sup>"Don't tell anyone about what I did for you. But go and show yourself to the priest. And offer a gift to God because you have been healed. Offer the gift that Moses commanded.<sup>a</sup> This will show the people that you are healed." <sup>45</sup>The man left there, but he told everyone he saw that Jesus had healed him. So the news about Jesus spread. That is the reason Jesus could not enter a town if people saw him. He stayed in places where nobody lived. But people came from all the towns to wherever he was.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

2 A few days later, Jesus came back to Capernaum. The news spread that he was home. <sup>2</sup>So many people gathered to hear him preach that the house was full. There was no place to stand, not even outside the door. And Jesus was teaching them. <sup>3</sup>Some people came, bringing a paralyzed man to Jesus. Four of them were carrying the paralyzed man. <sup>4</sup>But they could not get to Jesus because of the crowd. So they went to the roof above Jesus and made a hole in the roof. Then they lowered the mat with the paralyzed man on it. <sup>5</sup>Jesus saw that these men had great faith. So he said to the paralyzed man, "Young man, your sins are forgiven."

<sup>6</sup>Some of the teachers of the law were sitting there. They thought to themselves, <sup>7</sup>"Why does this man say things like that? He is saying things that are against God. Only God can forgive sins."

<sup>8</sup>At once Jesus knew what these teachers of the law were thinking. So he said to them, "Why are you thinking these things? <sup>9</sup>Which is easier: to tell this paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to tell him, 'Stand up. Take your mat and walk?' <sup>10</sup>But I will prove to you that the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> has authority on earth to forgive sins." So Jesus said to the paralyzed man, <sup>11</sup>"I tell you, stand up. Take your mat and go home." <sup>12</sup>Immediately the paralyzed man stood up. He took his mat and walked out while everyone was watching him.

The people were amazed and praised God. They said, "We have never seen anything like this!"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus went to the lake again. A crowd followed him there, and he taught them. <sup>14</sup>While he was walking beside the lake, he saw a tax collector named Levi son of Alphaeus. Levi was sitting in the tax office. Jesus said to him, "Follow me." And Levi stood up and followed Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Later that day, Jesus ate at Levi's house. There were many tax collectors and "sinners" eating there with Jesus and his followers. Many people like this followed Jesus. <sup>16</sup>The teachers of the law who were Pharisees<sup>d</sup> saw Jesus eating with the tax collectors and "sinners." They asked his followers, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>17</sup>Jesus heard this and said to them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor. It is the sick who need a doctor. I did not come to invite good people. I came to invite sinners."

Jesus Is Not like Other Jews

<sup>18</sup>One day the followers of John<sup>a</sup> and the

<sup>d</sup>John John the Baptist who preached to the Jews about Christ's coming (Mark 1:4-8).

Pharisees<sup>d</sup> were giving up eating.<sup>a</sup> Some people came to Jesus and said, "John's followers and the followers of the Pharisees give up eating. But your followers don't. Why?"

<sup>19</sup>Jesus answered, "When there is a wedding, the friends of the bridegroom are not sad while he is with them. They do not give up eating while the bridegroom is still there. <sup>20</sup>But the time will come when the bridegroom will leave them. Then the friends will give up eating.

<sup>21</sup>"When a person sews a patch over a hole on an old coat, he never uses a piece of cloth that is not yet shrunk. If he does, the patch will shrink and pull away from the coat. Then the hole will be worse. <sup>22</sup>Also, no one ever pours new wine into old leather bags for holding wine. If he does, the new wine will break the bags, and the wine will be ruined along with the bags for the wine. People always put new wine into new leather bags."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

<sup>23</sup>On the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day, Jesus was walking through some grainfields. His followers were with him and picked some grain to eat. <sup>24</sup>The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> saw this and said to Jesus, "Why are your followers doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered, "You have read what David did when he and those with him were hungry and needed food. <sup>26</sup>It was during the time of Abiathar the high priest. David went into God's house and ate the bread that was made holy for God. The law of Moses says that only priests may eat that bread. But David also gave some of the bread to those who were with him."

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus said to the Pharisees, "The Sabbath day was made to help people. They were not made to be ruled by the Sabbath day. <sup>28</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> is Lord even of the Sabbath."

Jesus Heals a Man's Crippled Hand

3 Another time when Jesus went into a synagogue,<sup>d</sup> a man with a crippled hand was there. <sup>2</sup>Some people there wanted to see Jesus do something wrong so they could accuse him. They watched him closely to see if he would heal the man on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus said to the man with the crippled hand, "Stand up here in front of everyone."

<sup>4</sup>Then Jesus asked the people, "Which is right on the Sabbath day: to do good, or to do evil? Is it right to save a life or to destroy one?" But they said nothing to answer him.

<sup>5</sup>Jesus was angry as he looked at the people. But he felt very sad because they were stubborn. Then he said to the man, "Let me see your hand." The man put his hand out for Jesus, and it was healed. <sup>6</sup>Then the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> left and began making plans with the Herodians<sup>a</sup> about a way to kill Jesus.

Many People Follow Jesus

<sup>7</sup>Jesus left with his followers for the lake. A large crowd from Galilee followed him. <sup>8</sup>Also many people came from Judea, from Jerusalem, from Idumea, from the lands across the Jordan River, and from the area of Tyre and Sidon. They came because they had heard about all the things Jesus was doing. <sup>9</sup>Jesus saw the crowds. So he told his followers to get a boat ready for him. He wanted the boat so that the many people would not crowd themselves against him. <sup>10</sup>He had healed many people. So all the sick were pushing toward him to touch him. <sup>11</sup>Some had evil spirits in them. When the evil spirits saw Jesus, they fell down before him and shouted, "You are the Son of God!" <sup>12</sup>But Jesus strongly commanded the spirits not to tell who he was.

Jesus Chooses His 12 Apostles

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus went up on a hill and called some men to come to him. These were the men Jesus wanted, and they went up to him. <sup>14</sup>Jesus chose 12 men and called them apostles.<sup>d</sup> He wanted these 12 to be with him, and he wanted to send them to other places to preach. <sup>15</sup>He also wanted them to have the power to force demons<sup>d</sup> out of people. <sup>16</sup>These are the 12 men he chose: Simon (Jesus gave him the name Peter); <sup>17</sup>James and John, the sons of Zebedee (Jesus gave them the name Boanerges, which means "Sons of Thunder"); <sup>18</sup>Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot,<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot. Judas is the one who gave Jesus to his enemies.

Some Jews Say Jesus Has a Devil

<sup>20</sup>Then Jesus went back home. But again a crowd gathered. There were so many people that Jesus and his followers could not eat. <sup>21</sup>His family heard about all these things. They went <sup>a</sup>giving up eating This is called "fasting." The people would give up eating for a special time of prayer and worship to God. It was also done to show sadness.

to get him because people were saying that Jesus was out of his mind.

<sup>23</sup>So Jesus called the people together and used stories to teach them. He said, “Satan will not force his own demons out of people. <sup>24</sup>A kingdom that fights against itself cannot continue. <sup>25</sup>And a family that is divided cannot continue. <sup>26</sup>And if Satan is against himself and fights against his own people, then he cannot continue. And that is the end of Satan. <sup>27</sup>If a person wants to enter a strong man’s house and steal his things, first he must tie up the strong man. Then the thief can steal the things from the strong man’s house. <sup>28</sup>I tell you the truth. All sins that people do can be forgiven. And all the bad things people say against God can be forgiven. <sup>29</sup>But any person who says bad things against the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> will never be forgiven. He is guilty of a sin that continues forever.”

<sup>30</sup>Jesus said this because the teachers of the law said that Jesus had an evil spirit inside him.

Jesus’ True Family

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus’ mother and brothers arrived. They stood outside and sent someone in to tell him to come out. <sup>32</sup>Many people were sitting around Jesus. They said to him, “Your mother and brothers are waiting for you outside.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus asked, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” <sup>34</sup>Then Jesus looked at those sitting around him. He said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup>My true brother and sister and mother are those who do the things God wants.”

A Story About Planting Seed

4 Another time Jesus began teaching by the lake. A great crowd gathered around him. So he got into a boat and went out on the lake. All the people stayed on the shore close to the water. <sup>2</sup>Jesus used many stories to teach them. He said, <sup>3</sup>“Listen! A farmer went out to plant his seed. <sup>4</sup>While the farmer was planting, some seed fell by the road. The birds came and ate all that seed. <sup>5</sup>Some seed fell on rocky ground where there wasn’t much dirt. The seed grew very fast there because the ground was not deep. <sup>6</sup>But when the sun rose, the plants withered. The plants died because they did not have deep roots. <sup>7</sup>Some other seed fell among thorny weeds. The weeds grew and choked the good plants. So those plants did not make grain. <sup>8</sup>Some other seed fell on good ground. In the good ground, the seed began to grow. It grew and made a crop of grain. Some plants made 30 times more grain, some 60 times more grain, and some 100 times more grain.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said, “You people who hear me, listen!”

Jesus Tells Why He Used Stories

<sup>10</sup>Later, when Jesus was alone, the 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> and others around him asked him about the stories.

<sup>11</sup>Jesus said, “Only you can know the secret truth about the kingdom of God. But to other people I tell everything by using stories. <sup>12</sup>I do this so that:

‘They will look and look, but they will not learn.

They will listen and listen, but they will not understand.

If they did learn and understand, they would come back to me and be forgiven.’ ”

Isaiah 6:9-10

Jesus Explains the Seed Story

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the followers, “Do you understand this story? If you don’t, then how will you understand any story? <sup>14</sup>The farmer is like a person who plants God’s teaching in people. <sup>15</sup>Sometimes the teaching falls on the road. This is like some people. They hear the teaching of God. But Satan comes and takes away the teaching that was planted in them. <sup>16</sup>Others are like the seed planted on rocky ground. They hear the teaching and quickly accept it with joy. <sup>17</sup>But they don’t allow the teaching to go deep into their lives. They keep it only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the teaching, they quickly give up. <sup>18</sup>Others are like the seed planted among the thorny weeds. They hear the teaching. <sup>19</sup>But then other things come into their lives: worries, the love of money, and wanting all kinds of other things. These things stop the teaching from growing. So that teaching does not produce fruit<sup>n</sup> in their lives. <sup>20</sup>Others are like the seed planted in the good ground. They hear the teaching and accept it. Then they grow and produce fruit—sometimes 30 times more, sometimes 60 times more, and sometimes 100 times more.”

<sup>n</sup>produce fruit To produce fruit means to have in your life the good things God wants.

Use What You Have

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Do you hide a lamp under a bowl or under a bed? No! You put the lamp on a lampstand. <sup>22</sup>Everything that is hidden will be made clear. Every secret thing will be made known. <sup>23</sup>You people who hear me, listen!

<sup>24</sup>“Think carefully about the things you hear. The way you give to others is the way God will give to you. But God will give you more than you give. <sup>25</sup>The person who has something will be given more. But the person who does not have much, even what he has will be taken from him.”

Jesus Uses a Story About Seed

<sup>26</sup>Then Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who plants seed in the ground. <sup>27</sup>The seed comes up and grows night and day. It doesn’t matter whether the man is asleep or awake; the seed still grows. The man does not know how it grows. <sup>28</sup>Without any help, the earth produces grain. First the plant grows, then the head, and then all the grain in the head. <sup>29</sup>When the grain is ready, the man cuts it. This is the harvest time.”

A Story About Mustard Seed

<sup>30</sup>Then Jesus said, “How can I show you what the kingdom of God is like? What story can I use to explain it? <sup>31</sup>The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed. The mustard seed is the smallest seed you plant in the ground. <sup>32</sup>But when you plant this seed, it grows and becomes the largest of all garden plants. It produces large branches. Even the wild birds can make nests in it and be protected from the sun.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus used many stories like these to teach them. He taught them all that they could understand. <sup>34</sup>He always used stories to teach them. But when he and his followers were alone together, Jesus explained everything to them.

Jesus Stops a Storm

<sup>35</sup>That evening, Jesus said to his followers, “Come with me across the lake.” <sup>36</sup>He and the followers left the people there. They went in the boat that Jesus was already sitting in. There were also other boats with them. <sup>37</sup>A very strong wind came up on the lake. The waves began coming over the sides and into the boat. It was almost full of water. <sup>38</sup>Jesus was at the back of the boat, sleeping with his head on a pillow. The followers went to him and woke him. They said, “Teacher, do you care about us? We will drown!”

<sup>39</sup>Jesus stood up and commanded the wind and the waves to stop. He said, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind stopped, and the lake became calm.

<sup>40</sup>Jesus said to his followers, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

<sup>41</sup>The followers were very afraid and asked each other, “What kind of man is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!”

A Man with Demons Inside Him

5 Jesus and his followers went across the lake to the region of the Gerasene people. <sup>2</sup>When Jesus got out of the boat, a man came to him from the caves where dead people were buried. This man, who lived in the caves, had an evil spirit living in him. <sup>3</sup>No one could tie him up, not even with a chain. <sup>4</sup>Many times people had used chains to tie the man’s hands and feet. But he always broke the chains off. No one was strong enough to control him. <sup>5</sup>Day and night he would wander around the burial caves and on the hills, screaming and cutting himself with stones. <sup>6</sup>While Jesus was still far away, the man saw him. He ran to Jesus and knelt down before him. <sup>7-8</sup>Jesus said to the man, “You evil spirit, come out of that man.”

But the man shouted in a loud voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, promise God that you will not punish me!”

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus asked the man, “What is your name?”

The man answered, “My name is Legion,<sup>a</sup> because I have many spirits in me.” <sup>10</sup>The man begged Jesus again and again not to send the spirits out of that area.

<sup>11</sup>A large herd of pigs was eating on a hill near there. <sup>12</sup>The evil spirits begged Jesus, “Send us to the pigs. Let us go into them.” <sup>13</sup>So Jesus allowed them to do this. The evil spirits left the man and went into the pigs. Then the herd of pigs rushed down the hill into the lake and were drowned. There were about 2,000 pigs in that herd.

<sup>14</sup>The men who took care of the pigs ran away. They went to the town and to the countryside, telling everyone about this. So people went out to see what had happened. <sup>15</sup>They came to Jesus and saw the man who had had the many evil spirits. The man was sitting there, clothed and in his right mind. The people were frightened. <sup>16</sup>Some people were there who saw what Jesus had done. They told the others what had happened to the man who had the demons<sup>d</sup> living in him. And they also told about the pigs. <sup>17</sup>Then the people began to beg Jesus to leave their area.

<sup>18</sup>Jesus was getting ready to leave in the boat. The man who was freed from the demons begged to go with him.

<sup>19</sup>But Jesus would not allow the man to go. Jesus said, "Go home to your family and friends. Tell them how much the Lord has done for you and how he has had mercy on you." <sup>20</sup>So the man left and told the people in the Ten Towns<sup>a</sup> about the great things Jesus had done for him. All the people were amazed.

Jesus Gives Life to a Dead Girl and Heals a Sick Woman

<sup>21</sup>Jesus went in the boat back to the other side of the lake. There, a large crowd gathered around him. <sup>22</sup>A ruler from the synagogue,<sup>d</sup> named Jairus, came to that place. Jairus saw Jesus and bowed before him. <sup>23</sup>The ruler begged Jesus, saying again and again, "My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on her. Then she will be healed and will live." <sup>24</sup>So Jesus went with the ruler, and many people followed Jesus. They were pushing very close around him.

<sup>25</sup>A woman was there who had been bleeding for the past 12 years. <sup>26</sup>She had suffered very much, and many doctors had tried to help her. She had spent all the money she had, but she was not improving. She was getting worse. <sup>27</sup>When the woman heard about Jesus, she followed him with the people and touched his coat. <sup>28</sup>The woman thought, "If I can even touch his coat, that will be enough to heal me." <sup>29</sup>When she touched his coat, her bleeding stopped. She could feel in her body that she was healed.

<sup>30</sup>At once Jesus felt power go out from him. So he stopped and turned around. Then he asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>31</sup>The followers said, "There are so many people pushing against you! And you ask, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>32</sup>But Jesus continued looking around to see who had touched him. <sup>33</sup>The woman knew that she was healed. So she came and knelt at Jesus' feet. Shaking with fear, she told him the whole story. <sup>34</sup>Jesus said to the woman, "Dear woman, you are made well because you believed. Go in peace. You will have no more suffering."

<sup>35</sup>Jesus was still speaking to her when some men came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler. The men said, "Your daughter is dead. There is now no need to bother the teacher."

<sup>36</sup>But Jesus paid no attention to what the men said. He said to the synagogue ruler, "Don't be afraid; only believe."

<sup>37</sup>Jesus let only Peter, James, and John the brother of James go with him to Jairus's house. <sup>38</sup>They came to the house of the synagogue ruler, and Jesus found many people there crying loudly. There was much confusion. <sup>39</sup>Jesus entered the house and said to the people, "Why are you crying and making so much noise? This child is not dead. She is only asleep." <sup>40</sup>But they only laughed at Jesus. He told all the people to leave. Then he went into the room where the child was. He took the child's father and mother and his three followers into the room with him. <sup>41</sup>Then he took hold of the girl's hand and said to her, "Talitha, koum!" (This means, "Little girl, I tell you to stand up!") <sup>42</sup>The girl stood right up and began walking. (She was 12 years old.) The father and mother and the followers were amazed. <sup>43</sup>Jesus gave the father and mother strict orders not to tell people about this. Then he told them to give the girl some food.

Jesus Goes to His Hometown

6 Jesus left there and went back to his hometown. His followers went with him. <sup>2</sup>On the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day he taught in the synagogue.<sup>d</sup> Many people heard him and were amazed. They said, "Where did this man get these teachings? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? And where did he get the power to work miracles?" <sup>3</sup>He is only the carpenter. His mother is Mary. He is the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon. And his sisters are here with us." The people did not accept Jesus.

<sup>4</sup>Jesus said to them, "Other people give honor to a prophet.<sup>d</sup> But in his own town with his own people and in his own home, a prophet does not receive honor." <sup>5</sup>Jesus was not able to work many miracles there. The only miracles he did were to heal some sick people by putting his hands on them. <sup>6</sup>Jesus was amazed that they had no faith.

Then Jesus went to other villages in that area and taught. <sup>7</sup>He called the 12 followers together and sent them out in groups of 2. He gave them authority over evil spirits. <sup>8</sup>This is what Jesus told them: "Take nothing for your trip except a walking stick. Take no bread, no bag, and no money in your pockets. <sup>9</sup>Wear sandals, and take only the clothes you are wearing. <sup>10</sup>When you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place. <sup>11</sup>If any town refuses to accept you or its people refuse to listen to you, then leave that town. Shake its dust off your feet." This will be a warning to them."

<sup>a</sup>Ten Towns In Greek, called "Decapolis." It was an area east of Lake Galilee that once had ten main towns.

<sup>12</sup>The followers went out and preached to the people to change their hearts and lives. <sup>13</sup>The followers forced many demons<sup>d</sup> out and poured olive oil on many sick people and healed them.

How John the Baptist Was Killed

<sup>14</sup>King Herod heard about Jesus, because Jesus was now well known. Some people said, "He is John the Baptist.<sup>d</sup> He is risen from death. That is the reason he can work these miracles."<sup>d</sup>

Other people said, "Jesus is a prophet.<sup>d</sup> He is like the prophets who lived long ago."

<sup>16</sup>Herod heard all these things about Jesus. He said, "I killed John by cutting off his head. Now he has been raised from death!"

<sup>17</sup>Herod himself had ordered his soldiers to arrest John, and John was put in prison. Herod did this to please his wife, Herodias. Herodias was the wife of Philip, Herod's brother. But then Herod married her. <sup>18</sup>John told Herod that it was not lawful for him to be married to his brother's wife. <sup>19</sup>So Herodias hated John and wanted to kill him. But she could not because of Herod. <sup>20</sup>Herod was afraid to kill John because he knew John was a good and holy man. So Herod protected John. Also, Herod enjoyed listening to John preach. But John's preaching always bothered him.

<sup>21</sup>Then the perfect time came for Herodias to cause John's death. It happened on Herod's birthday. Herod gave a dinner party for the most important government leaders, the commanders of his army, and the most important people in Galilee. <sup>22</sup>The daughter of Herodias came to the party and danced. When she danced, Herod and the people eating with him were very pleased.

So King Herod said to the girl, "I will give you anything you want." <sup>23</sup>He promised her,

"Anything you ask for I will give to you. I will even give you half of my kingdom."

<sup>24</sup>The girl went to her mother and asked, "What should I ask the king to give me?"

Her mother answered, "Ask for the head of John the Baptist."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Quickly the girl went back to the king. She said to him, "Please give me the head of John the Baptist. Bring it to me now on a platter."

<sup>26</sup>The king was very sad. But he had promised to give the girl anything she wanted. And the people eating there with him had heard his promise. So Herod could not refuse what she asked. <sup>27</sup>Immediately the king sent a soldier to bring John's head. The soldier went and cut off John's head in the prison <sup>28</sup>and brought it back on a platter. He gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>John's followers heard about what happened. So they came and got John's body and put it in a tomb.

More than 5,000 People Fed

<sup>30</sup>The apostles<sup>d</sup> that Jesus had sent out to preach returned. They gathered around him and told him about all the things they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup>Crowds of people were coming and going. Jesus and his followers did not even have time to eat. He said to them, "Come with me. We will go to a quiet place to be alone. There we will get some rest."

<sup>32</sup>So they went in a boat alone to a place where there were no people. <sup>33</sup>But many people saw them leave and recognized them. So people from all the towns ran to the place where Jesus was going. They got there before Jesus arrived. <sup>34</sup>When he landed, he saw a great crowd waiting. Jesus felt sorry for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he taught them many things.

<sup>35</sup>It was now late in the day. Jesus' followers came to him and said, "No one lives in this place. And it is already very late. <sup>36</sup>Send the people away. They need to go to the farms and towns around here to buy some food to eat."

They said to him, "We can't buy enough bread to feed all these people! We would all have to work a month to earn enough money to buy that much bread!"

<sup>38</sup>Jesus asked them, "How many loaves of bread do you have now? Go and see."

<sup>d</sup>Shake . . . feet A warning. It showed that they were finished talking to these people.

<sup>n</sup>Elijah A man who spoke for God. He lived hundreds of years before Christ.

When they found out, they came to him and said, "We have five loaves and two fish."

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus said to the followers, "Tell all the people to sit in groups on the green grass."

<sup>40</sup>So all the people sat in groups of 50 or groups of 100. <sup>41</sup>Jesus took the five loaves and two fish. He looked up to heaven and thanked God for the bread. He divided the bread and gave it to his followers for them to give to the people. Then he divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup>All the people ate and were satisfied. <sup>43</sup>The followers filled 12 baskets with the pieces of bread and fish that were not eaten. <sup>44</sup>There were about 5,000 men there who ate.

Jesus Walks on the Water

<sup>45</sup>Then Jesus told his followers to get into the boat and go to Bethsaida on the other side of the lake. Jesus said that he would come later. He stayed there to tell the people they could go home. <sup>46</sup>After sending them away, he went into the hills to pray.

<sup>47</sup>That night, the boat was in the middle of the lake. Jesus was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup>He saw the followers working hard to row the boat because the wind was blowing against them. At some time between three and six o'clock in the morning, Jesus came to them, walking on the water. He continued walking until he was almost past the boat. <sup>49</sup>But when his followers saw him walking on the water, they thought he was a ghost and cried out. <sup>50</sup>They all saw him and were terrified. But Jesus spoke to them and said, "Have courage! It is I! Do not be afraid." <sup>51</sup>Then he got into the boat with them. And the wind became calm. The followers were greatly amazed. <sup>52</sup>They had seen Jesus make more bread from the five loaves. But they did not understand what it meant. Their minds were closed.

<sup>53</sup>When they had crossed the lake, they came to shore at Gennesaret. They tied the boat there. <sup>54</sup>When they got out of the boat, the people saw Jesus and recognized him. <sup>55</sup>They ran to tell others everywhere in that area that Jesus was there. They brought sick people on mats to every place Jesus went. <sup>56</sup>Jesus went into towns and cities and farms around that area. And everywhere he went, the people brought the sick to the market-places. They begged him to let them just touch the edge of his coat. And all who touched him were healed.

Obey God's Law, Not Men's

7 Some Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and some teachers of the law came from Jerusalem and gathered around Jesus. <sup>2</sup>They saw that some of Jesus' followers ate food with hands that were not clean.<sup>d</sup> ("Not clean" means that they did not wash their hands in the way the Pharisees said people must. <sup>3</sup>The Pharisees and all the Jews never eat before washing their hands in this special way. They do this to follow the teaching given to them by their great people who lived before them. <sup>4</sup>And when the Jews buy something in the market, they never eat it until they wash it in a special way. They also follow other rules of their great people who lived before them. They follow rules about the washing of cups, pitchers, and pots.)

<sup>5</sup>The Pharisees and the teachers of the law said to Jesus, "Your followers don't follow the rules given to us by our great people who lived before us. Your followers eat their food with hands that are not clean. Why do they do this?" <sup>6</sup>Jesus answered, "You are all hypocrites!<sup>d</sup> Isaiah was right when he spoke about you. Isaiah wrote, 'These people show honor to me with words.

But their hearts are far from me.

<sup>7</sup>Their worship of me is worthless.

The things they teach are nothing but human rules they have memorized.'

<sup>8</sup>You have stopped following the commands of God. Now you only follow the teachings of men."<sup>13</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them: "You think you are clever! You ignore the commands of God so that you can follow your own teachings! <sup>10</sup>Moses said, 'Honor your father and mother.'<sup>a</sup> Then Moses also said, 'Anyone who says cruel things to his father or mother must be put to death.'<sup>n</sup> <sup>11</sup>But you teach that a person can say to his father or mother, 'I have something I could use to help you. But I will not use it for you. I will give it to God.'<sup>12</sup>You are telling that person that he does not have to do anything for his father or mother. <sup>13</sup>So you are teaching that it is not important to do what God said. You think that it is more important to follow your own rules, which you teach people. And you do many things like that."

<sup>14</sup>Jesus called the people to him again. He said, "Every person should listen to me and understand what I am saying. <sup>15</sup>There is nothing a person puts into his body that makes him unclean. A person is made unclean by the things that come out of him.”<sup>16 n</sup>

<sup>17</sup>When Jesus left the people and went inside, his followers asked him about this story. <sup>18</sup>Jesus said, “Do you still have trouble understanding? Surely you know that nothing that enters a man from the outside can make him unclean. <sup>19</sup>Food does not go into a person’s mind. Food goes into his stomach. Then that food goes out of his body.” (When Jesus said this, he meant that there is no food that is unclean for people to eat.)

Jesus Helps a Non-Jewish Woman

<sup>24</sup>Jesus left that place and went to the area around Tyre. He went into a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. But Jesus could not stay hidden. <sup>25</sup>A woman heard that he was there. Her little daughter had an evil spirit in her. So the woman came to Jesus and fell at his feet. <sup>26</sup>She was not Jewish. She was Greek, born in Phoenicia, in Syria. She begged Jesus to force the demon<sup>d</sup> out of her daughter.

<sup>27</sup>Jesus told the woman: “It is not right to take the children’s bread and give it to the dogs. First let the children eat all they want.”

<sup>28</sup>She answered, “That is true, Lord. But the dogs under the table can eat the pieces of food that the children don’t eat.”

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus said, “That is a very good answer. You may go. The demon has left your daughter.”

<sup>30</sup>The woman went home and found her daughter lying in bed. The demon was gone.

Jesus Heals a Deaf Man

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus left the area around Tyre. He went through Sidon to Lake Galilee, to the area of the Ten Towns.<sup>n</sup> <sup>32</sup>While he was there, some people brought a man to him. This man was deaf and could not talk. The people begged Jesus to put his hand on the man to heal him.

be alone with him. Jesus put his fingers in the man’s ears. Then Jesus spit and touched the man’s tongue. <sup>34</sup>Jesus looked up to heaven and took a deep breath. He said to the man, “Ephphatha!” (This means, “Be opened.”) <sup>35</sup>When Jesus did this, the man was able to hear. He was also able to use his tongue, and he spoke clearly.

<sup>36</sup>Jesus commanded the people not to tell anyone about what happened. But the more he commanded them, the more they told about it. <sup>37</sup>They were really amazed. They said, “Jesus does everything well. He makes the deaf hear! And those who can’t talk—Jesus makes them able to speak.”

More than 4,000 People Fed

8 Another time there was a great crowd with Jesus. They had nothing to eat. So Jesus called his followers to him. He said, <sup>21</sup>“I feel sorry for these people. They have been with me for three days, and now they have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup>I cannot send them home hungry. If they leave without eating, they will faint on the way home. Some of them live a long way from here.”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus’ followers answered, “But we are far away from any towns. Where can we get enough bread to feed all these people?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus asked, “How many loaves of bread do you have?”

They answered, “We have seven loaves.”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told the people to sit on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves and gave thanks to God. Jesus divided the bread and gave the pieces to his followers. He told them to pass out the bread to the people, and they did so. <sup>7</sup>The followers also had a few small fish. Jesus gave thanks for the fish and told his followers to give the fish to the people. <sup>8</sup>All the people ate and were satisfied. Then the followers filled seven baskets with the pieces of food that were not eaten. <sup>9</sup>There were about 4,000 men who ate. After they had eaten, Jesus told them to go home. <sup>10</sup>Then he went in a boat with his followers to the area of Dalmanutha.

The Leaders Ask for a Miracle

<sup>11</sup>The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> came to Jesus and asked him questions. They wanted to trap him. So they asked Jesus to do a miracle<sup>d</sup> to show that he was from God. <sup>12</sup>Jesus sighed deeply. He said, “Why do you people ask for a miracle as proof? I tell you the truth. No miracle will be given to you.”<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus left the Pharisees and went in the boat to the other side of the lake.

Guard Against Wrong Teachings

<sup>16</sup>Among themselves, his disciples discussed the meaning of this. They said, “He said this because we have no bread.”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus knew what his followers were talking about. So he asked them, “Why are you talking about having no bread? You still don’t see or understand? Are your minds closed?” <sup>18</sup>You have eyes, but you don’t really see. You have ears, but you don’t really listen. Remember what I did before, when we did not have enough bread? <sup>19</sup>I divided five loaves of bread for 5,000 people. Remember how many baskets you filled with pieces of food that were not eaten?”

They answered, “We filled 12 baskets.”

<sup>20</sup>“And remember that I divided seven loaves of bread for 4,000 people. Remember how many baskets you filled with pieces of food that were not eaten?”

They answered, “We filled 7 baskets.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “You remember these things I did, but you still don’t understand?”

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

<sup>22</sup>Jesus and his followers came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to Jesus and begged him to touch the man. <sup>23</sup>So Jesus took the blind man’s hand and led him out of the village. Then he spit on the man’s eyes. He put his hands on the blind man and asked, “Can you see now?”

<sup>24</sup>The man looked up and said, “Yes, I see people, but they look like trees walking around.”

<sup>25</sup>Again Jesus put his hands on the man’s eyes. Then the man opened his eyes wide. His eyes were healed, and he was able to see everything clearly. <sup>26</sup>Jesus told him to go home, saying, “Don’t go into the town.”

Peter Says Jesus Is the Christ

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his followers went to the towns around Caesarea Philippi. While they were traveling, Jesus asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

<sup>28</sup>They answered, “Some people say you are John the Baptist.<sup>d</sup> Others say you are Elijah.<sup>n</sup> And others say that you are one of the prophets.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus asked, “Who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Christ.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus began to teach them that the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> must suffer many things. He taught that the Son of Man would not be accepted by the older Jewish leaders, the leading priests, and the teachers of the law. He taught that the Son of Man must be killed and then rise from death after three days. <sup>32</sup>Jesus told them plainly what would happen. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to criticize him. <sup>33</sup>But Jesus turned and looked at his followers. Then he criticized Peter and said, “Go away from me, Satan!<sup>n</sup> You don’t care about the things of God. You care only about things men think are important.”

<sup>34</sup>Then Jesus called the crowd to him, along with his followers. He said, “If anyone wants to follow me, he must say ‘no’ to the things he wants. He must be willing to die on a cross, and he must follow me. <sup>35</sup>Whoever wants to save his life will give up true life. But whoever gives up his life for me and for the Good News<sup>d</sup> will have true life forever. <sup>36</sup>It is worth nothing for a person to have the whole world, if he loses his soul. <sup>37</sup>A person could never pay enough to buy back his soul. <sup>38</sup>The people who live now are living in a sinful and evil time. If anyone is ashamed of me and my teaching, then I will be ashamed of him. I will be ashamed of him when I come with the glory of my Father and the holy angels.”

9 Then Jesus said to the people, “I tell you the truth. Some of you standing here will see the kingdom of God come with power before you die.”

Jesus Talks with Moses and Elijah

<sup>2</sup>Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John and went up on a high mountain. They were all alone there. While these followers watched, Jesus was changed. <sup>3</sup>His clothes became shining white, whiter than any person could make them. <sup>4</sup>Then Elijah and Moses<sup>a</sup> appeared to them, talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>Peter said to Jesus, “Teacher, it is good that we are here. We will put three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” <sup>6</sup>Peter did not know what to say, because he and the others were so frightened.

<sup>7</sup>Then a cloud came and covered them. A voice came from the cloud. The voice said, “This is my Son, and I love him. Obey him!”

<sup>8</sup>Then Peter, James, and John looked around, but they saw only Jesus there alone with them.

<sup>9</sup>As Jesus and his followers were walking back down the mountain, he commanded them, “Don’t tell anyone about the things you saw on the mountain. Wait till the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> rises from death. Then you may tell.”

<sup>10</sup>So the followers obeyed Jesus and said nothing about what they had seen. But they discussed what Jesus meant about rising from death.

<sup>11</sup>They asked Jesus, “Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

<sup>12</sup>Jesus answered, “They are right to say that Elijah must come first. Elijah makes all things the way they should be. But why does the Scripture<sup>d</sup> say that the Son of Man will suffer much and that people will treat him as if he were nothing? <sup>13</sup>I tell you that Elijah has already come. And people did to him whatever they wanted to do. The Scriptures said this would happen to him.”

Jesus Heals a Sick Boy

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus, Peter, James, and John went to the other followers. They saw a great crowd around them. The teachers of the law were arguing with them. <sup>15</sup>But when the crowd saw Jesus, they were surprised and ran to welcome him.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus asked, “What are you arguing about with the teachers of the law?”

<sup>17</sup>A man answered, “Teacher, I brought my son to you. He has a spirit from the devil in him. This spirit stops him from talking. <sup>18</sup>The spirit attacks him and throws him on the ground. My son foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes very stiff. I asked your followers to force the evil spirit out, but they couldn’t.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus answered, “You people don’t believe! How long must I stay with you? How long must I go on being patient with you? Bring the boy to me!”

<sup>20</sup>So the followers brought him to Jesus. As soon as the evil spirit saw Jesus, it attacked the boy. He fell down and rolled on the ground, foaming from his mouth.

<sup>21</sup>Jesus asked the boy’s father, “How long has this been happening?”

The father answered, “Since he was very young. <sup>22</sup>The spirit often throws him into a fire or into water to kill him. If you can do anything for him, please have pity on us and help us.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said to the father, “You said, ‘If you can!’ All things are possible for him who believes.”

<sup>24</sup>Immediately the father cried out, “I do believe! Help me to believe more!”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus saw that a crowd was running there to see what was happening. So he spoke to the evil spirit, saying, “You deaf and dumb spirit—I command you to come out of this boy and never enter him again!”

<sup>26</sup>The evil spirit screamed and caused the boy to fall on the ground again. Then the spirit came out. The boy looked as if he were dead. And many people said, “He is dead!” <sup>27</sup>But Jesus took hold of the boy’s hand and helped him to stand up.

<sup>28</sup>Jesus went into the house. His followers were alone with him there. They said, “Why couldn’t we force that evil spirit out?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, “That kind of spirit can only be forced out by prayer.”

Jesus Talks About His Death

<sup>30</sup>Then Jesus and his followers left that place and went through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where he was <sup>31</sup>because he wanted to teach his followers alone. He said to them, “The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be given to men who will kill him. After three days, he will rise from death.” <sup>32</sup>But the followers did not understand what Jesus meant. And they were afraid to ask.

Who Is the Greatest?

<sup>33</sup>Jesus and his followers went to Capernaum and went into a house there. Then Jesus said to them, “What were you arguing about on the road?” <sup>34</sup>But the followers did not answer, because their argument on the road was about which one of them was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus sat down and called the 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> to him. He said, “If anyone wants to be the most important, then he must be last of all and servant of all.”

stand among them. He took the child in his arms and said, <sup>37</sup>"If anyone accepts children like these in my name, then he is also accepting me. And if he accepts me, then he is also accepting the One who sent me."

Anyone Not Against Us Is for Us

<sup>38</sup>Then John said, "Teacher, we saw a man using your name to force demons<sup>d</sup> out of a person. We told him to stop, because he does not belong to our group."

<sup>39</sup>Jesus said, "Don't stop him. Anyone who uses my name to do powerful things will not say evil things about me. <sup>40</sup>He who is not against us is with us. <sup>41</sup>I tell you the truth. If anyone helps you by giving you a drink of water because you belong to the Christ,<sup>d</sup> then he will truly get his reward.

<sup>42</sup>"If one of these little children believes in me, and someone causes that child to sin, then it will be very bad for him. It would be better for him to have a large stone tied around his neck and be drowned in the sea. <sup>43</sup>If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to lose part of your body but have life forever. That is much better than to have two hands and go to hell. In that place the fire never goes out. <sup>44</sup> <sup>n</sup> <sup>45</sup>If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to lose part of your body but have life forever. That is much better than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. <sup>46</sup> <sup>n</sup> <sup>47</sup>If your eye causes you to sin, take it out. It is better for you to have only one eye but have life forever. That is much better than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell. <sup>48</sup>In hell the worm does not die; the fire is never stopped. <sup>49</sup>Every person will be salted with fire.

<sup>50</sup>"Salt is good. But if the salt loses its salty taste, then you cannot make it salty again. So, be full of goodness. And have peace with each other."

Jesus Teaches About Divorce

10 Then Jesus left that place. He went into the area of Judea and across the Jordan River. Again, crowds came to him. And Jesus taught them as he always did.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, "What did Moses command you to do?"

<sup>4</sup>They said, "Moses allowed a man to write out divorce papers and send her away." <sup>n</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Jesus said, "Moses wrote that command for you because you refused to accept God's teaching. <sup>6</sup>But when God made the world, 'he made them male and female.' <sup>7</sup>"So a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife. <sup>8</sup>And the two people will become one body.' <sup>n</sup> So the people are not two, but one. <sup>9</sup>God has joined the two people together. So no one should separate them."

<sup>10</sup>Later, the followers and Jesus were in the house. They asked Jesus again about the question of divorce. <sup>11</sup>He answered, "Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman is guilty of adultery<sup>d</sup> against her. <sup>12</sup>And the woman who divorces her husband and marries another man is also guilty of adultery."

Jesus Accepts Children

<sup>13</sup>Some people brought their small children to Jesus so he could touch them. But his followers told the people to stop bringing their children to him. <sup>14</sup>When Jesus saw this, he was displeased. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me. Don't stop them. The kingdom of God belongs to people who are like these little children. <sup>15</sup>I tell you the truth. You must accept the kingdom of God as a little child accepts things, or you will never enter it." <sup>16</sup>Then Jesus took the children in his arms. He put his hands on them and blessed them.

A Rich Young Man's Question

<sup>17</sup>Jesus started to leave, but a man ran to him and fell on his knees before Jesus. The man asked, "Good teacher, what must I do to get the life that never ends?"

<sup>18</sup>Jesus answered, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. <sup>19</sup>You know the commands: 'You must not murder anyone. You must not be guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> You must not steal. You must not tell lies about your neighbor in court. You must not cheat. Honor your father and mother.'" <sup>n</sup>

<sup>20</sup>The man said, "Teacher, I have obeyed all these commands since I was a boy."

<sup>21</sup>Jesus looked straight at the man and loved him. Jesus said, "There is still one more thing <sup>22</sup>He was very sad to hear Jesus say this, and he left. The man was sad because he was very rich.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus looked at his followers and said, "How hard it will be for those who are rich to enter the kingdom of God!"

<sup>24</sup>The followers were amazed at what Jesus said. But he said again, "My children, it is very hard to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>And it will be very hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. It would be easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle!"

<sup>27</sup>Jesus looked straight at them and said, "This is something that men cannot do. But God can do it. God can do all things."

<sup>28</sup>Peter said to Jesus, "We left everything to follow you!"

Jesus Talks About His Own Death

<sup>32</sup>Jesus and the people with him were on the road to Jerusalem. Jesus was leading the way. The followers were amazed, but those who followed behind them were afraid. Jesus took the 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> aside and talked with them alone. He told them what would happen in Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup>He said, "We are going to Jerusalem. The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be given to the leading priests and teachers of the law. They will say that he must die. They will give him to the non-Jewish people, <sup>34</sup>who will laugh at him and spit on him. They will beat him with whips and kill him. But on the third day after his death, he will rise to life again."

Two Followers Ask Jesus a Favor

<sup>35</sup>Then James and John, sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus. They said, "Teacher, we want to ask you to do something for us."

<sup>36</sup>Jesus asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"

<sup>38</sup>Jesus said, "You don't understand what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I must drink? And can you be baptized with the same kind of baptism that I must have?"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>39</sup>They answered, "Yes, we can!"

Jesus said to them, "You will drink the same cup that I will drink. And you will be baptized with the same baptism that I must have. <sup>40</sup>But I cannot choose who will sit at my right or my left. These places are for those for whom they are prepared."

<sup>41</sup>The ten followers heard this and began to be angry with James and John.

<sup>42</sup>Jesus called all the followers together. He said, "The non-Jewish people have men they call rulers. You know that those rulers love to show their power over the people. And their important leaders love to use all their authority. <sup>43</sup>But it should not be that way among you. If one of you wants to become great, then he must serve you like a servant. <sup>44</sup>If one of you wants to become the most important, then he must serve all of you like a slave. <sup>45</sup>In the same way, the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> did not come to be served. He came to serve. The Son of Man came to give his life to save many people."

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

<sup>46</sup>Then they came to the town of Jericho. As Jesus was leaving there with his followers and a large crowd, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus (son of Timaeus) was sitting by the road. <sup>47</sup>He heard that Jesus from Nazareth was walking by. The blind man cried out, "Jesus, Son of David,<sup>d</sup> please help me!"

<sup>48</sup>Many people scolded the blind man and told him to be quiet. But he shouted more and more, "Son of David, please help me!"

<sup>49</sup>Jesus stopped and said, "Tell the man to come here."

So they called the blind man. They said, "Cheer up! Get to your feet. Jesus is calling you." <sup>50</sup>The blind man stood up quickly. He left his coat there and went to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup>Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man answered, "Teacher, I want to see again."

<sup>a</sup>Can you . . . have? Jesus was asking if they could suffer the same terrible things that would happen to him.

<sup>52</sup>Jesus said, "Go. You are healed because you believed." At once the man was able to see again, and he followed Jesus on the road.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem as a King

11 Jesus and his followers were coming closer to Jerusalem. They came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany near the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup> There Jesus sent two of his followers. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, "Go to the town you see there. When you enter it, you will find a colt tied which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here to me. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks you why you are doing this, tell him, 'The Master needs the colt. He will send it back soon.'"

<sup>4</sup>The followers went into the town. They found a colt tied in the street near the door of a house, and they untied it. <sup>5</sup>Some people were standing there and asked, "What are you doing? Why are you untying that colt?" <sup>6</sup>The followers answered the way Jesus told them to answer. And the people let them take the colt.

<sup>7</sup>The followers brought the colt to Jesus. They put their coats on the colt, and Jesus sat on it. <sup>8</sup>Many people spread their coats on the road. Others cut branches in the fields and spread the branches on the road. <sup>9</sup>Some of the people were walking ahead of Jesus. Others were following him. All of them were shouting,

"Praise <sup>n</sup> God!

God bless the One who comes in the name of the Lord!

Psalm 118:26

<sup>10</sup>God bless the kingdom of our father David! That kingdom is coming!

Praise to God in heaven!"

<sup>11</sup>Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the Temple.<sup>d</sup> When he had looked at everything, and since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the 12 apostles.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>12</sup>The next day as Jesus was leaving Bethany, he was hungry. <sup>13</sup>He saw a fig tree in leaf. So he went to the tree to see if it had any figs on it. But he found no figs, only leaves. It was not the right season for figs to grow. <sup>14</sup>So Jesus said to the tree, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And Jesus' followers heard him say this.

Jesus Goes to the Temple

<sup>15</sup>Jesus returned to Jerusalem and went into <sup>d</sup>Praise Literally, "Hosanna," a Hebrew word used at first in praying to God for help, but at this time it was probably a shout of joy used in praising God or his Messiah.

<sup>d</sup>My Temple . . . pray. Quotation from Isaiah 56:7.

<sup>d</sup>Verse 26 Some early Greek copies add verse 26: "But if you don't forgive other people, then your Father in heaven will not forgive your sins."

the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He began to throw out those who were buying and selling things there. He overturned the tables that belonged to the men who were exchanging different kinds of money. And he turned over the benches of the men who were selling doves. <sup>16</sup>Jesus refused to allow anyone to carry goods through the Temple courts. <sup>17</sup>Then Jesus taught the people. He said, "It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> 'My Temple will be a house where people from all nations will pray.'<sup>n</sup> But you are changing God's house into a 'hideout for robbers.'<sup>n</sup>"

<sup>18</sup>The leading priests and the teachers of the law heard all this. They began trying to find a way to kill Jesus. They were afraid of him because all the people were amazed at his teaching. <sup>19</sup>That night, Jesus and his followers left the city.

The Power of Faith

<sup>20</sup>The next morning, Jesus was passing by with his followers. They saw the fig tree, and it was dry and dead, even to the roots. <sup>21</sup>Peter remembered the tree and said to Jesus, "Teacher, look! Yesterday, you cursed the fig tree. Now it is dry and dead!"

<sup>22</sup>Jesus answered, "Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>I tell you the truth. You can say to this mountain, 'Go, mountain, fall into the sea.' And if you have no doubts in your mind and believe that the thing you say will happen, then God will do it for you. <sup>24</sup>So I tell you to ask for things in prayer. And if you believe that you have received those things, then they will be yours. <sup>25</sup>When you are praying, and you remember that you are angry with another person about something, then forgive him. If you do this, then your Father in heaven will also forgive your sins." <sup>26</sup> <sup>n</sup>

Leaders Doubt Jesus' Authority

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his followers went again to Jerusalem. Jesus was walking in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> The leading priests, the teachers of the law, and the older Jewish leaders came to him. <sup>28</sup>They said to him, "Tell us! What authority do you have to do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "I will ask you one question. You answer it. Then I will tell you whose authority I use to do these things. <sup>30</sup>Tell me:

When John baptized people, was that from God or from man? Answer me!"

<sup>31</sup>They argued about Jesus' question. They said to each other, "If we answer, 'John's baptism was from God,' then Jesus will say, 'Then why didn't you believe John?' <sup>32</sup>But if we say, 'From man,' then the people will be against us." (These leaders were afraid of the people. All the people believed that John was a prophet.)<sup>d</sup>

<sup>33</sup>So the leaders answered Jesus, "We don't know."

Jesus said, "Then I will not tell you what authority I use to do these things."

A Story About God's Son

12 Jesus used stories to teach the people. He said, "A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it and dug a hole for a winepress.<sup>d</sup> Then he built a tower. He leased the vineyard to some farmers and left for a trip. <sup>2</sup>Later, it was time for the grapes to be picked. So the man sent a servant to the farmers to get his share of the grapes. <sup>3</sup>But the farmers grabbed the servant and beat him. They sent him away with nothing. <sup>4</sup>Then the man sent another servant. They hit him on the head and showed no respect for him. <sup>5</sup>So the man sent another servant, and they killed him. The man sent many other servants. The farmers beat some of them and killed others.

<sup>6</sup>"The man had one person left to send, his son whom he loved. He sent him last of all, saying, 'The farmers will respect my son.'

<sup>7</sup>"But they said to each other, 'This is the owner's son. This vineyard will be his. If we kill him, then it will be ours.' <sup>8</sup>So they took the son, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup>"So what will the man who owns the vineyard do? He will go to the vineyard and kill those farmers. Then he will give the vineyard to other farmers. <sup>10</sup>Surely you have read this Scripture:<sup>d</sup>

'The stone that the builders did not want became the cornerstone.'<sup>d</sup>

<sup>12</sup>The Jewish leaders knew that the story was about them. So they wanted to find a way to arrest Jesus, but they were afraid of the people. So the leaders left him and went away.

Jewish Leaders Try to Trap Jesus

<sup>13</sup>Later, the Jewish leaders sent some Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and some men from the group called Herodians<sup>n</sup> to Jesus. They wanted to catch Jesus saying something wrong. <sup>14</sup>They came to him and said, "Teacher, we know that you are an honest man. You are not afraid of what other people think about you. All men are the same to you. And you teach the truth about God's way. Tell us: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar?<sup>d</sup> Should we pay them, or not?"

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus knew what these men were really trying to do. He said, "Why are you trying to trap me? Bring me a silver coin. Let me see it." <sup>16</sup>They gave Jesus a coin, and he asked, "Whose picture is on the coin? And whose name is written on it?"

They answered, "Caesar's."

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's. And give to God the things that are God's." The men were amazed at what Jesus said.

Sadducees Try to Trick Jesus

<sup>18</sup>Then some Sadducees<sup>d</sup> came to Jesus. (Sadducees believe that no person will rise from death.) The Sadducees asked Jesus a question. <sup>19</sup>They said, "Teacher, Moses wrote that a man's brother might die. He leaves a wife but no children. Then that man must marry the widow and have children for the dead brother. <sup>20</sup>There were seven brothers. The first brother married but died. He had no children. <sup>21</sup>So the second brother married the widow. But he also died and had no children. The same thing happened with the third brother. <sup>22</sup>All seven brothers married her and died. None of the brothers had any children. The woman was last to die. <sup>23</sup>But all seven brothers had married her. So at the time people rise from death, whose wife will the woman be?"

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered, "Why did you make this mistake? Is it because you don't know what the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say? Or is it because you don't know about the power of God? <sup>25</sup>When people rise from death, there will be no marriage. People will not be married to each other but will be like angels in heaven. <sup>26</sup>Surely you have read what God said about people rising from death. In the book in which Moses wrote about the burning bush,<sup>n</sup> it says that God told Moses this: 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'<sup>n</sup> <sup>27</sup>God is the God of living people, not dead people. You Sadducees are wrong!"

The Most Important Command

<sup>28</sup>One of the teachers of the law came to Jesus. He heard Jesus arguing with the Sadducees<sup>d</sup> and the Pharisees.<sup>d</sup> He saw that Jesus gave good answers to their questions. So he asked Jesus, "Which of the commands is most important?"

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "The most important command is this: 'Listen, people of Israel! The Lord our God, he is the only Lord. <sup>30</sup>Love the Lord your God. Love him with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.'"<sup>n</sup> <sup>31</sup>The second most important command is this: 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.'"<sup>n</sup> These two commands are the most important commands."

<sup>32</sup>The man answered, "That was a good answer, Teacher. You were right when you said these things. God is the only Lord, and there is no other God besides him. <sup>33</sup>One must love God with all his heart, all his mind, and all his strength. And one must love his neighbor as he loves himself. These commands are more important than all the animals and sacrifices we offer to God."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus saw that the man answered him wisely. So Jesus said to him, "You are close to the kingdom of God." And after that, no one was brave enough to ask Jesus any more questions.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus was teaching in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He asked, "Why do the teachers of the law say that the Christ<sup>d</sup> is the son of David? <sup>36</sup>David himself, speaking by the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> said:

'The Lord said to my Lord:

Sit by me at my right side,
until I put your enemies under your control.'

Psalms 110:1

<sup>37</sup>David himself calls the Christ 'Lord.' So how can the Christ be David's son?" The large crowd listened to Jesus with pleasure.

<sup>38</sup>Jesus continued teaching. He said, "Be aware of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around wearing clothes that look important. And they love for people to show respect to them in the marketplaces. <sup>39</sup>They love to have the most important seats in the synagogues.<sup>d</sup> And they love to have the most important seats at the feasts. <sup>40</sup>They cheat widows and steal their homes. Then they try to make themselves look good by saying long prayers. God will punish these people terribly."

True Giving

<sup>41</sup>Jesus sat near the Temple<sup>d</sup> money box where people put their gifts. He watched the people put in their money. Many rich people gave large sums of money. <sup>42</sup>Then a poor widow came and gave two very small copper coins. These coins were not worth even a penny.

<sup>43</sup>Jesus called his followers to him. He said, "I tell you the truth. This poor widow gave only two small coins. But she really gave more than all those rich people. <sup>44</sup>The rich have plenty; they gave only what they did not need. This woman is very poor. But she gave all she had. And she needed that money to help her live."

The Temple Will Be Destroyed

13 As Jesus was leaving the Temple,<sup>d</sup> one of his followers said to him, "Look, Teacher! This Temple has beautiful buildings with very big stones."

<sup>2</sup>Jesus said, "Do you see all these great buildings? Every stone will be thrown to the ground. Not one stone will be left on another."

<sup>3</sup>Later, Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives,<sup>d</sup> opposite the Temple. He was alone with Peter, James, John, and Andrew. They asked Jesus, <sup>4</sup>"Tell us, when will all these things happen? And what will show us that the time has come for them to happen?"

<sup>5</sup>Jesus said to them: "Be careful that no one fools you. <sup>6</sup>Many people will come and use my name. They will say, 'I am the One.' And they will fool many. <sup>7</sup>You will hear about wars and stories of wars that are coming. But don't be afraid. These things must happen before the end comes. <sup>8</sup>Nations will fight against other nations. Kingdoms will fight against other kingdoms. There will be times when there is no food for people to eat. And there will be earthquakes in different places. These things are like the first pains when something new is about to be born.

<sup>9</sup>"You must be careful. People will arrest you and take you to court. They will beat you in their synagogues.<sup>d</sup> You will be forced to stand before kings and governors, to tell them about me. This will happen to you because you follow me. <sup>10</sup>But before these things happen, the Good News<sup>d</sup> must be told to all people. <sup>11</sup>When you are arrested and judged, don't worry about what you should say. Say the things God gives you to say at that time. It will not really be you speaking. It will be the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>12</sup>“Brothers will turn against their own brothers and give them over to be killed. Fathers will turn against their own children and give them over to be killed. Children will fight against their own parents and cause their parents to be killed. <sup>13</sup>All people will hate you because you follow me. But the person who continues to be strong until the end will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>“You will see ‘the horrible thing that destroys.’<sup>a</sup> You will see this thing standing in the place where it should not be.” (You who read this should understand what it means:) “At that time, the people in Judea should run away to the mountains. <sup>15</sup>If a person is on the roof<sup>n</sup> of his house, he must not go down to take anything out of his house. <sup>16</sup>If a person is in the field, he must not go back to get his coat. <sup>17</sup>At that time, it will be hard for women who are pregnant or have nursing babies. <sup>18</sup>Pray that these things will not happen in winter. <sup>19</sup>This is because those days will be full of trouble. There will be more trouble than there has ever been since the beginning, when God made the world. And nothing as bad will ever happen again. <sup>20</sup>God has decided to make that terrible time short. If that time were not made short, then no one would go on living. But God will make that time short to help his special people whom he has chosen. <sup>21</sup>At that time, someone might say to you, ‘Look, there is the Christ!’<sup>d</sup> Or another person might say, ‘There he is!’ But don’t believe them. <sup>22</sup>False Christs and false prophets<sup>d</sup> will come and perform great wonders and miracles.<sup>d</sup> They will do these things to the people God has chosen. They will do these things to try to fool them, if that is possible. <sup>23</sup>So be careful. For I have warned you about all this before it happens.

And the moon will not give its light.

<sup>25</sup>The stars will fall from the sky.

And everything in the sky will be changed.’

Isaiah 13:10; 34:4

<sup>26</sup>“Then people will see the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> coming in clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup>The Son of Man will send his angels all around the earth. They will gather his chosen people from every part of the earth.

<sup>28</sup>“The fig tree teaches us a lesson: When its branches become green and soft, and new leaves begin to grow, then you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup>So also when you see all these things happening, then you will know that the time is near, ready to come. <sup>30</sup>I tell you the truth. All these things will happen while the people of this time are still living. <sup>31</sup>The whole world, earth and sky, will be destroyed, but the words I have said will never be destroyed.

<sup>32</sup>“No one knows when that day or time will be. The Son and the angels in heaven don’t know. Only the Father knows. <sup>33</sup>Be careful! Always be ready! You don’t know when that time will be. <sup>34</sup>It is like a man who goes on a trip. He leaves his house and lets his servants take care of it. He gives each servant a special job to do. One servant has the work of guarding the door. The man tells this servant always to be watchful. This is what I am now telling you. <sup>35</sup>You must always be ready. You don’t know when the owner of the house will come back. He might come in the evening, or at midnight, or in the early morning, or when the sun rises. <sup>36</sup>He might come back quickly. If you are always ready, then he will not find you sleeping. <sup>37</sup>I tell you this, and I say this to everyone: ‘Be ready!’”

The Plan to Kill Jesus

14 It was now only two days before the <sup>1</sup>Passover<sup>d</sup> and the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread. The leading priests and teachers of the law were trying to find a way to use some trick to arrest Jesus and kill him. <sup>2</sup>But they said, “We must not do it during the feast. The people might cause a riot.”

A Woman with Perfume for Jesus

<sup>3</sup>Jesus was in Bethany. He was at dinner in the house of Simon, who had a harmful skin disease. While Jesus was there, a woman came to him. She had an alabaster<sup>d</sup> jar filled with very expensive perfume, made of pure nard.<sup>d</sup> The woman opened the jar and poured the perfume on Jesus’ head.

<sup>4</sup>Some of those who were there saw this and became angry. They complained to each other, saying, “Why waste that perfume? <sup>5</sup>It was worth a full year’s work. It could be sold, and the money could be given to the poor." They spoke to the woman sharply.

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said, "Don't bother the woman. Why are you troubling her? She did a beautiful thing for me. <sup>7</sup>You will always have the poor with you. You can help them anytime you want. But you will not always have me. <sup>8</sup>This woman did the only thing she could do for me. She poured perfume on my body. She did this before I die to prepare me for burial. <sup>9</sup>I tell you the truth. The Good News<sup>d</sup> will be told to people in all the world. And in every place it is preached, what this woman has done will be told. And people will remember her."

Judas Becomes an Enemy of Jesus

<sup>10</sup>One of the 12 followers, Judas Iscariot, went to talk to the leading priests. Judas offered to give Jesus to them. <sup>11</sup>The leading priests were pleased about this and promised to pay Judas money. So he waited for the best time to give Jesus to them.

Jesus Eats the Passover Feast

<sup>12</sup>It was now the first day of the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread. This was a time when the Jews always sacrificed the Passover<sup>d</sup> lambs. Jesus' followers came to him. They said, "We will go and prepare everything for the Passover Feast. Where do you want to eat the feast?"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus sent two of his followers and said to them, "Go into the city. A man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. <sup>14</sup>He will go into a house. Tell the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks that you show us the room where he and his followers can eat the Passover Feast.' <sup>15</sup>The owner will show you a large room upstairs. This room is ready. Prepare the food for us there."

<sup>16</sup>So the followers left and went into the city. Everything happened as Jesus had said. So they prepared the Passover Feast.

<sup>17</sup>In the evening, Jesus went to that house with the 12. <sup>18</sup>While they were all eating, Jesus said, "I tell you the truth. One of you will give me to my enemies—one of you eating with me now."

<sup>19</sup>The followers were very sad to hear this. Each one said to Jesus, "I am not the one, am I?"

<sup>20</sup>Jesus answered, "The man who is against me is I of you 12. He is the 1 who dips his bread into the bowl with me. <sup>21</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> must go and die. The Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say this will happen. But how terrible it will be for the person who gives the Son of Man to be killed. It would be better for that person if he had never been born.

The Lord's Supper

<sup>22</sup>While they were eating, Jesus took some bread. He thanked God for it and broke it. Then he gave it to his followers and said, "Take it. This bread is my body."

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus took a cup. He thanked God for it and gave it to the followers. All the followers drank from the cup.

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said, "This is my blood which begins the new agreement that God makes with his people. This blood is poured out for many. <sup>25</sup>I tell you the truth. I will not drink of this fruit of the vine<sup>a</sup> again until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup>They sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup>

Jesus' Followers Will All Leave Him

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus told the followers, "You will all lose your faith in me. It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

'I will kill the shepherd,
and the sheep will scatter.'

Zechariah 13:7

<sup>28</sup>But after I rise from death, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

<sup>29</sup>Peter said, "All the other followers may lose their faith. But I will not."

<sup>30</sup>Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth. Tonight you will say you don't know me. You will say this three times before the rooster crows twice."

<sup>31</sup>But Peter answered strongly, "I will never say that I don't know you! I will even die with you!" And all the other followers said the same thing.

Jesus Prays Alone

<sup>32</sup>Jesus and his followers went to a place called Gethsemane. He said to his followers, "Sit here while I pray." <sup>33</sup>Jesus told Peter, James, and John to come with him. Then Jesus began to be very sad and troubled. <sup>34</sup>He said to them, "I am full of sorrow. My heart is breaking with sadness. Stay here and watch."

<sup>35</sup>Jesus walked a little farther away from them. Then he fell on the ground and prayed. He prayed that, if possible, he would not have this time of suffering. <sup>36</sup>He prayed, "Abba,<sup>a</sup> Father! You can do all things. Let me not have this cup<sup>a</sup> of suffering. But do what you want, not what I want.”

<sup>a</sup>Abba Name that a child called his father.

<sup>37</sup>Then Jesus went back to his followers and found them asleep. He said to Peter, “Simon, why are you sleeping? You could not stay awake with me for one hour? <sup>38</sup>Stay awake and pray that you will not be tempted. Your spirit wants to do what is right, but your body is weak.”

<sup>39</sup>Again Jesus went away and prayed the same thing. <sup>40</sup>Then he went back to the followers. Again he found them asleep because their eyes were very heavy. And they did not know what to say to Jesus.

<sup>41</sup>After Jesus prayed a third time, he went back to his followers. He said to them, “You are still sleeping and resting? That’s enough! The time has come for the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> to be given to sinful people. <sup>42</sup>Get up! We must go. Here comes the man who has turned against me.”

Jesus Is Arrested

<sup>43</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, Judas came up. Judas was 1 of the 12 followers. Many people carrying swords and clubs came with him. They were sent from the leading priests, the teachers of the law, and the older Jewish leaders.

<sup>44</sup>Judas had planned a signal for them. He had said, “The man I kiss is Jesus. Arrest him and guard him while you lead him away.” <sup>45</sup>So Judas went to Jesus and said, “Teacher!” and kissed him. <sup>46</sup>Then the men grabbed Jesus and arrested him. <sup>47</sup>One of the followers standing near drew his sword. He struck the servant of the high priest with the sword and cut off his ear.

<sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said, “You came to get me with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal. <sup>49</sup>Every day I was with you teaching in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> You did not arrest me there. But all these things have happened to make the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> come true.” <sup>50</sup>Then all of Jesus’ followers left him and ran away.

<sup>51</sup>A young man, wearing only a linen cloth, was following Jesus. The people also grabbed him. <sup>52</sup>But the cloth he was wearing came off, and he ran away naked.

Jesus Before the Jewish Leaders

<sup>53</sup>The people who arrested Jesus led him to the house of the high priest. All the leading priests, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law were gathered there. <sup>54</sup>Peter followed far behind and entered the courtyard of the high priest’s house. There he sat with the guards, warming himself by the fire.

<sup>55</sup>The leading priests and all the Jewish council tried to find something that Jesus had done wrong so they could kill him. But the council could find no proof against him. <sup>56</sup>Many people came and told false things about him. But all said different things—none of them agreed.

<sup>57</sup>Then some men stood up and lied about Jesus. They said, <sup>58</sup>“We heard this man say, ‘I will destroy this Temple<sup>d</sup> that men made. And three days later, I will build another Temple—a Temple not made by men.’” <sup>59</sup>But even the things these men said did not agree.

<sup>60</sup>Then the high priest stood before them and said to Jesus, “Aren’t you going to answer the charges these men bring against you?” <sup>61</sup>But Jesus said nothing. He did not answer.

The high priest asked Jesus another question: “Are you the Christ,<sup>d</sup> the Son of the blessed God?”

<sup>62</sup>Jesus answered, “I am. And in the future you will see the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> sitting at the right side of the Powerful One. And you will see the Son of Man coming on clouds in the sky.”

<sup>63</sup>When the high priest heard this, he was very angry. He tore his clothes and said, “We don’t need any more witnesses! <sup>64</sup>You all heard him say these things against God. What do you think?”

They all said that Jesus was guilty and should be killed. <sup>65</sup>Some of the people there spit at Jesus. They covered his eyes and hit him with their fists. They said, “Prove that you are a prophet!”<sup>d</sup> Then the guards led Jesus away and beat him.

Peter Says He Doesn’t Know Jesus

<sup>66</sup>Peter was still in the courtyard when a servant girl of the high priest came there. <sup>67</sup>She saw Peter warming himself at the fire. She looked closely at him.

Then the girl said, “You were with Jesus, that man from Nazareth.”

<sup>68</sup>But Peter said that he was never with Jesus. He said, “I don’t know or understand what you are talking about.” Then Peter left and went toward the entrance of the courtyard.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>a</sup>cup Jesus is talking about the bad things that will happen to him. Accepting these things will be very hard, like drinking a cup of something that tastes very bitter.

said to the people who were standing there, "This man is one of those who followed Jesus." <sup>70</sup>Again Peter said that it was not true.

A short time later, some people were standing near Peter. They said, "We know you are one of those who followed Jesus. You are from Galilee, too."

<sup>71</sup>Then Peter began to curse. He said, "I swear that I don't know this man you're talking about!"

<sup>72</sup>After Peter said this, the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had told him: "Before the rooster crows twice, you will say three times that you don't know me." Then Peter was very sad and began to cry.

Pilate Questions Jesus

15 Very early in the morning, the leading priests, the older Jewish leaders, the teachers of the law, and all the Jewish council decided what to do with Jesus. They tied him, led him away, and turned him over to Pilate, the governor.

<sup>2</sup>Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

Jesus answered, "Yes, I am."

<sup>3</sup>The leading priests accused Jesus of many things. <sup>4</sup>So Pilate asked Jesus another question. He said, "You can see that these people are accusing you of many things. Why don't you answer?"

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus still said nothing. Pilate was very surprised at this.

Pilate Tries to Free Jesus

<sup>6</sup>Every year at the Passover<sup>d</sup> time the governor would free one person from prison. He would free any person the people wanted him to free. <sup>7</sup>At that time, there was a man named Barabbas in prison. He was a rebel and had committed murder during a riot. <sup>8</sup>The crowd came to Pilate and asked him to free a prisoner as he always did.

<sup>9</sup>Pilate asked them, "Do you want me to free the king of the Jews?" <sup>10</sup>Pilate knew that the leading priests had given Jesus to him because they were jealous of Jesus. <sup>11</sup>And the leading priests had persuaded the people to ask Pilate to free Barabbas, not Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>Pilate asked the crowd again, "So what should I do with this man you call the king of the Jews?"

<sup>13</sup>They shouted, "Kill him on a cross!"

<sup>14</sup>Pilate asked, "Why? What wrong has he done?"

But they shouted louder and louder, "Kill him on a cross!"

<sup>15</sup>Pilate wanted to please the crowd. So he freed Barabbas for them. And Pilate told the soldiers to beat Jesus with whips. Then he gave Jesus to the soldiers to be killed on a cross.

<sup>16</sup>Pilate's soldiers took Jesus into the governor's palace (called the Praetorium). They called all the other soldiers together. <sup>17</sup>They put a purple robe on Jesus. Then they used thorny branches to make a crown, and they put it on his head. <sup>18</sup>Then they called out to him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" <sup>19</sup>The soldiers beat Jesus on the head many times with a stick. They also spit on him. Then they made fun of him by bowing on their knees and worshiping him. <sup>20</sup>After they finished making fun of him, the soldiers took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led Jesus out of the palace to be killed on a cross.

Jesus Is Killed on a Cross

<sup>21</sup>There was a man from Cyrene coming from the fields to the city. The man was Simon, the father of Alexander and Rufus. The soldiers forced Simon to carry the cross for Jesus.

<sup>22</sup>They led Jesus to the place called Golgotha. (Golgotha means the Place of the Skull.) <sup>23</sup>At Golgotha the soldiers tried to give Jesus wine to drink. This wine was mixed with myrrh.<sup>d</sup> But he refused to drink it. <sup>24</sup>The soldiers nailed Jesus to a cross. Then they divided his clothes among themselves. They threw lots<sup>d</sup> to decide which clothes each soldier would get.

<sup>25</sup>It was nine o'clock in the morning when they nailed Jesus to the cross. <sup>26</sup>There was a sign with the charge against Jesus written on it. The sign read: "THE KING OF THE JEWS." <sup>27</sup>They also put two robbers on crosses beside Jesus, one on the right, and the other on the left. <sup>28</sup> <sup>29</sup>People walked by and insulted Jesus. They shook their heads, saying, "You said you could destroy the Temple<sup>d</sup> and build it again in three days. <sup>30</sup>So save yourself! Come down from that cross!"

<sup>31</sup>The leading priests and the teachers of the law were also there. They made fun of Jesus just as the other people did. They said among themselves, "He saved other people, but he can't save himself. <sup>32</sup>If he is really the Christ,<sup>d</sup> the king of Israel, then let him come down from the cross now. We will see this, and then we will believe in him." The robbers who were being killed on the crosses beside Jesus' also insulted him.

Jesus Dies

<sup>33</sup>At noon the whole country became dark. This darkness lasted for three hours. <sup>34</sup>At three o'clock Jesus cried in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani." This means, "My God, my God, why have you left me alone?"

<sup>35</sup>Some of the people standing there heard this. They said, "Listen! He is calling Elijah."

<sup>36</sup>One man there ran and got a sponge. He filled the sponge with vinegar and tied it to a stick. Then he used the stick to give the sponge to Jesus to drink from it. The man said, "We should wait now and see if Elijah will come to take him down from the cross."

<sup>37</sup>Then Jesus cried in a loud voice and died.

<sup>38</sup>When Jesus died, the curtain in the Temple<sup>a</sup> split into two pieces. The tear started at the top and tore all the way to the bottom.

<sup>39</sup>The army officer that was standing there before the cross saw what happened when Jesus died. The officer said, "This man really was the Son of God!"

<sup>40</sup>Some women were standing at a distance from the cross, watching. Some of these women were Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph. (James was her youngest son.) <sup>41</sup>These were the women who followed Jesus in Galilee and cared for him. Many other women were also there who had come with Jesus to Jerusalem.

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>42</sup>This was Preparation<sup>d</sup> Day. (That means the day before the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day.) It was becoming dark. <sup>43</sup>A man named Joseph from Arimathea was brave enough to go to Pilate and ask for Jesus' body. Joseph was an important member of the Jewish council. He was one of the people who wanted the kingdom of God to come. <sup>44</sup>Pilate wondered if Jesus was already dead. Pilate called the army officer who guarded Jesus and asked him if Jesus had already died. <sup>45</sup>The officer told Pilate that he was dead. So Pilate told Joseph he could have the body. <sup>46</sup>Joseph bought some linen cloth, took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in the linen. He put the body in a tomb that was cut in a wall of rock. Then he closed the tomb by rolling a very large stone to cover the entrance. <sup>47</sup>And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw the place where Jesus was laid.

Jesus Rises from Death

16 The day after the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought some sweet-smelling spices to put on Jesus' body. <sup>2</sup>Very early on that day, the first day of the week, the women were on their way to the tomb. It was soon after sunrise. <sup>3</sup>They said to each other, "There is a large stone covering the entrance of the tomb. Who will move the stone for us?"

<sup>4</sup>Then the women looked and saw that the stone was already moved. The stone was very large, but it was moved away from the entrance. <sup>5</sup>The women entered the tomb and saw a young man wearing a white robe. He was sitting on the right side, and the women were afraid.

<sup>6</sup>But the man said, "Don't be afraid. You are looking for Jesus from Nazareth, the one who was killed on a cross. He has risen from death. He is not here. Look, here is the place they laid him. <sup>7</sup>Now go and tell his followers and Peter, 'Jesus is going into Galilee ahead of you. You will see him there as he told you before.'"

<sup>8</sup>The women were confused and shaking with fear. They left the tomb and ran away. They did not tell anyone about what happened, because they were afraid."

Some Followers See Jesus

<sup>9</sup>Jesus rose from death early on the first day of the week. He showed himself first to Mary Magdalene. One time in the past, he had forced seven demons<sup>d</sup> to leave Mary. <sup>10</sup>After Mary saw Jesus, she went and told his followers. They were very sad and were crying. <sup>11</sup>But Mary told them that Jesus was alive. She said that she had seen him, but the followers did not believe her.

<sup>12</sup>Later, Jesus showed himself to two of his followers while they were walking in the country. But Jesus did not look the same as before. <sup>13</sup>These followers went back to the others and told them what had happened. Again, the followers did not believe them.

Jesus Talks to the Apostles

<sup>14</sup>Later Jesus showed himself to the 11 followers while they were eating. He criticized them because they had little faith. They were stubborn and refused to believe those who had seen him after he had risen from death.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus said to the followers, "Go everywhere in the world. Tell the Good News<sup>d</sup> to everyone. <sup>16</sup>Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But he who does not believe will be judged guilty. <sup>17</sup>And those who believe will be able to do these things as proof: They will use my name to force demons<sup>d</sup> out of people. They will speak in languages they never learned. <sup>18</sup>They will pick up snakes without being hurt. And they will drink poison without being hurt. They will touch the sick, and the sick will be healed."

<sup>19</sup>After the Lord Jesus said these things to the followers, he was carried up into heaven. There, Jesus sat at the right side of God. <sup>20</sup>The followers went everywhere in the world and told the Good News to people. And the Lord helped them. The Lord proved that the Good News they told was true by giving them power to work miracles.<sup>d</sup>

Luke Tells the Non-Jews About Jesus

Luke Writes About Jesus' Life

1 To Theophilus:
Many have tried to give a history of the things that happened among us. <sup>2</sup>They have written the same things that we learned from others—the people who saw those things from the beginning and served God by telling people his message. <sup>3</sup>I myself studied everything carefully from the beginning, your Excellency,<sup>a</sup> I thought I should write it out for you. So I put it in order in a book. <sup>4</sup>I write these things so that you can know that what you have been taught is true.

Zechariah and Elizabeth

<sup>5</sup>During the time Herod ruled Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah. He belonged to Abijah's group.<sup>a</sup> Zechariah's wife came from the family of Aaron. Her name was Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup>Zechariah and Elizabeth truly did what God said was good. They did everything the Lord commanded and told people to do. They were without fault in keeping his law. <sup>7</sup>But Zechariah and Elizabeth had no children. Elizabeth could not have a baby; and both of them were very old.

<sup>8</sup>Zechariah was serving as a priest before God for his group. It was his group's time to serve. <sup>9</sup>According to the custom of the priests, he was chosen to go into the Temple<sup>d</sup> of the Lord and burn incense.<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>There were a great many people outside praying at the time the incense was offered. <sup>11</sup>Then, on the right side of the incense table, an angel of the Lord came and stood before Zechariah. <sup>12</sup>When he saw the angel, Zechariah was confused and frightened. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him, "Zechariah, don't be afraid. Your prayer has been heard by God. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give birth to a son. You will name him John. <sup>14</sup>You will be very happy. Many people will be happy because of his birth. <sup>15</sup>John will be a great man for the Lord. He will never drink wine or beer. Even at the time John is born, he will be filled with the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> <sup>16</sup>He will help many people of Israel return to the Lord their God. <sup>17</sup>He himself will go first before the Lord. John will be powerful in spirit like Elijah. He will make peace between fathers and their children. He will bring those who are not obeying God back to the right way of thinking. He will make people ready for the coming of the Lord."

<sup>18</sup>Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I know that what you say is true? I am an old man, and my wife is old, too."

<sup>19</sup>The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel. I stand before God. God sent me to talk to you and to tell you this good news. <sup>20</sup>Now, listen! You will not be able to talk until the day these things happen. You will lose your speech because you did not believe what I told you. But these things will really happen."

<sup>21</sup>Outside, the people were still waiting for Zechariah. They were surprised that he was staying so long in the Temple. <sup>22</sup>Then Zechariah came outside, but he could not speak to them. So they knew that he had seen a vision in the Temple. Zechariah could not speak. He could only make signs to them. <sup>23</sup>When his time of service as a priest was finished, he went home.

<sup>24</sup>Later, Zechariah's wife, Elizabeth, became pregnant. She did not go out of her house for five months. Elizabeth said, <sup>25</sup>"Look what the Lord has done for me! My people were ashamed<sup>a</sup> of me, but now the Lord has taken away that shame."

An Angel Appears to Mary

<sup>26-27</sup>During Elizabeth's sixth month of pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to a virgin<sup>d</sup> who lived in Nazareth, a town in Galilee. She was engaged to marry a man named Joseph from the family of David. Her name was Mary. <sup>28</sup>The angel came to her and said, "Greetings! The Lord is with you. He wants to bless you."

<sup>29</sup>But Mary was very confused by what the angel said. Mary wondered, "What does this mean?"

<sup>30</sup>The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, because God is pleased with you. <sup>31</sup>Listen! You will become pregnant. You will give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus.

<sup>32</sup>He will be great, and people will call him the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of King David, his ancestor.
<sup>33</sup>He will rule over the people of Jacob forever. His kingdom will never end."

<sup>34</sup>Mary said to the angel, "How will this happen? I am a virgin!"

<sup>35</sup>The angel said to Mary, "The Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will cover you. The baby will be holy. He will be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup>Now listen! Elizabeth, your relative, is very old. But she is also pregnant with a son. Everyone thought she could not have a baby, but she has been pregnant for six months. <sup>37</sup>God can do everything!"

<sup>38</sup>Mary said, "I am the servant girl of the Lord. Let this happen to me as you say!" Then the angel went away.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

Mary Praises God

<sup>46</sup>Then Mary said,
 "My soul praises the Lord;
<sup>47</sup> my heart is happy because God is my Savior.
<sup>48</sup>I am not important, but God has shown his care for me, his servant girl.
 From now on, all people will say that I am blessed, <sup>49</sup> because the Powerful One has done great things for me.
 His name is holy.
<sup>50</sup>God will always give mercy to those who worship him.
<sup>51</sup>God's arm is strong,
 He scatters the people who are proud and think great things about themselves.
<sup>52</sup>God brings down rulers from their thrones, and he raises up the humble.

<sup>53</sup>God fills the hungry with good things, but he sends the rich away with nothing.

<sup>54</sup>God has helped his people Israel who serve him.

He gave them his mercy.

<sup>55</sup>God has done what he promised to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his children forever."

<sup>56</sup>Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

The Birth of John

<sup>57</sup>When it was time for Elizabeth to give birth, she had a boy. <sup>58</sup>Her neighbors and relatives heard how good the Lord was to her, and they rejoiced.

<sup>59</sup>When the baby was eight days old, they came to circumcise<sup>d</sup> him. They wanted to name him Zechariah because this was his father's name. <sup>60</sup>But his mother said, "No! He will be named John."

<sup>61</sup>The people said to Elizabeth, "But no one in your family has this name!" <sup>62</sup>Then they made signs to his father, "What would you like to name him?"

<sup>63</sup>Zechariah asked for something to write on. Then he wrote, "His name is John." Everyone was surprised. <sup>64</sup>Then Zechariah could talk again. He began to praise God. <sup>65</sup>And all their neighbors became alarmed. In all the mountains of Judea people continued talking about all these things. <sup>66</sup>The people who heard about these things wondered about them. They thought, "What will this child be?" They said this because the Lord was with him.

Zechariah Praises God

<sup>67</sup>Then Zechariah, John's father, was filled with the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> He told the people what would happen:

<sup>68</sup>"Let us thank the Lord, the God of Israel.

God has come to help his people and has given them freedom.

<sup>69</sup>God has given us a powerful Savior from the family of God's servant David.

<sup>70</sup>God said that he would do this.

He said it through his holy prophets<sup>d</sup> who lived long ago.

<sup>71</sup>God will save us from our enemies and from the power of all those who hate us.

<sup>72</sup>God said he would give mercy to our fathers.

And he remembered his holy promise.

<sup>73</sup>God promised Abraham, our father,

<sup>74</sup> that he would free us from the power of our enemies, so that we could serve him without fear.

<sup>75</sup>We will be righteous and holy before God as long as we live.

<sup>76</sup>“Now you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High God.

You will go first before the Lord to prepare the people for his coming.

<sup>77</sup>You will make his people know that they will be saved
 by having their sins forgiven.

<sup>78</sup>With the loving mercy of our God, a new day from heaven will shine upon us.

<sup>79</sup>God will help those who live in darkness, in the fear of death.

He will guide us in the path that goes toward peace.”

<sup>80</sup>And so the child grew up and became strong in spirit. John lived away from other people until the time when he came out to preach to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus

2 At that time, Augustus Caesar<sup>d</sup> sent an order to all people in the countries that were under Roman rule. The order said that they must list their names in a register. <sup>2</sup>This was the first registration<sup>a</sup> taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. <sup>3</sup>And everyone went to their own towns to be registered.

<sup>4</sup>So Joseph left Nazareth, a town in Galilee, and went to the town of Bethlehem in Judea.
 This town was known as the town of David.
 Joseph went there because he was from the family of David. <sup>5</sup>Joseph registered with Mary because she was engaged<sup>a</sup> to marry him. (Mary was now pregnant.) <sup>6</sup>While Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have the baby. <sup>7</sup>She gave birth to her first son.
 There were no rooms left in the inn. So she wrapped the baby with cloths and laid him in a box where animals are fed.

Some Shepherds Hear About Jesus

<sup>8</sup>That night, some shepherds were in the fields nearby watching their sheep. <sup>9</sup>An angel of the Lord stood before them. The glory of the Lord was shining around them, and suddenly they became very frightened. <sup>10</sup>The angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid, because I am bringing you some good news. It will be a joy to all the people. <sup>11</sup>Today your Savior was born in David’s town. He is Christ,<sup>d</sup> the Lord. <sup>12</sup>This is how you will know him: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a feeding box.”

<sup>13</sup>Then a very large group of angels from heaven joined the first angel. All the angels were praising God, saying:

<sup>14</sup>“Give glory to God in heaven, and on earth let there be peace to the people who please God.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the angels left the shepherds and went back to heaven. The shepherds said to each other, “Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened. We will see this thing the Lord has told us about.”

<sup>16</sup>So the shepherds went quickly and found Mary and Joseph. <sup>17</sup>And the shepherds saw the baby lying in a feeding box. Then they told what the angels had said about this child. <sup>18</sup>Everyone was amazed when they heard what the shepherds said to them. <sup>19</sup>Mary hid these things in her heart; she continued to think about them. <sup>20</sup>Then the shepherds went back to their sheep, praising God and thanking him for everything that they had seen and heard. It was just as the angel had told them.

<sup>21</sup>When the baby was eight days old, he was circumcised,<sup>d</sup> and he was named Jesus. This name had been given by the angel before the baby began to grow inside Mary.

Jesus Is Presented in the Temple

<sup>22</sup>The time came for Mary and Joseph to do what the law of Moses taught about being made pure.<sup>a</sup> They took Jesus to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>It is written in the law of the Lord: “Give every firstborn<sup>d</sup> male to the Lord.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup>Mary and Joseph also went to offer a sacrifice, as the law of the Lord says:
 “You must sacrifice two doves or two young pigeons.”<sup>a</sup>

Simeon Sees Jesus

<sup>25</sup>A man named Simeon lived in Jerusalem.
 He was a good man and very religious. He was waiting for the time when God would help Israel. The Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> was in him. <sup>26</sup>The Holy Spirit told Simeon that he would not die before he saw the Christ<sup>d</sup> promised by the Lord. <sup>27</sup>The Spirit led Simeon to the Temple.<sup>d</sup> Mary and Joseph brought the baby Jesus to the Temple to <sup>a</sup>registration Census. A counting of all the people and the things they own.

<sup>a</sup>engaged For the Jews an engagement was a lasting agreement. It could only be broken by a divorce.

<sup>a</sup>pure The law of Moses said that 40 days after a Jewish woman gave birth to a baby, she must be cleansed by a ceremony at the Temple. Read Leviticus 12:2-8.

do what the law said they must do. <sup>28</sup>Then Simeon took the baby in his arms and thanked God:

<sup>29</sup>“Now, Lord, you can let me, your servant, die in peace as you said.

<sup>31</sup> You prepared him before all people.

He will bring honor to your people, the Israelites.”

<sup>33</sup>Jesus’ father and mother were amazed at what Simeon had said about him. <sup>34</sup>Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, “Many in Israel will fall and many will rise because of this child. He will be a sign from God that many people will not accept. <sup>35</sup>The things they think in secret will be made known. And the things that will happen will make your heart sad, too.”

Anna Sees Jesus

<sup>36</sup>Anna, a prophetess,<sup>d</sup> was there at the Temple.<sup>d</sup> She was from the family of Phanuel in the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Asher. Anna was very old. She had once been married for seven years. <sup>37</sup>Then her husband died and she lived alone. She was now 84 years old. Anna never left the Temple. She worshiped God by going without food and praying day and night. <sup>38</sup>She was standing there at that time, thanking God. She talked about Jesus to all who were waiting for God to free Jerusalem.

Joseph and Mary Return Home

<sup>39</sup>Joseph and Mary finished doing everything that the law of the Lord commanded. Then they went home to Nazareth, their own town in Galilee. <sup>40</sup>The little child began to grow up. He became stronger and wiser, and God’s blessings were with him.

Jesus As a Boy

<sup>41</sup>Every year Jesus’ parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. <sup>42</sup>When Jesus was 12 years old, they went to the feast as they always did. <sup>43</sup>When the feast days were over, they went home. The boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. <sup>44</sup>Joseph and Mary traveled for a whole day. They thought that Jesus was with them in the group. Then they began to look for him among their family and friends,<sup>e</sup> but they did not find him. So they went back to Jerusalem to look for him there. <sup>46</sup>After three days they found him. Jesus was sitting in the Temple<sup>d</sup> with the religious teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and wise answers. <sup>48</sup>When Jesus’ parents saw him, they were amazed. His mother said to him, “Son, why did you do this to us? Your father and I were very worried about you. We have been looking for you.”

<sup>49</sup>Jesus asked, “Why did you have to look for me? You should have known that I must be where my Father’s work is!” <sup>50</sup>But they did not understand the meaning of what he said.

<sup>51</sup>Jesus went with them to Nazareth and obeyed them. His mother was still thinking about all that had happened. <sup>52</sup>Jesus continued to learn more and more and to grow physically. People liked him, and he pleased God.

The Preaching of John

3 It was the fifteenth year of the rule of Tiberius Caesar.<sup>d</sup> These men were under Caesar: Pontius Pilate was the ruler of Judea. Herod was the ruler of Galilee. Philip, Herod’s brother, was the ruler of Iturea and Trachonitis. And Lysanias was the ruler of Abilene. <sup>2</sup>Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests. At this time, a command from God came to John son of Zechariah. John was living in the desert. <sup>3</sup>He went all over the area around the Jordan River and preached to the people. He preached a baptism of changed hearts and lives for the forgiveness of their sins. <sup>4</sup>As it is written in the book of Isaiah the prophet:<sup>d</sup>

“This is a voice of a man who calls out in the desert:

‘Prepare the way for the Lord.

Make the road straight for him.

<sup>5</sup>Every valley should be filled in.

Every mountain and hill should be made flat.

Roads with turns should be made straight, and rough roads should be made smooth.

<sup>6</sup>And all people will know about the salvation of God!’ ”

Isaiah 40:3-5

<sup>7</sup>Crowds of people came to be baptized by John. He said to them, “You poisonous snakes! Who warned you to run away from God’s anger that is coming? <sup>8</sup>You must do the things that will show that you really have changed your hearts. Don’t say, ‘Abraham is our father.’ I tell you that God can make children for Abraham from these rocks here. <sup>9</sup>The ax is now ready to cut down the trees. Every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>10</sup>The people asked John, “What should we do?”

<sup>11</sup>John answered, “If you have two shirts, share with the person who does not have one. If you have food, share that too.”

<sup>12</sup>Even tax collectors came to John to be baptized. They said to John, “Teacher, what should we do?”

<sup>13</sup>John said to them, “Don’t take more taxes from people than you have been ordered to take.”

<sup>14</sup>The soldiers asked John, “What about us? What should we do?”

John said to them, “Don’t force people to give you money. Don’t lie about them. Be satisfied with the pay you get.”

<sup>15</sup>All the people were hoping for the Christ<sup>d</sup> to come, and they wondered about John. They thought, “Maybe he is the Christ.”

<sup>16</sup>John answered everyone, “I baptize you with water, but there is one coming later who can do more than I can. I am not good enough to untie his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> and with fire. <sup>17</sup>He will come ready to clean the grain. He will separate the good grain from the chaff.<sup>d</sup> He will put the good part of the grain into his barn. Then he will burn the chaff with a fire that cannot be put out.”<sup>n</sup> <sup>18</sup>And John continued to preach the Good News,<sup>d</sup> saying many other things to encourage the people.

<sup>19</sup>But John spoke against Herod, the governor, because of his sin with Herodias, the wife of Herod’s brother. John also criticized Herod for the many other evil things Herod did. <sup>20</sup>So Herod did another evil thing: He put John in prison.

Jesus Is Baptized by John

<sup>21</sup>When all the people were being baptized by John, Jesus also was baptized. While Jesus was praying, heaven opened and <sup>22</sup>the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> came down on him. The Spirit was in the form of a dove. Then a voice came from heaven and said, “You are my Son and I love you. I am very pleased with you.”

Jesus Is Tempted by the Devil

4 Jesus, filled with the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> returned from the Jordan River. The Spirit led Jesus into the desert<sup>2</sup> where the devil tempted Jesus for 40 days. Jesus ate nothing during that time. When those days were ended, he was very hungry.

<sup>3</sup>The devil said to Jesus, "If you are the Son of God, tell this rock to become bread."

<sup>5</sup>Then the devil took Jesus and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup>The devil said to Jesus, "I will give you all these kingdoms and all their power and glory. It has all been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I wish. <sup>7</sup>If you worship me, all will be yours."

<sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, "It is written in the Scriptures: 'You must worship the Lord your God. Serve only him!'"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Then the devil led Jesus to Jerusalem and put him on a high place of the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He said to Jesus, "If you are the Son of God, jump off!" <sup>10</sup>It is written in the Scriptures:

'He has put his angels in charge of you.

They will watch over you.' Psalm 91:11

<sup>11</sup>'They will catch you with their hands.

And you will not hit your foot on a rock.'"<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 91:12

<sup>12</sup>Jesus answered, "But it also says in the Scriptures: 'Do not test the Lord your God.'"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>13</sup>After the devil had tempted Jesus in every way, he went away to wait until a better time.

Jesus Teaches the People

<sup>14</sup>Jesus went back to Galilee with the power of the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> Stories about Jesus spread all through the area. <sup>15</sup>He began to teach in the synagogues,<sup>d</sup> and all the people praised him.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus traveled to Nazareth, where he had grown up. On the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day he went to the synagogue as he always did. Jesus stood up to read. <sup>17</sup>The book of Isaiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> was given to him. He opened the book and found the place where this is written:

<sup>18</sup>"The Spirit of the Lord is in me.

This is because God chose me to tell the Good News<sup>d</sup> to the poor.

God sent me to tell the prisoners of sin that they are free, and to tell the blind that they can see again.

Isaiah 61:1

God sent me to free those who have been treated unfairly,

Isaiah 58:6

<sup>19</sup> and to announce the time when the Lord will show kindness to his people."

Isaiah 61:2

<sup>20</sup>Jesus closed the book, gave it back, and sat down. Everyone in the synagogue was watching Jesus closely. <sup>21</sup>He began to speak to them. He said, "While you heard these words just now, they were coming true!"

<sup>22</sup>All the people praised Jesus. They were amazed at the beautiful words he spoke. They asked, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said to them, "I know that you will tell me the old saying: 'Doctor, heal yourself.' You want to say, 'We heard about the things you did in Capernaum. Do those things here in your own town!'" <sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said, "I tell you the truth. A prophet is not accepted in his own town. <sup>25</sup>What I say is true. During the time of Elijah it did not rain in Israel for three and a half years. There was no food anywhere in the whole country. And there were many widows in Israel during that time. <sup>26</sup>But Elijah was sent to none of those widows. He was sent only to a widow in Zarephath, a town in Sidon. <sup>27</sup>And there were many with a harmful skin disease living in Israel during the time of the prophet Elisha. But none of them were healed except Naaman, who was from the country of Syria.<sup>1</sup> <sup>28</sup>When all the people in the synagogue heard these things, they became very angry. <sup>29</sup>They got up and forced Jesus out of town. They took him to the edge of the hill on which the town was built. And they wanted to throw him off the edge. <sup>30</sup>But Jesus walked through the crowd and went on his way.

Jesus Removes an Evil Spirit

<sup>31</sup>Jesus went to Capernaum, a city in Galilee. On the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day, Jesus taught the people. <sup>32</sup>They were amazed at his teaching, because he spoke with authority. <sup>33</sup>In the synagogue<sup>d</sup> there was a man who had an evil spirit from the devil inside him. The man shouted in a loud voice, <sup>34</sup>“Jesus of Nazareth! What do you want with us? Did you come here to destroy us? I know who you are—God’s Holy One!”

<sup>35</sup>But Jesus warned the evil spirit to stop. He said, “Be quiet! Come out of the man!” The evil spirit threw the man down to the ground before all the people. Then the evil spirit left the man and did not hurt him.

<sup>36</sup>The people were amazed. They said to each other, “What does this mean? With authority and power he commands evil spirits, and they come out.” <sup>37</sup>And so the news about Jesus spread to every place in the whole area.

Jesus Heals Many People

<sup>38</sup>Jesus left the synagogue<sup>d</sup> and went to Simon’s<sup>a</sup> house. Simon’s mother-in-law was very sick with a high fever. They asked Jesus to do something to help her. <sup>39</sup>He stood very close to her and commanded the fever to leave. It left her immediately, and she got up and began serving them.

<sup>40</sup>When the sun went down, the people brought their sick to Jesus. They had many different diseases. Jesus put his hands on each sick person and healed every one of them. <sup>41</sup>Demons<sup>d</sup> came out of many people. The demons would shout, “You are the Son of God.” But Jesus gave a strong command for the demons not to speak. They knew Jesus was the Christ.<sup>d</sup>

Jesus Goes to Other Towns

<sup>42</sup>At daybreak, Jesus went to a place to be alone, but the people looked for him. When they found him, they tried to keep him from leaving. <sup>43</sup>But Jesus said to them, “I must tell the Good News<sup>d</sup> about God’s kingdom to other towns, too. This is why I was sent.”

<sup>44</sup>Then Jesus kept on preaching in the synagogues<sup>d</sup> of Judea.

Jesus’ First Followers

5 One day Jesus was standing beside Lake Galilee. Many people were pressing all around him. They wanted to hear the word of God. <sup>2</sup>Jesus saw two boats at the shore of the lake. The fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup>Jesus got into one of the boats, the one which belonged to Simon. <sup>4</sup>Jesus asked Simon to push off a little from the land. Then Jesus sat down in the boat and continued to teach the people on the shore.

<sup>4</sup>When Jesus had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Take the boat into deep water. If you will put your nets in the water, you will catch some fish.”

<sup>5</sup>Simon answered, “Master, we worked hard all night trying to catch fish, but we caught nothing. But you say to put the nets in the water; so I will.” <sup>6</sup>The fishermen did as Jesus told them. And they caught so many fish that the nets began to break. <sup>7</sup>They called to their friends in the other boat to come and help them. The friends came, and both boats were filled so full that they were almost sinking.

<sup>8-9</sup>The fishermen were all amazed at the many fish they caught. When Simon Peter saw what had happened, he bowed down before Jesus and said, “Go away from me, Lord. I am a sinful man!” <sup>10</sup>James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were amazed too. (James and John were Simon’s partners.)

Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid. From now on you will be fishermen for men.” <sup>11</sup>When the men brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed Jesus.

Jesus Heals a Sick Man

<sup>12</sup>One time Jesus was in a town where a very sick man lived. The man was covered with a harmful skin disease. When he saw Jesus, he bowed before Jesus and begged him, “Lord, heal me. I know you can if you want to.”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus said, “I want to. Be healed!” And Jesus touched the man. Immediately the disease disappeared. <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said, “Don’t tell anyone about what happened. But go show yourself to the priest.<sup>a</sup> And offer a gift to God for your healing as Moses commanded.<sup>a</sup> This will prove to everyone that you are healed.”

<sup>15</sup>But the news about Jesus was spreading more and more. Many people came to hear Jesus and to be healed of their sicknesses. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus often slipped away to other places to be alone so that he could pray.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

<sup>17</sup>One day Jesus was teaching the people. The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and teachers of the law were there, too. They had come from every town in Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem. The Lord was giving Jesus the power to heal people. <sup>18</sup>There was a man who was paralyzed. Some men were carrying him on a mat. They tried to bring him in and put him down before Jesus. <sup>19</sup>But because there were so many people there, they could not find a way to Jesus. So the men went up on the roof and made a hole in the ceiling. They lowered the mat so that the paralyzed man was lying right before Jesus. <sup>20</sup>Jesus saw that these men believed. So he said to the sick man, “Friend, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>21</sup>The Jewish teachers of the law and the Pharisees thought to themselves, “Who is this man? He is saying things that are against God! Only God can forgive sins.”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus knew what they were thinking. He said, “Why do you have thoughts like that in your hearts? <sup>23</sup>Which is easier: to tell this paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to tell him, ‘Stand up and walk?’ <sup>24</sup>But I will prove to you that the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “I tell you, stand up! Take your mat and go home.”

<sup>25</sup>Then the man stood up before the people there. He picked up his mat and went home, praising God. <sup>26</sup>All the people were fully amazed and began to praise God. They were filled with much respect and said, “Today we have seen amazing things!”

Levi Follows Jesus

<sup>27</sup>After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting in the tax office. Jesus said to him, “Follow me!” <sup>28</sup>Levi got up, left everything, and followed Jesus.

<sup>29</sup>Then Levi gave a big dinner for Jesus. The dinner was at Levi’s house. At the table there were many tax collectors and other people, too. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and the men who taught the law for the Pharisees began to complain to the followers of Jesus. They said, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and ‘sinners?’”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor. It is the sick who need a doctor. <sup>32</sup>I have not come to invite good people. I have come to invite sinners to change their hearts and lives!”

Jesus Answers a Question

<sup>33</sup>They said to Jesus, “John’s followers often give up eating<sup>n</sup> and pray, just as the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> do. But your followers eat and drink all the time.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to them, “When there is a wedding, you cannot make the friends of the bridegroom give up eating while he is still with them. <sup>35</sup>But the time will come when he will be taken away from them. Then his friends will give up eating.”

<sup>36</sup>Jesus told them this story: “No one takes cloth off a new coat to cover a hole in an old coat. If he does, he ruins the new coat, and the cloth from the new coat will not be the same as the old cloth. <sup>37</sup>People never pour new wine into old leather bags for holding wine. If they do, the new wine will break the bags, and the wine will spill out. Then the leather bags for holding wine will be ruined. <sup>38</sup>People always put new wine into new leather bags. <sup>39</sup>No one after drinking old wine wants new wine because he says, ‘The old wine is better.’”

Jesus Is Lord over the Sabbath

6 One Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day Jesus was walking through some grainfields. His followers picked the heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands, and ate them. <sup>2</sup>Some Pharisees<sup>d</sup> said, “Why are you doing that? It is against the law of Moses to do that on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, “Haven’t you read about what David did when he and those with him were hungry? <sup>4</sup>David went into God’s house. He took the bread that was made holy for God and ate it. And he gave some of the bread to the people with him. This was against the law of Moses. It says that only priests can eat that bread.” <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus said to the Pharisees, “The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> is Lord of the Sabbath day.”

given so much that it will spill into your lap. The way you give to others is the way God will give to you."

<sup>39</sup>Jesus told them this story: "Can a blind man lead another blind man? No! Both of them will fall into a ditch. <sup>40</sup>A student is not better than his teacher. But when the student has fully learned all that he has been taught, then he will be like his teacher.

<sup>41</sup>"Why do you notice the little piece of dust that is in your brother's eye, but you don't see the big piece of wood that is in your own eye? <sup>42</sup>You say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take that little piece of dust out of your eye.' Why do you say this? You cannot see that big piece of wood in your own eye! You are a hypocrite!<sup>d</sup> First, take the piece of wood out of your own eye. Then you will see clearly to take the dust out of your brother's eye.

Two Kinds of Fruit

<sup>43</sup>"A good tree does not produce bad fruit. Also, a bad tree does not produce good fruit. <sup>44</sup>Each tree is known by its fruit. People don't gather figs from thornbushes. And they don't get grapes from bushes. <sup>45</sup>A good person has good things saved up in his heart. And so he brings good things out of his heart. But an evil person has evil things saved up in his heart. So he brings out bad things. A person speaks the things that are in his heart.

Two Kinds of People

<sup>46</sup>"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' but do not do what I say? <sup>47</sup>Everyone who comes to me and listens to my words and obeys <sup>48</sup>is like a man building a house. He digs deep and lays his foundation on rock. The floods come, and the water tries to wash the house away. But the flood cannot move the house, because the house was built well. <sup>49</sup>But the one who hears my words and does not obey is like a man who builds his house on the ground without a foundation. When the floods come, the house quickly falls down. And that house is completely destroyed."

Jesus Heals a Soldier's Servant

7 When Jesus finished saying all these things to the people, he went to Capernaum. <sup>2</sup>In Capernaum there was an army officer. He had a servant who was so sick he was nearly dead. The officer loved the servant very much. <sup>3</sup>When the officer heard about Jesus, he sent some older Jewish leaders to him. The officer wanted the leaders to ask Jesus to come and heal his servant. <sup>4</sup>The men went to Jesus and begged him saying, "This officer is worthy of your help. <sup>5</sup>He loves our people, and he built us a synagogue."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>6</sup>So Jesus went with the men. He was getting near the officer's house when the officer sent friends to say, "Lord, you don't need to come into my house. I am not good enough for you to be under my roof. <sup>7</sup>That is why I did not come to you myself. You only need to say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8</sup>I, too, am a man under the authority of other men. And I have soldiers under my command. I tell one soldier, 'Go,' and he goes. And I tell another soldier, 'Come,' and he comes. And I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and my servant obeys me."

<sup>9</sup>When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. He turned to the crowd following him and said, "I tell you, this is the greatest faith I have seen anywhere, even in Israel."

<sup>10</sup>The men who had been sent to Jesus went back to the house. There they found that the servant was healed.

Jesus Brings a Man Back to Life

<sup>11</sup>The next day Jesus went to a town called Nain. His followers and a large crowd were traveling with him. <sup>12</sup>When he came near the town gate, he saw a funeral. A mother, who was a widow, had lost her only son. A large crowd from the town was with the mother while her son was being carried out. <sup>13</sup>When the Lord saw her, he felt very sorry for her. Jesus said to her, "Don't cry."<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>He went up to the coffin and touched it. The men who were carrying it stopped. Jesus said, "Young man, I tell you, get up!" <sup>15</sup>And the son sat up and began to talk. Then Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup>All the people were amazed. They began praising God. They said, "A great prophet<sup>d</sup> has come to us! God is taking care of his people."

<sup>17</sup>This news about Jesus spread through all Judea and into all the places around there.

John Asks a Question

<sup>18</sup>John's followers told him about all these things. He called for two of his followers. <sup>19</sup>He sent them to the Lord to ask, "Are you the One who is coming, or should we wait for another?"<sup>2</sup>

<sup>20</sup>So the men came to Jesus. They said, "John the Baptist<sup>d</sup> sent us to you with this question: 'Are you the One who is coming, or should we wait for another?'"

<sup>21</sup>At that time, Jesus healed many people of their sicknesses, diseases, and evil spirits. He healed many blind people so that they could see again. <sup>22</sup>Then Jesus said to John's followers, "Go tell John the things that you saw and heard here. The blind can see. The crippled can walk. People with a harmful skin disease are healed. The deaf can hear, and the dead are given life. And the Good News<sup>d</sup> is told to the poor. <sup>23</sup>The person who does not lose faith is blessed!"

<sup>24</sup>When John's followers left, Jesus began to tell the people about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed<sup>a</sup> blown by the wind? <sup>25</sup>What did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No. People who have fine clothes live in kings' palaces. <sup>26</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet?<sup>d</sup> Yes, and I tell you, John is more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This was written about John:

'I will send my messenger ahead of you.

He will prepare the way for you.' Malachi 3:1

<sup>28</sup>I tell you, John is greater than any other man ever born. But even the least important person in the kingdom of God is greater than John."

<sup>29</sup>(When the people heard this, they all agreed that God's teaching was good. Even the tax collectors agreed. These were people who were already baptized by John. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and teachers of the law refused to accept God's plan for themselves; they did not let John baptize them.)

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said, "What shall I say about the people of this time? What are they like?

<sup>32</sup>They are like children sitting in the marketplace. One group of children calls to the other group and says,

'We played music for you, but you did not dance.

We sang a sad song, but you did not cry.'

<sup>33</sup>John the Baptist came and did not eat like other people or drink wine. And you say, 'He has a demon<sup>d</sup> in him.' <sup>34</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> came eating like other people and drinking wine. And you say, 'Look at him! He eats too much and drinks too much wine! He is a friend of the tax collectors and "sinners"!' <sup>35</sup>But wisdom is shown to be right by the things it does."

A Woman Washes Jesus' Feet

<sup>36</sup>One of the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> asked Jesus to eat with him. Jesus went into the Pharisee's house and sat at the table. <sup>37</sup>A sinful woman in the town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house. So she brought an alabaster<sup>d</sup> jar of perfume. <sup>38</sup>She stood at Jesus' feet, crying, and began to wash his feet with her tears. She dried his feet with her hair, kissed them many times and rubbed them with the perfume. <sup>39</sup>The Pharisee who asked Jesus to come to his house saw this. He thought to himself, "If Jesus were a prophet,<sup>d</sup> he would know that the woman who is touching him is a sinner!"

<sup>40</sup>Jesus said to the Pharisee, "Simon, I have something to say to you."

Simon said, "Teacher, tell me."

<sup>41</sup>Jesus said, "There were two men. Both men owed money to the same banker. One man owed the banker 500 silver coins.<sup>a</sup> The other man owed the banker 50 silver coins. <sup>42</sup>The men had no money; so they could not pay what they owed. But the banker told the men that they did not have to pay him. Which one of the two men will love the banker more?"

<sup>43</sup>Simon, the Pharisee, answered, "I think it would be the one who owed him the most money."

Jesus said to Simon, "You are right." <sup>44</sup>Then Jesus turned toward the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? When I came into your house, you gave me no water for my feet. But she washed my feet with her tears and dried my feet with her hair. <sup>45</sup>You did not kiss me, but she has been kissing my feet since I came in! <sup>46</sup>You did not rub my head with oil, but she rubbed my feet with perfume. <sup>47</sup>I tell you that her many sins are forgiven. This is clear because she showed great love. But the person who has only a little to be forgiven will feel only a little love."

<sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

<sup>49</sup>The people sitting at the table began to think to themselves, "Who is this man? How can he forgive sins?"

<sup>50</sup>Jesus said to the woman, "Because you believed, you are saved from your sins. Go in peace."

The Group with Jesus

8 The next day, while Jesus was traveling through some cities and small towns, he preached and told the Good News<sup>d</sup> about God's kingdom. The 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> were with him. <sup>2</sup>There were also some women with him who had been healed of sicknesses and evil spirits. One of the women was Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons<sup>d</sup> had gone out. <sup>3</sup>Also among the women were Joanna, the wife of Chuza (Herod's helper), Susanna, and many other women. These women used their own money to help Jesus and his apostles.

A Story About Planting Seed

<sup>4</sup>A great crowd gathered. People were coming to Jesus from every town. He told them this story:

<sup>5</sup>"A farmer went out to plant his seed. While he was planting, some seed fell beside the road. People walked on the seed, and the birds ate all this seed. <sup>6</sup>Some seed fell on rock. It began to grow but then died because it had no water. <sup>7</sup>Some seed fell among thorny weeds. This seed grew, but later the weeds choked the good plants. <sup>8</sup>And some seed fell on good ground. This seed grew and made 100 times more grain."

Jesus finished the story. Then he called out, "You people who hear me, listen!"

<sup>9</sup>Jesus' followers asked him, "What does this story mean?"

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "You have been chosen to know the secret truths of the kingdom of God. But I use stories to speak to other people. I do this so that:

'They will look, but they may not see.

They will listen, but they may not understand.'

Isaiah 6:9

<sup>11</sup>"This is what the story means: The seed is God's teaching. <sup>12</sup>What is the seed that fell beside the road? It is like the people who hear God's teaching, but then the devil comes and takes it away from their hearts. So they cannot believe the teaching and be saved. <sup>13</sup>What is the seed that fell on rock? It is like those who hear God's teaching and accept it gladly. But they don't have deep roots. They believe for a while. But when trouble comes, they give up. <sup>14</sup>What is the seed that fell among the thorny weeds? It is like those who hear God's teaching, but they let the worries, riches, and pleasures of this life keep them from growing. So they never produce good fruit. <sup>15</sup>And what is the seed that fell on the good ground? That is like those who hear God's teaching with a good, honest heart. They obey God's teaching and patiently produce good fruit.

Use What You Have

<sup>16</sup>"No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a bowl or hides it under a bed. Instead, he puts the lamp on a lampstand so that those who come in will have enough light to see. <sup>17</sup>Everything that is hidden will become clear.

Every secret thing will be made known. <sup>18</sup>So be careful how you listen. The person who has something will be given more. But to the person who has nothing, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."

Jesus' True Family

<sup>19</sup>Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him. There was such a crowd that they could not get to him. <sup>20</sup>Someone said to Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside. They want to see you."

<sup>21</sup>Jesus answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who listen to God's teaching and obey it!"

Jesus Stops a Storm

<sup>22</sup>One day Jesus and his followers got into a boat. He said to them, "Come with me across the lake." And so they started across. <sup>23</sup>While they were sailing, Jesus fell asleep. A big storm blew up on the lake. The boat began to fill with water, and they were in danger.

<sup>24</sup>The followers went to Jesus and woke him. They said, "Master! Master! We will drown!"

Jesus got up and gave a command to the wind and the waves. The wind stopped, and the lake became calm. <sup>25</sup>Jesus said to his followers, "Where is your faith?"

The followers were afraid and amazed. They said to each other, "What kind of man is this? He commands the wind and the water, and they obey him!"

A Man with Demons Inside Him

<sup>26</sup>Jesus and his followers sailed across the lake from Galilee to the area where the Gerasene people live. <sup>27</sup>When Jesus got out of the boat, a man from the town came to Jesus. This man had demons<sup>d</sup> inside him. For a long time he had worn no clothes. He lived in the burial caves, not in a house. <sup>28</sup>When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him. The man said with a loud voice, "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Please don't punish me!" <sup>29</sup>He said this because Jesus had commanded the evil spirit to come out of him. Many times it had taken hold of him. He had been kept under guard and chained hand and foot. But he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon out into the desert.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

The man answered, "Legion."<sup>a</sup> (He said his name was "Legion" because many demons were in him.)<sup>31</sup> The demons begged Jesus not to send them into eternal darkness.<sup>a</sup> <sup>32</sup>On the hill there was a large herd of pigs eating. The demons begged Jesus to allow them to go into the pigs. So Jesus allowed them to do this. <sup>33</sup>Then the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs. The herd of pigs ran down the hill and into the lake. All the pigs drowned.

<sup>34</sup>The men who took care of the pigs ran away. They told about this in the town and the countryside. <sup>35</sup>And people went to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man sitting there at Jesus' feet. The man was clothed and in his right mind because the demons were gone. But the people were frightened. <sup>36</sup>The men who saw these things happen told the others all about how Jesus had made the man well. <sup>37</sup>All the people of the Gerasene country asked Jesus to go away. They were all very afraid. So Jesus got into the boat and went back to Galilee.

<sup>38</sup>The man that Jesus had healed begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>"Go back home and tell people what God did for you." So the man went all over town telling how much Jesus had done for him.

Jesus Gives Life to a Dead Girl and Heals a Sick Woman

<sup>40</sup>When Jesus got back to Galilee, a crowd welcomed him. Everyone was waiting for him. <sup>41</sup>A man named Jairus came to Jesus. Jairus was a ruler of the synagogue.<sup>d</sup> He bowed down at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his house. <sup>42</sup>Jairus had only one daughter. She was 12 years old, and she was dying.

While Jesus was on his way to Jairus' house, the people were crowding all around him. <sup>43</sup>A woman was there who had been bleeding for 12 years. She had spent all her money on doctors, but no doctor was able to heal her. <sup>44</sup>The woman came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his coat. At that moment, her bleeding stopped. <sup>45</sup>Then Jesus said, "Who touched me?"

All the people said they had not touched Jesus. Peter said, "Master, the people are all around you and are pushing against you."

<sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me! I felt power go out from me." <sup>47</sup>When the woman saw that she could not hide, she came forward, shaking. She bowed down before Jesus. While all the people listened, she told why she had touched him. Then, she said, she was healed immediately. <sup>48</sup>Jesus said to her, "Dear woman, you are healed because you believed. Go in peace."

<sup>49</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of the synagogue ruler and said to the ruler, "Your daughter has died! Don't bother the teacher now."

<sup>50</sup>When Jesus heard this, he said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid. Just believe, and your daughter will be well."

<sup>51</sup>Jesus went to the house. He let only Peter, John, James, and the girl's father and mother go inside with him. <sup>52</sup>All the people were crying and feeling sad because the girl was dead. But Jesus said, "Don't cry. She is not dead; she is only sleeping."

<sup>53</sup>The people laughed at Jesus because they knew that the girl was dead. <sup>54</sup>But Jesus took her by the hand and called to her, "My child, stand up!" <sup>55</sup>Her spirit came back into her, and she stood up immediately. Jesus said, "Give her something to eat." <sup>56</sup>The girl's parents were amazed. Jesus told them not to tell anyone about what happened.

Jesus Sends Out the Apostles

9 Jesus called the 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> together. He gave them power to heal sicknesses and power over all demons.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Jesus sent the apostles out to tell about God's kingdom and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>He said to them, "When you travel, don't take a walking stick. Also, don't carry a bag, or food, or money. Take for your trip only the clothes you are wearing. <sup>4</sup>When you go into a house, stay there until it is time to leave. <sup>5</sup>If the people in the town will not welcome you, go outside the town and shake the dust off of your feet.<sup>a</sup> This will be a warning to them."

<sup>6</sup>So the apostles went out and traveled through all the towns. They told the Good News<sup>d</sup> and healed people everywhere.

Herod Is Confused About Jesus

<sup>7</sup>Herod, the governor, heard about all these things that were happening. He was confused because some people said, "John the Baptist<sup>d</sup> is risen from death."<sup>8</sup> Others said, "Elijah has come to us." And still others said, "One of the prophets<sup>d</sup> from long ago has risen from death."<sup>9</sup> Herod said, "I cut off John's head. So who is this man I hear these things about?" And Herod kept trying to see Jesus.

More than 5,000 People Fed

<sup>10</sup>When the apostles<sup>d</sup> returned, they told Jesus all the things they had done on their trip. Then Jesus took them away to a town called Bethsaida. There, Jesus and his apostles could be alone together. <sup>11</sup>But the people learned where Jesus went and followed him. Jesus welcomed them and talked with them about God's kingdom. He healed those who needed to be healed.

<sup>12</sup>Late in the afternoon, the 12 apostles came to Jesus and said, "No one lives in this place. Send the people away. They need to find food and places to sleep in the towns and countryside around here."

<sup>13</sup>But Jesus said to them, "You give them something to eat."

They said, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish. Do you want us to go buy food for all these people?" <sup>14</sup>(There were about 5,000 men there.)

Jesus said to his followers, "Tell the people to sit in groups of about 50 people."

<sup>15</sup>So the followers did this, and all the people sat down. <sup>16</sup>Then Jesus took the five loaves of bread and two fish. He looked up to heaven and thanked God for the food. Then Jesus divided the food and gave it to the followers to give to the people. <sup>17</sup>All the people ate and were satisfied. And there was much food left. Twelve baskets were filled with pieces of food that were not eaten.

Jesus Is the Christ

<sup>18</sup>One time when Jesus was praying alone, his followers came together there. Jesus asked them, "Who do the people say I am?"

<sup>19</sup>They answered, "Some say you are John the Baptist.<sup>d</sup> Others say you are Elijah.<sup>n</sup> And others say you are one of the prophets<sup>d</sup> from long ago who has come back to life."

<sup>20</sup>Then Jesus asked, "And who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "You are the Christ<sup>d</sup> from God."

<sup>21</sup>Jesus warned them not to tell anyone. Then he said, <sup>22</sup>"The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> must suffer many things. He will be rejected by the older Jewish leaders, the leading priests, and the teachers of the law. The Son of Man will be killed. But after three days he will be raised from death."

<sup>23</sup>Jesus went on to say to all of them, "If anyone wants to follow me, he must say 'no' to the things he wants. Every day he must be willing even to die on a cross, and he must follow me. <sup>24</sup>Whoever wants to save his life will lose it. And whoever gives his life for me will save it. <sup>25</sup>It is worth nothing for a man to have the whole world, if he himself is destroyed or lost. <sup>26</sup>If anyone is ashamed of me and my teaching, then I<sup>n</sup> will be ashamed of him. I will be ashamed of him at the time I come with my glory and with the glory of the Father and the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>I tell you the truth. Some of you people standing here will see the kingdom of God before you die."

Jesus Talks with Moses and Elijah

<sup>28</sup>About eight days after Jesus said these things, he took Peter, James, and John and went up on a mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>While Jesus was praying, his face was changed, and his clothes became shining white. <sup>30</sup>Then two men were talking with Jesus. They were Moses and Elijah.<sup>n</sup> <sup>31</sup>They appeared in heavenly glory, talking with Jesus about his death which would happen in Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>Peter and the others were asleep. But they woke up and saw the glory of Jesus. They also saw the two men who were standing with him. <sup>33</sup>When Moses and Elijah were about to leave, Peter said, "Master, it is good that we are here. We will put three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." (Peter did not know what he was saying.)

<sup>34</sup>While Peter was saying these things, a cloud came down all around them. Peter, James, and John became afraid when the cloud covered them. <sup>35</sup>A voice came from the cloud. The voice said, "This is my Son. He is the One I have chosen. Obey him."

<sup>36</sup>When the voice finished speaking, only Jesus was there. Peter, James, and John said nothing. At that time they told no one about what they had seen.

Jesus Heals a Sick Boy

<sup>37</sup>The next day, Jesus, Peter, James, and John came down from the mountain. A large crowd met Jesus. <sup>38</sup>A man in the crowd shouted to Jesus, "Teacher, please come and look at my son. He is the only child I have. <sup>39</sup>An evil spirit comes into my son, and then he shouts. He loses control of himself, and he foams at the mouth. The evil spirit keeps on hurting him and almost never leaves him. <sup>40</sup>I begged your followers to make the evil spirit leave my son, but they could not do it."

<sup>41</sup>Jesus answered, "You people who live now have no faith. Your lives are all wrong. How long must I be with you and be patient with you?" Then Jesus said to the man, "Bring your son here."

<sup>42</sup>While the boy was coming, the demon<sup>d</sup> threw him on the ground. The boy lost control of himself. But Jesus gave a strong command to the evil spirit. Then the boy was healed, and Jesus gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup>All the people were amazed at the great power of God.

Jesus Talks About His Death

The people were all wondering about the things Jesus did. But he said to his followers, <sup>44</sup>"Don't forget the things I tell you now: The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be handed over into the control of men." <sup>45</sup>But the followers did not understand what Jesus meant. The meaning was hidden from them so that they could not understand it. But they were afraid to ask Jesus about what he said.

Who Is Most Important?

<sup>46</sup>Jesus' followers began to have an argument about which one of them was the greatest. <sup>47</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he took a little child and stood the child beside him. <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said, "If anyone accepts a little child like this in my name, then he accepts me. And when he accepts me, he accepts the One who sent me. He who is least among you all—he is the greatest."

Anyone Not Against Us Is for Us

<sup>49</sup>John answered, "Master, we saw someone using your name to force demons<sup>d</sup> out of people. We told him to stop because he does not belong to our group."

<sup>50</sup>Jesus said to him, "Don't stop him. If a person is not against you, then he is for you."

A Town Rejects Jesus

<sup>51</sup>The time was coming near when Jesus would leave and be taken to heaven. He was determined to go to Jerusalem <sup>52</sup>and sent some men ahead of him. The men went into a town in Samaria to make everything ready for Jesus.

<sup>53</sup>But the people there would not welcome him because he was going toward Jerusalem.

<sup>54</sup>James and John, the followers of Jesus, saw this. They said, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven and destroy those people?"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>55</sup>But Jesus turned and scolded them.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>56</sup>Then he and his followers went to another town.

Following Jesus

<sup>57</sup>They were all going along the road. Someone said to Jesus, "I will follow you any place you go."

<sup>58</sup>Jesus answered, "The foxes have holes to live in. The birds have nests to live in. But the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> has no place to rest his head."

<sup>59</sup>Jesus said to another man, "Follow me!"

But the man said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

<sup>60</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Let the people who are dead bury their own dead! You must go and tell about the kingdom of God."

<sup>61</sup>Another man said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me go and say good-bye to my family."

<sup>62</sup>Jesus said, "Anyone who begins to plow a field but keeps looking back is of no use in the kingdom of God."

Jesus Sends the 72 Men

10 After this, the Lord chose 72<sup>n</sup> others. He sent them out in pairs. He sent them ahead of him into every town and place where he planned to go. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, "There are a great many people to harvest. But there are only a few workers to harvest them. God owns the harvest. Pray to God that he will send more workers to help gather his harvest. <sup>3</sup>You can go now. But listen! I am sending you, and you will be like sheep among wolves. <sup>4</sup>Don't carry a purse, a bag, or sandals. Don't stop to talk with people on the road. <sup>5</sup>Before you go into a house, say, 'Peace be with this house.' <sup>6</sup>If a peaceful man lives there, your blessing of peace will stay with him. If the man is not peaceful, then your blessing of peace will come back to you. <sup>7</sup>Stay in the peaceful house. Eat and drink what the people there give you. A worker should be given his pay. Don't move from house to house. <sup>8</sup>If you go into a town and the people welcome you, eat what they give you. <sup>9</sup>Heal the sick who live there. Tell them, 'The kingdom of God is soon coming to you!' <sup>10</sup>But if you go into a town, and the people don't welcome you, then go out into the streets of that town. Say to them, <sup>11</sup>'Even the dirt from your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you.' <sup>n</sup> But remember that the kingdom of God is coming soon.' <sup>12</sup>I tell you, on the Judgment Day it will be worse for the people of that town than for the people of Sodom."<sup>n</sup>

Jesus Warns Unbelievers

<sup>13</sup>'How terrible for you, Korazin! How terrible for you, Bethsaida! I did many miracles<sup>d</sup> in you. If those same miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon,<sup>n</sup> those people would have changed their lives and stopped sinning long ago. They would have worn rough cloth and put ashes on themselves to show that they had changed. <sup>14</sup>But on the Judgment Day it will be worse for you than for Tyre and Sidon. <sup>15</sup>And you, Capernaum,<sup>n</sup> will you be lifted up to heaven? No! You will be thrown down to the depths!

<sup>16</sup>'He who listens to you is really listening to me. He who refuses to accept you is really refusing to accept me. And he who refuses to accept me is refusing to accept the One who sent me."

Satan Falls

<sup>17</sup>When the 72<sup>n</sup> men came back from their trip, they were very happy. They said, "Lord, even the demons<sup>d</sup> obeyed us when we used your name!"

<sup>18</sup>Jesus said to the men, "I saw Satan falling like lightning from the sky. <sup>19</sup>Listen! I gave you power to walk on snakes and scorpions. I gave you more power than the Enemy has. Nothing will hurt you. <sup>20</sup>You should be happy, but not because the spirits obey you. You should be happy because your names are written in heaven."

Jesus Prays to the Father

said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the people who are wise and smart. But you have shown them to those who are like little children. Yes, Father, you did this because this is what you really wanted.

<sup>22</sup>"My Father has given me all things. No one knows the Son—only the Father knows. And only the Son knows the Father. The only people who will know about the Father are those whom the Son chooses to tell."

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus turned to his followers and said privately, "You are blessed to see what you now see! <sup>24</sup>I tell you, many prophets<sup>d</sup> and kings wanted to see what you now see. But they did not see these things. And many prophets and kings wanted to hear what you now hear. But they did not hear these things."

The Good Samaritan

<sup>25</sup>Then a teacher of the law stood up. He was trying to test Jesus. He said, "Teacher, what must I do to get life forever?"

<sup>26</sup>Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?"

<sup>27</sup>The man answered, "Love the Lord your God. Love him with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind."<sup>n</sup> Also, "You must love your neighbor as you love yourself."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>28</sup>Jesus said to him, "Your answer is right. Do this and you will have life forever."

<sup>29</sup>But the man wanted to show that the way he was living was right. So he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

<sup>30</sup>To answer this question, Jesus said, "A man was going down the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. Some robbers attacked him. They tore off his clothes and beat him. Then they left him lying there, almost dead. <sup>31</sup>It happened that a Jewish priest was going down that road. When the priest saw the man, he walked by on the other side of the road. <sup>32</sup>Next, a Levite<sup>n</sup> came there. He went over and looked at the man. Then he walked by on the other side of the road. <sup>33</sup>Then a Samaritan<sup>n</sup> traveling down the road came to where the hurt man was lying. He saw the man and felt very sorry for him. <sup>34</sup>The Samaritan went to him and poured olive oil and wine<sup>a</sup> on his wounds and banded them. He put the hurt man on his own donkey and took him to an inn. At the inn, the Samaritan took care of him. <sup>35</sup>The next day, the Samaritan brought out two silver coins<sup>b</sup> and gave them to the innkeeper. The Samaritan said, "Take care of this man. If you spend more money on him, I will pay it back to you when I come again."

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus said, "Which one of these three men do you think was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by the robbers?"

<sup>37</sup>The teacher of the law answered, "The one who helped him."

Jesus said to him, "Then go and do the same thing he did!"

Mary and Martha

<sup>38</sup>While Jesus and his followers were traveling, Jesus went into a town. A woman named Martha let Jesus stay at her house. <sup>39</sup>Martha had a sister named Mary. Mary was sitting at Jesus' feet and listening to him teach. <sup>40</sup>Martha became angry because she had so much work to do. She went in and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me alone to do all the work? Tell her to help me!"

Jesus Teaches About Prayer

11 One time Jesus was praying in a place. When he finished, one of his followers said to him, "John taught his followers how to pray. Lord, please teach us how to pray, too."

<sup>2</sup>Jesus said to them, "When you pray, say: 'Father, we pray that your name will always be kept holy.

We pray that your kingdom will come.

<sup>3</sup>Give us the food we need for each day.

<sup>4</sup>Forgive us the sins we have done, because we forgive every person who has done wrong to us.

And do not cause us to be tested.'"

Continue to Ask

<sup>5</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose one of you went to your friend's house at midnight and said to him, 'A friend of mine has come into town to visit me. But I have nothing for him to eat. Please loan me three loaves of bread.' <sup>7</sup>Your friend inside the house answers, 'Don't bother me! The door is already locked. My children and I are in bed. I cannot get up and give you the bread now.' <sup>8</sup>I tell you, maybe friendship is not enough to make him get up to give you the bread. But he will surely get up to give you what you need if you continue to ask. <sup>9</sup>So I tell you, continue to ask, and God will give to you. Continue to search, and you will find. Continue to knock, and the door will open for you. <sup>10</sup>Yes, if a person continues asking, he will receive. If he continues searching, he will find. And if he continues knocking, the door will open for him. <sup>11</sup>What would you fathers do if your son asks you for a fish? Would any of you give him a snake? <sup>12</sup>Or, if your son asks for an egg, would you give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup>Even though you are bad, you know how to give good things to your children. So surely your heavenly Father knows how to give the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> to those who ask him."

Jesus' Power Is from God

<sup>14</sup>One time Jesus was sending a demon<sup>d</sup> out of a man who could not talk. When the demon came out, the man was able to speak. The people were amazed. <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, "Jesus uses the power of Beelzebul<sup>d</sup> to force demons out of people. Beelzebul is the ruler of demons."

<sup>16</sup>Other people wanted to test Jesus. They asked him to give them a sign from heaven. <sup>17</sup>But Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, "Every kingdom that is divided and fights against itself will be destroyed. And a family that fights against itself will break apart. <sup>18</sup>So if Satan is fighting against himself, then how will his kingdom last? You say that I use the power of Beelzebul to force out demons. <sup>19</sup>But if I use the power of Beelzebul to force out demons, then by what power do your people force out demons? So your own people prove that you are wrong. <sup>20</sup>But if I use the power of God to force out demons, the kingdom of God has come to you!

<sup>21</sup>"When a strong man with many weapons guards his own house, then the things in his house are safe. <sup>22</sup>But suppose a stronger man comes and defeats him. The stronger man will take away the weapons that the first man trusted to keep his house safe. Then the stronger <sup>23</sup>"If anyone is not with me, he is against me. He who does not work with me is working against me.

The Empty Man

<sup>24</sup>"When an evil spirit comes out of a person, it travels through dry places, looking for a place to rest. But that spirit finds no place to rest. So it says, 'I will go back to the home I left.'

<sup>25</sup>When the spirit comes back to that person, it finds that home swept clean and made neat.

<sup>26</sup>Then the evil spirit goes out and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself. Then all the evil spirits go into that person and live there. And he has even more trouble than he had before."

People Who Are Truly Blessed

<sup>27</sup>When Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd spoke out. She said to Jesus, "Your mother is blessed because she gave birth to you and nursed you."

<sup>28</sup>But Jesus said, "Those who hear the teaching of God and obey it—they are the ones who are truly blessed."

Give Us Proof!

<sup>29</sup>As the crowd grew larger, Jesus said, "The people who live today are evil. They ask for a miracle<sup>d</sup> as a sign from God. But they will have no sign—only the sign of Jonah.<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>Jonah was a sign for those people who lived in Nineveh. In the same way the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will be a sign for the people of this time. <sup>31</sup>On the Judgment Day the Queen of the South<sup>a</sup> will stand up with the men who live now. She will show that they are guilty because she came from far away to listen to Solomon's wise teaching. And I tell you that someone greater than Solomon is here! <sup>32</sup>On the Judgment Day the men of Nineveh will stand up with the people who live now. And they will show that you are guilty, because when Jonah preached to those people, they changed their hearts and lives. And I tell you that someone greater than Jonah is here!

Be a Light for the World

<sup>33</sup>"No one takes a light and puts it under a bowl or hides it. Instead, he puts the light on a lampstand so that the people who come in can see. <sup>34</sup>Your eye is a light for the body. If your eyes are good, then your whole body will be full of light. But if your eyes are evil, then your whole body will be full of darkness. <sup>35</sup>So be careful! Don't let the light in you become darkness. <sup>36</sup>If your whole body is full of light, and none of it is dark, then you will shine bright, as when a lamp shines on you."

Jesus Accuses the Pharisees

<sup>37</sup>After Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee<sup>d</sup> asked Jesus to eat with him. So Jesus went in and sat at the table. <sup>38</sup>But the Pharisee was surprised when he saw that Jesus did not wash his hands<sup>a</sup> before the meal. <sup>39</sup>The Lord said to him, "You Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the dish. But inside you are full of greed and evil. <sup>40</sup>You are foolish. The same One who made what is outside also made what is inside. <sup>41</sup>So give what is in your cups and dishes to the poor. Then you will be fully clean. <sup>42</sup>But how terrible for you Pharisees! You give God one-tenth of even your mint, your rue, and every other plant in your garden. But you forget to be fair to other people and to love God. These are the things you should do. And you should also continue to do those other things—like giving one-tenth. <sup>43</sup>How terrible for you Pharisees, because you love to get the most important seats in the synagogues.<sup>d</sup> And you love people to show respect to you in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup>How terrible for you, because you are like hidden graves. People walk on them without knowing it."

Jesus Talks to Jewish Teachers

<sup>45</sup>One of the teachers of the law said to Jesus, "Teacher, when you say these things, you are insulting us, too."

<sup>46</sup>Jesus answered, "How terrible for you, you teachers of the law! You make strict rules that are very hard for people to obey. But you yourselves don't even try to follow those rules. <sup>47</sup>How terrible for you, because you build tombs for the prophets.<sup>d</sup> But these are the prophets that your fathers killed! <sup>48</sup>And now you show that you approve of what your fathers did. They killed the prophets, and you build tombs for the prophets! <sup>49</sup>This is why in his wisdom God said, 'I will send prophets and apostles<sup>d</sup> to them. Some of my prophets and apostles will be killed, and others will be treated cruelly.'<sup>50</sup> So you who live now will be punished for the deaths of all the prophets who were killed since the beginning of the world. <sup>51</sup>You will be punished for the killing of Abel and for the killing of Zechariah. <sup>52</sup>Zechariah was killed between the altar and the Temple. <sup>53</sup>Yes, I tell you that you people who live now will be punished for them all.

<sup>52</sup>“How terrible for you, you teachers of the law. You have hidden the key to learning about God. You yourselves would not learn, and you stopped others from learning, too.”

<sup>53</sup>When Jesus was leaving, the teachers of the law and the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> began to give him trouble, asking him questions about many things. <sup>54</sup>They were trying to catch Jesus saying something wrong.

Don't Be Like the Pharisees

12 Many thousands of people had gathered. There were so many people that they were stepping on each other. Before Jesus spoke to them, he said to his followers, “Be careful of the yeast of the Pharisees.<sup>d</sup> They are hypocrites.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Everything that is hidden will be shown. Everything that is secret will be made known. <sup>3</sup>The things you say in the dark will be told in the light. The things you have whispered in an inner room will be shouted from the top of the house.”

Fear Only God

<sup>4</sup>Then Jesus said to the people, “I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of people. People can kill the body, but after that they can do nothing more to hurt you. <sup>5</sup>I will show you the One to fear. You should fear him who has the power to kill you and also to throw you into hell. Yes, he is the One you should fear.

<sup>6</sup>“When five sparrows are sold, they cost only two pennies. But God does not forget any of them. <sup>7</sup>Yes, God even knows how many hairs you have on your head. Don't be afraid. You are worth much more than many sparrows.

Don't Be Ashamed of Jesus

<sup>8</sup>“I tell you, if anyone stands before others and says that he believes in me, then I will say that he belongs to me. I will say this before the angels of God. <sup>9</sup>But if anyone stands before others and says he does not believe in me, then I will say that he does not belong to me. I will say this before the angels of God.

<sup>10</sup>“If a person says something against the Son of Man,<sup>d</sup> he can be forgiven. But a person who says bad things against the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>“When men bring you into the synagogues<sup>d</sup> before the leaders and other important men, don't worry about how to defend yourself or what to say. <sup>12</sup>At that time the Holy Spirit will teach you what you must say.”

Jesus Warns Against Selfishness

<sup>13</sup>One of the men in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide with me the property our father left us.”

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Who said that I should be your judge or decide how to divide the property between you two?” <sup>15</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Be careful and guard against all kinds of greed. A man's life is not measured by the many things he owns.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Jesus used this story: “There was a rich man who had some land, which grew a good crop of food. <sup>17</sup>The rich man thought to himself, ‘What will I do? I have no place to keep all my crops.’ <sup>18</sup>Then he said, ‘I know what I will do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones! I will put all my grain and other goods together in my new barns. <sup>19</sup>Then I can say to myself, I have enough good things stored to last for many years. Rest, eat, drink, and enjoy life!’

<sup>20</sup>“But God said to that man, ‘Foolish man! Tonight you will die. So who will get those things you have prepared for yourself?’

<sup>21</sup>“This is how it will be for anyone who stores things up only for himself and is not rich toward God.”

Don't Worry

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to his followers, “So I tell you, don't worry about the food you need to live. Don't worry about the clothes you need for your body. <sup>23</sup>Life is more important than food. And the body is more important than clothes. <sup>24</sup>Look at the birds. They don't plant or harvest. They don't save food in houses or barns. But God takes care of them. And you are worth much more than birds. <sup>25</sup>None of you can add any time to your life by worrying about it. <sup>26</sup>If you cannot do even the little things, then why worry about the big things? <sup>27</sup>Look at the wild flowers. See how they grow. They don't work or make clothes for themselves. But I tell you that even Solomon, the great and rich king, was not dressed as beautifully as one of these flowers. <sup>28</sup>God clothes the grass in the field like that. That grass is living today, but tomorrow it will be thrown into the fire. So you know how much more God will clothe you. Don't have so little faith! <sup>29</sup>Don't always think about what you will eat or what you will drink. Don't worry about it. <sup>30</sup>All the people in the world are trying to get those things. Your Father knows that you need them. <sup>31</sup>The thing you should seek is God's kingdom. Then all the other things you need will be given to you.

Don't Trust in Money

<sup>32</sup>"Don't fear, little flock. Your Father wants to give you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup>Sell the things you have and give to the poor. Get for yourselves purses that don't wear out. Get the treasure in heaven that never runs out. Thieves can't steal it in heaven, and moths can't destroy it. <sup>34</sup>Your heart will be where your treasure is.

Always Be Ready

<sup>35</sup>"Be ready! Be dressed for service and have your lamps shining. <sup>36</sup>Be like servants who are waiting for their master to come home from a wedding party. The master comes and knocks. The servants immediately open the door for him. <sup>37</sup>Those servants will be blessed when their master comes home, because he sees that his servants are ready and waiting for him. I tell you the truth. The master will dress himself to serve and tell the servants to sit at the table. Then the master will serve them. <sup>38</sup>Those servants might have to wait until midnight or later for their master. But they will be happy when he comes in and finds them still waiting.

<sup>39</sup>Remember this: If the owner of the house knew what time a thief was coming, then the owner would not allow the thief to enter his house. <sup>40</sup>So you also must be ready! The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will come at a time when you don't expect him!"

Who Is the Trusted Servant?

<sup>41</sup>Peter said, "Lord, did you tell this story for us or for all people?"

<sup>42</sup>The Lord said, "Who is the wise and trusted servant? Who is the servant the master trusts to give the other servants their food at the right time? <sup>43</sup>When the master comes and finds his servant doing the work he gave him, that servant will be very happy. <sup>44</sup>I tell you the truth. The master will choose that servant to take care of everything the master owns. <sup>45</sup>But what will happen if the servant is evil and thinks that his master will not come back soon? That servant will begin to beat the other servants, men and women. He will eat and drink and get drunk. <sup>46</sup>Then the master will come when that servant is not ready. It will be a time when the servant is not expecting him. Then the master will cut him in pieces and send him away to be with the others who don't obey.

<sup>47</sup>"The servant who knows what his master wants but is not ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows! <sup>48</sup>But the servant who does not know what his master wants and does things that should be punished will be beaten with few blows. Everyone who has been given much will be responsible for much. Much more will be expected from the one who has been given more."

Jesus Causes Division

<sup>49</sup>Jesus continued speaking, "I came to set fire to the world. I wish it were already burning! <sup>50</sup>I must be baptized with a different kind of baptism. <sup>a</sup>I feel very troubled until it is over. <sup>51</sup>Do you think that I came to give peace to the world? No! I came to divide the world! <sup>52</sup>From now on, a family with five people will be divided, three against two, and two against three. <sup>53</sup>A father and son will be divided: The son will be against his father. The father will be against his son. A mother and her daughter will be divided: The daughter will be against her mother. The mother will be against her daughter. A mother-in-law and her daughter-in-law will be divided: The daughter-in-law will be against her mother-in-law. The mother-in-law will be against her daughter-in-law."

Understanding the Times

<sup>54</sup>Then Jesus said to the people, "When you see clouds coming up in the west, you say, 'It's going to rain.' And soon it begins to rain. <sup>55</sup>When you feel the wind begin to blow from the south, you say, 'It will be a hot day.' And you are right. <sup>56</sup>Hypocrites!<sup>d</sup> You can understand the weather. Why don't you understand what is happening now?"

Settle Your Problems

<sup>57</sup>"Why can't you decide for yourselves what is right? <sup>58</sup>When someone is suing you, and you are going with him to court, try hard to settle it on the way. If you don't settle it, he may take you to the judge. The judge might turn you over to the officer. And the officer might throw you into jail. <sup>59</sup>You will not get out of there until they have taken everything you have."

<sup>a</sup> . . . baptism. Jesus was talking about the suffering he would soon go through.

Change Your Hearts

13 At that time some people were there with Jesus. They told him about what had happened to some people from Galilee. Pilate<sup>a</sup> killed those people while they were worshipping. He mixed their blood with the blood of the animals they were sacrificing to God. <sup>2</sup>Jesus answered, “Do you think this happened to them because they were more sinful than all others from Galilee? <sup>3</sup>No, they were not! But if all of you don’t change your hearts and lives, then you will be destroyed as they were! <sup>4</sup>What about those 18 people who died when the tower of Siloam fell on them? Do you think they were more sinful than all the others who live in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>They were not! But I tell you, if you don’t change your hearts and lives, then you will all be destroyed too!”

The Useless Tree

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told this story: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard. He came looking for some fruit on the tree, but he found none. <sup>7</sup>So the man said to his servant who took care of his vineyard, ‘I have been looking for fruit on this tree for three years, but I never find any. Cut it down! Why should it waste the ground?’ <sup>8</sup>But the servant answered, ‘Master, let the tree have one more year to produce fruit. Let me dig up the dirt around it and put on some fertilizer. <sup>9</sup>Maybe the tree will produce fruit next year. If the tree still doesn’t produce fruit, then you can cut it down.’”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

<sup>10</sup>Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues<sup>d</sup> on the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. <sup>11</sup>In the synagogue there was a woman who had an evil spirit in her. This spirit had made the woman a cripple for 18 years. Her back was always bent; she could not stand up straight. <sup>12</sup>When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, your sickness has left you!” <sup>13</sup>Jesus put his hands on her. Immediately she was able to stand up straight and began praising God.

<sup>14</sup>The synagogue leader was angry because Jesus healed on the Sabbath day. He said to the people, “There are six days for work. So come to be healed on one of those days. Don’t come for healing on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>15</sup>The Lord answered, “You people are hypocrites!<sup>d</sup> All of you untie your work animals and lead them to drink water every day—even on the Sabbath day! <sup>16</sup>This woman that I healed is our Jewish sister. But Satan has held her for 18 years. Surely it is not wrong for her to be freed from her sickness on a Sabbath day!” <sup>17</sup>When Jesus said this, all the men who were criticizing him were ashamed. And all the people were happy for the wonderful things Jesus was doing.

Stories of Mustard Seed and Yeast

<sup>18</sup>Then Jesus said, “What is God’s kingdom like? What can I compare it with? <sup>19</sup>God’s kingdom is like the seed of the mustard plant. <sup>a</sup> A man plants this seed in his garden. The seed grows and becomes a tree. The wild birds build nests on its branches.”

<sup>20</sup>Jesus said again, “What can I compare God’s kingdom with? <sup>21</sup>It is like yeast that a woman mixes into a big bowl of flour. The yeast makes all the dough rise.”

The Narrow Door

<sup>22</sup>Jesus was teaching in every town and village as he traveled toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>Some one said to Jesus, “Lord, how many people will be saved? Only a few?”

Jesus said, <sup>24</sup>“Try hard to enter through the narrow door that opens the way to heaven! Many people will try to enter there, but they will not be able. <sup>25</sup>A man gets up and closes the door of his house. You can stand outside and knock on the door. You can say, ‘Sir, open the door for us!’ But he will answer, ‘I don’t know you! Where did you come from?’ <sup>26</sup>Then you will say, ‘We ate and drank with you. You taught in the streets of our town.’ <sup>27</sup>But he will say to you, ‘I don’t know you! Where did you come from? Go away from me! All of you do evil!’ <sup>28</sup>You will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets<sup>d</sup> in God’s kingdom. But you will be thrown outside. Then you will cry and grind your teeth with pain. <sup>29</sup>People will come from the east, west, north, and south. They will sit down at the table in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>Those who have the lowest place in life now will have the highest place in the future. And those who have the highest place now will have the lowest place in the future.”

Jesus Will Die in Jerusalem

<sup>31</sup>At that time some Pharisees<sup>d</sup> came to Jesus and said, “Go away from here! Herod wants to kill you!”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus said to them, “Go tell that fox Herod, ‘Today and tomorrow I am forcing demons<sup>d</sup> out of people and finishing my work of healing. Then, on the third day, I will reach my goal.'<sup>33</sup> Yet I must be on my way today and tomorrow and the next day. Surely it cannot be right for a prophet<sup>d</sup> to be killed anywhere except in Jerusalem.

<sup>34</sup> "Jerusalem, Jerusalem! You kill the prophets. You kill with stones those men that God has sent you. Many times I wanted to help your people. I wanted to gather them together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. But you did not let me. <sup>35</sup> Now your home will be left completely empty. I tell you, you will not see me again until that time when you will say, 'God bless the One who comes in the name of the Lord.'"<sup>a</sup>

Is It Right to Heal on the Sabbath?

14 On a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day, Jesus went to the home of a leading Pharisee<sup>d</sup> to eat with him. The people there were all watching Jesus very closely. <sup>2</sup> A man with dropsy<sup>a</sup> was brought before Jesus. <sup>3</sup> Jesus said to the Pharisees and teachers of the law, "Is it right or wrong to heal on the Sabbath day?" <sup>4</sup> But they would not answer his question. So Jesus took the man, healed him, and sent him away. <sup>5</sup> Jesus said to the Pharisees and teachers of the law, "If your son or ox falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not pull him out quickly?" <sup>6</sup> And they could not answer him.

Don't Make Yourself Important

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus noticed that some of the guests were choosing the best places to sit. So Jesus told this story: <sup>8</sup> "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, don't take the most important seat. The host may have invited someone more important than you. <sup>9</sup> And if you are sitting in the most important seat, the host will come to you and say, 'Give this man your seat.' Then you will begin to move down to the last place. And you will be very embarrassed. <sup>10</sup> So when you are invited, go sit in a seat that is not important. Then the host will come to you and say, 'Friend, move up here to a more important place!' Then all the other guests will respect you. <sup>11</sup> Everyone who makes himself great will be made humble. But the person who makes himself humble will be made great."

You Will Be Rewarded

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus said to the man who had invited him, "When you give a lunch or a dinner, don't invite only your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. At another time they will invite you to eat with them. Then you will have your reward. <sup>13</sup> Instead, when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind. <sup>14</sup> Then you will be blessed, because they cannot pay you back. They have nothing. But you will be rewarded when the good people rise from death."

A Story About a Big Banquet

<sup>15</sup> One of the men sitting at the table with Jesus heard these things. The man said to Jesus, "The people who will eat a meal in God's kingdom are blessed."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to him, "A man gave a big banquet and invited many people. <sup>17</sup> When it was time to eat, the man sent his servant to tell the guests, 'Come! Everything is ready!'

<sup>18</sup> "But all the guests said they could not come. Each man made an excuse. The first one said, 'I have just bought a field, and I must go look at it. Please excuse me.' <sup>19</sup> Another man said, 'I have just bought five pairs of oxen; I must go and try them. Please excuse me.' <sup>20</sup> A third man said, 'I just got married; I can't come.' <sup>21</sup> So the servant returned. He told his master what had happened. Then the master became angry and said, 'Go at once into the streets and alleys of the town. Bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.' <sup>22</sup> Later the servant said to him, 'Master, I did what you told me to do, but we still have places for more people.' <sup>23</sup> The master said to the servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes. Tell the people there to come. I want my house to be full! <sup>24</sup> None of those men that I invited first will ever eat with me!'"

You Must First Plan

<sup>25</sup> Large crowds were traveling with Jesus. He turned and said to them, <sup>26</sup> "If anyone comes to me but loves his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, or sisters more than he loves me, then he cannot be my follower. A person must love me more than he loves himself! <sup>27</sup> If anyone is not willing to die on a cross when he follows me, then he cannot be my follower. <sup>28</sup> If you wanted to build a tower, you would first sit down and decide how much it would cost. You must see if you have enough money to finish the job. <sup>29</sup> If you don't do that, you might begin the work, but you would not be able to finish. And if you could not finish it, then all who would see it would laugh at you.

<sup>d</sup>dropsy A sickness that causes the body to swell larger and larger.

<sup>30</sup>They would say, 'This man began to build but was not able to finish!'

<sup>31</sup>'If a king is going to fight against another king, first he will sit down and plan. If the king has only 10,000 men, he will plan to see if he is able to defeat the other king who has 20,000 men. <sup>32</sup>If he cannot defeat the other king, then he will send some men to speak to the other king and ask for peace. <sup>33</sup>In the same way, you must give up everything you have to follow me. If you don't, you cannot be my follower!

Don't Lose Your Influence

<sup>34</sup>'Salt is a good thing. But if the salt loses its salty taste, then it is worth nothing. You cannot make it salty again. <sup>35</sup>It is no good for the soil or for manure. People throw it away.

'You people who hear me, listen!'

A Lost Sheep and a Lost Coin

15 Many tax collectors and "sinners" came to listen to Jesus. <sup>2</sup>The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> and the teachers of the law began to complain: "Look! This man welcomes sinners and even eats with them!"

<sup>3</sup>Then Jesus told them this story: <sup>4</sup>"Suppose one of you has 100 sheep, but he loses 1 of them. Then he will leave the other 99 sheep alone and go out and look for the lost sheep. The man will keep on searching for the lost sheep until he finds it. <sup>5</sup>And when he finds it, the man is very happy. He puts it on his shoulders <sup>6</sup>and goes home. He calls to his friends and neighbors and says, 'Be happy with me because I found my lost sheep!' <sup>7</sup>In the same way, I tell you there is much joy in heaven when 1 sinner changes his heart. There is more joy for that 1 sinner than there is for 99 good people who don't need to change.

<sup>8</sup>"Suppose a woman has ten silver coins,<sup>n</sup> but she loses one of them. She will light a lamp and clean the house. She will look carefully for the coin until she finds it. <sup>9</sup>And when she finds it, she will call her friends and neighbors and say, 'Be happy with me because I have found the coin that I lost!' <sup>10</sup>In the same way, there is joy before the angels of God when 1 sinner changes his heart."

The Son Who Left Home

<sup>11</sup>Then Jesus said, "A man had two sons. <sup>12</sup>The younger son said to his father, 'Give me my share of the property.' So the father divided the property between his two sons. <sup>13</sup>Then the younger son gathered up all that was his and left. He traveled far away to another country. There he wasted his money in foolish living. <sup>14</sup>He spent everything that he had. Soon after that, the land became very dry, and there was no rain. There was not enough food to eat anywhere in the country. The son was hungry and needed money. <sup>15</sup>So he got a job with one of the citizens there. The man sent the son into the fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup>The son was so hungry that he was willing to eat the food the pigs were eating. But no one gave him anything. <sup>17</sup>The son realized that he had been very foolish. He thought, 'All of my father's servants have plenty of food. But I am here, almost dying with hunger. [I] will leave and return to my father. I'll say to him: Father, I have sinned against God and have done wrong to you. <sup>19</sup>I am not good enough to be called your son. But let me be like one of your servants.' <sup>20</sup>So the son left and went to his father.

"While the son was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. He felt sorry for his son. So the father ran to him, and hugged and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>The son said, 'Father, I have sinned against God and have done wrong to you. I am not good enough to be called your son.' <sup>22</sup>But the father said to his servants, 'Hurry! Bring the best clothes and put them on him. Also, put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. <sup>23</sup>And get our fat calf and kill it. Then we can have a feast and celebrate! <sup>24</sup>My son was dead, but now he is alive again! He was lost, but now he is found!' So they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup>"The older son was in the field. As he came closer to the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. <sup>26</sup>So he called to one of the servants and asked, 'What does all this mean?' <sup>27</sup>The servant said, 'Your brother has come back. Your father killed the fat calf to eat because your brother came home safely!' <sup>28</sup>The older son was angry and would not go in to the feast. So his father went out and begged him to come in. <sup>29</sup>The son said to his father, 'I have served you like a slave for many years! I have always obeyed your commands. But you never even killed a young goat for me to have a feast with my friends. <sup>30</sup>But your other son has wasted all your money on prostitutes.<sup>d</sup> Then he comes home, and you kill the fat calf for him!' <sup>31</sup>The father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me. All that I have is yours. <sup>32</sup>We had to celebrate and be happy because your brother was dead, but now he is alive. He was lost, but now he is found.' "

True Wealth

16 Jesus also said to his followers, "Once there was a rich man. He had a manager to take care of his business. Later, the rich man learned that his manager was cheating him. <sup>2</sup>So he called the manager in and said to him, 'I have heard bad things about you. Give me a report of what you have done with my money. You can't be my manager any longer!' <sup>3</sup>Later, the manager thought to himself, 'What will I do? My master is taking my job away from me! I am not strong enough to dig ditches. I am too proud to beg. <sup>4</sup>I know! I'll do something so that when I lose my job, people will welcome me into their homes.'

<sup>5</sup>"So the manager called in everyone who owed the master any money. He said to the first man, 'How much do you owe my master?' <sup>6</sup>The man answered, 'I owe him 800 gallons of olive oil.' The manager said to him, 'Here is your bill; sit down quickly and make the bill less. Write 400 gallons.' <sup>7</sup>Then the manager said to another man, 'How much do you owe my master?' The man answered, 'I owe him 1,000 bushels of wheat.' Then the manager said to him, 'Here is your bill; you can make it less. Write 800 bushels.' <sup>8</sup>Later, the master praised the dishonest manager for being smart. Yes, worldly people are smarter with their own kind than spiritual people are.

<sup>9</sup>"I tell you, make friends for yourselves using worldly riches. Then, when those things are gone, you will be welcomed in that home that continues forever. <sup>10</sup>Whoever can be trusted with small things can also be trusted with large things. Whoever is dishonest in little things will be dishonest in large things too. <sup>11</sup>If you cannot be trusted with worldly riches, then you will not be trusted with the true riches. <sup>12</sup>And if you cannot be trusted with the things that belong to someone else, then you will not be given things of your own.

<sup>13</sup>"No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one master and love the other. Or he will follow one master and refuse to follow the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

God's Law Cannot Be Changed

<sup>14</sup>The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> were listening to all these things. They made fun of Jesus because they all loved money. <sup>15</sup>Jesus said to them, "You make yourselves look good in front of people. But God knows what is really in your hearts. The things that are important to people are worth nothing to God.

<sup>16</sup>"God wanted the people to live by the law of Moses and the writings of the prophets.<sup>d</sup> But ever since John<sup>a</sup> came, the Good News<sup>d</sup> about the kingdom of God is being told. Now everyone is trying hard to get into the kingdom. <sup>17</sup>Even the smallest part of a letter in the law cannot be changed. It would be easier for heaven and earth to pass away.

Divorce and Remarriage

<sup>18</sup>"If a man divorces his wife and marries another woman, he is guilty of adultery.<sup>d</sup> And the man who marries a divorced woman is also guilty of adultery."

The Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said, "There was a rich man who always dressed in the finest clothes. He lived in luxury every day. <sup>20</sup>There was also a very poor man named Lazarus, whose body was covered with sores. Lazarus was often placed at the rich man's gate. <sup>21</sup>He wanted to eat only the small pieces of food that fell from the rich man's table. And the dogs would come and lick his sores! <sup>22</sup>Later, Lazarus died. The angels took Lazarus and placed him in the arms of Abraham.<sup>d</sup> The rich man died, too, and was buried. <sup>23</sup>But he was sent to where the dead are and had much pain. The rich man saw Abraham far away with Lazarus in his arms. <sup>24</sup>He called, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me! Send Lazarus to me so that he can dip his finger in water and cool my tongue. I am suffering in this fire!' <sup>25</sup>But Abraham said, 'My child, remember when you lived? You had all the good things in life, but all the bad things happened to Lazarus. Now Lazarus is comforted here, and you are suffering. <sup>26</sup>Also, there is a big pit between you and us. No one can cross over to help you. And no one can leave there and come here.' <sup>27</sup>The rich man said, 'Then please send Lazarus to my father's house on earth!' <sup>28</sup>I have five brothers. Lazarus could warn my brothers so that they will not come to this place of pain.' <sup>29</sup>But Abraham said, 'They have the law of Moses and the writings of the prophets<sup>d</sup> to read; let them learn from them!' <sup>30</sup>The rich man said, 'No, father Abraham! If someone came to them from the dead, they would believe and change their hearts and lives.' <sup>31</sup>But Abraham said to him, 'No! If your brothers won't listen to Moses and the prophets, then they won't listen to someone who comes back from death.'"

Sin and Forgiveness

17 Jesus said to his followers, "Things will surely happen that cause people to sin. But how terrible for the one who causes them to happen. <sup>2</sup>It would be better for him to be thrown into the sea with a large stone around his neck than to cause one of these weak people to sin. <sup>3</sup>So be careful!

"If your brother sins, tell him he is wrong. But if he is sorry and stops sinning, forgive him. <sup>4</sup>If your brother sins against you seven times in one day, but he says that he is sorry each time, then forgive him."

How Big Is Your Faith?

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said, "If your faith is as big as a mustard seed,<sup>n</sup> then you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Dig yourself up and plant yourself in the sea!' And the tree will obey you.

Be Good Servants

<sup>7</sup>"Suppose one of you has a servant who has been plowing the ground or caring for the sheep. When the servant comes in from working in the field, would you say, 'Come in and sit down to eat'? <sup>8</sup>No, you would say to your servant, 'Prepare something for me to eat. Then get yourself ready and serve me. When I finish eating and drinking, then you can eat.' <sup>9</sup>The servant does not get any special thanks for doing what his master told him to do. <sup>10</sup>It is the same with you. When you do everything you are told to do, you should say, 'We don't deserve any special thanks. We have only done the work we should do.'"

Be Thankful

<sup>11</sup>Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. Traveling from Galilee to Samaria, <sup>12</sup>he came into a small town. Ten men met him there. These men did not come close to Jesus, because they all had a harmful skin disease. <sup>13</sup>But they called to him, "Jesus! Master! Please help us!"

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus saw the men, he said, "Go and show yourselves to the priests."<sup>n</sup>

While the ten men were going, they were healed. <sup>15</sup>When one of them saw that he was healed, he went back to Jesus. He praised God in a loud voice. <sup>16</sup>Then he bowed down at Jesus' feet and thanked him. (This man was a Samaritan.)<sup>d</sup> <sup>17</sup>Jesus asked, "Ten men were healed; where are the other nine? <sup>18</sup>Is this Samaritan the only one who came back to thank God?" <sup>19</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "Stand up and go on your way. You were healed because you believed."

God's Kingdom Is Within You

<sup>20</sup>Some of the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> asked Jesus, "When will the kingdom of God come?"

Jesus answered, "God's kingdom is coming, but not in a way that you will be able to see with your eyes. <sup>21</sup>People will not say, 'Look, God's kingdom is here!' or, 'There it is!' No, God's kingdom is within you."

<sup>22</sup>Then Jesus said to his followers, "The time will come when you will want very much to see one of the days of the Son of Man.<sup>d</sup> But you will not be able to see it. <sup>23</sup>People will say to you, 'Look, there he is!' or, 'Look, here he is!' Stay where you are; don't go away and search.

When Jesus Comes Again

<sup>24</sup>"The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will come again. On the day he comes he will shine like lightning, which flashes across the sky and lights it up from one side to the other. <sup>25</sup>But first, the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the people of this time. <sup>26</sup>When the Son of Man comes again, it will be as it was when Noah lived. <sup>27</sup>In the time of Noah, people were eating, drinking, and getting married even on the day when Noah entered the boat. Then the flood came and killed all the people. <sup>28</sup>It will be the same as during the time of Lot. Those people were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, and building. <sup>29</sup>They were doing these things even on the day Lot left Sodom.<sup>n</sup> Then fire and sulfur rained down from the sky and killed them all. <sup>30</sup>This is exactly how it will be when the Son of Man comes again.

<sup>31</sup>"On that day, if a man is on his roof, he will not have time to go inside and get his things. If a man is in the field, he cannot go back home. <sup>32</sup>Remember what happened to Lot's wife?<sup>n</sup> <sup>33</sup>Whoever tries to keep his life will give up true life. But whoever gives up his life will have true life. <sup>34</sup>At the time when I come again, there may be two people sleeping in one bed. One will be taken and the other will be left. <sup>35</sup>There may be two women grinding grain together. One will be taken and the other will be left.” <sup>36</sup> n

<sup>37</sup>The followers asked Jesus, “Where will this be, Lord?”

Jesus answered, “People can always find a dead body by looking for the vultures.”

God Will Answer His People

18 Then Jesus used this story to teach his followers that they should always pray and never lose hope. <sup>24</sup>“Once there was a judge in a town. He did not care about God. He also did not care what people thought about him. <sup>31</sup>In that same town there was a widow who kept coming to this judge. She said, ‘There is a man who is not being fair to me. Give me my rights!’ <sup>4</sup>But the judge did not want to help the widow. After a long time, he thought to himself, ‘I don’t care about God. And I don’t care about what people think. <sup>5</sup>But this widow is bothering me. I will see that she gets her rights, or she will bother me until I am worn out!’”

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said, “Listen to what the bad judge said. <sup>7</sup>God’s people cry to him night and day. God will always give them what is right, and he will not be slow to answer them. <sup>8</sup>I tell you, God will help his people quickly! But when the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> comes again, will he find those on earth who believe in him?”

Being Right with God

<sup>9</sup>There were some people who thought that they were very good and looked down on everyone else. Jesus used this story to teach them: <sup>10</sup>“One day there was a Pharisee<sup>d</sup> and a tax collector. Both went to the Temple<sup>d</sup> to pray. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood alone, away from the tax collector. When the Pharisee prayed, he said, ‘God, I thank you that I am not as bad as other people. I am not like men who steal, cheat, or take part in adultery.’<sup>d</sup> I thank you that I am better than this tax collector. <sup>12</sup>I give up eating<sup>a</sup> twice a week, and I give one-tenth of everything I earn!”

<sup>13</sup>“The tax collector stood at a distance. When he prayed, he would not even look up to heaven. He beat on his chest because he was so sad. He said, ‘God, have mercy on me. I am a sinner!’ <sup>14</sup>I tell you, when this man went home, he was right with God. But the Pharisee was not right with God. Everyone who makes himself great will be made humble. But everyone who makes himself humble will be made great.”

Who Will Enter God’s Kingdom?

<sup>15</sup>Some people brought their small children to Jesus so that he could touch them. When the followers saw this, they told the people not to do this. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus called the little children to him and said to his followers, “Let the little children come to me. Don’t stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to people who are like these little children. <sup>17</sup>I tell you the truth. You must accept God’s kingdom like a little child, or you will never enter it!”

A Rich Man’s Question

<sup>18</sup>A Jewish leader asked Jesus, “Good Teacher, what must I do to get the life that continues forever?”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? Only God is good. <sup>20</sup>You know the commands: ‘You must not be guilty of adultery.’<sup>d</sup> You must not murder anyone. You must not steal. You must not tell lies about your neighbor in court. Honor your father and mother.’”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>21</sup>But the leader said, “I have obeyed all these commands since I was a boy!”

<sup>22</sup>When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “But there is still one more thing you need to do. Sell everything you have and give the money to the poor. You will have a reward in heaven. Then come and follow me!” <sup>23</sup>But when the man heard this, he became very sad because he was very rich.

<sup>24</sup>When Jesus saw that the man was sad, he said, “It will be very hard for rich people to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>It would be easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God!”

Who Can Be Saved?

<sup>26</sup>When the people heard this, they asked, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>27</sup>Jesus answered, “God can do things that are not possible for men to do!”

<sup>28</sup>Peter said, “Look, we left everything we had and followed you!”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus said, “I tell you the truth. Everyone who has left his house, wife, brothers, parents, <sup>d</sup>give up eating This is called “fasting.” The people would give up eating for a special time of prayer and worship to God. It was also done to show sadness.

or children for God's kingdom <sup>30</sup>will get much more than he left. He will receive many times more in this life. And after he dies, he will live with God forever."

Jesus Will Rise from Death

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus talked to the 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> alone. He said to them, "Listen! We are going to Jerusalem. Everything that God told the prophets<sup>d</sup> to write about the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will happen! <sup>32</sup>He will be turned over to the non-Jewish people. They will laugh at him, insult him, and spit on him. <sup>33</sup>They will beat him with whips and then kill him. But on the third day after his death, he will rise to life again." <sup>34</sup>The apostles tried to understand this, but they could not; the meaning was hidden from them.

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

<sup>35</sup>Jesus was coming near the city of Jericho. There was a blind man sitting beside the road, begging for money. <sup>36</sup>When he heard the people coming down the road, he asked, "What is happening?"

<sup>39</sup>The people who were in front, leading the group, told the blind man to be quiet. But the blind man shouted more and more, "Son of David, please help me!"

<sup>40</sup>Jesus stopped and said, "Bring the blind man to me!" When he came near, Jesus asked him, <sup>41</sup>"What do you want me to do for you?"

He said, "Lord, I want to see again."

<sup>42</sup>Jesus said to him, "Then see! You are healed because you believed."

<sup>43</sup>At once the man was able to see, and he followed Jesus, thanking God. All the people who saw this praised God.

Zacchaeus Meets Jesus

19 Jesus was going through the city of Jericho. <sup>2</sup>In Jericho there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a wealthy, very important tax collector. <sup>3</sup>He wanted to see who Jesus was, but he was too short to see above the crowd. <sup>4</sup>He ran ahead to a place where he knew Jesus would come. He climbed a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus. <sup>5</sup>When Jesus came to that place, he looked up and saw Zacchaeus in the tree. He said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down! I must stay at your house today."

<sup>6</sup>Zacchaeus came down quickly. He was pleased to have Jesus in his house. <sup>7</sup>All the people saw this and began to complain, "Look at the kind of man Jesus stays with. Zacchaeus is a sinner!"

<sup>8</sup>But Zacchaeus said to the Lord, "I will give half of my money to the poor. If I have cheated anyone, I will pay that person back four times more!"

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said, "Salvation has come to this house today. This man truly belongs to the family of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> came to find lost people and save them."

A Story About Three Servants

<sup>11</sup>Jesus traveled closer to Jerusalem. Some of the people thought that God's kingdom would appear soon. <sup>12</sup>Jesus knew that the people thought this, so he told them this story: "A very important man was preparing to go to a country far away to be made a king. Then he planned to return home and rule his people. <sup>13</sup>So the man called ten of his servants together. He gave a bag of money<sup>a</sup> to each servant. He said, 'Do business with this money till I get back.' <sup>14</sup>But the people in the kingdom hated the man. So they sent a group to follow him and say, 'We don't want this man to be our king!'"

<sup>15</sup>"But the man became king. When he came home, he said, 'Call those servants who have my money. I want to know how much they earned with it.'

<sup>16</sup>"The first servant came and said, 'Sir, I earned ten bags of money with the one bag you gave me!' <sup>17</sup>The king said to the servant, 'Fine! You are a good servant. I see that I can trust you with small things. So now I will let you rule over ten of my cities.'

<sup>18</sup>"The second servant said, 'Sir, with your one bag of money I earned five bags!' <sup>19</sup>The king said to this servant, 'You can rule over five cities.'

<sup>20</sup>"Then another servant came in. The servant said to the king, 'Sir, here is your bag of money. I wrapped it in a piece of cloth and hid it. <sup>21</sup>I was afraid of you because you are a hard man. You even take money that you didn't earn and gather food that you didn't plant.' <sup>22</sup>Then the king said to the servant, 'You evil servant! I will use your own words to condemn you. You said that I am a hard man. You said that I even take money that I didn't earn and gather food that I didn't plant. <sup>23</sup>If that is true, then you should have put my money in the bank. Then, when I came back, my money would have earned some interest.'

<sup>a</sup>bag of money One bag of money was a Greek "mina." One mina was enough money to pay a person for working three months.

<sup>24</sup>"Then the king said to the men who were watching, 'Take the bag of money away from this servant and give it to the servant who earned ten bags of money.' <sup>25</sup>They said to the king, 'But sir, that servant already has ten bags of money!' <sup>26</sup>The king said, 'The one who uses what he has will get more. But the one who does not use what he has will have everything taken away from him. <sup>27</sup>Now where are my enemies who didn't want me to be king? Bring them here and kill them before me.'"

Jesus Enters Jerusalem as a King

<sup>28</sup>After Jesus said this, he went on toward Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup>Jesus came near Bethphage and Bethany, towns near the hill called the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup> Then he sent out two of his followers. <sup>30</sup>He said, "Go into the town you can see there. When you enter it, you will find a colt tied there. No one has ever ridden this colt. Untie it, and bring it here to me. <sup>31</sup>If anyone asks you why you are taking it, say, 'The Master needs it.'"

<sup>32</sup>The two followers went into town. They found the colt just as Jesus told them. <sup>33</sup>The followers untied it, but the owners of the colt came out. They asked the followers, "Why are you untying our colt?"

<sup>34</sup>The followers answered, "The Master needs it." <sup>35</sup>So they brought it to Jesus. They threw their coats on the colt's back and put Jesus on it. <sup>36</sup>As Jesus rode toward Jerusalem, the followers spread their coats on the road before him.

<sup>37</sup>Jesus was coming close to Jerusalem. He was already near the bottom of the Mount of Olives. The whole crowd of followers was very happy. They began shouting praise to God for all the powerful works they had seen. They said, <sup>38</sup>"God bless the king who comes in the name of the Lord!

There is peace in heaven and glory to God!"

Psalm 118:20

<sup>39</sup>Some of the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell your followers not to say these things!"

<sup>40</sup>But Jesus answered, "I tell you, if my followers don't say these things, then the stones will cry out."

Jesus Cries for Jerusalem

<sup>41</sup>As Jesus came near Jerusalem, he saw the city and began to cry for it. <sup>42</sup>Jesus said to Jerusalem, "I wish you knew today what would bring you peace! But you can't know it, because it is hidden from you. <sup>43</sup>A time is coming when your enemies will build a wall around you and will hold you in on all sides. <sup>44</sup>They will destroy you and all your people. Not one stone of your buildings will be left on another. All this will happen because you did not know the time when God came to save you."

Jesus Goes to the Temple

<sup>45</sup>Jesus went into the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He began to throw out the people who were selling things there. <sup>46</sup>He said, "It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> 'My Temple will be a house where people will pray.'"<sup>n</sup> But you have changed it into a 'hideout for robbers!'"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>47</sup>Jesus taught in the Temple every day. The leading priests, the teachers of the law, and some of the leaders of the people wanted to kill Jesus. <sup>48</sup>But all the people were listening closely to him and were interested in all the things he said. So the leading priests, the teachers of the law, and the leaders did not know how they could kill him.

Jewish Leaders Question Jesus

20 One day Jesus was in the Temple,<sup>d</sup> teaching the people and telling them the Good News.<sup>d</sup> The leading priests, teachers of the law, and older Jewish leaders came up to talk with him. <sup>2</sup>They said, "Tell us! What authority do you have to do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, "I will ask you a question too. Tell me: <sup>4</sup>When John baptized people, did that come from God or from man?"

<sup>5</sup>The priests, the teachers of the law, and the Jewish leaders all talked about this. They said to each other, "If we answer, 'John's baptism was from God,' then Jesus will say, 'Then why did you not believe John?' <sup>6</sup>But if we say, 'John's baptism was from man,' then all the people will kill us with stones because they believe that John was a prophet."<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>So they answered, "We don't know the answer."

<sup>8</sup>So Jesus said to them, "Then I will not tell you by what authority I do these things!"

A Story About God's Son
